D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1963 1 We know for a fact buyers and sellers of golf courses 2 do not utilize the cost approach for various reasons, so it's 3 very fair to limit that approach and in this case we eliminated 4 the cost approach. 5 MR. GABER: Thank you. 6 Q So going back to the top of this document. I think as 7 we discussed this is an e-mail to Bingham McCutchen delivering 8 this draft appraisal in April of 2014. 9 Can you tell me what happened after you delivered this 10 draft appraisal? 11 A To the best of my knowledge things went rather silent. 12 I don't believe there was much communication beyond. 13 Q Did you ever issue a final appraisal report? 14 A No, we did not. We did not issue a final. 15 Q One more question about cost approach. 16 A Sure. 17 Q Would you say that's synonymous with a fixed cost 18 approach? 19 A I'm not familiar with that exact -- it's appraisal 20 terminology. 21 Q It's not appraisal terminology? 22 A Not really, no. 23 Q That's fine. 24 So if I could now draw your attention to Plaintiff's 25 Exhibit 132, and please take a look at this document and tell me	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1965 1 Is that similar to the previous engagement's scope? 2 A Yes. I think all the engagements were headed towards 3 this direction. They were contemplating this conservation 4 easement donation and this is one of the final requests. 5 MR. GABER: If we turn to page two of this 6 document. And maybe we can put that up side by side with 7 page seven of Plaintiff's 158. 8 Q I just want to ask you towards the bottom of the 9 paragraph beginning with "client intends," it appears that there 10 is some difference in the scope of work here, but I was hoping 11 that you could read these two scopes of work and explain to me 12 what, if anything, is different between the Eric Trump 13 engagement and the Bingham McCutchen engagement? 14 A Which is the Eric Trump engagement? Is it the one on 15 the left? 16 Q Yes. 17 A Okay. Well, clearly, the language is slightly 18 different. I do know that with Eric Trump's engagement, the one 19 on the left, we were getting much closer to the donation. Sheri 20 Dillon was involved with some guidance on the nuances and 21 content that the IRS would be looking for and I knew -- I know 22 he did spend some time on real specific language that needed to 23 be in these documents for it to comply to the IRS's regulations, 24 so. 25 Q So the document on the left, which is the later
D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1964 1 if you recognize it. 2 A Yes, I am familiar with it. 3 Q Can you tell me what this document is? 4 A Excuse? 5 Q Can you tell me what this document is? 6 A This is another letter of engagement between Cushman & 7 Wakefield's Valuation Group and in this case Eric Trump and the 8 Trump Briarcliff Manor Development LLC as client. 9 MR. GABER: I'd like to move this document into 10 evidence. 11 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 12 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in. 13 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 14 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 132 in 15 evidence.) 16 Q You mentioned that this is with Eric Trump as client. 17 So in this case Mr. Eric Trump was your client for this 18 engagement? 19 A That is correct. 20 Q But the engagement relates to the same property that we 21 were just discussing in the last April engagement? 22 A That is correct. 23 Q And the intended use here under the engagement letter, 24 it says "to document the value of a conservation easement placed 25 on a parcel of land for federal and state income tax purposes."	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1966 1 engagement with Eric Trump, it says, "The appraisal will also 2 determine the enhancement, if any, to the value of any other 3 property owned by the client," dot, dot, dot, "specifically" and 4 it lists the golf club and the town home. 5 Is this different than the prior engagement which said 6 that it would determine the value of any other property? So on 7 one hand determine the enhancement to the value versus determine 8 the value? 9 A Yes, that's a great point, and that did come up through 10 our work with the two clients. There was some confusion over 11 whether or not the golf course and town homes had to be valued 12 individually or whether it was a matter of just defining any 13 impact on value, up or down. I. 14 Think at the end of the day, if my memory serves me, we 15 concluded that we did not have to specifically value the country 16 club or the townhouse for the final submission, so you make a 17 great point. I think that's what they were driving towards 18 there. 19 Q Can you turn towards page six of the Ladder engagement 20 letter? That signature there, do you recognize that signature? 21 Who signed it? 22 A Eric Trump. 23 Q Thank you. 24 I'm going to hand you, Mr. McArdle, Plaintiff's 25 Exhibit 3217, and ask you to familiarize yourself with it and

D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1967 1 tell me if you recognize the document. 2 A I do recognize the document. 3 Q Can you tell me what it is? 4 A This is a document pertaining to the same topic. It is 5 an appraisal of the conservation easement, 71 units and this 6 references to the adjacent properties we've been discussing, the 7 golf course and the town home. 8 MR. GABER: I'd ask that this be moved into 9 evidence. 10 MR. FIELDS: To preserve the record, same here 11 standing statute of limitations objection. 12 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence. 13 MR. GABER: Thank you. 14 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 15 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3217 in 16 evidence.) 17 Q Mr. McArdle, on page five of this document where your 18 signature would be, it says "draft" there. Is this a draft 19 appraisal? 20 A Yes, it is. 21 Q Do you know if a final appraisal report was ever issued 22 under this engagement? 23 A I don't believe it was ever issued. 24 MR. GABER: Can we go to page four of this 25 document?	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1969 1 develop an opinion of market value. More specifically, we 2 utilized the income capitalization approach and the sales 3 comparison approach in connection with the before and after 4 method for the conservation easement valuation." 5 We looked at similar language I believe in the prior 6 appraisal report. Is this expressing a similar -- or can you 7 tell me your understanding of this language in this appraisal 8 report? 9 A This part of the scope remains the same for the same 10 reason I previously reported. Full-blown cost approach would 11 not be appropriate here, so it was merely carried into this 12 document as it was in the other for the same exact reason. 13 Buyers and sellers, you know, would not be looking at a 14 traditional cost approach for these assets. 15 Q So despite the fact that you're not -- the difference 16 in the presentation of the value conclusion we just discussed 17 between the two letters or two appraisal reports, one of them 18 valuing the townhouse and the golf club; the other one valuing 19 the change in value to the townhouse and golf club. So in this 20 case were you valuing the change in value to the townhouse and 21 golf club. Are you still -- are you still looking at the value 22 of those using the income capitalization and sales approach? 23 A Yes, I'm still maintaining those same approaches. 24 Q So the same -- is it fair to say that the same analysis 25 is done in both despite the change in the scope of work language
D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1968 1 Q So here under "market value of conservation easement" 2 it says $43,300,000. I believe that's the same value that you 3 placed on the conservation -- for the conservation easement in 4 the prior appraisal draft; is that correct? 5 A That's correct. 6 Q Okay. But then going up here, the table -- I think 7 it's called the final value of reconciliation is slightly 8 different than the previous engagement. Is that due to the 9 difference in the scope of work we discussed? 10 A That's exactly right. The presentation -- I mean, as 11 they went through this process they were trying to conform to 12 the rigorous standards of the IRS in understanding exactly the 13 content that was required. Sheri Dillon determined that once 14 again we did not have to define the values of the golf club 15 townhouse. It would merely be a presentation where whether or 16 not the -- whether or not they gained value or lost value. So 17 there is no impact to those assets and that's why they were 18 zeroed out. 19 Q Can we go to page 16, please? So the second to last 20 paragraph on this scope of work section of the introduction it 21 begins with "because data on comparable sales." And I wanted to 22 draw your attention towards the middle of the paragraph. 23 Again, it says "typical purchasers do not generally 24 rely on the cost approach when purchasing a property such as the 25 parcel. Therefore, we have not utilized the cost approach to	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1970 1 that we discussed? 2 A Yes, it is safe to say that. 3 Q And so this draft appraisal is addressed to Mr. Eric 4 Trump, you e-mailed it to Ms. Dillon. Is it your understanding 5 that Mr. Eric Trump received this draft appraisal report? 6 A Yes. I'm quite sure he was aware that I was sharing it 7 with Sheri Dillon. We were very careful about that the 8 exchanges and they were working hand in hand, so I believe 9 that's why it was sent to her. 10 Q Okay. So at this point, Mr. McArdle, we've seen two 11 examples where you had an initial engagement that was prepared 12 with Ms. Dillon's firm as the sort of formal client on the 13 engagement letter and then a subsequent engagement letter for 14 the same type of engagement or thereabouts with Mr. Eric Trump 15 listed as the client? 16 MR. ROBERT: Objection. 17 THE COURT: Let's hear it. 18 MR. ROBERT: Mischaracterizes the evidence. The 19 testimony has been internally. They referred to as Eric 20 Trump as the client, but documents clearly say who the 21 client was. In this last one, it was the Briarcliff entity 22 signed by Eric Trump. 23 Plaintiff's Exhibit 132, "Client, Trump Briarcliff 24 Manor Development LLC" and it was signed by Eric Trump as 25 executive vice president. So the client was not Eric Trump.

D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1971 1 The question keeps saying "your client Eric Trump, your 2 client Eric Trump." So if he wants to change that because 3 the document in evidence is clear as to who the client is. 4 THE COURT: Would you like to dispute that or agree 5 with that? 6 MR. GABER: Mr. McArdle has testified that he 7 understood Eric Trump to be his client for all of these 8 engagements and in some sense it's a distinction, not a 9 difference. It's his understanding. He worked with 10 Mr. Trump. He's testified to that. 11 MR. ROBERT: I believe the testimony was internally 12 when the first billing set of e-mails came in it was the -- 13 internally to Eric Trump as the client, but clearly when 14 Cushman & Wakefield enters into an engagement letter there 15 is a specific client. 16 MR. GABER: That was not the testimony, Mr. Robert. 17 He actually -- the internally, yes, but also beyond that he 18 said he understood Eric Trump to be his client on these 19 engagements. 20 THE COURT: Objection overruled on the ground just 21 stated, but I understand the point, as usual. 22 Q So I just want to ask you if it is a standard practice 23 for the appraisal work that you performed for the Trump 24 Organization and their counsel to have this first appraisal, 25 second appraisal like you just described.	D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1973 1 MR. GABER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence. 2 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 3 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence. 4 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 5 Plaintiff's Exhibit 134.) 6 Q Mr. McArdle, this is dated June 3, 2015 nearly one year 7 after the June 23, 2014 engagement letter that we just looked at 8 that was marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 132. Can you take a look 9 at this document and tell me what you understand the scope of 10 work of this engagement to be? If you'd like, I could put them 11 up side by side if it is easier for you to compare. 12 A Yeah. This engagement looks to be very parallel to the 13 one a year ago encompassing the same real property components to 14 be valued for the conservation easement and clearly, there's 15 been a passage of time, but it appears to be very much the same 16 scope. 17 Q On page six of this document, is that your signature 18 there? 19 A That is my signature. 20 Q And do you know whose signature that is below? 21 A I really don't. 22 Q But it says, "Executive Vice President Development and 23 Acquisitions for Trump Briarcliff Manor Development, L.L.C."? 24 A I don't recognize this signature. 25 Q That's fine, but you see where it says, "executive vice
Page 1972 1 A It was a -- for the work we did for them, it was the 2 pattern, yes. 3 Q Do you have an understanding as to why that was? 4 A My understanding was confidentiality. 5 Q Can you elaborate on that? 6 A I'm not well versed in the legal reasons for doing it, 7 but clearly it was involving confidentiality. 8 Q I'm just -- I don't need you to give a legal response. 9 When you say "confidentiality," what do you as a layperson mean 10 by that or what do you understand by that, if you have an 11 understanding of it? 12 A Well, we've seen -- I've seen other attorneys do it to 13 try to keep a distance between the law firm and their client, 14 potential owner, let's say. 15 Q Thank you. 16 I'll move on to Plaintiff's Exhibit 134. I'll hand 17 this to you and ask you if you recognize it. 18 A Yes, I do recognize it as another engagement letter 19 between Eric Trump and Trump Briarfield -- Briarcliff Manor 20 Development LLC and my firm Cushman & Wakefield. 21 Transcript continues on the following page... 22 23 24 25	D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1974 1 president"? 2 A I do, certainly. 3 Q Are you aware -- I believe Mr. Robert just told us that 4 Eric Trump was the -- recognize the signature of Donald Trump 5 Jr.? 6 A No. 7 Q Are you aware of whether Trump Briarcliff Manor, L.L.C 8 had any executive vice presidents other than Eric Trump? 9 A No, I'm not. 10 Q So at this time, I would like to hand you Plaintiff's 11 Exhibit 910. 12 MR. GABER: I'd like to move to admit Plaintiff's 13 134 into evidence. Oh, I did. 14 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 15 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence. 16 A I am aware of the e-mail. I'm familiar with the e-mail 17 and the accompanying appraisal product that we delivered. 18 Q Appraisal product for which property? 19 A This is again the same Briarcliff Manor assets involved 20 in the conservation easement donation. 21 MR. GABER: I'd ask that this be moved into 22 evidence. 23 MR. FIELDS: Same objection; statute of 24 limitations. 25 THE COURT: Same overruling. It's in evidence.

1 Q On page four of this document, the date here is
2 September 1, 2015, as of September 1, 2015. The e-mail is dated
3 August 28, 2015. Is it common to date a report differently than 4 the date of its transmission?
5 A That September 1st should be the date of value, the 6 September 1st.
7 Q Okay.
8 THE COURT: That doesn't answer the question at 9 all. Do you care?
10 MR. GABER: I was tripped up by my microphone
11 turning itself off.
12 THE COURT: The question was whether it was common
13 for the date to be the same --
14 MR. GABER: You're getting ahead of me, Judge. I'm 15 happy to let you finish up the exam.
16 THE COURT: I will defer to you.
17 MR. GABER: Thank you.
18 Q I think the judge said it best, but is it common for 19 the date of value to be different than the transmission date of 20 appraisal?
21 A Yes, it is very common.
22 Q On page five of this document, can you describe what 23 this letter is on page five?
24 A This is called the letter of transmittals outlining the 25 clients involved. It's simply a letter explaining the

1 engagement, some of the nuance, some of the regulations we're
2 following; certainly, a brief summary of the scope, the project
3 at hand. In this case, outlining the components of the real
4 estate and then it goes on to give some detail on the process,
5 the scope and our appraisal process itself.
6 Q Looking at page six, you see a table here, "valuation
7 summary." It looks slightly different than the value
8 reconciliation I think that we saw on the last draft. Can you
9 explain what this is here or what this table represents?
10 A Again, the presentation that the Trump Organization
11 attorney Sherri Dillon was fluid. They were making a concerted 12 effort to make sure they adhered to all of the IRS guidelines
13 and, you know, that was challenging. It is a lot of red tape
14 and, you know, there were some suggestions on the presentation.
15 I was comfortable with it. The values were consistent and it
16 all seemed reasonable to me, so we kind of crafted a summary
17 that was a little more conforming to IRS requests and 18 guidelines.
19 Q And again, because the presentation is slightly
20 different here, row D says, "Less value enhancement to non-TBMD
21 holdings with a triple asterisk," that following it down says,
22 "After condition property value reflects any value enhancement
23 to golf club or Eric trumps townhome." Can you just explain
24 what this means?
25 A That's simply what we talked about before. We had to

D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1977

1 make a determination if there would be any positive of value
2 improvement or detractor to value with the 71 units next door.
3 So we did a thorough analysis and weighed all the pluses and
4 minuses and at the end of the day, we believed it was -- had a
5 neutral impact.
6 Q Different presentation just in terms of the table, but
7 same analysis?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Can we go to page 17 really quickly. So the second to 10 last paragraph again, middle of the paragraph, is the sentence,
11 "Typical purchasers do not generally rely on the cost approach
12 when purchasing a property such as the parcel as a building cost
13 analysis is not normally applicable for a vacant land
14 valuation."
15 This is slightly different than the previous draft
16 appraisal. Do you understand this sentence to have also taken
17 into account the same analysis regarding country clubs and golf
18 clubs that you described with the previous two?
19 A Looks like the terminology is slightly different, but 20 it gets to the same point. We're just explaining that it's just 21 not -- the cost approach is just not applicable for this
22 appraisal.
23 Q Is that because of the golf club component?
24 A Yes.
25 THE COURT: Five-minute warning.

D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1978

1 MR. GABER: Maybe we should -- can we take a break
2 later or sooner?
3 THE COURT: It doesn't really matter, five or ten
4 minutes.
5 MR. GABER: If we could break now.
6 THE COURT: It is very easy to calculate. We will
7 be back at 3:30. Okay, break time.
8 (Witness exits the stand.)
9 (Whereupon, a recess was taken.)
10 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
11 session. Please be seated and come to order.
12 THE COURT: I guess we should start with the 13 plaintiff. What do you intend to do with whom and when?
14 MR. AMER: I think it's clear that we will not get
15 to our next witness today because we have at least another
16 half-hour with this witness and then there's
17 cross-examination.
18 THE COURT: Will there be cross?
19 MR. ROBERT: Half-hour or so. Nothing extensive.
20 THE COURT: Not enough for another witness.
21 MR. AMER: So the next witness is Mr. Flores, he is 22 actually here. We were going to tell him he could leave for 23 the day.
24 THE COURT: All agreed? Yeah.
25 MR. AMER: I think realistically he will be the

D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1979 1 entire morning. We could start him even first thing 2 tomorrow morning because I probably have -- well, I would 3 say I have an hour and-a-half or so, maybe two hours with 4 Mr. Flores. Is it okay if we end when he ends? We could 5 play a video if we need to, but -- 6 MR. ROBERT: That works with us. We just don't 7 want to have people wasting time. That's fine. I just want 8 to know where we are on Monday. On Tuesday, we have Kelly 9 first and then Cohen second? 10 MS. GREENFIELD: Are you going to have any cross on 11 Mr. Flores? 12 MR. ROBERT: No. We are going to call him back on 13 our case if we need to. 14 MR. AMER: I prefer to not have to start something 15 without finishing it over the weekend if, for example, Ms. 16 Mouradian's video. I think it makes sense to do Mr. Flores 17 tomorrow and whenever we're done, we're done. 18 MR. ROBERT: That's fine. Just for clarity, 19 though, Tuesday we have blocked out Kelly first and then 20 Cohen. Who is on the deck for Monday, so we can prepare? 21 MS. FAHERTY: We will e-mail you. 22 MR. ROBERT: As long as we know by tomorrow morning 23 to prepare for Monday, that's fine. 24 THE COURT: Bring him in. 25 THE WITNESS: Witness entering.	D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1981 1 engagement letters that we have seen were on Cushman & Wakefield 2 letterhead. This one is on Vinson & Elkins letterhead. What do 3 you understand by that difference? 4 A We can engage with clients either way. There's no hard 5 and fast rule on which party provides the engagement letter. 6 Our large corporate clients provide their own. For smaller 7 clients, we take the liberty of drafting it and they appreciate 8 that. So this was a shift from previous practices working with 9 Ms. Dillon, but it was not something that we found 10 objectionable, and we let her craft the engagement letter. Of 11 course, we scrutinized it, approved it, and I ultimately signed 12 on. 13 Q The first sentence here, it says, "Dear Dave, we are 14 pleased to confirm the engagement of Cushman & Wakefield, Inc. 15 C&W by Vinson & Elkins, LLP or the client in its capacity as 16 legal counsel for Seven Springs, L.L.C, the owner of the Seven 17 Springs estate." 18 How did you understand that Vinson & Elkins was acting 19 as legal counsel for Seven Springs, LLC? 20 A Well, much like other engagements with Sherri Dillon 21 and her law firms, it was obvious to me that it was a similar 22 arrangement where Sherri Dillon would act as a representative of 23 one of the Trump entities in this initial engagement. 24 Q Go to the next sentence. It says, "This engagement 25 effective as of June 17, 2014 is to provide consulting services
D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1980 1 THE COURT: Okay, let's continue with the direct of 2 Mr. McArdle. 3 Q Welcome back, Mr. McArdle. I'd like to move on to 4 discuss a 2014 consulting engagement for the Seven Springs 5 Estate. Do you recall that engagement? 6 A I do recall that engagement. 7 Q I am handing you 131. I ask you to review it and let 8 me know if you recognize it. 9 (Witness reviewing document.) 10 A So I do recognize these documents. The first document, 11 again, is an interoffice e-mail between myself and the 12 administrators recognizing that we have a new engagement 13 underway with Sherri Dillon of Vinson & Elkins. Ms. Dillon 14 shifted law firms, so it is the same individual. She's now 15 affiliated with a new firm. The engagement involves consulting 16 services at another Trump property identified as Seven Springs 17 Estate. 18 MR. GABER: I'd ask that this be moved into 19 evidence. 20 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 21 THE COURT: Overruled. 22 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 23 Plaintiff's Exhibit 131.) 24 Q So Mr. McArdle, I would like to direct your attention 25 to page three of this document. So first off, the previous	D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1982 1 related to an analysis of the estimated value of a potential 2 conservation easement on all or part of the Seven Springs 3 estate." 4 What do you understand by "provide consulting services 5 related to an analysis of estimated value "here"? 6 A This assignment was described to me as a very 7 preliminary effort with our assistance to further understand the 8 potential value of the lots that were being subdivided on this 9 200-plus acre estate that were surrounded by two substantial 10 single-family residences. So this was a -- this was a land 11 valuation. That's the way we would -- went into understanding 12 it. 13 Q So following your formal engagement by this letter, can 14 you describe the process that you undertook in beginning your 15 work to fulfill the terms of the engagement and perform the 16 analysis you just described? 17 A Sure. Recognizing this was another very large, unique 18 trophy asset owned by the Trump Organization or an entity 19 thereof, it was very important for us to get our arms around 20 exactly what are we appraising, exactly what is the status of it 21 legally, wanted to take a deep dive into physical 22 characteristics. So I had a lot of questions in the beginning, 23 very important that I view the site, so we did all sorts of 24 early maneuverings for me to take a speed course on this 25 property which was so important to me. So I did visit the

D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1983 1 property. I was escorted around and I started to, you know, 2 gain a good understanding of the asset itself and what their 3 objective was. 4 This was a pending subdivision with a lot of moving 5 parts. So in addition to physically looking at the property, 6 there are a lot of behind-the-scenes data that I had to confirm 7 that would play into preparing the credible appraisal report. 8 Q Was Eric Trump involved in this kind of early 9 information-gathering phase that you just described? 10 A He was. 11 Q Can you describe his involvement? 12 A Yes. I think Eric assisted in giving me an overview of 13 the property, its history, some of the locational attributes, 14 some of the nuances, some of the, you know, high points, if you 15 will. Ultimately, he did share some data with me or pointed me 16 to the right professional to confirm some important data. 17 Q Can you speak more to the nature of that data? At a 18 high level is fine? 19 A Sure. As an appraiser doing a residential subdivision 20 that is fluid and not approved, it was critical that I quickly 21 grab hold of the map, as we call it, you know, and so I wanted 22 to understand the layout, you know, from like a survey 23 perspective and understand the configuration of all the lots 24 that would be ultimately approved at the site because this was 25 going to be -- the request was to value the lots on a retail	D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1985 1 properties, lake next door, couple of mansions on the property. 2 And then he recognizing we needed to support, the values with 3 comparables, he was willing to supply me with what he thought 4 were good comparable sales and I had absolutely no problem 5 receiving that type of data from him. Ultimately, I'm going to 6 do a lot of research on my own, but there was absolutely no 7 problem, you know, accepting what he was suggesting were good 8 comps. 9 Q Did you find him to be knowledgeable, kind of in the 10 realm of valuing these comparables? 11 A Did I find Eric knowledgeable? Yeah, I think he 12 understood his property. He had a very high opinion of the 13 property which didn't surprise me. You know, we deal with a lot 14 of trophy asset property owners and they love their properties 15 and typically know a lot about them as I said. And in some 16 cases, they're entitled to their opinion of what they're worth. 17 And he was of the mindset that there were only a few 18 comps out there and he pointed me towards some subdivisions in 19 Greenwich, most notably Conyers Farms. Sent me some other 20 information on different home sites, but he believed Conyers 21 Farms in Greenwich was a fabulous comp, you know. Of course, 22 that's across the state lines and, you know, had to quickly do 23 my homework on that subdivision. I was familiar with it, but I 24 really wanted to get extra familiar to make sure it was truly a 25 like-kind property to Seven Springs. Would you like me to
D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1984 1 level, if you will, just to -- in other words, what you would 2 sell them to an end user for. It was more of an exercise of 3 selling the lots to individual homeowners. 4 Q So did Eric Trump -- you discussed previously in this 5 that you often undertook a comparable sales analysis in these 6 valuations? 7 A You know, the scope of the appraisal assignment was to 8 value these lots on a retail level and give the client a sense 9 of what they would sell for individually and also on -- in an 10 aggregate value. This type of appraisal really only needs to 11 focus on the sales comparison approach. Later on, there's 12 elements of the income approach, but no cost approach like we 13 talked about before and a heavy weighted sales comparison 14 approach. Very simply, we want to find similar single-family 15 home sites that are like-kind as best we can, you know, 16 comparable landsites for luxury homes. 17 Q Did Eric Trump provide you with any proposed 18 comparables? 19 A He did. He did. You know, the early phone calls with 20 Eric Trump were with him explaining the site as I mentioned in 21 grate detail which I expected him to do and which was very 22 helpful because as we said before, typically the property owners 23 know their properties better than the appraisers at the onset. 24 So I welcomed his input, did a great job of explaining, 25 you know, some of the physical characteristics, neighboring	D. MCARDLE- DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 1986 1 expand on this topic? 2 Q I was going to ask you. Yes, could you explain the 3 homework that you did? 4 A Yeah. Sure. Although, I feel like I have a 5 very -- I'm very competent to appraise this type of property, I 6 live on Long Island. I was -- I wasn't quite in my backyard, 7 did as much homework as possible, but I thought it would be very 8 appropriate to bring in a local expert. 9 Q Who was that expert? 10 A The local expert was I selected was a gentleman named 11 David Turner from a highly-regarded large residential brokerage 12 firm in the Westchester area called Houlihan Lawrence. So David 13 was one of the top producers in the luxury marketplace that 14 would include home sales and land. I approached him and asked 15 him if he would be interested in helping me with my 16 understanding of land values in Bedford and he quickly agreed. 17 We scheduled an appointment to visit the site. We got 18 permission to go back. I brought David to the property. He 19 already had known about it, but we thought a detailed 20 walk-through was appropriate. Spent quite a few hours at the 21 property and he felt he now had a better understanding of the 22 property and he could assist me with comparables, sets of 23 comparables that he thought, you know, might be appropriate to 24 consider. 25 I definitely talked to him about the potential of using

1 Conyers Farms sales and he took the assignment very seriously.
 2 Took a while, but with some back-and-forth communication, he
 3 ultimately did reach some -- had some strong opinions on this
 4 site and where the range of value should fall.
 5 Q Do you recall generally what those were?
 6 A Yeah. I mean, he came from a lot of different angles
 7 which I really appreciated. We were talking about value per
 8 site, you know, and the building sites did vary in size and I
 9 think some of the Conyers Farms comps may have suggested well
 10 over $3 million per parcel and he wasn't -- he really was not a
 11 believer in that, so he -- he didn't believe that was truly
 12 comparable for a lot of different reasons and then he provided
 13 me with a plethora of comps and justification for a value that 14 would be well below $3 million per lot.
 15 I had been doing my own homework. We have comparable
 16 services readily available as well, so by collaborating with 17 David, doing my own work, I have family in residential that are 18 very, very active as well, I came to the conclusion -- you
 19 know, to a range of value for this assignment.
 20 Q So maybe at this point, we can get into some of 21 the -- those ranges. I'm going to introduce Plaintiff's
 22 Exhibit 181 which is a spreadsheet provided to us natively. So
 23 it is just a cover sheet that I'm going to hand to you, but if 24 we could look at the monitor here and let me know if you need
 25 anything blown up. But as a general matter, I'll just ask you

1 if you recognize this spreadsheet.
 2 A I do recognize this spreadsheet.
 3 MR. GABER: I just want to make sure that I move
 4 the prior Exhibit 131 into evidence.
 5 MR. FIELDS: Objection; statute of limitations.
 6 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
 7 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
 8 Plaintiff's Exhibit 131.)
 9 Q I'm sorry, Mr. McArdle. I cut you off. Could you
 10 repeat --
 11 A I do recognize the spreadsheet.
 12 Q What do you recognize the spreadsheet as?
 13 A Well, let me emphasize that this assignment, again, was 14 a verbal assignment. The expectation was that we would get on 15 call at the end of my findings and conclusions and just discuss 16 it verbally, but as appraisers, we do have an obligation to 17 build a work file and I certainly couldn't keep everything in my 18 head. So this is my own internal work file, a rough idea on,
 19 you know, the configuration or the number of lots. We're 20 dealing with three municipalities, so I tried to divide up the 21 different sets of lots and then come to just a range of value
 22 for these properties based on what we were just talking about,
 23 my interaction with Eric Trump, David Turner, myself some of my 24 family members that sell real estate. I started to get warmer
 25 and closer to where I thought the value was going to fall and

1 this is -- these are my notes to myself.
 2 Q Can you help summarize looking at the spreadsheet kind
 3 of where the -- what conclusions, if any, you derived from this 4 exercise?
 5 A Sure. The top of the chart represents the Bedford
 6 lots. There were more lots in Bedford than the other
 7 municipalities, so at the time, we believed there were nine and 8 then the second column is the acreage of each lot ranging from 9 roughly five acres to eleven, so they did vary in size and then
 10 out to the right, I'm just penciling in like where that range
 11 might fall. That very first lot, B2, you know, we were thinking
 12 million-five to $2 million retail value of that lot.

1 A And you just continue to go further down the list into
 2 the two different other municipalities, New Castle and North
 3 Castle.
 4 Q And you do the same analysis for both of those?
 5 A Same analysis, a little more compressed.
 6 Q So where -- what is your final sort of --
 7 A Excuse me?
 8 Q Where do you end up at this top line number? Do you
 9 have any here?
 10 A I do have totals here. Column J represents the total
 11 of the low end of the range at 36 million. Column L is the high 12 end of that range that I did that day on the spreadsheet and 13 that would be 50 million.
 14 Q Okay. So between 36 and 50 million was the range by 15 this analysis?
 16 A There is few important points I want to make about 17 this, though.
 18 Q Absolutely.
 19 A This was a map in progress. It had not been fully 20 approved and very important for us to -- the number of lots is a 21 critical component of value here, especially if at the end of 22 the day you're trying to develop an aggregate value before
 23 discounting it, at least get a general sense of what this thing
 24 might be worth once the sellout is complete, right, full
 25 sellout.

D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1991 1 You'll See in New Castle we were a little unsure of 2 whether or not they would yield five lots or six lots. 3 Q I see that, yes. 4 A Bedford we were pretty confident with nine based on the 5 information we provided. And North Castle, ten. So at that 6 time we believed there were approximately 24 to 26 lots 7 available. I -- multiple times. This was a very big concern of 8 mine. I needed to totally understand the configuration and the 9 number of lots as, again, that plays heavily into the final 10 value. 11 Not only did I ask Sheri Dillon and Eric Trump about 12 the lot yield, as we call it, I asked to speak to their 13 engineer. So I always like to go to a third party who's been in 14 the ground, measuring, calculating, deeply involved with zoning 15 regulations and they quickly directed me to a company called 16 Insight. And I had at least one or two phone calls and my -- 17 the objective of those phone calls was to get comfortable with 18 the lot yield, the number of lots that would be yielded absent 19 the two homes. 20 Q So this was a process of you attempting to gather 21 information from the client about how to conduct -- the inputs 22 that you needed to conduct analysis? 23 A I needed a lot of input for this because this was not a 24 final map, so it's always fluid and there are obstacles and I 25 elected to, you know, I thought Insight was a great source and	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1993 1 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 181 in 2 evidence.) 3 Q Mr. McArdle, let me know whether you recognize this 4 spreadsheet. 5 A I do recognize the spreadsheet. 6 Q And can you very briefly tell me what it is and then we 7 can ask some questions about it. 8 A Yes. This is the sellout analysis spreadsheet that I 9 contained in my work file in preparation for a verbal delivery 10 to the client. It's basically a compressed version of what we 11 just looked at on the previous exhibit. Here, we're assuming 12 eight lots in Bedford, six lots in New Castle and ten lots in 13 North Castle. 14 We also decided based on market conditions that it 15 would probably take six years to sell these lots. This type of 16 analysis not only does it account for the sale of the lots, but 17 looks like the other project we discussed it -- you are going to 18 incur expenses as you go along and the rows in the bottom left 19 of this exhibit are just that, you know, the expenses that we 20 would normally deduct for this type of analysis would be, you 21 know, your property taxes, any kind of dues related to the 22 homeowner's association, if there is one. Certainly sales 23 commissions and soft costs; legal, marketing, overhead, site 24 costs. So they are all deducted from the gross retail proceeds 25 which leaves you with a net cash flow each year and then from
D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1992 1 spoke to, of course, Sheri and Eric Trump and all parties kind 2 of led me to the conclusion that we were dealing with, you know, 3 there might be some movement, but it seemed like it was 24 to 26 4 lots. 5 Q Sorry. Just going kind of back. I appreciate the 6 explanation. When you were discussing this range of values I 7 think you said this is before discounting? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Can you explain what that means? 10 A Sure. Similar to the Briarcliff analysis we were 11 talking about earlier it's basically the same sellout analysis 12 except this is more simplistic. This just assumes the 13 absorption or sales to individual lots to individual 14 homebuilders or homeowners over the course of time. So it's 15 merely, you know, you gather your number of lots, you have an 16 estimated value per lot and you just chart them out over a time 17 horizon in a DCF model. 18 Q So this hasn't been discounted? 19 A This has not been discounted. 20 Q Can I now put up and show you PX 182? It's another 21 spreadsheet. And before we leave that one, I'd like to move to 22 admit Plaintiff's 181 into evidence. 23 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 24 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence. 25 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1994 1 there we just discount back the -- those proceeds from each year 2 and you can see after discounting the final value estimate was 3 close to just under $30 million. 4 Q Thank you. 5 MR. GABER: I'd ask this be admitted into evidence. 6 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 7 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence. 8 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 9 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 182 in 10 evidence.) 11 Q So following these two analyses, the valuation you did 12 and the subdivision analysis, were you prepared to present range 13 of values to the client to complete the engagement as made out 14 in the engagement letter? 15 A Yes, I was. These sheets were developed for me 16 internally, so I could have a fruitful, you know, verbal phone 17 call with the client. 18 MR. GABER: So I'd like to now show the witness 19 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3188. 20 Q Mr. McArdle, let me know if you recognize this 21 document. 22 A Yes, I recognize these documents as e-mails between 23 myself, Eric Trump and Sheri Dillon trying to establish a good 24 time to discuss my findings. 25 MR. GABER: I would ask this be admitted into

D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1995 1 evidence. 2 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 3 THE COURT: Overruled. 4 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 5 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3188 in 6 evidence.) 7 Q Okay. So Mr. McArdle, the top e-mail here is from Eric 8 Trump. It's to you and Sheri Dillon. Eric Trump says: 9 "Sheri, by that point ideally, you will have seen the 10 draft appraisal. Assuming we are all in the same ballpark after 11 the call, we can finalize and hopefully put this to bed." 12 Can you understand -- can you tell me what you 13 understood by Eric Trump's message here? 14 A It's a little confusing. The final product under this 15 engagement was merely a verbal phone call, me conveying our 16 final value conclusions to the client. So finalizing and 17 putting it to bed, that -- I think Eric's using some loose 18 language there. I can't really -- I don't know what he was 19 thinking, but in my mind we were -- this was the -- we were at 20 the finish line. 21 Q So your understanding was you were setting up a call to 22 convey the results of your -- 23 A Absolutely. 24 Q So I'd like to now show you -- this is Plaintiff's 25 Exhibit 3206. Let me know if you recognize this.	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1997 1 half million dollar value that you had in your spreadsheet to 2 Eric Trump and Sheri Dillon on that call? 3 A Most likely, yes. 4 Q When you say "most likely," can you elaborate on or be 5 more specific? 6 A Yes. The focus was more on the retail, what they could 7 sell retail. So I know we talked about the ranges and I think 8 ended up being around $2 million per lot. 9 The sellout analysis is a secondary concern to them, 10 but it was -- I think they wanted to get comfortable with, you 11 know, what each lot was worth. I mean, certainly throughout 12 most of the assignment that's where their focus was. 13 Q And the retail analysis is the first spreadsheet that 14 we looked at, that's correct? 15 A That's right. 16 Q So that range was 30 to $50 million? 17 A That was 30 to 50. However, I did elect to lean 18 towards the 50, which was in my mind very, very well supported 19 based on all the research that we talked about. 20 Q As an undiscounted retail? 21 A Undiscounted, correct. 22 Q Okay. 23 MR. GABER: I ask that Plaintiff's 169 be moved 24 into evidence. 25 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations.
D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1996 1 A Looks like just another e-mail from Eric to me setting 2 up the final call. 3 Q Okay. 4 MR. GABER: I would ask that this be moved into 5 evidence. 6 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 7 THE COURT: Admitted into evidence. Objection 8 overruled. It's in. 9 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 10 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3206 in 11 evidence.) 12 MR. GABER: I'm handing the witness Plaintiff's 13 Exhibit 169 for identification. 14 Q Mr. McArdle, let me know if you recognize this. 15 A This is an internal Cushman & Wakefield e-mail from 16 myself to our top administrator in New York and my nephew who 17 works with me just explaining that this consulting assignment 18 has been completed, reminding her there is no report to -- 19 written report to put in our files and the verbal consulting was 20 completed. 21 Q What do you mean by "the verbal consulting was 22 completed?" 23 A I mean we would have had a call with Sheri and Eric 24 regarding the final values. 25 Q And you would have conveyed the value -- the 29 and a	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1998 1 THE COURT: Overruled. 2 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 3 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 169 in 4 evidence.) 5 Q So Mr. McArdle, I'm going to show you what we've marked 6 as Plaintiff's Exhibit 911. Please read it and let me know if 7 you recognize it. 8 A Yes, I'm familiar with these e-mails between Eric Trump 9 and myself and Sheri Dillon as well. 10 Q Okay. 11 MR. GABER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence. 12 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 13 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence. 14 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 15 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 911 in 16 evidence.) 17 Q So Mr. McArdle, just put this in front of you. Just to 18 confirm, the second e-mail from you to Eric Trump asks for 19 dial-in instructions for a 9:00 a.m. call on the 25th of August. 20 The top e-mail says: "Thanks, David. Speak to you soon." It 21 looks like it was at 8:30 a.m. Is this the -- would this be the 22 date of the call that you had mentioned that you had with Sheri 23 Dillon and Eric Trump where you communicated the range of 24 values? 25 A I honestly don't know if that was the date of the call.

D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 1999 1 Q You don't know if it was -- does it seem likely that 2 this could have been that call? 3 A It could have been, but I don't have a hundred percent 4 recall. 5 Q Okay. But when you wrote on the 8th of September that 6 all verbal consulting had been completed and you just told me 7 that you did have that call, you just not certain of the exact 8 date of it, but you -- 9 A I definitely had that call. 10 Q Okay. Add this point I'd like to show you Plaintiff's 11 Exhibit 133. Take a look at it, please, and let me know if you 12 recognize it. 13 A Yes, I am familiar with this. It's a letter of 14 engagement again between myself and Cushman & Wakefield and Eric 15 Trump of Seven Springs LLC. 16 MR. GABER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence. 17 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 18 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence. 19 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 20 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 133 in 21 evidence.) 22 Q And Mr. McArdle, is the scope of work for this 23 engagement, which is on Cushman & Wakefield letterhead this time 24 and addressed to Eric Trump, as you said, is it the same or 25 similar to the engagement where you were just discussing the	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2001 1 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 2 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence. 3 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 4 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 185 in 5 evidence.) 6 Q I'd like to hand you Plaintiff's Exhibit 104. Please 7 take a look at it and let me know if you recognize that. 8 We caught up to yourself perhaps. Do you know what 9 this document is? 10 A This is again an engagement for Seven Springs between 11 Cushman & Wakefield and Eric Trump. This is the document I 12 thought I had in my hands a couple minutes ago. This is a 13 request to go forward with a full comprehensive appraisal report 14 for the subject property we've been discussing. 15 MR. GABER: I'd ask that this document be moved 16 into evidence. 17 MR. FIELDS: Statute of limitations. 18 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence. 19 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 20 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 104 in 21 evidence.) 22 Q Could you look at page six, Mr. McArdle? 23 A Okay. 24 Q So in addition to your signature on the Cushman & 25 Wakefield, there is another signature here. Can you explain
D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2000 1 consulting engagement? 2 A This is an extension of the work that I started at the 3 property. The scope is very different. As we know my 4 involvement was very preliminary factfinding for the family and 5 Sheri Dillon to make a business decision on going forward with 6 the conservation easement. 7 This engagement I believe is intended to take it to the 8 next step and start to -- and produce a written report with a 9 more comprehensive report to get them closer to a potential 10 conservation easement donation. 11 Q Do you know if this engagement was completed? 12 A Yes, it was. 13 Q Maybe I can clear things up. 14 Mr. McArdle, I'd like to show you Plaintiff's 15 Exhibit 185. Do you recognize this e-mail? 16 A I may have been mistaken. There was a termination. 17 I'm getting ahead of myself. They're so similar. I believe 18 there was a termination of the idea of producing that written 19 report. 20 Q Okay. 21 A And this appears to prove that. 22 Q I'm glad I can refresh your recollection. 23 A Thank you. 24 MR. GABER: I'd ask that this document be moved 25 into evidence.	D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2002 1 whose signature that is? 2 A Sure. At this point it would've been logical for me to 3 continue with this engagement but I had a tremendous workload at 4 the time and elected to bow out of continuing my work on the 5 Seven Springs property. I have a very capable, competent senior 6 appraiser in my office that I asked to continue with this task, 7 so I sort of served as a conduit here maintaining the 8 relationship with Cushman & Wakefield, the Trump Organization, 9 Sheri Dillon. So I assisted with this new engagement 10 recognizing that Tim Barnes was going to take over and complete 11 the assignment in its entirety and I would exit from the whole 12 process. So we thought it was not appropriate to not only have 13 me sign it but Tim as well since Tim would be signing the final 14 document. 15 Q Is there anything else you remember about the 16 transition of this engagement to yourself from Mr. Barnes? 17 A Well, it's a unique assignment, a unique property, so 18 we did have some discussions early on, kind of called it the 19 hand off, handing off these one assignment from me to Tim. 20 I recall some brief conversations giving him a brief 21 overview on the property itself and some of the work I had 22 performed, which is logical. He's now got to step in and he's a 23 very independent appraiser and I did not have a lot of 24 interaction with him after that. He took hold of it 25 wholeheartedly and performed the assignment.

D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2003

1 Q Okay. So Mr. McArdle, just about done, but -- so we
2 talked about a number of engagements related to Seven Springs
3 and Briarcliff that you undertook, you know, with Sheri Dillon
4 and with Eric Trump and Trump Organization entities as your 5 clients, yes?
6 A Correct.
7 Q So I just wanted to show you a short clip from the 8 deposition of Eric Trump and just ask you a question about it
9 after it's played. This is starting from page 198, line ten of 10 the deposition.
11 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
12 Q Mr. McArdle, is this consistent with your recollection
13 of Eric Trump's involvement in the engagements we've been 14 discussing today?
15 MR. ROBERT: Objection.
16 THE COURT: I don't think that's a proper question.
17 Is it consistent? I mean, you can ask something similar,
18 but is it consistent, that's, I guess, for the trier of 19 fact.
20 Q Was Mr. Eric Trump --
21 THE COURT: Wait.
22 MR. ROBERT: Furthermore, Your Honor, two things:
23 One, is the government representing that the document
24 Mr. Trump is looking at there is Plaintiff's Exhibit 104
25 that the witness has here? Because this is from 2015. The

D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2004

1 question appears to be 2014 that you asked on the video.
2 So is Mr. Trump looking what the witness has now?
3 THE COURT: Yes, I don't think that matters?
4 MR. AMER: I don't think that matters.
5 MR. ROBERT: It does.
6 THE COURT: No, it doesn't. He's asking does he
7 know who he is, did he work with him. It doesn't matter
8 what year.
9 MR. ROBERT: But if you listen to the words
10 Mr. Trump is saying, he's talking about Sheri Dillon's name
11 and I don't see Sheri Dillon on this document. That's why I
12 want to know if it's the same document or not.
13 MR. AMER: Again, it doesn't matter, Your Honor.
14 He was asked questions, he gave testimony. This is 15 evidence. It's a party admission against interest. It's 16 evidence, it comes in.
17 MR. ROBERT: Evidence of what?
18 MR. GABER: We can turn to the CPLR.
19 MR. ROBERT: Please.
20 MR. GABER: 3117 (A) (2): "The deposition
21 testimony of a party or of any person who was a party when 22 the testimony was given or of any person who at the time the 23 testimony was given was an officer, director, member,
24 employee, a managing or authorized agent."
25 THE COURT: Wait.

D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2005

1 MR. ROBERT: That's --
2 MR. GABER: Mr. Robert, I'm happy to tell you -- if
3 you let me finish.
4 THE COURT: One at a time, guys.
5 MR. ROBERT: I am not disputing the fact that you
6 can use a party's deposition for a purpose you want. What 7 I'm asking is for a point of clarification. Mr. Trump is 8 combing through a document, that's what you've asked the 9 witness about. I want to know if it's the same document the 10 witness has in front of him, that's all. Just so that 11 nothing is misleading. That's all my question is.
12 THE COURT: It doesn't matter, so objection
13 overruled. If that's the objection --
14 MR. ROBERT: Thank you, Judge.
15 Q Now, do you recall that or do you believe that Eric
16 Trump was not involved in appraisals that you worked on?
17 MR. KISE: Objection. He never said Mr. Trump.
18 Never said he wasn't involved. He said he didn't remember,
19 so he's assuming facts not in evidence.
20 Q "I really haven't been involved in the appraisal work
21 on this property," 199:06, 199:07.
22 Does that conform to your recollection of events?
23 A No.
24 MR. GABER: Thank you. No further questions.
25 THE COURT: Counselors, what next?

D. McArdle - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2006

1 MR. FIELDS: Your Honor, it's 4:22. Would the
2 Court's preference be to begin tomorrow morning?
3 THE COURT: I couldn't tell who said that.
4 MR. FIELDS: That's okay. I'm used to people not
5 remembering my voice, which is generally a good thing.
6 THE COURT: You are being blocked also by the 7 screen. We're not going to be done, but we can use the 8 eight minutes. Let's use it. We only have another two and 9 a half months.
10 Okay, let's proceed with the cross examination of 11 this witness by Mr. Field -- it's Fields; right?
12 MR. FIELDS: Yes, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I said Field. It's Fields.

D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2007 1 THE COURT: Let's go to 4:40 today considering 2 everything including breaking early tomorrow. So you have 3 15 minutes. 4 MR. FIELDS: Thank you, your Honor. 5 Q Good afternoon, Mr. McArdle. My name is Lazaro Fields. 6 I represent some of the defendants in this action. I am going 7 to ask you a few questions. Is that okay? 8 A Yes. 9 Q I just want to be clear that you recall being shown 10 several appraisals and draft appraisals by the government in 11 your examination? 12 A Correct. 13 Q And are all of the appraisals that the government 14 showed you related to conservation easements? 15 A Yes, they were. 16 Q So the testimony that you gave on direct examination 17 was just limited to conservation easements, correct? 18 A The appraisal data we went over today was related to 19 conservation easements. 20 Q Is that an area that you focus in, that you specialize 21 in? 22 A Yes, I have. 23 Q And are those conservation easements different than 24 standard market value appraisals that other Cushman & Wakefield 25 professionals may perform?	D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2009 1 A It is. 2 Q And just generally, what is that requirement under 3 USPAP? 4 A Seven years. 5 Q But what does the guideline provide? What does it 6 suggest to you that you need to keep or maintain? 7 A Oh -- well, whatever we feel is relevant and pertinent 8 to the assignment at hand. It is mostly electronic nowadays. 9 Any kind of research or pertinent information, surveys, photos, 10 some -- any kind of notes that we take, we try to, you know, 11 deposit them in the folder at the end of the assignment. 12 Q So then would it be fair to say that anything that you 13 relied on in an appraisal would be contained within that file or 14 would there be things not contained within the file that you may 15 have relied on in an appraisal? 16 A There might be things that don't quite make it in there 17 in this day and age. You know, reading it through that 18 articles. Electronic articles don't always make it in there 19 but, you know, you're building a file mentally and also you have 20 an obligation to, you know -- anything physical to, you 21 know -- you might put in there. 22 Q In terms of Cushman & Wakefield's recordkeeping 23 practice, is there an electronic database that you use to 24 maintain your files? 25 A Yes, there certainly is. We have a network drive.
D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2008 1 A Yes, there's a nuance to them. 2 Q Could you just briefly describe what the differences 3 are between the two? 4 A Well, we talked about it today a little bit. Large 5 majority of the appraisal for conservation easement is 6 fundamental real estate valuation. Talked about valuation of 7 general valuation of land, valuation of potential build-out of a 8 townhouse project, talked about single-family home valuation. 9 We talked about the golf and country club valuation, the 10 differences in some of the adjustments that have to take place 11 after those values are established in some determinations or 12 estimates on how one value might impact the other. 13 Q What are some of the differences among the adjustments 14 that have to be made? 15 A Well, in looking at the Briarcliff, for example, we had 16 to weigh whether or not the potential condominium project or 17 townhouse project would benefit the golf club or detract from 18 it. And in that report, there's great detail given to and 19 thought given to some of the positive attributes and some of the 20 negatives. 21 Q And is there a recordkeeping practice among appraisers 22 in terms of maintaining records that you use to conduct an 23 appraisal? 24 A Very much so. We're obligated to maintain files. 25 Q And is that under the USPAP guidelines?	D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2010 1 Q Is that network drive assessable -- withdrawn. 2 Can you as a Cushman & Wakefield employee access the 3 files of another appraiser at Cushman & Wakefield? 4 A Yes, if it is within the same office. In other words, 5 New York colleagues can access other New York colleagues' work. 6 Q And are there instances in which an appraiser is walled 7 off from obtaining the file of another appraiser? 8 A No. I mean, some people have subfolders. There are 9 basically two depositories, so, you know, it may be in one of 10 two areas for the most part, but they're not very difficult to 11 obtain. 12 Q And would you agree with me that in conducting 13 appraisals, that you rely on engineers and architects, among 14 others, to inform you as to material issues within an appraisal? 15 A Depending on the complexity of the asset, we 16 often -- you know, in addition to the client, we're often 17 directed to a professional such as an engineer, surveyor or 18 construction manager. However, it relates to the project at 19 hand. So yes, third parties are critical sources for us. 20 Q And when conducting a conservation easement appraisal, 21 are you permitted to assume hypothetical conditions? 22 A I think you'd have to be a little more specific on 23 that. 24 Q Sure. So, for instance, with zoning, if you're 25 conducting a conservation easement appraisal and there's a

D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2011 1 zoning issue on day one, does that necessarily mean that on day 2 two, that zoning issue would sill persist and how does that 3 factor into your approach? 4 A Let me say every assignment is different and we treat 5 them on a case by case basis. Sometimes there is a need for a 6 hypothetical condition or extraordinary assumption especially 7 when things are not black and white and may be in transition. 8 Q You said hypothetical condition and/or extraordinary 9 assumption. Are they the same or are they different terms? 10 A They are slightly different. 11 Q What are the differences? 12 A Hypothetical would be the condition absolutely does not 13 exist and we're going to bypass it and make an exception or make 14 an assumption. An extraordinary assumption is softer, something 15 that, you know, it is a fair judgment to make to move the 16 appraisal to the finish line and it's sort of a flag that we 17 raise to the client that, you know, we -- we had to assume 18 this. There might have been a bit of information that was 19 lacking and in order to complete the appraisal, we feel like 20 it's appropriate to use this assumption. And by the way, you 21 know, it's bolded in many, many places in the report. 22 Q Did you employ any extraordinary assumptions in the 23 appraisals or draft appraisals that you discussed with 24 government counsel on direct examination? 25 A I'm not sure I understand the question.	D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2013 1 A I do. 2 Q And you also testified, I believe, that a property 3 owner knows the property just about better than anybody else; is 4 that accurate? 5 A Oftentimes, that is the case. 6 Q And that's why a property owners for you are crucial to 7 communicating with to understand the property better, right? 8 A They are a big part of our, you know, exploratory work. 9 THE COURT: Five-minute warning. 10 Q And would you agree that the client has input in the 11 value that you ultimately arrive at? 12 A No, I would not agree with that. 13 Q The client has no input? 14 A He has input in the physical description of the 15 property, but ultimately, it's our conclusion based on a number 16 of facts that we discovered and got comfortable with over the 17 process of writing the appraisal, so... 18 Q Fair. And I'm not trying to suggest that the client's 19 value has to be your value. My question is more is it standard 20 practice for a client to advocate for their property to their 21 appraiser. 22 A I would not call it standard practice, but, you know, 23 I've seen it before over my long career and, you know, it 24 was -- you know, it happens. It happens as a course of doing 25 business.
D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2012 1 Q Well, were there any extraordinary assumptions -- was 2 the term "extraordinary assumptions"? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Did you assume any extraordinary assumptions in the 5 appraisals that you discussed with government counsel on direct 6 examination? 7 A I think we may have made some assumptions on Seven 8 Springs because that property was in transition at the time. 9 MR. KISE: One quick housekeeping point that we 10 just missed. So the video clip that they played of Eric 11 Trump, the record has it starting at page 198, line ten in 12 the deposition, but it doesn't say when it ended. Do we 13 know what the last -- where it went through just so we have 14 it because it is not in the record and they, of course, 15 didn't type out -- 16 MR. GABER: It was at the bottom of the video, 17 but -- 18 MR. GABER: Page 199, line 20. 19 THE COURT: Please continue. 20 Q Mr. McArdle, at the beginning of your examination with 21 Mr. Gaber, you discussed the Briarcliff appraisal. Do you 22 recall that generally? 23 A Certainly. 24 Q And you had a discussion with Mr. Gaber about how 25 important it was to know your client. Do you remember that?	D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2014 1 Q And it is not unusual for that to happen? 2 A It's not unusual. 3 Q And, of course, a client can have their own opinion of 4 value that may differ from your opinion of value, correct? 5 A Well, absolutely. 6 Q And that is, I'm sure, common practice in your 7 experience as well? 8 A It's common practice, but ultimately, we're the ones 9 calling the value. 10 Q You also discussed with Mr. Gaber the highest and best 11 use analysis. Do you recall that? 12 A Sure. 13 Q And I think you said there are four steps perhaps. The 14 first was legally permissible; the second, physically possible; 15 and the third, feasible; finally, the fourth most profitable? 16 A That's correct. 17 Q Is that a standard set of steps that you undertake into 18 valuing a conservation easement? 19 A Yes, because, you know, ultimately, it was the 20 valuation of the land. Whether it was for conservation or not, 21 that test was still very relevant in the process. 22 Q And would you agree with me that different appraisers 23 could look at these factors differently? 24 A In some cases, but I think on a lot of properties, the 25 appraisers often default to a very similar highest and best use.

1 Q And in terms of specifically conservation easement 2 appraisals, would you agree with me that there are 3 subjectivities that appraisers have to comb through, authorized 4 to come to a conclusion on value? 5 A There is some subjectivity. There is some objectivity 6 in the beginning and then there is some subjectivity more 7 towards the end with the final value conclusion. 8 Q And again, reasonable appraisers exercising their 9 judgment could differ as to some of the subjectivities in 10 valuating a property? 11 A More times than not, we gravitate towards each other if 12 we are given the same set of circumstances or property. The 13 variances are really -- normally not too wide. 14 Q But it is possible? 15 A It is possible. 16 Q You discussed with Mr. Gaber briefly the subdivision 17 sell-out analysis. Do you recall that? 18 A I do. 19 Q When you are conducting a subdivision sell-out 20 analysis, are you assuming -- you are assuming a set of facts 21 as to how many homes could be built, right? Is that fair? 22 A Yeah, that's one component of it. Certainly, we want 23 to put our arms around how many units are in play for sure. 24 Q And where does that information come from generally? 25 A That information -- my first source would be the owner	1 continuing tomorrow. 2 Just one quick observation. Common sense tells me 3 that different appraisers could appraise a different 4 property different. How differently, that's another 5 question. To ask every witness over and over again could 6 different appraisers appraise a given property differently 7 seems to me to just be wasting time. 8 MR. KISE: The only point I'll make on that is 9 we've listened to what I would say in the last two days 10 excruciating questions from the government asking about 11 who's on the "re" line and who's on the "bcc" line. 12 I don't recall you respectfully hurrying them, so 13 we are trying to move through our examination efficiently, 14 but there are points we believe we need to make. We will 15 take your advice as we always do, but it always seems like 16 when there's a hurry up on the clock, it's our side that's 17 being hurried up and not theirs. 18 THE COURT: Well, I'm sorry you feel that way. I 19 want everybody to be efficient and I just want to make clear 20 what I said initially here. I'm not stopping you from doing 21 it. 22 MR. KISE: I know. 23 THE COURT: You know me well enough. 24 MR. KISE: I do. Thank you. 25 THE COURT: All right. Tomorrow at ten o'clock.

1 and again, they typically own their property, know their 2 property better than anybody, and if it is a complex property, 3 the -- they often direct us to their third-party surveyors, 4 engineers, contractors and we always like to get verification. 5 Rarely will we just take an owner's word for it. We also go to 6 step two to, you know, assure ourselves that the information is 7 well supported from a third party. 8 THE COURT: One-minute warning. 9 Q Mr. McArdle, Mr. Gaber showed you an e-mail at the 10 beginning of his examination where you wrote to Eric Trump, 11 "Thank you for the opportunity." Do you generally recall that 12 e-mail? 13 A Yes, I do. 14 Q Were you excited about the opportunity to work on some 15 of these Trump properties? 16 A Yeah. We're a large firm and we were proud to be 17 working with the Trump Organization. 18 Q You hadn't done work with them before? This was a new 19 client for you? 20 A I had done work with them before. The company had been 21 working with them and we were delighted to join up again on a 22 new assignment. 23 MR. FIELDS: Your Honor. 24 THE COURT: Okay. I'll direct the witness not to 25 discuss this case or your testimony because you'll be	1 See you all then. 2 (Witness exits the stand.) 3 (Whereupon, the trial was adjourned to October 20, 4 2023 at 10:00 a.m.) 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in
 2 session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding.
 3 Make sure all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and
 4 cellphones will be permitted, but only to members of the
 5 press. There's absolutely no recording or photography of
 6 any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come
 7 to order.
 8 THE COURT: On October 3rd, during a break in this
 9 trial, defendant Donald Trump posted to his social media
 10 account an untrue, disparaging, and personally identifying 11 post about my principal law clerk. I spoke to defendants,
 12 both on and off the record.
 13 Off the record, I ordered Donald Trump to remove 14 the post immediately. Approximately ten minutes later,
 15 Donald Trump represented to me that he had taken down the 16 offending post and that he would not engage in similar 17 behavior going forward. I then, on the record, imposed on 18 all parties to this action a very limited gag order,
 19 "forbidding all parties from posting, e-mailing or speaking 20 publicly about any members of my staff," emphasizing, quite 21 clearly, that "personal attacks on members of my court staff
 22 are unacceptable, inappropriate, and I will not tolerate
 23 them under any circumstances."
 24 I further made clear that "failure to abide by this 25 directive will result in serious sanctions." Despite this

1 clear order, last night I learned that the subject offending
 2 post was never removed from the website "DonaldJTrump.com,"
 3 and, in fact, had been on that website for the past 17 days.
 4 I understand that it was removed late last night, but only
 5 in response to an e-mail from this Court.
 6 In the current overheated climate, incendiary
 7 untruths can, and in some cases already has, led to serious
 8 physical harm and worse.
 9 I will now allow defendants an opportunity to 10 explain why this blatant violation of a gag order should not
 11 result in serious sanctions including financial penalties
 12 holding Donald Trump in contempt and/or possibly imprisoning
 13 him.
 14 Defendants.
 15 MR. KISE: Good morning, Your Honor.
 16 THE COURT: Good morning.
 17 MR. KISE: Let me begin by saying what I am going
 18 to tell you is based on my understanding.
 19 THE COURT: Sure.
 20 MR. KISE: Because as my staff will clearly affirm,
 21 I am the least technological person. I don't even have my 22 corporate e-mail on my phone. So based on my understanding,
 23 what has happened here is truly inappropriate. So there
 24 were no new postings of any kind after October 3rd. The 25 Truth Social post was taken down as of when President Trump

1 represented in court, absolutely.
 2 My understanding of what happens, though, with the 3 campaign machinery is as follows. So the Truth Social post,
 4 and I believe this happens with all social posts, they are
 5 captured and published on the website as what's called an
 6 ICYMI e-mail, which is an "In Case You Missed It" e-mail,
 7 which is what the link was that you sent last night.
 8 The campaign communication team sends out press
 9 releases as a matter of course as I understand. They are
 10 just packaged all and I think -- I will get to that in a
 11 minute. The press releases take the "truths" and they're 12 marked [sic] up in Nucleus, that's the web provider Nucleus,
 13 and then they're teed up as an FYI e-mail that is sent in 14 e-mail via Nucleus to the e-mail, the campaign e-mail list.
 15 THE COURT: Just let me interrupt one second. Do
 16 we know how many people are on the campaign e-mails?
 17 MR. KISE: I do not at this moment, but I can find 18 that out for the Court. That's a fair question and the 19 Court -- I think you noted this at the hearing because you
 20 stated, and this was based on our conversations I think off
 21 record, that I have since ordered the post deleted.
 22 Apparently, it was, but it was also e-mailed out to
 23 millions of other recipients. I think that's right. I
 24 could get you the precise number, but as you observed that 25 day, that apparently is what happens, is that Truth and then

1 it is packaged up by Nucleus and it is just sent out as an
 2 e-mail. Those e-mails cannot be recalled. The Truth post
 3 was taken down. Nothing further has been posted on Truth.
 4 President Trump has not made any statements of any kind
 5 about court staff, has abided by the order completely; but
 6 it appears no one also took down the ICYMI, In Case You
 7 Missed It, link that's in the campaign website in the back
 8 pages.
 9 So, again, this is my understanding, so bear with 10 me, if you go to the website, there's a link for news and 11 then you go to the link for news, that brings up other 12 things and then part of that is a whole bunch of these 13 ICYMI, In Case You Missed It links. So that link was 14 not -- it appears was not taken down from the campaign
 15 website. The link has now been taken down as you observed
 16 and there is nothing else out there and I will get further
 17 confirmation of this, but I had confirmation last night and 18 again this morning that we have no control over what is 19 being published.
 20 So truly, this appears to be inadvertent between 21 the campaign Nucleus and it is a very large operation. I'm 22 not offering that by way of excuse. I'm just explaining the 23 circumstances. It is clear that President Trump directed 24 that this be done. I mean, he did it in my presence. He 25 did it in your presence. He affirmed that he was taking the

1 post down and it would be removed.
 2 So this is just part of the, for lack of a better
 3 word, unfortunate part of the process that is built into the
 4 campaign structure as I understand it, that all of his Truth
 5 posts are wrapped up and sent out by Nucleus and then sent
 6 out in these "In Case You Missed It" e-mails.
 7 So it is unfortunate. I certainly apologize on 8 behalf of my clients and I can get further assurance from 9 the tech people as to the number the e-mail went out to and 10 re-confirmation that anything we have control over has been
 11 completely removed and deleted.
 12 THE COURT: I take issue with one thing you said,
 13 which I don't know, but when you said that he -- that 14 Donald Trump ordered the post removed in my presence, no, he
 15 didn't. He went outside --
 16 MR. KISE: Okay. Okay. That's fair. He may not 17 have. I don't remember the chain of events. I know that he
 18 did. I can assure you that he did and his communications, I
 19 believe, so there was no intention to evade or circumvent or 20 ignore the order. I can assure you that. I just know that 21 this is a very large machine and this is how it is. One of 22 the reasons, frankly, I don't have social media because 23 these things get away from you very, very rapidly, quite 24 honestly, but that's it. It has been taken down and we 25 don't have any other -- there were no subsequent postings,

1 meaning that since the order was entered, my understanding
 2 is that there was nothing -- no further comment, no
 3 further -- it was all part of this process that sent it out
 4 and left it on the website in the back pages.
 5 THE COURT: Thank you.
 6 Mr. Robert, anything to add?
 7 MR. ROBERT: On behalf of my clients, I join in 8 what Mr. Kise said. Thank you, your Honor.
 9 THE COURT: Plaintiff, anything to -- any
 10 comments?
 11 MR. WALLACE: Nothing from the Attorney General,
 12 Your Honor.
 13 THE COURT: I'll take this under advisement, but I
 14 want to make clear that Donald Trump is still responsible
 15 for the large machine even if it is a large machine.
 16 All right. We have some scheduling issues. I'm 17 turning the microphone over to my principal law clerk.
 18 MS. GREENFIELD: We received, I know the parties
 19 are aware, we received a motion that was submitted last
 20 night by counsel for Ivanka Trump and I wanted to talk
 21 briefly to the parties about a briefing schedule for that.
 22 We'd like to obviously escalate that as quickly as possible
 23 and our intent as for right now is to try to schedule oral 24 argument on that on a trial day, but to begin at 9:30 so as 25 to not waste witness testimony.

PROCEEDINGS Page 2027 1 OAG and defendants, to the extent that you want 2 brief on this issue, if you could let us know how soon you 3 can get that done. We'd like to get this oral argument on 4 the motion scheduled for next week, if possible. 5 MR. WALLACE: Would you like us to huddle first? 6 We will do so during the break. 7 MS. GREENFIELD: Thank you. 8 MR. KISE: One more minor scheduling. I mean, as 9 long as we are on scheduling. Judge Cannon in the case in 10 south Florida has ordered a hearing on November 1st. 11 There's going to be some dialog. I understand that they are 12 in court today on another issue unrelated to my client, but 13 I'm trying to find out if Judge Cannon will allow me to 14 appear on a Monday or Friday or perhaps by video on 15 Wednesday. I just want to alert the Court that I'm -- I 16 may ask you to be excused from trial for one of those days, 17 whatever day the hearing is. 18 THE COURT: All right. Thanks for the notice. We 19 will deal with it if and when it comes out. 20 MR. ROBERT: One other mechanical thing, Your 21 Honor, if I may. We are going to be submitting to you the 22 pro hac application of Ivan Feris and Jennifer Hernandez to 23 help with the depositions next week since we are doing deps 24 and trial. The Attorney General has no opposition and since 25 one of the depositions is Monday, we would just ask that the	D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2029 1 Farm subdivision; is that accurate? 2 A He did. 3 Q And this was, again, related to Seven Springs, right? 4 A Related to Seven Springs, correct. 5 Q This was Mr. David Turner? 6 A Yes, it was. 7 Q Would you agree that it is common in your industry to 8 rely on real estate brokers for comparables? 9 A It all depends on the assignment at hand. This 10 assignment was unique. I wanted to make sure that I did the 11 correct level of due diligence and I felt it was appropriate to 12 bring in someone very local who had an understanding of the 13 immediate land values in Bedford, New Castle, North Castle as an 14 assist for the process. So in this case, it was appropriate to 15 lean on a real estate broker. 16 Q In large part, it was appropriate and it was in this 17 case because the real estate broker has an appreciation for the 18 local values of the land; is that fair? 19 A It is fair. 20 Q If I could, Mr. McArdle, if we could put up Plaintiff's 21 132 that was admitted yesterday. I certainly don't intend this 22 to be a Perry Mason moment, but I want to ask a clarifying 23 question. If you recall there was some questioning with Mr. 24 Gaber regarding the engagement and who the client was on the 25 engagement. Do you generally recall that line of questioning?
R FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2028 1 Court sign the order as soon as possible. We will be UCF-g 2 it this morning. Thank you. 3 THE COURT: Granted. 4 MR. ROBERT: Thank you. 5 THE COURT: Let's get the witness. 6 MR. FIELDS: We took Your Honor's direction to 7 heart last night. This cross-examination will be 8 exceedingly brief and we will get Mr. McArdle out for an 9 early weekend and we can move forward. 10 THE COURT: Okay. 11 THE OFFICER: Witness entering. 12 THE COURT: I will advise the witness, as I always 13 do, that he is still under oath. Let's continue the 14 examination by Mr. Fields. 15 MR. FIELDS: Thank you, Your Honor. 16 CROSS-EXAMINATION 17 BY MR. FIELDS: (CONT'D) 18 Q I have a series of short questions for you and we will 19 have you on your way for the weekend. 20 A Thank you. 21 Q You testified yesterday, I believe it was, relating to 22 Seven Springs, that you reached out to a real estate broker in 23 the Connecticut area; is that correct? 24 A He was based in Westchester County. 25 Q And he had -- did he have knowledge of the Conyers	D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2030 1 A Yes. 2 Q Okay. Just for the record, where it says, "the parties 3 to this agreement," in the middle of the page, would you agree 4 with me that the two parties listed there are Cushman & 5 Wakefield Affiliated Company and Trump Briarcliff Manor 6 Development, LLC? 7 A Yes those are the parties to the agreement. 8 Q If you would flip to the sixth page of the engagement 9 letter. 10 A Okay. 11 Q Again, in the middle where it says, "agreed," it lists 12 the client as Trump Briarcliff Manor Development, LLC, it has 13 Mr. Eric Trump's signature and then underneath that, it says, 14 "title EVP." 15 Did you understand that to mean that he was signing as 16 executive vice-president of that particular LLC? 17 A Yes, that was my understanding. 18 Q Thank you. 19 MR. FIELDS: I apologize. 20 THE COURT: "Thank you" isn't so bad. It is the 21 "great" that I objected to. 22 Q Again, also, Mr. McArdle, you worked with Sherri Dillon 23 who was an attorney on behalf of some of the Trump related 24 entities; is that fair? 25 A That's correct.

1 Q Would you agree with me that Ms. Dillon is meticulous?
2 A I would agree with that.
3 Q Would you agree with me that Ms. Dillon is a good,
4 diligent attorney?
5 A Based on my experience with her, she appeared to be.
6 MR. FIELDS: If I may, I'm going to hand up to the 7 witness what's been marked for identification as Plaintiff's
8 175.
9 Q Take a look at this and let me know if you recognize
10 it.
11 A I do recognize this e-mail.
12 Q And is this an e-mail between you and Mr. Timothy
13 Barnes?
14 A This is an e-mail from myself to a colleague at Cushman
15 & Wakefield, Timothy Barnes.
16 MR. FIELDS: Your Honor, I move to admit
17 Plaintiff's 175.
18 MR. ROBERT: Again, this is one of the times when 19 introducing an exhibit subject to our statute of limitations
20 because questions were brought out on direct. Same as we've 21 done in the past.
22 THE COURT: I understand. The objection is noted.
23 Overruled.
24 MR. GABER: I want to note that there is a -- it
25 is unclear whether or not this was a draft or whether it was

1 sent.
2 THE COURT: You may ask the witness.
3 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
4 Plaintiff's Exhibit 175.)
5 Q Would you note, Mr. McArdle -- I will represent to you
6 this was produced to us as you can see on the bottom -- scroll
7 to the bottom.
8 There is a Cushman & Wakefield Bates number on the 9 bottom, C&W, do you see that?
10 A Yes.
11 Q I'll represent to you that this was produced as part of 12 this litigation from Cushman & Wakefield, but do you see at the 13 top that there's a blank space next to the from? Do you have 14 any idea why that would be blank?
15 A No. I've seen this before and I don't understand the 16 reason for it.
17 Q Fair enough. Neither do I, but, nevertheless, you sent 18 this e-mail to Mr. Barnes; is that fair?
19 A That is fair.
20 Q This was in May of 2015. Would it be fair to say that 21 you were reaching out to Mr. Barnes to inquire whether he was 22 interested on working on the Seven Springs conservation easement
23 appraisal?
24 A That is correct.
25 Q You noted that you had been working with this outside

D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2033

1 legal staff for several years. Would that be Ms. Sherri Dillon?
2 A That's correct.
3 Q You noted that the assignment was not a great fit for 4 you for several reasons. Was one of those reasons that you were 5 extremely busy around this time?
6 A That's correct. I had a very heavy workload and it
7 really was not a good fit. I was hoping to serve some other
8 clients, you know, do the right thing for them as well.
9 Q And would it also be fair to say that Mr. Barnes had a
10 little bit more subject matter expertise regarding this easement
11 appraisal?
12 A I wouldn't necessarily say he had more experience, but 13 he was clearly competent and I believed that he could get the 14 job done.
15 Q And then the second to last line, Mr. McArdle, you note
16 that the attorney is excellent. Who are you referring to when 17 you refer to the attorney?
18 A Sherri Dillon.
19 Q And regarding Seven Springs, would you agree with me
20 that Mr. Eric Trump had a view that when Seven Springs was 21 developed, it would be equally comparable to Conyers Farms?
22 A That was his view.
23 Q And that's Mr. Trump felt that was one of the best
24 comps to compare Seven Springs to; is that fair?
25 A It was one of his favorite comps to promote.

D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2034

1 THE COURT: Remember, try to use first names
2 because Mr. Trump could refer to several people.
3 MR. FIELDS: Yes, sir.
4 Q I'm referring to Mr. Eric Trump.
5 MR. FIELDS: Thank you, Your Honor. I apologize.
6 Q Would you agree that as an owner of the property, Mr.
7 Trump, Eric Trump is entitled to have his view?
8 A Yes. We always seek out an opinion. It's fair to 9 obtain their input.
10 Q There was also an issue regarding litigation in Seven 11 Springs, an access road? Do you generally recall that there was 12 some litigation involving an access road in Seven Springs?
13 A I do.
14 Q And would you agree with me that that litigation was 15 just a piece of information that went into your overall analysis
16 for these --
17 MR. GABER: This is going beyond the scope of the 18 direct at this point and so I'm just wondering if they're 19 taking Mr. McArdle for their case at this point out of turn
20 or what's going on.
21 MR. FIELDS: We can. I was just going to ask him
22 about the Seven Springs conservation easement appraisal.
23 THE COURT: Is it outside the scope of direct and 24 if so, are you addressing him as your witness?
25 MR. FIELDS: Well --

D. MCARDLE - CROSS(MR. FIELDS) Page 2035

1 MR. KISE: I don't think it is outside the scope of
2 direct at all. I mean, I certainly don't, but to the extent
3 that that makes everyone happier, then we can say fine. We 4 certainly don't want to trouble this witness with bringing
5 him back, but I don't see that it's at all outside the scope
6 of direct. It relates to Seven Springs and the appraisals
7 and the conservation easement. It is all the same subject
8 matter.
9 MR. GABER: If that's the case and the 10 representation, that's fine by us.
11 MR. KISE: Yes.
12 THE COURT: Okay. So we will just continue with 13 the vague sense of yeah, just go ahead and do it.
14 Q So let me restate the question, if I could, Mr.
15 McArdle. Would you agree with me that the litigation involving 16 the access road was just a piece of information that went into 17 your overall analysis for the property?
18 A Yes, it was. I was gathering a lot of facts and this
19 was -- this was -- I was aware of that at the time.
20 Q But the litigation involving the access road was not a
21 dispositive issue in your analysis because there were 22 alternatives that were suitable and reasonable; is that right?
23 A Could you repeat that?
24 Q Sure. The litigation involving the access road was not 25 a dispositive issue for you because there were alternatives that

1 were suitable and reasonable; is that right?
2 A That's correct.
3 MR. FIELDS: Thank you very much. Have a wonderful
4 weekend.
5 THE COURT: Is that it for defense? Any re-direct?
6 MR. GABER: No, Judge.
7 THE COURT: I may have one question. Hold on.
8 Mr. McArdle, my one question and you've probably
9 been asked this before, are you related to Andrea McArdle,
10 Broadway's first Annie?
11 THE WITNESS: No. It has been asked many times,
12 but I'm not.
13 THE COURT: Oh, shucks.
14 THE WITNESS: I do have some redheads in the 15 family.
16 THE COURT: Thank you. You're excused.
17 THE WITNESS: Thank you.
18 (Witness excused.)
19 THE COURT: I think he is on his way here, but 20 plaintiff, would you like to call your next witness.
21 MR. AMER: We would, Your Honor. The people call
22 Raymond Flores.
23 (Continued on the next page.)
24

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2037

1 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
2 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and
3 approaches the witness stand.)
4 THE COURT OFFICER: Please raise your right hand.
5 Do you solemnly swear or affirm any testimony you
6 give will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the 7 truth?
8 THE WITNESS: I do.
9 THE COURT OFFICER: Please have a seat. Please
10 state your full name and either home or business address on 11 the record.
12 THE WITNESS: Raymond Flores. Home address is 525
13 West 52nd Street, Apartment 14D, New York, New York 10019.
14 THE COURT: And I'll direct the witness you need to 15 speak right into the mic, like, this loudly, clearly,
16 slowly.
17 And let's start with the questions.
18 MR. AMER: Thank you.
19 DIRECT EXAMINATION
20 BY MR. AMER:
21 Q Good morning, Mr. Flores. My name is Andrew Amer. I'm 22 with the Attorney General's Office.
23 Can we start with just having you summarize for the 24 Court your educational background after high school?
25 A I graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2038

1 2010.
2 Q And what was your degree in?
3 A Bachelor's of science and economics.
4 Q And subsequent to graduating have you received any
5 professional certifications or licenses?
6 A No.
7 Q And can you take us through your employment history
8 following your graduation from Wharton?
9 A I worked with Moody's Investors Service from November
10 of 2010 through June of 2012. Subsequently, I joined the Trump
11 Organization from June of 2012 through March of 2022, and I'm 12 currently employed by Brev Management as of March of 2022 to 13 today.
14 Q Let me just go back and fill in some details.
15 For the year and a half that you were at Moody's what
16 was your title?
17 A I believe I was an associate analyst.
18 Q And what area were you an analyst in?
19 A The commercial real estate finance team.
20 Q And when you joined the Trump Organization in June of 21 2012, what was your title that you started at?
22 A I was an analyst.
23 Q And were you an analyst within any particular team?
24 A I believe it was the acquisitions and development team.
25 Q And can you just tell us very generally what your role

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2039 1 was as an analyst with the acquisitions and development team? 2 A At that point in time it was -- I was responsible for 3 primarily financial analysis for the real estate investments of 4 the company. 5 Q Did it include analysis for underwriting new 6 acquisitions? 7 A It did. 8 Q Did it include analysis for development opportunities? 9 A It did. 10 Q Did your title change over the course of your 11 employment at the Trump Organization? 12 A Yes. 13 Q And can you just walk us through the various title 14 changes you had and approximately when those titles changed? 15 A I believe my title changed in 2014 to associate and in 16 2016 to vice president. 17 Q And with all those title changes did you remain within 18 the acquisitions and development team? 19 A I did. 20 Q And was there any change in responsibilities with each 21 of those promotions? 22 A Overall the job remained supporting acquisitions and 23 development, but the scope went beyond financial analysis to 24 negotiating agreements related to financings and the asset 25 management of the properties.	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2041 1 Q So from 2016 to your departure you reported directly to 2 Eric Trump, yes? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And Donald Trump, Jr. did you report to him directly 5 during that period as well? 6 A Correct. 7 Q Did you ever report to Allen Weisselberg? 8 A I did not. 9 Q Okay. Did you ever report directly to Jeff McConney? 10 A I did not. 11 Q And prior to 2016 when you said that you had a direct 12 reporting relationship with Eric Trump and Donald Trump, Jr., 13 did you ever have a dotted line reporting relationship to either 14 of them? 15 A So I did not have a direct reporting relationship to 16 Eric -- I think your question was before 2016. 17 Q Yes, but my question was a dotted line reporting 18 relationship. 19 A I believe they were indirect, yes. 20 Q So just to circle back to make sure the record is 21 clear, prior to 2016 when you began directly reporting to Eric 22 Trump and Donald Trump, Jr. you had a dotted line reporting 23 relationship to both of them. Is that fair? 24 A Yes. 25 Q And focusing on the period of time when you were vice
R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2040 1 Q And between June of 2012 when you joined the Trump 2 Organization and March of 2022 when you left, can you tell us 3 who you reported to and if it changed over time when? 4 A From June of 2012 to sometime in 2016, I forget the 5 approximate date, I reported to David Orowitz. Following 6 Mr. Orowitz's departure I reported to Don, Jr. and Eric Trump. 7 Q At any point in time did you report to Ivanka Trump? 8 A I believe directly from the point of David Orowitz's 9 departure in 2016 to Mrs. Trump's departure from the company in 10 2016. 11 Q And when did Mr. Orowitz leave? 12 A Sometime fall of 2016, I believe. 13 Q Did you have any dotted-line reporting responsibilities 14 to Eric Trump during the period of time that you were at the 15 Trump Organization? 16 A Can you define "dotted line?" 17 Q Well, not a direct reporting relationship, but a 18 reporting relationships nonetheless? 19 A And can you repeat the first part of that question? 20 Q Sure. Did you have any dotted-line reporting 21 relationship with Eric Trump during any period of time that you 22 were at the Trump Organization? 23 A Well, I reported directly to Eric Trump from -- I guess 24 -- from the fall of 2016 to my departure I did report directly 25 to Eric Trump.	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2042 1 president, did you interact with Mr. Weisselberg at all? 2 A I did. 3 Q And how often? 4 A I believe once a week. 5 Q And can you describe generally the nature of your 6 interactions with Mr. Weisselberg during that period of time? 7 A I believe it was relating to existing assets within the 8 portfolio. 9 Q Can you just tell us, though, what the nature of the 10 interaction was with Mr. Weisselberg? 11 A I can -- can you provide more context to that question? 12 Q Sure. What was the business purpose for you to be 13 interacting with him? 14 A I think Allen at points in time would reach out for 15 information regarding certain properties that I had a role in 16 managing and overseeing. 17 Q Generally speaking what were the properties that you 18 had a role in managing or overseeing? 19 A It was the Old Post Office redevelopment in Washington, 20 D.C.; there was a golf resource in Doral, Florida; hotel in 21 Chicago or the primary properties that I helped manage. 22 Q And during the period of time that you were vice 23 president did you have any interactions with Mr. McConney? 24 A I did. 25 Q And how often would you interact with Mr. McConney?

1 A Probably a handful of times in a given month.
2 Q And can you generally describe the nature of your
3 interactions with Mr. McConney?
4 A Similar to the types of interactions with 5 Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. McConney would reach out for information
6 regarding the properties that I was responsible for managing and
7 I was primarily the outreach.
8 Q So prior to leaving the Trump Organization in March of 9 2022, were you ever involved in the preparation of 10 Donald J. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition?
11 A I was. I believe I was involved beginning in -- 12 towards the end of 2020 in the preparation of the Statement of 13 Financial Condition presented to outside parties in 2021, but 14 prior to that I was not involved with the preparation of that
15 statement.
16 Q Just so we're clear, because you said presented in 17 2021, but if -- the statement you began working on in late 2020
18 was that the statement that was as of June 2020?
19 A I don't recall. I believe it was, but I don't recall.
20 Q And was there a second statement that you were involved
21 in that would have been as of June 30, 2021 that you
22 participated in working on before you left in March of '22?
23 A I don't recall.
24 Q You do recall, though, beginning work on the Statement
25 of Financial Condition as early as late 2020; is that right?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2044

1 A That's correct.
2 Q Prior to your involvement in the preparation of the 3 June 30, 2020 Statement of Financial Condition were you aware
4 that such a document existed within the company?
5 A I was not aware that that document existed.
6 Q And can you describe for us what the nature of your
7 involvement was in the preparation of that initial statement
8 that you were involved in, the one that was in late 2020?
9 A I believe Alan Garten, chief legal officer of the 10 company reached out to ask for me to review the statement -- the 11 preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition.
12 Q So my question's a little different. It wasn't about 13 how you first got involved. It was just to describe for me the 14 nature of what you did in connection with your role in the 15 preparation of the statement.
16 A I reviewed the statement and the underlying assumptions
17 that went in the valuations.
18 Q Let me pause on the first half of your answer.
19 You said you reviewed the statement. Did you review
20 the -- we've seen two documents, one called the Jeff Supporting 21 Data spreadsheet and then the actual spreadsheet itself. So
22 when you said you reviewed the statement, what were you
23 referring to?
24 A I believe I reviewed -- I believe I reviewed
25 descriptions of the property valuations that went into the

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2045

1 statement. I don't actually recall reviewing the final
2 statement.
3 Q Do you recall reviewing an Excel spreadsheet?
4 A Can you be more specific about the Excel spreadsheet?
5 Q We'll look at some -- so maybe that's the better way
6 and we'll see if you can help me out on that.
7 When you say that you reviewed assumptions, what
8 assumptions did you review?
9 A Primary assumptions were the parables that supported
10 specific valuations.
11 Q Do you recall if there were specific assets that you
12 reviewed the assumptions for?
13 A I believe one of the primary assets was 40 Wall Street,
14 the Old Post Office and the Old Post Office in Washington, D.C.
15 Q Any others?
16 A Not that I can recall.
17 Q Did you review any assumptions for the golf courses?
18 A I did not, no.
19 Q How about Mar-A-Lago?
20 A I recall reviewing assumptions on comparables for that
21 property.
22 Q As you sit here today, do you recall reviewing 23 assumptions for any assets other than what we've just discussed?
24 A No.
25 Q And did you -- when you reviewed assumptions, did you

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2046

1 also review in addition to -- I think you said comps. Did you
2 review capitalization rates?
3 A I believe so.
4 Q Who did you work with in connection with your
5 participation on the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition?
6 A It was Allen Garten, Adam Rosen, Allen Weisselberg,
7 Jeff McConney, and Patrick Birney.
8 Q Do you recall -- just to see if it refreshes your 9 recollection, did you look at any assumptions in connection with 10 the assets held by the Vornado Partnership Interests, 1290
11 Avenue of the Americas and 555 California Street?
12 A I don't believe so, no.
13 Q Did you review any language of the 2020 Statement of 14 Financial Condition in draft form?
15 A I believe I reviewed some excerpts that were meant to 16 go into the draft of the Statement of Financial Condition.
17 Q And who provided you with those excerpts?
18 A I don't recall.
19 Q To your understanding when you were working on the 20 preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition, who 21 had final approval of the methodologies used and the assumptions
22 made?
23 A I don't know.
24 Q So you didn't have any understanding among the group
25 that you were working with who had final approval?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2047

1 A No, I did not.
2 Q And you continued to work on the preparation of the
3 statement through March of 2022 when you left; is that right?
4 A I recall working on the 2020 statement. I can't recall
5 if I worked on the 2021 statement.
6 Q And my question was a little bit different, though.
7 I just want to know if you have a recollection of 8 continuing to work with the group on the preparation of the 9 statement all the way through when you left in March of 2022?
10 A No, I don't recall.
11 Q Do you recall participating in a call in the fall of 12 2021 with others to discuss valuation methods?
13 A I don't recall.
14 Q Let's go ahead and talk about some work you did with 15 respect to the golf clubs.
16 Were you aware that for some golf clubs members paid a
17 refundable membership deposit?
18 A I do.
19 Q And were the refundable membership deposits something
20 that you were tasked to keep track of?
21 A I was.
22 Q And who tasked you to keep track of those membership
23 deposits?
24 A I believe it was Eric Trump.
25 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2048

1 Exhibit 2041.
2 Q Mr. Flores, do you see page one and page three are 3 e-mail exchanges that you are included on?
4 A I see that.
5 Q And the second and fourth pages are slip sheets for the 6 attachments that are native files.
7 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be admitted
8 into evidence.
9 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
10 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
11 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
12 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2041 in
13 evidence.)
14 Q Let's look at the third page. And this is an e-mail to 15 -- from Ian Gillule to Eric Trump and you are cc'd on this 16 e-mail?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And the subject is "Trump Westchester Membership
19 Deposit and Resignation Spreadsheet." Is that the same golf
20 course that's also known as Briarcliff?
21 A I believe so.
22 Q And Mr. Gillule writes in the second paragraph:
23 "Per your e-mail to Karen, I've put together the 24 information you've requested. Please see the attached
25 spreadsheet containing two tabs, one with membership deposit

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2049

1 information and the second tab with the resignation lists."
2 Do you see that?
3 A Yes.
4 Q To your knowledge was membership deposit information
5 something that Eric Trump was interested in tracking?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And do you have an understanding as to why he was
8 interested in tracking that information?
9 A I don't know.
10 Q I think you testified, though, that he tasked you with 11 tracking the information; correct?
12 A Beyond tracking the information, I don't know why he 13 wanted me to do that.
14 Q He asked you to do it but he never told you why he 15 wanted you to do it?
16 A Correct.
17 Q Okay. If you go to the e-mail on the first page, the 18 bottom e-mail, that's from Eric Trump to you; correct?
19 A Correct.
20 Q And he says to you: "I wanted to introduce you to 21 Brian, our new GM at Trump National Westchester. Brian is going
22 through all the files and getting everything perfectly
23 organized. Why don't you link up next week and take him through 24 all of your spreadsheets for the property. He is working on a
25 few addendum as we speak and they probably need to be update" --

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2050

1 should be, I think, "updated as it was probably a year ago that
2 these were created. I leave it to you to connect."
3 See that?
4 A Yes, I see this.
5 Q And then you write to Brian in the top e-mail:
6 "Hope all is well and welcome to the team. Per Eric's
7 e-mail below, I've attached a workbook I put together last
8 summer when Eric asked me to coordinate with all the clubs to 9 summarize membership liabilities." Do you see that?
10 A Yes.
11 Q So is it correct that in the summer of 2014 you were 12 asked by Eric Trump to coordinate with all the clubs to 13 summarize membership liabilities?
14 A That's what the e-mail says, but I can't recall.
15 Q Do you have any reason to believe based on what you've
16 written to Brian that that wasn't the case?
17 A No.
18 Q And is the workbook being referenced here material that 19 was tracking the membership deposit liabilities?
20 A It was one form of tracking the liabilities. I believe 21 the accounting team at the property also tracked the liabilities
22 as well.
23 Q Okay. So this was something you started doing in the 24 summer of 2014; correct?
25 A I don't recall when I started tracking the liabilities

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2051 1 for this club. 2 Q Well, you wrote to Brian saying that you started 3 working on the attached workbook last summer; right? 4 A That's what that e-mail says, but I -- the starting 5 point of tracking, I can't recall if that summer or might have 6 been prior to that. 7 Q It was at least as far back as the summer of 2014? 8 A I believe so. 9 MR. AMER: Let's put up Exhibit 2041, native one. 10 Q Do you recognize this, Mr. Flores, as one of the 11 spreadsheets that was an attachment to this e-mail? 12 A This tab looks familiar. 13 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I'm not sure if we're 14 admitting separately the native files or whether they're all 15 in with the initial e-mail. 16 THE COURT: It's simpler with the initial e-mail, I 17 think. 18 MR. ROBERT: I figured it was with the initial 19 e-mail. 20 THE COURT: Good. 21 Q And then if we go to native two of the Exhibit 2041. 22 This is entitled registration list. 23 And then if you click on the first tab -- I'm sorry -- 24 "Resignation List." And then the first tab is "membership 25 refundability." Do you see that?	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2053 1 A It is a total but -- yes, it's a sum of columns E and 2 F. 3 MR. AMER: Let's look at another document, PX 2040. 4 Q Mr. Flores, this is a series of e-mail exchanges you 5 have with Heidi Brzyski at TrumpNational.com; correct? 6 A It appears to be what this is. 7 Q And it has some slip sheets for some attachments that 8 are part of this e-mail exchange. 9 MR. AMER: I'd move to admit this into evidence 10 with the attachments. 11 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations. 12 THE COURT: Overruled. 13 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 14 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2041 in 15 evidence.) 16 Q Mr. Flores, let's look at the bottom e-mail on 17 page one. You're writing to Ms. Brzyski. And who is she, by 18 the way? 19 A According to this e-mail she is the general manager of 20 Colts Neck. 21 Q That's one of the Trump golf courses; correct? 22 A I believe -- correct. 23 Q And you write to her: 24 "Hope all is well. I'm working with Eric to update our 25 records on the total membership refundability across our
R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2052 1 A Yes, I can see that. 2 Q And so is this -- are these spreadsheets the 3 spreadsheets you created to track membership deposit 4 liabilities? 5 A Not this spreadsheet, no. 6 Q Was this one of the attachments to the e-mail as far as 7 you could tell? 8 A I don't know. 9 Q Does this track membership deposit liabilities? 10 A That's what it appears to track, but I did not produce 11 this. 12 Q Do you know who did prepare this? 13 A I don't know. 14 Q Did you prepare spreadsheets like this to track the 15 membership deposit liabilities? 16 A Yes, they contain similar types of information, but I 17 did not produce this document. 18 MR. AMER: Let's look at Row 345. 19 Q So based on your familiarity with preparing 20 spreadsheets that track membership liabilities are you familiar 21 with what this row is reflecting? 22 A Can you scroll back up to the top, please? And can you 23 scroll back to Row 345? I don't know what that row number 24 represents. 25 Q Well, it says "total," right?	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2054 1 courses. Can you please send us your current spreadsheet and 2 full resignation list with names, refund amounts, and any other 3 permutations or notes for everyone with a refund obligation;" 4 correct? 5 A Yes, that's what this e-mail says. 6 Q So this was October 2015 and this was part of your 7 undertaking to update records on total membership refundability; 8 correct? 9 A I believe so. 10 Q So did you send similar e-mails to managers of other 11 golf courses within the Trump Organization to collect similar 12 information to allow you to update the records on membership 13 refundability? 14 A I did. 15 Q And you were doing that in connection with direction 16 given to you by Eric Trump; correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q And in the top e-mail she sends you back the refundable 19 deposit list and resignation list; correct? 20 A That's what the e-mail says, correct. 21 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark 3212. 22 Q You see this is -- the top e-mail is an e-mail exchange 23 that includes you as a carbon copy; correct? 24 A That's what the e-mail says, correct. 25 Q And the subject is "golf liabilities." Do you see

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2055 1 that? 2 A Correct. 3 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be admitted 4 into evidence. 5 THE COURT: Granted. 6 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 7 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3212 in 8 evidence.) 9 Q Let's look at the top e-mail that you were copied on. 10 Says, "Hope all is well." And this is being sent in March of 11 2017. Do you see that? 12 A Yes. 13 Q And it's from Jonathan Etra at the Trump Organization. 14 He's -- is he somebody who is within the same team as you? 15 A Yes, he was. 16 Q He writes to a woman named Gina Galeros, "Hope all is 17 well. Per Eric Trump's instruction we are having each golf 18 property with membership liabilities begin utilizing the 19 corporate liabilities matrix attached which is based off 20 information provided by you and updated as of 12/31/2016." 21 Was this matrix that Mr. Etra is referring to something 22 that you and he began using to track membership deposit 23 liabilities? 24 A I don't -- do you have a copy of the attachment? I 25 don't know what it looks like.	R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2057 1 Q And again, this project using this matrix to track 2 membership deposit liabilities was something that was being done 3 per Eric Trump's instruction, correct? 4 A Yes. 5 Q Did you continue to be involved in tracking the 6 refundable membership liability -- the membership deposit 7 liabilities at golf courses that had such deposits until you 8 left in March of 2022? 9 A Yes. 10 Q And throughout that time, it was being done by you and 11 others on your team at Eric Trump's direction; is that right? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Let's look at the 2017 Statement of Financial Condition 14 which is in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 755. So Mr. Flores, 15 I think we established that you were not aware of this document 16 at the time that it was issued, correct? 17 A That's correct. 18 Q In connection with your work on the 2020 Statement of 19 Financial Condition, you did see excerpts from the then in draft 20 statement, correct? 21 A I believe for prior statements, I reviewed a 22 spreadsheet with underlying information. 23 Q My question was a little different, and I thought I 24 heard you testify before that for the actual Statement of 25 Financial Condition that you were working on in 2020, you did
Page 2056 1 Q I'm just asking for your best recollection, Mr. Flores. 2 A No, I can't recall if the attachment referenced in this 3 e-mail was what you're asking. 4 Q So I'm not -- my question wasn't specific to the 5 attachment. It was just very generally do you have a 6 recollection of using a matrix in this time frame to reach out 7 to the golf clubs for tracking membership deposit liabilities? 8 A Yes. 9 Q And was Mr. Etra working with you on this project at 10 this point in time? 11 A I believe so. 12 Transcript continues on the following page.... 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2058 1 see some excerpts from it? 2 A Correct; but for prior statements, I had not. 3 Q Right. 4 Let's go to page 11 of 24 in this exhibit and let's go 5 to the Colts Neck section. If you scroll up a little bit. I 6 just want to read to you the last couple of sentences in that 7 paragraph. And we were looking, by the way, at the exchange 8 with the manager for Colts Neck about tracking the membership 9 liabilities. Do you recall that? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Okay. In this Statement of Financial Condition, this 12 is the final version that was issued for 2017. It says, "Prior 13 to June 1, 2010, one condition of membership was the 14 contribution of a non-interest-bearing deposit that does not 15 require repayment until certain terms are met and then only upon 16 the member's resignation. The fact that Mr. Trump will have the 17 use of these funds for that period without cost and that the 18 source of repayment will most likely be a replacement membership 19 has led the trustees to value this liability at zero and not its 20 present value." Do you see that? 21 A Yeah, that's what this document says. 22 Q Is it the case, Mr. Flores, that while the trustees 23 were valuing the membership deposit liabilities at zero, you and 24 others were working to track the membership deposit liabilities 25 across the clubs at Eric Trump's direction?

1 A That's correct.
2 Q Just to make sure the court reporter got it, you said
3 "that's correct"?
4 A Yes.
5 MR. AMER: Okay. Can we put up next to this, side
6 by side, the 2020 statement which is Exhibit 856 in
7 evidence. If we could go to -- I think it's page 9 of 21,
8 but it is the Colts
9 Neck -- yes.
10 Q You'll see, Mr. Flores, the same language appears in 11 this document. Prior to June 1, 2010, one condition of 12 membership was the contribution of a non-interest-bearing 13 deposit that does not require repayment until certain terms are 14 met and then only upon member's resignation. The fact that Mr.
15 Trump will have the use of these funds for that period without 16 cost and that the source of repayment will most likely be a
17 replacement membership has led the trustees to value this 18 liability at zero and not its present value." Same language,
19 right?
20 A That's correct.
21 Q Was this language language that you reviewed in 22 connection your work in preparing the 2020 Statement of 23 Financial Condition?
24 A No.
25 Q But it does appear that while the trustees were valuing

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2060

1 the membership deposit liabilities at zero for purposes of the
2 2020 Statement of Financial Condition, that you yourself were
3 helping to prepare -- you and others were tracking those deposit
4 liabilities at Eric Trump's direction, correct?
5 A Correct.
6 Q I want to shift to a different topic. Do you recall
7 that there came a point in time when you were helping prepare
8 the Statement of Financial Condition, that the methodology for 9 valuing golf clubs in 2020 changed?
10 A I don't recall.
11 Q Okay.
12 MR. AMER: Why don't we put up the 2021 supporting 13 data spreadsheet and it is Exhibit 352 in evidence. I would 14 like to look at Briarcliff which begins on row 289.
15 Q So let me first ask looking at this spreadsheet, is 16 this the spreadsheet format that you reviewed in connection with 17 your work helping to prepare the Statements of Financial 18 Condition?
19 A I believe for the 2020 statement, correct.
20 Q If you look at row 308, you'll see it says, "6/30/20,
21 upon the advice and guidance of Marcus & Millichap, golf course
22 industry experts, we left the golf course value unchanged from
23 2019." Do you see that?
24 A Yes, that's what the document says.
25 Q Then if you look at row 306, it says, "Upon the advice

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2061

1 and guidance of Marcus & Millichap, golf course industry
2 experts, a normal golf course with a negative EBITDA trades at 3 two to three times gross revenue. We took on average of three 4 times gross revenue and net fixed assets." Do you see that?
5 A That's what the document says.
6 Q Do you recall participating in a telephone call with 7 Marcus & Millichap where the subject of this new methodology was 8 discussed?
9 A No.
10 Q You have no recollection at all about participating in 11 that telephone call?
12 A I don't.
13 Q You see where it says, "We took an average of three 14 times gross revenue and net fixed assets." Did you play any 15 role in the decision to average those two numbers for purposes
16 of the valuation in 2021?
17 A No.
18 Q So the idea of averaging the net fixed assets and the 19 three times gross revenue, you're certain that would not have 20 been a suggestion that came from you?
21 A I -- I don't believe so.
22 Q Well, as you sit here today, do you have any 23 recollection whatsoever of suggesting to anybody who was working 24 with you in preparing the statement that those two figures
25 should be averaged for purposes of preparing the valuation for

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2062

1 the golf courses?
2 A I -- I can't recall.
3 Q Let's look at -- well, did you have any discussion
4 with people who you were working with in preparing the Statement
5 of Financial Condition at any point in time prior to when you
6 left the company about using two to three times gross revenue
7 where there was a negative EBITDA to value golf courses?
8 A I don't recall, no.
9 Q Do you have any recollection of discussions about how
10 to value the golf courses where the golf course had a positive
11 EBITDA?
12 A I don't recall.
13 Q Let's look at row 363, which is for Colts Neck. You 14 see in this row it says under the note, "6/30/21, upon the 15 advice and guidance of Marcus & Millichap, golf course industry
16 experts, a normal golf course with a consistently positive
17 EBITDA trades at six to eight times EBITDA, but the last few 18 purchases have been nine to ten times. Based on the quality of 19 Trump courses could sell at ten times EBITDA." Do you see that?
20 A Yes, that's what the document says.
21 Q And then you'll see under rows 375 to 376, this is a
22 calculation that, in fact, uses this multiplier ten times
23 EBITDA. Do you see that?
24 A That's what the spreadsheet says.
25 Q Do you have any recollection of discussing with those

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2063

1 individuals who you worked with in preparing the Statements of
2 Financial Condition at any time prior to leaving the
3 organization in March of 2022 this method of calculating values
4 for courses with a positive EBITDA?
5 A No.
6 Q I just want to be clear about this. If we have had
7 testimony from others in this case that you participated in a
8 telephone call with Marcus & Millichap where these valuation
9 methodologies were discussed, does that refresh your 10 recollection at all that you were a participant in those 11 discussions?
12 A No.
13 Q And if we have testimony in this case from others that 14 it was your idea to average the net fixed assets with the two to 15 three times gross revenue multiplier for purposes of valuing
16 golf course assets, does that refresh your recollection?
17 A No.
18 Q Do you have any recollection whatsoever at any point in 19 time working on the valuation of the preparation of the 20 valuations for the statements of discussing these valuation
21 methods that are attributed to Marcus & Millichap?
22 A No.
23 Q Let me focus your attention on the Jupiter Golf Course.
24 You're familiar with that course down in Florida, correct?
25 A Correct.

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2064

1 MR. AMER: Let's mark 3216.
2 Q You see this as an e-mail from Michael Corbiciero to
3 you?
4 A Yes, that's what in appears to be.
5 Q And this is sent in August of 2020, correct?
6 A Correct.
7 Q You see the subject is the "Jupiter appeal
8 recommendation"?
9 A Correct.
10 Q And who is Mr. Corbiciero?
11 A I believe he was a consultant, a tax certiorari with 12 Marvin F. Poer.
13 Q You said he was a consultant for the Trump
14 Organization, correct?
15 A Correct.
16 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this exhibit into
17 evidence.
18 THE COURT: It is in.
19 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
20 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3216.)
21 Q And the firm he is with Marvin F. Poer & Company. If I
22 just refer to that as Poer & Company, is that okay? Can we 23 refer to that as Poer & Company?
24 A Yes.
25 Q I think you mentioned tax certiorari. Is that a fair

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2065

1 characterization of one of the services that they provided?
2 A Yes.
3 Q And did that firm handle property tax assessment
4 appeals in Florida for the Trump Organization?
5 A They did.
6 Q And Mr. Corbiciero is sending you the 2020 proposed tax
7 notice for Jupiter; is that right?
8 A I believe so.
9 Q You see in the first line of the e-mail it says, "We
10 hope this e-mail finds you both well. Attached are the 2020
11 proposed tax notices for the Trump National Jupiter Golf Course
12 as well as some appeal review information for your reference."
13 So he's sending you the proposed 2020 tax notices for Jupiter,
14 right?
15 A Yes.
16 Q So what was your role in regard to the Jupiter 2020 tax
17 notices?
18 A I believe I was working with Poer to review the 19 assessment and whether to appeal the assessment.
20 Q At this point in time, you would have been reporting to 21 Eric Trump and Donald Trump Jr.; is that right?
22 A Correct.
23 Q Mr. Corbiciero goes on to say, "The 2020 combined
24 proposed market value is $16,672,472 which is a two percent
25 increase over last year's value;" is that right?

1 A That's what the e-mail says.
2 Q So when you read this e-mail, you understood that the
3 value was a proposed market value for Jupiter, correct?
4 A That's correct. That was coming from the tax assessor.
5 Q And then the next paragraph starting in the second
6 sentence of that paragraph says, "Using the same methodology as 7 in previous years" and let me just stop here and ask. Had you
8 been involved in this process in prior years for the Jupiter tax
9 notices?
10 A Yes.
11 THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
12 Q So when Mr. Corbiciero writes, "using the same 13 methodology as the previous years," you would have been aware of 14 what those -- what that same methodology had been, right?
15 A I believe so.
16 Q And he goes on -- so he goes on to say, "Using the 17 same methodology as in previous years, we determined a GIM of 18 1.38 which is below the average of 1.45 from the SGA report."
19 Did you understand GIM to mean gross income multiplier?
20 A Yes.
21 Q Is that synonymous with gross revenue multiplier?
22 A I don't know.
23 Q Did you understand that GIM was a multiplier that would 24 be multiplied by the gross income for the club?
25 A Yes.

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2067

1 Q And do you know what he's referring to when he refers
2 to the SGA report?
3 A I don't recall.
4 Q He goes on to say, "We also reviewed the most
5 comparable assessments which mostly increase between one to four
6 percent over last year's values and support a range of 503,778
7 per hole to 1,335,269 per hole." Do you see that?
8 A I do.
9 Q And Jupiter is an 18-hole golf course, correct?
10 A I don't recall the exact number of golf holes.
11 MR. AMER: I don't think it is a matter in dispute,
12 so I'll represent that it is an 18-ole course.
13 Q Now, in terms of the methodology that is described 14 here, you would agree with me there's no mention of using a
15 different methodology other than the gross income multiplier
16 method, do you?
17 A Sorry. Can you repeat the question?
18 Q Sure. The only methodology that Mr. Corbiciero is 19 referencing here is the methodology that uses a gross income
20 multiplier; isn't that right?
21 A He also references a comparable assessment approach.
22 Q Nothing about a fixed assets approach, though, correct?
23 A Not in this e-mail, no.
24 Q Then in the fourth paragraph, he says, "Based on the 25 information provided and current market data, our analysis of

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2068

1 the subject property indicates that the market value is
2 reasonable." Do you see that?
3 A I do.
4 Q The market value that he's telling you he believes is
5 reasonable is the value -- market value of 16.7 million, right?
6 A Yes.
7 MR. AMER: If -- am I at my time, Your Honor?
8 THE COURT: Well, you have two minutes or you can 9 quit now.
10 MR. AMER: I was going to put up another exhibit,
11 so maybe it makes sense to --
12 THE COURT: It makes sense to break now. Okay.
13 15 minutes, everybody. See you at a quarter to noon.
14 MR. KISE: I will hopefully have an update for you
15 on the question you asked earlier before the witness comes 16 in after the break on the numbers.
17 THE COURT: I understand. Great.
18 (Witness exits the stand.)
19 (Whereupon, a recess was taken.)
20 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
21 session. Please be seated and come to order.
22 MR. KISE: I do have some numbers. There is some 23 good news under the circumstances.
24 THE COURT: I'd love to hear them.
25 MR. KISE: Again, this is my understanding just to

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2069

1 be clear. I'm not the tech person, but this is what I've
2 been advised this morning. So the e-mail that goes out, the
3 ICYMI, In Case You Missed It, e-mail does not go out on the 4 broader distribution list. That's a press e-mail. It is
5 25,810 recipients. So while that is still a number, it is 6 not millions. It is not -- it's not what -- what we had
7 talked about before. It doesn't go -- that's not the broad
8 distribution list.
9 So there were 25,810 recipients on that e-mail link
10 or e-mail chain. Of that, there were 6,713 that opened the 11 e-mail and then we go from there to the website
12 because -- so that covers the e-mails. There's 25,810
13 e-mails, 6,713 that were opened.
14 The e-mail sends you to the link, the link. So
15 between October 3rd and October 19th, there were a little 16 over 114 million visitors to the campaign website, total
17 visitors to the campaign website. However, only 3,701,
18 3-7-0-1, viewed the -- they're called unique views, viewed
19 the posting, viewed this posting that is the subject of what 20 we're talking about today. That would include anyone that 21 received the e-mail. So they're not separate. So of the 22 6713 folks that got the e-mail, if they were to click on the 23 link, they would have been counted in that 3,701 individuals
24 that viewed the post.
25 But again, of the 114 million plus visitors to the

1 website, they didn't view the post. You have to click
2 through layers to get there, but that's -- and if the Court
3 has further questions about the numbers, but that is the 4 breakdown that I have for now. I may be able to break it
5 down by day, October 3, October 4, 5. I just don't know if 6 it would matter.
7 THE COURT: That wouldn't matter.
8 MR. KISE: But there are 3,701 total viewers of the 9 post that is in question which again, as I've said, has 10 since been taken down.
11 THE COURT: Well, you and I are both becoming more
12 tech savvy from all this.
13 MR. KISE: Apparently. Thank you, Judge.
14 THE COURT: Witness, please.
15 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
16 (Witness resumes the stand.)
17 MR. KISE: Just one thing. I know the witness is 18 there, but it won't relate to testimony. I'm looking at the 19 realtime. The 3701 is the number of people that did view
20 the post, not did not.
21 THE COURT: We understood.
22 MR. KISE: I know, but on the record, it said
23 didn't view the post, so that's an important distinction.
24 THE COURT: 180 degrees.
25 MR. KISE: Yes.

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2071

1 THE COURT: And 114 million people. All right.
 2 Let's continue with the direct examination of Mr. Flores.
 3 Q Welcome back, Mr. Flores. We were looking at 4 Exhibit 3216. I did want to point one thing out before we go to 5 the next exhibit.
 6 You were correct to note that in addition to the gross
 7 income multiplier method, Mr. Corbiciero also looked at comps,
 8 right?
 9 A Correct.
 10 Q And if we go to page 10 of 14, in the -- in this
 11 exhibit, page 10 of 14, this is a chart of comps and I did want
 12 to point out, so that nobody has to take my word for it, in 13 fact, the Jupiter Country Club, line nine, has 18 holes. You
 14 see that?
 15 A That's what the document says.
 16 Q Okay. And well, we'll come back to that in a minute.
 17 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and put up -- go back to 18 the first page of the exhibit, so we could see Mr.
 19 Corbiciero's e-mail and let's put up the 2021 Jeff
 20 supporting data spreadsheet which is Exhibit 1352. We can 21 do that next to this e-mail. And let's go to row 547, which 22 is where we find the Jupiter club. Let's just go up, so we
 23 can see that it is the Jupiter club and if we could see 547
 24 and then slide it over, so we see the two values.
 25 Q So Mr. Corbiciero's letter references market value

1 holes, you end up with about 24 million.
 2 THE COURT: Okay. I'll accept that subject to any
 3 correction MR. AMER: Thank you.

1 which he views as reasonable of 16 -- roughly 16.7 million and
 2 in the Statement of Financial Condition value for 2020, it is
 3 73.6 million roughly and in 2021, it's 67.7 million. Do you see
 4 that?
 5 MR. KISE: Objection. I'm not sure that
 6 characterizes the two exhibits accurately.
 7 MR. AMER: I think the numbers are what they are.
 8 If he has an argument to make at closing whether those 9 numbers are numbers that should be compared, that seems to 10 be something that should wait for closing.
 11 THE COURT: Or cross-examination.
 12 MR. AMER: Or cross-examination, but I think they 13 said they weren't going to cross-examine this witness.
 14 MR. KISE: Not today, certainly.
 15 THE COURT: Not even one question?
 16 MR. KISE: I don't think so. Why would we keep us
 17 here any longer?
 18 THE COURT: I'll overrule the objection subject to 19 any correction that somebody comes up with.
 20 Q Now, if we go back to the e-mail on the comparable
 21 assessments method, there is a range that Mr. Corbiciero
 22 provides for price per hole. Do you see that?
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q I'll represent some math to the Court that if you take
 25 even the high end of the range and you multiply it by 18 for 18

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2074

1 Q And you had received Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail prior to
 2 the time that you began working on preparing the 2020 Statement
 3 of Financial Condition; correct?
 4 A I believe so.
 5 Q Well, you received the e-mail in August and I think we
 6 established you began to prepare -- your work preparing the 2020
 7 Statement of Financial Condition sometime in late 2020; right?
 8 A Yes.
 9 Q Okay. Now, on the subject of your work helping to 10 prepare the 2020 statement about how much time would you say you
 11 devoted to that endeavor?
 12 A In late 2020, I believe it was maybe two to three hours
 13 a week.
 14 Q And over the course of how many weeks?
 15 A I don't recall.
 16 Q Was it months?
 17 A It could have been.
 18 Q Let's turn to a different property, the property called 19 Niketown here in New York.
 20 You're familiar with that property; correct?
 21 A Yes.
 22 MR. AMER: Let's put up the 2020 Jeff Supporting
 23 Data. It's Exhibit 857 in evidence, and let's go to Row 88,
 24 which is where Niketown begins.
 25 Q Do you see that?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2075 1 A Yes. 2 Q And I want to focus on the difference between the 3 valuation that was used in 2020 and the valuation method that 4 was used in 2019. You'll see there is a number of rows and 5 steps that go into the calculation in 2019 that start on Row 88 6 and go all the way through 103 and lead to a value of 445 7 million. Do you see that? 8 A Yes. 9 Q And for 2020 there is a single row, Row 104, that says, 10 "Value per 20-year discounted cash flow from Ray Flores." 11 Do you see that? 12 A That's what the document says. 13 Q Did you perform such an analysis on Niketown for 2020? 14 A I don't recall. 15 Q Do you have any recollection whether related to the 16 Statement of Financial Condition or not of preparing a 20-year 17 discounted cash flow analysis for the property? 18 A No, I don't recall. 19 Q Did you prepare a 20-year discounted cash flow analysis 20 for Niketown in any prior years to the best of your 21 recollection? 22 A I may have, but can't recall the specific cash flow. 23 Q Can you think of any business purpose for why you would 24 have been preparing a 20-year discounted cash flow analysis for 25 Niketown?	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2077 1 as the most recent comparable given close proximity to 4-6 East 2 57th Street and similar luxury retail presence on both blocks. 3 Does that refresh your recollection that you prepared a 20-year 4 discounted cash flow analysis for Niketown? 5 A No, can't recall. 6 Q And then it says, "Kandell ground lease is subject to a 7 pending rent reset to be determined by an appraisal proceeding." 8 Do you see that? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Do you recall a rent reset appraisal proceeding that 11 involved the Kandell ground lease? 12 A Yes. 13 Q And the ground lease is one of the two ground leases 14 that Niketown was subject to? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And what was your involvement in connection with the 17 appraisal proceeding to determine the rent reset? 18 A I believe I interacted with the appraiser that the 19 company engaged in relation to this process. 20 Q And do you have any recollection of incorporating a 21 rent reset into an analysis that you did of the property? 22 A I don't recall. 23 Q That doesn't ring a bell for you? 24 A No. 25 Q Okay. And then it goes on to say, "In the absence of
R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2076 1 A Not that I can recall. 2 Q If we go down you'll see starting in Row 110 there is a 3 discussion. It says "6/3/2020." It says "4-6 East 57th." Is 4 that the Niketown address? 5 A Yes. 6 Q Says "it has historically been occupied by a single 7 tenant given the current tenant's lease expiration in May '22, 8 the discounted cash flow takes into account a new single tenant 9 user." Do you see that? 10 A Yes, that's what the document says. 11 Q And it's referring to the 20-year discounted cash flow 12 and it claims to be from you. Do you see that? 13 A That's not what that references, a discounted cash 14 flow. 15 Q For 6/30/2020 in the notes in Row 106, which is where 16 the value from 6/30/2020 comes from, says, "Value per 20-year 17 discounted cash flow from Ray Flores;" right? 18 A That's what the document says, but the row in 110 19 doesn't reference 20 years nor my name. 20 Q It references a discounted cash flow, doesn't it? 21 A Yes. 22 Q Does reading that refresh your recollection that you 23 prepared a 20-year discounted cash flow analysis for Niketown? 24 A No, I don't recall. 25 Q It goes on to say that it used the 2020 Gucci renewal	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2078 1 the final determination we assume the same amount of the prior 2 period." Do you have any recollection of using the rent from 3 the prior period for a going-forward analysis pending the reset 4 appraisal proceeding? 5 A No, I don't recall. 6 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's 7 Exhibit 860 in native. It's just a slip sheet placeholder 8 for this spreadsheet. 9 Q You will see that this is a 20-year cash flow analysis; 10 correct? 11 A Can you scroll to the right, please? 12 Q Sure. 13 MR. AMER: Scroll all the way to the right. 14 A Can you continue to scroll, please? 15 Q That's as far as it goes. 16 A Okay. That's leaves 20 periods. 17 MR. AMER: And go back to the left. 18 Q And you see Row 4, "20 years." See that? 19 A That's what the document says. 20 Q Okay. Do you recognize this as a spreadsheet you 21 prepared that's a 20-year cash flow analysis for Niketown? 22 A It looks familiar. I'm not sure. I didn't put this 23 together. 24 Q Well, do you recognize it as your work or not, 25 Mr. Flores?

1 A I don't -- I don't know.
2 Q You don't know? You can't tell us whether you did this
3 or somebody else did this?
4 MR. KISE: Objection. Leading. This is direct and
5 argumentative.
6 MR. AMER: Well, first, I don't think it's leading
7 because I didn't suggest the answer.
8 THE COURT: Overruled. Not leading.
9 Q Can you answer the question?
10 A I don't recall if I put this together.
11 Q Let's look under the "value" tab.
12 Do you see that there is an NPV value in Row 14?
13 A Yes, this is what the document says.
14 Q And do you looking at this spreadsheet understand
15 that's net present value?
16 A Yes.
17 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this exhibit into
18 evidence.
19 THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
20 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
21 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 857 in
22 evidence.)
23 MR. KISE: What was the date of this again? It's 24 not on the sheet. Year, do we know?
25 MR. AMER: It's 2020.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2080

1 MR. KISE: 2020, okay. Fine.
2 MR. AMER: And actually, one way to do that is if
3 we go back to the -- go back to the Jeff Supporting Data and
4 we can split the screen.
5 Q And you see the value for June 30, 2020 is 252.8? Do
6 you see that?
7 A That's what the document says.
8 Q And that comes -- that matches the number if we go back
9 to the cash flow analysis that's on the NPV line; correct?
10 A Can you put the documents side by side, please? And 11 scroll to the right to the document? On the right.
12 MR. AMER: I think we need to go down to see the --
13 we're in a different -- we're on Wall Street, so we need to 14 go back to Niketown and go to the right for Row 106.
15 Q Same number, right?
16 A Yes. The number in cell H 106 on the right hand
17 matches the figure D in cell D 14 on the left hand.
18 Q If we go back to the spreadsheet, the -- sorry.
19 The cash flow analysis and there are two other tabs.
20 There is a "plan" tab.
21 MR. AMER: Can we click on that?
22 Q And then a "ground lease" tab.
23 MR. AMER: Let's click on that.
24 Q And that shows the ground lease amounts and the Kandell
25 lease is 540,000. Do you see that?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2081

1 A Yes, that's what the document says.
2 Q Does looking at these tabs refresh your recollection,
3 Mr. Flores, that this 20-year cash flow analysis is your work
4 product?
5 A It could have been, but I don't recall this specific
6 document at this moment.
7 Q Do you know what the basis was for assuming that the --
8 or deciding to use the prior rent amount for the Kandell lease
9 while the reset appraisal proceeding was pending?
10 A No, I don't recall.
11 Q Do you know the outcome of the appraisal proceeding to 12 reset the rent on the Kandell lease?
13 A I don't remember.
14 MR. AMER: Why don't we look at Exhibit 3213.
15 Q I think you mentioned that you worked with the 16 appraiser who was hired by the Trump Organization to work on the 17 rent reset proceeding; is that right?
18 A Yes.
19 Q If you look at the last page, 12 of 12, was that 20 appraiser David Fields of Fieldstone Advisers?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And does this last page appear to be the agreement that 23 was reached on March 13, 2021 as to what the rent reset would be 24 for Niketown?
25 MR. KISE: Objection. Foundation.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2082

1 MR. AMER: He said he worked with Mr. Fields on
2 this very proceeding.
3 MR. KISE: Right, but he's not -- he didn't testify
4 to anything about this document. You're just showing him a
5 document at random and I don't think he can attest to what's 6 written on the document. He can read what's written on the 7 document, but it's hearsay. The document itself is hearsay,
8 so the witness hasn't demonstrated that he has any
9 foundation to answer the question.
10 MR. AMER: He does have foundation. He said he 11 worked on this proceeding. How is that not foundation to be 12 able to recognize if this is the agreement that resolved the 13 proceeding?
14 MR. KISE: But he never -- he might not have ever
15 seen the resolution. He might not have participated in the 16 resolution.
17 MR. AMER: Then that's his answer.
18 THE COURT: Overruled on the ground last stated, if 19 that's his answer, that's his answer.
20 Do you need a read back or ask it again or -- 21 Q Do you -- given your involvement in the proceeding to 22 reset the rent do you recognize this last page as the agreement
23 that was signed between the two appraisers arriving at the rent
24 reset amount?
25 A No, I don't recall reviewing this specific page.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2083

1 Q I didn't ask you that. I just asked if you -- you're 2 in a position given the involvement you had in the proceeding to 3 recognize this as the final agreement reached between the two
4 appraisers?
5 MR. KISE: Same objection.
6 Q Yes or no?
7 A That's what the document says.
8 THE COURT: Overruled. It's --
9 Q That wasn't my question.
10 THE COURT: It's a subtle question. Ask it again
11 and we'll get a read back.
12 Q Given your involvement in the proceeding, Mr. Flores,
13 are you able to tell us that this is the final agreement between 14 the two appraisers resetting the rent for Niketown?
15 A That's what the document appears to be.
16 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this into evidence.
17 MR. KISE: Your Honor, it's complete hearsay. The 18 witness has just answered that's what the document appears
19 to be, but he's not on the document, it's not addressed to 20 him. There is no foundation. He hasn't acknowledged that 21 he ever reviewed the document. I don't see how it comes 22 into evidence. It's simply hearsay.
23 MR. AMER: Your Honor --
24 MR. KISE: If they want to call Mr. Nakleh, if they 25 want to call these witnesses that are participating in this,

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2084

1 this witness has said -- all he said at most "this is what
2 it appears to be." Any of us can say that. That's not a
3 foundation for admission into evidence.
4 THE COURT: Yes, but he worked on the project.
5 MR. KISE: But he says he doesn't recognize this as 6 the final resolution.
7 MR. AMER: Can I be heard, Your Honor? CPLR 4549
8 is a recognized exception to the hearsay rule. It says:
9 "A statement offered against an opposing party
10 shall not be excluded from evidence as hearsay if made by a
11 person whom the opposing party authorized to make a
12 statement on the subject or by opposing party's agent or 13 employee on a matter within the scope of that relationship
14 and during the existence of that relationship."
15 Mr. Fields was retained as the Trump Organization's 16 agent to act as their appraiser in this proceeding. This is 17 not hearsay and it comes in for all purposes under 4549.
18 MR. KISE: Again, I don't -- without getting into a 19 long debate, I don't agree at all with that. Mr. Fields can 20 come and testify and bring it in that way. That would be a 21 statement, but this is an out-of-court statement offered to 22 prove the truth of the matter asserted.
23 If Mr. Fields were here himself and he testified to 24 what's in this document that would be the subject of what's 25 covered under the rule, but some document that is just out

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2085

1 there that they're alleging is a statement by our agent, no.
2 THE COURT: Well, the witness -- I want to make
3 sure we're on the same page or at least I'm on the right
4 page.
5 The witness said he worked on this project. He 6 says yes, this looks like the resolution of the project on 7 which he worked. Overruled. It's in evidence.
8 Q And the agreement resets the rent to $892,500; correct?
9 A That's what the document says.
10 Q And that's almost twice what the rent had been prior to 11 the reset. Isn't that right?
12 A I believe so.
13 MR. AMER: And let's put up the native of
14 Plaintiff's Exhibit 2222.
15 Q This is the 20-year discounted cash flow for Niketown
16 for 2021. Do you recognize this as another 20-year -- well, do
17 you recognize this as a 20-year discount cash flow that you
18 prepared for Niketown?
19 A It could have been, but I don't -- I can't recall in 20 this moment.
21 Q Let's look under the "ground lease" tab.
22 Do you see that the ground lease amounts for Kandell in 23 this cash flow analysis is the amount that was agreed to between 24 the appraisers; right?
25 A Yes.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2086

1 Q Looking at the prior cash flow analysis, looking at 2 this cash flow analysis and bearing in mind your involvement in 3 the rent reset proceedings, are you able to confirm that this is 4 your work product?
5 A It could have been, but I don't know in this moment. I
6 can't recall.
7 Q Do you have any understanding as to why a cash flow
8 analysis would be using the new rent reset amount as opposed to 9 the prior amount?
10 A Because that was the actual rent at that point of time.
11 That's what I think it meant, but --
12 Q So once the rent reset proceedings had been resolved
13 and the new rent had been established at an amount that was 14 almost twice the old rent, your understanding is that it would
15 make sense to use the new rent amount; correct?
16 MR. KISE: Objection. I think this question and,
17 frankly, the last one is calling for speculation because the 18 witness just testified that he's not sure this is his work
19 product. Is he asking him to speculate? Because that's 20 what his answer was to the last question. It would seem so.
21 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I don't think it's asking a
22 witness who is involved in the reset proceeding what his 23 understanding was as to what use the new rent would be put 24 to.
25 THE COURT: I think it was -- it's a question in

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2087

1 the abstract anyway, but it's logic.
2 MR. KISE: But that's speculation. He said right
3 there the answer to the last question it could have been,
4 but I don't know. So it's calling for speculation. He
5 clearly doesn't know.
6 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Flores, don't speculate, but
7 answer the question.
8 MR. AMER: Your Honor, can I have a read back,
9 please?
10 THE COURT: Sure.
11 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the 12 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
13 A Yes.
14 Q And if we look at the "value" tab again, you see that 15 the value, the NPV value in Row 14 is 225.8 roughly million
16 dollars; correct?
17 A That's what the document says.
18 MR. AMER: And if we can pull up the 2021 Jeff
19 Supporting Data spreadsheet. It's 1352 in evidence.
20 Q And look, compare that to Row 91, Row 91.
21 And by the way, just to go back a little bit again.
22 You'll see in Row 89 it says, "Value per 20-year discounted cash
23 flow from Ray Flores." Do you see that?
24 A That's what the document says.
25 Q And then it gives the values in 2021 and 2020.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2088

1 MR. AMER: If we go over.
2 Q The 2021 value matches exactly the value for NPV in
3 Row 14 of the 20-year cash flow analysis; correct?
4 A That's correct.
5 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit
6 Exhibit 2222.
7 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
8 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
9 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2222 in
10 evidence.)
11 Q And you'll see in Row K it's tracking the difference
12 and the value has dropped by 27 million from 2020 to 2021;
13 correct?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And based on your understanding of how the rent fits
16 into the formula, if the rent nearly doubles that would decrease
17 the value of the property; right?
18 A Yes.
19 Q You mentioned and we've established you were involved
20 in the rent reset proceeding. Did anyone from the Trump
21 Organization to your knowledge attempt to get a preliminary 22 indication from an appraiser on what the likely rent reset would 23 be before the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition was issued?
24 A I don't recall.
25 Q Do you know when the Trump Organization engaged an

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2089

1 appraiser for the appraisal proceeding to obtain the rent reset
2 amount?
3 A I can't recall.
4 Q Let me show you Exhibit 3215. This is a retainer for 5 Fieldstone Advisers. You'll see under the "Scope of Engagement"
6 it says, "David E. Fields will serve as client's party-appointed
7 appraiser for purposes of the appraisal proceeding."
8 Do you see that?
9 A That's what the document says.
10 Q And above there is a reference to the Kandell lease.
11 Do you see that?
12 A Yes.
13 Q And if you turn to page two this document is signed.
14 One of the signatories is Eric Trump; correct?
15 A It's what the document appears to show.
16 Q And did Eric Trump assign you to oversee the rent reset
17 proceeding?
18 A Not to oversee it, but I was involved in this
19 proceeding.
20 Q Well, did you become involved at his direction?
21 A Yes.
22 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move Exhibit 3215 into
23 evidence.
24 MR. KISE: Your Honor, again, I don't think the 25 proper foundation has been laid. If they want to have

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2090

1 Mr. Trump lay the foundation or Mr. Fields lay the 2 foundation, I mean, the fact that this witness had some
3 involvement in the process, if we're going to use that as 4 the standard for admission of what is clearly hearsay that 5 would be a giant black hole. It could be anything. Any 6 document associated with the process would then come in 7 under that standard. They could just ask him "were you
8 involved?"
9 "Yes, I was involved."
10 "And is this a document that looks like it has 11 something to do with the process?"
12 "Yes."
13 So there is just no foundation at all laid for the 14 introduction of hearsay. They have not. At this moment
15 it's hearsay. If they want to call a witness that can 16 actually get the document into evidence, that's fine, but 17 this is not that witness.
18 MR. AMER: I want this for purposes of notice as to 19 when the appraiser was hired. So maybe we can shortcut
20 this. This is a Trump Organization document and it's signed
21 by Eric Trump and I'm only offering it for purposes of the 22 date of the letter, which January 18, 2021.
23 THE COURT: Well, the date of the letter is -- I
24 understand that impacts directly on notice, if that's what 25 you want it in for. I can't see it.

1 Objection sustained only to the extent it's only
2 going in to show a notice by the Trump Organization by Eric
3 Trump, right.
4 MR. KISE: By whom? It's a Trump Organization
5 document by Eric Trump even though he hasn't testified to 6 it? I'm not suggesting he wouldn't, but I just want to be 7 clear what we're putting it in for.
8 THE COURT: This witness says he signed it. It
9 says name his Eric Trump.
10 Do you recognize the signature, Mr. Flores?
11 THE WITNESS: Yes.

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER)

1 A The letter is dated January 18, 2021.
2 THE COURT: And do you have any reason to think
3 that that date is somehow bogus?
4 THE WITNESS: I have no reason to believe that date
5 is bogus.
6 MR. AMER: I'm just going to ask that we put up the 7 demonstrative PDX-2 and it is just a shorthand for telling
8 us when each statement was issued and I'll note for the 9 record that the 2020 statement was issued on January 11,
10 2021 which is one week before the appraiser was retained.
11 Q Mr. Flores, given that the rent nearly doubled when it
12 was reset, do you recall if there was at least a sense among you
13 and the others preparing the 2020 Statement of Financial 14 Condition that the Nike rent reset would result in a higher
15 rent?
16 MR. KISE: Objection. At least a sense? I'm not
17 sure --
18 THE COURT: Sorry. Say it again.
19 MR. KISE: At least a sense?
20 MR. AMER: What's wrong with that?
21 THE COURT: I'll allow it. It is a little vague,
22 but I'll allow it.
23 A Can you repeat the question, please?
24 MR. AMER: Can I have a readback, please.
25 THE COURT: Please, read back.

Page 2092

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER)

1 Q By the way, we've already established through your
2 testimony that David fields was, in fact, hired as the Trump
3 Organization's appraiser for purposes of this proceeding, right?
4 A I believe so.
5 MR. KISE: Objection. Leading.
6 MR. AMER: I'm summarizing the testimony he's
7 already given, Your Honor. Just because I want to point out
8 that the fact that Mr. Fields was retained is already in 9 evidence. I don't need this letter to establish that. I
10 only want this letter for the date.
11 Q So my question is just to confirm that you've already
12 testified that Mr. Fields was the appraiser who the Trump
13 Organization hired to handle this appraisal proceeding, right?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And he was hired based on this letter that is now in 16 evidence on January 18, 2021, correct?
17 MR. KISE: Objection; leading and foundation. If 18 he's asking if that's what the letter says, he can say that.
19 He doesn't need this witness to confirm or deny it because 20 this witness doesn't know. He knows what's written there
21 and we just introduced it for purpose of notice.
22 THE COURT: Can you rephrase it just to ask him
23 whether it says that which we've been doing most of this
24 trial?
25 Q What is the date of the letter, Mr. Flores?

Page 2094

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER)

1 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
2 read back.)
3 A No, I don't recall.
4 Q So is it your recollection that when the agreement
5 between the appraisers came up with a rent that was almost 6 double the prior rent, that that was -- came as a surprise to 7 the people who were working with you on the 2020 Statement of
8 Financial Condition?
9 A I don't recall.
10 Q Can you think of any reason why the Trump Organization
11 could not have retained an appraiser earlier while the valuation
12 for Niketown was still being prepared for the 2020 statement to 13 obtain a preliminary value for the building to determine the 14 likely change in the rent through the reset?
15 MR. KISE: Objection; calls for speculation.
16 THE COURT: I don't think it does. Overruled.
17 A I don't know.
18 Q Well, my question was whether you can think of any
19 reason. So is your answer, no, I cannot think of any reason?
20 A No, I can't think of any reason.
21 Q Thank you.
22 Let's turn to the property in Vegas which is a joint
23 venture with Mr. Ruffin. Are you familiar with that property?
24 A Yes.
25 MR. AMER: Let's put up the 2014 Jeff supporting

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2095

1 data. It is Exhibit 719. Let's go to row 751.
2 Q You'll see in row 751 for 2013 and 2014, it says,
3 "Based on the cash flow from unit sales prepared by Ray Flores
4 October 2013."
5 Did you do a cash flow analysis for Vegas in October of 6 2013?
7 A Yeah, I recall putting together -- maintaining a cash
8 flow.
9 Q So this one, you remember?
10 A Yes.
11 MR. AMER: Can we put up Exhibit 1139.
12 Q The top e-mail is from you to Eric Trump in July of 13 2013 and it references the subject Vegas and includes an 14 attachment "Trump Ruffin five-year pro forma budget V17." Do
15 you see that?
16 A Yes.
17 Q And it has a slip sheet for the attachment as the 18 second page?
19 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit both the 20 e-mail and the attachment.
21 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations.
22 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
23 (Whereupon, the Documents were marked in evidence
24 as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1139.)
25 Q So your e-mail to Eric Trump says, "Please see the

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2096

1 attached"-- "Please see attached the updated model which
2 incorporates Allen's waterfall figures into the executive
3 summary tab."
4 Just to be clear, is Allen a reference to Allen
5 Weisselberg?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And is what's referenced here when it says, "the 8 updated model" your cash flow analysis?
9 A I believe so.
10 Q And was this something you prepared at Eric Trump's 11 direction?
12 A Yes.
13 Q And in the bottom e-mail, which is from Eric Trump to 14 you, he refers to it as the Vegas model. Is that your cash flow
15 analysis as well?
16 A Yes.
17 Q And the attachment which says, "V17," does that refer
18 to version 17?
19 A Yes.
20 Q For how long had you been preparing this model that is 21 being updated in 2013?
22 A I don't recall when I started preparing it, the model.
23 Q It would have been before July of 2013, though; is that
24 right?
25 A Yes.

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2097

1 Q Did you continue to work on this Vegas model providing
2 a cash flow analysis through the entire course of your
3 employment at the Trump Organization until March of 2022?
4 A I can't recall at what point I stopped maintaining the 5 cash flow model, but from what I recall, I don't recall updating
6 it regularly towards the end of my tenure at the company.
7 Q What, to your recollection, was the last updated model
8 that you worked on?
9 A I don't know.
10 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's
11 Exhibit 3210.
12 Q You will see, Mr. Flores, the bottom e-mail is from 13 Allen Weisselberg to you asking you to forward to him the 14 analysis that you prepared for Eric and then you go ahead in the 15 top e-mail and forward it on the Las Vegas model, right?
16 A That's what the e-mail says.
17 MR. AMER: I move to admit this exhibit, Your
18 Honor.
19 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations.
20 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
21 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
22 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3210.)
23 Q And the attachment says version, "V18." So is that a
24 later version of what we were just discussing?
25 A It's a different version. I'm not sure if it is a

R. FLORES - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2098

1 later version.
2 Q You're not sure if version 18 is a later version from
3 version 17?
4 A What are the date stamps to the title?
5 MR. AMER: I'll just take that it is a different
6 version. I think that's fine.
7 THE COURT: Okay.
8 MR. AMER: And let's look at the 2016 Jeff
9 supporting data which is Exhibit 742 in evidence, row 816.
10 Q Now, we looked at the supporting data spreadsheet that 11 had the 2013 and 2014 values for Vegas, both attributed to your 12 cash flow analysis. And now we're looking at the spreadsheet
13 that has 2015 and 2016 and it is the same attribution, correct?
14 It is based on your cash flow from unit sales that you prepared,
15 right?
16 A That's what this document says.
17 THE COURT: Mr. Amer, how much longer because we 18 have various scheduling issues to address?
19 MR. AMER: I think I will probably be another
20 45 minutes.
21 THE COURT: We will have to bring him back Monday,
22 I guess. Ten o'clock Monday. Counselors, right?
23 MR. KISE: That's fine.
24 THE COURT: Right. Well, five-minute warning.
25 Take it back.

1 Witness, you're excused for the day. I direct you
2 not to discuss this case or your testimony in it or anything
3 about this case until after your testimony is through which
4 will be probably, we hope, Monday and we will see you at ten
5 o'clock on Monday. You're excused for now.
6 (Witness excused.)
7 MS. GREENFIELD: Counselor, why don't you -- all
8 the schedulers, come on up.
9 Off the record.
10 (Whereupon the trial was adjourned to October 23, 11 2023.)

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in
 2 session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding.
 3 Make sure all cell phones are on silent. Laptops and cell
 4 phones will be permitted, but only to members of the press.
 5 There is absolutely no recording or photography of any kind
 6 allowed in the courtroom. Now be seated and come to order.
 7 THE COURT: I think we are going to have some 8 photographers come in first.
 9 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
 10 THE COURT: Plaintiff, would you like to call your 11 first witness for today?
 12 MR. KISE: Your Honor, I'd like to just, as I
 13 mentioned over the weekend, place something on the record
 14 briefly before the witnesses enter the room.
 15 THE COURT: Go ahead.
 16 MR. KISE: So I just want to place our objection on 17 the record to proceeding today under the circumstances.
 18 As we had exchanged, the Attorney General knew
 19 about this COVID risk of -- at least as of last Wednesday.
 20 There was no mention of it, there was no notice of it. We 21 had a shared podium, a shared microphone. There are court
 22 reporters here, court officers here, the Court, Counsel. We 23 had multiple close sidebar discussions with now-COVID
 24 positive lawyers.
 25 There was a deposition Thursday of the witness and

 Senior Court Reporters

1 Counsel, the reporter were all exposed. There was no
 2 opportunity for any precautions of any kind. You'll notice
 3 I'm sitting over on this side of the courtroom.
 4 Saturday evening was the first notice of this and a
 5 total of four team members from the Attorney General's team
 6 tested positive. None of the communications expressed any 7 concern about safety or health, none of them asked for any 8 protocol measures, none of them asked for anything to be
 9 done. The only reason for the notification was scheduling
 10 and the Attorney General simply wanted to proceed with the 11 trial as if nothing had happened. And, respectfully, in our 12 view, that's just beyond irresponsible.
 13 There are many people in this courtroom, including 14 myself, that have specific and special health concerns and 15 considerations. Some have caretaking responsibilities. We 16 don't know about all of the many dedicated court officers
 17 and court staff and court reporters in addition to the 18 literally hundreds of media individuals present, and these 19 individuals, including myself, are entitled to notice at a
 20 minimum so they can take necessary precautions.
 21 Now, the Attorney General has made numerous public
 22 statements, numerous public statements about COVID.
 23 Quote, "The health and safety of all New Yorkers
 24 has always been our top priority and in order to protect our
 25 communities we must continue to act responsibly and

Proceedings Page 2104 1 carefully." That's a quote from December of 2021. 2 So this is the same Attorney General also that sued 3 Amazon, among others, over their COVID practices. Yet her 4 own staff ignore basic notice requirement. It seems as with 5 everything else with this case that nothing else matters 6 except for suing President Trump. We're just going to 7 dispense with all the rules, we're going to dispense with 8 all the protocols and we're going to forge ahead with the 9 trial. Everyone is just looking the other way and, frankly, 10 it's irresponsible to proceed. 11 Having at least another day -- there was another 12 team member from the Attorney General that tested positive 13 this morning. We're not exactly sure we're through with 14 this. I hope for all our sake, but there is no prejudice to 15 wait another day. There is no jury. Forging ahead with a 16 key witness who now I understand also has potential 17 considerations, I'm not sure what those are, but I certainly 18 won't get into them on the record, having a break to ensure 19 that all Counsel, all staff, everyone involved is cleared. 20 I do appreciate that the Attorney General, as we did, tested 21 themselves this morning, their counsel team and our counsel 22 team and your counsel team, at least we understand from them 23 tested negative, but it's really hypocritical to say the 24 health and safety of all New Yorkers is a top priority and 25 the AG wants to forge ahead with this. And I'm sure that	Proceedings Page 2106 1 was at trial in New York, but I was taking medications and I 2 was on pain pills and I was doing this and doing that. So I 3 think that that's yet another reason to postpone for the 4 day. Thank you, Judge. 5 THE COURT: Well, I can take a vote of all the 6 people out there whether they want to proceed today. I 7 realize that's not the issue. I understand what you're 8 saying. I understand your concerns. I won't address, but I 9 will allow the Attorney General's Office to address, if you 10 would like. 11 Also, masks are available, N-95 masks. Peter, is 12 that -- 13 MR. SORRENTO: They're on counsel table. 14 MR. KISE: I just want to say one other thing, but 15 the individual that's going to respond, I object to him even 16 being here in the courtroom as I put this weekend. I don't 17 think he should be here. 18 MS. HABBA: I agree. 19 THE COURT: The individual is going to respond. 20 Do you want to respond? 21 MR. SOLOMON: I do, Your Honor. 22 THE COURT: Make sure you're are close to the 23 microphone. 24 MR. SOLOMON: First off, we take exception to any 25 claim that we were irresponsible in any way, shape or form.
Proceedings Page 2105 1 there will be reactions to this, but it's a fact. 2 We have the leading candidate for president of the 3 United States in this courtroom today and exposing that risk 4 -- if this were different, if this were us doing this, I 5 know where I'd be. I'd be in shackles. If I had not 6 notified the Court of some risk, the Attorney General would 7 be up in arms, their team would be up in arms and I think 8 that's an unfair double standard I think that's applied to a 9 lot of things procedurally in this case. I'm not talking 10 about Your Honor's rulings. 11 THE COURT REPORTER: Counsel, please slow down. 12 MR. KISE: Sorry. 13 The Commercial Division and the assignments, but 14 none of the rules seem to apply when we're chasing President 15 Trump and I think it's unfair and I don't think we really 16 should be here today exposing everyone to as yet some -- 17 whether it be limited or not we don't know -- known risk and 18 another day or two days would not have made a significant 19 difference. 20 I certainly hope we're not going to hear from the 21 government's key witness that there are health 22 considerations that would preclude that witness from 23 testifying truthfully, honestly and recalling so that a 24 month from now or two months from now as is his normal 25 fashion, he says well, I know I said that in court when I	Proceedings Page 2107 1 Second, I'm not going to relitigate with Mr. Kise 2 the issues on procedural things that may have happened in 3 the past. We're here today, we are following the CDC 4 guidelines. The individual, me, who is in the courtroom 5 today, isolated for five days, as required, has tested 6 negative for the last three days, and is wearing a mask. 7 Those are the guidelines. That's what is appropriate. 8 We advised the Court from what I understand the 9 Court conferred with various administration personnel. 10 THE COURT: True. 11 MR. SOLOMON: And directed that we appear today, 12 period, full stop. That's all that's relevant. 13 THE COURT: Well, the administration basically left 14 it up to me, but they made certain recommendations, which 15 was go ahead, if possible, and we're going ahead. 16 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, if I may. That's not the 17 issue. The issue is that the Attorney General's Office knew 18 on Wednesday and didn't tell any of us, so we were here with 19 our personal health issues, our family health issues, the 20 Court's issues. We were in chambers. We had members of our 21 team who were in a small deposition room last week on 22 Thursday while other members of the team were here trying 23 the case and having conferences with the Court and with the 24 Attorney General having knowledge that one of the key 25 lawyers tested positive. They didn't tell us. Then

Proceedings Page 2108 1 unfortunately, that one mushroomed into four as of Saturday 2 night. Again, as Mr. Kise said, the only reason the Court 3 was notified was a scheduling issue, not for a safety issue. 4 We then took it upon ourselves to notify those people that 5 were in the deposition on Thursday of what happened. They 6 were very grateful that we had let them know so they could 7 take the appropriate precautions. Then a member of our team 8 gets it yesterday and then we find out this morning another 9 member of the Attorney General's has it. 10 So as we stand here today, we are truly in an 11 outbreak. So to proceed under these circumstances is not in 12 the health and safety of everyone in this room, including 13 the Court, the staff, the litigants, the attorneys and there 14 is absolutely no reason whatsoever to proceed. It's a bench 15 trial. There is no prejudice and even the fact that we're 16 in such close proximity is something that is incredibly 17 problematic to us and we see no reason that we need to 18 proceed. 19 THE COURT: Any last few words from the AG's side? 20 MR. SOLOMON: I think Your Honor understands the 21 current state of affairs. 22 THE COURT: Masks are available. I'm going to 23 proceed. 24 Plaintiff, would you like to call your first 25 witness?	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2110 1 the technology and support that? 2 THE COURT: Correct me if I'm wrong, you can take 3 one of your microphones and plug it in there? 4 MR. KISE: If we can do that. Again, you know I'm 5 not the tech person. 6 And for the record, remember, I wanted the table 7 this way with a distance that's even further, but 8 nonetheless, if we can do that, that's fine. Then on a 9 break we can move a microphone over there. 10 THE COURT: All right. Peter, ask Rob, whoever. 11 MR. SORRENTO: I'm on the phone with the IT now. 12 THE COURT: We're on it. 13 And Chris, doesn't it look much better this way, 14 two tables? 15 THE COURT OFFICER: Ready for the witness? 16 THE COURT: Ready for the witness. 17 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. 18 THE COURT: This is a little bit like waiting for 19 the pitcher to come in from the bull pen. 20 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and 21 approaches the witness stand.) 22 THE COURT OFFICER: Please raise your right hand. 23 Do you solemnly swear or affirm that any testimony 24 you give will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but 25 the truth?
W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2109 1 MR. FINKELSTEIN: The People call Bill Kelly. 2 THE COURT: I hope we can move through Mr. Kelly 3 because we are other things on the agenda today. 4 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Understood. 5 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, I'm sorry. There is one 6 thing that I would just like to ask. 7 Do we have two microphones for those that are using 8 the podium to examine witnesses? Because I would not like 9 to use one that the AG has used. That does not have any 10 kind of protective covering. So with all due respect, I'm 11 not using something that's been closely contaminated too. 12 Thank you. 13 THE COURT: Can you just use the microphones that 14 you have available there? 15 MS. HABBA: If I'd like me to stand here and cross 16 examine him, that's fine, but the exhibits are there. I 17 mean, the witness is there. Do we have another microphone? 18 I think that would be the easiest. 19 MR. SOLOMON: The microphone is something that the 20 AG's office provided. If they want to bring their own 21 microphone and use their own microphone and their own tech 22 setup, we have no objection to that. 23 THE COURT: Whatever you want do is fine with me. 24 MS. HABBA: Thank you. We'll figure it out. 25 MR. KISE: Will we have time to do that, to replace	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2111 1 THE WITNESS: I do. 2 THE COURT OFFICER: Please have a seat. 3 THE WITNESS: Thank you. 4 THE COURT OFFICER: Please state your name and 5 either home or business address on the record. 6 THE WITNESS: My name is William Kelly. My 7 business address is Mazars USA LLP. 135 West 50th Street, 8 New York, New York. 9 THE COURT: Counsel, please proceed. 10 DIRECT EXAMINATION 11 BY MR. FINKELSTEIN: 12 Q Good morning, Your Honor. Alex Finkelstein on behalf 13 of the People. 14 Good morning, Mr. Kelly. 15 A Good morning. 16 Q You are here today to testify under subpoena; correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q Can you please tell us where you are currently 19 employed? 20 A I am the general counsel of Mazars USA LLP, an 21 accounting firm headquartered in New York. 22 Q Can you please describe for us your educational 23 background after you graduated from high school? 24 A I went to Binghamton University and graduated in 1997. 25 After that I went to St. John's University School of Law,

1 graduating in 2000.

2 Q After you graduated from law school, could you take us

3 through your professional experience at a high level?

4 A Sure. Well, first in law school I worked at the

5 Grievance Committee for the Ninth Judicial District, which is a

6 body that investigates and prosecutes attorney misconduct. I

7 also was a summer associate at the law firm Wilson Elser and I

8 interned for the Honorable Judge Joanna Seybert with the Eastern

9 District of New York.

10 After law school I became an associate attorney at the 11 law firm Wilson Elser where I was a summer associate. Prior I

12 worked there for a couple of years then became an associate at

13 another law firm called Shaub Ahmuty and after that I was

14 brought back to Wilson Elser in an of counsel position, then

15 made partner there until I became the general counsel at Mazars

16 USA beginning in late 2017 but effective January 1, 2018.

17 Q So you became general counsel of Mazars USA effective

18 in January 2018?

19 A I was hired in late 2017 and I overlapped with my

20 predecessor who was retiring for a month or so and then as of 21 January 1st I was the general counsel for Mazars USA.

22 Q After you became general counsel at Mazars did you have

23 any involvement in the Mazars engagements for Donald J. Trump?

24 A I wasn't part of the engagement team, but I was part of 25 the communication team with the client and I handled the legal

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2113

1 aspects of the various Trump-related legal matters that were

2 happening throughout the engagements and with the firm.

3 Q Can you elaborate on what you mean by the last --

4 A Sure. There were several investigations that were

5 either ongoing when I got there or commenced when I got there.

6 For example, the U.S. House of Representatives Oversight

7 Committee had issued several subpoenas to Mazars that were then

8 being contested by the Trump Organization and made its way

9 through the courts.

10 In addition, the New York District Attorney's Office,

11 that's for the county of New York District Attorney also issued

12 subpoenas in connection with an investigation they were

13 conducting, as well as the New York Attorney General and other

14 entities as well.

15 Q So what was your involvement in the context of those

16 things that you just described?

17 A When any subpoena would come in to the firm or be

18 served upon the firm or attorneys, I would lead the legal

19 response to that and I would communicate with the Trump

20 Organization, my counterpart there being their general counsel

21 about what was happening and what subpoenas we received and how

22 we were responding.

23 And I was making sure we were A, making sure we

24 followed the legal requirements of the subpoena and our

25 obligations as a good corporate citizen; two, making sure we

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2114

1 honored all of our duties to our client due to confidentiality

2 and make sure we followed the rules there; and three, I had to

3 make sure that Mazars USA was in the best position legally that

4 it could be given all the situation of what's going on.

5 Q And when you say "the general counsel of the Trump

6 Organization," who was that that you were talking to?

7 A Alan Garten.

8 Q So you mentioned some involvement in legal aspects.

9 Did that take any particular form?

10 A Yes. I would coordinate with our outside counsel who

11 would gather documents, both internally through my office and

12 going directly to the custodians, and then they would secure

13 those documents, produce them to the -- whatever agency,

14 whatever investigatory body I was looking and I would coordinate

15 with the Trump Organization to let them know and give them

16 copies of whatever it was that they requested.

17 Q Did there come a time when you participated in an 18 assessment of Mazars' relationship with the Trump Organization?

19 A Every year an accounting firm does a client continuance

20 assessment for their clients. It could be more often than every

21 year if there is a triggering event that would cause an

22 accounting firm to reevaluate the conditions of the engagement.

23 I was involved in that process. I was involved in the --

24 assessing the legal situation and the risk management situation

25 and I coordinated that with others in management of the Trump

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2115

1 Organization. Then we would report to the -- I'm sorry.

2 I coordinated with others in management of Mazars and

3 then we would report that to the executive board, whether or not

4 and under what conditions we could continue as the accountants

5 for the Trump Organization.

6 Q And you were involved in that process since you became

7 general counsel in 2018?

8 A Yes, I was -- I was probably the -- I probably would

9 call myself the leader of that process, but I reported to the 10 CEO and the executive board.

11 Q So you mentioned Mazars having received subpoenas.

12 Were you comfortable continuing with the engagement at that time

13 despite receiving subpoenas?

14 A Yes. We considered every subpoena that we received

15 from any new investigatory body as a triggered event to cause us

16 to do a client continuance analysis and simply receiving a

17 subpoena doesn't necessarily require us or compel us or cause us

18 to want to discontinue an engagement.

19 So when we received the congressional subpoena, the

20 first one that I think that was in 2019, we did that process of 21 client continuance analysis and we concluded we can continue and

22 we reached similar conclusions as we received subpoenas from our

23 agencies and additional subpoenas from the same agencies.

24 Q At some point did you participate in a determination to

25 terminate the relationship with the Trump Organization?

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2116

1 A Yes, I did.
2 Q When was that?
3 A It was in May 2001 -- I'm sorry. 2021. We received
4 information and circumstances had changed such that we made the
5 decision to discontinue the services and we notified the Trump
6 Organization of that.
7 Q What information are you referring to?
8 A We had been subpoenaed by the District Attorney's 9 Office of the County of New York for -- in connection with an
10 investigation to Allen Weisselberg's activity.
11 Allen Weisselberg was the former CFO of the Trump Organization.
12 The DA was investigating his personal compensation and others
13 around him.
14 We had received subpoenas and had been interviewed by 15 the District Attorney's Office and based on that information and 16 what we had come to learn about Allen Weisselberg we determined
17 we could no longer provide services to the Trump Organization.
18 Q Why did you reach that determination?
19 A Allen Weisselberg was the CFO of the Trump
20 Organization. He was our main contact at the Trump Organization
21 for the providing -- for them providing us financial 22 information. If his representations to us about the accuracy
23 and truthfulness of the financial records that he's providing to 24 us as the outside accountants is compromised, if we can no
25 longer rely on him as CFO, then we can no longer perform our

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2117

1 engagements.
2 The engagements we were preparing at the time were
3 preparing tax returns for the corporate entities and Donald
4 Trump individually, as well as doing the statements of financial 5 condition. Both of those engagements require that we rely upon
6 the representations of management, in this case, Allen
7 Weisselberg, the CFO. If we are no longer allowed or no longer
8 reasonably allowed to rely on his management we can no longer do
9 those engagements.
10 Q I'd like to show the witness for identification a
11 document marked as PX 2992. Do you recognize this document?
12 A I do.
13 Q What do you recognize it to be?
14 A I recognize the cover of this document to be an e-mail
15 that I sent to Alan Garten and I recognize page two of the 16 document to be a letter I wrote that was an attachment to that 17 e-mail. The last two pages I do not recognize, but they seem to 18 be printouts of whatever was -- they're blank, so.
19 Q But those pages have Mazars Bates numbers on the 20 bottom?
21 A They do, and I don't know if the e-mail was like the 22 e-mail went onto the separate page, so it printed a blank sheet
23 so.
24 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Your Honor, I move to admit PX
25 2992 into evidence.

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2118

1 THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
2 And I'll direct the witness if you're asked a
3 yes-or-no question, please just answer yes or no without any
4 commentary. If you can't answer yes or no, then we can
5 discuss it.
6 THE WITNESS: Thank you.
7 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
8 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2992 in
9 evidence.)
10 Q I'd like to direct your attention to page two. The 11 letter reads: "Dear Allen, as general counsel for Mazars USA, I
12 write to advise the Trump Organization and related entities,
13 including Donald J. Trump, that Mazars USA is resigning from all
14 engagements with the Trump Organization and related entities."
15 Didn't Mazars, in fact, resign from all engagements
16 with the Trump Organization?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Did any engagements continue at this time, the time of 19 the letter?
20 A No.
21 Q Why?
22 A Why did they -- I'm sorry. I don't understand the 23 "why" part.
24 Q Sorry. This letter is dated May 18, 2021. Do you see
25 that?

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2119

1 A Yes.
2 Q So my question was did Mazars, in fact, resign from all
3 engagements with the Trump Organization in May of 2021?
4 A Yes.
5 Q Did Mazars cooperate with the transition to new
6 accountants?
7 A Yes.
8 Q You can set that document aside.
9 MR. FINKELSTEIN: I would like to show the witness
10 for identification a document marked as PX 2994.
11 Q Do you recognize this document?
12 A I do.
13 Q What do you recognize it to be?
14 A I recognize it to be an e-mail I sent to Alan Garten at 15 the Trump Organization and the accompanying letter.
16 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Your Honor, plaintiffs move to 17 admit PX 2994 into evidence.
18 THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
19 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
20 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2994 in
21 evidence.)
22 Q The letter reads:
23 "Dear Alan, we write to advise that the statements of 24 financial condition for Donald J. Trump for the years ending
25 June 30, 2011 to June 30, 2020 should no longer be relied upon

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2120 1 and you should inform any recipient thereof who are currently 2 relying upon one or more of those documents that those documents 3 should not be relied upon. We have come to this conclusion 4 based in part upon the filings made by the New York Attorney 5 General on January 18, 2022, our own investigation and 6 information received from internal and external sources. 7 While we have not concluded that the various financial 8 statements as a whole contain material discrepancies, based upon 9 the totality of the circumstances we believe our advice to you 10 to no longer rely upon those financial statements is 11 appropriate." 12 How did you reach the determination that the Statements 13 of Financial Conditions for 2011 to 2020 should no longer be 14 relied upon? 15 A As I explained in the second paragraph of this letter, 16 we were aware of and reviewed the January 18, 2022 filings by 17 the Attorney General's Office and litigation involving the Trump 18 Organization and in that filing they detailed extensive 19 allegations and issues concerning various assets that were 20 listed in the statements of financial condition. 21 They identified areas that they alleged to have been 22 overstated or improperly reported or some other issue that 23 causes to examine our information that we had in our files and 24 with and through counsel we conducted an internal investigation 25 regarding that -- those -- those services, those statements of	W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2122 1 Q If we could go to page three. Make it at page four. 2 A I'm at page four. 3 Q Do you see the signatures on this page? 4 A I do. 5 Q Whose signatures are those? 6 A I understand them to be Allen Weisselberg on the left 7 and Donald J. Trump Jr. on the right. 8 MR. KISE: Objection, Your Honor. Is he testifying 9 he knows or is he testifying that that's what they appear to 10 be? 11 THE COURT: That's a good question. Let's ask him. 12 Do you recognize the signatures absent the 13 identifications? 14 THE WITNESS: No, I don't. 15 THE COURT: Okay. 16 MR. FINKELSTEIN: If we could go back to PX 2994. 17 THE COURT: I just have one other question. Would 18 you recognize them if they were real? 19 THE WITNESS: No. 20 THE COURT: So you just don't know what the 21 signatures look like? 22 THE WITNESS: No. 23 THE COURT: Thank you. Okay. 24 Q So you wrote in the letter, "We have not concluded that 25 the various financial statements as a whole contain material
Page 2121 1 financial condition. We reviewed other external documents that 2 we were able to get from public sources and as a result of all 3 that and knowing that many of these representations were 4 provided to us through Allen Weisselberg, we thought it 5 appropriate to advise the client that they should no longer rely 6 upon these financial statements. 7 Transcript continues on the following page.... 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2123 1 discrepancies." 2 Does that reflect an affirmative determination that 3 there were no material discrepancies? 4 A That reflects -- 5 MR. KISE: Objection. It says what it says. I 6 mean, I don't know how the witness can testify 7 adverse -- exactly what the words are on the page. Are you 8 calling for an explanation of what it says there in plain 9 English? 10 THE COURT: Did you write this letter? 11 THE WITNESS: I did. 12 THE COURT: Then I'll let you interpret it. 13 Overruled. 14 A Can you read the question back, please? 15 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Can I have a readback? 16 THE COURT: Read back, please. 17 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was 18 read back.) 19 THE COURT: Yes, no? 20 A That reflects that we have not concluded one way or the 21 other. We have reached no conclusion. 22 Q Did you undertake any audit or review procedures to 23 determine whether there were material discrepancies? 24 A No. 25 And this has an explanation if I may, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Sure.
2 THE WITNESS: Thank you.
3 No. In order for an accounting firm to issue an 4 opinion about the veracity of financial information, they
5 must conduct a test services, certain level of services that 6 require testing, confirmation other high-level things. Most 7 common would be an audit or a review. We did no services
8 that would allow us to render an opinion about the 9 truthfulness or untruthfulness of any of the financial
10 information. So we were advising the Trump Organization
11 through this that we have not reached any conclusion.
12 Q So did Mazars make any determination one way or the 13 other that there were, in fact, material discrepancies?
14 A No.
15 Q So going to the next paragraph, you wrote, "As we have
16 stated in the Statements of Financial Condition, Mazars
17 performed its work in accordance with professional standards. A
18 subsequent review of those work papers confirms this."
19 How did you reach that conclusion?
20 A Well, the first sentence, I'm reflecting what the 21 actual compilation report state when they were written in 2011,
22 '12, all the way through '21. The second sentence, the "a 23 subsequent review of those work papers confirms this," we went 24 back and looked at our work papers again to make sure that we 25 didn't make a mistake prior and we didn't. So that's what we

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2125

1 did to confirm the statements in those two sentences.
2 Q And in reviewing the work papers, did you consider any
3 professional standards in your analysis?
4 A In conducting --
5 MR. KISE: Objection, Your Honor. I don't know if
6 it has been established, foundation. Did this witness
7 testify that he, in fact, reviewed the work papers and 8 undertook the review of the work papers? He's not an 9 accountant and as I understand from his deposition, he is 10 not here as a corporate representative. He is here in his 11 individual capacity or general counsel. I don't know if the 12 requisite foundation has been made. I'm not saying they 13 can't. I'm just saying it hasn't been laid yet.
14 THE COURT: Well, I thought your -- originally, I
15 thought your objection was we don't know whether he did it
16 or someone else at Mazars did it.
17 MR. KISE: Well, right. So if he performed it,
18 then he could testify about what he actually did; but if 19 not, then he has no foundation. But either way, it is not 20 clear in the record.
21 THE COURT: All right. Let's make the record
22 clear.
23 Can you rephrase the question?
24 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Okay.
25 Q Earlier you mentioned a review of the work papers. Did

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2126

1 you undertake that review?
2 THE COURT: You personally, you mean?
3 Q You personally.
4 A I was part of the legal team with external lawyers that
5 did that review.
6 Q And what did that review determine?
7 MR. KISE: Again, Your Honor, same objection. Is 8 he asking for what he was told because the witness has just 9 testified he was part a legal team? He is not an 10 accountant, so he wouldn't have any understanding of any 11 professional standards. So if he's being asked to convey 12 what he was told in his role, then that may come in 13 depending on what the answer is, but there's still no
14 foundation and I would think that what he was told is 15 hearsay. They would need the witness on to come in and 16 testify to it.
17 THE COURT: If the witness is just saying what he
18 was told, I would agree it's hearsay.
19 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, that wasn't the question.
20 The question was what did he say. He wasn't asked what he 21 was told.
22 THE COURT: Maybe we have to dig deeper into how he 23 learned what he learned. So I'll ask, the question, just be 24 very clear as to whether we're talking about him or the 25 organization as a whole.

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2127

1 Q So what was your understanding of results -- of the
2 results of the review referenced in this letter?
3 A My understanding was that a review of those work papers
4 confirms that the Statements of Financial Condition and the work
5 performed by Mazars, the work performed by Mazars performed in 6 accordance with professional standards as I wrote in this
7 letter.
8 MR. KISE: Same objection, Your Honor. If that 9 understanding is based on hearsay, then it is inadmissible.
10 THE COURT: I'm not sure -- I feel like we're 11 going around in circles unfortunately. Was this -- was 12 this a team conclusion? Is that basically what you're 13 saying?
14 THE WITNESS: It was a joint conclusion when I and 15 the legal team -- the external legal team reviewed the work
16 papers and we reached a conclusion based on our joint
17 review. I did physically look at work papers. I can't say
18 that I physically did every single one for every single 19 year, but I was part of that team. They worked at my 20 direction and reported to me.
21 THE COURT: Do you feel that you needed to be an
22 accountant to make these statements?
23 THE WITNESS: I believe someone needs to be trained
24 in this area and I've been representing accountants for 25,
25 24 years and I've been -- I'm very familiar with the

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2128

1 standards and how to determine whether or not an engagement
2 comports with professional standards. So yes, I feel
3 comfortable that I don't need to be an accountant to 4 understand that. I don't think that's a general person's 5 ability.
6 THE COURT: Okay. I'll let it all in. Objection
7 overruled and, of course, you can cross-examine him on this
8 issue. Let's move ahead.
9 Q Is it consistent that the statements should no longer
10 be relied upon and that Mazars performed its work in accordance 11 with professional standards?
12 A Yes.
13 Q Can you elaborate on that?
14 A When performing a service like this, a compilation or 15 Statements of Financial Condition, we rely on the 16 representations of management. And in doing so, we take the 17 information and do our work.
18 MR. KISE: Objection, Your Honor. Again, this 19 witness has no foundation here. He's not an accountant. He 20 didn't engage in the actual performance of the work and he 21 is not here as a corporate representative, which I think is 22 a significant distinction. He's the general counsel of the 23 company. He came along after the fact and now he's offering
24 into evidence explanations about matters that he had no
25 personal involvement in whatsoever.

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2129

1 THE COURT: I don't think he's testified he hasn't
2 had any personal involvement in it so --
3 MR. KISE: Your Honor, his personal involvement was 4 limited to after the fact looking over things, but he didn't
5 engage in the -- he's providing the Court now with a
6 narrative of what actually took place as opposed to what he
7 learned from his review.
8 THE COURT: What's wrong with a narrative of what
9 took place?
10 MR. KISE: Because he wasn't there, because he 11 wasn't there. It's -- there's no foundation for it. He's 12 not an accountant.
13 THE COURT: Well, that's two different things. I'm 14 going -- he said he was involved.
15 Were you strongly involved, weakly involved? Were 16 you a part of the team that issued this statement and you
17 would understand what it was meant?
18 THE WITNESS: I was part of the -- I was the one
19 who wrote this letter and I directed the team that did this 20 subsequent review, but I was not part of the original
21 services that were rendered.
22 A I'm not part of the engagement team. This is an
23 after-the-fact examination.
24 THE COURT: We understand that. Objection
25 overruled. Go ahead. At least I understand that.

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2130

1 Q Mr. Kelly, were you in the middle of an answer before
2 this objection?
3 A Yes.
4 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Can I have the question read
5 back, Your Honor?
6 THE COURT: Just the question or do you want the 7 partial answer also?
8 MR. FINKELSTEIN: The partial answer as well.
9 THE COURT: Okay.
10 Read back, please, the last question and the 11 partial answer.
12 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
13 read back.)
14 THE COURT: Was that a completed answer or do you
15 need to add anything to that?
16 THE WITNESS: That is not a completed answer. I
17 wanted to continue and explain.
18 THE COURT: Please do.
19 THE WITNESS: Thank you.
20 So after we rely on the information provided by the 21 client, if it subsequently comes out years later that the 22 representation was misstated, the work we did at the time is 23 still performed in accordance with professional services.
24 That just means that we know now of subsequent information
25 that would cause us to advise the clients that maybe they

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2131

1 should not rely on the financial statements. It doesn't
2 mean that we did the work seven years ago wrong.
3 Q So going to the next paragraph, it reads, "Due in part
4 to our decision regarding the statements as well as the totality
5 of the circumstances, we have also reached the point such that
6 there is a non-waivable conflict of interest with the Trump
7 Organization. As a result, we are not able to provide any new
8 work product to the Trump Organization."
9 What was the non-waivable conflict of interest referred 10 to here?
11 A We came to the conclusion that we would -- members of 12 our firm, members of Mazars would be called upon to testify in 13 an adverse position to our client the Trump Organization. And 14 as a result, we couldn't continue with providing services that 15 were based on us being able to rely upon those representations
16 and/or any representations and advocate for those when filing,
17 in this particular case, tax returns.
18 Q After this letter was sent, did you have any further
19 discussion of the letter with the Trump Organization?
20 A Yes.
21 Q Who did you discuss the letter with?
22 A At first, I had a conversation with Alan Garten and 23 after that, I believe I had one, maybe two conversations with 24 Alan and Eric Trump.
25 Q What do you recall about those discussions?

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT/MR. FINKELSTEIN Page 2132

1 A I recall at the first conversation with Alan was him
2 calling me up and trying to understand the letter and what it
3 meant and get some -- get some more color to what I had
4 written. And then at the end of that call, he said, you know
5 we're going to have to talk to Eric or somebody else about this.
6 And he set up another call with him and Eric Trump and I'm not
7 sure if it was one or two calls, but it was within a day of each
8 sorry, so that's why I'm not sure, and Eric Trump and Alan 9 expressed their opinions of the letter and asked for 10 explanations and I responded.
11 Q Have you ever met with or directly communicated with 12 Donald J. Trump?
13 A No.
14 MR. FINKELSTEIN: No further questions at this
15 time.
16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.
17 Will there be any cross-examination at this time?
18 MR. KISE: Can we drag one of these mics? I don't
19 know how this works.
20 THE COURT: We have a portable one.
21 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I may have misstated
22 something earlier. The microphone is actually the court's
23 and not the AG's.
24 THE COURT: Thank you. We lose a lot of things
25 that way.

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2133

1 MR. ROBERT: Since it is a court mic, is there
2 another one we can get?
3 IT SPECIALIST: Those are the only two we have.
4 MR. ROBERT: Is there a way to pair it up with
5 something later, so we don't have to use the same remote?
6 IT SPECIALIST: We would have to get another
7 receiver.
8 MR. ROBERT: Maybe during the lunch break?
9 IT SPECIALIST: Not during the lunch break.
10 MR. KISE: Do we have like maybe wipes or something
11 to use on the microphone, like something basic -- 12 MS. HABBA: Do you have another -- mics usually 13 come with extra head covers. Do you have a new one?
14 IT SPECIALIST: I'll see what we have available.
15 MS. HABBA: That would be great. Thank you.
16 THE COURT: Chris, typical of you to suggest a
17 low-tech solution, right.
18 CROSS-EXAMINATION
19 BY MR. SUAREZ:
20 Q Mr. Kelly, it is nice to see you again.
21 A Nice to see you.
22 Q I hope you are feeling well since our last meeting last
23 week at your deposition.
24 A I am.
25 Q Mr. Kelly, you're the general counsel of Mazars USA,

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2134

1 correct?
2 A Correct.
3 Q Prior to joining Mazars, you represented accountants in 4 accounting firms in private practice, correct?
5 A Correct.
6 Q For over 20 years, correct?
7 A Correct. Not since prior to joining Mazars because I
8 joined in 2018 and graduated in 2020. So for 18 years, I
9 represented accountants give or take.
10 Q For 18 years, you represented accountants?
11 A Yes.
12 THE COURT: Please no talking over each other.
13 Q You represented accountants in connection with their 14 professional lives, correct?
15 A Correct.
16 Q And partnership disputes, correct?
17 A Correct.
18 Q You advised the accountants on how to comply with 19 professional rules and ethics, correct?
20 A Correct.
21 Q And in fact, you advised accountants how to handle what 22 you described at your deposition last week as particularly 23 tricky situations, correct?
24 A Correct.
25 Q And you lecture on risk management for accountants,

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2135

1 correct?
2 A I used to in private practice, correct.
3 Q Mazars was a client of yours for a long time before you
4 became its general counsel, correct?
5 A Correct.
6 Q And the law firm of Wilson Elser continues to represent
7 Mazars to this day, correct?
8 A Correct.
9 Q In fact, Wilson Elser was the firm that you used to 10 conduct an internal investigation into Mazars' work on the 11 president's Statement of Financial Condition, correct?
12 A One of two firms.
13 Q One of two firms. The other one was the Blank Rome
14 firm, correct?
15 A Correct.
16 Q Those were Mazars' outside counsel in connection with 17 the internal investigation that you conducted?
18 A Correct.
19 Q You're not a CPA, however, correct?
20 A I am not.
21 Q You do not prepare compilation reports, correct?
22 A Correct.
23 Q You do not prepare asset valuations, correct?
24 A Correct.
25 Q And you're here today in your individual capacity,

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2136

1 correct?
2 A Correct.
3 Q Because Mazars made the determination that you were the
4 person most knowledgeable --
5 MR. SUAREZ: Judge, the feedback on this is pretty
6 bad.
7 THE COURT: Where is Rob when you need him? Try to 8 get Rob, please.
9 Why don't we continue, maybe just tone it down a
10 little bit.
11 Q Because Mazars made the determination that you were the
12 person most knowledgeable about certain topics that the New York
13 Attorney General wanted to discuss today, correct?
14 A Correct.
15 Q And that topic included compilation procedures,
16 correct?
17 A Well, I don't know what the Attorney General wanted to 18 talk about, but when I was asked who was the most knowledgeable
19 about certain topics, it was me.
20 Q Not Donald Bender?
21 A Not on the topics that we were asked about.
22 Q You were asked by the NYAG to testify at trial in this
23 case at the end of last summer, right?
24 A I'm not sure when it was. It was several months ago.
25 Q Several months ago, you were asked to testify at trial

1 today?
2 A I was advised that I may be called to testify,
3 that -- at this trial.
4 Q And when were you subpoenaed?
5 A I don't -- I don't know.
6 Q Have you ever seen a subpoena?
7 A I believe I have.
8 Q When did you see that subpoena?
9 A Months, a month ago, two months ago. I have no
10 specific recollection.
11 Q Two months ago, you were subpoenaed to testify at 12 trial?
13 A It could be. I have no specific recollection.
14 Q And in the months since, you met with the Attorney
15 General's office at least twice to prepare for your testimony?
16 A Correct.
17 Q And in fact, you practiced your direct examination with 18 the government, correct?
19 A I wouldn't say it was a practice. They asked me some 20 questions and I gave them the answers.
21 Q In preparation to testify at trial today?
22 A In anticipation of the testimony, yeah.
23 Q And you were deposed at Trump Tower last week, correct?
24 A Correct.
25 Q And we sat in a small conference room with members of

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2138

1 the Attorney General's team, correct?
2 A Correct.
3 Q Have you or your lawyers further discussed your
4 testimony today with the NYAG?
5 A Yes.
6 Q Since the deposition?
7 A Yes.
8 Q What did you discuss?
9 A I was informed over the weekend that the attorney who
10 was questioning me had come down with COVID and a new attorney
11 was going to meet me and get familiar with my talking style.
12 And when we met on Monday by Zoom, we did the same thing we did
13 previously with that attorney, about asking questions and me
14 giving answers.
15 Q You practiced for your direct examination, correct?
16 MR. SOLOMON: Objection. The witness already
17 testified he wasn't practicing, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: He did. So you'll have to use a
19 different word.
20 Q What would you call reviewing your questions for trial
21 today other than practicing?
22 A Well, for me, it wasn't a practice. He wanted to get
23 to know my rhythm, my answering style, how I answered questions, 24 so maybe it was practice for him; but for me, it was just 25 answering questions.

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2139

1 Q They wanted to rehearse your direct examination for
2 today?
3 A Whatever their intentions were, I don't know.
4 Q Because the lawyer that sat with us in a conference
5 room for five hours on Thursday had come down with COVID
6 correct?
7 A Correct.
8 Q That's what they told you?
9 A Yes.
10 Q Anything else that you discussed at that meeting on 11 Monday?
12 A No.
13 Q You reviewed Donald Bender's work on the Statements of 14 Financial Condition, correct?
15 A Correct.
16 Q And in fact, you reviewed Mazars' work papers on the 17 Statement of Financial Condition, correct?
18 A Correct.
19 Q You determined that Mazars' work was conducted in 20 accordance with professional standards, correct?
21 A Correct.
22 Q In fact, you described Mr. Bender's role in working for 23 the Trump Organization as unique and irreplaceable correct?
24 A I have described him that way, yes.
25 Q And in fact, Mr. Bender was the engagement partner on

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2140 1 the Trump engagements for a period of time that you reviewed, 2 correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And you said that he had 30-plus years of knowledge of 5 the Trump Organization and their financial reporting, correct? 6 A Correct. 7 Q You told me when we met at your deposition that he was 8 familiar with everything that was provided to him, correct? 9 A I don't remember those exact words, but I will agree to 10 those words today. 11 Q Okay. Mr. Bender became familiar with everything that 12 was provided to him, correct? 13 A Correct, in a general sense. 14 Q Those were your words at your deposition, correct? 15 A I don't remember those words in particular, but... 16 Q You also told me that Bender knew the ins and outs of 17 all the transactions, correct? 18 A Correct. 19 Q The historic information, correct? 20 A Correct. 21 Q What entities were no longer in operation, correct? 22 A Correct. 23 Q That there were a lot of similarly-named entities and 24 he knew all of them with great recall? Those were your words, 25 correct?	W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2142 1 Q Are you concerned that Mr. Bender claimed not to have 2 expertise in interpreting ASC 274? 3 A No. 4 Q Are you aware that ASC 274 governs the preparation of 5 an individual's Statement of Financial Condition? 6 A In a general sense, yes. 7 Q Are you concerned that Mr. Bender did not read or 8 comprehend the supporting data for the Statements of Financial 9 Condition in their entirety each year that they were provided to 10 him? 11 A I don't accept the premise to that question. 12 Q Why not? 13 A I'm not sure it's a fact that he did not do what you 14 said he didn't do. 15 MR. SUAREZ: All right. Let's pull up Mr. Bender's 16 trial testimony at page 331 at lines 12 through 19: 17 "You can't answer whether you read the whole 18 document. Yes. Okay. The Statement of Financial Condition 19 of the President of the United States and you can't answer 20 if you read the whole document, is that right. I can't 21 answer today that I read every line." 22 Do you see that? 23 A I do. 24 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I'm going to object to 25 this. The original question was the supporting data. This
W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2141 1 A Correct. 2 Q In fact, you told me just last week that Mr. Bender 3 would give a four-hour answer if I asked him what knowledge he 4 had of the Trump Organization, correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q And you also told me that you had no concern with the 7 work that Donald Bender did for the Trump Organization, correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And that Mazars had no concern with the work that 10 Donald Bender did for the Trump Organization, correct? 11 A Correct. 12 Q Are you concerned that Mr. Bender received appraisals 13 that he claimed he did not read and understand? 14 A I'm familiar with what you're talking about and I'm not 15 concerned about that. 16 Q Because you were sitting at his deposition, correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q And that didn't concern you? 19 A No. 20 Q Are you concerned that Mr. Bender did not read 21 everything that was sent to him by the Trump Organization? 22 A No. 23 Q Are you concerned that Mr. Bender was provided with 24 loan documents that he claims he did not read? 25 A No.	W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2143 1 answer speaks to the Statement of Financial Condition. 2 Which is it? 3 MR. SUAREZ: And then -- 4 MR. SOLOMON: To show this witness testimony from 5 another witness on a different document is unfair and 6 misleading. 7 MR. KISE: You mean like they do just about with 8 every witness and I object and it is overruled? 9 MR. SOLOMON: Mr. Kise, that is totally unnecessary 10 and you know it. 11 MR. KISE: It is not unnecessary. 12 MR. SOLOMON: There is an objection to the bench 13 which does not concern you. 14 MR. KISE: Everything that goes on here concerns me 15 and my client, absolutely, sir, including your health. 16 MR. SOLOMON: Well, thank you for your concern. 17 THE COURT: I think there was a misrepresentation 18 of what was testified to in the question, but rather than 19 unpack all this, why don't we just move ahead. 20 This is not your testimony, right? 21 THE WITNESS: The testimony on -- the testimony on 22 the screen is not my testimony. 23 THE COURT: Right. Right. Let's have the next 24 question and I'll deem everything else withdrawn. 25 Q Would it concern you that Mr. Bender testified in court

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS/MR. SUAREZ Page 2144 1 that he could not answer -- 2 THE COURT: Wait. Wait. That wasn't in court, 3 right? 4 MR. SUAREZ: This was in court. 5 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry this was actually -- I 6 haven't caught up in modern technology. Yes, this was in 7 court. Apologize. 8 Q Would it concern you that Mr. Bender testified in court 9 that the Statement of Financial Condition of the President of 10 the United States and he couldn't answer if he read the whole 11 document? 12 A Well, he said he couldn't answer that day whether he 13 read every line and I understand that to mean that he couldn't 14 recall reading every line of every document as he was sitting on 15 the witness stand. So that doesn't concern me that. 16 Q It does not concern you. And you can't answer whether 17 he read the whole document. He says yes, he could not answer if 18 he had read the whole document. 19 THE COURT: What's the question? 20 Q Does that concern you? 21 A Knowing how the next question played out, I understand 22 what he's trying to say. 23 MR. SUAREZ: If you read up to the prior line, can 24 we scroll in on that. 25 Q Did you read this document? He responds, "Did I read	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2146 1 Q Can we scroll to the top of PX 731? Do you recognize 2 this document? 3 A I recognize this type of document. This one in 4 particular I have no memory of. 5 Q Okay. Do you see what "PBC" means? 6 A Yes. 7 Q PBC means prepared by client? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And that's a document that Mazars stamps on documents 10 that it receives? 11 A That's a stamp Mazars puts on documents that it 12 receives. 13 Q And see where it says there "Donald J. Trump Statement 14 of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2015?" 15 A I do. 16 Q Do you understand this to be the supporting data for 17 the Statement of Financial Condition for 2015? 18 A I believe that's part of it, yes. 19 Q In connection with the internal investigation that you 20 led, I presume you reviewed the supporting data for the 21 statements of financial condition? 22 A I did. 23 Q Okay. And do you see where I ask Mr. Bender here at 24 trial: "Mr. Bender, in connection with the Statement of 25 Financial Condition is this something that you saw?" We pulled
Page 2145 1 the whole document. I presumably -- I can't answer if I read 2 the whole document." 3 THE COURT: What's the question? 4 Q Are you concerned that Mr. Bender didn't read 5 Statements of Financial Condition in their entirety? 6 A That's not what he said. He says, "I presumably -- I 7 can't answer if I read the whole document." 8 Q Okay. 9 A And he goes on to explain that he can't answer today 10 that he read every line of every document and whatever the 11 document that is. I still don't know what document it is. 12 MR. SUAREZ: Let turn to page 375 of the trial 13 testimony at lines 24. We are looking at PX 731. Can we 14 pull up 731 and put it next to this document just to make 15 sure that we are clear. 16 (Continued on the next page.) 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2147 1 up PX 731, we see that on the line before. 2 "The schedule." 3 He says, "I see?" 4 "Did you see it?" 5 "ANSWER: Yes, I did. 6 "QUESTION: Did you review it? 7 "ANSWER: I did not review it. 8 "QUESTION: Did not review it? 9 "Review is the job was a compilation." 10 "ANSWER: Okay." 11 Did you read it? 12 A May not have read every line, but I did look at it. 13 Q Are you concerned that Mr. Bender did not read every 14 line of the supporting data of the Statement of Financial 15 Condition? 16 A No, I'm not. 17 Q Okay. That does not concern you at all? 18 A No. 19 Q Okay. Mr. Bender was the engagement partner that 20 signed the compilation reports; correct? 21 A Correct. 22 Q And his work was subject to quality review by another 23 member of the team; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q Are you concerned that Mr. Bender testified that just

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2148 1 because something was sent to him it didn't mean that he 2 reviewed it? 3 A No. 4 Q Okay. And that includes the years where Mr. Bender was 5 compiling the Statement of Financial Condition for the president 6 of the United States? 7 A I don't know what it refers to. 8 Q You understand that Donald J. Trump was the president 9 of the United States; correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q That's not lost on you; correct? 12 A Correct. 13 Q Okay. You testified earlier today that Mazars performs 14 compilation engagements in connection or rather in compliance of 15 professional standards; correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And this includes professional standards promulgated by 18 the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants; correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And you're familiar with AR 80? 21 A In a general sense. 22 Q And ARC 80? 23 A I believe so again in a general sense. 24 Q Okay. And those are accounting standards that govern 25 the preparation of compilations?	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2150 1 Organization used the compilation reports prepared by Mazars; 2 correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q You would agree with me that Mazars had an obligation 5 to read and understand the supporting data provided in 6 connection with preparing the compilation of a Statement of 7 Financial Condition? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And you would agree with me that Mazars has an 10 obligation to understand the basis of valuation for each asset 11 listed in the Statement of Financial Condition; right? 12 A Correct. 13 Q And confirm that the valuation method is consistent 14 with the definition of estimated current value; correct? 15 A Correct. 16 Q You would agree that Mazars has an obligation to 17 confirm that the notes to a Statement of Financial Condition are 18 consistent to the supporting data when preparing an accountant's 19 compilation report; correct? 20 A Correct. 21 MR. SUAREZ: Let's take a look at Plaintiff's 22 Exhibit 719 at line 654. 23 Q And Mr. Kelly, this is the supporting data for the 2014 24 Statement of Financial Condition that was produced into evidence 25 by the Attorney General. Do you see here that it provides a
W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2149 1 A In a general sense. 2 Q Okay. Mazars doesn't have its own manual for 3 compilation engagements; correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q It follows the policies and procedures concerning 6 compilation work that are promulgated by the AIBCA; correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q And, in fact, each compilation report is subject to 9 quality control review before its issue; correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And at your deposition we talked about the fact that 12 compilations have limited uses; right? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And you describe compilations as something that you 15 personally have an issue with? 16 A On a personal level, yes. 17 Q That's not the official Mazars policy; correct? 18 A No. 19 Q Compilations are the lowest level of financial 20 statement preparation; correct? 21 A Correct. 22 Q And I think you said you had a philosophical issue with 23 the purpose of compilation in a general sense; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q But you took no exception with how the Trump	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2151 1 valuation of the Seven Springs property under development? 2 A I see that. 3 Q And do you see here that the basis of valuation is an 4 anticipated selling price to reach an anticipated profit times 5 the number of homes to yield an anticipated value. Do you see 6 that? 7 A I see what it says. 8 Q Okay. Do you see that the method of valuation reflects 9 to the -- I'm sorry -- reflects the anticipated profit after 10 cost? 11 A I do. 12 Q And do you see that the method used here does not 13 account for the time value of money in reaching a value for the 14 project under development? 15 A I don't see any indication of that, correct. 16 Q Correct there is no indication here that the time value 17 of money was taken into account; correct? 18 A Correct. 19 Q And this is something that you would have expected 20 Mazars to read and understand in connection with the preparation 21 of the compilation report; correct? 22 A Correct. 23 Q Okay. Let's take a look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 730. 24 This is a 2014 Statement of Financial Condition and the 25 accompanying accountant's compilation report prepared by Mazars.

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2153 1 has not been reflected in the preparation of this financial 2 statement." Do you see that? 3 A I see that. 4 Q And would you have expected Mazars to read and 5 understand this note to the financial statement before issuing 6 its compilation report; correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q All right. Now, let's turn to the Supporting Data for 9 this year, PX 719. This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 719 and if we 10 can start at the top, 679. This, again, is the 2014 Supporting 11 Data. Do you see that? 12 A I see that. 13 Q The brand premium -- if we look at Colts Neck, the 14 Colts Neck property, line 306 of this property, would you agree 15 with me that the valuation method disclosed there includes the 16 value of the fixed assets; correct? 17 A I see that. 18 Q And the "premium for fully operational branded facility 19 at 30 percent." Do you see that? 20 A I see that. 21 Q Would you have expected Mazars to read and understand 22 the basis for valuing the Trump National Golf Club at Colts 23 Neck? 24 A Yes. 25 Q And you see there next to the value of 61,257,000,	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2155 1 A Yes. 2 Q And you would see the same is true as the golf club in 3 L.A.? 4 A Correct. 5 Q And you would see the same is true for the golf club in 6 Charlotte; correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q And the golf club in Jupiter? 9 A Correct. 10 Q And in all of these instances would you have expected 11 Mazars to read and understand the basis for valuing these golf 12 clubs; correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q Now, let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 755. This is 15 the Statement of Financial Condition for 2017 for President 16 Trump with the Mazars compilation report included; correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q If we take a look at the assets page. Do you see where 19 it says "other assets" of $318 million? 20 A I do. 21 Q Now, let's turn to page 21. And the "other assets" 22 says "the estimated current values of other assets are based on 23 an evaluation by the trustees in conjunction with their 24 associates and outside professionals using various valuation 25 methods." Do you see that?

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2156 1 A I do. 2 Q Do you see with where it says "Trump Tower?" 3 A I do. 4 Q Do you see where it says "Mr. Trump owns a triplex 5 apartment on the top three floors of Trump Tower?" 6 A I see that. 7 Q Now, take a look at the corresponding supporting data 8 for this note, which we'll pull up as Plaintiff's Exhibit 758. 9 This is the supporting data for the 2017 Statement of Financial 10 Condition, and if we scroll down to line 969. 11 MR. SUAREZ: Scroll up a little bit. Up. Up. 12 Q You would see here that the 2016 data reflected the 13 townhouse triplex based on comps at 30,000 square feet for the 14 prior year; correct? 15 A I see what it says. 16 Q And you see where it says that the triplex based on 17 comps at 10,000 square feet for the current year is 116,800,000? 18 A I see that. 19 Q Do you see that? And you see the Mazars check number 20 right there on it; right? 21 A I see that. 22 Q And you would have expected Mazars to read and 23 understand this change; correct? 24 A I would, yes. 25 Q And you can agree with me that the square footage here	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2158 1 was a change in the triplex; correct? 2 A What would have been to what? 3 Q Disclosed here in the supporting data that there was a 4 change in the size of the triplex; correct? 5 A Correct. The supporting data reflects the change in 6 the size. 7 Q And Mazars never called back any of the prior years' 8 Statements of Financial Statement compilation reports; correct? 9 A Correct. 10 THE COURT: Hold on. This is when we usually 11 break. How much longer do you think that this cross 12 examination will take? 13 MR. SUAREZ: I've got a little bit to go. 14 THE COURT: What's a little bit? 15 MR. SUAREZ: Maybe an hour. 16 THE COURT: Maybe an hour, all right. Let's keep 17 going for now. 18 Q And if we looked at the fixed asset valuation method, 19 let's take a look at lines 267, would you agree with me here 20 that the valuation method disclosed to Mazars for assets 21 included the value of the fixed assets for the Trump 22 International Golf Club Florida? 23 A I see that. 24 Q And would you agree with me here that the Trump Golf 25 Club Briarcliff Manor included the value of the fixed assets?
W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2157 1 changes from 10,000 -- excuse me -- from 30,000 square feet to a 2 bit over almost 11,000 square feet. Do you see that? 3 A I see that. 4 Q Okay. And you would agree with me that this was a 5 correction that was made by the Trump Organization on the 6 Supporting Data? 7 A I don't know who made the correction. 8 Q It wasn't Mazars; correct? 9 A Correct. 10 Q And you would expect the notes to be conformed as 11 appropriate; correct? 12 A That's -- I don't understand that question. 13 Q You would expect the notes to accurately reflect the 14 basis for valuation; correct? 15 A Not necessarily. The notes don't need to describe the 16 basis of valuation. 17 Q But you would expect the accountant, Mazars, in 18 preparing the compilation to make sure that the notes were 19 consistent with the supporting data; correct? 20 A Correct. If the notes were consistent with the 21 supporting data, yes. 22 Q And sufficiently descriptive as appropriate? 23 A As appropriate. 24 Q Correct. 25 And it would have been to disclose to Mazars that there	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2159 1 A I see that. 2 Q And if we can scroll down you can see that the fixed 3 asset valuation method here for the Trump National Golf Club 4 Bedminister also used the fixed asset value approach? 5 A I do. 6 Q You see all of that? 7 And if I were to ask you the same question about all of 8 the other golf course properties you would agree with me that 9 they all again disclose the fixed asset value method as the 10 basis for valuation of each of these assets? 11 A That's what it says. 12 Q That's what it says. 13 And you would have expected Mazars to read and 14 understand the Supporting Data; correct? 15 A Correct. 16 Q Okay. Now, let's go back to Plaintiff's Exhibit 755 at 17 page 5 of the PDF. And here it says "assets are stated at their 18 estimated current values and liabilities at their estimate 19 current amounts using various valuation methods. Such valuation 20 methods include, but are not limited to, the use of appraisals, 21 capitalization of anticipated earnings, recent sales and offers, 22 and estimates of current values as determined by the new 23 trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust." Do you see 24 that? 25 A I see that.

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2160 1 Q The fixed assets approach to valuation isn't 2 specifically identified here; correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And you would have expected Mazars to read and 5 understand this paragraph; correct? 6 A Correct. 7 Q Okay. Turning to Plaintiff's Exhibit 2992. This was 8 the letter that you sent to the Trump Organization; correct? 9 A Correct. 10 Q And earlier you testified that you sent this letter 11 after Mazars learned of certain things that the District 12 Attorney's Office was asking questions about; correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q Prior to sending this letter you never contacted the 15 Trump Organization; correct? 16 A I may have called Alan Garten to let him know I was 17 coming. 18 Q But you didn't ask the Trump Organization to provide 19 information or any backup; correct? 20 A Correct. 21 Q You never asked the Trump Organization to give you 22 information concerning the questions that the District 23 Attorney's Office was asking; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q You took the District Attorney's Office at their word;	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2162 1 A Correct. 2 Q And prior to sending this letter Mazars conducted its 3 own investigation; right? 4 A Correct. 5 Q You looked at public sources; right? 6 A Correct. 7 Q Those included newspapers? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And other publicly available documents; right? 10 A Correct. 11 Q You didn't perform professional services before you 12 issued this letter; right? You -- 13 A Did not perform professional accounting services prior 14 to issuing this letter. 15 Q Mazars did not perform professional accounting services 16 prior to issuing this letter? 17 A Correct. 18 Q You didn't perform an audit of the Statement of 19 Financial Condition? 20 A Correct. 21 Q You didn't perform a review of the statements of 22 financial condition? 23 A Correct. 24 Q Prior to sending this letter you also considered 25 information that you received from internal and external
W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2161 1 correct? 2 A Not quite. 3 Q But you never gave the Trump Organization an 4 opportunity to comment on their allegations; correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q Your decision to terminate the engagement was because 7 Mazars deemed Mr. Weisselberg not to be credible; correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And as a result you could no longer rely on his 10 representations; right? 11 A Correct. 12 Q Does Mazars take the position that when deciding to 13 disengage the Trump Organization as a client it executed that 14 decision in accordance with professional standards? 15 A Correct. 16 Q Let's take a look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 2994. You 17 wrote this letter; correct? 18 A Correct. 19 Q And it says that Mazars has not concluded that the 20 various financial statements as a whole contain material 21 discrepancies; correct? 22 A Correct. 23 Q When you refer to the various financial statements you 24 meant the statements of financial condition for President Trump 25 for the period 2011 to 2020; correct?	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2163 1 alternatively sources; correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q And you reviewed Mazars work papers; correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q Including all of the previous work papers that we 6 previously reviewed; correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q And all of the statements of financial condition that 9 we previously looked at? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And you concluded that Mazars' work was done in 12 accordance with professional standards? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And you reviewed the allegations in certain filings 15 that were made by the New York Attorney General; right? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And you understood as a lawyer at the time that those 18 were just allegations; right? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And again, you never asked the Trump Organization for 21 an opportunity to provide input on the NYAG's allegations? 22 A Correct. 23 Q You never interviewed anyone from the Trump 24 Organization; right? 25 A Correct.

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2164 1 Q You never asked the Trump Organization to walk you 2 through the valuation methods that had been used in the 3 statements of financial condition; correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q But you did look at the supporting data; right? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And you saw how it was reported in the notes; correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And you concluded that the work had been done in 10 accordance with professional standards; right? 11 A Correct. 12 THE COURT: That's been asked about five times 13 already. 14 Q And after conducting all of this diligence, which 15 included two outside law firms; right? 16 A Correct. 17 Q It included communications with the New York Attorney 18 General's Office; correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q You spoke with these people; right? 21 A I'm -- 22 Q Or some of the ones that might be out by COVID; right? 23 A Yes. 24 Q And Mazars never determined that there were any 25 material discrepancies with respect to the Statement of	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2166 1 A Correct. 2 Q And Mazars also prepared tax returns for dozens, if not 3 hundreds, of other Trump Organization entities; correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q And reviewed or audited financial statements for dozens 6 of entities; correct? 7 A I'm not sure about dozens, but yes, excess of ten. 8 Q In excess of ten. 9 Since 2011, there were at least 116 engagements for at 10 least 14 entities in the audit review and attestation 11 categories. Does that sound about right? 12 A I'll assume that that does not disprove anything in my 13 mind. 14 Q You don't have a basis to dispute that? 15 A Right. 16 Q And this work took place over a decade; right? 17 A Correct. 18 Q And Mazars was a Trump Organization primary outside 19 accounting firm? 20 A Correct. 21 Q And Mazars was paid millions of dollars in fees; right? 22 A Correct. 23 Q And the Trump Organization was Mr. Bender's biggest 24 client? 25 A Correct.
W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2165 1 Financial Condition that it prepared for President Trump from 2 2011 to 2018? 3 A That is correct. 4 Q And Mazars takes the position that its decision to 5 advise its client not to rely on the statements of financial 6 condition from 2011 to 2020 was executed in accordance with 7 professional standards; correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q Mr. Kelly, you would agree with me that Mazars and its 10 predecessors prepared compilations of the Statement of Financial 11 Condition for decades? 12 A I could only say until, like, 2005 and 4. I don't know 13 before that. 14 Q A really long time? 15 A A really long time. 16 Q And Mazars never refused to prepare a Statement of 17 Financial Condition prior to 2021; correct? 18 A For this client, correct. 19 Q Correct, fair. 20 And each year Mazars got paid to prepare the 21 compilation report for the Statement of Financial Condition; 22 correct? 23 A Correct. 24 Q And each year Mazars also got paid to prepare the 25 president's federal income tax returns; correct?	W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2167 1 Q By a lot? 2 A Correct. 3 Q And before the New York Attorney General started 4 investigating in 2019, Mazars never had any issue with any of 5 the work it did for the Trump Organization; correct? 6 A Not correct. 7 Q Mazars didn't have any major issues that it did with 8 it? 9 A That's correct. 10 Q That's correct. 11 There might have been things that were in dispute that 12 you talked about; right? 13 A There were other legal matters that we dealt with 14 throughout the years. 15 Q And you worked them out to Mazars' satisfaction? 16 A Correct. 17 Q Because Mazars kept doing work for the Trump 18 Organization? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And kept collecting fees from the Trump Organization? 21 A Correct. 22 THE COURT: Asked and answered many times. Yes, 23 they were paid. 24 Q And over the years Mazars prepared audits of 40 Wall 25 Street LLC; correct?

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2168

1 A Correct.
2 Q Audits of the Trump Old Post Office LLC?
3 A Correct.
4 Q Audits and compilations for 401 North Wabash Venture
5 LLC?
6 A I believe so, yes.
7 Q And in doing so Mazars would have known that these
8 attestation services were performed for the benefit of lenders
9 like Deutsche Bank; right?
10 A I don't know in any particular situation.
11 Q Okay. Was it part of your review to determine what the 12 audits and compilations prepared for those entities were used 13 for?
14 A No.
15 Q Were there any loan documents related to Deutsche Bank
16 or Ladder Capital in Mazars' files?
17 A You know, I don't remember seeing any.
18 Q Would you have understood the basis for preparing
19 audits and compilations?
20 A Yes.
21 Q Would you have understood that those were going to be
22 submitted to lenders?
23 A It depends on a particular situation.
24 Q That they could have been submitted to lenders?
25 A I'm aware of various uses for those type of documents;

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2169

1 in this situation, I don't know.
2 Q And Mazars would have done a good job in doing audits
3 and compilations -- excuse me.
4 And Mazars would have done a good job in doing audits
5 and reviews for those entities; correct?
6 A Correct.
7 Q And in doing so Mazars would have performed financial
8 analysis on the books and records of those entities; right?
9 A Of the entities we're doing the audits of?
10 Q Correct.
11 A Yes.
12 Q Which include 40 Wall, Old Post Office and 401 North
13 Wabash?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And those audits took place as recently as December 31,
16 2020; correct?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And to this day Mazars still stands behind all of the 19 financial statements that audited or reviewed for the Trump
20 Organization; correct?
21 A Correct.
22 Q Okay. And then in February you send a letter saying
23 there is a non-waivable conflict; right?
24 A Correct.
25 Q And this conflict included the potential that you might

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2170

1 be called to testify in a manner that's adverse to your former
2 client; correct?
3 A Right.
4 Q And, of course, you were concerned that the government,
5 the NYAG, these people, could bring a claim against Mazars;
6 correct?
7 A As general counsel of Mazars, I'm concerned anybody
8 could bring a claim against it and in this particular situation
9 I was concerned of anybody involved could bring a lawsuit
10 against the Trump Organization.
11 Q It was --
12 A I'm sorry.
13 Q It was a factor; right?
14 A Yes.
15 Q You were concerned?
16 A Correct.
17 Q And you wanted to get ahead of it; right?
18 A Well, I knew that if we were able to demonstrate what 19 services we provided that we'd be okay because we complied with 20 professional standards.
21 Q You wanted to convince the government not to bring a
22 claim against Mazars?
23 A I wanted to explain to whoever would ask what we did
24 and why we did it.
25 Q You certainly didn't want to -- I'm sorry -- not to

W. Kelly - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez) Page 2171

1 bring a claim against Mazars?
2 A I'll agree with that.
3 Q And you exchanged a lot of information; right? Years
4 worth of information?
5 A With who?
6 Q With the New York Attorney General's Office?
7 A Yes.
8 Q You spent years of exchanging information with them;
9 right?
10 A We spent years replying to their subpoenas and things
11 like that, yes.
12 Q Okay. Because you wanted to curry favor with these 13 people so you could get Mazars out of a tricky situation; right?
14 A There was no currying favor involved. It was being a 15 good corporate citizen, responding to subpoenas and explaining 16 the work we did.
17 Q Okay. So after all of these years, 30 years with 18 Mazars and its prior entities, millions and millions of dollars
19 paid for by the Trump Organization, when the New York Attorney
20 General files a claim, files a paper in court, you take them at 21 their word and never once consult with your former client;
22 right?
23 A No, we didn't take them at their word. We did
24 additional investigation as outlined in the letter.
25 Q Which did not include talking to your client who paid

Page 2172 1 you all that money for all those years; right? 2 A Correct. 3 Q Okay. So that was it? You just kicked them to the 4 curb; right? 5 A We did not kick them to the curb. 6 Q Okay. 7 Transcript continues on the following page.... 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	Page 2174 1 THE COURT: When? 2 MR. SUAREZ: 15 minutes. 3 THE COURT: Deal. 4 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. 5 (Witness resumes the stand.) 6 THE COURT: Okay. 15 minutes from 12:02. 7 Q Mr. Kelly, I want to bring Plaintiff's Exhibit 2994 8 back up to the screen. I want to draw your attention very 9 specifically to the part that says, "While we have not concluded 10 that the various financial statements as a whole contain 11 material discrepancies. " 12 After all these years, Mr. Kelly, and all the 13 investigations by the New York Attorney General's Office and the 14 District Attorney of New York and congressional democrats, 15 Mazars wrote, "While we have not concluded that the various 16 financial statements contain material discrepancy," correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q All of this time later, you still have not identified 19 material discrepancies, correct? 20 A When I wrote this letter, correct. 21 Q Okay. And that was -- 22 THE COURT: Wait. Wait. That's not what the 23 question was. The question was -- 24 MR. SUAREZ: I'll rephrase the question. 25 THE COURT: There was no problem with the question.
W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ) Page 2173 1 MR. KISE: Your Honor, I hate to interrupt my 2 colleague, but are we taking our morning break? 3 THE COURT: Is there any chance of finishing this 4 before 12:30? 5 MR. SUAREZ: I could meet with my colleagues and 6 streamline the rest of the presentation. 7 THE COURT: How about we take a break now and if 8 the team can suggest ways to make this faster, we would 9 appreciate that. 10 MR. KISE: We will as always. I will note yet 11 again, though, that no one ever hurries up the Attorney 12 General. We are the only ones that always get the hurry up. 13 THE COURT: All right. I don't have to respond to 14 that. I don't necessarily accept it. In fact, I don't 15 accept it. Ten-minute break for the next 15 minutes. 16 (Witness exits the stand.) 17 (Whereupon, a recess was taken.) 18 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in 19 session. Be seated and come to order. 20 THE COURT: Ten-minute break should not take more 21 than 15 minutes. It shouldn't take 20, but if there is an 22 emergency or something, tell me; but let's try to keep this 23 moving fast. 24 It's twelve o'clock. How much longer? 25 MR. SUAREZ: We'll, wrap it up.	W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FAHERTY: Can we move this along? I think 23 we've established it is after a number of years. Can we 24 move this along? 25 MR. SUAREZ: I don't blame you. This is the kind

1 of harassment that we have had to put up with and you had to
2 put up with it. So I will move it along, but you know it is
3 important that we get out --
4 MS. FAHERTY: Objection to that commentary.
5 MR. SUAREZ: Well, I don't interrupt you in the 6 middle of your questions. I appreciate the fact to finish
7 here.
8 THE COURT: I don't think you're on the microphone,
9 are you?
10 MS. FAHERTY: Oh, I could speak loudly, Your Honor.
11 I apologize.
12 THE COURT: Okay. Let hear from the AG and then
13 Mr. Suarez and then let you move on. The clock is ticking.
14 MS. FAHERTY: I objected and asked that if we could
15 move it along, it had been asked and answered and then I
16 objected to the mischaracterization.
17 MR. KISE: We are seriously on the clock? You are 18 kidding about that, right?
19 THE COURT: I'm not kidding because he is asking
20 the same question over and over and he is misrepresenting.
21 MR. KISE: I don't think so at all, but this never 22 happens during that their examinations never, never,
23 N-E-V-E-R, sir. I'm sorry, but this never happens that 24 they're on a clock.
25 THE COURT: Maybe there is a reason.

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ) Page 2177

1 MS. HABBA: Yeah, we know.
2 THE COURT: We disagree on what the reason is, but
3 let's not try to figure this out in front of the current
4 situation. Please continue.
5 Q Since we were interrupted, years of investigations by 6 the New York Attorney General, correct.
7 A Correct.
8 Q Years of investigations by the District Attorney of New
9 York, correct?
10 A Correct.
11 Q Years of investigation by --
12 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. You keep saying that.
13 MR. SUAREZ: They keep interrupting me. I'm trying 14 to get through a line of questioning and cross-examination,
15 Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: Did you forget what he said before
17 about years of investigation, years of this, years of that?
18 Did you forget that?
19 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I do need to 20 hear the question again.
21 THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the question again.
22 Q Years of investigations by congressional democrats,
23 correct?
24 A I'm really sorry, but can you do the preamble to it
25 because that's when I got lost in all of this?

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ) Page 2178

1 Q Sure. There were years upon years of investigations of
2 the work that Mazars did for the Trump Organization, correct?
3 A That's when I said I disagreed it was an investigation
4 of the work that Mazars did. It was an investigation of the 5 Trump Organization and it involved and touched upon work that we
6 did.
7 Q And Mazars was put right in the middle of it, right?
8 A No, I don't think so.
9 Q Mazars had to respond to petitions in the Supreme
10 Court?
11 A No, I don't think we had to respond.
12 Q Mazars was involved in years of responding to subpoenas
13 by the New York Attorney General's Office, right?
14 A Correct.
15 Q And Mazars was involved in years of responding to 16 subpoenas by the District Attorney of New York, right?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And Mazars had to deal with books being written by 19 former prosecutors in the District Attorney of New York Office
20 about that investigation, right?
21 A I wouldn't say we had to deal with it, but we are aware
22 of it.
23 Q You are aware of it? It's there?
24 A Yeah.
25 Q And Mazars had to respond to congressional subpoenas,

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ) Page 2179

1 right?
2 A Right.
3 Q And after all of that harassment, you still put in this
4 letter that Mazars had not concluded that the statements
5 contained material discrepancies, correct?
6 A I don't mean to quibble, but harassment, but after
7 years of all of that, I still put this in this letter, yes.
8 Q It was harassment, Mr. Kelly, and Mr. Bender knew it.
9 He lost his biggest client. He went to the White House and 10 cried in front of the President because he was so upset --
11 THE COURT: Is this a speech or a question?
12 MR. SUAREZ: It is a question.
13 THE COURT: It is a question.
14 Q His entire practice was being decimated by all that 15 harassment and your accounting firm, sir, was being put through 16 years and years and years of torture, harassment and 17 tormentation [sic] by these people, correct?
18 I will withdraw that question.
19 And notwithstanding all of the pressure brought to bear
20 by the New York Attorney General's Office, by the District
21 Attorney of New York, by everyone who examined the work that 22 Mazars did, you still had the fortitude to be honest in this
23 letter and for that I congratulate you.
24 THE COURT: Is that a question?
25 MR. SUAREZ: I don't want it withdrawn.

W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MR. FINKELSTEIN) Page 2180 1 Q I congratulate you that after fearing litigation -- 2 THE COURT: No. It has to be a question. W. KELLY - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, finding out whether there 9 was or wasn't information withheld, without getting into the 10 details of what that information was, is not privileged. If 11 the witness -- but if the witness is taking that position. 12 MR. We 16 didn't question that. So to ask him that now and put him in 17 a position where he's got to make that determination is 18 inadmissible. 19 THE COURT: This is off the clock, though. I'm 20 sorry. It is only one minute. 21 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, the witness has asserted 22 privilege. Then three 11 years law school, Western Michigan Thomas M. Cooley School of 12 Law. 13 Q Did you say Cooley School of Law? 14 A Correct. 15 Q What year did you graduate from the Cooley School of 16 Law? 17 A 1991. 18 Q Do you hold any professional certifications or 19 licenses? 20 A Not any longer. 21 Q Did you previously hold any professional certifications 22 or licenses? 23 A I did. 24 Q What professional certification or license did you 25 previously possess?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2184

1 A JD, New York State Bar Association.
2 Q You were a licensed attorney?
3 A Yes.
4 Q You don't hold any accounting degrees, right?
5 A Correct.
6 Q What state were you licensed as an attorney?
7 A New York State.
8 Q Do you recall at what point in time your license was 9 revoked to serve as an attorney of law?
10 A 2018.
11 Q And what was the basis for your license to practice law
12 was revoked?
13 A The charges that emanated from the Southern District of 14 New York.
15 Q Fair to say that you have been convicted of a crime,
16 sir?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And just to refresh your recollection, if I stated that
19 there was a committee decision filed on February 28, 2019, do
20 you have any basis to dispute that that was the date --
21 A Oh, it would be 2019. Sorry. Yes.
22 Q Thank you.
23 What were the crimes that you were convicted of in 24 reference to your testimony just now about the Southern District
25 of New York?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2185

1 A I pled guilty to five counts of tax evasion, one count
2 of misrepresentation to a financial institution, two counts of 3 campaign finance violation as well as one count of 4 misrepresentation to Congress, 1001 violation.
5 Q So let me see if I have these correct. You pled guilty
6 to five counts of evasion of assessment of personal income tax
7 pursuant to 26 U.S. Code Section 7201?
8 A Correct.
9 Q And would that be for the calendar years of 2012
10 through 2016?
11 A Yes.
12 Q Was that related in connection with what business was 13 that tax evasion crime related to?
14 A It wasn't connected to any specific business. It was 15 personal tax.
16 Q Okay. Was it related to anything in connection with a
17 taxi and limousine business you operated?
18 A I owned New York City taxi medallions which were leased
19 to an agent. I had income from that agent which it was stated
20 was not reflected in my tax returns.
21 Q And that -- the guilty plea in connection with those
22 five counts of personal income tax evasion was accepted by a
23 Federal Court in the Southern District of New York, correct?
24 A Correct.
25 Q And with regards to the sixth count in the Southern

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2186

1 District of New York, is it correct that that was the criminal
2 charge of making a false statement to a financial institution in 3 connection with the credit decision between the years 2015 to 4 2016.
5 A It was in connection with a HELOC, a home equity line
6 of credit, application that they stated had a misrepresentation
7 on it.
8 Q And that's H-E-L-O-C?
9 A Correct. Acronym.
10 Q And that would be in violation of 18 U.S. Code Section
11 1014, correct?
12 A Correct.
13 Q And the seventh count, is it correct that you pled
14 guilty to willfully causing an unlawful corporate contribution
15 from in or about June to October of 2016?
16 A Yes.
17 Q And that is in violation of 52 U.S. Codes Sections
18 30118 (a), 30109 (d)(1)(a) and 18 USC Section 2(b)?
19 A Yes.
20 Q And then the eighth count of that criminal indictment
21 in the Southern District of New York was a plea of guilty to 22 making an excessive campaign contribution in or about October of 23 2016, yes?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Then I think you also said that you pled guilty to a

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2187

1 ninth count; is that correct?
2 A That's correct.
3 Q Was that in a separate prosecution dated November 29th,
4 to 18?
5 A It was 2018. Yes, it was.
6 Q Was that pursuant to a plea agreement with the Special
7 Counsel's Office that you made false statements to the United
8 States Congress in violation of 18 USC Section 1001(a)(2)?
9 A Yes.
10 Q And you were sentenced for those crimes?
11 A I was.
12 Q And did you attempt at any point to cooperate with the 13 government in connection with your guilty pleas?
14 A I did cooperate with the government, yes.
15 Q However, you did not receive 5K1 or substantial
16 assistance letter from the federal government, did you?
17 A No, I refused.
18 Q Did you receive any downward variance or departure in 19 your sentencing guidelines as a result of any cooperation you
20 may have provided to the government?
21 A No.
22 Q There was no downward variance associated with the 23 sentencing guidelines?
24 A The downward variance was a result of the plea, not
25 because of any benefit that I would receive.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2188

1 Q And the downward variance, about how long -- do you
2 recall the length of the sentence you were sentenced to?
3 A 36 months incarceration, 36 months between home
4 confinement and supervised release.
5 Q Was there also a concurrent two-month sentence imposed
6 as a result of the additional Special Counsel's Office
7 information?
8 A Yes.
9 Q And you did, in fact, serve that time in a federal 10 correctional facility?
11 A I did.
12 Q Have you ever made any public statements concerning the 13 legitimacy of those convictions?
14 A More than one.
15 Q And why did you do that?
16 A Because there was no tax evasion. At best, it could be 17 characterized as a tax omission. I have never in my life not 18 paid taxes. I have never requested an extension until 2017.
19 Every year I had paid, no extensions on time, what my CPA
20 accountant directed me to pay.
21 Q Were there, in fact, crimes that you pled guilty to 22 that you did feel you were guilty of committing those crimes?
23 A Yes.
24 Q So why, then, are you making statements about the 25 legitimacy of the Southern District convictions if there are

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2189

1 some that you feel, for example, were not crimes like a tax
2 omission?
3 A One has nothing to do with the other. The tax
4 violations as I've stated many times should not have been
5 brought in and of itself. The same with the HELOC violation. I
6 had had a HELOC on my property for more than a decade and I
7 wanted to correct the record because when all of this started,
8 it was overwhelming, the amount of misinformation,
9 disinformation, mal information about me was overwhelming and 10 enormous.
11 On top of that, there was also the second campaign
12 finance violation which dealt with Karen McDougal. I
13 acknowledged my complicity in the Stormy Daniels matter, but the 14 Karen McDougal, I never paid Karen McDougal. I was tasked to 15 review documents to ensure that Mr. Trump was protected and that 16 was done through AMI, National inquirer and David Pecker, but I
17 am also lastly complicit with the lie to Congress and as I have 18 stated many times, it is important to finish the sentence and 19 talk about what that lie was. That lie was the number of times
20 that I stated to the Senate Permanent Select Committee on 21 Intelligence how many times I spoke to Mr. Trump about the 22 failed Moscow -- Trump Tower Moscow project.
23 I had stated three. The true answer was ten and I did
24 that at the direction of, in concert with and for the benefit of 25 Mr. Trump. There was a whole group of people from Alan Garten

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2190

1 to J. Sekulow, Ivanka, Jared, Abby Gold (ph), Ty Cobb, many
2 people were involved in the formation of that statement. My
3 complicity resulted in -- from me reading it into the record
4 and asking that the document be made part of the record.
5 MR. KISE: Your Honor, I just move to strike that 6 entire answer. I don't know if that was a book that he was
7 writing, but it wasn't responsive at all to the question. I
8 mean, it was just a long narrative about, you know,
9 invective about Trump and who knows how many other people.
10 I'm sure I'm going to be included here soon, but I
11 don't -- I don't think that that was at all responsive to 12 the question.
13 THE COURT: Overruled. I believe it was 14 responsive. Could have been shorter, but it was responsive.
15 Q Fair to say you still stood up in court and said to the 16 Southern District of New York, "I'm guilty of certain crimes."
17 "I accept responsibility for the crimes." And you served
18 federal incarceration in connection with those crimes, correct?
19 A Correct.
20 Q And fair to say a prosecutor stood up in front of the 21 Southern District of New York and stated, "The" factual
22 allegations in support of the crimes for which you had been 23 indicted and pled guilty," correct?
24 A Correct.
25 Q And a federal judge accepted those factual allegations,

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2191

1 that they would be proved in connection with your guilty plea,
2 correct?
3 A Correct.
4 Q And I believe you stated it, but in connection with the
5 crimes alleged concerning an unlawful corporate contribution,
6 was that alleged conduct performed during the course of your
7 employment at that time?
8 A Employment at the Trump Organization?
9 Q Yes, sir.
10 A Yes.
11 Q And for the crimes alleged concerning an excessive
12 campaign contribution, was the alleged conduct there performed
13 during the course of your employment at that time?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And who was your employer at that time?
16 A Donald J. Trump.
17 Q And for the crimes alleged concerning making a false
18 statement to Congress, was the alleged conduct performed during 19 the course of your employment at that time?
20 A Yes.
21 Q And who was your employer at that time?
22 A Donald J. Trump.
23 Q Am I correct that you were Mr. Donald J. Trump's 24 personal counsel, sir?
25 A I was.

It was a New York City 23 yellow cab medallion company. I started my own law firm at the 24 time, but I also operated the yellow cabs out of the same 25 facility.	M. I'm sorry. 2006, 2007, somewhere in that 8 area. I'm sorry. 2005, 2006, in that area. 9 Q 2005 or 2006? 10 A Yeah. 11 Q And what happened to the Michael D. Cohen & Associates 12 firm? 13 A Merged it into Phillips Nizer. 14 Q At Phillips Nizer, did you have a title when you merged 15 together? 16 A I did. 17 Q What was your title? 18 A I was a partner. 19 Q And how about once you joined Phillips Nizer; what was 20 the nature of your practice then? 21 A Business development as well as continuing with my 22 client base. 23 Q The client base that you had developed when you were in 24 private practice at Michael D. M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. Cohen & Associates. 9 Q In 2002, did there come a point in time when you left 10 the Manhattan Maintenance Company? 11 A Yes. 12 Q Tell me about that departure. 13 A I sold my half of the company to my ex-partner and 14 decided to take a little time for myself and ultimately then 15 created -- continued with the law practice elsewhere. 16 Q The Michael D. Cohen & Associates law practice? 17 A Yes. 18 Q And what was the nature of the Michael D. Cohen law 19 practice? 20 A It was predominantly negligence, tort, similar to what 21 I started with, but then I started doing some real estate and 22 some business law. 23 Q Was that transactional work or can you describe for me 24 the nature of the real estate work you engaged in at that time? 25 A It was acquisitions of real estate on behalf of clients	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2195 1 Q Fair to say that your practice included commercial real 2 estate work? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Residential work as well? 5 A Mostly for myself. 6 Q Was it -- would you characterize the practice as a 7 litigation practice? 8 A We had some litigation, but I would not say it 9 was -- it was primarily litigation at that time. 10 Q And did there ever come a point in time when you 11 stopped working for Phillip Nizer? 12 A Yes. 13 Q When was that? 14 A That was in 2007. 15 Q And what occurred such that you stopped working for the 16 Phillip Nizer firm? 17 A I had had a meeting with Mr. Trump at the Trump 18 Organization and he had asked me to join his company as 19 executive vice-president of the Trump Organization and special 20 counsel to him. 21 Q So in or about 2007, you joined the Trump Organization 22 to work -- 23 A March of 2007. 24 Q And that was to work for Donald J. Trump? 25 A Correct.

Page 2196 1 Q Can you broadly describe that process about how -- of 2 how you came to work for the Trump Organization, just broadly, 3 please? 4 A I was introduced to Mr. Trump through his son Don, Jr. 5 and it emanated from a dispute that took place at one of the 6 properties. I had owned a unit there, family members owned 7 units there, friends owned units there, and the goal was to 8 remove the board and to replace the board with a more favorable 9 board. 10 We did it successfully. As a result, I was asked to 11 handle a few other matters for Mr. Trump which also resulted 12 successfully and ultimately while sitting in his office, he 13 asked me if I would like to leave that sleepy, old firm, meaning 14 Phillip Nizer, and join him. 15 (Continued on the next page.) 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	Page 2198 M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) 1 counsel?" 2 A Correct. 3 Q What was your understanding of what special counsel 4 meant? 5 A I reported and only handled work for Mr. Trump and so I 6 was his special counsel. Whatever issues he had, whatever 7 created ire for him, he would bring it to me in order to 8 resolve. 9 Q So you were specifically serving as a personal counsel 10 to Donald J. Trump? 11 A Correct. 12 Q Who did you report to at the Trump Organization? 13 A Donald Trump. 14 Q Anyone else? 15 A No. 16 Q Was that true for the entire time that you worked at 17 the Trump Organization? 18 A Yes. 19 Q So the only person who asked you to perform work was 20 Donald J. Trump? 21 A Correct. 22 Q And the only person who would provide approval for the 23 work you performed was Donald J. Trump? 24 A Correct. 25 Q Okay. And just so that I have the same understanding
M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2197 1 Q Fair to say you accepted that invitation to join the 2 Trump Organization in 2007? 3 A I did. 4 Q And when I joined the Trump Organization in March of 5 2007, did you have a title? 6 A I did. 7 Q What was your title? 8 A It remained the same from beginning to end, executive 9 vice president of the Trump Organization and special counsel to 10 Donald J. Trump. 11 Q Let's take to those in turn. 12 Executive vice president of what? Was there a 13 particular department division that you were an EVP over? 14 A No, it was of the Trump Organization. It was just a 15 standing. There were -- after Mr. Trump there were about a 16 dozen plus executive vice presidents, including the three 17 children and then others were vice presidents and so on. So it 18 was basically a title of standing. 19 Q Did EVP reflect a level within the hierarchy? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And where within the executive level hierarchy would an 22 EVP have standing? 23 A Directly under Mr. Trump. 24 Q Thank you. 25 And you also stated you had a second title, "special	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2199 1 as you. I've used the phrase, "The Trump Organization." 2 What is your understanding of what the phrase "The 3 Trump Organization" means? 4 A The Trump Organization is a company that is 5 predominantly in real estate as well as branding. During the 6 times that I was there as well it also had television and media 7 operations as well. 8 Q And are there a series of common enterprise of 9 corporate entities that operate under this umbrella term, "The 10 Trump Organization?" 11 A Yes. 12 Q Do you know who owns or is the beneficial owner of that 13 enterprise of corporate entities under the umbrella "Trump 14 Organization?" 15 A Yes. 16 Q Who is that? 17 A Mr. Trump. 18 Q Okay. Focusing on the organization, were there 19 different departments at the Trump Organization, for example, an 20 accounting department, a legal department? 21 A Yes. 22 Q You didn't fit within the legal department, did you? 23 A No. 24 Q Your position was held outside of the legal department, 25 yes?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2200 1 A Correct. 2 Q But there was an accounting department there? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Who do you understand worked in the accounting 5 department at the Trump Organization? 6 A Well, several people worked at the accounting, but the 7 CFO for the Trump Organization was Allen Weisselberg. 8 Q Anyone else you know who worked in the accounting 9 department other than the CFO, Mr. Weisselberg? 10 A There were many people, Deborah Tarasoff, Jeff 11 McConney. When I first started there there was a gentleman by 12 the name of Eric Sacher who then got replaced with -- I 13 apologize. I am blanking on his name, but there was quite a few 14 people in the accounting department. 15 Q And in the legal department, did you ever have occasion 16 to work with members who were employed within the legal 17 department at the Trump Organization? 18 A Yes. 19 Q Does the name Jason Greenblatt sound familiar to you? 20 A When I started Jason Greenblatt was general counsel 21 along with George Ross. 22 Q And was he still at the Trump Organization by the time 23 you departed in 2017? 24 A Yes. 25 Q How about Allan Garten? Is that a name you're familiar	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2202 1 Q So it may have been something along the lines of 2 executive vice president of development and acquisitions? 3 A Development and acquisitions, yes. 4 Q Did that refresh your recollection about the title? 5 A Yes. 6 Q Okay. Thank you. 7 And what is your understanding of Mr. Donald Trump, 8 Jr.'s role during the time that you were employed at the Trump 9 Organization? 10 A Development in acquisitions of real estate 11 opportunities that would be presented to the Trump Corporation. 12 Q And when we were talking about that hierarchy before, 13 fair to say that Mr. Donald Trump, Jr., he was at the top of the 14 hierarchy with the title executive vice president similar to 15 you? 16 A Yes. 17 Q Okay. Are you familiar with the name Eric Trump? 18 A I am. 19 Q How are you familiar with that name? 20 A Worked at the company as well as I was on his Eric 21 Trump Foundation board, which benefits St. Jude Children's 22 Hospital working with family. 23 Q Another one of the Trump family members; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q And did Mr. Eric Trump hold the title during the time
M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2201 1 within the legal department? 2 A Yes. 3 Q Who is Alan Garten? 4 A He was an attorney at the Trump Organization, also an 5 executive, but he'd ultimately became general counsel after 6 Jason Greenblatt's departure to go pursue negotiations with 7 Middle East after Mr. Trump became president elect. 8 Q And fair to say you did not report to either of those 9 individuals, yes? 10 A Correct. 11 Q I'd like to talk about some of the other Trump 12 Organization executives. 13 Are you familiar with the name Donald Trump, Jr.? 14 A Yes. 15 Q How are you familiar with that name? 16 A That's how I was first introduced to Mr. Trump was 17 through his son and he is the namesake of his father. 18 Q And Mr. Trump, Jr., did he have a title during the time 19 when you worked at the Trump Organization? 20 A Yes. 21 Q What was his title? 22 A Executive vice president and there was a second part to 23 it, which had to do with development. 24 Q Do you recall the specific title? 25 A I don't.	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2203 1 while you were working at the Trump Organization? 2 A Yes. 3 Q What was Mr. Eric Trump's title? 4 A Same as Don, Jr.'s executive vice president and 5 development and acquisitions. 6 Q And what is your understanding of the work Mr. Eric 7 Trump performed at the Trump Organization during the time you 8 worked there? 9 A Same development and acquisitions of real estate 10 opportunities. 11 Q Any particular areas that you're familiar with that he 12 had a specialty in? 13 A He concentrated on golf as well as again different 14 opportunities that would come in to the company. Don, Eric and 15 Ivanka would split various opportunities where each one was 16 attached to a specific opportunity. 17 Q And you beat me to my next question. 18 Are you familiar with the name Ivanka Trump? 19 A I am. 20 Q How are you familiar with the name Ivanka Trump? 21 A Also one of Mr. Trump's three children, plus we also 22 live in the same building. 23 Q And did Ms. Ivanka Trump have any titles during the 24 time when you were employed with the Trump Organization? 25 A Yes.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2204 1 Q What was the title Ms. Ivanka Trump held? 2 A Executive vice president of development and 3 acquisitions as well. 4 Q And I didn't ask this question about Mr. Eric Trump, 5 but Ivanka, Donald, Jr. and Eric Trump, they all held the title 6 executive vice president, yes? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And they were in that higher level of the hierarchy, 9 yes? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Ivanka Trump, Eric Trump, Donald Trump, Jr., did they 12 report to you at anytime during your employment with the Trump 13 Organization? 14 A No, ma'am. 15 Q To whom did those three individuals report to while you 16 were employed by the Trump Organization? 17 A Their father. 18 Q Okay. Anyone else? 19 A No, ma'am. 20 Q We've already stated the name Allen Weisselberg. He 21 was the CFO of the Trump Organization, yes? 22 A Yes. 23 Q What understanding do you -- if any, do you have as to 24 his role at the Trump Organization? 25 A He was the chief financial officer. Every financial	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2206 1 Q Do you know if he reported to anyone else at the Trump 2 Organization? 3 A Mr. Trump, if it would be necessary. 4 Q Anyone else? 5 A Not that I'm aware of. 6 Q And your general understanding of Mr. McConney's role? 7 A He handled all of the bookkeeping. 8 Q Anything else you recall about Mr. McConney's role? 9 A No, ma'am. 10 Q Are you familiar with a document titled the Statement 11 of Financial Condition for Donald J. Trump? 12 A I am. 13 Q And how are you familiar with that title? 14 A I've seen them as well as I've worked on them. 15 Q Describe that for me. What do you understand generally 16 that document to be? 17 A That was a complete listing of all of the assets of the 18 Trump Corporation, the Trump Organization with each asset broken 19 down into an asset class, the asset class described and the 20 value was placed on the asset, as well as any existing 21 liabilities. The goal was to basically create a statement of 22 financial worth. 23 Q For whom? 24 A Donald J. Trump. 25 Q And do you have any understanding about why the
M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2205 1 transaction went through his office. 2 Q Can you give me an example? What do you mean by that? 3 A If there was an invoice that came to me, I would be 4 required to approve that invoice, put a line on, write 5 "approved," sign my name, put another line underneath it and 6 that would then get presented to Allen. It would then, of 7 course, go to Mr. Trump's office for initial signature before a 8 check would be processed. 9 Q So Allen Weisselberg managed the financials of the 10 Trump Organization? 11 A Yes. 12 Q Are you familiar with the name Jeff McConney? 13 A I am. 14 Q How are you familiar with the name Jeff McConney? 15 A Worked with him at the Trump Organization. 16 Q And what is your understanding of Jeff McConney's 17 titles that he -- title that he held while you were employed at 18 the Trump Organization? 19 A He was comptroller. He worked predominantly for Allen 20 Weisselberg. 21 Q So Mr. McConney worked in the accounting department, 22 yes? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Was he a direct report to Mr. Weisselberg? 25 A Yes.	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2207 1 document was created? 2 A Initially. 3 Q Yes. 4 A No. 5 Q During the time you were working at the Trump 6 Organization did you form any understanding about why the 7 document was created? 8 A It was to be used for purposes of demonstrating net 9 worth for acquisitions for insurance purpose. 10 Q Any other reasons? 11 A Not that I'm aware of. 12 Q And when you say that this document was to be used to 13 demonstrate net worth for acquisition for insurance purposes, is 14 it your understanding that the document was to be shared with 15 third parties or was that for internal purposes? 16 A Shared with third parties. 17 Q Do you have any understanding as to the ways in which 18 the Statement of Financial Condition in particular was used? 19 A Yes. 20 Q Describe for me some of those ways. 21 A So as it related to insurance the document would be 22 presented to the various insurance brokers that were brought to 23 the company from the main broker, AON. They were permitted to 24 take notes off of the document but not permitted to keep the 25 actual document itself and the benefit was showing that the

1 assets had extremely high values with low liabilities in order
2 to obtain better insurance premiums.
3 Q You also mentioned acquisitions. Were the statements
4 of financial conditions presented to any third parties for 5 purposes of an acquisition?
6 A Yes.
7 Q What third parties are you familiar with?
8 A I was involved in the potential acquisition of the 9 buffalo bills.
10 Q Any other acquisitions you can think of?
11 A The Miami Doral property.
12 Q Anything else?
13 A Not off the top of my head.
14 MS. FAHERTY: And I just want to check on timing,
15 Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: I was going to give you the five-minute
17 warning in one minute. So we'll break at 12:55.
18 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
19 Q Turning back to the creation of the document focusing 20 on the time that you were employed at the Trump Organization.
21 And I'll draw your attention to the period beginning in 2011.
22 Do you have any understanding as to who created the document?
23 A I do not.
24 Q Do you have any understanding as to whether -- as to 25 what, if any, individuals at the Trump Organization worked on

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2209

1 the specific numbers contained in that Statement of Financial
2 Condition beginning in 2011?
3 A In 2011, I don't recall, but 2012 and '13, '14, and
4 '15, I do.
5 Q I'm going to show you some documents that have already
6 been admitted into evidence.
7 MS. FAHERTY: So Tommy, if you don't mind handing
8 to the witness Plaintiff's Exhibit PX 787.
9 Q I'm going to hand you five of these documents and we'll
10 briefly just look at them, okay, Mr. Cohen?
11 A Yes.
12 MS. FAHERTY: Tommy, the second document will be PX
13 815, the third will be PX 707, the fourth will be PX 730,
14 and the fifth will be PX 729. So we can start with PX 787.
15 A Is it up on the screen?
16 Q PX 787 is on the screen.
17 A Okay.
18 Q And just take a quick look at this document and tell
19 me, generally, if you recognize the form of this document, sir.
20 A I do.
21 Q What do you recognize this to be?
22 A This is the Statement of Financial Condition for Donald
23 J. Trump.
24 Q And is it dated as of June 30, 2011?
25 A Yes, it states June 30th of 2011.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2210

1 Q Does this appear to be a document you may have worked
2 on during the time you were employed at the Trump Organization?
3 A I don't recall.
4 Q I'll draw your attention to the third page -- page four
5 of this document, and it ends in the number 3134.
6 A Yes.
7 Q Do you see that page there?
8 A I do.
9 Q Do you recognize this page as a document page you may 10 have worked on during your time period working for the Trump
11 Organization?
12 A I do.
13 Q How do you recognize this page? What do you recognize 14 it to be?
15 A I recognize the entire document.
16 Q Describe for me that recognition.
17 A It's a document that I have seen before. It's a
18 document that I had in my possession and a document that I just 19 recognize.
20 Q Were you ever asked to perform work on Mr.
21 Donald J. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition?
22 A Yes.
23 Q And before you tell me more about the work you were 24 asked to perform, was that work asked in your capacity as 25 Mr. Donald J. Trump's personal attorney or was it for a business

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2211

1 reason?
2 A For business reason.
3 Q And what was the work you were asked to perform for 4 Mr. Donald J. Trump with regards to the Statement of Financial
5 Condition?
6 A I was tasked by Mr. Trump to increase the total assets
7 based upon a number that he arbitrarily elected and my 8 responsibility along with Allen Weisselberg predominantly was to 9 reverse engineer the various different asset classes, increase
10 those assets in order to achieve the number that Mr. Trump had 11 tasked us.
12 Q And when you say "achieve the number," what number are 13 you talking about?
14 A Whatever number Mr. Trump told us to.
15 Q Was it Mr. Trump's ultimate net worth as identified on 16 the Statement of Financial Condition?
17 A Yes.
18 MS. FAHERTY: I think now would probably be a good
19 time to take a break, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: Okay. You're giving up two minutes
21 here.
22 All right, we're going to break for lunch. See you
23 all if you want to come back at 2:15 on time, please.
24 (Whereupon, there is a luncheon recess in the 25 proceedings.)

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2212

1 AFTERNOON SESSION
2 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
3 session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding.
4 Make sure all cell phones are on silent. Laptops and cell
5 phones will be permitted, but only to members of the press.
6 There is absolutely no recording or photography of any kind
7 allowed in the courtroom. Now be seated and come to order.
8 THE COURT: We just need a witness.
9 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
10 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and
11 approaches the witness stand.)
12 THE COURT: Okay. Let's continue with the direct
13 examination of Mr. Cohen.
14 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
15 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION
16 BY MS. FAHERTY:
17 Q Mr. Cohen, you recall at the break you testified to 18 reverse engineering numbers on the statements of financial 19 condition each year while you were working at the Trump
20 Organization, yes?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And I believe you were deposed in this case. Did you
23 testify that between 2011 and 2015 you worked on those years'
24 Statement of Financial Condition?
25 A Again, I stated I don't recall if I worked on 2011, but

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2213

1 '12, '13, '14, '15, yes.
2 Q And you -- who assigned you the role of working on the
3 Statement of Financial Condition?
4 A Mr. Trump.
5 Q Anyone else?
6 A Mr. Trump.
7 Q And did you work with anyone in connection with your
8 work on the Statement of Financial Condition?
9 A Yes.
10 Q Who?
11 A Allen Weisselberg.
12 Q Anyone else?
13 A Directly with Allen Weisselberg.
14 Q Describe that for me. What was the work that you did
15 with Allen Weisselberg on the Statement of Financial Condition?
16 A We would take a look at the various different asset
17 classes that are broken down in the document and based upon the 18 number that Mr. Trump wanted the document to ultimately state we 19 would look at the assets and increase its values in order to 20 achieve the number.
21 Q And would you look at a particular document in order to 22 perform that task?
23 A No.
24 Q Let's pull out the 2011 Statement of Financial 25 Condition, Plaintiff's Exhibit PX 787. It's already in

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2214

1 evidence.
2 And I believe you testified before you have seen this
3 document before; correct?
4 A Correct.
5 MS. FAHERTY: And let's turn to the third page of 6 this Document. One more.
7 Q Was this particular page of assets relevant to the work
8 you performed on the Statement of Financial Condition?
9 A Yes.
10 Q How is this particular page relevant to the work you
11 performed on the Statement of Financial Condition?
12 A We would take this specific list of assets and we would 13 figure out which specific line to increase the number again to 14 reverse engineer it into the total asset that Mr. Trump sought.
15 MR. KISE: Your Honor, objection on foundational 16 grounds. The witness has testified that he didn't look at 17 any particular documents and then he testified before that 18 -- that he doesn't recall having anything to do with 2011.
19 So now we're looking at 2011 and I don't believe the witness
20 has any foundation to look at 2011.
21 THE COURT: Did he say he wasn't sure about 2011?
22 MR. KISE: We can look back. I believe he said "I 23 don't recall working on 2011," but does recall working on 24 '12, '13, '14, '15.
25 THE WITNESS: That's not what I said.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2215

1 MS. HABBA: When he first took on the stand he said
2 he did not work on 2011.
3 MS. FAHERTY: And, Your Honor, I always appreciate
4 when learned counsel can give me a -- I'm happy to ask some 5 additional questions to make the record clear, if that's 6 okay.
7 THE COURT: All right. Well, let's lay a
8 foundation if one can be laid for this.
9 Q So what would be the basis for doing, for example, the 10 work you performed on 2012? Would you make numbers out of thin
11 air or was there a document or information you looked at in 12 order to calculate new numbers?
13 A We would have taken the document that you have up right
14 now, the June 30, 2011 document, and we would mark it up by hand
15 in order to increase each of the asset lines, again, to get to 16 the total asset number that Mr. Trump tasked us to achieve.
17 Q And when you say, "we," who are you referring to?
18 A Myself and Allen Weisselberg.
19 Q Did this conversation or these conversations marking up
20 the 2011 document, for example, occur in the presence of anyone
21 else?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Who?
24 A Mr. Trump.
25 Q And what, if anything, do you recall Mr. Trump would

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2216 1 say about marking up the document referring in this instance to 2 the 2011 Statement of Financial Condition for the 2012 numbers? 3 A I would receive a phone call, generally it would be 4 from Rhona Graff, Mr. Trump's executive assistant, "Mr. Trump 5 would like to see you" and I would come into the office. Allen 6 Weisselberg would either already be there or come with me and 7 the topic was the Statement of Financial Condition. He would 8 look at the total assets and he would say, "I'm actually not 9 worth four and a half billion dollars. I'm really worth more, 10 like, six." Okay. He would then direct Allen and I to go back 11 to Allen's office and return after we achieved the desired goal. 12 Q And I'll direct your attention to the following page. 13 And at the bottom of this page do you see a line entry at the 14 top, it says, "liabilities and net worth." Do you see that 15 there? 16 A I do. 17 Q And at the bottom there is a line entry. It says "net 18 worth." Do you see that there? 19 A I do. 20 Q And was this particular number the number you were 21 tasked with bringing up according to Mr. Trump's directive as 22 you just testified? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Okay. Now, turning back to the first page. 25 Was there a particular procedure for you and	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2218 1 2012, you would look at the prior year's number; correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q And you would go into Allen Weisselberg's office to 4 review the numbers to see where you could add value. Is that 5 fair? 6 A Fair. 7 Q And was anybody present for those conversations? 8 A There were people who had come in to the office that 9 were providing Allen with information, but these conversations 10 were primarily between Mr. Trump, myself and Allen Weisselberg. 11 Q And in the conversations between you and 12 Mr. Weisselberg in his office, how would you find these 13 comparable numbers? Was there a particular search you would do 14 or research you performed? 15 A Well, some of the assets that we used as comparables I 16 just know because I am in the real estate industry, so I read an 17 article about an apartment that, you know, that traded or I 18 would look on Google. 19 Q And did you keep the notes of your meetings with 20 Mr. Weisselberg as to the values you were adding to the asset 21 categories on Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition? 22 A No. 23 Q Why not? 24 A I would sit down with Allen and we would make the 25 changes. That document would then be photocopied that had all
M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2217 1 Mr. Weisselberg to distribute the assets on this page that you 2 would alter or backup the numbers into? 3 A There was no specific program within which to change 4 the numbers. It was, again, reverse engineering. 5 So, for example, if they brought on a new asset we, of 6 course, would add that to the list of assets, but then there 7 were also other assets like Trump Park Avenue. We would take 8 the number of units that Mr. Trump owned as the sponsor 9 developer of the property and we would look at numbers that were 10 being achieved elsewhere; what's the highest price per square 11 foot achieved in the city, and we would use those numbers in 12 order to inflate the value of these apartments. 13 Q Are those called comparables? 14 A Comparables -- you could call them comparables, but 15 comparables imply that they are similar. 16 Q And is it your understanding that the quote/unquote 17 "comparables" were not similar? 18 A No. 19 Q What is your basis for saying that? 20 A Some of the comps or comparables were predicated off of 21 ground up developments with nine, ten feet ceilings, 22 unobstructed views, not inhibited by rent stabilized or other 23 programs, so no, they were not comparables. They are just 24 different. 25 Q So Mr. Trump would task you with reaching a number for	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2219 1 of the changes at which point in time Allen and I would return 2 to Mr. Trump demonstrate that we achieved or close to the number 3 that he was seeking and I had no use for that document any 4 longer. 5 Transcript continues on the following page.... 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

1 Q And at some point, did you become aware that the
2 numbers -- the values you had added to the Statement of
3 Financial Condition, let's focus on 2012, that they were
4 accepted by Mr. Trump?
5 A Yes, he's the only one that could accept them.
6 Q How did you come to understand that Mr. Trump accepted
7 the values you added to the Statement of Financial Condition for 8 2012?
9 A Because he knew the Statement of Financial Condition
10 would be printed by Mazars who is the accounting firm for the 11 Trump Organization and we would receive the bounded copy.
12 Q Did you have any relationship with Mazars in the 13 process of drafting the Statement of Financial Condition?
14 A No.
15 Q Who, if anyone, do you understand to have been 16 interacting with Mazars in the creation of the Statement of
17 Financial Condition?
18 A Mr. Trump and Allen Weisselberg.
19 Q And with regards to the process between the time Mr.
20 Trump tasked you with reverse engineering that net worth number
21 to the time when you met with Allen Weisselberg in his office to 22 eventually returning back to Mr. Trump with the numbers for his 23 approval, about how long did that process take?
24 A For the most part, several days.
25 Q And what, if any, understanding do you have as to who

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2221

1 Mr. Weisselberg relied on to assist him in adding value to the
2 numbers on these Statements of Financial Condition?
3 A Jeffrey McConney.
4 Q Anyone else?
5 A Potentially the children Don, Ivanka and Eric.
6 Q What, if anything, is your understanding Mr. McConney
7 provided to Mr. Weisselberg on the asset values?
8 A He had all the numbers. He was the one that controlled
9 the computer with the fobs in order to see, for example, cash
10 and marketable securities. He would also be the one to provide 11 Allen with the gross rent roll for 40 Wall Street or any of the 12 other assets that Mr. Trump owns that were being rented or 13 leased.
14 Q And you made mention of the three adult children. What 15 is your understanding as to the three adult children's role in 16 assisting Mr. Weisselberg in valuing the assets in the 17 Statements of Financial Condition?
18 A Well, first would be which projects that they 19 individually were spearheading and then to ask them what other,
20 you know, values exist for the purpose of this asset.
21 MR. KISE: Objection, Your Honor. I'm not sure
22 that's entirely responsive, if at all responsive. Is the 23 witness testifying that he spoke with these individuals or 24 this is his understanding that one else spoke with these 25 individuals? The question calls for -- the question

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2222

1 appears to call for speculation based on the foundation that
2 has not yet been laid, but I don't -- I don't -- it is not
3 clear what he's testifying to at all.
4 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, that appears to be a
5 perfectly fair question by me with a responsive answer and
6 if Mr. Kise disagrees with the response, he's perfectly
7 entitled to cross-examine.
8 THE COURT: You want to just read it again for 9 everybody's benefit out loud, obviously.
10 Q You made mention of the three adult children. What is 11 your understanding as to the three adult children's role in 12 assisting Mr. Weisselberg in valuing the assets in the Statement
13 of Financial Condition?
14 MR. KISE: He has no foundation other than hearsay.
15 If that's what he's saying, unless he's testifying that he
16 spoke with the children directly, that's different.
17 THE COURT: Well, I don't think he had to speak to 18 them. I think it was more of an observation, but see if you
19 can ask it again with -- either ask a foundation or the 20 question with more of a foundation. I'm not sure exactly
21 also the phrase "what's your understanding." What did you
22 see, observe, hear?
23 Q Did you have -- you had a general understanding as to 24 Eric Trump's role at the Trump Organization while you were 25 employed there, yes?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2223

1 A Yes.
2 Q You similarly formed an understanding as to Donald
3 Trump, Jr.'s role at the Trump Organization while you worked
4 there?
5 A Yes.
6 Q Similarly, you formed an understanding of Ivanka
7 Trump's role while working at the Trump Organization?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Did you have occasion to observe Mr. Weisselberg
10 interacting with those three adult children as it concerned the 11 Statement of Financial Condition and his preparation of values?
12 A I did not observe them specifically engage in 13 conversation.
14 Q Did you at any point form an understanding that Mr.
15 Weisselberg was, in fact, consulting with the three adult
16 children with regards to his valuations on the Statements of 17 Financial Condition?
18 A Yes.
19 MR. KISE: Objection.
20 THE COURT: I think the next question is taken with 21 the first question is acceptable, so...
22 Q How did you form that understanding?
23 A Allen would state that, "I need to speak to Don,
24 Ivanka, Eric" regarding whatever the asset was.
25 THE COURT: Well, did he state that he did speak to

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2224 1 them beyond "I have to speak to them"? 2 THE WITNESS: No, he did not actually make that 3 overt statement. However, at the end, there was a new 4 Statement of Financial Condition that was compiled that had 5 the changes. 6 THE COURT: How do you know that the children had 7 any input into those new numbers? 8 THE WITNESS: I do not. 9 Q Any other understanding as to others who worked with 10 Mr. Weisselberg on the valuations for the Statements of 11 Financial Condition? 12 A Jeff McConney. 13 Q Other than Mr. McConney? 14 A I don't know who else Allen spoke with. 15 Q And just to clarify, what were the methods of 16 communication you employed at the Trump Organization? Did you 17 communicate frequently via e-mail? 18 A No. 19 Q How about via text message? 20 A No. 21 Q How about handwritten notes concerning the Statements 22 of Financial Condition? 23 A Only to the extent that we changed the numbers and the 24 changed numbers would be in red pen. 25 Q And you didn't retain copies of those communications,	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2226 1 A Yes. 2 Q For what year were you using the 2012 Statement of 3 Financial Condition to perform work on Mr. Trump's Statement of 4 Financial Condition? 5 A That would then go for the 2013. 6 Q So let's turn to the third page of this document. We 7 have it on the screen here. Similar to the prior year Statement 8 of Financial Condition, right, listing of assets? 9 A Correct. 10 Q Then if we turn to the next page, "liabilities" and 11 "net worth," yes? 12 A Yes. 13 Q And there's a net worth entry at the bottom of the 14 page, correct? 15 A Correct. 16 Q Was that another net worth number that you were 17 directed to reverse engineer to a higher number? 18 A Yes. 19 MS. FAHERTY: Going back to the very first page. 20 Thank you, Ashley. The assets page. 21 Q Do you recall which assets for the 2013 values that you 22 worked on in connection with your assignment to reverse engineer 23 the values on the Statement of Financial Condition? 24 A Possibly Trump Tower, Trump Park Avenue, Trump World 25 Tower United Nations, possibly 100 Central Park South to the
M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2225 1 right? 2 A I do not believe so. 3 Q So looking at this exhibit, which is still on the 4 screen, the 2011 Statement of Financial Condition, focusing on 5 the work you performed for the 2012 valuation, what, if any, of 6 these assets do you recall that you provided valuations for? 7 A Trump Park Avenue, Trump World Tower at United Nations, 8 100 Central Park South to the extent it was part of the 9 commercial portion; properties under development specifically 10 with Beverly Hills, Miss Universe Pageant and potentially other 11 assets. 12 Q And as to the other assets, was Allen Weisselberg 13 responsible for those assets? 14 A Yes. 15 MS. FAHERTY: Let's put that to the side. Can we 16 pull out 2012, please. 17 Your Honor, I'm handing up to the witness the 18 June 30, 2012 Statement of Financial Condition. It is 19 marked already as an Exhibit PX 815. 20 Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cohen? 21 A I do. 22 Q And do you recognize this as a document that you worked 23 on in connection with Mr. Trump's assignment that you reverse 24 engineer the values on Donald J. Trump's Statement of Financial 25 Condition?	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2227 1 extent of the commercial, mansion at Seven Springs, Miss 2 Universe Pageant as well as possibly other assets. 3 Q And again, the ways in which you would increase the 4 values of these particular asset classes, what would you do? 5 A Again, we would take a look at either comparables or 6 new potential lease tenants, for example, in Trump Tower and 7 come up with a multiple if you were taking that to market to 8 securitize it. 9 Q Any other ways in which you would inflate the assets on 10 these asset classes for the 2013 Statement of Financial 11 Condition? 12 A Again, looking at comparables into the area Seven 13 Springs was a little different because there was a deal that was 14 struck to subdivide the property. So we would look at if it was 15 for the -- for this year, it could have been 2013 or -- with 16 the subdivision to provide some sort of number attached to each 17 individual parcel. 18 Q So is it fair to say you would Google a number for 19 assigning a value to the lots at the mansion at Seven Springs? 20 MR. KISE: Objection. Leading. 21 Q Describe for me the number. 22 THE COURT: Sustained. 23 Q Describe for me the number that you would use for Seven 24 Springs. 25 A You look at some of the other homes that are in the

1 area and you use that as a basis for the subdivision parcel
2 lots.
3 Q When you're looking up the -- these numbers, are you
4 calculating time as a factor in those values?
5 A No.
6 Q Is the value an immediately-achieved number that you're 7 assigning?
8 A No.
9 Q Is the number a comparable or a reasonable comparable,
10 I think we spoke about comparables before, to the asset class?
11 A It would depend.
12 MR. KISE: Objection. Is this witness now
13 testifying as an expert witness on real estate or are we 14 going to add that to his series of credentials? I don't 15 know that he is -- that question calls for expert -- an 16 expert conclusion. Is it a reasonable comparable? That's 17 the province of an expert and unless Mr. Cohen -- the 18 prosecution wants to qualify Mr. Cohen as an expert in that,
19 I'm sure he'll answer it and say he is.
20 THE COURT: I found it a confusing question. I
21 will sustain the question.
22 MS. FAHERTY: That's okay. I want to ask the 23 question in a non-objectionable way, Your Honor, so give me
24 a moment, please.
25 THE COURT: Of course.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2229

1 Q So you made mention that the Seven Springs asset was a
2 little different. Your testimony just now, was that specific to 3 the particular year 2013 or is that a general recollection?
4 A General recollection. I don't know if it was 2012,
5 '13.
6 Q You generally have a recollection, though, that you
7 were looking at other comparable assets that could value the 8 subdivided property at Seven Springs; is that fair?
9 A Yes.
10 MR. KISE: Objection. Leading.
11 Q How would you describe --
12 THE COURT: Wait. Wait. Sustained.
13 Q How would you describe those comparable assets that you
14 were looking at for the purpose of that Seven Springs
15 subdivision?
16 A I'm sorry. I don't understand your question.
17 Q What were you looking at? How were you coming up with
18 the numbers?
19 A So I know the area where Seven Springs is located.
20 It's the top of the hill, the very top and we looked at -- I
21 looked at, for example, the value of a house that was beneath
22 Mr. Trump's property, Nelson Peltz, and we took that as a number
23 and then we added to it because it would be new construction, it
24 is higher up the hill and so on, and that's how we ended up
25 increasing.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2230

1 Q And do you know if any of the adult children also
2 performed work at the Seven Springs -- for Seven Springs, LLC,
3 a Trump Organization entity?
4 A I don't know which one, no.
5 Q Same question that I was asking before about 2013. Who
6 tasked you with adding values to the Statement of Financial
7 Condition for that year?
8 A That would be Mr. Trump.
9 Q And who did you perform that work with with inflating
10 the assets for 2013?
11 A Allen Weisselberg.
12 Q Similar to the work you performed in 2012?
13 A Yes, it was an annual recurring process.
14 Q Approximately how long in 2013 would that take to go
15 from being assigned adding the value to the time you brought it
16 to Mr. Trump for his approval?
17 A Again, several days.
18 Q Any understanding whether or not Mr. Trump did approve
19 of the asset values you added to the Statement of Financial
20 Condition for that year?
21 A In the same way as previously described.
22 Q And if I asked you the same questions for the following
23 year, for 2014 --
24 A Yes.
25 Q -- would your answers be any different?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2231

1 A No.
2 Q How about in 2015; would your answers be any different?
3 A No.
4 Q And let's just take a quick look at the 2013 Statement
5 of Financial Condition which is -- Tommy, I'm so sorry. 707.
6 Do you recognize that document there?
7 A I do.
8 Q Let's turn to the third page. Do you recognize that 9 asset page?
10 A I do.
11 Q And that was the asset page you worked on to increase
12 the values for the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition?
13 A Correct.
14 Q And turning to the next page, do you see that net worth
15 entry there?
16 A Yes.
17 Q Is that the net worth line that you were tasked with 18 reverse engineering higher by Mr. Trump?
19 A Yes.
20 MS. FAHERTY: Can we pull out 2015, which is we are 21 looking at 730. Sorry, Tommy. 729. Thank you. Can you
22 pull out 730, too.
23 Q So I put 2014 -- let's look at 2014 first which is 730
24 in front of you. Do you recognize that document?
25 A I do.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2232 1 Q That's the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And turn to page three of this document. Again, this 4 is the assets page that you and Mr. Weisselberg worked on 5 together? 6 A Correct. 7 Q And then turning to the next page, that net worth line 8 appears to have gone up from prior year, yes? 9 A Correct. 10 Q That was the net worth number that Mr. Trump assigned 11 you to inflate back into? 12 A Correct. 13 Q And then turning to Exhibit 729, you recognize that 14 document there? 15 A I do. 16 Q Same assets page that you were assigned? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Turning to the following page, net worth number there 19 now six million. You see that there? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And that was a net worth number you were tasked with 22 backing into to make higher pursuant to Mr. Trump's direction? 23 A Correct. 24 Q You can put those down. Thank you. 25 Do you recall when you stopped working on the	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2234 1 demonstrate his ability to purchase the team. 2 Q And did you have the permission of Mr. Trump to be able 3 to use the Statement of Financial Condition? 4 A Yes. 5 Q Were you directed by Mr. Trump to use the Statement of 6 Financial Condition to flout his wealth? 7 A Yes. 8 Q I want to turn your attention to insurance. Did you 9 work on the insurance program for the Trump Organization? 10 A I did. 11 Q Did you work with others on the -- at the Trump 12 Organization on the insurance program? 13 A Yes. 14 Q Who did you work with at the Trump Organization? 15 A Allen Weisselberg, CFO; Matthew Calamari, Sr., chief 16 operating officer; and Ronald Lieberman. 17 Q Did that group of four individuals have a specific 18 title or association that they were known by? 19 A The gang of four. 20 Q Did you say, "the gang of four"? 21 A Some called it the group of four or the gang of four. 22 Q And how did you know Matthew Calamari, Ron Lieberman, 23 Allen Weisselberg come to be known as the gang of four? 24 A I believe Pam Newman from Aon came up with the name. 25 Q And can you remind me who Aon is?
M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2233 1 Statements of Financial Condition? 2 A I believe around for the 2016. 3 Q What is your understanding as to why you stopped 4 working on the Statement of Financial Condition values? 5 A I was busy doing other things. 6 Q Were you ever in possession of one of Mr. Donald J. 7 Trump's Statement of Financial Condition in final form? 8 A Yes. 9 Q That was yours to use for business purposes? 10 A It was given to me to use for business purpose. 11 Q And when would you use that Statement of Financial 12 Condition? Can you provide me an example? 13 A So in 2013, there was a journalist for a New York 14 centric magazine called The Real Deal. The journalist's name 15 was Katherine Clarke and Katherine Clarke was going to do a 16 story, a feature story on Mr. Trump's net worth. And so when 17 she came to see me at the office, I presented her with the 18 document. She could not keep it. She could take notes in order 19 to create the story about how much Mr. Trump was actually worth. 20 Q So is that generally how you would come to use the 21 Statement of Financial Condition? 22 A That's one example. 23 Q That's one example. Another example, do you have any? 24 A When Mr. Trump was interested in putting in a bid for 25 the Buffalo Bills, we used that statement in order to	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2235 1 A Aon is the broker that handled the insurance for the 2 Trump Organization for all the insurance. 3 Q So a broker, they go out and find insurance programs to 4 present to the organization? 5 A Correct. 6 Q They didn't provide the actual insurance, right? 7 A No, they're brokers. 8 Q You said the name was Pam Newman? 9 A Correct. 10 Q Who assigned you and those three other individuals, Mr. 11 Weisselberg, Mr. Calamari, Mr. Lieberman, to work on the 12 insurance program? 13 A All final decisions were done by Mr. Trump. 14 Q Mr. Cohen, I'm handing you an exhibit. We marked for 15 identification as PX-3119. I'll give you a minute to take a 16 look at that document. I also put it on the screen. Do you see 17 that document in front of you, sir? 18 A I do. Can I have just one moment to look through it? 19 Q Yes. Absolutely. 20 A Thank you. 21 (Witness reviewing document.) 22 A Okay. 23 Q So drawing your attention to the top of this e-mail, do 24 you recognize the name Martha Blackman or 25 martha.blackman@aon.com?

1 A Yes.
2 Q Who do you recognize that name to you?
3 A She worked for Pamela Newman at Aon.
4 Q Is that acknowledged in the following line on behalf of 5 Pamela Newman right below?
6 A Yes.
7 Q This appears to be an e-mail sent on February 14, 2013
8 addressed to Allen Weisselberg at the Trump Organization,
9 Matthew Calamari, Ron Lieberman and you. That's your e-mail
10 address, mcohen@trumporg.com?
11 A It was.
12 Q Thank you for the clarification. The cc line, do you
13 recognize generally that those are e-mail addresses associated 14 with employees at Aon, the insurance broker?
15 A Yes.
16 Q The subject is, "Forward, the Trump/Aon team-suggested
17 work style going forward (draft memo number 4 with updated 18 timeline)" and then there's an attachment. Do you see that?
19 A I do.
20 Q Drawing your attention to the body of the message, it
21 says, "Gentlemen, Aon is committed to delivering to the Trump
22 Organization the best service and the best results." Then it
23 states, "Work style-A, team of four."
24 Is that a reference to what you were just describing a
25 moment ago, the gang of four who worked on the insurance

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2237

1 program?
2 A Yes.
3 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this into
4 evidence.
5 MS. HABBA: Objection. Statute of limitations.
6 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
7 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
8 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3119.)
9 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you.
10 Q So this paragraph under, "A team of four" states, "Aon
11 is excited that the Trump Organization has created a team of 12 four to review the Trump Organization's insurance program,
13 insurance policy buying decisions, claims management and risk
14 protection protocols."
15 Is this an accurate description that it was the Trump
16 Organization that created the "team of four" or "gang of four"
17 as you referred to it just a moment ago?
18 A Yes.
19 Q And then it states that the "team of four and each 20 member's role is outlined below." Do you see the box in the 21 middle of the page there?
22 A I do.
23 Q First it identifies Allen Weisselberg, he was the 24 executive vice-president and CFO of the Trump Organization, yes?
25 A Correct.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2238

1 Q What does it mean that his role was coverage buying
2 decisions?
3 A Ultimately, he would be the one to take the premium
4 after we negotiated and that would be again Matt Calamari, Ron 5 Lieberman, myself and Allen to Mr. Trump in order to bind the 6 policies.
7 Q Was he in charge of financial information with regards
8 to the insurance program as well?
9 A Yes.
10 Q Was he in charge of sharing financial information with 11 regards to the insurance program?
12 A To whom?
13 Q Sharing financial information.
14 A But share it with whom?
15 Q We'll come back to that question.
16 A Okay.
17 Q And next is Matthew Calamari, the executive
18 vice-president and chief operating officer of the Trump
19 Organization, yes?
20 A Yes, ma'am.
21 Q What is your understanding of his role with property
22 claims?
23 A So Matthew Calamari, Sr. handled all of the claims as 24 it related to anything that dealt with the insurance. If there
25 was an auto accident, he would handle it. If there was a

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2239

1 Workers' Compensation claim, he would handle it. If there was a
2 loss, an insurance loss, he would handle it.
3 Q He was responsible for those aspects of the insurance
4 program, right?
5 A Yes, ma'am.
6 Q And then Mr. Lieberman, he's next in the line,
7 executive vice-president management and development, what is
8 your understanding of his role as described here in this box?
9 A During the process, things that would be looked at, of 10 course, as casualty risk, again claims and also coverage buying
11 decisions in terms of what needed, what didn't -- his 12 background is he came from the City Parks Department and so he 13 had a good understanding of casualty risk.
14 Q And then you're the fourth person in this box, yes?
15 A Correct.
16 Q And what does that mean, "coverage terms and 17 conditions" associated with your role?
18 A It sort of encompasses the other boxes whereby we 19 needed to make sure that the coverage terms were advantageous to 20 the Trump Organization and the conditions of the insurance
21 properly insured the assets.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2240

1 Q You can put that to the side. Thank you.
2 Are you aware if the Statement of Financial Condition,
3 we talked a little bit about it, whether the statements of 4 financial condition were ever presented during any of the 5 gang-of-four meetings with underwriters?
6 A Yes.
7 Q What is your understanding as to when the Statement of 8 Financial Condition would be shared in these gang-of-four
9 meetings with underwriters?
10 A Pamela Newman would set up a meeting that would include
11 various different insurance company executives and we would meet
12 in one of the conference rooms across the table from one another
13 and Allen would provide each and every one of them with a copy
14 -- a bound copy of the Statement of Financial Condition.
15 Once again, they were told that they can copy, they can
16 take notes off of it, but they cannot keep the original
17 document.
18 Q So insurance underwriters were provided the statements
19 of financial condition by Allen Weisselberg, yes?
20 A Yes, that was the word I was looking for, underwriter.
21 Q And those underwriters were permitted to review those 22 statements, yes?
23 A Encouraged to.
24 Q And take notes?
25 A Yes.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2241

1 Q On the information contained in those statements; is
2 that correct?
3 A That's correct.
4 Q I'd like to show you another document.
5 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I'm handing up to the 6 witness a document we've marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit
7 PX-588.
8 Q And I'll represent to you, Mr. Cohen, this is the way
9 this document was provided to us. It's four pages, but I think
10 the first two pages are identical to the second two pages, so if 11 you want to take a moment to review, I'll just focus your 12 attention on those first two pages, please.
13 Okay. Do you see this document in front of you? It's 14 on a letterhead "AON," right? You see that in the upper right
15 hand corner?
16 A Correct.
17 Q And there is a heading, "Agenda, "The Trump
18 Organization LLC D&O Underwriting Meeting," dated Tuesday,
19 January 10, 2017, 10:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m..
20 And is that the address of the Trump Organization, 725
21 Fifth Avenue?
22 A It is.
23 Q And then there is a -- in the center of the page, a
24 header "Attendees." Do you see that there?
25 A Yes.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2242

1 Q And under the heading "Trump Organization," is that
2 your name listed there?
3 A It is.
4 Q And the other names Allen Weisselberg, Matthew
5 Calamari, Ron Leiberman. That's the gang of four, yes?
6 A Correct, the group of four.
7 Q Group of four.
8 And then George Sorial, he's an employee of the Trump
9 Organization?
10 A He is.
11 Q How about Adam Rosen?
12 A Yes.
13 Q And what about Patrick Birney?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And there is another subheading, "AON." Do you see
16 that there?
17 A I do.
18 Q Pam Newman, that's who we've been speaking about?
19 A Yes.
20 Q She was the broker?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And Regina Degnan, do you recognize that name?
23 A I do.
24 Q Who is Regina Degnan?
25 A She was Pamela's executive vice president. Ultimately

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2243

1 took her book of business when Pam retired.
2 Q And fair to say Pam Newman was the relationship partner
3 at AON?
4 A Yes.
5 Q And Regina then succeeded her as the relationship
6 partner for the Trump Organization's relationship program?
7 A Correct.
8 Q Do you recognize the name John Vanasco?
9 A I do.
10 Q How do you recognize that name?
11 A From the meetings.
12 Q Okay. And what about Michael Fetchko. Do you
13 recognize that name?
14 A I don't.
15 Q Any reason to doubt that Mr. Fetchko was an employee of 16 AON?
17 A No.
18 Q Okay. And then under that subheading there is another
19 subheading, "markets." Do you have an understanding of the 20 markets?
21 A They're talking about the various different insurance
22 markets because the Trump Organization is comprised of many 23 different assets and many different classes.
24 Q So is this is an example of an agenda for Trump
25 Organization D&O Underwriting Meeting that occurred at the Trump

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2244

1 Organization on Tuesday, January 10, 2017?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Okay.
4 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this into
5 evidence.
6 THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
7 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
8 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 588 in
9 evidence.)
10 Q Do you have a specific recollection of recalling this
11 underwriting meeting, Mr. Cohen?
12 A No, ma'am.
13 Q Any reason to doubt that you didn't have an underwrite
14 -- D&O underwriting meeting on Tuesday, January 10, 2017?
15 A No.
16 Q Involving Everett?
17 A No.
18 Q Or HCC?
19 A No.
20 Q Okay. And just drawing your attention to the second
21 page of this agenda. Looking in the middle of this "questions, 22 discussions, topics agenda," do you see in the middle of the 23 page there is a subtopic "financial?"
24 A I do.
25 Q Is this a reference to the conversation we were having

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2245

1 a short while ago that underwriters would add as part of the
2 agenda wanting to see financials in connection with quoting
3 premiums for the Trump insurance program?
4 A Yes.
5 Q Okay.
6 MS. FAHERTY: We can put that to the side.
7 Thank you.
8 Q And was Mr. Trump ever involved in these group of four 9 insurance meetings?
10 A Yes.
11 Q Describe that for me.
12 A In two different ways: First way, would be on rare
13 occasion we would go to his office to discuss an insurance
14 issue, but for the most part about three quarters of the way
15 through the meeting Mr. Trump would then come in and there would 16 be a conversation about his extensive net worth, he's actually 17 richer than the insurance companies, "maybe we should go self 18 insured. We got to get a good premium."
19 Q And would Mr. Trump ever appear at these meetings
20 talking about his net worth to the underwriters themselves?
21 A Yes. That's what I was referring to three quarters
22 through the meeting he would generally show up.
23 Q And would you coordinate these gang-of-four meetings
24 such that Mr. Trump could arrange to arrive like that?
25 A It was coordinated that he would arrive like that.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2246

1 MS. FAHERTY: Can we do 3166?
2 I'm going to ask Tommy to pull Exhibit 3166.
3 Tommy, my mistake. You don't have it.
4 Your Honor, I've marked for identification
5 plaintiff's PX 3166. I've handed it up to the witness.
6 Q Mr. Cohen, I'll give you a moment to review that
7 document and let me know when you're ready.
8 MR. KISE: Your Honor, just briefly, what was the 9 last exhibit number? Was that in evidence, the one right
10 before this? What was the last exhibit? I'm sorry.
11 MS. FAHERTY: 588.
12 MR. KISE: 588, okay. Thank you.
13 MS. FAHERTY: And that was already in.
14 MR. KISE: It was already in, right.
15 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit
16 Plaintiff's Exhibit 588.
17 THE COURT: Was it already in or wasn't it?
18 MS. FAHERTY: Apparently it wasn't already in. I
19 misunderstood.
20 THE COURT: It's now admitted into evidence.
21 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor. I appreciate
22 it.
23 MR. KISE: Thank you.
24 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
25 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 588 in

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2247

1 evidence.)
2 THE COURT: The witness just going to take a little
3 motion break I'll call it. Says it will be a minute.
4 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness returning. Come to 5 order.
6 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.
7 THE COURT: You're welcome. Let's continue.
8 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you.
9 THE WITNESS: Apologies.
10 Q It's okay.
11 Did you have a moment to review the document in front
12 of you, Mr. Cohen?
13 A I did.
14 Q And looking at the top of this e-mail, it is from 15 SariRudman@AON.com.
16 Do you have any understanding as to who Sari Rudman is?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Who is that?
19 A She also worked for Pam Newman at AON.
20 Q And this is an e-mail sent on March 19, 2013. Again,
21 it's sent to the group of four, yes?
22 A Correct.
23 Q And there is a copy here to an individual named Rhona
24 Graff. Do you recognize that name?
25 A I do.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2248

1 Q Who is Rhona Graff?
2 A Mr. Trump's executive assistant.
3 Q Okay. How about the e-mail address
4 HLorenzo@Trumporg.com?
5 A That would be Holly Lorenzo.
6 Q Do you have any understanding as to who Ms. Lorenzo is?
7 A Yes.
8 Q Who is that?
9 A That's one of Mr. Trump's assistants. She was the 10 assistant for the executive assistant.
11 Q She was an assistant for Ms. Graff?
12 A Yes.
13 Q Thank you for the clarification.
14 And Ms. Newman? We spoke about her, yes?
15 A Correct.
16 Q Okay. And the subject of this e-mail is a forward
17 "Property casualty marketing meetings re: 2013 renewal-Tuesday,
18 April 9, 2013 at 3:00 p m.-at The Trump Organization," yes?
19 A That's what it says, yes.
20 Q And in the body of this message, it says:
21 "Dear, gentlemen. Please note in your calendar Rhona
22 has kindly secured Mr. Trump's availability for Tuesday,
23 April 9, 2013 at 3:00 p m. at the Trump Organization, 25th
24 floor. We will provide a list of all attendees in an agenda and 25 meeting purpose. Best, Pamela." Do you see that there?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2249

1 A I do.
2 Q Is this the matter in which you will confirm
3 Mr. Trump's attendance at these insurance group of four 4 meetings?
5 A No.
6 Q Tell me what this.
7 A This was obviously Pam Newman's acknowledgement
8 Mr. Trump was going to appear, but we didn't need even this 9 letter to have already discussed that he would make the 10 appearance three quarters of the way through the meeting.
11 Q But this is an example that Mr. Trump did in fact have 12 it scheduled to appear for a Trump underwriting meeting, yes?
13 A Yes.
14 MR. KISE: Objection. Leading.
15 THE COURT: Sustained.
16 Q No reason to dispute that this is the -- this e-mail
17 identifies Mr. Trump's attendance of the Trump Organization
18 meeting?
19 MS. HABBA: That was leading. Objection.
20 THE COURT: Could you read that back?
21 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the
22 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
23 THE COURT: Overruled.
24 MS. FAHERTY: You can put that down.
25 And Your Honor, I actually move to admit this into

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2250

1 evidence.
2 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
3 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
4 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3166 in
5 evidence.)
6 MR. KISE: Statute of limitations, Your Honor.
7 THE COURT: Overruled. Did we get an answer? I'll
8 ask Ms. Faherty. Did he answer all your questions?
9 MS. FAHERTY: He answered my question.
10 THE COURT: No reason to dispute etc., etc.
11 THE WITNESS: And my answer was no.
12 THE COURT: No, okay.
13 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: Sure.
15 Q Mr. Cohen, I want to turn your attention to the Buffalo
16 Bills. You made mention of it earlier, okay?
17 A Correct.
18 Q All right. Do you recall who was involved in that 19 process with you from the Trump Organization?
20 A Mr. Trump, Allen Weisselberg and myself.
21 Q Anyone else? How about Jason Greenblatt?
22 A Yes, Jason Greenblatt.
23 Q What about Ivanka Trump?
24 A Not that I recall.
25 Q Okay. Did you work with Deutsche Bank on the process?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2251

1 MR. KISE: Objection. What process?
2 Q We turned our attention to the Buffalo Bills.
3 So what, if anything, do you recall about Deutsche
4 Bank's involvement in the attempt to purchase the Buffalo Bills?
5 A We had had a meeting in Mr. Trump's office with members
6 of Deutsche Bank's team for the purpose of securing a loan that
7 would be predicated off of his assets so that we could acquire
8 the -- or at least put in a bid to acquire the Buffalo Bills.
9 There is an interesting NFL scenario where you cannot
10 have more than ten percent of an NFL team financed --
11 MR. KISE: Objection. Move to strike the last 12 portion of that answer, Your Honor, unless Mr. Cohen is now
13 an expert on NFL acquisitions.
14 I mean, I represented, George Steinbrenner in 1995
15 in connection with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers purchase, but 16 I'm not an expert on that. I'm not sure if Mr. Cohen is an 17 expert on NFL acquisitions, but the last port portion of his
18 nonresponsive.
19 THE COURT: If it was nonresponsive that would be
20 my objection.
21 Sustained on the ground of nonresponsive, the last
22 part of it, the ten percent rule.
23 MS. FAHERTY: Understood.
24 Q Let's look at some documents. Maybe that will help the 25 conversation.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2252

1 A Sure.
2 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I've marked as
3 plaintiff's next exhibit PX 3159.
4 Q Drawing your attention, Mr. Cohen, to the document on 5 your screen. Do you see that this is a message from 6 ITrump@Trumporg.com. Who do you understand that e-mail address
7 to be?
8 A That's Ivanka Trump's e-mail address.
9 Q And this e-mail is dated July 27, 2013 at 3:30 p m.,
10 yes?
11 A Correct.
12 Q It's addressed to Jason Greenblatt?
13 A It is.
14 Q Allen Weisselberg?
15 A Yes.
16 Q And you?
17 A Yes.
18 Q This appears to be a forward with an attachment and the 19 attachment is titled, "DB to Morgan Stanley letter, (clean
20 version 2) 72514 [1].docx." Do you see that there?
21 A I do.
22 Q And the underlying message is a forward from Ivanka
23 Trump to Rosemary Vrablic dated July 26, 2014. Do you see that
24 there?
25 A I do.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2253

1 Q Do you have any understanding as to whom Rosemary
2 Vrablic is?
3 A She is an employee at Deutsche Bank.
4 Q And what, if any, title did Ms. Vrablic have at 5 Deutsche Bank as it concerned the Trump Organization?
6 A She was -- well, she is an executive at Deutsche Bank,
7 but she has a long history with Mr. Trump.
8 Q Was she a relationship partner at Deutsche Bank to your 9 understanding?
10 A Yes.
11 Q Okay. And in Ms. Trump's message that she forwarded to 12 you and others, it states: "Hi, Rosemary. Thank you for 13 providing this draft confidence letter."
14 What is your understanding of a draft confidence
15 letter?
16 A It was needed in order to get the process started.
17 Q And what process are you referring to?
18 A The process of putting in a bid to obtain the Buffalo
19 Bills.
20 THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
21 MS. FAHERTY: Yes, Your Honor.
22 Q And the message continues: "I have inserted a couple
23 of comments and suggestions. Please see what you can do. I
24 will call you in the a m. to discuss." Do you see that there?
25 A I do.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2254

1 Q And in drawing your attention to the following page of
2 this document, the very top says, "Draft (DB letterhead)."
3 Do you see that there?
4 A I do.
5 Q Dated "July blank, 2014," yes?
6 A Correct.
7 Q And it appears that there is an addressee, Morgan
8 Stanley. Do you have any understanding as to why Morgan Stanley
9 is listed there?
10 A Morgan Stanley was handling the sale.
11 Q Of the Buffalo Bills?
12 A Of the Buffalo Bills.
13 Q Okay. And the address is blank, the attention is 14 blank, yes?
15 A Correct.
16 Q But it states "re: Mr. Donald Trump," yes?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And there is some language in the center here.
19 MS. FAHERTY: We can zoom out a little bit so we 20 can put the full letter up.
21 Q Okay. And there is a second page to this letter. Do
22 you see in the capital -- all caps at the top of the second page
23 it states, "Can you not replace the whole following paragraph
24 with the below statement. It says the same thing without this 25 overkill belt" and it states "suspenders" [sic]. I think that's

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2255

1 supposed to be "suspenders" --
2 THE COURT: I'm sure it is.
3 Q Language. Do you see that there?
4 A I do.
5 Q Do you recall including language like this as an edit
6 to a Deutsche Bank financial wherewithal letter?
7 A No.
8 MR. KISE: Objection.
9 Q Any reason to dispute that you received this forward
10 from Ivanka Trump that included her edits to a letter to 11 Deutsche Bank?
12 A Well, her requested edits to the letter and yes, it
13 came to my e-mail address.
14 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this into
15 evidence.
16 THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
17 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
18 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3159 in
19 evidence.)
20 MR. KISE: Your Honor, not only is it statute of 21 limitations. I'm just wondering -- I object on relevance
22 grounds. What does this have to do with anyone in the case?
23 Ms. Trump is no longer a party to the case and this 24 transaction as far as I know it doesn't form the basis for 25 any cause of action that's in the complaint at all, so I'm

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2256 1 not sure why we're talking about the Buffalo Bills other 2 than it does generate some press interest. I'm sure this is 3 the Buffalo Bills. 4 THE COURT: You know, I think Mr. Cohen referred to 5 Buffalo Bills many times and I'm thinking that's the 6 football team, right? Without saying the football team. 7 What's the relevance? 8 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, they're writing to 9 Deutsche Bank to get financing, they're providing comfort to 10 the bank to get financing, they're making financial 11 representations connection with the purchase of the Buffalo 12 Bills. It is an aspect of our complaint and the Attorney 13 General intends to prove the allegations within our 14 complaint. So this is square within the case that we have 15 brought. It is a continued pattern of fraud. 16 MR. KISE: There is no transaction at all 17 associated with it. Nothing ever happened and it's not -- 18 it doesn't form the basis for any of the counts. 19 The counts are connected to loan transactions that 20 were actually consummated loan transactions and insurance 21 transactions and insurance policies. This is just simply a 22 free-for-all on anything that everyone went out at anytime 23 and place and where -- and Ms. Trump who sent this e-mail is 24 no longer a party to the case. So not only is it outside 25 the statute of limitations, but it just simply has nothing	Page 2258 1 Transcript continues on the following page.... 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
M. Cohen - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 2257 1 to do with the claims asserted in the complaint. 2 I realize there is 200-something pages and 3 800-something paragraphs and one of those paragraphs makes 4 some drive by mention of the Buffalo Bills. I do realize 5 that, but that doesn't make it relevant in this trial 6 proceeding now that the issues have been narrowed and the 7 case has been joined. 8 THE COURT: I think we can all agree that Mr. Trump 9 never owned the Buffalo Bills; right? 10 MS. FAHERTY: We can agree that that did not come 11 to fruition, Your Honor, yes. 12 THE COURT: Nevertheless, I will admit it as 13 possible evidence of pattern and practice of the 14 organization back at that time generally speaking and the 15 witness himself was on this. If it's not relevant, it's not 16 relevant, but I think it is anyway, so. 17 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, it might be a good moment 18 for a break. 19 THE COURT: Did we get an answer to the last 20 question? 21 MS. FAHERTY: I thought we did. 22 MR. SOLOMON: Yes. 23 THE COURT: All right. Ten-minute break. We'll 24 see you in 15 minutes. 25 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2259 1 THE OFFICER: Come to order. Part 37 is back in 2 session. Please be seated and come to order. 3 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. 4 (Witness resumes the stand.) 5 THE COURT: Okay. Please proceed. 6 MS FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor. I'd like to 7 hand up to the witness a document that I've marked for 8 identification as PX-3276. 9 Q Mr. Cohen, I ask you to take a minute and look at the 10 document in front of you and then I'll ask you a question. 11 (Witness reviewing document.) 12 Q Mr. Cohen, this document is an e-mail from Jason 13 Greenblatt to you, Ivanka Trump and Allen Weisselberg, yes? 14 A Correct. 15 Q Dated July 29, 2014? 16 A Correct. 17 Q With the subject "executed Buffalo Bills bid-related 18 documents," yes? 19 A Yes. 20 Q And then there appear to be a series of attachments in 21 included with this document? 22 A Correct. 23 Q And Mr. Greenblatt's message says, "All, FYI, attached 24 are copies of the documents executed today in connection with 25 the bid made by DJT." Do you have any understanding as to who

1 DJT is?
2 A Donald J. Trump.
3 Q "For the Buffalo Bills." He then goes on to state,
4 "Items 1, 2, 3 were submitted to Morgan Stanley. Items 4-5 are 5 documents between Trump and DB." Any understanding as to who DB
6 is?
7 A Deutsche Bank.
8 Q "(And were not submitted to Morgan Stanley)."
9 Do you see that there?
10 A I do.
11 Q And item number one appears to be a letter from DJT.
12 Donald J. Trump, yes?
13 A That's what it says, yes.
14 Q To Morgan Stanley?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Then two is "owner background form," correct?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And three is a letter from Deutsche Bank to Morgan
19 Stanley, yes?
20 A Yes.
21 Q And those were the three items submitted to Morgan
22 Stanley?
23 A Correct.
24 Q And then four and five, number four is a certification
25 of the financial position of DJT or Donald J. Trump, yes?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2261

1 A Yes.
2 Q Executed by J. McConney. Do you understand who J.
3 McConney is?
4 A Yes.
5 Q Who is that?
6 A Jeffrey McConney.
7 Q Item five is an executed letter from Deutsche Bank to 8 Donald J. Trump, "Re: No waiver of Deutsche Bank/Trump loan
9 terms," yes?
10 A Yes.
11 Q And do you recall putting documents together in 12 connection with the Buffalo Bills bid?
13 A I remember seeing these documents.
14 Q And this was something that you worked on when you were 15 at the Trump Organization, yes?
16 A Correct.
17 Q Turning your attention to the first attachment then,
18 I'll ask you to turn the page of this exhibit. This appears to 19 be a Trump Organization letterhead, yes?
20 A That's correct.
21 Q And this letter is dated July 29, 2014, yes?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Do you recall the name K. Don Cornwell?
24 A I recall the name.
25 Q Who do you understand K. Don Cornwell to be?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2262

1 A Managing director of Morgan Stanley. He was the 2 individual that was compiling all the bids on behalf of the
3 Buffalo Bills.
4 Q And so this is a letter -- and if we could just pull
5 back and turn to the second page of this letter. Do you
6 recognize the signature on this letter addressed to K. Don
7 Cornwell dated July 29, 2014?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Whose signature do you recognize that to be?
10 A Donald J. Trump.
11 Q And there's a title underneath the word "sincerely."
12 It is "Trump Acquisition, LLC." Do you see that there?
13 A I do.
14 Q The letterhead of this letter, however, is the Trump
15 Organization. What is the connection between the Trump
16 Organization and Trump Acquisition, LLC?
17 A It is a subsidiary for new acquisitions. They would do
18 it under its own specific LLC.
19 Q Was it still an entity contained under the umbrella of 20 the Trump Organization to your understanding?
21 A To my understanding, yes.
22 Q And you stated that's Donald J. Trump's signature, yes?
23 A Yes.
24 Q Now, turning back to the first letter, first page of 25 the letter, the first paragraph states, "Please let this letter

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2263

1 serve to represent my bid to purchase the Buffalo Bills football
2 team for $1 billion."
3 Do you recall the bid made to purchase the Buffalo
4 Bills for $1 billion in 2014?
5 A $1 billion, yes.
6 Q Turning to the next paragraph, the letter continues, "I
7 have a net worth in excess of $8 billion (financial statements
8 to be provided upon request), comprised of substantial cash
9 balances, highly liquid assets (including Class A real estate)
10 and very little debt." Do you recall seeing that?
11 A I do.
12 Q Do you recall a representation made by Mr. Trump in 13 connection with his bid to buy the Bills asserting a net worth
14 in excess of $8 billion?
15 MR. KISE: Objection. In addition to this document
16 or this document?
17 THE COURT: I think that's a fair question. So
18 let's make the question more specific. By fair question, I
19 meant Mr. Kise's question.
20 Q Do you recall Mr. Trump, separate and apart from this 21 letter, making a representation that he had a net worth in 22 excess of $8 billion in connection with his attempt to purchase
23 the bills?
24 A Yes.
25 Q And that is reflected here in this letter, yes?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2264

1 A Yes.
2 Q And then this letter also states in the following
3 paragraph, "I'm enclosing a letter from Deutsche Bank which 4 indicates my financial strengths, both from a liquidity and
5 asset value standpoint, and confirming that I have the financial 6 capability to consummate the transaction, yes?
7 A That's what it says.
8 Q And this was submitted to Mr. Don Cornwell at Morgan
9 Stanley in connection with the Buffalo Bills bid, yes?
10 A Yes.
11 Q And then I'll draw your attention to -- we'll skip the 12 background form which is the second attachment to this letter.
13 So let's go to the third document that was attached to this
14 letter and submitted to Morgan Stanley. Go to page 17 of 22.
15 And this is a letter from Rosemary Vrablic, managing 16 director at Deutsche Bank. That was the relationship partner we 17 spoke about before, yes?
18 A Correct.
19 Q Dated July 29, 2014?
20 A Yes.
21 Q Also addressed to Mr. Cornwell at Morgan Stanley?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Drawing your attention to the first paragraph, do you
24 recall that Deutsche Bank submitted a letter stating that they 25 have been asked by Mr. Donald J. Trump to provide this letter in

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2265

1 connection with his bid for the acquisition of the Buffalo Bills
2 of the National Football League (the transaction)?
3 A Yes.
4 Q And drawing your attention to the third paragraph, the 5 letter reads, "Our understanding is that Mr. Donald J. Trump has 6 made, or intends to make a bid for the Buffalo Bills in the 7 amount of $1 billion in the aggregate. Based on our preliminary
8 review of the current financial information of Mr. Donald J.
9 Trump made available to us, including liquidity and asset value,
10 it is our assessment that Mr. Donald J. Trump would have the 11 financial wherewithal to fund his bid." Do you see that there?
12 A I see that.
13 Q What, if anything, do you understand Deutsche Bank to 14 have reviewed to make this statement, "Based" on our preliminary 15 review of current financial information of Mr. Donald J. Trump
16 made available to us"?
17 A The Statement of Financial Condition.
18 Q And if we turn the page, you'll see that this document
19 is signed. Does that appear to be the signature of Rosemary
20 Vrablic of Deutsche Bank?
21 A I don't know her signature, but yes, it says Rosemary
22 T. Vrablic.
23 Q No reason to doubt that that's her signature, right?
24 A No.
25 Q There is a copy here. Is that for Mr. Donald J. Trump?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2266

1 A Correct.
2 Q You will recall that Mr. Greenblatt's cover e-mail
3 suggested that there are two other documents attached that were
4 just transmitted to Deutsche Bank, right?
5 A Correct.
6 Q Turning your attention to the next page of this
7 document, do you recognize the signature on the bottom of this
8 page titled, "Certification of the Financial Position of Donald 9 J. Trump"?
10 A Yes.
11 Q Whose signature do you recognize that to be?
12 A That's Jeff McConney.
13 Q The Jeffrey McConney that we spoke about before? He 14 worked in the accounting department at the Trump Organization?
15 A Yes, the controller.
16 Q The controller?
17 A Yes.
18 Q And if you see in that very first paragraph, it states,
19 "I, Jeffrey McConney, controller;" is that right?
20 A That's correct.
21 Q And there are certain numbers included in here that
22 "DT's current liquidity is approximately 310 million." Do you
23 have an understanding as to who DT is?
24 A Donald Trump.
25 Q And then it states in paragraph B, "There has been no

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2267

1 material decrease (in excess of 10%) in the aggregate value of
2 his illiquid assets since the financials were reported to
3 Deutsche Bank as of June 30, 2013 that were certified by DT,
4 Donald Trump, on October 30, 2013," yes?
5 A That's what it says.
6 Q And those financials, do you have any understanding as 7 to what those financials as of June 30, 2013 are?
8 A The assets described in the Statement of Financial
9 Condition.
10 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this
11 document and the exhibits into evidence.
12 MR. KISE: Your Honor, I'm not sure where to begin,
13 but I'll start with statute of limitations.
14 THE COURT: Overruled.
15 MR. KISE: I know where you are going on that, but 16 again, I'm not sure of the relevance of any of these 17 documents to the proceeding. I mean, is it the government's 18 intention to establish that President Trump did not have the 19 financial capability to consummate the transaction? Unless 20 they are going to connect this up somehow with some actual
21 alleged fraudulent activity, there's no -- there's no
22 transaction that was ever consummated.
23 And in order to demonstrate that there's anything
24 false or fraudulent here about this, we have to go into an
25 entire, which we can, I guess if we are going to be here

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2268 1 until next March, an entire analysis whether he had the 2 financial capability to consummate the transaction. The 3 documents are all hearsay, so I'm wondering what purpose 4 they're being offered for. What are we proving? What 5 relevance, what fact at issue that is material to the issues 6 before the Court is being established by this because on its 7 face, there's nothing to indicate that President Trump 8 didn't have the financial ability to consummate the 9 transaction and Deutsche Bank says itself based on their own 10 assessment, they say that he did. 11 So are we going to go down this path? This is the 12 danger of these hypothetical transactions that never took 13 place and they need to be more connected to some actual 14 cause of action. 15 THE COURT: Jeffrey McConney, who I believe the 16 witness has testified, signed the letter, submitted the 17 certification. He is a defendant, right? 18 MR. KISE: He is. 19 THE COURT: And whether everything in this document 20 is accurate or not, I think is a factual issue. 21 MR. KISE: Well, but if it is a factual issue, then 22 we have to go through whole society of facts and whether he 23 had the financial ability to consummate the transaction. It 24 doesn't just come in because it is a statement and then the 25 government gets to assume that there is some falsity here.	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2270 1 to that point. I mean, you can't just say that. Are we 2 going to debate whether his current liquidity was 310 3 million in 2014? I think it has already been established. 4 If this one piece they're focusing on right now, that's up 5 on the screen, but it is all part of one exhibit that 6 relates to no transaction that was ever consummated. 7 There's no connectivity to anything that's at issue. 8 It doesn't go to the element without establishing 9 that he did not, in fact, have the financial capability to 10 consummate the transaction which I would disagree with Ms. 11 Faherty. That has not been established. We don't know 12 that. I mean, there is certainly no evidence that would 13 indicate that he did or did not. I mean, with the evidence 14 that is before the Court as to this transaction, it 15 certainly seems sufficient that he had the financial 16 wherewithal to buy more than one NFL team. I mean, at the 17 time. That's what I'm saying. 18 Are we going to go down this path of debating 19 whether or not there is a truth or falsity here on an issue 20 that doesn't relate to the actual claims and causes of 21 action that are being presented? This is tangential and 22 remote and unless -- Ms. Faherty just admitted she does not 23 plan to connect this up. She's simply saying that the fraud 24 has already been established, that it is already 25 established, that this document is evidence itself of fraud
M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2269 1 They are going to have to establish all of that which is why 2 it needs to be connected to some actual cause of action. 3 THE COURT: Do you plan to establish all that? 4 MS. FAHERTY: We do, Your Honor. I think that the 5 evidence has come in that it has established a significant 6 number of the facts relevant to the evidence we're putting 7 forward. I am concerned that there is an unnecessary 8 objection here. He's given testimony about this 9 transaction. We're seeing information about financials that 10 are being proffered in order to receive the benefit. 11 This is our case. Because the fraud was not fully 12 perpetrated does not mean it is not relevant to the 13 allegations brought by the Attorney General. This is a 14 pattern and practice. There are co-defendants here. There 15 is a plethora of reasons why this evidence comes in, Your 16 Honor, respectfully. 17 MR. KISE: Your Honor, the entirety of Ms. 18 Faherty's presentation presumes the ultimate question. I'm 19 back to my point that they're presuming that there is some 20 fraudulent activity here without actually establishing that 21 he did not have the financial capability to consummate the 22 transaction. 23 THE COURT: But that isn't the only statement 24 inherent in this document. 25 MR. KISE: But it is because they're all connected	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2271 1 and I don't see how, how this exhibit is evidence of fraud. 2 He had the financial capability to consummate the 3 transaction and, again, perhaps more than one, maybe two or 4 three. You can't own more than one NFL team as far as I 5 know. 6 THE COURT: Are you testifying as an expert to the 7 NFL? 8 MR. KISE: I am more of an expert on -- 9 THE WITNESS: You can't own more than one. 10 THE COURT: As part of this document, I only have 11 the one sheet in front of me now. Wasn't there a statement, 12 a claim that the defendant's net worth was $8 billion? 13 MR. KISE: Yes. Has that been disproved? 14 THE COURT: Well, we don't have to disprove it. We 15 are in the middle of a trial at this point. 16 Do you agree that his net worth was $8 billion at 17 that time? 18 MS. FAHERTY: No. 19 THE COURT: Are you going to try to prove that it 20 wasn't or do you feel you've already proved it wasn't? 21 MS. FAHERTY: For one, Your Honor, the inherent 22 falsity of a Statement of Financial Condition has already 23 been decided by this Court on summary judgment. Those have 24 been determined to be false. I don't think I need to prove 25 up or prove down. Although, there is evidence as to the

1 inherent falsities and values contained in that Statement of
 2 Financial Condition that we have put in evidence in this
 3 trial and will continue to do so. So yes, we are continuing
 4 to prove our case, Your Honor, and connect all of those 5 dots.
 6 MR. KISE: But this document is not the Statement
 7 of Financial Condition, this document, and I would disagree
 8 strongly with Ms. Faherty. I mean, if we are in a place now
 9 where the statements are irretrievably proven false, then
 10 without a jury, without a trial and now we are going to be
 11 here and we're not -- why are we even putting on a defense
 12 then if that's already been established? We might as well
 13 close it up now. It doesn't make any sense what Ms. Faherty
 14 is saying.
 15 They have to establish the elements of their claims
 16 and they can't simply rely on the fact that well, it's 17 established that it is false and, thereby, that establishes 18 the remainder of their claims. And here, we are not even 19 talking about an actual claim. We're talking about a 20 theoretical claim. It doesn't form the basis for any of the 21 counts that are at issue in the trial. And unless we're 22 going to go down the path, unless the government intends to
 23 go down the path of proving up that President Trump, which I
 24 don't think they can do that, that President Trump did not
 25 have the financial capability to consummate this

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2273

1 transaction, this document has no relevance at all.
 2 THE COURT: Couple of things. It is a non-jury
 3 trial, of course. I tend to be somewhat liberal in what I
 4 let in. I believe that I am evenhanded about what I'm 5 letting in and what I'm not letting in. I think it's
 6 arguably false, particularly, again, the $8 billion. I
 7 don't -- arguably, I don't know whether Mr. Trump did or 8 didn't have the --
 9 MR. KISE: But that's precisely the point, Your
 10 Honor.
 11 THE COURT: Wait. Wait, please. Well, yeah,
 12 that's why we're having a trial. I think this 13 tends -- again, arguably tends to show a pattern and 14 practice of broad, to use a loaded term, so the objection is 15 overruled. Let's just move on.
 16 MR. KISE: Again, I'm starting to feel like Paul
 17 Newman at this point. Every objection is overruled. I
 18 mean, this evidence should not come in respectfully. It
 19 really shouldn't. There's no indication as to where that 20 even 8 billion -- 8 billion includes brand value. There's 21 so many issues here that again, we're going down this path
 22 of litigating something that isn't even relevant to the 23 claims and causes of action before the Court.
 24 THE COURT: One other thing. Maybe the only banned
 25 word in my courtroom is "again." You don't have to say

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2274

1 things again. The objection is overruled for the reasons I
 2 already stated and the reasons that Ms. Faherty stated.
 3 It's duly noted that you strongly object. Let's move on.
 4 MS. FAHERTY: One more document, Your Honor.
 5 Q Mr. Cohen, do you recall in connection with the attempt
 6 to purchase the Buffalo Bills that you attended a meeting in
 7 Detroit called a management presentation?
 8 A Yes.
 9 Q Do you recall who was at that meeting in Detroit?
 10 A Myself, Mr. Trump, Jason Greenblatt, Allen Weisselberg,
 11 and I don't recall if Ivanka was there.
 12 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I handed up to the 13 witness a document we've marked for identification as
 14 PX-981.
 15 Q Take a quick look at that document, if you will, Mr.
 16 Cohen, and then I'll ask you a quick question.
 17 (Witness reviewing document.)
 18 A Yes.
 19 Q Just drawing your attention to the third page, there is 20 an e-mail sent by you to Alex Hill dated July 29, 2014 at 21 3:36 p m. Do you see that message there?
 22 A I do.
 23 Q And do you recall who Alex Hill (IBD) is?
 24 A I don't recall him specifically.
 25 Q If I said the Morgan Stanley investment banking

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2275

1 division, would that refresh your recollection as to what IBD
 2 stood for?
 3 A Yes. Again, I don't know him.
 4 Q Do you have any understanding that Mr. Hill was an
 5 employee at Morgan Stanley?
 6 A Yes.
 7 Q So fair to say that this e-mail is a reflection that
 8 you dropped off the bid packet for the Buffalo Bills, yes?
 9 A Correct.
 10 Q And then drawing your attention through the e-mail all
 11 the way to the top, this is just a continued e-mail thread,
 12 right?
 13 A Correct.
 14 Q You remain on the e-mail chain in this thread, right?
 15 A Correct.
 16 Q And on August 4th, the second message on that first
 17 page, there's an e-mail from Alex Hill to you and Jason
 18 Greenblatt with a copy to K. Don Cornwell, right?
 19 A Correct.
 20 Q And Mr. Hill says wanted to confirm if the 6th worked 21 for the management presentation. Do you see that there?
 22 A I do.
 23 Q And then following up on the 6th, Mr. Hill writes to 24 you again saying, "Michael, Jason, looking forward to meeting
 25 you all today. One near term NFL item we would like you to all

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. HABBA) Page 2276 1 fill out and have Mr. Trump sign is the attached authorization 2 and consent to release records. If you all could get that back 3 to us home, that would be greatly appreciated. Also, we would 4 like to offer you all the opportunity to tour the 5 newly-modernized Ralph Wilson Stadium the week of the 18th. 6 Please let us know if there is a day that works that week for a 7 trip to Buffalo. Looking forward to meeting you." 8 Does this message reflect that a meeting occurred in 9 Detroit on August 6th in connection with the Buffalo Bills bid 10 package? 11 A Yes. 12 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I have no further 13 questions on this document and this witness. I would like 14 to move that document into evidence, please. 15 MR. KISE: Same objections, Your Honor. Statute of 16 limitations and relevance. 17 THE COURT: Same ruling. Granted. It is in. 18 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 19 Plaintiff's Exhibit 981.) 20 MS. FAHERTY: I rest, Your Honor. Thank you. 21 THE COURT: Well, will there be any 22 cross-examination? 23 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY 24 MS. HABBA: 25 Q Hello, Mr. Cohen.	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. HABBA) Page 2278 1 moment that would cause you a reason to not be able to sit 2 through the testimony under oath in this court today? 3 A Asked and answered. 4 Q I forgot that you like to do this. You did this with 5 me in the depositions. Okay. 6 MR. KISE: The judge doesn't like that objection. 7 Q That's not good. So here is how this is going to go. 8 They get to object. They get to object. We all get to do our 9 thing. You get to answer my questions. The more we do that, 10 this will go better. We are not in a deposition. That's the 11 judge. Ready? Mr. Cohen -- 12 THE COURT: Even if you were asked before by a 13 different party particularly, just answer it. It will be 14 quicker. 15 Q Answer the questions and we will be here until January. 16 Okay. 17 Mr. Cohen, are you on any medication that would affect 18 your ability to testify honestly to me today? 19 A No. 20 Q No. Okay. Do you have any medication that would 21 change your method of thinking at this moment, so that you're 22 not clear in any sort of way? 23 A No. 24 Q So you are fully prepared to testify to me today? 25 A Yes.
M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. HABBA) Page 2277 1 A Hello, Ms. Habba. 2 Q How are you? 3 A Well. Thank you. 4 Q We've met a few times, haven't we? 5 A We have. 6 Q Do you want me to call you Mr. Cohen today or Michael? 7 I know before, we've changed that up. What are you comfortable 8 with? 9 A I think Mr. Cohen for the day since we are here in 10 court. 11 Q I'll be Ms. Habba for the day. So I'm going to ask you 12 a series of questions today. Before I do, first of all, when I 13 do ask you my series of questions and I pace, I move when I am 14 on my feet, so I apologize. I am going to ask you questions 15 that are going to be yes-or-no questions and I'm going to try to 16 keep it that way other than when I ask you to read something, so 17 that we can move this along and make sure we get through 18 everything that's per the judge's instructions, but I will try 19 to make the questions super clear, so we have no issues. 20 Before we start, I want to discuss your health. I'm 21 not going to get into anything that's uncomfortable. I don't 22 really do that, but I need to make sure that you are able to 23 testify completely, clearly and understand what you're doing 24 today. 25 Do you have any health issues particularly at this	M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. HABBA) Page 2279 1 Q Under oath? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And you understand what "under oath" means? Is that 4 right, Mr. Cohen? 5 A Yes. 6 (Continued on the next page.) 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2280

1 Q Good. And you've been deposed, even by me, many times
2 before, haven't you, Mr. Cohen?
3 A I have.
4 Q And you've been in courts many times before, haven't
5 you, Mr. Cohen?
6 A I have.
7 Q Good. Let's go through that.
8 So previously you pled guilty to a number of felonies.
9 Isn't that correct?
10 A Yes.
11 Q And today, alone, you testified that you pled guilty to 12 five counts of evasion and assessment of income tax liability
13 for 2012 to 2016 --
14 MS. HABBA: I'm sorry is that not making a weird
15 sound? Can you guys hear it?
16 Q In violation of 26 USC Section 7201; is that correct?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And you pled guilty to making false statements to a
19 financial institution in connection with a credit decision in 20 violation of 18 USC Subsection 1014; is that correct?
21 A I take your word that the sections are correct.
22 Q No, no. I don't want you to take my word.
23 MS. HABBA: Let's pull up Exhibit D 951.
24 Q Mr. Cohen, this document is an allocution dated 25 August 21, 2018 for financial crimes. Do you see this?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2281

1 A I do.
2 Q Do you see that it says "United States of America
3 versus Michael Cohen?"
4 A I do.
5 Q Do you see that it's case 1:18-CR-00602-JMF?
6 A I do.
7 Q It's filed on 9/14/18, that's 2018; is that correct?
8 A Correct.
9 Q Okay. Do you recognize this document by the Honorable
10 William H. Pauly, III?
11 A I do.
12 Q Okay. Do you recognize it as your allocution?
13 A Not from this appearance page, no.
14 Q Okay. Well, let's go through this.
15 So, if you go to --
16 MS. HABBA: Peter, have him pull up the next page,
17 please. No, I'm going to go to -- one second.
18 Q Let me ask you this: You were a lawyer at one point;
19 right?
20 A I was.
21 Q Okay. And do you know what a docket number is?
22 A I do.
23 Q And does this have a docket number, this document that
24 I showed you, that I read it before?
25 A Yes.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2282

1 Q Yes, okay.
2 So that means it's a publicly filed court document;
3 right?
4 A Correct.
5 Q Okay. So do you see in line 19 here, I'm going to read
6 this to you, Mr. Cohen:
7 "How do you now plead to the charge in Count 1 of 8 evasion of personal income tax for the calendar year 2012."
9 And the judge asked you, "do you plead guilty or not 10 guilty?" Do you see that?
11 A I do.
12 Q And what was your answer, Mr. Cohen?
13 A "Guilty, Your Honor."
14 Q Correct.
15 And the Court said:
16 "And how do you plead to the charge in Count 2 of the 17 Information of evasion of personal income tax for the year 2013,
18 guilty or not guilty?" And what did you say?
19 A "Guilty, Your Honor."
20 Q Thank you.
21 So let's move on to the next one. This is all from the 22 same allocution that I'm showing you.
23 Did you plead guilty to causing an unlawful corporate 24 contribution in violation of 52 USC Subsection 30118 A and --
25 THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry, Ms. Habba.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2283

1 MS. HABBA: Sure.
2 Q You pled guilty to causing an unlawful corporate
3 contribution in violation of 52 USC Subsection 30118 (A), that's
4 and 30109 (D)(1) (A) and 18 USC Section 2 (B); is that correct?
5 A I don't see where you're reading that from.
6 Q No problem.
7 A Can you provide me --
8 Q I'm actually not reading it. I'm just asking, but we 9 can confirm it.
10 MS. HABBA: Can you please pull it up?
11 Q I'm going to read from what they pulled up from your 12 allocution, which we identified before.
13 "How do you plead to the charge in Count 3 of evasion
14 of personal income tax for the year 2014, guilty or not guilty?"
15 What did you respond, Mr. Cohen?
16 A "Guilty, Your Honor."
17 Q Thank you.
18 Next, you pled guilty to making an excessive campaign
19 contribution in violation -- and I'm going to read this slow
20 into the record -- of 52 USC Section 30118 (A) -- excuse me --
21 I'll withdraw that.
22 52 USC 30116 (A) (1) (A), 30116 (A) (7) and 30109 (D)
23 (1) (A), as well as 18 USC Section 2 Subsection B.
24 You pled guilty to that; correct, Mr. Cohen?
25 A Again, I don't see what you're reading.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2284

1 Q Sure.
2 MS. HABBA: Let's make that bigger, please?
3 Q "How do you plead to the charge in Count 5 of evasion
4 of personal income tax for the calendar year 2016, guilty or not
5 guilty, Mr. Cohen?" What did you respond?
6 A "Guilty, Your Honor."
7 Q Thank you.
8 MS. FAHERTY: Can I just note I think there is some 9 discrepancies, Ms. Habba.
10 MS. HABBA: I was getting to that.
11 Q So I think that what you're not understanding is the 12 subsections, so let me just take --
13 MS. HABBA: I'm take a representation --
14 Q Would you trust my word that those are the subsections
15 you pled guilty to in the allocution, now we're putting this 16 allocution in for evidence or would you like me to go through 17 the process?
18 A No, I would take your word for it.
19 Q Thank you, Mr. Cohen.
20 MS. HABBA: And first, I'm going to submit Exhibit
21 D 951, if it's already not submitted into evidence. Okay.
22 MS. FAHERTY: No objection, Your Honor.
23 THE COURT: It's in evidence.
24 By the way, we'll go until 4:40 and I'll give you a
25 five-minute warning.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2285

1 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
2 received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 951 in
3 evidence.)
4 MS. HABBA: Okay. Thank you.
5 Q Okay. In connection with that proceeding that we just
6 discussed in the Southern District of New York there is a
7 sentencing memorandum submitted. Do you recall that?
8 A My sentencing memorandum or the government's sentencing
9 memorandum?
10 Q It was at the U.S. Attorney for the Southern District
11 of New York Robert Cuzan?
12 A That would be government's, yes.
13 Q Do you remember that being submitted?
14 A I do.
15 Q Okay. And that was submitted in reference to you
16 committing the crimes that you were motivated by personal greed.
17 Isn't that correct, Mr. Cohen?
18 A That's what it's stated, yes.
19 Q Do you remember that it stated in particular that you
20 as an attorney and businessman committed four distinct federal 21 crimes over the period of several years and that you were 22 motivated to do so by personal greed and repeatedly used your 23 power and influence for deceptive ends. Do you remember that?
24 A Those are the statements of the government.
25 Q Great.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2286

1 And that you "repeatedly used your power and influence
2 for deceptive ends." That was what it said, right, deceptive?
3 A Again, yes.
4 Q And deception is a form of lying, isn't it, Mr. Cohen?
5 A I'll acknowledge that, yes.
6 Q Okay. In fact, he also noted that your crimes were 7 marked by a pattern of deception that permeated your 8 professional life, did he not?
9 A He said that, yes.
10 Q Okay. And his quote was, I believe, "but the crimes
11 committed by Cohen were more serious than his submission allows 12 and were marked by a pattern of deception that permeated his 13 professional life and was evidently hidden from the friends and 14 family members who wrote on his behalf." Is that correct?
15 A This is what he wrote.
16 Q I know that's what he wrote.
17 A Do I agree with the statement?
18 Q No, do you recollect him saying it; yes or no?
19 A I recollect that it's written here and you're reading
20 it appropriately.
21 Q Okay. Didn't he also note that you abused both your 22 standing as an attorney and your relationship with my client,
23 President Trump?
24 MS. HABBA: Let's pull it up.
25 Peter, pull it up, please.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2287

1 Q Those are the exact words. Would you like me to read
2 them?
3 A No.
4 Q Okay. Do you disagree that that is what he said in
5 that statement?
6 A I don't disagree that's what he said. I disagree with 7 the premise.
8 Q That's the question. It's a yes-or-no question.
9 THE COURT: Just answer the question, please.
10 Q Do you agree that is what he said?
11 A That is what it says.
12 Q Good.
13 And you ultimately accepted a plea deal for those eight 14 felony counts that were in the allocution that we put into the 15 evidence prior?
16 A I did.
17 Q And in connection with accepting your plea deal, you
18 appeared before the Honorable William Pauly of the Southern 19 District of New York on August 21, 2018. Isn't that correct?
20 A That's correct.
21 Q Okay. And you were required in that agreement to 22 answer a series of questions under oath, the same oath that you
23 had in your deposition with me on this case a few months ago and 24 the same oath that you're under today; isn't that correct?
25 A That's correct.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2288

1 Q And you understood on August 21, 2018 that by being
2 under oath, the same oath that you are on today and the same
3 oath that you were in when I deposed you, that you had a legal
4 obligation to testify truthfully and honestly; is that correct?
5 A That's correct.
6 Q Good. And you committed perjury in that proceeding,
7 didn't you?
8 A Excuse me?
9 Q You committed perjury under oath with Judge Pauly,
10 didn't you?
11 MS. FAHERTY: Objection, Your Honor.
12 MS. HABBA: It's a direct question. Yes or no?
13 THE COURT: Objection overruled.
14 A Did I commit perjury to Judge Pauly?
15 Q Did you lie to Judge Pauly when you said that you were 16 guilty of the counts that you said under oath that you were 17 guilty of? Did you lie to Judge Pauly?
18 A Yes.
19 Q You have an attorney here today, don't you, sir?
20 A I do.
21 Q You actually have several attorneys here. I recognize 22 them some from other cases they're here, aren't they?
23 A They are.
24 Q Good.
25 In connection with your guilty plea to Counts 1 through

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2289

1 5 for evasion of assessment of income tax liability for the
2 calendar years 2012 through 2016, you testified that for the tax
3 years that I just identified you willfully evaded paying
4 substantial taxes on income that you received in which you knew
5 was not reflected in the returns you filed; correct?
6 A I don't understand your question.
7 MS. HABBA: Okay. Let's pull up the next exhibit,
8 please, Peter.
9 Q I'll quote you. You see right here it says:
10 "As to Counts 1 through 5 in the tax years of 2012 to 11 2016, I" -- and the "I" is you; correct, Mr. Cohen?
12 A Correct.
13 Q "I evaded paying substantial taxes on certain income
14 received that I knew was not reflected on the return and that I
15 caused to be filed. The income intentionally not included was 16 received by me in the Southern District of New York." Didn't 17 you say that?
18 A I did.
19 Q Okay. That doesn't say "tax omission," does it?
20 A No, it does not.
21 Q But you earlier testified today that you omitted, you
22 didn't evade, isn't that right?
23 A I did say that.
24 Q Right. So you lied when you said that you evaded taxes
25 to a judge under oath; is that correct?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2290

1 A Yes.
2 Q So during 2012 to 2016, did you ever tell your wife
3 that you were committing tax evasion, Mr. Cohen?
4 THE WITNESS: Objection, Your Honor.
5 Q No. You don't get to object.
6 A Actually, in all fairness, I absolutely do. Roswell
7 versus United States, 1954 Supreme Court. We can also go on to 8 Houston versus the United States. We can also go on to your 9 favorite case of United States versus Nixon.
10 THE COURT: One at a time.
11 MR. KISE: It's very simple. Did he tell his wife
12 that he was committing tax evasion at the time. That's a 13 simple yes-or-no question and it's perfectly within the 14 scope. He is a serial liar and if he lied to his wife, it's 15 relevant for impeachment. It's absolutely irrelevant for 16 impeachment.
17 THE WITNESS: It calls into question the fact that 18 there was no tax evasion.
19 MR. KISE: I'm not directing anything to you,
20 Mr. Cohen, I'm sorry.
21 THE COURT: Ms. Faherty?
22 MS. FAHERTY: Aside from the fact that the question
23 is palpably improper --
24 THE COURT: Well, on what grounds? I'm not 25 disagreeing.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2291

1 MS. FAHERTY: First, marital privilege. Let's
2 just get that out of the way --
3 THE COURT: Spousal privilege?
4 MS. FAHERTY: Please, Your Honor, and I think this
5 is below the belt he is giving testimony about the lies.
6 Let's keep this focus, Your Honor.
7 THE COURT: I think it falls right within the
8 spousal privilege. You don't have to testify about what you
9 and your spouse talked about. I'll make it simple and leave
10 it at that. Yes, go ahead.
11 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, I apologize, but his wife
12 was on that return and I will get to why it's important
13 because in his deposition we did discuss his wife, so I'm 14 sorry, but that wasn't objected to then, so it shouldn't be 15 objected to now.
16 Q And clearly, I hit a trigger with you, so Mr. Cohen
17 noted, but I will say is it true or not true that your wife
18 signed those returns?
19 MS. FAHERTY: Objection.
20 A Excuse me?
21 Q Did she sign those returns?
22 MS. FAHERTY: Stop.
23 MS. HABBA: What? That's just a factual question.
24 THE COURT: Yes, I'll allow that.
25 MS. HABBA: Thank you.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2292

1 Q Mr. Cohen, did your wife sign those returns?
2 A Yes.
3 Q But you knew that the statement, this statement, was
4 false when you made it, didn't you?
5 A Yes.
6 Q So you lied to Judge Pauly which we've now established,
7 but I'm supposed to admit that you're not going to lie to me
8 now; is that correct? It's a yes-or-no question.
9 A Unfortunately, I'm going to have to object to that, as 10 well.
11 Q Yes, you can't object. That's not how this works.
12 See, if you still had your law license, you'd understand that.
13 It's a yes-or-no question.
14 A And your question is?
15 Q You lied to Judge Pauly; correct?
16 A Asked and answered.
17 Q No. Again, yes or no?
18 THE COURT: Asked and answered.
19 A How many times are you going to ask me the same
20 question?
21 MR. KISE: Your Honor, this witness is completely
22 out of control so I would ask the Court to direct the 23 witness to answer the questions. I mean, the witness
24 doesn't get to sit here and play judge. That's your job.
25 THE COURT: And I'm doing it the best I can.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2293

1 That question -- well, it's hard to say because it
2 was really more of a statement than a question. There's
3 already -- we've already been through it.
4 Why don't we again start from scratch. What
5 question would you like to ask?
6 MS. HABBA: Sure. Why don't I instead play from 7 his deposition. Let's pull that up.
8 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings
9 while a portion of video is played.)
10 THE COURT: Asked and answered many times already.
11 Q Great. And you have stated earlier --
12 THE COURT: Wait. So I had said to --
13 MS. HABBA: I'll move on.
14 THE COURT: Ms. Faherty, when she was examining or 15 cross examining, please don't categorize the answers or your 16 point. You said "great," she said "great." Just ask
17 questions, he'll answer and I'll make sure that happens.
18 MS. HABBA: Sure, Your Honor.
19 Q In the deposition that we just saw from April 28, 2023
20 -- well, first, let me just get some foundation questions.
21 You remember me deposing you on April 28, 2023, do you?
22 A I do.
23 Q And was that from your testimony when I deposed you?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Okay. And in connection with your guilty plea to Count

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2294

1 6 for making false statements to a financial institution in
2 connection with the credit decision, you testified that you
3 knowingly submitted an application for a HELOC loan that
4 contained false representations?
5 A I'm sorry, can you repeat your question?
6 Q Sure.
7 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, can I get a read back?
8 THE COURT: Read back, please.
9 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the
10 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
11 A Again, I don't really understand your questions. It's 12 a compound question. I don't understand it.
13 Q So you don't understand the question.
14 So let me do something else.
15 MS. HABBA: Let's pull up the Exhibit 951-22,
16 please.
17 Q Okay. This is the same document that we put in before.
18 It's the allocution.
19 Do you see that docket number? I'll represent that 20 that's the same and this is the allocution that we put in as the
21 exhibit.
22 A Correct.
23 MS. HABBA: Okay. Can you just zoom in on that 24 portion?
25 Q I'll read it to you. You can have a minute to read it

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2295

1 yourself, if you'd like.
2 "As to Count 6, on or about February of 2016, in order
3 to be approved for a HELOC, a home equity line of credit, I
4 reviewed an application form that did not accurately describe
5 the full extent of my liabilities. I did not correct the 6 inaccurate information on the form. I signed it knowing that it
7 would be submitted to the bank as part of their HELOC
8 application process. The bank was federally insured and is 9 located in Manhattan.
10 As to Count 7:
11 THE COURT: Did you know that those statements were 12 false when you made them?
13 THE DEFENDANT: They were omitted" --
14 MS. HABBA: The defendant is you --
15 "They were omitted, Your Honor, as opposed to being 16 false.
17 THE COURT: While you knew it was false?
18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor."
19 MS. HABBA: Not that part. Can you pull up the 20 right part?
21 Q But I'm reading from your allocution. They can pull it
22 up so you can review it.
23 A Count 7 was campaign finance violation, not Count 6.
24 Q It's 22:6-21.
25 A Can you --

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2296

1 THE COURT: Okay. Two things. I advise all
2 attorneys on. People tend to read faster than they talk and
3 numbers are difficult for court reporters to take down, so
4 you have to really go slowly.
5 MS. HABBA: Noted, Your Honor.
6 A The document is inaccurate on line 14 as to Count 7, 7
7 had nothing do with the financial statements unless it refers to 8 the campaign finance violation. We're referring to Count 6.
9 Q So you're saying that Judge Pauly's -- the transcript
10 from Judge Pauly's hearing is inaccurate?
11 A I'm saying as to Count 7 and Count 6 are obviously two 12 different counts.
13 Q Okay. Taking away the count number --
14 MS. HABBA: This is unbelievable.
15 Q Okay. For your HELOC, Mr. Cohen, did you not say that 16 you submitted to the bank application process, a bank that was 17 federally insured and is located in Manhattan, that you omitted
18 information. Was that not true?
19 A No. It states I did not correct the inaccurate
20 information on the form.
21 Q Okay. Let's stop there. You did not correct the 22 inaccurate statement on the form. Did you sign that form?
23 A Sign the form.
24 Q Okay. So you did not correct the inaccurate
25 information? Is that your way of saying I didn't lie because

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2297

1 you didn't correct an inaccurate information?
2 A No.
3 Q Okay. Did you plead guilty to this?
4 A I did.
5 Q Okay.
6 MS. HABBA: This -- I believe you said we're going
7 to stop at 4:40. This might be a good space.
8 THE COURT: You don't want another five minutes?
9 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, if it's entertaining, I'm 10 happy to go all night. I can continue.
11 THE COURT: All right. If you're willing, I value
12 every five minutes.
13 MS. HABBA: Sure, sure.
14 Q So when you --
15 THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
16 MS. HABBA: Noted.
17 Q You knew that that statement to Judge Pauly that you
18 were guilty of the HELOC was false, didn't you?
19 A Yes.
20 Q You affirmed under oath that the HELOC statement and
21 the deposition in your April 28, 2023 deposition that you lied
22 to Judge Pauly about the HELOC; isn't that correct?
23 A Correct.
24 Q So I just want to understand you were not lying in your 25 deposition, but you were lying to Judge Pauly. Is that your

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2298

1 testimony today?
2 A I took the plea.
3 Q Do you understand -- did you have lawyers representing
4 you when you took the plea, Mr. Cohen?
5 A I did.
6 Q Okay. And did your lawyers explain to you what a plea
7 is?
8 A Yes.
9 Q And did your lawyers explain to you that when you plead
10 to something you are saying that you are guilty of that crime,
11 do you understand that?
12 A Yes.
13 Q And do you understand that right now in front of all
14 this press, in front of these lawyers, in front of the several 15 lawyers that you decided to bring in here today, you are 16 admitting that you lied to Judge Pauly. Do you understand that,
17 Mr. Cohen?
18 A I've already stated that, yes.
19 Q So that --
20 A In fact, it's actually in the document that we 21 presented to Judge Pauly.
22 Q Mr. Cohen, here's how this is going to work. You're 23 not on Mea Culpa. You're not on your podcast and you're not on 24 CNN. You're here with me?
25 MS. FAHERTY: Objection, Your Honor.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2299

1 Q You're going to answer them yes or no.
2 THE COURT: No speeches. Just ask the questions.
3 MS. HABBA: Well, it works both ways, Your Honor.
4 Q You also submitted false sworn statements to the House
5 Select Committee approximately one year earlier on August 28,
6 2017. Isn't that correct?
7 A Yes.
8 Q And as a result of those false statements you pled
9 guilty to the crime of making false statements to the United
10 States Congress in violation -- and I'm going to say this slowly
11 -- of 18 USC 1001 Subsection A Subsection 2. Isn't that
12 correct?
13 A That's correct.
14 Q And in connection with accepting your plea deal, you
15 appeared before the Honorable Andrew Carter of the Southern 16 District of New York on November 29, 2018. Isn't that correct?
17 A That's correct.
18 Q And when you were in front of Judge Carter, you were 19 required to answer a series of questions under oath, the same
20 oath that you're under right now, isn't that correct?
21 A That's correct.
22 Q And you admitted under oath that on August 28, 2017,
23 you submitted a false sworn statement to the Senate Select 24 Committee on Intelligence. Isn't that correct?
25 A Yes.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2300

1 Q And unlike your other plea hearing, you were being
2 honest with the judge this time; is that correct?
3 A Is there a question?
4 Q Yes.
5 A What is it?
6 Q Do you need me --
7 MS. HABBA: Can we get a read back?
8 THE COURT: Read back, please.
9 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the
10 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
11 A Yes, that was correct.
12 Q And you stated that you did submit false sworn 13 statements to Congress, didn't you?
14 A Yes.
15 Q So you have lied under oath numerous times, Mr. Cohen,
16 isn't that correct?
17 A That's correct.
18 Q And you no longer have your law license, isn't that
19 correct?
20 A Asked and answered.
21 Q Answer the question, please, Mr. Cohen.
22 THE COURT: Just answer.
23 A Yes.
24 Q And that's because you were disbarred in 2019; correct?
25 A Correct.

Page 2301

1 MS. HABBA: Your Honor?
2 THE COURT: You want to stop?
3 MS. HABBA: This is right before our next section.
4 THE COURT: Okay. We'll resume tomorrow at 5 10 o'clock.
6 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
7 MR. KISE: Please remind the witness he's not to 8 talk to anyone, including his lawyers about his testimony.
9 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen, I hereby order you not to 10 talk to anybody, including your lawyers about this trial or 11 your testimony or anything related.
12 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: Thank you. Have a good evening
14 everyone.
15 (Whereupon, the trial proceedings are adjourned to 16 Wednesday, October 24, 2023 at 10:00 a m.)

PROCEEDINGS

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in
 2 session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding.
 3 Make sure all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and
 4 cellphones will be permitted, but only to members of the
 5 press. There's absolutely no recording or photography of
 6 any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come
 7 to order.
 8 THE COURT: Human bodies absorb sound. Can you
 9 imagine how loud that would be if the room was vacant? All
 10 right. Let's get the issue of the photographers.
 11 MR. KISE: Not for us.
 12 MS. HABBA: They're not going to want to come in.
 13 MR. KISE: Can we do housekeeping?
 14 THE COURT: Chris, they told me you're particularly 15 photogenic.
 16 MR. KISE: My family for sure.
 17 THE COURT: When can we expect the missing person?
 18 MR. KISE: I think momentarily, Your Honor, but can
 19 I raise two minor housekeeping matters?
 20 THE COURT: Attorney General, ready to do some 21 housekeeping matters?
 22 MR. KISE: So, and Mr. Robert I think will back my 23 memory and we will, of course, do whatever the Court wants,
 24 but so last night when we realized we did not receive
 25 anything on the Ivanka Trump motion from the Government, we

1 went back and looked. Our understanding from our -- the
 2 conversation was they were going to file on Monday and we
 3 were -- you asked me how long we needed and we were going
 4 to have two days, so Wednesday.
 5 But apparently, when I looked at the e-mail that
 6 was sent, it says everybody files on Wednesday, but that
 7 wasn't certainly our understanding. So what I'd like,
 8 because if the Court still plans to proceed on Friday, which 9 is fine, with the hearing, I would just ask then that we
 10 have until tomorrow. If they filed something tonight, then 11 we have until tomorrow night, 24 hours, but that was what we 12 agreed to, was two days.
 13 THE COURT: The motion is by a non-party, so I'm 14 not sure --
 15 MR. KISE: So we just -- until we see -- that was 16 the point I made to Your Honor last week. Until we see what 17 they have to say and the other side -- the other ones say,
 18 I don't know -- I'm just guessing at that point.
 19 THE COURT: Does the Attorney General object to 20 giving them until tomorrow?
 21 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I think just in the 22 orderly, efficient management of business, we're all
 23 commenting on a third party's motion. I think we can all
 24 put in our papers today.
 25 THE COURT: Well, how about some compromise

1 tomorrow at -- 2 MR. KISE: Tomorrow is just one day. That was 3 certainly our understanding of my dialog with you, Your 4 Honor, was that you asked me how many days we needed after 5 their response. 6 THE COURT: Can we do until noon, so we can read 7 it, too, by noon tomorrow? 8 MR. KISE: Okay, yes, Your Honor. 9 THE COURT: All right. Thanks. You had a second 10 issue? 11 MR. KISE: Just an order of witnesses. I know that 12 the witness from the Parks Department who was deposed Monday 13 by video, I don't know if they're planning on calling that 14 witness this week or if it is going to be next week. 15 THE COURT: Well, let's ask. 16 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I think what we are 17 trying to understand is how today's proceedings are going to 18 time out. We have a witness lined up for this afternoon. 19 That will be Ms. Sherri Dillon if the time permits. 20 Otherwise, we still have the remaining video of Ms. 21 Mouradian. We have -- and we've informed counsel the 22 remaining witnesses for this week. 23 Mr. Gaber is intending to take the 24 deposition -- the testimony of Mr. Cerrone. I believe he 25 might get pushed into next week as a result of Mr. Gaber's		1 MS. HABBA: Can we just do this first? 2 THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead. 3 MS. HABBA: It is a little bit delicate and I want 4 to start by saying I served as a law clerk to a judge when I 5 first started practicing law and my candor, my judge was 6 very strict about how I did and didn't behave. It is 7 incredibly distracting when there are eye rolls and constant 8 whispering at the bench when I'm trying to cross-examine a 9 witness. So I'm just asking politely that that be 10 refrained. It is very distracting. 11 THE COURT: Okay. Granted. 12 MS. HABBA: Thank you. 13 THE COURT: Okay, photographers. 14 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the proceedings.) 15 THE COURT: Witness is on his way, right? 16 THE COURT OFFICER: Yes. 17 Witness entering. 18 THE WITNESS: Good morning. 19 THE COURT: Let's continue with the 20 cross-examination of Michael Cohen. 21 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor. Sounds good? 22 CROSS-EXAMINATION 23 BY MS. HABBA: 24 Q Mr. Cohen, good morning. 25 A Good morning.
PROCEEDINGS Page 2307 1 absence, but for the remainder of this week, we have three 2 of our witnesses that are lined up to fill the time. I can 3 speak with counsel to make sure they're fully informed about 4 our order of witnesses. If they can equally just give us an 5 update on their timing on crosses, so we can make sure all 6 the witnesses are here, everybody is prepared to take the 7 testimony as necessary. 8 MR. KISE: I think Ms. Faherty's commentary, 9 because I forgot the point she just made, the reason I was 10 asking about this witness in particular is because Ms. 11 Hernandez who intends to do the cross of that witness, she's 12 out with COVID, so she won't be back until Monday. So all 13 I'm asking is we make sure that witness is next week when 14 she's back, which I think based on what Ms. Faherty said 15 will work. Otherwise, we are fine with whatever other 16 schedule. 17 THE COURT: All right. Good. 18 And Chris, make it one o'clock tomorrow. 19 MR. KISE: Okay. Thank you. How about 2:15 since 20 you give us the lunch hour? 21 THE COURT: We need it for that. One o'clock. 22 MR. KISE: Thank you. 23 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, before we bring the witness 24 in -- 25 THE COURT: We have the photographers first.		M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2309 1 Q I just want to remind you that you're still under oath 2 obviously from yesterday as the judge put you under oath? 3 THE COURT: True. 4 MS. HABBA: Thank you. 5 Q I just want to ask you preliminarily, did you speak 6 with the Attorney General's Office about your testimony between 7 yesterday and today? 8 A No. 9 Q Did you speak with your lawyer about your testimony 10 between yesterday and today? 11 A Yes. 12 Q Did you speak to anybody about your testimony between 13 yesterday and today? 14 A No. 15 Q Okay. Thank you. 16 As a follow-up from yesterday's cross, I just mentioned 17 to Ms. Faherty I would like to admit Defendant's Exhibit 952 18 into evidence. It was the plea hearing allocution dated 19 November 29, 2018. 20 MS. FAHERTY: For the purposes of his allocution. 21 Otherwise, all of the hearsay statements herein, I don't 22 think it needs to be admitted, but for the fact that it was 23 his allocution. No objection to that portion of it. 24 THE COURT: I'm not sure how we are going to 25 distinguish between this and that. Any objection to --

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2310

1 MS. HABBA: Any response to the objection?
2 THE COURT: Any response to the objection?
3 MS. HABBA: Yes. An allocution is his words.
4 They're not hearsay. The portions where a judge asked him a
5 question and he responds that he's guilty is not hearsay at 6 all. He confirmed yesterday that he was guilty and, in
7 fact, I did ask him to restate the question and he himself
8 said he responded guilty, so I'm not sure why it's hearsay.
9 MS. FAHERTY: Any other statements in the 10 transcript, that's all. Ms. Habba and I are talking the 11 same language, Your Honor.
12 MS. HABBA: I'm not sure that we are.
13 THE COURT: It is admissible for any and all
14 purposes.
15 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: That's what he said in open court under 17 oath.
18 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
19 Q Mr. Cohen --
20 MS. HABBA: And Judge, just so you know before
21 everybody gets up in arms, I'm just going to do two or three
22 yes, sir, just to review and clarify the record yesterday
23 after seeing the transcript and then I'll move on.
24 THE COURT: Sure.
25 Q I want to clarify something about your testimony

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2311

1 yesterday. You stated that you previously pled guilty to
2 several counts of tax evasion, right?
3 A Correct.
4 Q And those counts had nothing to do with Donald Trump;
5 isn't that correct?
6 A That's correct.
7 Q And it wasn't done at the direction of Donald Trump
8 or --
9 MR. KISE: We still really can't hear you.
10 MS. HABBA: Sorry. Is that better?
11 MR. KISE: Yes.
12 Q So I had asked you if those counts had nothing to do
13 with Donald Trump and I believe you responded yes. And it
14 wasn't done at the direction or benefit for President Trump, was 15 it?
16 A For Mr. Trump, no.
17 Q And when you pled guilty to making false statements to 18 a financial institution, that had nothing to do with Donald
19 Trump, did it, for the HELOC?
20 A I know what you're referring to.
21 Q Right.
22 A The answer is no.
23 Q Okay. Thank you.
24 And when you lied to Judge Pauley under oath at your 25 plea hearing for those charges, that had nothing to do with

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2312

1 Donald Trump correct?
2 MS. FAHERTY: Objection for the characterization.
3 We did this yesterday. I'm just going to stand up now and
4 forewarn my concern at what I thought was a little bit of a
5 circus yesterday. I'm just putting it on the record now
6 that if I need to stand up, I will stand up. My objection
7 stands, Your Honor.
8 MR. KISE: So, Your Honor, Your Honor --
9 MS. FAHERTY: Two attorneys.
10 MR. KISE: Right. The only circus yesterday was 11 the witness not answering questions, so that's a fair
12 question. He admitted here today for the first time in open
13 court that he lied to Judge Pauley right across the street,
14 right across the street. He lied to Judge Pauley when he
15 pled guilty. That's what he said under oath in this
16 courtroom, the same oath that he took there, the same oath
17 that he took here. So in open court, he has now admitted to 18 perjury in front of the Judge Pauley. I think that's a
19 relevant fact for impeachment and -- may I finish? It
20 should come in. I mean, there's no reason that that 21 shouldn't come in.
22 MR. ROBERT: From the moment the case started, from 23 the moment of my opening, the People started and talked
24 about credibility. I talked about credibility. Credibility
25 of the witnesses is what Your Honor is ultimately going to

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2313

1 have to decide in this case. The fact that the witness
2 admitted for the first time yesterday that he committed
3 perjury in the Southern District of New York as part of a
4 plea, and we are going to get into other acts of perjury
5 today, couldn't be more relevant in this case in enabling 6 this Court to determine who's telling the truth and who is
7 not.
8 THE COURT: Ms. Faherty, I don't understand the 9 objection. Maybe say it again. What am I missing?
10 MS. FAHERTY: First, Your Honor, counsel has twice
11 now repeated this word "perjury" repeatedly.
12 THE COURT: Well, that's the definition of perjury,
13 lying under oath.
14 MR. KISE: Thank you, Your Honor.
15 MS. FAHERTY: The legal conclusion of perjury is 16 very different. If you recall earlier this week or last 17 week, we had counsel stand up, screaming, "Please don't let 18 this witness violate his Fifth Amendment rights." I am
19 quite concerned at the presentation from counsel that they 20 are standing up, making these accusations while the witness
21 is still on the stand. I'm quite concerned and so I'm 22 standing up to indicate that that type of showmanship should 23 not be permitted.
24 Now, I agree, Your Honor, I did ask Mr. Cohen the 25 very questions Ms. Habba is asking him and he has responded

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2314

1 consistently. So I would just ask for the courtesy and
2 respect that we proceed without this showmanship of words
3 like "perjury" thrown in this court which is a legal 4 conclusion. It is unnecessary. Yes, untruthful. Yes, an
5 admission of a lie. However, please, can we, please,
6 proceed?
7 MR. KISE: Your Honor --
8 THE COURT: Wait. Wait. Wait.
9 MR. KISE: Okay.
10 THE COURT: Mr. Robert, Mr. Kise, I'll tell you
11 rule number one in Engoron's courtroom, which I often say,
12 if I'm arguing for you, you don't have to argue for you. So
13 far, I totally agree with you.
14 So Ms. Faherty, is the basic point the word
15 "perjury," is that what we're trying to avoid here?
16 MS. FAHERTY: I think it is a legal conclusion,
17 Your Honor, and I think that it instills a certain type of 18 fear and intimidation in the witness in particular. That 19 gives me great concern.
20 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, if I may?
21 THE COURT: Yes.
22 MS. HABBA: The perjury, although, the press is 23 just hearing about it now, the perjury was heard at his 24 deposition when he first said that he lied under oath with 25 Judge Pauley. It is only now coming to light. He has

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2315

1 counsel. He had counsel then. This is not a shock. This
2 is not showmanship. Everybody has had the transcript. It's
3 just that the media hasn't heard about it until now. I'm
4 just doing my job, sir. Mr. Cohen, as we know, is a witness
5 who has interjected in many cases against my client and his
6 credibility is the most important thing that I will attack.
7 THE COURT: Well, can we limit it to --
8 MS. HABBA: Frankly, I'm done with that line of 9 questioning. It's done. I will be honest with you.
10 MS. FAHERTY: If we could move on --
11 MR. KISE: I don't know that we're done with that 12 and --
13 MR. ROBERT: I'm certainly not.
14 MR. KISE: I will certainly say there is nothing
15 wrong with calling a liar a liar. There's nothing wrong
16 with calling someone who admits in open court to perjury.
17 He was under oath in front of Judge Pauley. He was under 18 oath in front of Judge Pauley. He said here yesterday under 19 the same oath, "I lied to Judge Pauley." That's perjury.
20 As Your Honor said, that's the definition of perjury. So we 21 should not be expected to dance around it for someone's
22 sensibilities.
23 A serial liar is a serial liar and since the entire
24 case of the Attorney General hinges on this perjurious
25 witness who has lied to everyone he has ever spoken to,

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2316

1 we're entitled to bring that out. We're entitled to raise
2 that. I think it is highly relevant. I think it is highly
3 probative and we shouldn't have to dance around because of 4 some sensitivity about words. Perjury is perjury and it is
5 obvious what's going on here. The Attorney General is 6 trying to cover for an extraordinarily defective witness
7 that they're putting on the stand who has no credibility.
8 THE COURT: Now, you are violating two of my rules.
9 First is what I just said. You don't have to argue if I'm
10 arguing for you. Second rule, which I believe I've said
11 during this trial, I know I've said, let's not make 12 speeches. We are here for questions, answers, maybe
13 argument, but we don't need speeches at this point.
14 My understanding, try to see if we can all agree, I
15 believe that perjury implies conviction. You want to say
16 he's lying, say he's lying, but let's not use the word
17 "perjury" especially if you're asking him a question that 18 might ask for a legal conclusion and let's move on.
19 MR. KISE: I'll just note my exception to that,
20 Your Honor.
21 THE COURT: To which part of that?
22 MR. KISE: To the part that we are limited to what
23 we can do. It doesn't imply a conviction. If he perjured
24 himself, he perjured himself.
25 THE COURT: I'll have to --

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2317

1 MR. KISE: You don't need to have a conviction for
2 that.
3 THE COURT: I'm not sure. I will have to research
4 that. I take your point.
5 MS. HABBA: I can state my question in a way that's 6 acceptable to the Court and it is my last question on this.
7 It is my last question on this at least.
8 Q Mr. Cohen, as a clarifying point, yesterday was the 9 first time you admitted in open court that you lied to Judge
10 Pauley, correct?
11 A In open court?
12 Q Yes.
13 A Yes.
14 Q Thank you. Okay. Let move on to your work with the 15 Trump Organization.
16 You were an employee of the Trump Organization from 17 2007 to 2017; is that correct?
18 A Correct.
19 Q And you previously testified yesterday that you
20 personally participated in the preparation of the Statements of 21 Financial Condition for years 2012 through '15, that you don't
22 recall working on the Statement of Financial Condition in 2011,
23 correct?
24 A That's correct.
25 MS. HABBA: Okay. If I could, please, pull up the

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2318

1 transcript --
2 Q Well, you said correct, so let me move on. And you
3 previously testified in your deposition that you and Allen
4 Weisselberg were tasked with coming up with valuations of the 5 assets listed on the Statements of Financial Condition for those 6 years, correct?
7 A Correct.
8 Q And you testified that Allen Weisselberg prepared the 9 first draft of those Statements of Financial Condition for 10 Mazars, correct?
11 A I'm sorry. Can you say that again?
12 Q Sure.
13 You had stated that Allen prepared the first draft of 14 the Statements of Financial Condition with Mazars, correct?
15 A I don't believe that's how I stated it, no.
16 MS. HABBA: Okay. If we could pull up 86:25 to 17 87:7 from the transcript, please.
18 MR. KISE: We still --
19 MS. HABBA: Can't hear? Can we put the volume up?
20 IT SPECIALIST: Every time it gets bumped up a
21 little bit --
22 MS. HABBA: I almost want to take the mic off. I
23 think everyone can hear me without it. I'll speak very 24 loudly. Sorry. Let's move on. Can we, please, play that.
25 Thank you.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2319

1 (Whereupon the video was played.)
2 Q Do you remember saying that, Mr. Cohen?
3 A Yes, which is not what you were just stating.
4 Q So I asked if Allen Weisselberg -- you testified that
5 Allen Weisselberg prepared the first draft. Isn't that what you
6 stated you believed Allen Weisselberg did?
7 A No. I suspect that Allen -- I do not know who did it.
8 That was the point and that's exactly what I stated in the 9 deposition.
10 Q Okay. So you suspect it was Allen Weisselberg, but you
11 testified that you were personally involved in coming up with a 12 valuation for almost every asset on the Statements of Financial
13 Condition, correct?
14 A No, that's also not correct.
15 Q Okay.
16 A Every asset? Almost every asset?
17 Q Okay.
18 MS. HABBA: If we could play that back, please.
19 (Whereupon, the video was played.)
20 Q Right. Almost every asset, correct?
21 A As the ones that I stated the other day.
22 Q We'll get to that. And in coming up with a valuations
23 for almost every asset, you testified that you would determine
24 the valuations by going on Google and finding a comparable
25 property with a price per square-foot that was higher, correct?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2320

1 A Correct.
2 Q Okay. And you testified under oath that you would
3 handwrite the new valuations on the Statement of Financial
4 Condition, correct?
5 A That's correct.
6 Q And Allen would do the same thing, right?
7 A Yes.
8 Q And I want to be clear. Allen Weisselberg, right?
9 THE COURT: That's a question.
10 Q Allen Weisselberg, correct?
11 A Yes.
12 Q According to your prior testimony for 2011 to 2015,
13 this entire process of preparing the Statement of Financial 14 Condition consisted of you and Allen taking a printed piece of 15 paper and then writing on it? That was what you did, correct?
16 A Incorrect.
17 Q Incorrect, okay. Let's take a look at what you said in 18 your deposition.
19 (Whereupon, the video was played.)
20 Q Mr. Cohen, you also stated that no computer was
21 involved?
22 A There was a previous question.
23 Q No. The question was did you say it. We played it
24 back. Do you doubt that that was you?
25 A I don't doubt that was me, but I doubt that that is

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2321

1 responsive to the question that you stated.
2 Q Okay. My question that I stated, we can have a
3 readback if you'd like.
4 A Sure.
5 MS. HABBA: Judge, may I have a readback?
6 THE COURT: The very last question?
7 MS. HABBA: The very last question about his
8 testimony for the handwritten edits, please.
9 THE COURT: Readback, please.
10 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
11 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
12 read back.)
13 A And again, I'll state incorrect because the process was 14 not just Allen and myself as you saw in that deposition. It
15 included Mr. Trump.
16 Q Listen, Mr. Cohen. I'm sure you're going to try and do
17 that with me every time and I'm here for it really, but I would 18 like you to answer the questions that I ask. I didn't ask you
19 who was involved. I asked you --
20 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor --
21 THE COURT: Overruled. Let's -- let the question
22 finish.
23 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
24 Q I asked you if you made handwritten edits on the 25 Statement of Financial Condition. Is the answer yes or no?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2322

1 A I made handwritten edits to the Statement of Financial
2 Condition.
3 Q And you also testified to me that you did not and there
4 was no computer involved in your edits; isn't that correct?
5 A In my edits, correct.
6 Q Okay. But you actually said it wasn't done by you or 7 Allen on your computer. You said Donald Bender did it; isn't
8 that correct?
9 A That's what I believe, yes.
10 Q That's what you believe, yes. Okay.
11 MS. HABBA: Can we, please, confirm that? Can you
12 please play back his dep?
13 MS. FAHERTY: Objection.
14 THE COURT: Why do we have to play it back? He 15 agreed with you.
16 MS. HABBA: Can you just read his answer for me?
17 Sorry. I don't have a feed here just so you know, so it is 18 a little bit tough for me.
19 THE COURT: You would just like his answer read
20 back?
21 MS. HABBA: Yes, please.
22 THE COURT: Please. Thank you.
23 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
24 read back.)
25 Q So it wasn't done on your computer or Allen's, but then

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2323

1 you and Allen would take these handwritten edits and review them
2 with Donald Trump, right?
3 A Correct.
4 Q And this meeting, according to you, would last about
5 15 minutes; isn't that right?
6 A Correct.
7 Q And the meetings between you, Allen and Donald Trump
8 were never put in a calendar; isn't that right?
9 A To the best of my knowledge, no.
10 Q To the best of your knowledge, no.
11 Did you ever have an assistant?
12 A No.
13 Q No. Did you ever keep a calendar for invitations for 14 meetings on your computer?
15 A No.
16 Q Did you use a computer?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Okay. So you just had meetings in your head and they 19 would happen and you remember them sitting here today; is that
20 correct?
21 A I'm sure. I don't understand your question.
22 Q Okay. Let me ask you this way.
23 Meetings with you, Allen and Donald Trump on a
24 Statement of Financial Condition lasted 15 minutes and were 25 never scheduled; is that your testimony?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2324

1 A Correct.
2 Q Right.
3 A I would go into Allen's office and there was an okay,
4 we have it done. We would walk into Mr. -- towards Mr. Trump's 5 office, knock on the door and say, "Mr. Trump, can we speak to 6 you for a second."
7 Q Right.
8 A That's how things worked at the Trump Organization.
9 The door is constantly open for the executives. It was a
10 constant carousel into his office.
11 Q Okay. And Allen Weisselberg would take the handwritten 12 edits on the Statement of Financial Condition and hand it off to 13 Donald Bender, right?
14 A Once authorized to do so, yes.
15 Q That's not my question. He would take it when it was 16 done and he would hand it to Donald Bender? Is that what you
17 testified to?
18 THE COURT: I think when it was done is ambiguous.
19 Q Once the final version of the Statement of Financial 20 Condition was complete in handwritten form, your testimony is 21 that you would then give it to Donald Bender, correct?
22 A No, that's not what I stated.
23 Q Okay. Who --
24 A Allen Weisselberg would hand it off to Donald Bender.
25 I never did.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2325

1 Q How do you know that?
2 A Because that was the relationship. The relationship
3 existed between Donald Bender and Allen Weisselberg.
4 Q Okay. It was your testimony that Donald Bender was 5 continuously at the Trump Organization?
6 A Regularly at the office.
7 Q Regularly at the office. What is the difference
8 between the two?
9 THE COURT: There is a clear difference between 10 continuously and regularly.
11 MS. HABBA: Exactly there is, Your Honor, which 12 gets to my point, Your Honor.
13 Can we, please, pull up the deposition?
14 MS. FAHERTY: I'm sorry. Why?
15 MS. HABBA: Because he didn't say "regularly,"
16 Colleen. He said "continuously" in his deposition.
17 THE COURT: All right. Then she is allowed to play
18 it.
19 MS. HABBA: That's how impeachment works.
20 (Whereupon, the video was played.)
21 Q "Continuously," right, Mr. Cohen?
22 A Sure.
23 Q Not "regularly," right? Your words, not mine. Were 24 those your words?
25 A That's what I stated, yes.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2326

1 Q Thank you. So Mazars would receive the Statement of
2 Financial Condition with the handwritten edits that you and
3 Allen had written on the prior year's Statement of Financial
4 Condition was your testimony, correct?
5 A I already stated that, yes.
6 Q You did not submit any electronic documents or any
7 other supporting documentation, correct?
8 A As to what? The Statement of Financial Condition --
9 Q As to the Statement of Financial Condition. There was 10 no backup data?
11 A I don't know the answer to that. I don't recall.
12 Q You don't know the answer to that?
13 A No. I don't understand your question.
14 Q Okay.
15 THE COURT: I think the question is in addition to 16 the years in the earlier statement and the handwritten notes
17 that was then approved, did you give anything else like a
18 computer printout or computer drive of any sort?
19 THE WITNESS: I did not.
20 THE COURT: Okay. That was the question and that's
21 the answer.
22 Q Okay. And your testimony is that this entire process
23 of editing the Statement of Financial Condition from start to 24 finish with Allen, then approved by Donald Trump took a couple
25 of days; isn't that right?

Page 2327

1 A That's what I stated.
2 Q Okay. And you never discussed the Statement of 3 Financial Conditions with Donald Trump Jr. did you?
4 A Not that I recall.

1 Q And you never discussed the SOFC with Eric Trump, did
2 you?
3 A Not that I recall.
4 Q And you never discussed the SOFC with Ivanka Trump
5 either, did you?
6 A Not that I recall.
7 Q Mr. Cohen, you claim that you worked on the 2015 SOFC;
8 is that correct?
9 A Yes.
10 Q The 2015 Statement of Financial Condition was President
11 Trump's net worth just over $6 billion? Do you know that?
12 A You'd have to show me the document.
13 Q Sure. Let's do that.
14 MS. HABBA: Can you please pull up PX 729?
15 Q Do you recognize this as the 2015 SOFC?
16 A I do.
17 Q Okay.
18 MS. HABBA: It's already into evidence. If we can
19 just flip the page.
20 Q Do you see at the bottom where it says "his total 21 assets." Can you read for me what that number is?
22 A 6,580,300,000.
23 Q Right. And that number is meant to reflect President
24 Trump's financial status as of June 30, 2015; correct?
25 A Correct.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2329

1 Q And on July 16, 2015, just two weeks approximately
2 after, you appeared on CNN and stated that you considered
3 yourself to be a real estate expert and Donald Trump's net worth
4 was probably over $10 billion. Do you remember that?
5 A I remember saying that.
6 Q Okay. And, in fact, you stated that you believed a
7 $10 billion estimation was low. Do you recall that?
8 A I recall that's what Mr. Trump wanted me to say, yes.
9 Q That wasn't the question, Mr. Cohen.
10 A That's my answer.
11 Q Is it? I'm not surprised by that, Mr. Cohen. You're 12 very good at blaming other people.
13 So $10 billion estimation was low.
14 MS. HABBA: You know what, can you play that for 15 me, please?
16 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
17 Q Okay.
18 MS. FAHERTY: Can you provide the date on that,
19 please?
20 MS. HABBA: I did. It's July 16, 2015. I said it
21 in -- it's in the transcript.
22 I'd like to move --
23 Q That's you on that, I assume? You recognize yourself
24 there?
25 A Yes, less gray.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2330

1 Q And that was your clip from CNN on July 16, 2015?
2 A That's correct.
3 Q Okay, thank you.
4 MS. HABBA: Can we please move that into evidence,
5 D 996?
6 MS. FAHERTY: For purposes of those, the statements
7 he made, no objection for that.
8 THE COURT: All right. They're in evidence -- it's
9 in evidence.
10 Q You stated that you considered yourself to be an expert
11 in real estate; correct?
12 A I did say that, yes.
13 Q Why did you say that?
14 A I do have a pretty good understanding of New York City
15 real estate.
16 Q Good.
17 THE COURT: Quick sidebar, Counsels. I can't stop
18 myself from doing this. Just come up.
19 (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion is held at 20 the sidebar.)
21 THE COURT: Back on the record.
22 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
23 Q Mr. Cohen, you went through a couple properties in that
24 clip that were owned by the Trump Organization; correct?
25 A Correct.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2331

1 Q And you stated that those properties are second to
2 none; correct?
3 A Correct.
4 Q And the Trump brand has value as well; correct?
5 A Yes.
6 THE COURT: Is that a question in the abstract or 7 are you asking if he said that?
8 MS. HABBA: No. Question in the abstract.
9 THE COURT: Okay. Had to be clear.
10 Q And according to Predictive, the Trump brand at Fact 11 Item 2000 -- the Trump brand is worth 3 billion; is that
12 correct?
13 A Is there a document that you're relating to?
14 Q Sure, sure.
15 MS. HABBA: PX 431. Can you please pull up?
16 MR. KISE: And, again, Your Honor, to the extent
17 we're not waiving, you know, this, but I am -- I'm just 18 pointing it out. I believe this is a 2011 document. We're 19 not waiving our statute of limitations argument by 20 introducing it.
21 THE COURT: Understood.
22 MS. HABBA: If we could go to the second page?
23 Q Do you see that it says "based on the information it
24 provided it's concluded that the value of the Trump brand is 2.8
25 to 3 billion?"

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2332

1 A That's what it says.
2 Q Correct?
3 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: Don't say "correct."
5 MS. FAHERTY: I'm just going to object to this
6 document she's put it in front of him. We already 7 established it's 2011. I don't know what this is. There is 8 no proffer on this document, there is no foundation on this
9 document. I'm objecting to it.
10 THE COURT: Sustained.
11 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: We don't know what it is.
13 Q The Trump brand was worth billions of dollars; correct,
14 Mr. Cohen?
15 A I don't know that to be the answer.
16 Q But you're a real estate expert, Mr. Cohen, aren't you?
17 A I'm not a brand expert, Ms. Habba.
18 Q You're not a brand expert.
19 Was the brand on the SOFC since you worked on it? Can 20 you answer that?
21 A I don't believe so.
22 Q You don't believe so? Is that a yes or no?
23 A It's an I don't believe so. I don't think it is.
24 Q How can you not be a hundred percent certain when you
25 and Allen Weisselberg were the ones that were tasked with doing

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2333

1 it?
2 A Then I don't believe it's on there.
3 Q Yes or no?
4 A I would say no.
5 Q Thank you.
6 THE COURT: Wait. Hold on. You can't make him say
7 yes or no. He's allowed to say "I don't know" or "I'm not
8 sure."
9 MS. HABBA: Okay.
10 Q Did you ever include the brand on the SOFC?
11 A I did not.
12 Q Okay. Did Donald Trump ever include the brand on the 13 SOFC?
14 A No.
15 Q Did Allen Weisselberg ever include the brand on the 16 SOFC?
17 A No.
18 Q Thank you. That answers my question with a no.
19 THE COURT: Please don't comment on the answers.
20 You asked, he answered.
21 MS. HABBA: All due respect, Your Honor.
22 A I've answered every question that you want. Why are 23 you screaming at me? I'm a subpoenaed witness.
24 MS. HABBA: Mr. Cohen, let's continue.
25 Q Okay. You were represented at one point by Robert

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2334

1 Costello; correct?
2 A No.
3 Q No?
4 A No.
5 Q So Robert Costello was not your lawyer at any point?
6 A No.
7 Q Okay. Do you know Robert Costello?
8 A I've met Robert Costello.
9 Q Have you spoken with?
10 A I have spoken with Robert Costello.
11 Q Did you ever tell Robert Costello you don't have 12 anything on Donald Trump, "I swear to God I don't have anything
13 on Donald Trump?"
14 A I don't recall that.
15 Q You don't recall? Did you --
16 THE COURT: Please don't comment on the answers.
17 MS. HABBA: I am phrasing my question.
18 Q So do you recall that you told him you would "do
19 whatever the," excuse my French, "F," I'll say, "it takes to 20 avoid jail time?" Recall that?
21 A I don't recall that either.
22 Q Okay. Mr. Cohen, Letitia James, Attorney General of 23 New York, has personally thanked you as being one of the central 24 reasons the Attorney General's Office investigation into the 25 Trump Organization business dealings was initiated. Isn't that

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2335

1 correct?
2 A You're welcome. Yes.
3 Q You're welcome, you're welcome. That's telling.
4 So what I'd like to say is you're right --
5 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, please.
6 MS. HABBA: I withdraw that.
7 THE COURT: Okay. Withdrawn.
8 Q Did you -- you just personally thanked her now;
9 correct?
10 A I was being comical.
11 Q You were being comical.
12 A Yes, I have seen the --
13 Q Let me ask you a question --
14 A I did see the video of her thanking me and I never had 15 a chance to say thank you.
16 Q You never had a chance to say thank you. So you want
17 to do it now in court? Great.
18 You actually did have a chance to say thank you.
19 MS. HABBA: Can you pull it up, please?
20 Q Do you see September 21, 2022, is this your handle on X
21 now at the time Twitter @MichaelCohen212?
22 A It is.
23 Q Okay. And do you remember writing that tweet that says
24 "I want to personally thank Tish James for acknowledging my 25 participation and assistance in bringing accountability to the

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2336

1 manner in Mussolini. My journey to the truth has been filled
2 with sadness, pain and anger. Today's announcement makes it all
3 worth it." Do you remember saying that now?
4 A I wrote that.
5 Q Okay. So did you thank Letitia James?
6 A Not personally. I thanked her on the tweet.
7 Q Okay. Thank you very much.
8 THE COURT: Please don't comment.
9 Q And you take pride in your role in commencing the 10 investigation; correct?
11 A I acknowledge it.
12 Q You --
13 A It's for acknowledging.
14 Q I don't think I understand that.
15 So by thanking her you're saying you acknowledge your 16 participation?
17 A I thanked her for acknowledging my participation.
18 That's what it says.
19 Q Okay. Are you proud that you participated in this 20 investigation, Mr. Cohen?
21 A I don't know if the word "proud" is the way I would 22 describe it.
23 Q Did you say in your tweet that "this makes it all worth
24 it?" The tweet's right in front of you.
25 A Yes, I said that. Does that connote to the term

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2337

1 "proud?"
2 Q Let's just move on.
3 A Okay.
4 Q And you personally assisted the Attorney General in its
5 investigation of the SOFCs; correct?
6 A No.
7 Q No?
8 A No.
9 Q Okay. Mr. Cohen, did you write a book called 10 "Revenge?"
11 A I did.
12 MS. HABBA: Can we please pull up "Revenge" at 179?
13 I'll read this just to make it easy.
14 Q Mr. Cohen, is this your book?
15 A That is.
16 Q Page 179 to 180 states: "Part of that offering was 17 400 hours of testimony before seven different congressional 18 committees, talking to the Manhattan DA, the Attorney General,
19 and the Department of Justice. I cooperated with them all."
20 Are you reading along with me, sir?
21 A Oh, I am.
22 Q "As for the substance of cooperation, I want to make
23 clear exactly what I gave to the government concerning Donald
24 Trump. I gave them a roadmap. I gave them everything that I
25 knew about Donald Trump. I provided the government with the

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2338

1 basic understanding of how the Trump Organization operates with
2 Donald at the helm. I explained the various roles of other
3 executives and countless acts of illegal activities, the crimes
4 mostly centering around finances. I provided, among other
5 things, Trump's personal financial statements for various years,
6 copies of checks and other assorted documents."
7 Does that refresh your recollection, Mr. Cohen?
8 A As to what?
9 Q As to the question that you just answered differently;
10 that you didn't personally assist the AG with the investigation
11 of the SOFCs?
12 A When I was in conversation with the Manhattan District
13 Attorney, the Attorney General's Office participated in those 14 meetings and so what I did is I combined them together. There
15 was no specific AG meetings. They were present at my meetings
16 with the Manhattan District Attorney's Office.
17 Q So the Manhattan District Attorney's Office and the 18 Attorney General's Office were working in tandem. That is your 19 testimony, correct?
20 A That's my testimony.
21 Q And, in fact, you saw them working in tandem; correct?
22 A They participated in those meetings.
23 Q Together?
24 A They were present in those meetings.
25 Q Were you promised anything from the Attorney General if

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2339

1 you agreed to assist in the investigation of the Trump
2 Organization, Mr. Cohen?
3 A No.
4 Q You did claim that you provided a "roadmap,"
5 quote/unquote, of all the financial crimes that you claim
6 occurred at the Trump Organization. Isn't that correct?
7 A That's not what it says.
8 Q That's not --
9 A What it says -- I want to make clear exactly what I
10 gave the government concerning Donald Trump. I gave them a
11 roadmap.
12 Q Can I just stop you there, Mr. Cohen?
13 A You can.
14 Q Did you just say "I gave them a roadmap?"
15 THE COURT: He just said that, yes.
16 Q What's the answer to that?
17 A Already asked and answered.
18 Q We're going to --
19 MS. HABBA: Okay, Your Honor.
20 MR. KISE: The judge doesn't like that objection.
21 THE WITNESS: Apologies, Your Honor.
22 A The answer is yes, that's what I wrote. It's in the 23 book.
24 Q Okay. Thank you.
25 These are your words in the book, correct?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2340

1 A It's my words.
2 Q And you claimed to have provided documentation which
3 shows countless acts of illegal activities; correct?
4 A You're reading that from where? Okay.
5 Q You can read it to yourself. Take your time.
6 MR. KISE: Can we have one minute, Your Honor,
7 while he's reading that? Just counsel?
8 THE COURT: Sure.
9 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
10 MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge.
11 Q Okay. According -- were we waiting for an answer? Did
12 you read it?
13 A Yes, I read it.
14 Q And it says that?
15 A Yes, I read it. It says it perfectly.
16 Q I'll speak really loud. Your testimony is that you
17 personally participated in the SOFCs; correct?
18 A Correct.
19 Q In fact, you claim you are personally responsible for 20 coming up with many of the inflated numbers; correct?
21 A Yes, correct.
22 Q And you told them that you committed fraud in 23 connection with preparation of the SOFCs; correct?
24 A I don't believe that's what I said to them.
25 Q Didn't you say in the question prior that you told them

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2341

1 you were part of the process of inflating the SOFCs?
2 MS. FAHERTY: Just to clarify, I've lost this line
3 of questioning. Who is the "them?"
4 Q Okay. Let me restart it. Let's just be clear. I
5 appreciate that.
6 THE COURT: Withdrawn?
7 MS. HABBA: Withdrawn.
8 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
9 Q Mr. Cohen, you have testified between yesterday and 10 today that you were personally responsible for drafting and 11 coming up with numbers in the SOFCs; correct?
12 A Which I did at the direction of Mr. Trump.
13 Q That's not what I asked you, Mr. Cohen.
14 Yes or no did you partake?
15 A I did.
16 Q Okay. And you told the District Attorney's Office that 17 you did this; correct?
18 A I can't go into that. There is another case that's 19 pending right now. It's improper.
20 Q Not really because you've testified -- I'm sorry.
21 But you testified they were there, so if you told them,
22 you told them; right?
23 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, if I could --
24 MS. HABBA: It's not --
25 THE COURT: Your microphone isn't working.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2342

1 MS. FAHERTY: Can you hear me? If I can raise an
2 objection here. I think this record at this point is a bit
3 muddled and confusing. There was an excerpt from 4 Mr. Cohen's book that we were just looking at. The 5 questions were focused on the excerpt in the book. We have
6 now closed the book. We're talking about themes, we're
7 talking about the DA. It is untethered. I'm a bit confused
8 where this line of questioning is going and I would really
9 ask that we keep it focused and direct. I don't understand
10 what testimony is being elicited and I will say there is a
11 parallel DANY proceeding, so I'm a bit concerned that the 12 line of questioning is going beyond the scope of this case
13 and bleeding into another case. So I'm just raising my 14 concern that this line of questioning which started with the 15 book is now untethered and I don't know where we actually
16 are with this testimony.

17 MR. KISE: Well, Your Honor, if you're going to 18 side with me I'm not going to say anything.

19 THE COURT: You're learning.

20 Well, sustained solely on the ground that I think 21 it's unclear who "they" are, etc., etc.. I like to go with 22 the simple rulings.

23 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: So without prejudice obviously to 25 whatever you want to ask about.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2343

1 MS. HABBA: Sure.

2 Q Mr. Cohen, no charges were ever brought against you
3 personally by DANY in connection with your work on the Statement
4 of Financial Conditions, were they?

5 A No.

6 THE COURT: DANY is the District Attorney of New
7 York. Not everybody knows.

8 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 Q And, in fact, no claims were ever made against you by 10 the New York Attorney General, were they?

11 A No.

12 Q But you have claimed in your testimony that you are an 13 essential player in inflating the assets in the SOFC; correct?

14 A I stated that, yes.

15 Q And despite all of that you were never named as a
16 defendant in this case, were you?

17 A I am not named as a defendant in this case.

18 Q So the Attorney General must not believe that your 19 story is credible; is that correct?

20 A You are drawing a conclusion that I don't know. You
21 could ask Ms. James.

22 ATTORNEY GENERAL JAMES: I object.

23 THE COURT: We're still researching that one.

24 Q You even met with Mr. Pomerantz; correct?

25 A I have met with Mr. Pomerantz, yes.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2344

1 Q I'm not going to get into the conversations, just so
2 you know.

3 Are you aware that he noted in his book that there are 4 significant risks with using you as a witness because of your
5 credibility?

6 A I didn't read his book.

7 Q Okay. Prior to termination of your professional
8 relationship with him, you had a very high --

9 A I'm sorry, who is "him?"

10 Q If you let me finish my question.

11 You had a very high regard of President Trump; is that
12 correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q And in the past you had a long history of praising 15 Mr. Trump, isn't that right, Mr. Cohen?

16 A Also correct.

17 Q In fact, you stated that you worshipped him. Isn't
18 that correct?

19 A Yes, that's correct.

20 Q And you testified under oath before Congress that you
21 are very proud to have served Donald Trump and that you would 22 continue to support him. Isn't that correct?

23 A I don't know what you're referring to.

24 Q Okay.

25 A I testified seven times to congressional committees.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2345

1 Which one?

2 MS. HABBA: Can we please pull it up on 102, D 960?

3 Thank you.

4 Q Mr. Cohen, you were interviewed by -- in an Executive
5 Session. It was a closed-door session with the Permanent Select 6 Committee on Intelligence, the U.S. House of Representatives on 7 October 24, 2017. Do you recall that?

8 A I do.

9 Q Okay. And that was closed to the public; right?

10 A That was.

11 Q This is a transcript from that. As you can see it's an 12 unclassified transcript from that hearing. Do you see that?

13 A I do.

14 MS. HABBA: Go back to the front page if you need.
15 At D 960 -- can you please scroll up?

16 Q You state -- sorry.

17 MS. HABBA: The next page.

18 Q Mr. Cohen, it says, "I am very proud to have served
19 Donald Trump for all these years, and I will continue to support
20 him." Do you now remember saying that?

21 A This is the document that was prepared by the entire
22 group that I referred in the direct. This was done by myself
23 with Alan Garten, this was done with Jay Sekulow, with a whole
24 slew of individuals, but yes, I did make that statement.

25 Q You made that statement in front of that committee;

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2346

1 correct?
2 A Correct.
3 Q Thank you.
4 Your opinion of Mr. Trump was so high, in fact, that
5 you once stated you would take a bullet for him; is that
6 correct?
7 A Vanity Fair, Emily Fox, yes.
8 Q Thank you're doing my work for me. I appreciate it.
9 And you referred to yourself as the guy who protects
10 the President and the family. Isn't that right?
11 A That's also correct.
12 Q And you've insisted that you would never walk away from
13 Donald Trump; correct?
14 A I stated that.
15 Q I would like to now show you a political article dated 16 July 9, 2015, which is in evidence as D 986. I'm going to 17 highlight a section. If you can just read it, please?
18 MS. FAHERTY: What is this?
19 MS. HABBA: You have this -- it's a political 20 article dated July 9, 2015. It was given two days ago.
21 MS. FAHERTY: Why are we putting this in front of 22 him?
23 MR. KISE: Just sit down and you'll find out.
24 MS. FAHERTY: Mr. Kise, I appreciate the 25 commentary, but I would like a proffer of this. When you

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2347

1 comment and ask the witness a question, I will extend the
2 same courtesy to you.
3 MR. KISE: No. Apparently the Attorney General
4 hasn't. And as Your Honor knows, we have given,
5 particularly Ms. Faherty, an extraordinary amount of 6 latitude in how she asks questions and have sat here with 7 leading question after leading question and introducing
8 documents and everything yesterday, everything comes in. So
9 I think bringing up a document and giving us a moment or two
10 to tie to it is well within the discretion of the Court.
11 THE COURT: Mr. Kise, please be respectful to the 12 attorneys on the other side.
13 MR. KISE: I am being respectful, but they're not 14 respectful to me. That group of attorneys over there, they 15 asked Your Honor to sanction me. 33 years I have been 16 practicing law. I've argued and won four cases in the 17 Supreme Court of the United States and I am being subject to 18 sanction for making legal arguments and they want me to be
19 respectful to them? Respect is not something -- where I
20 grew up respect is not something that you get. It's 21 something that you earn and I believe as a lawyer I've 22 certainly earned it.
23 THE COURT: I will try to jump into the fray here.
24 I will say whenever there is an objection but the question
25 by the Attorney General's counsel was leading, I always

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2348

1 addressed it and I think I sustained probably more than half
2 of them, so.
3 MR. KISE: You didn't, Your Honor. But my point
4 was we didn't object. We just let it go because we're 5 trying to move the case along and so we're asking the 6 Attorney General, they're making arguments about documents
7 and we haven't even had a moment to connect up before we
8 even get to -- the examiner gets to say anything.
9 MS. HABBA: And, Your Honor, if I might just add
10 myself. It is completely disrespectful when I just pull a 11 document up and don't even get a question out. We'll be 12 here well into tomorrow, I assure you of that. I have a lot
13 of questions if this is how we're going to do it. I have a
14 right to ask him questions. We've given you the exhibits
15 like we were supposed to several days ago, so I would like
16 to do my job for my client, please.
17 THE COURT: This document is already in evidence.
18 MS. HABBA: Exactly.
19 MS. FAHERTY: This is not admitted into evidence,
20 Your Honor, no. It was placed into an exhibit folder --
21 MS. HABBA: For you.
22 MS. FAHERTY: -- for us to review two nights ago at 23 I think 10:30 at night. And, in fact, I came to the 24 courthouse this morning, there was yet another added.
25 So if I stand up, respectfully, Your Honor, and say

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2349

1 I would like a proffer because I have not heard a proper
2 foundation laid to either impeach this witness, I haven't
3 heard it yet. We have repeatedly this morning seen
4 something thrown onto the screen declaring I'm going to 5 impeach you with this new evidence when that hasn't been
6 properly laid down.
7 Respectfully, I would appreciate Ms. Habba to 8 continue with the examination in a way that sets the 9 evidence properly. The foundation is laid, the questions
10 can be asked, the evidence can come in. We have not been
11 following that orderly procedure. That is all I've asked,
12 Your Honor. I stood up and said voir dire this. What is 13 this and what is its purpose for this particular witness?
14 MS. HABBA: All due respect, I just ask that it be 15 put up, Colleen. You've been interrupting me.
16 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor --
17 THE COURT: Mr. Robert, you've been relatively 18 quiet.
19 MR. ROBERT: And I'll be brief. We have been here
20 now four weeks and we have sat here while the Attorney
21 General has put documents in front of witnesses and instead
22 of putting them into evidence first, ask the witness spend
23 five and ten minutes discussing them and then putting them
24 into evidence. We have sat quietly because we wanted to get 25 this thing done in an orderly and efficient process.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2350

1 As far as exchanging of documents we have been the
2 ones who have been vigilant. Every night the Attorney
3 General is sending us five more, 50 more, a hundred more
4 documents. That's the way this process works.
5 Ms. Habba is allowed to ask Mr. Cohen a question.
6 Based on what his answers are and then make the 7 determination whether the document be put into evidence or 8 not.
9 Ms. Faherty now objecting to us being able to lay a
10 foundation when for weeks now I have listened to them recite
11 from documents that were not in evidence because we assumed
12 subject to connection they would come in and they did is 13 just grandstanding. Let's let Ms. Habba proceed and then 14 when an application is made to put in evidence, the Court
15 will deal with it.
16 THE COURT: I do think that the Attorney General's 17 objection or interruptions is premature. A document is put 18 on the screen, I haven't heard anything. I stand corrected.
19 Somebody said that this document was in evidence. I don't
20 care who, but can we agree it's not in evidence?
21 MS. HABBA: It's not in evidence. It was provided
22 to the AG pursuant to your rules two days ago.
23 THE COURT: Of course. That's hardly in evidence.
24 And I will say something else in response to Mr. Kise's
25 comments on respect. I agree respect isn't mandatory or

Page 2351

1 assumed. It's earned, but in this courtroom I want
2 everybody to respect each other.
3 MR. KISE: And I certainly think I have done that,
4 Your Honor, while I have suffered through an awful lot at 5 the hands of the Attorney General in this case throughout
6 this case. It has been extraordinary in my experience,
7 extraordinary.
8 THE COURT: I'm not going to second that. Yes, I
9 don't know what you have or haven't. So in the courtroom,
10 no. I haven't seen it, but anyway, all right. We now have 11 a document on. It's not in evidence and we'll ask Ms. Habba
12 to proceed.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2352

1 Q Mr. Cohen, do you recall in a political article dated
2 July 29, 2015 that you stated, "The fact is Mr. Trump has built
3 a $10 billion-plus empire, employs thousands of people, has 4 worked with many leaders around the globe successfully and is
5 considered one of the best negotiators in history. These are 6 all qualifications essential to being a great president."
7 A I made that statement.
8 Q Thank you. And at that time, you thought Mr. Trump had 9 all the qualifications necessary to be a great president,
10 correct?
11 THE COURT: That's not what we are here for, by the 12 way, obviously.
13 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, it actually goes to 14 credibility. I can explain.
15 THE COURT: All right. I'll -- I didn't say you
16 couldn't ask it, but -- or read it, but I just want to make
17 sure we're focusing on why we're here, not external matters.
18 MS. HABBA: Absolutely. Absolutely.
19 THE COURT: Okay.
20 A Can you state the question?
21 MS. HABBA: Could I, please, get a readback? Was 22 there a question?
23 THE WITNESS: I don't know.
24 Q I just asked you if you stated that.
25 A I stated, "yes."

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2353

1 Q We could do a readback if you want to make sure you
2 answered, if Your Honor would like.
3 THE COURT: I am pretty sure he answered.
4 MS. HABBA: He stated it. He answered the
5 question.
6 Q Mr. Cohen, do you recall in a Reuter's article being
7 quoted saying that "President Trump's record at the time" --
8 "Mr. Trump's record was proof of" -- "his success was proof
9 positive of Mr. Trump's character and capabilities."
10 Do you recall that?
11 A Is that another 2015 article?
12 Q That was dated August 28, 2015, yes.
13 A Can I see it?
14 Q Sure. We can pull it up. This is D993- 4.
15 Mr. Cohen, you can see on the bottom that it
16 says -- from the reuters.com website, correct?
17 A Yes, I see that.
18 Q You see we highlighted for you the section, "Trump
19 lawyer Michael Cohen stated Trump's record of success was "proof
20 positive of Mr. Trump's character and capabilities."
21 Do you see that?
22 A Yes, I see that.
23 Q And do you now recall saying that in this article for 24 Reuters on August 28, 2015?
25 A I'm sorry. Your question is?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2354

1 THE COURT: Do you remember saying it to Reuters?
2 THE WITNESS: Yes, I said this to Reuters.
3 MS. HABBA: I am saying it, so I don't -- I am
4 laying a foundation, so I don't get an objection. I will 5 move on.
6 MS. FAHERTY: For the sole purpose that this is an
7 article that captures this statement, no objection. I mean,
8 I'll also highlight this article also says, "For Trump,
9 exaggerating has always been a frequent impulse especially
10 when the value of his Trump brand is disputed." If counsel
11 wants that in evidence --
12 THE COURT: You can do that on re-direct or 13 whatever.
14 MS. FAHERTY: This is, otherwise, a hearsay
15 document, Your Honor. So for the purposes of that one
16 statement --
17 THE COURT: Admitted just for the fact that he said
18 it.
19 MS. HABBA: That's it.
20 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you.
21 MS. HABBA: That is, frankly, the only thing I
22 asked. "Did you say that in this article," period.
23 Q You said "yes, correct." Just so we are clear we have 24 an answer, can I have a readback?
25 THE COURT: Did you say "yes" that you said this to

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2355

1 the reporter?
2 THE WITNESS: Yes, I did.
3 THE COURT: You have to say it into the microphone.
4 THE WITNESS: I did.
5 Q Mr. Cohen, you frequently defended Mr. Trump and stated
6 that he was the only one person who -- "person that could make
7 America great again"?
8 A Again, 2015?
9 Q No, 2016.
10 A Yes.
11 Q Did you do it in 2015, too?
12 A I did.
13 Q Okay. Do you remember Tweeting, "Thank you and believe 14 wholeheartedly that only Trump will make America great again on 15 July 13, 2016"?
16 A Off the top of my head, no, I don't recall that.
17 MS. HABBA: If we pull up the Tweet from July 13,
18 2016.
19 Q Mr. Cohen, is that your handle on Twitter or what is 20 now X?
21 A Yes.
22 Q It is dated July 13, 2016, correct?
23 A Yes.
24 Q 6:15 a.m.?
25 A That's what it says.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2356

1 Q And can you read that for me, please, what you Tweeted?
2 A "Thank you... and believe wholeheartedly that only
3 #trumpwill#makeamericagreatagain."
4 Q Okay. And you tagged "realdonaldtrump," correct?
5 A Yes, I did.
6 Q That's President Trump's Twitter account?
7 A Yes.
8 Q You tagged "womenforcohen"?
9 A Yes.
10 MS. HABBA: I would like to admit the Tweet into 11 evidence as D995, please?
12 MS. FAHERTY: No objection.
13 THE COURT: Admitted into evidence.
14 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 15 Plaintiff's Exhibit D995.)
16 Q So Mr. Cohen, after Mr. Trump was elected as president,
17 you expected to get a position in The White House, didn't you?
18 A Incorrect.
19 Q Incorrect. You didn't -- you did not think you were 20 going to go to the White House? Is that your testimony today?
21 A I didn't want to go to the White House.
22 Q My question to you was after Mr. Trump was elected as 23 president, you expected to be given a position in the White
24 House; is that correct?
25 A I received the position that I had asked for.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2357

1 Q But you thought you were going to be named chief of 2 staff?
3 A No, I did not. It was a joke that went along because 4 of my relationship to Mr. Trump. I asked for and I received
5 from Mr. Trump the position of personal attorney to President
6 Donald J. Trump.
7 MS. HABBA: Okay. I would like to pull up D58-3,
8 please.
9 Q Mr. Cohen, was your home raided by the FBI?
10 A Yes, it was.
11 Q When the FBI raided your home, did they take your 12 phone?
13 A They took both of my phones.
14 Q Okay. And were a series of text messages attached as a
15 memo in opposition to a motion to reduce your sentence?
16 A I don't even know what you're talking about.
17 Q Okay. I'll represent to you that this is part of a 18 docket number 1:18-CR-602. It is on the screen. It's in the 19 court docket as 58-2. It is United States vs. Cohen. This is a
20 printout attached to a memo that was submitted by the government
21 with text messages from your cellphone that they seized by a
22 subpoena and search warrant. Do you recognize that?
23 A I don't.
24 Q Okay. Well --
25 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I am just going to put an

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2358

1 objection on the record to this. It might be premature, but
2 I'm going to state my objection now. It just seems like
3 we're delving in a trial within a trial within a trial and
4 re-litigating issues in the Southern District case. I'm 5 noting my objection to this exhibit coming in.
6 MS. HABBA: This has nothing to do with that.
7 THE COURT: Overruled without prejudice.
8 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
9 Q If you see --
10 MS. HABBA: Can you blow up the text messages here.
11 Thank you.
12 Q It states, "Person 4, Cohen or Powell, will be chief of 13 staff. Cohen, that's you, that's your text message. Neither.
14 Person 4, who then? Now this is you. Really, question mark.
15 Person 4, if Powell, she'd be the first woman." Again, they 16 say, "not Jared. Too close." Not Jared, you're speaking
17 about -- I assume that's Jared Kushner?
18 A Again, I don't recognize this document. No, I don't.
19 Q This is from the FBI when they seized your phone.
20 A Okay.
21 Q Cohen really --
22 A Who's Person 4?
23 Q I don't know and it is irrelevant quite honestly.
24 A Well, it's not irrelevant.
25 Q Okay. Is your name Cohen?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2359

1 A That is my name.
2 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, again, I'm going to state
3 my objection.
4 THE COURT: Give me your best shot. What's your
5 best objection?
6 MS. FAHERTY: First of all, we've already had
7 testimony from the witness saying he does not recognize this
8 document. We have log entries here indicating that there is 9 a Person-4. Based on Ms. Habba's representation, is she 10 asking the Court to accept the statements of these 11 outside-of-the-court persons or Person 4 for the truth of 12 the matter asserted?
13 There's inherent hearsay problems with this
14 document. And again, I think we're devolving into a trial
15 of what? How is it relevant to the matters at hand, Your 16 Honor? So again, I note my objection to this document,
17 please.
18 THE COURT: Any response, Ms. Habba?
19 MS. HABBA: Motive, Your Honor, motive and 20 credibility. And I will show Mr. Cohen's comments and the 21 only comments that are relevant are Mr. Cohen's comments.
22 These are his text messages. It was submitted on the docket
23 by the FBI. It is unsealed. There is no question of that.
24 Unless you're -- it is not hearsay.
25 I'm -- if you let me finish, I can get to it, but

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2360

1 you keep interrupting me which frankly, I have not done to
2 you and had courtesy with you, which I'm getting a little
3 frustrated. But I understand you don't like some of this
4 testimony, so if you like, we can finish, and I can make a
5 ruling, but you keep interrupting me.
6 THE COURT: Remember, everybody, there's no jury
7 here.
8 MS. HABBA: I understand, but Your Honor --
9 THE COURT: Nobody is interrupting you
10 particularly. I'm just telling everyone.
11 MR. KISE: Unfortunately, there isn't.
12 THE COURT: So you don't ordinarily have juries
13 maybe.
14 MR. KISE: Your Honor, as to this document, again,
15 it's impeachment. It goes to credibility. We're certainly 16 entitled to explore all the many ways in which this witness
17 has twisted, moved, shifted very -- you know -- so that's 18 all we're doing and I think that's appropriate.
19 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Just go ahead.
20 MS. HABBA: Thank you. If we could scroll down.
21 Thank you.
22 Q Person 4 states, "not Ivanka, too close. You state,
23 keep guessing, dopey. Person 4, stop. You, question mark."
24 Then you state, "I will give you a hint... yes."
25 Do you see that, Mr. Cohen?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2361

1 A I see that.
2 Q Okay. The person responds, "Oh, my God. Please be
3 true. Are you serious. You need to." And then you say --
4 A That's why Person No. 4 is important to know what it
5 is.
6 Q Mr. Cohen, I'm not finished.
7 THE WITNESS: Sorry, Your Honor.
8 Q You state, "He needs to ask." Do you see that?
9 A I see that.
10 Q Okay. So in your -- first of all, I'd like to submit
11 this into evidence. It has already been on the docket, as I
12 said, in 1:18 CR-602, D958-3.
13 THE COURT: Hearsay. An out-of-court statement
14 being introduced to prove the truth of its contents -- are 15 you introducing it to prove the truth of its contents?
16 MS. HABBA: I'm proving it to impeach the witness
17 who stated that he did not want that job. So the truth of 18 the contents is yes, he stated in a text that he wanted that 19 job. Solely to Mr. Cohen, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: You know, I try to use commonsense when 21 I'm applying rules. Objection overruled. It's in. I find
22 enough of a foundation has been laid.
23 MS. HABBA: Thank you very much, Your Honor.
24 Q And you were never given a position in the White House,
25 were you, Mr. Cohen; yes or no?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2362

1 A I was given the position --
2 Q Yes or no?
3 A -- that I asked for. There was no shame in being
4 personal attorney to the president.
5 Q We'll get to that, but my question is were you given a
6 position in the White House?
7 A I didn't ask for a position.
8 THE COURT: No. No. You have to answer the
9 question.
10 THE WITNESS: It's a question I -- I don't know
11 how I'm going to be given it if you don't ask for it.
12 THE COURT: Hold on.
13 Q Okay.
14 THE COURT: Hold on. I don't know whether special
15 counsel or counsel to the president or personal counsel -- I
16 don't know whether that's in or out of the White House, but 17 you know, other than that, you have to answer the question.
18 If you don't know whether your job was in or out of the 19 White House, say that; but, otherwise, you were or you
20 weren't.
21 Q Mr. Cohen, did you ever go to the White House as a
22 position as an employee for the President of the United States
23 Donald Trump?
24 A No.
25 Q Thank you.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2363

1 Around that same time, you found other ways to
2 personally benefit from your relationship with Mr. Trump,
3 correct?
4 A I'm sorry. And what time frame are you referring to?
5 Q When the president or -- when Mr. Trump became 6 President Trump, you found ways to benefit from your
7 relationship with Mr. Trump, didn't you?
8 A Yes.
9 Q In fact, didn't you candidly admit that you previously
10 cashed in on your relationship with President Trump?
11 A I don't know where you are referring to.
12 MS. HABBA: Could you, please, pull up Disloyal at
13 page 341.
14 Q Mr. Cohen, did you write a book entitled, "Disloyal"?
15 A I did.
16 Q Is this -- does this appear to be what was the cover
17 that was just up from Disloyal?
18 A I'm sorry?
19 MS. HABBA: Can you go back, please. You just had 20 the cover up.
21 Q Is that your book?
22 A That is.
23 Q Okay. Can you, please, turn to page 341. Can you read
24 the part where it says -- the second red box, "Was I cashing in 25 on my relationship with Trump? Of course, I was. What would

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2364

1 you do." Do you read that?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Were those your words?
4 A My words.
5 MS. HABBA: I would like to admit Disloyal 341 into 6 evidence, please.
7 THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
8 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
9 Plaintiff's Exhibit 341.)
10 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
11 Q Back when you acted as personal counsel to President
12 Trump, you launched a personal company known as Essential
13 Consultants, LLC as a way of cashing in on your relationship
14 with the President of the United States; isn't that correct?
15 A No, that's not correct.
16 Q That's not correct. Okay.
17 MS. HABBA: Let's turn to page 341 again.
18 Q It is up. Take a minute to read it. Let me know when 19 you're ready.
20 (Witness reviewing document.)
21 Q "After the election, I set myself up in a New York
22 office of Squire Patton Boggs"?
23 A I don't see where you are.
24 Q At the top, it is highlighted. "A top-tier law firm
25 located at Rockefeller Plaza as a strategic alliance which

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2365

1 really meant the partners could brag to their clients that the
2 personal attorney to the President of the United States,
3 President Trump, was part of their outfit. I was also using my
4 company Essential Consultants to take on clients like AT&T,
5 Novartis, Columbus Nova and BTA Bank, high-level companies
6 desperate for insights and connections to the President and 7 willing to pay for their assistance."
8 Did you read that?
9 A You read it.
10 Q Did you read it?
11 A I wrote it.
12 Q Correct. You wrote it. So those are your words,
13 right, Mr. Cohen?
14 A Yes, those are my words.
15 Q So when you said you didn't -- my question to you was 16 did you launch a company known as Essential Consultants as a way
17 of cashing in on your relationship with the President of the 18 United States? You did, didn't you, Mr. Cohen?
19 A Again, no.
20 Q You --
21 A Let me explain.
22 Q It is a yes-or-no question, Mr. Cohen.
23 A There is no --
24 THE COURT: You can explain on re-direct.
25 MS. HABBA: Thank you.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2366

1 Q And didn't you primarily use this company to secure
2 lucrative clients that were "desperate" for connections to
3 President Trump such as AT&T, Novartis, Columbus Nova and BTA
4 Bank?
5 A Insights and connections, yes.
6 Q I'm sorry. What was that word that you said?
7 A Insights and connections.
8 Q You're reading that from your book?
9 A Correct.
10 MR. HABBA: Okay. I would like to submit Disloyal,
11 page 344 -- 341, excuse me, into evidence.
12 THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
13 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
14 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
15 Plaintiff's Exhibit 341.)
16 Q And Essential Consulting ultimately received payments
17 of more than $4 million; isn't that correct?
18 A Correct.
19 Q Similarly, didn't you also enter into a strategic 20 alliance with Squire Patton Boggs where you were paid half a 21 million dollars annually to further capitalize on your 22 relationship again with President Donald Trump?
23 A As well as my other relationships, yes.
24 Q That was not the question. Your book that we just had 25 up said Squire Patton Boggs wanted a relationship with you

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2367

1 because of President Trump, did it not?
2 A It did.
3 Q Okay. And the purpose of this strategic alliance was 4 that -- so that the partners of Squire Patton "brag to their
5 clients that the personal attorney to the President of the 6 United States was part of their outfit." Didn't you say that?
7 A I said that.
8 Q And today, you have significant animosity towards
9 President Trump, don't you?
10 A Do I have animosity towards him? Yes.
11 Q That was the question.
12 A Yes, I do.
13 Q Yes, you do.
14 In fact, you often go on social media, don't you,
15 stating all of your animosity?
16 A I use social media.
17 Q That wasn't my question.
18 MS. HABBA: Can you, please, read back the
19 question.
20 THE COURT: Read back, please. And his response
21 was not responsive. It did not answer the question.
22 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
23 THE COURT: Readback.
24 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
25 read back.)

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2368

1 A Not all my animosity.
2 Q But despite your animosity, you continue to financially
3 benefit from President Trump, don't you?
4 A No.
5 Q No?
6 A No.
7 Q Since your release from prison, Mr. Cohen, your career
8 has shifted from the practice of law towards entertainment and 9 media; isn't that correct?
10 A Can you define "entertainment and media"?
11 Q Sure. Mr. Cohen, you have made a career out of 12 publicly attacking President Trump, haven't you?
13 A Yes.
14 Q In fact, a substantial amount of your present day
15 income is derived from publicly criticizing President Trump;
16 isn't that right?
17 A Amongst other people, yes. It is not Mr. Trump only.
18 Q Okay.
19 A It discusses news of the day.
20 Q So your testimony -- so is that a yes or a no?
21 A That would be a no.
22 Q That would be a no, okay.
23 MS. HABBA: Can we, please, pull up the transcript
24 from Galicia.
25 Q Mr. Cohen, do you remember the Galicia case that you

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2369

1 and I were involved in?
2 A I was a subpoenaed witness, yes.
3 Q You remember that I deposed you, correct?
4 A I remember.
5 Q This is a copy of the transcript from that deposition.
6 Just to lay a foundation, index number 24973/2015. Galicia vs.
7 Donald Trump. The date on that is May 9, 2022. Do you see
8 that?
9 A I see that.
10 Q And the time was 10:11. It was the deposition of 11 non-party witness Michael Cohen. Do you see that?
12 A I do.
13 Q It was held at Belkin Burden Goldman in New York and I
14 deposed you at that time. Do you remember that?
15 A I recall.
16 MS. HABBA: If you could please switch to 103:19.
17 THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
18 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
19 Q My question:
20 "What do you do for to raise money?"
21 You said, "You mean for a living?"
22 I said, "Yes."
23 You said, "Yes. I'm writing a second book which will
24 be called The Department of Injustice. I have a podcast
25 called Mea Culpa, top 50 podcast in the country. I am also

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2370

1 now placing them on YouTube and I also have on YouTube
2 Michael Cohen Reacts which is I react to the news of the
3 day or something that I find interesting in the news."
4 And my question was:
5 "What do you find interesting in the news, Mr. Cohen?"
6 You said, "Everything."
7 And I said, "Let's"-- "Now, let's go one by one. Mea
8 Culpa is the podcast, correct?"
9 You said, "Correct."
10 "What do you discuss on Mea Culpa?"
11 Your response, "Politics, sometimes cult deprogramming,
12 various different issues."
13 "Do you discuss any of the defendants in this case on 14 Mea Culpa?"
15 Your response was, "I do."
16 "Who would that be," I asked.
17 "Former President Donald Trump."
18 And I asked you how frequently just as I'm asking
19 you today.
20 "How frequently do you discuss former President Donald 21 Trump?"
22 Your response said, "Every podcast at some point has 23 him included in it."
24 Do you see that, Mr. Cohen?
25 A I do.

Page 2371

1 Q Okay. So when I asked you do you discuss President
2 Trump every time you are on your podcast or social media, you
3 said -- let me just ask the question.
4 Do you recall that you said that every podcast at some
5 point has included Donald Trump?
6 A I said it, yes.
7 Q Thank you.
8 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, this might be a good
9 stopping point.
10 THE COURT: Okay. Just to make it simple, let's
11 all be back at 11:45.

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
2 session. Please be seated and come to order.
3 THE COURT: Ms. Habba, before you take -- the 4 lectern has nothing do with you, but sometime prior to 5 today, I think it was about a week ago -- no, two or three
6 weeks ago --
7 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
8 THE COURT: Withdrawn. Let's start from scratch.
9 Towards the very start of this trial, defendant
10 Donald J. Trump posted on his social media account or one of 11 them, I think it was Truth Social, defamatory, disparaging, 12 completely untrue statements about the law clerk sitting to 13 my right. I asked that they be taken down.
14 I was told ten minutes later they were taken down;
15 turns out they weren't. They remained online and were 16 e-mailed to thousands of people. I don't remember exactly
17 how many. They were online for I believe it was 17 days.
18 At that point when I was alerted to it, I issued a
19 limited gag order and told Counsel, the parties, that I was 20 forbidding -- this is a quote, "All parties from posting,
21 e-mailing or speaking publicly about any members of my
22 staff," unquote.
23 I am very protective of my staff, as I believe I
24 should be. We all know that we are in what I called at some 25 point, an overheated environment. I don't want anybody

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2373

1 killed.
2 It was just brought to my attention that the
3 Associated Press reported, I wasn't there, this is the 4 Associated Press, that Mr. Donald J. Trump just stated the 5 following to the press outside the courtroom:
6 "This judge is a very partisan judge with a person
7 who is very partisan sitting alongside him, perhaps even 8 much more partisan than he is."
9 Now, it's very easy for the public, for anyone to 10 know who that person is.
11 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, sorry --
12 MR. KISE: Let me -- I hate to interrupt.
13 THE COURT: No, don't interrupt me. I'll give you
14 plenty of time.
15 MR. KISE: Okay. I think you're under a
16 misapprehension.
17 THE COURT: All right. You'll correct me.
18 MR. KISE: Fair enough.
19 THE COURT: The last time that this gag order was 20 violated by the incorrect statement that the post had been
21 taken down it was actually copied to another post but that 22 wasn't taken down. I accepted the explanation that it was 23 inadvertent, I imposed a minimal fine. This recent 24 statement, assuming the Associated Press is correct,
25 obviously was intentional.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2374

1 I stated the last time that a -- any future
2 violations would be severely punished.
3 I will now give Mr. Kise or anyone else who wants
4 to a chance to respond. And, again, I'll ask the question
5 why should there not be severe sanctions for this blatant,
6 dangerous disobeyal of a court order.
7 MR. KISE: Your Honor, my understanding of what he
8 said and the way I understood it and I believe Mr. Trump
9 will tell you I believe he's talking about Michael Cohen
10 sitting next to you who is even more partisan -- I mean, his 11 whole commentary out there related to Michael Cohen and his 12 credibility as a witness and so forth. We're certainly well
13 aware of the order, so that's the way I took the statement
14 and I believe that's the way it was intended, but I'll -- I
15 don't want -- I don't know any other way to say it but that.
16 THE COURT: Well, can we ask Mr. Trump to whom he 17 was referring?
18 MR. KISE: I have asked him. I mean, if you'd like
19 to ask him, I have asked and that is exactly what he said
20 because he's tired of listening. I don't want to go on a
21 speech. He's tired of listening to what he's hearing and 22 it's very partisan and you know the rest.
23 THE COURT: Sitting alongside of him. The person
24 sitting alongside of me the way I would normally interpret
25 those words is my principal law clerk. There is a barrier

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2375

1 between me and the witness stand. We know from this trial
2 and from our lives that language is sometimes precise and
3 sometimes not very precise, sometimes ambiguous and not
4 clear. Seemed clear to me, but I understand that could be
5 interpreted another way. I'll take the whole matter under 6 advisement. Let's not spend anymore time on this. Let's
7 move ahead with the trial.
8 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, are we on the record?
9 THE COURT: If we want to be.
10 MS. HABBA: I also want to put on the record
11 obviously we have a lot of press and media here. They 12 couldn't hear past there. It was brought to my attention
13 and evidently the feed -- the tech team just informed me the 14 feed was also not being circulated, which obviously as you
15 know this is a very heavily press-covered matter and given 16 that I'm President Trump's lawyer I do think that's 17 unfortunate and unfair.
18 THE COURT: And, of course, I'm sorry for that, of 19 course, and it's very unfortunate.
20 THE COURT OFFICER: Is the judge ready for the 21 witness?
22 THE COURT: Yes.
23 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
24 THE COURT: Okay. Let's continue with the cross
25 examination of Michael Cohen.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2376

1 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
2 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and
3 approaches the witness stand.)
4 CONTINUED CROSS EXAMINATION
5 BY MS. HABBA:
6 Q Mr. Cohen, you didn't speak to anybody during your
7 break, your attorney or anybody from the Attorney General's
8 Office, did you?
9 A I spoke to my attorneys.
10 Q Did you speak to them about your testimony?
11 A No.
12 Q Did you speak to them about this case?
13 A No.
14 Q Okay. You understand that you're still under oath,
15 correct?
16 A Correct.
17 Q Okay. Where we left off I was asking you if you made a
18 career out of publicly attacking my client, President Trump.
19 Do you recall that?
20 A I recall it.
21 Q And do you make a career out of publicly attacking
22 President Trump?
23 A No.
24 Q Do you admit that Mea Culpa, your podcast, is 25 substantially focused on President Trump?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2377

1 A Can you define "substantially?"
2 Q Sure. Earlier we read a transcript of your words where
3 you say that you speak about President Donald Trump every 4 episode of your podcast; is that correct?
5 A I said that.
6 Q Okay. Do you speak about Donald Trump every day that
7 you have a podcast? Does it always mention President Trump?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Thank you.
10 And you authored two books that discuss and are 11 primarily focused on President Trump. Isn't that correct?
12 A No.
13 Q No? Okay.
14 MS. FAHERTY: Is that a question?
15 Q Mr. Cohen, is this one of your books?
16 A Yes.
17 Q I'm holding up "Revenge." Do you read that the cover
18 says "Donald Trump" on it? Is his name on the cover?
19 A It is.
20 Q Thank you.
21 Did you write another book called "Disloyal?"
22 A I did.
23 Q Does that also reference Donald J. Trump on the cover?
24 A It does.
25 Q And it does that because you make money off President

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2378

1 Trump. Isn't that correct, Mr. Cohen?
2 A I made money off the story.
3 Q And who is the story about?
4 A "Revenge" is about me.
5 Q You're -- I'm not done with my question.
6 A Sorry.
7 Q Who is the story about, Mr. Cohen?
8 A Which book?
9 Q Mr. Cohen, do you make money off President Trump's 10 name?
11 A Yes.
12 Q Thank you.
13 Did you receive an advance for "Disloyal?"
14 A No.
15 Q No?
16 A No.
17 Q Do you make money from "Disloyal?"
18 A Yes.
19 Q How much is in your best estimation have you derived
20 from your book "Disloyal?"
21 A I don't recall.
22 Q You don't recall how much money you made from your
23 book?
24 A No.
25 Q Do you put your income from your book on your returns,

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2379

1 your tax returns?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Do you know how much money you make annually,
4 Mr. Cohen?
5 A I do.
6 Q And how much is that?
7 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, Your Honor. It's -- it's 8 private. I'm not going into my --
9 THE COURT: I think in the abstract it's 10 irrelevant.
11 MS. HABBA: Okay.
12 Q Is your money from "Disloyal" on your returns?
13 A Yes.
14 Q Do you make income from "Disloyal," from selling the 15 book?
16 A Not anymore.
17 MS. FAHERTY: Asked and answered.
18 Q Do you make money from your other book?
19 A "Revenge?"
20 Q Yes.
21 A Yes.
22 Q Okay. Did you get an advance for that book?
23 A No.
24 Q No.
25 And you also have a podcast dedicated to discussing in

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2380

1 substantial part your criticism of President Trump; correct?
2 A No.
3 Q No. But you said yes when I asked you prior, isn't
4 that correct?
5 A No. You said it.
6 Q Okay. Let me pull up your words then, Mr. Cohen.
7 MS. HABBA: Can you please pull that back up again?
8 Q Do you remember I went through this Galicia testimony?
9 A I apologize. I thought you were asking about the 10 testimony, not about the Galicia. I really need you to be 11 specific what you're talking about. I'm very confused right
12 now.
13 Q When I asked you if you substantially discuss President
14 Trump on Mea Culpa, your podcast, is the answer yes or no?
15 A I said to you I speak about Mr. Trump. He is the 16 frontrunner of the Republican party and he's in the --
17 THE COURT: That more than answers the question.
18 Just answer the question.
19 Q How much income do you make from the podcast?
20 A Again, going into privacy. It's irrelevant.
21 THE COURT: Is there an objection by the Attorney
22 General?
23 MS. FAHERTY: I'll object, Your Honor.
24 A Thank you.
25 MR. KISE: What would the basis be?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2381

1 THE COURT: Relevance.
2 MS. FAHERTY: What is the relevance here? He has
3 admitted he made income.
4 THE COURT: Overruled.
5 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you.
6 THE COURT: I think there is a question of motive,
7 etc.
8 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
9 Q Please answer the question, Mr. Cohen.
10 A Which podcast?
11 Q Let me ask you a different question.
12 How many podcasts do you have?
13 A Two.
14 Q What are the names of your podcast?
15 A Mea Culpa.
16 Q Right.
17 A And the other one is a live YouTube.
18 Q Is the live YouTube?
19 A Called Political Beatdown.
20 Q It's called what?
21 A It's called Political Beatdown.
22 Q Political Beatdown.
23 And your affiliation with politics is because of my 24 client sitting right here, isn't that correct?
25 A No.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2382

1 Q Were you involved in politics before President Trump
2 became president?
3 A In 1987 and 1988 I worked for Congressman Joe Moglia.
4 I've also been on other finance committees with Alan Hevesi and
5 other politicians throughout the years.
6 Q Do you talk about them on the two podcasts that you
7 just mentioned, Mr. Cohen?
8 A They're not relevant right now.
9 Q That wasn't the question. Yes or no?
10 A The answer is no.
11 Q That's what I thought.
12 So then you don't talk about anybody but President
13 Trump when you're speaking about politics and that's how you
14 make your money, isn't it, Mr. Cohen?
15 THE COURT: Please no comments on the answers.
16 "That's what I thought." No. Just questions, answers.
17 MS. HABBA: Sure, Your Honor.
18 Q So you can't as you sit here today tell me how much
19 money you make off of the fact that you worked with President
20 Trump; correct?
21 A Correct.
22 Q But you make money off of President Trump; correct?
23 A Correct.
24 Q And you also sell merchandise off of President Trump,
25 don't you?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2383

1 A Yes.
2 Q And that makes you money, doesn't it, Mr. Cohen?
3 A It makes money.
4 Q Outside of your two podcasts or one YouTube as you
5 called it, your merchandise and your books, is there any other
6 form of income that is greater in your life personally?
7 A No.
8 Q Thank you.
9 MS. HABBA: Sorry to thank him. Not thank you.
10 THE COURT: Well, "thank you" is not so bad. It's 11 polite; "okay" is borderline. Anything else, no.
12 Q And you've also been invited on numerous media outlets
13 to discuss President Trump, isn't that correct?
14 A What time period are you referring to?
15 Q Since you started working for President Trump since you
16 -- he became the president you go on TV to discuss him
17 frequently, isn't that true?
18 A Yes.
19 Q And without stories or accusations about President
20 Trump you really don't have anything to sell, do you, Mr. Cohen?
21 A I'm sorry what? You don't have what?
22 MS. HABBA: Can we get a read back?
23 THE COURT: Anything to sell, but let's get a read
24 back.
25 THE WITNESS: Anything to sell?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2384

1 THE COURT: I believe those are the exact words,
2 but just -- we need a read back.
3 A I disagree.
4 THE COURT: Hold on. We're going to get a read
5 back. Sorry.
6 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the
7 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
8 THE WITNESS: I disagree.
9 Q Do you have a law license?
10 A Not anymore.
11 Q Your primary form of income is because you speak about
12 President Trump; correct?
13 A It's asked and answered already.
14 Q I'm asking you a question.
15 THE COURT: It was asked and answered, so -- and 16 there is an objection.
17 MS. HABBA: No problem, Your Honor. Let me
18 rephrase.
19 Q The more outrageous your stories are about President
20 Trump the more money you make. Is that accurate, Mr. Cohen?
21 A No.
22 Q If you didn't work for President Trump you wouldn't 23 make most of your income today. Isn't that true, Mr. Cohen?
24 A No.
25 Q But prior you stated that the majority of your income

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2385

1 is from talking about President Trump; correct? Yes or no?
2 A Again, you're not providing the time frame. You keep
3 going back and forth. Currently that is a correct answer.
4 Previously you're assuming that I can go back in time when I had 5 multiple real estate buildings and other assets before my 6 five-year scenario that's been taking place, so I don't
7 understand your question. There is no beginning, there is no
8 end to it.
9 Q Because you wouldn't give me -- let me look at last
10 year's tax return.
11 Last year you filed a tax return; correct?
12 A Correct.
13 Q Okay. That tax return had your income on it, we hope;
14 correct?
15 A Correct.
16 Q Okay. And allegedly you had put all of your income on 17 that return; correct?
18 A Correct.
19 Q Okay. You had most of the income on that return
20 because of President Trump; correct?
21 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, can we move this -- can
22 we move this along? I do think the questions are a bit
23 muddled, "because of President Trump."
24 We've established he has made money in connection
25 with the work he's performed related to President Trump or

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2386 1 Mr. Trump. The time period is a bit confusing. I 2 appreciate the point we're trying to make. It's a bit 3 belabored. I'm just noting my objection to how cumulative 4 this is getting. 5 MS. HABBA: All due respect, Your Honor, it's 6 because I'm not getting a yes-or-no answer to a very simple 7 question. 8 MR. KISE: Your Honor, I don't know -- now who is 9 giving the speeches? But yes, all we're trying to get at is 10 a simple answer to a simple question. He's already 11 testified that the majority, I think, it's not clear, that 12 the majority of his current income comes from his activities 13 associated with harassing, trashing, talking about everyone, 14 you know, President Trump. So he can affirm that if it was 15 -- the question was confined to his last year's tax return 16 did most of your income come from your activities associated 17 with harassing, trashing, talking about, podcasting about, 18 whatever it's called on the Internet, about President Trump. 19 That's it. It goes to motive, it goes to bias. 20 THE COURT: Maybe we can compromise here. 21 Ms. Habba, would you rather the question be last 22 year's tax return or would it be now? And then the rest of 23 it will basically be is it true that the majority of your 24 income, last year's tax return or not, is based on 25 commentary on Donald J. Trump?	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2388 1 directive not to about anything specific. 2 Q So is it your testimony that you have not promoted you 3 being here in court today? 4 MS. FAHERTY: Objection. Promoted? 5 A I don't understand. 6 MS. HABBA: I'll pull up an exhibit. 7 Q Is it your testimony that you have not been promoting 8 the fact that you're coming here to testify against Donald Trump 9 for the Attorney General? 10 A I have tweeted about that, yes. 11 THE COURT: I'll allow that. 12 Q You tweeted about it and you discussed it on your 13 podcast; correct? 14 A I have. 15 Q And during interviews on TV; correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And you've even stated that you intend on holding a 18 press conference after your testimony today is finished, isn't 19 that correct? 20 A I don't recall that. 21 MS. HABBA: Can we please pull up his tweet from 22 October 15th? 23 Q Mr. Cohen, we've already established that your Twitter 24 account is @MichaelCohen212; correct? 25 A Correct.
M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2387 1 MS. HABBA: That's perfectly said, Your Honor. 2 I'll adopt that question, if I may. 3 THE COURT: Do you want the tax return or now? 4 MS. HABBA: Now. 5 THE COURT: Okay. Do you understand the question? 6 THE WITNESS: I understand the question. It's -- 7 the issue I have is when you say "is the majority." I speak 8 about all politicians. It's not just Mr. Trump. I speak 9 about Mark Meadows, I speak about everything that's going 10 on. I speak about Israel. I speak about many things. 11 THE COURT: Okay. Next question. 12 Q But your testimony was today that in every podcast no 13 matter who you're speaking about, Mark Meadows, no matter if 14 you're speaking about -- 15 THE COURT: Wait. Before you establish that yes, 16 he said every podcast these days he mentions Donald Trump. 17 MS. HABBA: Okay, Your Honor. 18 THE COURT: And along with what Ms. Faherty was 19 saying, I think we can move on at this point. He makes 20 money off his comments, his prior relationship to 21 Donald J. Trump. 22 Q And are you promoting your testimony here today, 23 Mr. Cohen? 24 A Am I promoting it? I will retweet something. I will 25 say I am at the trial, but I am not tweeting as per the judge's	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2389 1 Q And do you see that on October 15, 2023 at 8:10 p m. 2 somebody stated -- just for their privacy I'm not going to read 3 it in -- "I can't wait to see the reaction of all the haters of 4 when you do testify... hold a press conference at the end of 5 your last day, if you can." And there are two emojis there. 6 And your response was: "I can and I will." 7 Do you see that, Mr. Cohen? 8 A I see that. 9 Q Are you going to speak to the -- 10 THE COURT: Hold on one second. 11 MS. FAHERTY: Again, I'm going to launch my 12 objection to what is clearly hearsay evidence. Ms. Habba -- 13 THE COURT: Overruled. Let's move on. 14 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor. 15 Your Honor, I'm just going to state that clearly 16 she is trying to throw me off by continuously interrupting 17 me. I would like to just continue or we're going to be here 18 all day. 19 MS. FAHERTY: And I would just ask to strike the 20 portion of the tweet that is put in front of this witness. 21 That is not his. That is not here, cannot provide any 22 testimony as to the statements asserted therein. Move to 23 strike that from the record. It is hearsay, Your Honor. 24 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, that is absurd. Mr. Cohen 25 is giving a statement without the underlying statement which

1 is not for the truth of the matter asserted. He's
2 responding to it. So if Ms. Habba would not have put in the 3 bottom part, the objection would have been "it's incomplete,
4 we don't know what Mr. Cohen is saying, I can and I will."
5 This is completely admissible and it should be admitted
6 without objection.
7 MS. HABBA: And it's for impeachment purposes, Your
8 Honor.
9 MS. FAHERTY: Again, she read into the record the 10 out-of-court statements of another person and as to Michael
11 Cohen's statements that is on the screen, you have admitted
12 it, you have overruled as to Michael Cohen's statement. I
13 accept that ruling by the Court, but as to Ms. Habba reading
14 into the record third party out-of-court statements, I ask
15 that they be stricken from the record.
16 THE COURT: Well, you know, it's always funny you
17 want to strike it from the record. It's only 200 people out
18 there that have heard it.
19 Well, what if we agree, for whatever it's worth,
20 that the only admissible aspects are starting with dot, dot,
21 dot, hold a press conference, etc., I can and I will. I
22 find that admissible. We will take out "I can't wait to see
23 the reaction of all the haters when you do testify."
24 MS. FAHERTY: Over my objection, but I understand.
25 THE COURT: Okay. It's in evidence other than the

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2391

1 first part.
2 Q Mr. Cohen, are you going to speak to the press outside
3 after today?
4 A I don't know yet. You're asking me to --
5 THE COURT: The answer was "I don't know yet."
6 MS. HABBA: Okay.
7 Q Mr. Cohen, after I deposed you on other matters, did
8 you go outside and speak to the press?
9 A I did.
10 Q And sometimes when I deposed you on other matters you
11 had speeches prepared before you walked into your deposition,
12 isn't that correct?
13 A That's not correct.
14 Q That's not correct?
15 A No.
16 Q Did you speak to the press before I deposed you on the 17 Galicia matter?
18 A Yes.
19 Q Did you speak to the press when I deposed you on this
20 matter?
21 A As did you.
22 Q That wasn't my question.
23 THE COURT: Just answer the question, please. Did
24 you speak to the press?
25 THE WITNESS: Did I speak to the press, yes, I

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2392

1 spoke to the press.
2 Q President Trump makes you relevant, doesn't he,
3 Mr. Cohen?
4 A I think the circumstances make me relevant.
5 Q The circumstances that you used to work for the 6 President of the United States who is the single most famous
7 presidential candidate in this world, you speak about him every
8 day because it makes you money, isn't that correct?
9 THE COURT: I thought we were moving on from this
10 point.
11 MS. HABBA: Well, he's backtracking, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: I didn't notice any backtracking.
13 MS. HABBA: I'll keep going.
14 MS. FAHERTY: Can we please stop with the 15 characterizations, Your Honor, please?
16 THE COURT: I didn't find anything objectionable
17 there.
18 Q Mr. Cohen --
19 THE COURT: Except I didn't notice any
20 backtracking. Sorry. Let's just move ahead. The record
21 says what it says.
22 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
23 Q Mr. Cohen, do you sell advertisement spots?
24 A Yes, there are advertisements in the podcast.
25 Q Do you sell the advertisement spots?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2393

1 A I don't sell them, no.
2 Q Do you make money from advertising?
3 A Good question. Yes.
4 Q And the more advertisements you sell, the more money
5 you make; correct?
6 A That's how it works.
7 Q Is that a yes, Mr. Cohen?
8 A That's a yes.
9 Q Mr. Cohen, would you disagree with the fact that the 10 only reason you are relevant in the public eye is because of 11 President Trump?
12 A No.
13 Q You take every opportunity to criticize President Trump
14 and discuss the latest Trump-related news, don't you?
15 A Along with CNN, MSNBC, Fox, ABC, CBS, NBC. He's 16 relevant in the news and that's what my podcast discusses.
17 Q You're right. President Trump is relevant in the news
18 and President Trump makes money for the news, doesn't he,
19 Mr. Cohen?
20 A I don't understand your question, "Mr. Trump makes 21 money for the news?"
22 Q Well, you sell advertising, right?
23 A For me.
24 Q Do news media sell --
25 THE WITNESS: I'm so sorry, Your Honor. I don't

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) Page 2394

1 understand. I apologize. I'm confused by your question.
2 THE COURT: Let's start again. Withdrawn,
3 whatever.
4 MS. HABBA: Sure. Let's keep going and I'll
5 continue.
6 THE COURT: And move on to another topic as soon as 7 possible.
8 MS. HABBA: I can ask it in one simple question.
9 Q Mr. Cohen, you have financial incentive to criticize
10 President Trump; correct? Yes or no, please?
11 A Yes.
12 Q Thank you.
13 But Mr. Cohen, you never used to speak like that, did
14 you?
15 THE COURT: Sustained. I don't know what the 16 context is. Speak like that what?
17 MS. HABBA: I'll just ask the questions.
18 Q Mr. Cohen, do you remember in 2015 telling Politico:
19 "The fact is Mr. Trump has built a 10 billion plus empire,
20 employs thousands of people, has worked with many leaders around
21 the globe successfully and is considered one of the best
22 negotiators in history, these are all qualifications essential 23 to being a great president." Do you recall saying that?
24 A I think we already went through this.
25 Q Yes or no? Yes or no?

Page 2395

1 A It's been asked and answered.
2 THE COURT: I don't think that particular quote was
3 -- it was?
4 MS. FAHERTY: I think so, Your Honor.
5 MR. KISE: Is the witness now objecting? This is a
6 new level of low, even for Michael Cohen.
7 MS. FAHERTY: Again, if we could --
8 THE COURT: Sustained, sustained.
9 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2396

1 Q Mr. Cohen, did you state on January 2017, "President
2 Elect Trump has always stated how much he loves what he does.
3 Anyone who spends more than four decades building a $10 billion
4 empire would clearly be sentimental about relinquishing
5 control," said Michael Cohen, executive VP of the Trump
6 Organization. "However," you said, "President Elect Trump has 7 also stated that there is nothing more important to him than 8 fixing the mistakes made by the previous administration and 9 making America great again."
10 Did you say that, Mr. Cohen?
11 A I believe those are my words.
12 Q Do you need me to refresh your recollection?
13 A No. I'm looking at what it is that you put up on the 14 screen.
15 Q So is that a yes?
16 A I believe those are my words, yes.
17 Q Is that a quote with your name on it, Mr. Cohen?
18 A Yes. And this is from 2015 again?
19 Q This is from January 3, 2017, CNN.
20 A 2017, yes.
21 Q Do you recognize that as your words?
22 A Yes, it seems like it could be my words.
23 MS. HABBA: I would like to move into evidence this 24 quote.
25 I don't have the number, Peter. Do you have it?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2397

1 987.
2 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I'm just re-asserting the
3 same objection I've had. In fact, I don't even know what
4 this document is. There's not even a title. There's not
5 even an author. I don't know who wrote it. There's been no
6 foundation laid other than there was a statement that at 7 some point was captured by someone in this article. If it
8 is as to that one statement, no objections since Mr. Cohen
9 has testified that those were his words. Otherwise, the 10 objection remains as to the admission of this document.
11 THE COURT: You don't want -- you don't want the 12 document in, but the words that have been read and he said,
13 "Yes, I could have said that," whatever -- can we just --
14 MS. HABBA: I could lay the foundation and clear
15 this up, if you'd like. I don't really -- I mean, it is 16 for impeachment purposes, number one. I asked him if he 17 said it. He said he didn't recollect, so I brought it up
18 and now he recognizes that he brought -- he said it, so I'm 19 moving it into evidence.
20 I'm not sure -- we're really going to be here all
21 day, Ms. Faherty if this is what we are going to keep doing.
22 It is a CNN article. Look at it. Here is the website. I
23 don't even need the whole article in. I just asked Mr.
24 Cohen if he said what he said and now he said, "yes."
25 THE COURT: So, then, we don't need the article.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2398

1 THE FOREPERSON: And we don't need --
2 MS. HABBA: I won't move it.
3 Q Thank you for acknowledging you said it. Moving on, "I
4 worked for Mr. Trump now for a long "-- "long time," you said.
5 I can tell you that Mr. Trump's memory is fantastic and I never 6 come in a situation where Mr. Trump has said something that is 7 not accurate."
8 Do you recall saying that in an interview with CNN on 9 November 30, 2015, Mr. Cohen?
10 A Can you provide me with a document?
11 Q Sure. I will provide you with a document.
12 MS. HABBA: Can we, please, zoom out first.
13 Q Do you see the website on the bottom of this document?
14 Do you see that it says, "cnn.com?" I'm not going to read it
15 all in, but do you see that?
16 A I do.
17 Q It is from the CNN website?
18 A Yes.
19 Q Okay. Do you see that there is a title, "Trump lawyer:
20 Never known him to say something inaccurate."
21 Do you see that on the top, on the top? Do you see
22 that?
23 MS. FAHERTY: No.
24 Q No. Do you see on the top of the page that it says --
25 A Yes, I see it.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2399

1 Q Thank you.
2 MS. HABBA: Can you, please, go to his quote.
3 Q Does this appear to be from the website from CNN?
4 A It appears to be, yes.
5 Q Okay. Do you recall saying, "I'm not so sure that
6 that's true and I've worked for Mr. Trump for" "now for a long
7 time," Cohen said. "I can tell you that Mr. Trump's memory is 8 fantastic and I've never come in a situation where Mr. Trump has 9 said something that is not accurate."
10 Is that in quotations, Mr. Cohen?
11 A That's in quote.
12 Q And you understand the press, don't you, Mr. Cohen?
13 A I do.
14 Q And if you don't speak on the record, the press can't 15 put you in quotes and relate it to your name. Isn't that true,
16 Mr. Cohen?
17 A For the most part, yes.
18 Q In fact, you used to record yourself speaking well
19 about the president to the press sometimes, didn't you, Mr.
20 Cohen?
21 A I don't understand your question.
22 Q How often did you speak to the press when you worked
23 for President Trump?
24 A Every day.
25 Q So you know that they would never put that in quotes

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2400

1 unless you said it was on the record, correct, or forgot to say
2 that it wasn't? Isn't that how it works?
3 A Yes, that's how it works.
4 Q Is that your quote, Mr. Cohen?
5 A That would be my quote.
6 Q Okay. Thank you. I don't need it into evidence. So
7 I'm not going to, but you know what. Actually, let's move it
8 into evidence. We laid the foundation anyway. I'd like to move
9 that into evidence, CNN article dated November 30, 2015.
10 MS. FAHERTY: Same objection and -- same
11 objection, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
13 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
14 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
15 Plaintiff's Exhibit 987.)
16 Q April 15, 2011, you interviewed with ABC News and said,
17 "It's very, very surreal. I've been admiring Donald Trump since 18 I was in high school."
19 Do you remember saying that?
20 A You are going, again, have to refresh my memory.
21 Q Sure.
22 MS. HABBA: Pull it up, please.
23 Q Mr. Cohen?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Do you see the website on the top of this screen?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2401

1 A Yes.
2 Q It says, "The wayback machine." You see ABC News on
3 the top right?
4 A I do.
5 Q Okay.
6 MS. HABBA: Can you get out, please zoom out. Can
7 you put in his quote and blow it up.
8 Q Do you see that, again, in quotations, it has the quote
9 that I just read? It says, "Cohen told ABC News "and then it
10 states, "I've been admiring Donald Trump since I was in high
11 school. He said that when he was a young man, he read Trump's 12 1987 book, "The Art of the Deal" cover to cover twice." Isn't
13 that correct?
14 A Yes.
15 Q Do you doubt that those are your words, Mr. Cohen?
16 A No.
17 Q Did you read "The Art of the Deal" twice when you were 18 in high school?
19 A No.
20 Q So were you lying?
21 A No. I read it twice when I was in college.
22 Q Oh, okay. In college. I got it. So you read, "The 23 Art of the Deal" twice in college, right?
24 A I just answered that.
25 Q But that was before you worked for President Trump,

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2402

1 correct?
2 A Correct.
3 Q Did you admire President Trump in college?
4 A I did.
5 Q Okay. Let's move on. Do you recall saying, "That's
6 what people want to see, authenticity. I mean, who's smarter
7 than Donald Trump. He's the greatest negotiator on the planet.
8 He is presidential." You said that on Sean Hannity on August 4,
9 2015. Do you recall that?
10 A I recall that.
11 Q Do you recall that you also said on Sean Hannity on 12 July 21, 2016, "I know Mr. Trump. I've stood by him shoulder to 13 shoulder for the past decade. I've seen him in action. He 14 knows how to build things. He knows how to fix things. He 15 knows how to make them better. He knows people. He loves
16 people. He said it himself. He's able to relate to the 17 plumber, to the electrician, to the laborer because that's what 18 his father Fred taught him and he learned values and that's 19 something that a lot of politicians, specifically Hillary, does 20 not have, is values."
21 Do you remember saying that to Sean Hannity?
22 A If you can show me. It sounds correct.
23 Q Sure?
24 A But I don't recall that that's exactly what I said.
25 Q Sure. We can show you.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2403

1 MS. HABBA: Can you pull it up? Is it a video?
2 We're having some technical issues.
3 A I'll tell you what. I'll acknowledge.
4 Q No, I don't want you to do that, Mr. Cohen.
5 A I will acknowledge that I did, so we can move this 6 thing faster.
7 Q Did you say to Vanity Fair on September 26, 2017, "I'm
8 the guy who protects the president and the family. I'm the guy
9 who would take the bullet for the president." Did you say that?
10 A Yes.
11 Q Did you say to Hannity on March 20, 2017, "I think he's 12 a wonderful man. I think he's going to be an amazing president.
13 The family is just, you know, fantastic." Do you remember
14 saying that?
15 A I don't remember saying that.
16 MR. HABBA: Do we have that one? Thank you.
17 Q Do you see this is Fox News article dated March 20, 18 2017?
19 A I will remain the personal attorney to Trump?
20 Q That's right. That's what the title is. That wasn't 21 my question. The question is, is this dated March 20, 2017 from 22 Fox News?
23 A That's what it says.
24 Q Great.
25 THE COURT: Please, no comments on the answer.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2404

1 MS. HABBA: Sorry.
2 Can you blow up the portion, please. Thank you.
3 Q Can you read that to yourself, so I don't have to read
4 it again.
5 (Witness reviewing document.)
6 Q Do you recall now saying what I read, "I think he's a
7 wonderful man. I think he's going to be an amazing president.
8 The family is just, you know, fantastic." Do you remember
9 saying that now?
10 A I have said that.
11 Q Thank you.
12 Do you remember on April 15, 2011 in an interview with 13 ABC News saying, "I think the world of him. I respect him as a 14 businessman and I respect him as a boss." Do you remember saying
15 that?
16 A Where are you reading from?
17 Q It's not here. I'm asking you.
18 A From where?
19 Q ABC News, April 15, 2011.
20 A Again, I'll need to see something to refresh my memory.
21 Q Sure. Let me ask you. I'm going to move this along.
22 Would it surprise you to hear that you said to Reuters on 23 August 28, 2015, "Trump's lawyer, Michael Cohen, said Trump's 24 record of success was proof positive of Mr. Trump's character
25 and capabilities." Is that something you would say, Mr. Cohen?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2405

1 A Yes.
2 Q Do you believe or have any reason not to believe that
3 you said that to Reuters on August 28, 2015?
4 A I don't know. I'd have to see the document.
5 Q Okay. We can pull it up. This is an article from 6 Reuters. You see that dated August 28, 2015 and the title is,
7 "Best President ever. How Trump's love of hyperbole could 8 backfire." Do you see this?
9 A I do.
10 Q Can you, please, pull up his quote. "Trump's lawyer,
11 Michael Cohen, said Trump's record of success was proof positive 12 of Mr. Trump's character and capabilities." You see that?
13 A I do.
14 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, didn't we do this before?
15 I thought I quoted from the below line, "For Trump,
16 exaggerating has always been a frequent impulse, especially
17 when the value of his trump brand is disputed." Can we move
18 it along? I thought we did this already.
19 THE COURT: I believe we saw that, character and 20 capabilities.
21 MS. HABBA: Did we see this one?
22 MS. FAHERTY: We saw that.
23 MS. HABBA: Okay. We'll move on.
24 THE COURT: Ms. Habba, how much longer will we hear
25 this sort of -- these statements?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2406

1 MS. HABBA: I have a ton, Your Honor, but I can
2 move it along.
3 THE COURT: Okay. --
4 MS. HABBA: Let me try --
5 THE COURT: They're getting cumulative.
6 MS. HABBA: Sure. Give me a moment. I will move
7 it along.
8 Q Do you recall speaking to HuffPost and saying to them
9 that "He is worth a lot, substantially more than what's recorded
10 in Forbes. They don't take into account the value of the Trump
11 brand, of the mark, one of the most valuable marks that's ever
12 been created. He has very little debt, AAA assets." Do you
13 remember saying that on April 22, 2011?
14 A I would need to see the document.
15 Q Okay. Do you have any reason to believe -- I'm going
16 to try to move it along for the tech people.
17 Do you have any reason to believe that if they quoted
18 you as saying that, that you didn't say it? Do you have any 19 reason --
20 A Sorry. That's 2011?
21 Q Yes.
22 A Yes.
23 THE COURT: Yes meaning --
24 THE WITNESS: That I probably said it.
25 THE COURT: Okay.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2407

1 MS. HABBA: Okay. This will be my last one, Your
2 Honor.
3 Q And in July 31, 2014, The Associated Press quoted you
4 as saying "Mr. Trump's significant wealth, name, recognition and
5 real estate knowledge makes him a viable option." Do you recall
6 saying that?
7 A Again, I need to see the document.
8 MS. HABBA: Can we pull up the AP document, please.
9 Do we have it?
10 I was moving very quickly, so I feel for my tech
11 team right now. I'm not going to admit it into evidence.
12 Q Mr. Cohen, would you doubt if the Associated Press
13 quoted you, put your words in quotes, that that was something
14 you said on the record?
15 A It's possible.
16 Q Do you believe the AP would do that without --
17 A Again, I don't know. I haven't seen the document.
18 Q Okay. Let's move on. Mr. Cohen, you testified under 19 oath in your April 28, 2023 deposition that Mr. Trump tasked you
20 and Mr. Allen Weisselberg with inflating the numbers on the 21 Statement of Financial Condition to reach a certain
22 pre-determined number for his net worth, correct?
23 A Correct.
24 Q But Mr. Cohen, in February of 2019, just two years
25 after leaving the Trump Organization, you testified under oath,

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2408

1 the same oath that you're under now, the same oath that you were
2 under at your deposition, and the same oath that you were under
3 when you spoke to Judge Pauley, you said to the Permanent Select
4 Committee that you couldn't recall President Trump ever asking
5 you to inflate the numbers in his Statement of Financial
6 Condition. Do you remember that?
7 A I don't.
8 MS. HABBA: Let's pull it up.
9 Q Mr. Cohen, do you see this document? Please go to the 10 front page. Does it say, "Executive Session Permanent Select 11 Committee on Intelligence U.S. House of Representatives in 12 Washington DC?"
13 A Yes, it does.
14 Q It does? Does it say that you were deposed?
15 A It says, "deposition of Michael Cohen."
16 Q Were you deposed?
17 A I was.
18 Q Were you deposed on Thursday, February 28, 2019?
19 A That's what it says.
20 Q Okay. At -- commencing at 9:35 a.m.?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And you can see who was present there, correct?
23 A Correct.
24 Q Do you remember this?
25 A I do.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2409

1 MS. HABBA: Can you, please, pull up 92:6.
2 "QUESTION: Did Mr. Trump direct you or Mr.
3 Weisselberg to inflate the numbers on his personal
4 statement?"
5 Your answer, "I'm sorry." Did he ask me to inflate
6 the numbers?"
7 And what do you say, Mr. Cohen?
8 A I stated, "not that I recall."
9 Q Not that I recall. That's not all you said.
10 A No.
11 Q No. Those are your words, correct?
12 A Those are my words.
13 Q And did you say -- you don't dispute that that was 14 you, correct, in front of the committee two years after you left
15 the Trump Organization?
16 A I already stated that's my deposition.
17 Q So Mr. Cohen, as you sit here today, are you telling me
18 the truth and the Attorney General the truth or were you telling 19 the truth then?
20 A I was in the camp of Donald Trump --
21 Q Yes or no? It was two years after you stopped
22 working --
23 A You didn't ask me a yes-or-no question.
24 Q Yes, I did.
25 A No, you didn't.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA) Page 2410

1 Q Okay, Mr. Cohen.
2 MS. HABBA: Can we, please, get a readback of my
3 original statement, question?
4 THE COURT: It wasn't yes or no, but it was 5 either/or.
6 THE WITNESS: So, please, allow me to answer.
7 MR. HABBA: Let me rephrase my question, Your
8 Honor.
9 THE COURT: Okay.
10 THE WITNESS: Can I not answer the question that's 11 in front of me?
12 MS. HABBA: Withdrawn.
13 THE COURT: Her question is withdrawn.
14 MS. HABBA: Question is withdrawn. I'm going to 15 rephrase my question.
16 Q Mr. Cohen, were you being honest in front of the 17 Permanent Select Committee when you testified on February 28,
18 2019?
19 A No.
20 Q So you lied under oath in February of 2019? Is that 21 your testimony?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Mr. Cohen, I just have one more question, maybe two.
24 Did you ever ask President Trump to pardon you while he 25 was in the White House?

Page 2411

1 A No.
2 Q He didn't pardon you, did he, Mr. Cohen?
3 A No.
4 MS. HABBA: Thank you. I'm done.
5 THE COURT: Well, we have about eight or nine more
6 minutes. Re-direct?
7 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, I have cross-examination.
8 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry.
9 MR. ROBERT: I think it may make sense to take the 10 lunch break now, so we can work out the mechanics of the 11 microphone and we can start at 2:15.
12 MR. KISE: We may be able to streamline it as well.
13 MR. ROBERT: Yes. I will be as brief as I can.
14 THE COURT: So I'm breaking until 2:15, everybody.
15 Thank you.
16 (Whereupon, a luncheon recess was taken.)

2 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
3 session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding.
4 Make sure all cell phones are on silent. Laptops and cell
5 phones will be permitted, but only to members of the press.
6 There is absolutely no recording or photography of any kind
7 allowed in the courtroom. Now be seated and come to order.
8 THE COURT: Well, at least my microphone is working
9 this time.
10 I want to resume the discussion about what happened
11 this morning when Defendant, Donald J. Trump, apparently 12 made a statement to the press referring to "the person next 13 to me," and I'll pick up where I left off.
14 Mr. Kise I believe said on behalf of Defendant
15 Trump, I'll call him, that he was referring to Michael Cohen
16 when he said what he said about the "partisan democrat,"
17 etc.; is that correct?
18 MR. KISE: Yes.
19 THE COURT: I'm going to hold a hearing right now
20 about that.
21 MR. KISE: Okay.
22 THE COURT: And I'll have as my -- as the first
23 witness, Defendant Donald J. Trump.
24 Mr. Trump, would you like to be on the witness
25 stand to testify? Come on up.

1 THE COURT OFFICER: Please raise your right hand.
2 Do you solemnly swear or affirm any testimony you give will
3 be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?
4 THE WITNESS: I do.
5 THE COURT OFFICER: You may have a seat.
6 Please state your name and either home or business
7 address on the record.
8 THE WITNESS: Donald John Trump, New York, the
9 Trump Organization.
10 THE COURT: Mr. Trump, did you say out in the 11 hallway this morning, "This judge is a very partisan judge
12 with a person who is very partisan sitting alongside of him, 13 perhaps even much more partisan than he is?"
14 THE WITNESS: Yes.
15 THE COURT: To whom were you referring when you
16 said "the person sitting alongside of him?"
17 THE WITNESS: You and Cohen.
18 THE COURT: Are you sure that you didn't mean the 19 person on the other side of me, my principal law clerk?
20 THE WITNESS: Yes, I am sure.
21 THE COURT: Have you in the past referred to her,
22 my principal law clerk, as partisan, and/or partisan
23 Democrat?
24 THE WITNESS: Maybe unfair. I think she is very 25 biased against us. I think we've made that clear. We put

1 up the picture and you didn't want that up. I think they 2 got it off her website, however, so we didn't necessarily 3 agree, but -- and we did take it down, Your Honor, but we 4 have so many different sides and I believe -- and I may be 5 wrong on this, but I believe it was one of the political 6 groups or one of the pacts that had it up or left it up, but 7 I didn't knowingly do that. 8 THE COURT: Well, I'm more interested right now in 9 -- to whom you were referring as you can see and as everyone 10 can see, first of all, my principal law clerk is very close 11 to me. In fact, Ms. Habba would refer to the notes back and 12 forth and even the conversations, but you and I, we can see 13 each other and we're close, but not as close clearly and 14 there is a barrier between us. So wouldn't that be at best 15 somewhat ambiguous as to whom you are referring? Have you 16 also -- have you -- I know I'm doing a compound question 17 here. 18 MR. KISE: I was going to say am I allowed to 19 object to the question? 20 THE COURT: Sure, it's a hearing. 21 Don't you always refer to Michael Cohen as Michael 22 Cohen? 23 THE WITNESS: No. 24 MR. KISE: Many things, even worse than that. 25 MS. HABBA: Yes, Your Honor. I can confirm that,		1 don't think any of us want to go that you presupposed some 2 ill motive on behalf of the only witness. I think that's a 3 dangerous place to go, not just for the sanction, but also 4 for the whole trial. I do think there is clear separation 5 between the two. 6 I mean, the President was talking about the witness 7 on the stand. I mean, we can all agree we have different 8 views about whether it's next to you or next to you with a 9 barrier, but he's next to you. I also think that there is 10 -- respectfully, I think there is considerable tension 11 caused by at least -- and I'll let Mr. Robert speak to this. 12 It is unusual in my experience to have a law secretary, a 13 law clerk sit on the bench. I will say that. And so I 14 think that may have created some of the confusion. 15 Ordinarily, in my experience, law clerks are in, 16 you know, not sitting right next to the judge on the bench, 17 but in the morning where we have a principal witness on the 18 stand who has lied, lied, lied and as I said earlier this 19 morning, I'm not going to go back into that speech, but that 20 was the focal point of the examination today, that was the 21 focal point of the animus today, that was the focal point of 22 the questions today from the media today, so I just would 23 ask you to reconsider. 24 I mean, certainly I don't want to have to file, 25 frankly, yet another appeal and I just think if you want to,
Proceedings	Page 2415	Proceedings	Page 2417
1 much worse. 2 THE WITNESS: Much worse. 3 THE COURT: Would anybody else like to question the 4 witness, either from the defense or the Attorney General? 5 MR. KISE: No, Your Honor. 6 MS. HABBA: No, Your Honor. 7 THE COURT: The witness is excused. I have no 8 further questions. Thank you. 9 THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir. 10 (Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness 11 stand.) 12 THE COURT: Thank you. 13 As the trier of fact, I find that the witness is 14 not credible; that he was referring to my law clerk, who is 15 principal law clerk, who is sitting much closer to me, who 16 doesn't have a barrier, whom I believe has been accused by 17 the defendant of being partisan or Democrat or partisan 18 Democrat. I hereby fine you $10,000, which is on the low 19 side, to be paid within 30 days to the Lawyer's Fund for 20 Client Protection. 21 Would anybody like to say anything else? 22 MR. KISE: Your Honor, I would just object to that. 23 I mean, there is one witness on the stand, the only witness 24 on the stand. There is no evidence to the contrary other 25 than in your mind and I don't want to go to a place where I		1 again, warn the defendant about the responsibilities, but I 2 just don't think there is any clear record here. 3 And in order to impose sanctions generally the 4 record needs to be very clear. And see, that's what just 5 happened is kind of what is creating the issue is that like 6 I'm talking to you and the notes are being passed to you 7 about things and I think from a defendant standpoint, not 8 from a lawyer standpoint, from a defendant standpoint, that 9 creates an appearance that is uncomfortable and I think that 10 has created some of the confusion here. 11 But the President has testified that that's what he 12 said. That's what I told you before. I think that's a fair 13 interpretation of what's said and sanctions are not granted 14 when there is gray. Sanctions are reserved for situations 15 where it's a very clear situation. Last week, you exercised 16 your discretion. I didn't object to that discretion in 17 terms of what happened with the website. We explained it, I 18 gave you as much detail as the Court asked for and we have 19 since complied fully. "We" meaning the clients, have since 20 complied fully with the order. So I would just ask that we 21 don't create that -- another issue here because I think it 22 has further ramifications for the overall proceeding, 23 respectfully I do. 24 THE COURT: Just in response, I'll just say to me, 25 totally separate from the trial. I mean, if you wanted to

1 have ramifications you can have ramifications, but I don't. 2 Mr. Robert? 3 MR. ROBERT: So, Your Honor, I will speak from my 4 experience in New York State. It is incredibly unusual and, 5 quite frankly, in my experience, I've never seen a situation 6 where you're literally trying the case to two judges it 7 would appear whereas there are notes that are constantly 8 being passed, rulings that it would appear that the Court is 9 in consultation with the law secretary. I think it started 10 out less frequently. Now I would say it's almost with each 11 ruling. There is some concern on part of defendants as a 12 result of that. 13 I agree with Mr. Kise's statement about opposing 14 any imposition of sanctions in this case, but I do think 15 this is as good a time as any to express the defendant's 16 concern about what would appear to be the problem or the 17 challenge that we face and that we feel like we're trying 18 the case before two judges and sometimes you appear to be 19 leaning in one direction and then you'll either receive a 20 note or there will be an eye gesture or a roll of the face 21 and something changes and it is of significant concern to 22 us, not just during examination of witnesses by us, 23 examination by the Attorney General, but also in the general 24 presentation of our case here. So I just wanted to put that 25 on the record, sir.		1 is happening from the bench is completely inappropriate and 2 should stop. Thank you. 3 MR. KISE: Can I just say one more thing, Judge? 4 THE COURT: Sure. 5 MR. KISE: Thank you. I just want to go back to 6 where I began because the record on the sanction relates to 7 what happened outside. The testimony you received in the 8 courtroom and neither of those present a clear picture of 9 the supports and award of sanctions. It's clear that it's 10 fully subject to interpretation. I think the speaker has to 11 be taken at face value as to what he was talking about and 12 the entirety of the conversation related to the testimony as 13 it usually does when these press conferences occur. They 14 usually relate to what just happened in the courtroom and 15 what is happening in the courtroom is Michael Cohen. And so 16 that's top of line. Whether you and I or anyone else would 17 agree "next to you" means next to you on the left or next to 18 you on the right, you know, everyone has a different 19 interpretation of it and because of that I would say that 20 the President's interpretation is a fair interpretation. 21 It's what he meant. He's the speaker. There is nothing in 22 the record that would refute that, so I just again would 23 urge the Court to reconsider the judgment of sanctions 24 because there is just not a clear record here. 25 If you are concerned about future violations or a
1 THE COURT: Okay. 2 Ms. Habba? 3 MS. HABBA: I'd just like to say as I said this 4 morning, I'm going to reiterate something. I, myself, was a 5 law clerk. I never sat next to the judge. The judge would 6 actually never even allow me to come in front unless to 7 watch oral argument, but all discussions about the case were 8 when we were researching and deciding what the order can be. 9 I've never experienced this and I've been practicing law for 10 quite sometime now, unfortunately, for my age, but, Your 11 Honor, all due respect, I agree with the sentiments. 12 I also think that we have to remember that you made 13 your decision on this trial before we walked in regarding 14 liability and we've been sitting here like he said -- and, 15 frankly, I would like to add that I've been sitting here for 16 longer than both my cocounsel. I've been doing this with 17 you for now a few years from the Special Proceeding and now 18 the trial and I have had issues, numerous issues, and if 19 we're going to make a complete record with the treatment 20 that I've received from Ms. Greenfield from the bench, it is 21 inappropriate. I do not like having eyes rolled, I do not 22 like being yelled at by law clerks who did not earn the robe 23 and I think this is completely inappropriate. 24 And, quite honestly, Your Honor, with this 25 sanction, it only furthers my belief that the influence that		1 violation then that is within your province to direct 2 further the defendant or any of us for that matter, but I 3 would say this record does not support any sanction and I 4 would urge the Court to reconsider. 5 THE COURT: Let me address all the comments about 6 my consultations, I'll call them. I make the final 7 decisions. I value input from both of my law clerks. Every 8 judge does things differently. I don't know whether there 9 are other judges in this courtroom or city or country have 10 their law clerks sit up on the bench. That's how I do 11 things and I make the final decisions. 12 I guess I can't consult now, you know, and look 13 terrible, wouldn't it? So I won't. I am reconsidering. 14 I don't think I said this before, but the idea that 15 the statement would refer to the witness, you know, there is 16 somebody sitting up there alongside of him, that was a 17 partisan Democrat whatever, that doesn't make any sense to 18 me. 19 MR. KISE: I mean, it -- again, in context, it 20 certainly does, to me, given the circumstances and given the 21 obvious animus, the admitted animus on the witness stand 22 that Mr. Cohen has for my client. So, again, in context, I 23 just think it has to be taken that way. 24 If Your Honor would like to -- I know you want to 25 keep the schedule moving. If you want to take it under

1 advisement further and reconsider, I'll just leave that to 2 you, but I just would ask that you take time and reconsider 3 this. Thank you. 4 THE COURT: I've been thinking about it obviously 5 for quite a while now. 6 Ms. Habba? 7 MS. HABBA: The only factual thing I would like to 8 add is the questions that have been out and I have obviously 9 standing there have been related to Michael Cohen's 10 testimony as well as to political matters. That has been 11 the scope of their questions. 12 Ms. Greenfield was never in the front of mind or 13 even asked about. So for what it's worth, Your Honor, I 14 have not heard that, nor would he be responding to that. It 15 just doesn't make sense. 16 THE COURT: I just need a little technical 17 assistance. I want to see the exact quote again. I'm 18 quoting in part, "with a person who is very partisan sitting 19 alongside of him, perhaps even much more partisan than he 20 is." I think the three attorneys that just spoke you've 21 made my whole point. That's what he's worried about, that 22 there is sitting alongside of me who is consulting with me. 23 MR. KISE: Respectfully, I disagree with that. The 24 person that's sitting next to you this morning is way more 25 partisan than -- well, I'm not saying -- I'm going to leave		1 THE COURT: Can you hear him in the back? 2 Yes, I think so. The mic's picking up. 3 MR. ROBERT: And I'll speak louder. 4 So the housekeeping item was Defendant's 5 Exhibit 953, which was the December 12, 2018 transcript from 6 Judge Pauly and the Defendant's Exhibit 961, which was the 7 February 28, 2019 deposition transcript. Just want to make 8 sure those are in evidence and if not, to move them in now 9 just to make things run smoother and quicker this afternoon. 10 MS. FAHERTY: I think, Your Honor, I believe you 11 admitted 953 over my objection and the transcript for 961 is 12 the transcript for 961. I don't have a basis to object 13 here. 14 THE COURT: They're both in evidence. 15 MR. ROBERT: Thank you. 16 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. 17 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and 18 approaches the witness stand.) 19 THE COURT: I'll remind the witness he's still 20 under oath. 21 Let's proceed with the questioning. 22 CROSS EXAMINATION 23 BY MR. ROBERT: 24 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Cohen. 25 A Good afternoon.
1 that alone, but the witness is the one that's obviously 2 partisan. That's been the whole point of the cross 3 examination. That's been the whole point of the morning is 4 that he's partisan. He's a liar, he's biased, he makes 5 money off of -- again, you know, you heard my speech. 6 That's really the focal point. 7 THE COURT: I think that -- I would disagree. The 8 focal point was he's dishonest, not that he's some sort of 9 partisan democrat. 10 MR. KISE: Well, that, too. I'll take that. 11 THE COURT: I've reconsidered. The ruling stands. 12 You're fined $10,000. Don't do it again or it will be 13 worse. Let's get the witness in. 14 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, just a couple of 15 housekeeping things as we're waiting for the witness. 16 THE COURT: Sure. 17 MR. ROBERT: I just want to make sure Defendant's 18 Exhibit 953, which is the December 12, 2018 transcript and 19 Defendant's Exhibit 961, which was the February 28, 2019 20 transcript are in evidence. I don't -- 21 MR. KISE: Your microphone. 22 MR. ROBERT: Can you hear me? 23 MS. HABBA: Yes, but we can't hear him and I'm 24 sitting right here. 25 MR. ROBERT: Is this better? Can you hear he now?	Page 2423	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) 1 Q You took an oath yesterday before you took the stand, 2 did you not? 3 A I did. 4 Q And you promised to tell the truth, did you not? 5 A I did. 6 Q And you realize that if you don't tell the truth you're 7 committing a lie; correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And that's perjury; correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And you remember in times past you've also taken an 12 oath when you've testified; correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And you testified this morning that other times that 15 you've testified under oath you've testified falsely; correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And one of those times was in the Southern District of 18 New York; correct, sir? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And that's literally if we can see out the window next 21 door; correct? 22 A If you say so. 23 Q Well, it was in the Southern District of New York; 24 correct? 25 A Yes.	Page 2425

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) Page 2426

1 Q You had been indicted by the United States Attorney of
2 the Southern District of New York; correct?
3 A Yes.
4 Q And the criminal proceedings relating to that
5 indictment was in the Southern District of New York; correct?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And you remember appearing in court for those various
8 indictments; correct?
9 A Correct.
10 Q I think it was a total of, what was it, eight or nine
11 indictments that you faced?
12 A Initially eight and another one for the 1001 violation,
13 so nine.
14 Q So a total of nine indictments?
15 A Correct.
16 Q And the first indictments were heard before Judge
17 Pauly; correct?
18 A That's correct.
19 Q And the second one was heard before Judge Carter;
20 correct?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And would you agree with me, sir, that when a person is 23 charged with a serious felony, it's serious?
24 THE COURT: That's a tautology.
25 MR. ROBERT: It's like an Austin Powers question,

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) Page 2427

1 but I figured I'd try.
2 Q It's an important event in a person's life when they're
3 charged criminally; correct?
4 A Yes, it was.
5 Q Other than finding out they have cancer, it may be one
6 of the serious things that happens to a person. Would you agree
7 with me, sir?
8 A There are many things.
9 Q Yes or no?
10 A I don't agree with you, no.
11 Q So, sir, being indicted criminally -- withdrawn.
12 In your case was it serious that you were indicted
13 criminally?
14 A Yes.
15 Q You were facing jail; correct?
16 A Yes.
17 Q Prison?
18 A Yes.
19 Q You actually went to prison; right?
20 A Correct.
21 Q And as part of the process a person is arraigned;
22 correct?
23 A Correct.
24 Q And as it comes a point in time when a person is asked
25 whether they're guilty or not guilty?

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) Page 2428

1 A Correct.
2 Q And at first you pled that you were not guilty;
3 correct?
4 A I don't recall that, no.
5 Q Well, you don't recall originally entering an
6 appearance of not guilty and then later changing it to guilty?
7 A No.
8 Q Well, sir, can we agree that eventually you did plead
9 guilty?
10 A Yes.
11 Q And, sir, the process when you were -- withdrawn.
12 And the first set of indictments was before Judge
13 Pauly; correct?
14 A Yes.
15 MS. FAHERTY: Just to clarify, I think they were 16 counts on an indictment. I don't think it was multiple 17 indictments, just for clarity's sake.
18 Q So it was two indictments; one was for eight counts and 19 one was for one count. We understand each other?
20 A I understand.
21 MR. ROBERT: The witness and I get it, Ms. Faherty.
22 Thank you.
23 Q So it was a series of two indictments; correct, sir,
24 with nine counts?
25 A Yes.

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) Page 2429

1 Q And when you went to court one day it was determined
2 that you were going to plead guilty to those counts; correct?
3 A When I appeared in court?
4 Q Yes.
5 A Yes.
6 Q And you understood the importance when you were before
7 Judge Pauly of pleading guilty; correct?
8 A Yes.
9 Q And this was not where you walked into court and five
10 minutes later you walked out; right?
11 A Yes, it was.
12 Q So when you appeared on August 21, 2018 for your -- to 13 plead guilty, you'd say that was a five-minute appearance?
14 A Maybe not five minutes, but it wasn't all day.
15 Q I didn't ask you if it was all day.
16 A So yes, it was more than five minutes.
17 Q It was very extensive; right?
18 A Define "extensive."
19 THE COURT: Wait. Why don't you just ask him how 20 long it was.
21 MR. ROBERT: I'm going to get there, Your Honor.
22 Q Sir, during the course of that appearance before Judge
23 Pauly, Judge Pauly made various statements to you, did he not?
24 A He did.
25 Q Including he said to you, quote, "Mr. Cohen, do you

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) Page 2430

1 understand, sir, that you are now under oath and that if you
2 answer any of my questions falsely, your false or untrue answer
3 may later be used against you in another prosecution for perjury
4 or making a false statement." And you responded, "I do, Your 5 Honor." Do you remember that?
6 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I just want to note my
7 objection for the record, which was similarly raised earlier
8 this morning. If we are asking the witness to form legal 9 conclusions, that is entirely improper. I am noting my 10 objection, especially as we're throwing around the 11 slanderous buzzword "perjury" like we did earlier.
12 Reasserting myself, Your Honor.
13 MR. KISE: Your Honor --
14 THE COURT: Overruled.
15 Q Answer my question, sir.
16 A Can you repeat it?
17 MR. ROBERT: Could the court reporter repeat it?
18 THE COURT: Read back, please.
19 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the 20 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
21 A I do.
22 Q And do you further recall Judge Pauly saying to you,
23 quote, "My questions are intended to satisfy me that you wish to 24 plead guilty because you are guilty and that you fully 25 understand the consequences of your plea."

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) Page 2431

1 Do you remember that, sir?
2 A I do.
3 Q This was a serious day; correct?
4 A Yes.
5 Q And Judge Pauly took this incredibly seriously, did he
6 not?
7 A You're asking me to figure out what Judge Pauly
8 thought?
9 Q So you don't think Judge Pauly took the proceedings
10 seriously? You don't know?
11 A I'm not in a position --
12 MS. FAHERTY: Objection.
13 THE COURT: Sustained. Yes or no?
14 Q Did you take him seriously?
15 A Asked and answered, but yes.
16 Q What was asked and answered? Did you take him
17 seriously?
18 A Yes.
19 THE COURT: You did ask him that and he did answer
20 that.
21 Q And, sir, during the course of those proceedings Judge
22 Pauly asked you over 50 questions about the crimes that you are 23 about to plead guilty to, didn't he?
24 A I don't know the number.
25 Q Well, sir, I mean, I can spend the next two days going

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) Page 2432

1 through it, but in the document that's in evidence as
2 Defendant's Exhibit 951, Judge Pauly asks you over 50 questions.
3 Do you have a reason to quarrel with me when I say that?
4 A I don't.
5 Q And sir, you understood that Judge Pauly was asking you
6 those 50 questions because he needed to satisfy himself that you
7 were in fact guilty; correct?
8 A I don't know what Judge Pauly was thinking.
9 Q Well, it's not about what he's thinking. He said to 10 you while you were in court that day to plead guilty, quote:
11 "My questions are intended to satisfy me that you wish to plead
12 guilty because you are guilty and that you fully understand the 13 consequences of your plea." If you want to look, sir, it's on 14 page eight, lines one through five.
15 MS. FAHERTY: Is that a question?
16 MR. ROBERT: It is. I asked him -- we can have the 17 question read back, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: While he's looking, sidebar, please.
19 Sidebar or front bar I like to call it.
20 (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion is held at 21 the side bar.)
22 THE COURT: Read back of the last question, please.
23 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the
24 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
25 Q It's not about what you think Judge Pauly meant. He

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) Page 2433

1 explained to you why he was asking all those questions, did he
2 not?
3 A He did.
4 Q And in response to those questions, you lied to him;
5 true?
6 A That's true.
7 Q And then about a month or so later there are additional
8 charges that are brought against you; correct?
9 A That's correct.
10 Q And at that point you appear before Judge Carter;
11 correct?
12 A Correct.
13 Q And at that point you enter a guilty plea before Judge
14 Carter; correct?
15 A Correct.
16 Q And that was for you pleading guilty to lying to 17 Congress; correct?
18 A Correct.
19 Q And on that occasion Judge Carter asked you over 76
20 questions to satisfy him that you were guilty. Do you remember
21 that?
22 A I don't remember the number.
23 Q Well, do you remember that he asked you several 24 questions to satisfy himself that you were in fact guilty?
25 A Yes.

Page 2434

1 Q And at that point when you gave that testimony in the
2 Southern District of New York were you lying then?
3 A No.
4 Q So you lied to Judge Pauly on August 21st, but you
5 didn't lie to Judge Carter on November 29th. That's your 6 testimony here today?
7 A Yes.
8 Q Okay. And, sir, you were then subsequently sentenced a
9 few weeks later, were you not?
10 A Yes.
11 Q And that sentencing was on December 12, 2018; correct?
12 A Correct.

1 Q And you lied at your sentencing, didn't you?
2 A On?
3 Q First, sir, did you lie at your sentencing, yes or no?
4 A I don't know what you're referring to. I apologize.
5 Q Well, you don't remember that you were sentenced for
6 criminal conduct on December 12, 2018?
7 A I was sentenced.
8 Q You were sentenced to prison, correct?
9 A Correct.
10 Q And you don't know as you sit here today whether you
11 lied that day?
12 A At sentencing?
13 Q Correct.
14 A I -- I -- I don't know what you're even referring to.
15 Q It is not a question of what I'm referring to. I
16 promise you that we are going to get there, sir.
17 A I can't answer your question.
18 Q So you don't know as you sit here today whether you
19 lied to Judge Pauley at your sentencing, do you?
20 A Are you referring to when I took the -- when I
21 accepted the sentence?
22 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen, it is not --
23 THE WITNESS: I apologize. I'm just lost with the
24 question.
25 THE COURT: It seemed pretty straightforward to me.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. ROBERT) Page 2436

1 Did you lie at the sentencing hearing?
2 Q Correct?
3 THE COURT: And it is not a question of what he is 4 referring to. He's asking you a question. Did you lie at 5 the sentencing hearing?
6 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.
7 Q You don't recall whether you lied at your sentencing?
8 A I don't recall. I have no idea what you're talking
9 about.
10 Q The man that was deciding how much prison time you were
11 going to take and you don't remember if you lied? I don't know
12 who you keep looking at for an answer. Maybe you should look
13 up.
14 A I'm trying to understand your question.
15 MS. FAHERTY: Can we avoid the commentary, Your
16 Honor?
17 THE COURT: I thought it was understandable under 18 the circumstances.
19 What don't you understand? Did you lie at your 20 sentencing hearing? You know what a sentencing hearing is.
21 You know what a lie is.
22 A I stated I lied at the plea, but the sentencing, I
23 stood there and I received the sentence. There -- I don't
24 recall that there was much communication going back and forth
25 which is why I'm asking you to clarify your question.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. ROBERT) Page 2437

1 Q You don't remember making a statement under oath to
2 Judge Pauley on the day he was going to sentence you to take you
3 away from your family?
4 A Yes. Yes. Actually, I know what you are talking about
5 now.
6 Q Now, you remember?
7 A Yes, I do.
8 Q And you lied?
9 A I did.
10 Q So you lied when you pled guilty, right? We know the 11 answer already, but just tell me.
12 A Asked and answered. How many times are you going to 13 ask me the same question.
14 Q I know you think you're a lawyer, but you're not.
15 A Yes, I know that.
16 Q So, sir, you lied at the time -- you lied more than 17 once in federal court, correct?
18 A Correct.
19 Q When the stakes affected you personally, right?
20 A Correct.
21 Q And you mislead a federal judge?
22 A Yes.
23 Q And one of the charges that you pled guilty to, which 24 you say today you still are guilty of, is that you lied to 25 Congress, right?

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. ROBERT) Page 2438

1 A Correct.
2 Q And you pled guilty to that in December of 2018,
3 correct?
4 A Correct.
5 Q And then, sir, you were sentenced, correct?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And you reported to prison some time thereafter,
8 correct?
9 A Correct.
10 Q So after you lied at your time that you pled guilty,
11 you lied to Judge Pauley at your sentencing. You then lied to 12 Congress couple of months after you lied at your sentencing,
13 didn't you?
14 A I don't recall.
15 Q Sir, this morning you were shown testimony that in 16 February of 2019, you lied to Congress. That was the testimony.
17 Do you remember that?
18 A I remember it being asked.
19 Q Yes. And sir, that is Defendant's Exhibit 961 in 20 evidence and that was in February of 2019. That was less than 21 three months after you had already pled guilty to lying to 22 Congress. You then lied to Congress in between the time you
23 were sentenced and going to prison, true?
24 A What -- and what page are you on?
25 Q I'm not on a page. I'm asking you a question, sir.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. ROBERT) Page 2439

1 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, can I have the question
2 read back, please?
3 THE COURT: Sure. Readback, please.
4 MR. ROBERT: Thank you.
5 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
6 read back.)
7 A I don't know if what I had said here is a lie.
8 Q You testified earlier, sir, that it was a lie.
9 A Off of that sentence.
10 Q So, sir, did -- the question on page 149: "Did Mr.
11 Trump direct you or Mr. Weisselberg to inflate the numbers for 12 his personal statement. Answer, "I'm sorry." "Did he ask me to 13 inflate the numbers? Not that I recall, no."
14 That was your testimony under oath to Congress in 15 February of 2019; yes or no?
16 A No.
17 Q That's not the testimony?
18 A That is the testimony.
19 Q That is --
20 A It is not a lie.
21 Q That's what you said?
22 A That is not a lie.
23 Q So your testimony is that Mr. Trump and Mr. Weisselberg
24 did not tell you to inflate the numbers, correct; yes or no,
25 sir? You can't have it both ways.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. ROBERT) Page 2440

1 A I'm sorry. Can you repeat the question?
2 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, if I could have the
3 question read back.
4 THE COURT: Readback, please.
5 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
6 read back.)
7 A Correct. They did not tell me.
8 Q To inflate the numbers?
9 A To inflate the numbers overtly.
10 Q Sir, that was the sworn testimony you gave to Congress,
11 correct?
12 A That's correct.
13 Q And this morning when you were asked if that was a lie,
14 you said, "Yes, it was a lie." That was your testimony?
15 A Correct.
16 Q So you lied to Congress in February of 2019, correct?
17 It's not that hard.
18 A It is because --
19 Q Sir, yes or no?
20 THE COURT: All right. Just questions.
21 Q Sir --
22 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
23 Q February of -- let's do it the easy way. You pled
24 guilty in December of '18, correct?
25 A I did.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. ROBERT) Page 2441

1 Q Can we agree that from February of '19 to December of 2 '18 is three months?
3 A Yes.
4 Q So can we agree that within three months --
5 THE COURT: From when to when?
6 MS. FAHERTY: I was a little confusing for me, too.
7 MR. ROBERT: Even better.
8 Q Within two months.
9 A What two months are you now referring to?
10 Q Sir, in December of 2018, you pled guilty in Judge
11 Pauley's courtroom to a smorgasbord of crime, correct?
12 A That's how he characterized it, yes.
13 Q Those were his words, Judge Pauley's, correct?
14 A Yes.
15 Q Those weren't my words. Those were Judge Pauley's.
16 A Correct.
17 Q One of those smorgasbord crime was lying to Congress,
18 correct?
19 A Correct.
20 Q Now we fastforward and I thank Ms. Faherty for helping 21 me with the math. We are now two months ahead.
22 So two months after you plead guilty to lying to
23 Congress -- I don't know why you keep looking to the left.
24 A I'm staring where I want to stare, sir.
25 THE COURT: He can look where he wants. Come on.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. ROBERT) Page 2442

1 Q Two months after you pled guilty to lying to Congress,
2 before you had to report to prison, you lied to Congress again,
3 correct?
4 A No.
5 Q You didn't lie to Congress again?
6 A Mr. Trump did not --
7 THE COURT: No. No. No speech.
8 THE WITNESS: This will go on forever unless he
9 lets me explain.
10 Q I'm sure they are going to try to rehabilitate you. I
11 don't know how.
12 A So the answer is no.
13 Q The answer is no. So now you are saying when you
14 talked earlier about the fact that that was a lie to Congress,
15 now that's a lie?
16 A No. I made a mistake.
17 Q So you made a mistake --
18 A I made a mistake.
19 Q -- when you testified under oath --
20 A Because it's --
21 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen. You're interrupting the 22 lawyer. Just wait and let him finish the question.
23 THE WITNESS: Okay.
24 Q So let me get this straight. So now you're saying when 25 you testified earlier that you lied to Congress in February of

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. ROBERT) Page 2443

1 '19 and you just testified in the last five minutes that you
2 lied and you testified to Congress in February of '19, now you
3 are saying, "I didn't lie when I testified to Congress in 4 February of '19." Is that what you are saying?
5 A Yes.
6 Q So now you're saying that that statement is a true
7 statement, correct?
8 A Correct.
9 Q You are now saying under oath after all of the 10 examination of the Attorney General and all the 11 cross-examination, you're now saying that Mr. Trump did not 12 direct you or Mr. Weisselberg to inflate the numbers on his 13 personal statement? Is that what you're saying, sir; yes or no?
14 A Mr. Trump did not --
15 Q Yes or no, sir?
16 A You know what?
17 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, please.
18 THE COURT: I direct the witness to answer yes or 19 no and the question was yes or no.
20 A I stand with that response, "Not that I recall, no."
21 Q I stand with the response, "Not that I recall, no."
22 So you're saying that this was truthful testimony; yes
23 or no?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Okay. So Mr. Trump then never directed you to inflate

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. ROBERT) Page 2444

1 the numbers on his personal statement, correct; yes or no? Yes
2 or no?
3 A Correct.
4 MR. ROBERT: If I may have a moment, Your Honor.
5 THE COURT: Sure.
6 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the proceedings.)
7 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, I have no further
8 questions at this time, but would ask for an immediate 9 directed verdict because the state's key witness who they
10 base their entire case on has now testified that Mr. Trump 11 and Mr. Weisselberg did not direct him to inflate the 12 numbers.
13 We have had other bases and we will make a directed
14 verdict motion at the end of the plaintiff's case, but I
15 can't think of anything more appropriate now in light of 16 this witness' testimony that the case be brought to an end.
17 THE COURT: Denied.
18 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, your Honor.
19 THE COURT: Ms. Faherty or anyone else, would you
20 like to re-direct the witness?
21 MS. FAHERTY: I would, Your Honor. Can I take two
22 minutes to get my things together?
23 THE COURT: Sure. Of course.
24 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
25 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the proceedings.)

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2445

1 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, may I proceed?
2 THE COURT: Please.
3 REDIRECT EXAMINATION
4 BY MS. FAHERTY:
5 Q Mr. Cohen, you were asked a number of questions about
6 your sentencing in the Southern District of New York. Do you
7 recall that?
8 A Yes.
9 Q And in connection with your sentencing in the Southern
10 District of New York, did you and your counsel put together
11 what's called a sentencing memo?
12 A Yes.
13 Q Did you put information about your understanding of the 14 crimes you had pled guilty to into that sentencing memo?
15 A Yes.
16 Q And did you provide information to the court about your 17 position as to your guilty plea in that sentencing memo?
18 A Yes.
19 Q Did you also information to the court about the factual
20 circumstances surrounding your guilty pleas into that sentencing
21 memo?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Did you submit that to the court in the hopes that the 24 court would review that information?
25 A Yes.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2446

1 Q And accept that information from you?
2 A Yes.
3 Q In connection with the -- your sentence in the 4 Southern District of New York?
5 A Yes.
6 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I'd like to pass forward
7 a document I've premarked as PX 3299. I put it up, the 8 cover page, on the screen. I'll just ask Mr. Cohen if he 9 recognizes this document.
10 A I do.
11 Q What do you recognize this to be, Mr. Cohen?
12 A This is the sentencing memorandum on my behalf that was 13 produced by myself and guy Petrillo of Petrillo, Klein & Boxer,
14 my criminal attorneys at the time.
15 Q And is it your understanding that this sentencing memo
16 was, in fact, considered before the Southern District of New 17 York pronounced sentence on you in connection with the crimes to 18 which you pled guilty in the Southern District of New York?
19 A Yes.
20 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this
21 document.
22 MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. It's
23 bolstering the witness. Unless in these 33 pages it says
24 that he's actually not guilty, it is completely irrelevant.
25 And I haven't read these 33 pages, but I don't think Mr.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2447

1 Petrillo in the sentencing memo told Judge Pauley that the
2 client lied and he is actually not guilty of the crime. So
3 I don't see what the relevance of this would be.
4 MR. KISE: Right, Your Honor. The rule for
5 admissibility of prior consistent statements, which is a
6 very narrow limitation on the hearsay rule, is the statement
7 has to be characterized as a recent fabrication or perjury.
8 We satisfied that and the same statement was made at a time
9 pre-dating the statement in court. So it has to be the same
10 statement. It can't be a different statement. It can't be 11 an inexplorable [sic] statement.
12 If there are statements that say in there, "I am
13 not guilty," "I'm pleading guilty even though I'm not 14 guilty," that might be acceptable. We don't know because we 15 haven't been able to go through it. Anything in there about 16 excuses why he did the crime or why he thinks the penalty is 17 too much or why there's extenuating circumstances, that's 18 all improper rehabilitation. It is all complete hearsay.
19 If he said at the time, which clearly he did, because Judge
20 Pauley would never have accepted the plea. I've been to 21 enough sentencings.
22 So if he said at the time "I'm not guilty," "I'm 23 not guilty," "I'm not guilty" like he said here today under 24 oath, then that statement could come in as a prior 25 consistent statement. But just general statements or

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2448

1 statements about, you know, why I think the punishment is
2 too severe or why I think my circumstances are different,
3 that's irrelevant and it is completely admissible under the
4 prior consistent statement exception.
5 And I can cite the Court to the Melendez case, 54
6 AD2d 864. It is a First Department case. The Giordano
7 case, 9 AD2d 947. It is a Second Department case. People
8 v. McKlean, 69 NY2d 426 which is a Court of Appeals case. I
9 mean, I probably have 20 here, but you told me before you
10 only need a couple, so -- but -- but unless the statement
11 is fully consistent with what this witness has testified to 12 here in open court, meaning he told Judge Pauley or he wrote
13 something in court back then that says "I'm not guilty of 14 these crimes," it cannot come in under the prior consistent
15 statement exception.
16 It's just completely inadmissible. It doesn't
17 satisfy any of the prerequisites and we haven't had a chance
18 to go through that memorandum, but we can. We could take a
19 few-minutes break and look, but I doubt seriously that there
20 is anything in there that's consistent with what this 21 witness has said today about him not being guilty because 22 Judge Pauley never would have accepted a plea under those 23 circumstances. It is not possible.
24 MS. FAHERTY: He can speak for the judge now.
25 MR. KISE: I can speak to --

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2449

1 MS. FAHERTY: To the extent that we need a rule
2 that supports why this evidence is admissible, 4514, Your
3 Honor, under the CPLR, respectfully, this is perfectly fair
4 game, perfectly admissible and perfectly in line with the 5 evidence these attorneys have put forth before this Court
6 that you and your liberal discretion have permitted with 7 regards to a sentencing of Mr. Cohen.
8 In fact, they moved to admit and you accepted the 9 sentencing memo submitted by the federal government in that
10 action. So, Your Honor, respectfully, this is appropriate
11 and I have moved this into evidence despite the objection.
12 MR. KISE: Your Honor, our document was introduced
13 as impeachment. This document is being introduced to 14 attempt to rehabilitate an un-rehabilitatable witness and 15 the law is just very clear on this. This is not subject to 16 debate. So unless the statement is consistent with the 17 testimony presented in this courtroom, consistent, not 18 inconsistent, not maybe, not moving around it, it has to be 19 fully consistent.
20 I think the example I gave when we had this issue
21 with Mr. Larson is if the witness says today that the light
22 is green and he's challenged that that's a recent 23 fabrication, then you can introduce prior statements that
24 say where the witness said under oath the light was green.
25 Fine, but here, you have a situation where the witness is

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2450

1 saying on the stand the light is green and the prior
2 statements just like with Mr. Larson are the light is red, I
3 don't know, maybe, I'm not sure, all those things. Those
4 aren't prior consistent statements.
5 This is improper bolstering with hearsay. The 6 prior consistent statement exception to the hearsay rule is 7 one of the narrowest exceptions that there is. So the idea
8 they can just bring something in because we introduced a
9 sentencing memorandum for an entirely different person, this 10 isn't -- the law doesn't work that way. The statement must 11 be fully consistent and the Court must make a finding 12 specifically on the record that it is fully consistent.
13 So if the government would like to point out
14 exactly where in that memorandum Mr. Cohen said, "I'm not 15 guilty of this crime", "I'm pleading guilty even though I'm 16 not guilty," and "I plan to lie to Judge Pauley by answering
17 his questions with I'm guilty because I'm pleading guilty
18 because I am," fine. But I doubt anywhere in that 19 memorandum is a statement consistent with what this witness
20 has testified to in this courtroom.
21 THE COURT: You doubt that anywhere in the 22 memorandum is a statement --
23 MR. KISE: I can't imagine again. Look, I can't 24 speak for Judge Pauley, but I can speak to all the federal 25 sentencings I attended and I can tell you that no federal

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2451

1 judge that I ever encountered would take a plea from an
2 individual who stood in front of him and said, "Yes, I'm
3 pleading guilty just because I'm not really guilty." That's 4 the purpose of the colloquy. That's the purpose of this as
5 Mr. Robert pointed out, the purpose of the 55 or 58 or 78
6 questions. I think state judges here, my experience is the 7 same. In fact, in New York State court, the defendant has 8 to allocute, specifically allocute. It is even different
9 than federal court.
10 THE COURT: What was the CPLR section to which you
11 referred?
12 MS. FAHERTY: 4514, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: It is very short. Let me read it out
14 loud because I want to read it anyway. "In addition to 15 impeachment in the manner permitted by common law," I
16 studied that in law school, "any party may introduce proof
17 that any witness has made a prior statement inconsistent
18 with his testimony if the statement was made in a writing
19 subscribed by him or was made under oath."
20 MR. KISE: So now they're proceeding under the 21 impeachment rule, the inconsistent statement? They're going
22 to impeach their own witness with prior inconsistent
23 statements. I mean, that's extraordinary.
24 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor --
25 MR. KISE: The only possible basis it can come in

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2452

1 is prior inconsistent statement. They can't impeach their
2 own witness with prior --
3 THE COURT: Ms. Faherty, is that the right
4 provision?
5 MS. FAHERTY: It is a prior consistent statement.
6 This counsel is trying to repeatedly impeach the witness
7 with his statements. He has made prior consistent
8 statements. Under the rules of evidence, that is 9 permissible rehabilitation. That is an exception to 10 hearsay.
11 THE COURT: Am I correct that that's not the 12 section you were referring to?
13 MS. FAHERTY: I pulled the wrong section, Your 14 Honor. My apologies.
15 MR. KISE: Again, Your Honor, it has to be a prior 16 consistent statement. The case law is -- from the Court of 17 Appeals on down is very clear on this. It can't just be any 18 statement. It can't be a statement that's general subject
19 matter. It can't be a statement that's inconsistent. It
20 has to be the light was green, the light was green. It's 21 really simple. So if he has -- if they have evidence where 22 this witness said to Judge Pauley in that proceeding before
23 "I'm not guilty" and that's in that sentencing memorandum,
24 then that would be fair game; but it is not if it's just 25 statements about why it's lenient or why I think I shouldn't

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2453

1 be punished, the usual --
2 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, New York Guide to
3 Evidence 8.31, a prior consistent statement: "A statement
4 of a witness made prior to his or her testimony and 5 consistent with that testimony is admissible when offered to 6 rebut an express or implied claim of recent fabrication and 7 when the statement was made prior to the circumstances
8 supporting that claim." I believe that is sufficient, Your
9 Honor.
10 MR. KISE: So Your Honor --
11 THE COURT: Last word.
12 MR. KISE: First let me applaud Ms. Faherty for 13 making something that's really mundane very 14 interesting. I'll give her that.
15 MS. FAHERTY: I tell you.
16 MR. KISE: The words that she read are exactly what 17 we're saying. We're actually saying the same thing. They 18 have to be prior consistent statements. They have to be the 19 light was green, the light was green. "I'm not guilty,"
20 "I'm not guilty." It can't be "I'm not guilty," "I'm 21 guilty." It can't be "I'm guilty, but I think I should have 22 these extenuating circumstances and now you say I'm not
23 guilty." They have to match up. It has to be identical.
24 It has to match up. So I just think that's the rule.
25 It's not really difficult. The case law is very

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2454

1 clear. This is a very narrow exception, very narrow
2 exception and they're trying to shoehorn in a whole litany
3 of sentencing considerations, none of which I am sure tell
4 Judge Pauley "I'm not actually guilty of these crimes."
5 THE COURT: Mr. Robert, quickly, if anything.
6 MR. ROBERT: I know when to not speak.
7 THE COURT: I think we're making a mountain out of 8 a molehill. We've been spending hours and hours about the 9 witness' credibility or lack thereof. What's sauce for the 10 goose is sauce for the gander and I think we established
11 that. The prosecution sentencing memorandum came in. This 12 is coming in. I don't even know what's in it. We're 13 arguing about --
14 MR. KISE: Respectfully, Your Honor, that's the 15 whole point. In order to admit it, you have to make a
16 finding that the statements are identical, that they match
17 up, that they're both consistent. The light was green the,
18 light was green. That's the requisite finding under the 19 case law.
20 MR. ROBERT: Maybe the solution is if the 21 government wants to show us in here where he says, "I'm 22 really not guilty," we will look at it.
23 MS. HABBA: I think they should pull out a specific 24 portion. I think if it's allowed in, it should be a
25 specific portion as I did, not the entirety. That's what

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2455

1 she objected to. That was her own objection to my question.
2 THE COURT: Let's go back a step. It is an
3 out-of-court statement, right? Are you introducing it to 4 prove the truth of its contents?
5 MS. FAHERTY: Sorry, Your Honor?
6 THE COURT: Are you introducing it to prove the 7 truth of its contents?
8 MS. FAHERTY: No.
9 THE COURT: Then what are you introducing it for?
10 MS. FAHERTY: To rebut the very testimony that they 11 solicited on cross-examination which -- 12 MR. KISE: No. She's introducing it to prove the 13 truth of its contents meaning on a prior date when he didn't
14 have a reason to -- recent fabrication, that he made a
15 statement fully consistent, identical statement, an 16 identical statement. That's the purpose of the prior 17 consistent statement exception to the hearsay rule.
18 So yes, it is absolutely being offered to prove the 19 truth of the matter asserted. The matter asserted is the 20 contents of the statement, that his statement then and his 21 statement now are fully consistent. So you can't introduce 22 a prior consistent statement for any other reason than to 23 demonstrate that the two are identical.
24 So it is definitely being offered to prove the 25 truth of the matter asserted and the cases I've

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2456

1 cited -- again, I can go on with many more. I know. This
2 is a very narrow exception, very narrow.
3 THE COURT: Anything else to say before I rule one
4 way or the other? I have a coin here I can flip, you know.
5 MS. FAHERTY: I think you have the complete
6 wherewithal to understand the basis for having this document
7 in front of you, Your Honor. I think you understand the 8 speechifying that has occurred unnecessarily. I would like 9 to move along from this point. Mr. Cohen has testified as 10 to what this document is, what information was contained in 11 the sentencing memo, and how, if at all, it impacted
12 sentencing.
13 THE COURT: I don't remember him testifying to what
14 is in this sentencing memo.
15 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
16 MR. KISE: That's the point.
17 MS. FAHERTY: Let's go through it then. Your 18 Honor, I think if I have to go through it, it is a waste of 19 this Court's time.
20 MR. KISE: No. No.
21 MS. HABBA: That's how this works.
22 MS. FAHERTY: It is just such a waste of the circus
23 show that this has divulged into.
24 MR. KISE: The rules and the case law from the 25 Court of Appeals on down are a waste of time? I realize

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MS. FAHERTY) Page 2457

1 that is the government's position. That's been their
2 position with President Trump's case from the beginning,
3 that the rules don't apply, the law doesn't apply, nothing
4 applies, COVID rules don't apply, everything else doesn't
5 apply.
6 MS. FAHERTY: Mr. Kise.
7 MR. KISE: No, you had your say. So the point is
8 there are laws and there are rules. If they want to make a
9 specific proffer to the Court that there are specific 10 statements that are identical, the light was green, the 11 light was green and they're identical and the Court finds
12 that these specific statements are identical, then they can 13 offer to introduce those. But to just throw the memo over 14 the top and say, "I want that in there" because I know where 15 this is headed. I've been down this road before. Born at 16 night, but not last night.
17 What they'll do is they'll throw it in there and 18 then later pull out something in a memo and say, "Look.
19 Look. Here. This is in evidence now." No. No. It
20 doesn't operate that way, prior consistent statement
21 exception. It is very, very, very, very narrow. This is 22 not a speech. This is a recitation of the law.
23 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, briefly. As we know, Ms.
24 Faherty liked to jump up when I was getting up and asked me
25 what statement I was trying to put in, not an entire

Page 2458 1 document, not even an entire article. I would like to know 2 what statement she has in this 33 pages, please. Where is 3 it referenced? 4 MS. FAHERTY: "Mr. Cohen, in the sentencing memo on 5 page three, paragraph C, is there a subtopic heading, "The 6 Nature of the Offense Conduct?" "Yes." 7 MS. HABBA: What? 8 MR. ROBERT: What? 9 MS. HABBA: We must be looking at -- 10 MS. FAHERTY: Page 13, paragraph C. 11 MR. KISE: Should we do this in the presence of the 12 witness line by line. 13 MS. HABBA: Perhaps not. 14 MS. FAHERTY: Which way would you like it, Counsel? 15 MR. KISE: With the witness not here and we can go 16 through it, the way it is contemplated. 17 THE COURT: Hold on. 18 (Continued on the next page.) 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	Page 2460 M. Cohen - Plaintiff - redirect (Faherty) 1 Q Did that end at some point? 2 A Yes. 3 Q When? 4 A It ended in -- well, it ended with my interview with 5 George Stephanopoulos where I stated that my wife, my daughter, 6 my son have my first loyalty, as well as my country, and that I 7 would not be the villain of his story. 8 Q Do you recall about when that was? 9 A 2018, maybe 2019. 10 Q And can we pull up Defendant's Exhibit D 961 and turn 11 to page 149? 12 A Yes. 13 Q You were asked a number of questions on this particular 14 page with regard to your prior testimony. Is that fair, 15 Mr. Cohen? 16 A Correct. 17 Q Ms. Habba asked you certain questions; correct? You 18 recall that? 19 A Yes-or-no question, yes. 20 Q Mr. Robert asked you a number of questions; fair? 21 A Yes. 22 Q I believe I heard you wanted to offer an explanation 23 that you may not have been permitted to fully testify on. 24 Would you like to provide an explanation that you were 25 not previously able to provide in response to Counsel's
M. Cohen - Plaintiff - redirect (Faherty) Page 2459 1 THE COURT: Ms. Faherty, I don't know what's in 2 here. You'll have to go through it. 3 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, if I may? 4 THE COURT: If you want to not -- 5 MS. FAHERTY: -- on the issue and I could submit a 6 letter. It might be more helpful to the Court because 7 Counsel I don't think will actually allow me to get through 8 this and I think we can just move it along. 9 THE COURT: Okay. Sure. 10 MR. KISE: That's fine if they want to submit 11 something later after the witness. 12 MS. FAHERTY: Okay. 13 Q Mr. Cohen -- 14 THE COURT: By the way, I don't want spend to much 15 time on this. We keep micromanaging these little pieces of 16 a big case. 17 MR. KISE: That's why we're here. 18 MS. HABBA: He just admitted he didn't tell him to 19 do what he said he did. We're done. We can move on. 20 THE COURT: You reserve the right to put it in a 21 memo why this should come in. 22 Q Mr. Cohen, you were asked on cross about numerous 23 positive statements that you made about Donald J. Trump. Do you 24 recall that? 25 A I do.	M. Cohen - Plaintiff - redirect (Faherty) Page 2461 1 questions earlier on this particular document and this 2 particular page? 3 MR. KISE: Objection. Calls for a narrative. She 4 needs to ask a specific question about what it is she is 5 seeking. This is a witness on direct, so she needs to ask a 6 specific questions, but appropriate questions, not a leading 7 question and not a question that's open-ended. Just tell us 8 what you know. It needs to be a specific question. 9 THE COURT: Interesting issue. I don't think it 10 does. I think you can ask the witness is there anything 11 else you need to tell us or want to tell us. 12 So answer the question, please. 13 A When I was asked the question did he ask me to inflate 14 the numbers, he did not specifically state "Michael, go inflate 15 the numbers." As I stated in my books, and I've stated 16 publicly, Donald Trump speaks like a mob boss and what he does 17 is he tells you what he wants without specifically telling you. 18 So when he said to me "I'm worth more than five million. I'm 19 actually worth maybe six, maybe seven, could be eight," we 20 understood what he wanted. 21 So when they asked me did Mr. Trump direct you or 22 Mr. Weisselberg to inflate the numbers for his personal 23 statement and I stated "no, not that I recall, no," that's what 24 I was referring to. 25 Then, if you continue down as opposed to just cherry

1 picking the lines, "did overhear any conversations with Allen
2 Weisselberg" -- "with Mr. Trump and Allen Weisselberg?"
3 "No."
4 The statements that I heard from Mr. Trump directing me
5 and Allen were he wanted to rise in the Forbes 400 list and he
6 directed that Allen and I go and meet with the writer of Forbes
7 and give her the information, explain to her the value of the 8 assets, which we already -- I think we're missing a page.
9 Q It's on the screen, Mr. Cohen.
10 A -- were inflated.
11 "So the value of the assets on those personal financial 12 statements were to your understanding inflated?"
13 My answer, "yes."
14 It then goes on, "Okay. Now, if those were submitted
15 to an insurance firm or a bank and they were sworn to, might 16 that be evidence of a crime?" I stated "I actually pled guilty
17 to it."
18 Q Was that the clarification you wanted to add to your 19 answer that you weren't permitted to answer before?
20 A Yes.
21 MS. FAHERTY: No further questions, Your Honor.
22 Thank you, Mr. Cohen.
23 THE COURT: Any re-recross?
24 MR. KISE: Give us one minute, Your Honor.
25 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

1 arguably equivocal statement by one witness who I don't
2 consider the key witness. And there is enough evidence in
3 this case to fill this courtroom. So denied, but you can
4 make it again at the end of plaintiff's case.
5 MR. ROBERT: We will. Thank you, sir.
6 THE COURT: Since I'm denying it now, I don't think
7 it's going to change, although actually all the other
8 evidence presented, I assume. So I understand where it's 9 coming from, but I hope you understand where I'm coming
10 from.
11 MR. ROBERT: Thank you, sir.
12 THE COURT: All right. Witness is excused. Thank
13 you.
14 (Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness
15 stand.)
16 THE COURT: All right. Counsel are going to stay,
17 but everyone else, 10:00 a.m. tomorrow. Have a good rest of 18 the day. That's it for the day, except for counsel.
19 (Whereupon, the trial proceedings are adjourned to 20 October 26, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.)

1 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, we have no further
2 questions. But, once again, I renew my request for a
3 directed verdict again because Mr. Cohen in addition to now
4 admitting to perjury several times, unequivocally has said
5 that Mr. Trump and Mr. Weisselberg did not direct him to 6 inflate the numbers and even this purported redirect
7 examination has done nothing to change the facts that the 8 government's key witness has fallen flat on his face and 9 there is no way they can make out a prima facie case.
10 So, again, at the close of the evidence in the 11 plaintiff's case we'll make a formal motion for directed
12 verdict, but at this point I once again must strenuously
13 request that this Court grant relief and end this case once
14 and for all on behalf of all defendants, sir.
15 THE COURT: Absolutely denied. This case has 16 evidence, credible or not, all over the place. There is a
17 200-page complaint, there is a 35-page summary judgment
18 decision referring all sorts of evidence.
19 The fact that one witness, who I don't necessarily 20 consider from what I've seen to be a key witness, I don't 21 think there is a key witness, who said something which he 22 has now -- however you want to categorize it, taken back.
23 That's absurd, Mr. Robert. I mean, you and I respect each
24 other and I -- you're a very good lawyer, but no way, no how 25 this case is being dismissed because of an equivocal --

Proceedings

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in
 2 session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding.
 3 Make sure all cell phones are on silent. Laptops and cell
 4 phones will be permitted, but only to members of the press.
 5 There is absolutely no recording or photography of any kind
 6 allowed in the courtroom. Now be seated and come to order.
 7 THE COURT: Hello, everybody. I don't run and up
 8 down these steps anymore. I don't have the energy to do so.
 9 I don't bow down because I'll probably trip and break my 10 neck.
 11 Okay. We're up to -- I understand there is five
 12 minutes or so of housekeeping on the record?
 13 MR. KISE: Two minor things -- well, one minor and 14 one a record item.
 15 We did receive the Attorney General's filings as to 16 Ivanka Trump last night. It was 11:30, so given --
 17 THE COURT: Sauce for the goose is sauce for the 18 gander as we say.
 19 MR. KISE: So the 12 hours or so that we have given 20 -- can we have until 2:15? Can we have until the end of the 21 lunch break? I mean, we are on trial.
 22 THE COURT: Chris, you ask so much, but okay.
 23 MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge.
 24 The second item -- I mean, if we can do it sooner
 25 we will. I just don't -- we're in process right now and

Proceedings

1 it's -- the schedule is kind of cramped.
 2 The second is I would just ask Your Honor -- and
 3 I'm just going to make a brief record and a brief plea for 4 Your Honor to reconsider the sanction order of yesterday,
 5 two parts to that.
 6 Number one, I will say I went back and looked at 7 the entirety of the video and will say to the Court the 8 premise is still not supported by any evidence. The only
 9 testimony in the record is that when the statement was made
 10 he meant Michael Cohen. The review of the statement itself,
 11 at least in my mind, and this is where I pointed out to the 12 Court yesterday and I went back to make sure that my 13 recollection was correct, that the review of the statement
 14 does not support the sanction either.
 15 President Trump stated "very partisan judge" and 16 quote, "With a person who is very partisan sitting alongside 17 of him, perhaps even more partisan than he is."
 18 And the very next sentence after that is "so we are 19 doing very well. He's a totally discredited witness."
 20 Now, I'm not going to offer a grammar lesson here,
 21 but to me the -- the "he" in the immediately subsequent 22 sentences is referring to the person in the immediately
 23 preceding sentence. That's how I certainly took it at the
 24 time.
 25 In fact, if you watch the video, I'm standing there

Proceedings Page 2469

1 sort of stone faced. I think -- I'm not going to comment on
 2 that. I think -- and if I thought there was a violation of
 3 an order I probably would have reacted. But in all events,
 4 sanctions must be based on clear conduct. This wasn't clear
 5 conduct. The conduct is not -- is susceptible to an
 6 innocent explanation and for that reason I would ask the 7 Court to reconsider.

8 Secondly, though, and I think as importantly, if
 9 not more importantly, accepting the Court's premise that it
 10 was in fact a reference to your law secretary, I think that 11 raises even more problematic considerations for the Court to 12 take into account. These are significant First Amendment
 13 considerations when we're talking about the kind of 14 statement that was made yesterday. Again, I don't accept --
 15 and President Trump as you can tell from his testimony
 16 doesn't accept the premise that in fact he was referring to 17 anyone other than Michael Cohen. But to the extent that the 18 Court is saying that he does -- he was, then barring a
 19 defendant from commenting on his perception of fairness in a
 20 proceeding is simply, you know, based on his own
 21 observations is not, respectfully, constitutional.

22 I mean, these perceptions of the defendant are 23 perceptions of what he is observing in open court. The case
 24 itself it's fair to say -- I mean, we can debate whether 25 it's fully political or somewhat political, but in any

1 event, it's political.

2 The Attorney General has made numerous public
 3 comments both prior to bringing the case and during the case
 4 about getting Trump and a political agenda here and the 5 defendant is the leading candidate it seems even in New York
 6 now for the presidency of the United States. So he is 7 entitled to comment even beyond what a normal event would
 8 be. I mean, the restrictions on political speech become 9 much more -- much greater consideration. So the notion that 10 he cannot comment on the fairness of a proceeding with even
 11 a general reference to what he sees and perceives
 12 legitimately as bias is constitutionally infirmed.

13 I mean, this violates the First Amendment. His 14 perception is based on him sitting here in the courtroom,
 15 watching your law secretary make comments to you, pass notes
 16 to you. He's -- he said to me numerous times when I'm 17 arguing because when I'm arguing I'm focused on the witness
 18 or on yourself, but he's always said every time you get up
 19 to argue the law secretary is writing notes advocating.
 20 These are his perceptions.

21 You, Your Honor, may disagree with those
 22 perceptions, but these are his perceptions. He is a
 23 defendant in a proceeding where his business is being 24 attacked and he's entitled to comment fairly on what he 25 perceives in open court. Your law secretary's presence on

1 the bench is open and public. That's a point that he has
 2 made and I have to echo anyone can observe that. So him
 3 commenting on that fact is well within the bounds of his
 4 First Amendment rights. Him commenting on the bias that may
 5 result from that is well within his First Amendment rights.
 6 He did not name anyone yesterday. Again, he was talking
 7 about Michael Cohen. But accepting the Court's premise
 8 there was no one named and all defendants in any proceeding
 9 have a right to comment on what they believe is a perceived
 10 lack of fairness or on some impediment to receiving a
 11 complete and full, fair trial.

12 We don't have a jury. You've heard him comment on 13 that before. The system doesn't allow him the jury under 14 the circumstances and so that's also problematic and he's 15 free to comment on that as well. But limiting a defendant's
 16 right to comment appropriately on observations that are made
 17 in open court, you know, again, I will note that everyone
 18 can observe your law secretary on the bench and when the 19 photographers that you have let in here come in they're 20 photographing the bench. There is no attempt to shield that 21 public fact from the photographers that the media is 22 covering this on a daily basis, albeit a little less today,
 23 but on a daily basis.

24 So this is open, public and the defendant has a
 25 First Amendment right to comment on what he believes and

Proceedings Page 2472

1 perceives I think legitimately from his perspective as a
 2 potential source of bias and limiting that runs afoul of the 3 First Amendment in general with respect to defendants, but
 4 also even more under the heightened scrutiny of restricting
 5 and placing prior restraints on political speech of a
 6 presidential candidate.

7 There was no reference to anyone by name, there was
 8 nothing more than an observation about proximity and bias.
 9 Both of those are -- fall well within the fair bounds of the 10 First Amendment comment, again, for any defendant but 11 certainly for a defendant who is a candidate for President
 12 of the United States.

13 So, respectfully, Your Honor, I'd ask you to 14 reconsider your order, one, because the President as he
 15 testified, the only evidence was referring to Michael Cohen;
 16 and two, because as stated the order is constitutionally
 17 infirmed.

18 To the extent, Your Honor intends to proceed then
 19 with the order and affirm the order, then I would ask
 20 respectfully that you reduce it to writing so that it can be 21 appealed and I would also ask that at some point in the 22 proceedings during a break that we be allowed since
 23 photographers have been in here to photograph the empty
 24 bench so the Appellate Court has a record of exactly what 25 the setting is with where you're sitting, where Michael

1 Cohen would have been sitting, where your law secretaries 2 are sitting so that there is a full record there. I hope 3 that that won't be necessary. I think that -- I know that 4 President Trump understands your order and to the extent you 5 want to reaffirm that order with him when he's back here 6 that's certainly acceptable and appropriate to continue to 7 admonish the defendant of the bound of the order, but I 8 don't think that the order entered yesterday survives 9 constitutional scrutiny, respectfully. Thank you, Judge. 10 MR. AMER: Your Honor? 11 THE COURT: I was going to ask the plaintiff if any 12 Counsel wants to say anything. 13 MR. KISE: One thing I would also point out before 14 Mr. Amer speaks. My understanding of the CDC guidelines and 15 based on their representations is individuals who are 16 returning after five days should be wearing masks. Again, 17 no one seems to be concerned about this on the Attorney 18 General's side and it was represented to us that was going 19 to happen and apparently it was not. 20 MR. AMER: That's not true. The CDC guidelines say 21 if you test negative over a 48-hour period you no longer 22 have to wear a mask and I'm within the guidelines, so I 23 choose not to wear a mask. 24 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else you want to say? 25 MR. AMER: Yes. I want to address Mr. Kise's		1 And I would say his second argument suggests that 2 Mr. Trump doesn't believe that your gag order is valid in 3 the first place and has bearing on then whether Mr. Trump 4 took it seriously and who he was referring to during his 5 press conference. 6 I will also say if you watch the video of his press 7 conference he was asked multiple times by the press who he 8 was referring to and he refused to answer that question, so 9 that's all I have to say. Thank you, Your Honor. 10 MR. KISE: Your Honor, one, so I don't know where 11 to begin. First of all, I'm not sure that the Attorney 12 General has a dog in this hunt, but I'll leave that to you, 13 number one. 14 Two, the Attorney General is oversimplifying the 15 constitutional analysis, not surprisingly, because doing 16 that favors their blurring of the lines position. So 17 irrespective of whether we believe the gag order is 18 constitutional facially, certainly there is a distinct 19 difference between facial unconstitutionality and as applied 20 unconstitutionality. 21 The argument that I'm presenting to Your Honor as a 22 basis for reconsideration relates to irrespective of whether 23 the gag order itself is constitutional. The question that 24 hasn't been raised and need not be reached. The question is 25 as applied, your application of that order under these
1 arguments he makes. Two points, Your Honor. The first 2 point is request for you to reconsider the sanction order. 3 I would just say I haven't heard anything that justifies 4 granting reconsideration. Your Honor put Mr. Trump on the 5 stand under oath. You heard his testimony, you assessed his 6 credibility that's within your purview and you made your 7 decision which I think should stand. Nothing new or 8 different has been brought to this Court's attention as far 9 as I could tell. 10 With respect to Mr. Kise's second argument, it 11 seems to be a challenge to this Court's gag order. I would 12 suggest, Your Honor, that there is absolutely nothing 13 improper and everything appropriate with your gag order. 14 The First Amendment has limits, Your Honor, carefully narrow 15 tailored the gag order to address the safety of your staff. 16 You did not prevent Mr. Trump from attacking or criticizing 17 you. You did not limit Mr. Trump from criticizing the 18 Attorney General, at least one other judge. A federal judge 19 in Washington, D.C. has issued a similar order to protect 20 her staff. That gag order is appropriate and based on the 21 assumption of Mr. Kise's second argument, which is that 22 Mr. Trump was referring to your law -- principal law clerk, 23 he is asking that you vacate your gag order. We think there 24 is no reason for you to do so and that gag order is 25 perfectly appropriate.		1 circumstances, whether that's constitutional and my argument 2 is that it is not because it is impinging upon the right of 3 any defendant to comment on anything that happens in open 4 court in full view of anyone, the media, anyone in this room 5 that impacts the adjudication of the proceeding. It's not 6 naming anyone, it's not a post on a website, it's not a 7 disparaging comment. 8 And setting aside whether those distinctions have 9 constitutional meaning here we're talking about a very 10 narrow and specific question as applied to the comments that 11 were made assuming, again, that he was speaking about 12 Mr. Cohen -- about your law secretary and not Mr. Cohen. 13 And, again, the Attorney General's observations about the 14 video are a non-sequitur -- the other coverage. Because 15 Mr. Trump was asked immediately before that were you talking 16 about the judge's law clerk? Did you violate the order? He 17 affirmatively said no. The fact that he didn't answer, 18 like, 50 more questions about the same subject doesn't 19 prevent anything other than he wasn't going to answer 20 questions about the same subject. But here you've got a 21 true significant, substantial impingement upon the 22 constitutional rights of any defendant. And here, the First 23 Amendment rights to political speech about observations, his 24 observations of what's taking place in open court, whether 25 one can agree or disagree, I think that he has a legitimate

1 basis to raise these arguments because he is seeing as he's 2 told me on a regular basis head nods, eye rolls, notes being 3 passed, head shaking, you know, comments on arguments that 4 I'm making. Again, usually when I'm making arguments, I'm 5 doing what I'm doing now. I'm not paying attention to 6 anybody else, so I don't see those things necessarily but 7 the client does, the defendant does. 8 He's got every right to comment on -- just like if 9 anything else were going on in the courtroom, any other 10 public activity were taking place in the courtroom that 11 might impact the adjudication of the proceeding. So he has 12 a right to comment on that and as applied the order impinges 13 upon that right. Any defendant has this right. And, again, 14 there's been no attempt to otherwise shield anyone from 15 public notoriety. The cameras that come into the courtroom 16 film everyone that's here and everyone's aware of that. 17 There's been no attempt to shield anyone on the bench or 18 anyone else in the room from those cameras. 19 So I'm not sure that there is a meaningful 20 distinction between that sort of notoriety and a comment by 21 a defendant that hey, I'm not getting a fair trial because 22 I'm observing that something's going on that's going to 23 prevent me from getting a fair trial. It's no different 24 from him saying I'm not entitled to a jury under this 25 statute and that's wrong. That's not fair, that's not		1 protect my staff. There are basically about three people. 2 I don't think that's impinging on somebody's First Amendment 3 rights to protect my staff. 4 I'll reconsider for -- because I haven't seen the 5 video or even a full transcript, so let me see that and I 6 think it may -- based on what was said, may work both ways. 7 In terms of -- Mr. Kise, I think a few times you 8 said nobody was named. I certainly remember from law school 9 or cases you can be liable for defamation even though you 10 don't use the name of the person if it's clear to whom 11 you're referring. Of course, that's an issue, but that's a 12 factual issue and I'm the finder of fact. 13 I think I said this yesterday, but I've been 14 thinking about it since. The irony here, the great irony is 15 on the one hand you're saying Mr. Trump was not referring to 16 my law clerk and then you make this whole big deal "but she 17 is sitting right near me, you're passing notes, you're 18 talking," which I said yesterday I have an absolute right to 19 do. I think several members of defense team have said 20 that's not how it's done, I haven't seen that. Well, this 21 is how I do it and I think it's certainly within my 22 discretion and my purview and I think it makes me a better 23 judge that I listen to other opinions. But I'll stress 24 again two years of a former Trump's term, I am the decider. 25 Nobody knows everything, somebody has to decide.
1 right. 2 And just because he's a candidate for President of 3 the United States or, in fact, maybe because he's a 4 candidate for President of the United States, that doesn't 5 really alter anyone's ability to impinge on those rights. 6 He has a right to make fair comment. And again, I don't -- 7 without getting into the issue of whether the overall gag 8 order is constitutional or otherwise, as applied under this 9 particular circumstance, it clearly -- I believe 10 respectfully is not and that's the basis for the 11 reconsideration. Thank you. 12 THE COURT: Briefly? 13 MR. AMER: Very briefly, Your Honor. I know a 14 facial challenge when I hear one. That was a facial 15 challenge, but it doesn't matter whether it's a facial 16 challenge or a challenge that's applied. We think it's 17 appropriate under the circumstances and we don't see any 18 reason why Your Honor should reconsider or change the 19 sanction order or revisit the gag order. Thank you. 20 THE COURT: Well, I will speak from notes, but 21 they're my notes. 22 Mr. Kise, you should have seen me in law school. I 23 was a real defender of the First Amendment. Justice is 24 black and Douglas is absolutist, but as we all learn it has 25 limits. Anybody can run for president. I am going to		1 I do not consider this trial political at all. I 2 understand the points or arguments about history or who said 3 what to me. It's not a political trial. It's an Executive 4 Law -- Judiciary Law 6312, whatever the law is and that's 5 how I'm conducting it, that's how I'm deciding it. Just 6 what was said doesn't violate the law and maybe finally, 7 Mr. Kise, you asked that I reduce this to a writing, etc. so 8 you can appeal. You can appeal the transcript. I did and I 9 believe it's uploaded. Just confirmed it's been uploaded. 10 MR. KISE: That's fine. I didn't see that. I was 11 working on the 11:30 filing from the AG, so I must have 12 missed that. 13 THE COURT: It just happened, like, minutes before. 14 MR. KISE: All right. Thank you. 15 THE COURT: And I'll do this. I'll make you a 16 deal. I'll reconsider the sanctions decision because I do 17 want to see that the clip or the transcript. If you read 18 the opinion and you'll see more reasons why I did what I did 19 than I was able to enunciate yesterday. 20 MR. KISE: I'll certainly read it. Yes, Your 21 Honor, absolutely. 22 THE COURT: And that's it. I'll leave it at that. 23 I'll reconsider, but I made the decision and unless I say 24 otherwise, the decision stands. 25 Okay. That's it for now, yes?

1 MS. FAHERTY: One more point, Your Honor. 2 THE COURT: Sure. 3 MS. FAHERTY: As Counsel has already recognized we 4 did have a filing that we e-mailed to the Court last night. 5 However, we did not file it because in connection with that 6 service of the papers there were certain exhibits that 7 defendants have marked as confidential. In an abundance of 8 caution, we didn't want to violate the protective order that 9 is in place governing designated confidential materials. 10 We asked permission to be able to file those 11 materials. I respectfully request if Your Honor can give us 12 that direction to do so and I'll make sure that those 13 documents are filed in the public docket immediately. 14 THE COURT: Are you looking for permission or 15 direction? 16 MR. KISE: Well, once we see what they are. 17 MS. FAHERTY: You have them. We e-mailed them last 18 night. You have them. 19 MR. KISE: I know, but I do get up at 5:30. 20 Between the hours -- between the hours of 10:30 and 5:30, I 21 sleep. 22 THE COURT: Of course. You can do whatever you 23 want in that regard. 24 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor. 25 THE COURT: Sure. And by the way, to correct the	1 impression it was going to be Ms. Dillon followed by 2 Mr. Flores' continuation. 3 MS. FAHERTY: No. 4 MR. ROBERT: I even -- that's what we were told. 5 MS. GREENFIELD: Yesterday, with Ms. Habba, she 6 indicated it was going to be Mr. Holl and then Ms. Dillon. 7 MS. FAHERTY: It's on our list, as well. 8 MR. ROBERT: I understand. I was under a different 9 assumption because I actually think that Mr. Flores was 10 planning to be here this afternoon with his counsel because 11 they were told to be here at 2:15, I think. 12 MS. FAHERTY: Later in the afternoon. 13 MR. ROBERT: So you're going to have three 14 witnesses? 15 MS. FAHERTY: Mr. Holl will be a very brief 16 witness. 17 MR. ROBERT: I understand. Is he going to appear 18 on our case in chief if we want him? Is he a New York 19 resident? 20 MS. FAHERTY: I have no idea how you're proceeding 21 with your case. 22 MR. AMER: We did give you notice that we were 23 calling him. Really? 24 MS. FAHERTY: You are not always sandbagged, sir. 25 I am apologetic that there was confusion. I'm trying to be
1 record of sorts, I do think defendants have often filed 2 papers rather late, maybe not 11, but 9 o'clock. 3 MR. KISE: I'm still awake at 9:00. 4 MR. AMER: I think you have a few other people who 5 could read the papers too. 6 THE COURT: All right. Let's just move on. 7 Would you like to call your next witness, 8 plaintiff? 9 MR. AMER: Yes, Your Honor. 10 People call Michael Holl to the stand. 11 MR. ROBERT: We were told that Ms. Dillon was the 12 first witness this morning. 13 MR. AMER: No. 14 MR. KISE: Ms. Dillon was supposed to be the 15 witness yesterday afternoon and then she went home. 16 MS. FAHERTY: Ms. Dillon is here. Mr. Holl will be 17 a very quick witness. Based on the witness's schedules we 18 are putting Mr. Holl first so that we could get him out. He 19 is -- and if I were confusing in explaining this to Counsel, 20 please accept my sincere apologies. Both witnesses will be 21 on today. We just need to proceed with Mr. Holl first. 22 And, again, my apologies to the Court, my apologies to 23 Counsel. I thought I was clear, but if I was not, I'm 24 sorry. 25 MR. ROBERT: Well, first of all, we were under the	1 clear with the schedule. We have stood up with the Court's 2 principal law clerk, Ms. Greenfield, to discuss scheduling 3 with defense counsel present. We have identified our list 4 for Counsel and I'm sure you would agree that the past few 5 days have been a bit chaotic. I have had no reasonable 6 appraisal of the defendant's ability to calculate their own 7 timing. So respectfully, this is the best we can do and 8 this is how we are proceeding, sir. 9 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, it's the judge's 10 determination, not yours, Ms. Faherty, but I appreciate your 11 apology and I accept it. I'm not accusing you of anything. 12 I'm just talking as a matter of practice and procedure. If 13 you're going to call a witness then we then have to cross 14 examine that witness we are entitled to notice of it. We 15 were told we were starting with Ms. Dillon. 16 MR. AMER: We were just told that Ms. Habba was 17 advised that we were calling Mr. Holl first this morning, so 18 you did have notice. 19 THE COURT: That was my understanding was always it 20 would be Holl, then Dillon. 21 MR. ROBERT: Okay. Well, then, I would ask that 22 the Attorney General make all accommodations to have him 23 reappear if we need him. 24 MR. AMER: No. We're calling the witness, we gave 25 him notice. If they want to cross examine him, their chance

Page 2485 1 is after our direct, period. 2 THE COURT: If you need a little time after the 3 direct. 4 MR. ROBERT: I just want to put my objection on the 5 record. And talk about sandbagging. Ms. Faherty started by 6 an apology, now Mr. Amer is yelling. I don't know what 7 their game is, but we'll proceed and our objection is on the 8 record. 9 THE COURT: Mr. Amer, stop yelling. 10 MR. AMER: I don't think I was, Your Honor. 11 THE COURT: If you weren't, then don't start. 12 All right. I hope this has much to do about 13 nothing. I believe you were notified through Ms. Habba. 14 Let's get Mr. Holl. 15 Get the witness, please. 16 Transcript continues on the following page.... 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	Page 2487 M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. I worked for the Hartford out of college for 9 about six months and then I worked for Chubb for about five 10 years. 11 Q In what area did you work for the Hartford and Chubb? 12 A For Hartford, I was in the claims unit and then at 13 Chubb, I was in the D&O claims unit. 14 Q What does D&O stand for? 15 A Directors and officers liability. 16 Q Can you just describe for the Court very briefly what 17 that line of insurance covers? 18 A Sure. It covers exactly that. The directors on the 19 board of companies and the officers if they're named in 20 litigation. 21 Q And is that a liability cover? 22 A Yes. 23 Q Focusing on your time at HCC, what department or 24 division did you start in? 25 A I started in the claims department.
Page 2486 M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) 1 THE OFFICER: Witness entering. 2 MICHAEL HOLL, a witness called by the Plaintiff, 3 after having been first duly sworn by the Clerk of the Court, 4 took the witness stand and testified as follows: 5 THE COURT OFFICER: State your name and either home 6 or business address on the record. 7 THE WITNESS: Michael Holl. And the business 8 address is 8 Forest Park Drive, Farmington, Connecticut. 9 THE COURT: Please proceed. 10 MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor. 11 DIRECT EXAMINATION 12 BY MR. AMER: 13 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Holl. Can you, please, describe 14 for us your educational background for us after high school? 15 A I have a four years bachelor's degree of psychology 16 from Eastern Connecticut State University. 17 Q And when did you receive that degree? 18 A In 1995. 19 Q Are you currently employed? 20 A I am, yes. 21 Q And who is your employer? 22 A HCC Global. 23 Q And if we -- is that related to Tokio Marine? 24 A It is. 25 Q And if we refer to your employer as HCC, is that okay?	Page 2488 M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. So now we're looking at the business and 11 determining whether we want to provide insurance cover. So 12 you're underwriting the business and writing policies for 13 companies. 14 Q And again, I think you said you were in the D&O area of 15 the underwriting group; is that right? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And what was your title when you moved into the 18 underwriting group? 19 A Underwriter. 20 Q And have you retained that title to date? 21 A I have. 22 Q And you mentioned public company. So what does that 23 entail? 24 A So it means that they're publicly-traded and their 25 financials on public record where you can go -- anyone in the

2 Q Did you in that group ever have occasion to underwrite
3 private companies?
4 A Yes.
5 Q And under what circumstances would you as a member of
6 the public company D&O group be underwriting a private company?
7 A Generally, if it's a complex risk or a risk that most 8 private company underwriters or units would just outright deny.
9 Q I'd like to focus only the period of 2015 to 2018.
10 Could you tell us who you reported to during that period?
11 A My manager was Tom Pettit.
12 Q Did you have any dotted line reporting relationship
13 with anyone during that period of time?
14 A Yes.
15 Q Who?
16 A Andy Stone.
17 Q And who was Mr. Stone?
18 A Andy is the co-founder and president of HCC.
19 Q Do you have any authority level for underwriting?
20 A No.
21 Q Who would you have to seek approval for?
22 THE COURT: I doubt they can hear you in the back.
23 I think it's your voice is going.
24 MR. AMER: It is.
25 Q Who would you have to seek approval for to underwrite?

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2490

1 MR. KISE: I can't hear him.
2 THE COURT: We've got to do something here.
3 MR. AMER: Short break.
4 THE COURT: Sure, short break.
5 MR. KISE: I don't think it's Mr. Amer. We had 6 this problem yesterday with people with very loud voices as
7 you know.
8 THE COURT: I think it's half and half, his voice
9 and the system.
10 MR. KISE: Maybe.
11 Q So who would you seek approval for for underwriting?
12 A Who would I seek it from?
13 THE COURT: From, not for, from.
14 Q Yes, from. Yes.
15 A I would seek it from either Tom Pettit or Andy Stone.
16 MR. AMER: I'd like to hand the witness a document
17 for identification with the number Plaintiff's Exhibit 587.
18 Q Do you recognize this as a series of e-mails to you and 19 from you?
20 A Yes, I do.
21 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask this be admitted into
22 evidence.
23 THE COURT: Hearing no objection, it's in.
24 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
25 Plaintiff's Exhibit 587.)

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2491

1 Q Let me ask you to look at page two and direct your
2 attention to the e-mail actually begins on the bottom of page
3 one and carries over to page two.
4 That's an e-mail from you to Mr. Stone, correct?
5 A Yes.
6 Q And at this point in time, is Mr. Stone -- what was 7 his title again at this point in time?
8 A President.
9 THE COURT: Mr. Amer, I think the microphone might 10 work much better now.
11 MS. GREENFIELD: He raised the volume if you want
12 to try it.
13 Q You wrote that you got a call from John Vanasco at AON.
14 Who is John Vanasco?
15 A He is a broker for Aon.
16 Q What does that mean to be a broker?
17 A So a broker would have a relationship with the 18 companies that we're underwriting.
19 Q And what role did you understand him to be playing in 20 connection with the Trump Organization and the inquiry that he 21 made?
22 A I would have understood that he's the broker of record
23 for the Trump Organization.
24 Q I'm intrigued by the next line, so I'll just ask you
25 what did you mean, "a nice, juicy one"?

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2492

1 A I mean, Donald Trump had just been elected President of
2 the United States, so it is not an opportunity you get to look
3 at very often.
4 Q What do you recall learning about this potential
5 business opportunity from your conversation with Mr. Vanasco?
6 A So my understanding from him was that they -- upon the 7 election, they were looking for additional D&O cover. D&O is 8 written in towers and they wanted more capacity.
9 Q You write, "Currently, the primary 5 million is with 10 Everest and those loss runs are clean." What did you mean by
11 that?
12 A Well, it means that Everest is the -- would be the 13 only carrier on and is the primary carrier and that there are no
14 losses. They haven't written any losses on any of the policies
15 they've written for Trump Organization.
16 Q The e-mail mentions a few lines down, "It is a 2/17,
17 but they are looking for midterm additional limits (5x5) now."
18 If you could decipher that for us.
19 A It is referring to the expiration date. So this e-mail
20 is in December. They're -- they're not looking just for the 21 coverage once it renews on February 17th. They're looking to 22 put additional capacity in place now and the 5x5 would be
23 $5 million in D&O limit over the five that Everest is providing.
24 Q And that would be from the date of the -- in December
25 until the renewal in February; is that right?

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2493 1 A Yes. From whenever they choose to bind that coverage 2 up through that February 17th renewal date. 3 Q Your e-mail says, "Trump Organization Private Company," 4 so you understood -- did you understand that the Trump 5 Organization was a private company as opposed to a public 6 company? 7 A Yes, I did. 8 Q I think you explained to us that there were 9 circumstances under which you in the public company group would 10 get asked to look at a private company placement. Is this one 11 of those circumstances? 12 A Yes, it is. 13 Q When you -- when this opportunity came to you from 14 Aon, did you believe you had the necessary background and 15 experience to handle assessing this risk from an underwriting 16 standpoint? 17 A I think so. 18 Q If we scroll up to the e-mail above this one, which is 19 from Mr. Stone to you, what did you understand Mr. Stone to be 20 conveying to you in this reply e-mail? 21 A He was basically giving approval to quote the 22 additional capacity they were looking for and the pricing for 23 that being $40,000 and that to put a prior impending litigation 24 exclusion on it, "PP lit X." 25 Q So when he says, "I think a 5x5 on this until 2/17 is	M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2495 1 Q If you could just explain to us how a company's 2 financial health bears on the D&O risk that you're underwriting? 3 A If they are a bankruptcy risk, there is a significant 4 increase in the likelihood of a D&O claim if a company goes 5 bankrupt. 6 Q Let's go to the top of the page, the top e-mail. You 7 write to a woman named Ava P-R-Z-Y-C-H-O-D-Z-E-N. Who is that 8 person? 9 A Ava was my underwriting assistant at the time. 10 Q What are you asking Ava to do in this e-mail? 11 A I'm asking her to draft a quote per the terms that Andy 12 was okay with. 13 Q The last line of your e-mail says, "Subjectivities 14 review of financials at renewal." What is a subjectivity? 15 A It's a line item put on a quote that says in order to 16 bind this, you have to abide by the agreed to, what we're 17 putting in front of you. 18 Q Did HCC, in fact, offer the quote reflected in your 19 e-mail? 20 A Yes. 21 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and hand the witness 22 Exhibit 596. 23 Q Mr. Holl, do you recognize this document? 24 A I do, yes. 25 Q What is this document?
M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2494 1 okay," what did you understand he was conveying to you in terms 2 of what HCC's line would be for this stub period? 3 A What our line would be? I don't know what you mean. 4 Q How much coverage was he conveying to you was okay for 5 HCC to write? 6 A Yeah. We were okay writing 5 million X of 5 million. 7 Q The very last line of Mr. Stone's e-mail says, "We will 8 need to review financials for the renewal." 9 What did you understand him to mean by that? 10 A That it's standard practice in any company we look at, 11 that we would want to see the financials that we're not going to 12 see them prior to the renewal, but that we're gonna want to see 13 them as of that February 17th renewal date rolled around. 14 Q Can you explain to us why that was standard practice? 15 A Why it's standard practice? I mean, every account that 16 we underwrite, we generally try to get a look at the financials 17 for those companies to understand what their financial situation 18 is. 19 Q Is that relevant to assessing risk? 20 A It is. 21 Q Why is that? 22 A It's relevant because you're trying to find out if 23 they're a successful company and if they're profitable and if 24 they are in debt, that they can't manage and what their overall 25 financial health is.	M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2496 1 A This is the quote per the terms that I spelled out to 2 Ava. 3 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be admitted 4 into evidence. 5 THE COURT: Granted. It is in. 6 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 7 Plaintiff's Exhibit 596.) 8 Q Let's turn to the second page and you'll see as part of 9 this quote, it says, "Contingencies review of financials at 10 renewal." 11 Is a contingency different from a subjectivity or is it 12 the same thing? 13 A Not in this case, no. 14 Q So what were you indicating in the quote by this 15 contingency? 16 A Same thing, that if we were going to consider the 17 renewal of the risk, we wanted to see financials. 18 Q Now, we've been discussing that this was a quote to get 19 to the renewal. Did there come a point in time where the D&O 20 coverage came up for renewal where you looked at whether you 21 would quote on the renewal? 22 A So I don't think that this extension was ever bound, so 23 it wouldn't have been a renewal if this quote wasn't bound. It 24 just would have been an inception of a new policy. 25 Q Do you recall participating in meetings -- in a meeting

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2497 1 with other underwriters to look at whether you would participate 2 at the annual renewal of this coverage? 3 A Yes, I do. 4 MR. AMER: I would like to mark as Exhibit 588 the 5 next document. I'm told this was already in evidence. It 6 was shown to Mr. Cohen and admitted during his testimony. 7 THE COURT: Okay. 8 Q Do you recognize this agenda, Mr. Holl, that is 588 in 9 evidence? 10 A Yes, I do. 11 Q You'll see, Mr. Holl, down at the bottom portion of the 12 page, your name is listed as an attendee on behalf of the HCC at 13 the 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m. time slot? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Do you recall attending this meeting? 16 A Yes, I do. 17 Q There are a number of individuals listed as attending 18 on behalf of the Trump Organization; Allen Weisselberg, Matt 19 Calamari, Michael Cohen, Ron Lieberman, George Sorial, Adam 20 Rosen and Patrick Birney. 21 Do you have a recollection of meeting with any of those 22 individuals during this D&O underwriting meeting on 23 January 10th? 24 A Yes. 25 Q Who do you recall meeting with?	M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2499 1 basically immediately after you left the meeting? 2 A It is. It is on my train ride back to Connecticut. 3 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into 4 evidence. 5 THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence. 6 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 7 Plaintiff's Exhibit 2985.) 8 Q Was this e-mail prepared with the benefit of the notes 9 you took during the meeting? 10 A It is, yes. 11 Q And what was the purpose for your preparing this e-mail 12 to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit? 13 A Just to provide all the information that I obtained 14 during the meeting and provide some of my thoughts, insights or 15 opinions. 16 Q And do you consider this e-mail to be an accurate 17 reflection of what transpired at the meeting? 18 A Yes, I do. 19 Q Just focusing your attention on the paragraph that 20 begins "saw very few financials," do you see that? 21 A Yes. 22 Q You say in this portion, "Saw very few financials, but 23 did see the balance sheet for year ends 2015. They assured me 24 that the one being put together in a few weeks is better." 25 When you say, "they assured me, "who, if you recall,
M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2498 1 A Allen Weisselberg. 2 Q And is it that you recall only meeting with him or is 3 that -- or is it that he's the only one you specifically recall 4 among these people? 5 A He's the only one I specifically recall. 6 Q But there were other people on behalf of the Trump 7 Organization at the meeting? 8 A Yes, there were. 9 Q What did you understand Mr. Weisselberg's role to be at 10 the meeting as you perceived it? 11 A The chief financial officer of the Trump Organization. 12 Q Did you take notes at this meeting? 13 A I did. 14 Q And did you report to your superiors, Mr. Pettit and 15 Mr. Stone, about what transpired at the meeting after the 16 meeting ended? 17 A Yes, I did. 18 MR. AMER: I'd like to hand up to the witness 19 Exhibit 2985. 20 Q This is an e-mail from you to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit. 21 Do you recognize this e-mail? 22 A Yes, I do. 23 Q And what's the date of this e-mail? 24 A January 10, 2017. 25 Q So -- and this was sent at 1:19 p m., so is this	M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2500 1 specifically provided you that assurance? 2 A I don't recall who specifically provided me that 3 assurance. 4 Q Was it somebody from the Trump Organization? 5 A It was. 6 Q And you go on to write, "They have total assets of 6.6 7 billion, cash of 192 million, total debt of 519 million." Do 8 you see that? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Why did you choose to specifically call out the 192 11 million in cash figure in this e-mail to Mr. Stone and Mr. 12 Pettit? 13 A That's generally a meaningful, useful figure in 14 financials for organizations we're looking at. 15 Q And what did you consider that figure to reflect? 16 A The amount of cash they had on the balance sheet. 17 Q Did you view that as a figure that was a measure of 18 liquidity for the company? 19 A Yes. 20 Q Directing your attention to the next paragraph, you say 21 in the last sentence of this paragraph, "No material litigation 22 or communications from anyone." 23 What did you intend to reflect in that comment? 24 A It's standard practice in meetings with the management 25 to ask them if they are aware of something that's not public;

1 that is, litigation or notices or communications that could lead
2 to litigation that would implicate the D&O policy.
3 Q What kind of notices or communications would you fit
4 within that description?
5 A I mean, any letter from a law firm making a threat or 6 any notice from a regulatory agency, you know, advising them of 7 concerns they may have, something like that.
8 Q Did you, in fact, inquire about those items during the 9 underwriting meeting?
10 A I believe -- if I didn't, somebody did. I think I
11 did.
12 Q And what are you reflecting in your comment, "no
13 material litigation or communications from anyone"?
14 A What am I reflecting?
15 Q Yes.
16 A The response that I received to the inquiry.
17 Q Did you review -- did you view the response that there
18 was no material litigation or communications from anyone in a
19 positive or negative light from an underwriting perspective?
20 A Positive.
21 Q In what way was it positive?
22 A I mean, if they do have litigation or notices or 23 letters that are of concern, that raises the risk of liability
24 to the D&O policy.
25 Q And based on this comment, you were told that there

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2502

1 were -- there was no material litigation or communications from
2 anyone; is that right?
3 A Yes.
4 Q So the facts that you --
5 MR. KISE: Your Honor, I just want to -- maybe
6 this will be connected up, but I just want to raise a
7 relevance objection to this line of questioning. I mean,
8 I've watched it, so I let --
9 THE COURT: Overruled. I see relevance.
10 MR. KISE: Okay.
11 MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor.
12 Q We are looking now at an e-mail that has certain factor
13 information that you are sending to about this underwriting
14 meeting to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit who are your superiors and 15 who have authority to issue the policy. Why were you conveying 16 the facts that you are conveying to them?
17 A So they can start considering whether it's a risk that 18 we want to provide directors and officers cover for.
19 Q Did you consider the facts that you were putting into 20 your e-mail to be relevant to their assessment?
21 A Yes.
22 Q Did HCC, in fact, put in a quote for this coverage
23 following your participation in this underwriting meeting?
24 A Yes, we did.
25 MR. AMER: I'd like to hand the witness

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2503

1 Exhibit 592.
2 Q Mr. Holl, this is a letter you are sending to Mr.
3 Vanasco on January 31, 2017. Do you recognize this document?
4 A Yes, I do.
5 Q And what is this?
6 A This is a primary quote for D&O cover for what's now
7 being referred to as the Donald Trump Revocable Trust.
8 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this document into
9 evidence.
10 THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
11 MR. KISE: Same objection, Your Honor, on relevance
12 which I haven't explained. I know you overruled it, but I
13 haven't explained it, but that's okay.
14 THE COURT: You don't think it's relevant. I see 15 the relevance, so I don't know that there is a point in 16 debating it.
17 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
18 Plaintiff's Exhibit 592.)
19 Q Mr. Holl, does this reflect the terms that you were 20 authorized to quote for the cover from Mr. Stone?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And what layer of coverage is HCC quoting?
23 A The primary letter.
24 Q And what is the premium being proposed for this quote?
25 A $295,000.

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2504

1 Q Did the Trump Organization or the trust accept this
2 proposal and bind coverage?
3 A Yes, they did.
4 Q Now, this indicates that the coverage was going to 5 expire on January 30, 2018; is that right?
6 A Yes.
7 Q Did it, in fact, come up for renewal in January of 8 2018?
9 A Yes.
10 MR. AMER: I'm going to hand the witness
11 Exhibit 595.
12 Q Mr. Holl, is this a letter you sent to Mr. Vanasco on 13 February 9, 2018?
14 A Yes.
15 Q Does this relate to the renewal of the policy quote
16 that we were just looking at?
17 A Yes, it does.
18 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this into evidence.
19 MR. KISE: Same objection.
20 THE COURT: Same ruling. It's in evidence.
21 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
22 Plaintiff's Exhibit 595.)
23 Q Just to clarify one thing, Mr. Holl, because we had 24 looked at the expiration date being January 30, 2018. If you
25 look at the first paragraph, it says, "With regard to the

Page 2505 1 above-referenced account, Tokio Marine HCC D&O Group is pleased 2 to bind a 12-month extension of the current aggregate of limited 3 liability on behalf of U.S. Specialty Insurance Company from 4 February 10, 2018 to February 10, 2019." 5 Was there a short extension of the policy to get from 6 January 30th to February 10th? 7 A Yes, there was. 8 Q So this is the quote to extend for a 12-month period 9 the policy that had been bound in the prior year? 10 A Yes, it is. 11 (Continued on the next page.) 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	Page 2507 M. Holl - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) 1 MR. KISE: Same objection, relevance. 2 Q Now, we had looked at the prior two renewal quotes, 3 which were for $295,000 for the annual premium. 4 This renewal, what is the proposed premium here? 5 A 1.6 million. 6 Q And can you explain to us why the premium quote is 7 being increased from $295,000 to 1.6 million? 8 A Because our assessment of the risk changed and we 9 believed that the risk was significantly more risky than our 10 initial assessments. 11 Q And it looks like there is an alternative option being 12 proposed which was to remove entity cover and then the premium 13 would be 950,000; is that right? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Did the Trump Organization or the Trust renew the 16 policy for this increased premium, either option? 17 A No, they did not. 18 MR. AMER: That's all I have, Your Honor. 19 THE COURT: Okay. Any cross examination? 20 MR. FIELDS: Yes, Your Honor. 21 MR. KISE: Your Honor, can we have a short break as 22 you suggested? 23 THE COURT: Sure. About how long you're thinking? 24 MR. KISE: Ten minutes. 25 THE COURT: Sure.
Page 2506 M. Holl - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) 1 Q And what is the premium amount being proposed for this 2 12-month renewal? 3 A 295,000. 4 Q So is that at the same as the expiring premium? 5 A Correct, yes. 6 Q Did the Trust accept the renewal quote? 7 A Yes, they did. 8 Q I want to ask you about the renewal for the following 9 year in 2019. 10 Do you recall if HCC quoted a renewal for the following 11 12-month period? 12 A Yes. 13 Q And did they? 14 A Did we quote it, HCC, yes, we did. 15 MR. AMER: Let me show the witness Exhibit 2989. 16 Q Mr. Holl, do you recognize this e-mail from you to Ava? 17 A Yes, I do. 18 Q And does this relate to a renewal quote for 2019 to 19 2020? 20 A Yes, it does. 21 MR. AMER: Yes, I move this exhibit into evidence. 22 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 23 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 24 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2989 in 25 evidence.)	Page 2508 M. Holl - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) 1 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.) 2 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in 3 session. Please be seated and come to order. 4 THE COURT: Mr. Kise, have you had -- is there a 5 reasonable chance under the circumstances to review the 6 direct testimony and prepare for cross examination? 7 MR. KISE: I would say we're prepared to proceed 8 now with some cross examination. I don't know I would call 9 it reasonable under the circumstances, but we are prepared 10 and we will make every effort to not have to call the 11 witness back. I don't know that that will be necessary, but 12 I don't want to waive any rights on behalf of my clients or 13 anyone else for that matter, but we are going to proceed and 14 try and move on with it. 15 MR. AMER: I'm just going to note for the record we 16 advised Ms. Habba the order of the witnesses, so we think by 17 providing notice to Ms. Habba, we provided notice to all 18 defendants. 19 MR. KISE: I'm not sure what he's arguing about. I 20 just said -- but in the event that something comes up, 21 documents or things that we aren't aware of, we'll present 22 that to the Court. But I certainly think as we have done 23 with all the witnesses we're entitled to call them in our 24 case if we need to. But we're not going to burden anyone 25 with a reappearance. We've all been here far too long.

M. Holl - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2509 1 THE COURT: Okay. I appreciate that you are 2 willing to go forward at this point reserving whatever 3 rights. I have -- well, let me ask one other question. I 4 know you're doing what we're just referring to. Did you get 5 a chance to see the written decision I wrote this morning? 6 MR. KISE: I have not, Your Honor, but I will on 7 the next break. I will. 8 THE COURT: Might ruin your lunch. 9 MR. KISE: No, no. 10 THE COURT: But in any event, I have reconsidered 11 the $10,000 penalty and I am adhering to that decision. I 12 have looked at the video of what Mr. Trump said outside and 13 of course I've taken into consideration your argument that 14 he must have been referring to Michael Cohen because that's 15 what he talked about. There was a clear, brief, but clear 16 transition. I think he might have an ooh, ahhh, whatever, 17 but he said "we are doing very well, it's going well." 18 He's a -- that was, to me, a clear transition from 19 one person to another and I think the original -- the person 20 originally referred to is very clear and that's the fact I 21 found and that's the penalty I levied, so let's move ahead. 22 Okay. Let's get the witness back. 23 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. 24 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and 25 approaches the witness stand.)	M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2511 1 business. Is that fair? 2 MR. AMER: Objection to "personal business." 3 Q You originate business at HCC, Mr. Holl? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And did -- Donald Trump being elected president and 6 being a potential client of yours, did you believe that that 7 could help your business? 8 A No. 9 Q You did not believe that doing business with the 10 president-elect of the United States was going to help your 11 personal business at HCC? 12 A No. 13 Q So you did not plan to tell anybody that you were 14 insuring the president-elect's trust. Is that fair? 15 A That's fair. We don't discuss who our insureds are. 16 Q But nevertheless you were excited? 17 A Yes. 18 Q At the time that you -- withdrawn. 19 Just so that I'm clear, there were several policies 20 that you discussed with Mr. Amer and I want to make sure I 21 understand them all. 22 There was the initial policy that was to sit above the 23 adverse policy that was bound in approximately December of 2016? 24 MR. AMER: I'm going to object. I think the 25 witness's testimony was he didn't think that was bound.
M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2510 1 THE COURT: Okay. 2 MR. FIELDS: With the Court's permission, may I 3 examine the witness? It should be exceedingly brief. 4 THE COURT: Absolutely. 5 CROSS EXAMINATION 6 BY MR. FIELDS: 7 Q Good morning, Mr. Holl. I represent -- I'm going to 8 ask you a couple questions, if that's okay? 9 A Yes, okay. 10 Q I notice you're wearing an American flag pin and I like 11 that, so thank you. 12 Mr. Holl, you were shown Plaintiff's Exhibit 587 by 13 Counsel for the government. As you'll recall, I think there was 14 a comment there where you said, "a nice, juicy one." Do you 15 generally recall that? 16 A Yes. 17 Q Would it be fair to say in December 2016 you were 18 excited about the prospect of insuring the Trump Organization or 19 various of its subsidiaries? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And that's because there was -- at that point Donald 22 Trump had just been elected president and was the 23 president-elect; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q And you believed that that could help your personal	M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2512 1 THE COURT: You can ask. 2 Q Was the December 6, 2016 policy bound? 3 A I don't believe that extension was -- or that 5X5 was 4 bound. 5 Q Okay. So then would it be fair to say then that the 6 first policy that HCC bound under your direction was the 7 January 2017 D&O policy? 8 MR. AMER: Objection to "under your direction." 9 THE COURT: Sustained. His testimony was somewhat 10 different. 11 MR. FIELDS: Okay. 12 THE COURT: "Direction" is the wrong word. 13 Q Open-ended question. 14 While you were working at HCC what was the first policy 15 that you bound for the Trump Trust? 16 A Yes. 17 MR. AMER: Can I just object to "bound?" 18 THE COURT: Yes, objection sustained. 19 Q Sir, do you work at HCC? 20 A Yes, I do. 21 Q Did you work at HCC in January of 2017? 22 A Yes. 23 Q Okay, great. 24 So now my question is what was the first policy at HCC 25 while you were working there found for the Trump Trust?

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2513

1 A Yes, that January 30th policy.
2 Q All right.
3 A The primary policy.
4 Q The January 30, 2017 policy?
5 A Correct.
6 Q And then there was a renewal of that in January --
7 approximately January 30th of 2018. Is that fair?
8 A So technically, it didn't renew. It got extended, so
9 it came up for renewal and it was then extended instead.
10 Q Okay. And then in 2019 there was no renewal or 11 extension; correct?
12 A Correct.
13 Q So then would you agree that there were two relevant
14 policies while you were working at HCC that you discussed with 15 Mr. Amer that were actually bound?
16 A There was only one policy that was bound. There was 17 one bound policy number with an extension.
18 Q And one of them was in 2017 and it was extended in 19 2018?
20 A Correct, same policy number.
21 Q Okay. In December of 2016, when you were first
22 approached by AON with the possibility of working -- binding --
23 or HCC binding coverage for the Trump Trust, you were aware that 24 the Trump Organization, I'll use that term broadly, was 25 concerned about potential exposure now that Donald Trump had

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2514

1 been elected president; correct?
2 A Correct.
3 Q So you were aware that was a reason why they were
4 seeking additional coverage; correct?
5 A I was aware that they thought that they would be a
6 higher -- they would have higher exposure and that's why they
7 were seeking additional cover.
8 Q And the first time that you reviewed any financials for 9 the Trump Organization was in January of 2019?
10 A Yes.
11 Q And that was the underwriting meeting that you
12 discussed with Counsel for the government, believe it was 13 January 10th of 2017?
14 A I think so, yes.
15 MR. FIELDS: Can we pull up Plaintiff's 588,
16 please? And if we can enlarge the list of attendees under
17 the Trump Organization?
18 Q Just to make sure I understand your testimony, I
19 believe you testified that you generally recall Allen
20 Weisselberg being there, but you don't have a clear recollection
21 about some of the other individuals that are listed there?
22 A Yes, yes.
23 Q Okay. And I believe your testimony was that there was 24 a balance sheet that you reviewed; is that correct?
25 A That's correct.

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2515

1 Q And I think -- I believe the balance sheet had
2 $192 million in cash listed. Is that fair?
3 A That's correct.
4 Q The balance sheet that you reviewed, was it a piece of 5 paper, was it a PDF, an Excel spreadsheet? What did it look
6 like?
7 A It was a piece of paper.
8 Q And do you recall where the piece of paper was while
9 you were in the room; on the table, somebody hand it to you?
10 A It was handed around amongst the underwriters.
11 Q Do you recall who handed it to you?
12 A I don't recall who handed it to me.
13 Q And would it be fair to say, Mr. Holl, that the --
14 withdrawn.
15 Are you familiar with what a retention is in an 16 insurance policy?
17 A Yes, I am.
18 Q And for the uninitiated, what is a retention generally?
19 A It's a deductible.
20 Q It works similarly to a deductible in an insurance --
21 health insurance policy, for instance?
22 A It's what the insured's responsible for before the 23 policy would start.
24 Q And would you agree with me that the purpose of an
25 insurance underwriter's review of financials of a private

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2516

1 company seeking D&O coverage is to ensure that the potential
2 insured has the financial wherewithal to cover the retention?
3 A Yes.
4 Q And in this case I believe your testimony was that the 5 retention was approximately $2.5 million throughout the life of 6 these -- the policy and the extension?
7 A Yes.
8 Q Okay. So just so I'm clear as an underwriter, when you
9 went to Trump Tower that day to review the financials, would you
10 agree with me that your primary concern was to ensure that the 11 Trump Organization could meet its requirements to pay the 12 retention if needed?
13 A Yes. And that they were not a bankruptcy risk.
14 Q Fair. But in this case as you just said the retention
15 was $2.5 million; correct?
16 A Correct.
17 Q And so, for instance, if -- withdrawn.
18 And there was $192 million in cash on the balance sheet
19 that you saw; correct?
20 A Yes.
21 Q So if the Trump Organization had identified, let's say,
22 $25 million in cash on the balance sheet, ten times the 23 retention, you wouldn't have been concerned; correct?
24 MR. AMER: Objection. Calls for speculation.
25 THE COURT: Overruled.

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2517

1 A So can you repeat that? Sorry.
2 MR. FIELDS: May I have a read back, Your Honor?
3 THE COURT: Read back, please.
4 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the
5 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
6 A So I think it would depend on the debt as well, right,
7 and whether they had -- so it's not as simple as a yes or no.
8 If they had debt on the balance sheet coming due and that debt
9 amount was larger than the cash that they had on the balance
10 sheet, then yes, but correct. If they had 25 million and a two 11 and a half million dollar retention there would be enough on the 12 balance sheet to cover their retention.
13 Q Were you at all concerned with any of the debt you saw
14 on the balance sheet that day?
15 A I was not.
16 Q Did you ask to see any bank statements, Mr. Holl?
17 A Bank statements, no.
18 Q And just to be clear, you were binding a policy on 19 behalf of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust; correct?
20 MR. AMER: Objection, Your Honor. It lacks
21 foundation. This witness didn't bind anything. He had no
22 underwriting authority.
23 THE COURT: You want to just -- withdrawn.
24 Q Did HCC bind a D&O policy on behalf of the 25 Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust on or about January 30th of

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2518

1 2017?
2 A Yes.
3 Q And you were involved in that process; correct?
4 A I was.
5 MR. FIELDS: All right. I'm going to show the
6 witness what's been premarked as Plaintiff's 597.
7 And, Your Honor, I don't intend to really examine
8 the witness much about the document. I apologize. I don't 9 have extra copies, but it was a little bit short trying to 10 print them.
11 THE COURT: I'm sure that will work.
12 Q Mr. Holl, I'll just ask you, if you could, to take a
13 look at this document. Let me know if you recognize it.
14 THE COURT: Do you recognize it?
15 THE WITNESS: Was there a question?
16 Q Do you recognize the document?
17 A Yes.
18 Q What is it?
19 A That is the policy that we wrote on January 30, 2017.
20 Q And just to be clear, did you -- were you able to page
21 through some of the documents to ensure that it's -- appears to 22 be the entire policy that HCC wrote in 2017?
23 A It appears to be.
24 Q Fair enough.
25 MR. FIELDS: Move to admit Plaintiff's 597.

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2519

1 MR. AMER: No objection.
2 THE COURT: It's in evidence.
3 Q Mr. Holl, you were asked by Counsel for the government
4 about some representations that were made during the
5 underwriting meeting at Trump Tower in 2017 regarding -- and I
6 use the wrong terminology, but prior pending litigation or 7 notices of any potential claims. Do you generally recall that?
8 A Yes.
9 Q And I believe your testimony was -- and please correct
10 me if I'm wrong -- that there was a disclosure to you that there
11 was no potential claims known to somebody that told you that 12 statement. Is that an accurate representation of your 13 testimony?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And I believe you also testified that you're not sure
16 if you asked, but somebody else may have asked that question?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And do you recall who it is that made that statement to 19 you -- withdrawn.
20 Do you recall who made the statement about no known
21 claims?
22 A I don't recall.
23 MR. AMER: Your Honor, just so the record is clear
24 that does mischaracterize the testimony. There was no
25 material litigation and no communications from anyone.

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2520

1 THE COURT: Are you relying on the specific
2 language? Is that what you're looking to correct?
3 MR. AMER: Yes, as opposed to no known claims that
4 was never part of the testimony or the document.
5 THE COURT: Right.
6 MR. FIELDS: Your Honor, I apologize. I had a
7 couple of minutes to prepare this, so please forgive me.
8 THE COURT: All right. The record should be
9 considered changed to reflect the exact wording.
10 MR. FIELDS: One moment, please.
11 THE COURT: Sure.
12 MR. FIELDS: Thank you. I want to make sure I use
13 the right terminology.
14 Q So with regard to the statement that there was no
15 material litigation or communication from anyone, if at some 16 point you, HCC, had determined that there was information that 17 was not known to them that should have been made to them or 18 disclosed to them, isn't it true that HCC has the ability to 19 rescind the policy?
20 A I would have to look at the specific policy to see if 21 we had the ability to rescind or not.
22 Q Do you have any reason to doubt that this policy does
23 not contain a right to rescind by the insurer?
24 A I don't know what -- I don't know one way or the other.
25 Sometimes we have language on there that says that the insurer

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2521

1 has no right to rescind.
 2 Q But be that as it may, if there is a right to rescind,
 3 the insurer has the right to rescind the policy; correct?
 4 A Correct.
 5 MR. AMER: Object to the form of the question.
 6 MR. FIELDS: It's cross examination, but it's okay.
 7 THE COURT: Overruled.
 8 Q In addition, the insurer maintains the right to 9 disclaim coverage as well; correct?
 10 A Meaning deny coverage for something submitted?
 11 Q Sure.
 12 A Yes.
 13 Q Do you know if this policy contains a right for the 14 insurer to deny coverage if they did not believe that it was 15 covered under the policy?
 16 A I mean, it doesn't specifically contain language that 17 says that. It's that if the language doesn't provide coverage,
 18 it doesn't provide coverage.
 19 Q Did you ever meet with Donald J. Trump by any chance,
 20 Mr. Holl?
 21 A No, I did not.
 22 Q All right. And at some point you determined that you
 23 had made a mistake and underpriced the risk in approximately
 24 2019; correct?
 25 A I wouldn't say we made a mistake. I'd just say that

Page 2523

1 MR. KISE: On redirect they can read the rest of
 2 the answer.
 3 MR. AMER: I think when you read the question you
 4 should read the whole question and the whole answer.
 5 MR. KISE: That would be nice if you had done that
 6 the entirety of this case, but you haven't.
 7 THE COURT: Sometimes yes, sometimes no.
 8 In an abundance of caution, I'll ask that the 9 entire answer be read back.
 10 Q All right, beginning at line six --
 11 MR. FIELDS: I'll withdraw the question, Your
 12 Honor.

1 that newest quote number reflected what we perceived to be the
 2 going-forward risk.
 3 Q Did you underprice the risk?
 4 A I don't know how to answer that.
 5 MR. FIELDS: Let's pull up --
 6 Q Mr. Holl, you were interviewed by the Attorney
 7 General's Office in February of 2022; correct?
 8 A Okay. I was.
 9 Q Were you?
 10 A Yes.
 11 MR. FIELDS: All right. Let's pull up page 145,
 12 line six. We'll start at line two.
 13 Q All right. The question is:
 14 "And what was the basis for increasing the premium for 15 the same extension period to such a significant extent?
 16 "ANSWER: It was clear to us that we had 17 underpriced this risk and that there was significant
 18 exposure to us."
 19 Is that what you answered in February of 2022?
 20 MR. AMER: Can we read the whole answer so we have 21 a context?
 22 THE COURT: Well, if you think it matters, yes; if 23 you're just saying it because it's only part of the answer,
 24 no.
 25 MR. AMER: Well, I think it does matter.

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2524

1 THE COURT: It's a lot of reading.
 2 MR. KISE: Exactly. It is a lot of reading.
 3 MR. FIELDS: Thank you. That's all, Your Honor.
 4 THE COURT: Any re-direct?
 5 MR. AMER: I do. I just want to make sure is that
 6 side done?
 7 MR. ROBERT: Subject to our reservation of calling
 8 the witness back on our case.
 9 THE COURT: Okay.
 10 MR. AMER: I just have a few questions. So if I
 11 could do it from here, Your Honor, if that's all right.
 12 THE COURT: Of course.
 13 RE-CROSS EXAMINATION
 14 BY MR. AMER:
 15 Q I want to ask you about Mr. Fields's questions
 16 concerning the hypothetical that instead of telling you it was 17 192 million in cash, they instead had told you it was 25 million
 18 in cash or ten times the retention. Do you recall those 19 questions?
 20 A I do.
 21 Q Okay. Now, the 192 cash number is the number that you
 22 forwarded on to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit, correct?
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q And at the time, you didn't have any authority to 25 underwrite the business; is that right?

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - REDIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2525

1 MR. KISE: Objection; leading.
2 MR. AMER: I think it is summarizing testimony he
3 already --
4 MR. KISE: Leading question.
5 THE COURT: Well, it might be simpler if you just 6 ask it. Although, it might still be leading, but I will
7 allow it if you just ask it in the abstract.
8 MR. AMER: I think he already testified to it, so
9 I'm just trying to bring us back.
10 Q Did you have authority to underwrite this risk at that 11 point in time yourself? Did you have underwriting authority?
12 A I don't have under -- I don't have authority, correct.
13 Q And if they had told you it was 25 million in cash,
14 would that have been the number that you conveyed as opposed to 15 192 million in cash?
16 A Yes.
17 Q And as you sit here today, you don't know what they 18 would have done in response to getting that different dollar
19 figure, do you?
20 A That's fair, yes.
21 MR. AMER: That's all I have, Your Honor.
22 THE COURT: Any re-cross?
23 MR. KISE: Not at this time subject to the 24 reservation, no. Thank you.
25 THE COURT: Okay. Let's take a break until noon

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2526

1 and the witness is excused. Thank you. We will have Ms.
2 Dillon, right?
3 MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: Break until noon and then we will have
5 Ms. Dillon.
6 (Witness excused.)
7 (Whereupon, a recess was taken.)
8 THE OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
9 session. Be seated and come to order.
10 THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, would you like to call
11 your next witness?
12 MR. SOLOMON: I would, Your Honor. Thank you. The 13 People call Sheri Dillon.
14 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
15 S H E R I D I L L O N, a witness called by the Plaintiff,
16 after having been first duly sworn by the Clerk of the Court,
17 took the witness stand and testified as follows:
18 THE COURT OFFICER: Please state your name and
19 either home or business address on the record.
20 THE WITNESS: Sheri Dillon. 1111 Pennsylvania
21 Avenue, N.W. Washington, DC. Zip code 20004.
22 THE COURT: Please proceed.
23 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.
24 DIRECT EXAMINATION
25 MR. SOLOMON:

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2527

1 Q Good afternoon, Ms. Dillon. Can you, please, briefly
2 describe your post high school education?
3 A I attended college, University of Missouri. Graduated
4 in four years with a bachelor's degree and I then went on to a
5 masters program. I have a masters in public policy and several
6 years after that, I went to law school at Georgetown Law.
7 Q Abdomen when did you graduate from Georgetown Law?
8 A 1999.
9 Q And are you admitted to any bars?
10 A Yes, D.C. and Georgia.
11 Q Thank you. Could you, please, briefly describe your 12 work experience after your admission to the bar?
13 A I began my career at McGee Nelson as -- no, I'm sorry.
14 I actually began my career at King & Spalding for just a short
15 period of time and then the tax group at McGee -- no. King and 16 Spalding largely broke off, started their own firm McGee Nelson.
17 I joined McGee Nelson which was eventually merged into Bingham &
18 McCutchen, L.L.P. Following that, I left for a year and went to 19 Vinson & Elkins. And after that, I rejoined my prior colleagues
20 from Bingham who had been merged in Morgan Lewis and that was in 21 2015.
22 Q You said you worked at Vinson & Elkins for one year.
23 So that was roughly 2014 to 2015.
24 A That would be correct and it is roughly one year.
25 Q And when were you at Bingham?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2528

1 A That would be roughly 2009 to 2014 is the best of my
2 recollection. I'm not quite sure on those dates.
3 Q Approximate dates are okay. Thank you.
4 When you were at Bingham, were you a partner?
5 A I began my career at Bingham, yes, I would have been a
6 partner.
7 Q Were you in a particular group at Bingham?
8 A The tax group. I've always practiced tax law as my 9 primary practice. Although, I advise on other things as well.
10 Q And when you moved to Vinson Elkins, you were also a
11 partner?
12 A Yes, I was also a partner in the tax group.
13 Q When you rejoined certain of your colleagues in Morgan
14 Lewis in 2015, were you a partner?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Are you currently at Morgan Lewis?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Are you currently a partner there?
19 A I am currently a partner at Morgan Lewis.
20 Q Did there come a time that you in your professional
21 capacity began doing work for the Trump Organization?
22 A Yes.
23 Q When was that?
24 A That would have been began more or less in 2005.
25 Q And was the Trump Organization your client?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2529

1 A It was a firm client.
2 Q And when you joined Bingham in or about 2009, did you
3 bring the Trump Organization work with you?
4 A Yes, the Trump Organization continued with us.
5 Q You said "us." I'm talking about you. You continued
6 doing work for the Trump Organization, correct?
7 A Yes, I continued doing work for the Trump Organization.
8 Q And when you moved to Vinson & Elkins in or about 2014,
9 did the Trump Organization continue to use your services?
10 A Yes, they did.
11 Q And when you moved to Morgan Lewis in 2015, did the 12 Trump Organization come with you?
13 A Yes, the Trump Organization continued to.
14 Q Do you currently do work for the Trump Organization?
15 A No.
16 Q When did you cease doing work for the Trump
17 Organization?
18 A That would have been 2020, some point in 2020.
19 Q Do you recall when in 2020?
20 A I do not. It would have been in the spring or early 21 summer.
22 Q Was there some precipitating event that caused you to 23 cease doing work for the Trump Organization?
24 A No, not any one event.
25 Q Were there several events that caused you to cease

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2530

1 doing work for the Trump Organization?
2 A There just came a time when it was mutually agreed with
3 the client that it was no longer in their best interest for me
4 to be representing the Trump Organization.
5 Q Keeping this at a high level, can you describe the type
6 of work you've done for the Trump Organization over the years?
7 A Predominantly providing tax advice and advice related
8 to the tax advice as well as other projects from time to time as 9 requested by my client.
10 Q What would those other projects be?
11 A Assisting reviewing contracts from time to time,
12 helping with forming entities and things of that nature.
13 Q Did you ever do any work responding to government
14 investigations?
15 A Yes. From time to time, I would help with government
16 investigations or other government inquiries.
17 Q Anything else you can recall?
18 A I assisted in the preparation of their work with Office
19 of Government Ethics, helping with the disclosure requirements.
20 Q Did you work on what's known as the OGE form the Office
21 of Government Ethics form that's filed?
22 A I did provide legal advice with respect to OGE form
23 278.
24 Q You mentioned you provided tax advice. What 25 were -- again, at a high level. I'm not asking for specific

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2531

1 information, but at a high level, what was the -- what were the
2 general areas of tax advice that you provided to the Trump
3 Organization?
4 A The general high areas of tax advice would be related
5 to one, assisting with IRS examinations, working through that 6 process as well as for Ava right of Trump entities as well as 7 assisting with tax planning, looking at the tax aspects of 8 various transactions as they came along over the years.
9 Q Would tax planning include providing advice with 10 respect to donations of potential easements?
11 A Donations of potential easements would be I would
12 provide tax advice with respect to donations, legal advice
13 relating to tax relating to conservation easement.
14 THE COURT: Potential conservation easement,
15 potential transactions?
16 THE WITNESS: Yes, both potential and lots of 17 potential transactions across the board as well as actual 18 transactions that occurred.
19 Q In connection with either potential or actual donations
20 of conservation easements, would you interact with third-party
21 professionals such as appraisers?
22 A I would interact with lots of _ professionals,
23 appraisers, environmentalists, a whole -- engineers, architects,
24 all sorts of folks, yes.
25 Q During your time providing services to the Trump

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2532

1 Organization, with whom did you interact?
2 A Is there a specific period you're looking for?
3 Q Let's put the period 2011 to present. Withdrawn.
4 Excuse me. Withdrawn, please.
5 Let's put the period as 2011 to when you ceased
6 providing services in or about 2020.
7 A I worked with a lot of people at the Trump
8 Organization. It would have been -- gosh. Jason Greenblatt,
9 Jaclyn Maranes, Alan Garten. I'm sorry. I'm going through
10 departments. As well as Jeff McConney, Allen Weisselberg, Mark
11 Hawthorn. Gosh. Just a host of people, a variety right of 12 folks.
13 Q Let's throw out some names to see if we can jog your 14 memory.
15 A Sure.
16 Q Donald Trump?
17 A Sr. or --
18 Q Sr. When I refer to Donald Trump today, I will be 19 referring to Sr. If I am referring to Jr., I will add Jr., so
20 the record is clear.
21 A That would be very helpful. Thank you.
22 Q Did you interact with Donald J. Trump between the 2011
23 through the termination of the relationship?
24 A To some degree, yes.
25 Q What do you mean by "to some degree?"

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2533

1 A I did interact, but it wasn't -- he was pretty high on
2 the food chain. That's not who I spent most of my time with.
3 Q Understood. Not as often as some of the other people
4 you just mentioned?
5 A Yes.
6 Q Fair enough. Donald Trump Jr.?
7 A From time to time.
8 Q Eric Trump?
9 A Yes, from time to time on certain projects.
10 Q More often than you interacted with Donald J. Trump?
11 A It would depend on the project.
12 Q Ivanka Trump?
13 A Yes.
14 Q Patrick Birney?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Jill Martin?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Anyone else you can think of now that I've given you a
19 couple of names from various departments?
20 A There are others that were in the general counsel's
21 office and I'm sorry. I'm just not remembering their names
22 right now. Adam, his last name I'm not remembering. David
23 Cohen and I know there are others that -- yeah. If you have 24 others to ask me about -- I'm sorry. It has been a while.
25 Q I appreciate the effort to try to remember. We will

1 focus on some documents and that may refresh your recollection
2 later on.
3 A Great.
4 Q Sure.
5 Do you recall working on donations or potential
6 donations of conservation easements relating to TNGCLA also 7 known as Trump National Golf Club LA?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Do you recall working on a potential donation of a
10 conservation easement at Briarcliff Development?
11 A Yes.
12 Q That's the Briarcliff Golf Course located in 13 Westchester County in New York, correct?
14 A That's my understanding.
15 Q And do you recall working on a potential donation of a
16 conservation easement relating to Seven Springs?
17 A Yes.
18 Q And Seven Springs, that's the property located in 19 Westchester in the Towns of Bedford, New Castle and North
20 Castle, correct?
21 A That is correct.
22 Q So let's focus on those and if there are differences
23 between them, I'd like you to point it out.
24 When you worked on those potential donations, what did
25 that work entail?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2535

1 A That work would entail coming to an understanding of
2 the property. It would come to an understanding most
3 importantly the key element when thinking about a conservation
4 easement is that an easement is something that is going to be
5 granted in perpetuity and my perspective, to back up for a
6 second, is from a tax law perspective. So I want to be clear on
7 that.
8 So the tax law requires that it be granted and most
9 easements are granted in perpetuity and perpetuity means
10 forever. As we all know from our property class back in law,
11 perpetuities, so you go back to that and so when you're granting 12 an easement, it is a big decision. And a conservation easement, 13 what that means is you retain the land and you put in 14 conservation easement on it which is restricting the uses of the 15 land. And so there's a lot of different decisions that have to 16 be made with that and that's where I would spend a lot of my
17 time in coming to understand the property, coming to understand
18 what you want to do with it or not do with it, and it would be 19 the choices of which parts of the property do you want to 20 restrict and which parts do you not want to restrict and what 21 will those restrictions be.
22 And then once you determine that, I would work with the 23 client to help them implement that, working with the 24 environmentalists. There's all kinds of environmental reports
25 that have to be done, baseline documentation, working on the

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2536

1 conservation easement deed, that makes the grant of the
2 easement, working with the appraisers to determine the value of
3 the easement working with engineers to some degree.
4 Although, it was generally the other professionals who
5 would work with the engineers, but it was just that whole
6 collection of people and every piece of property is unique, so
7 these are sort of some of the common elements sometimes there
8 would be others who needed to be involved depending on what the 9 project was and what the land looks like. But it would also be 10 making sure that all of these things are laid out in the tax
11 code and all of these various requirements, what does baseline
12 documentation of the environmental aspects of the property, what 13 does that mean, what's required for that, what's required for 14 the appraisal. It needs to have qualified appraisers and a
15 qualified appraisal. So there's all kinds of hosts of legal 16 requirements that need to be satisfied. So that's the work I
17 would do.
18 Q I think it was implied in your answer, but so the 19 record is clear, you mentioned legal requirements. Were these 20 requirements, to your understanding, to enable the donor obtain
21 a tax deduction for the value of a donation?
22 A Some of them were. Some of them were requirements that
23 are other sorts of requirements. Again, we would want to have a
24 deed that would be respected, that could be recorded. That 25 would be legal requirements outside of the tax code, but a lot

1 of them are legal requirements that are set forth in the tax
2 codes, so that Congress provided incentives encouraging folks to
3 conserve land. Restrict your rights. Don't build on it. Let's
4 keep public parks. Let's keep rivers. Let's keep beautiful
5 forests. Let's keep all of that. And to do that, they 6 did -- they created an incentive, a charitable deduction for 7 tax purposes and that -- so in order to secure the deduction,
8 you would have to follow a lot of very stringent and lengthy 9 legal requirements that are set out in the tax code in a host of 10 treasury regulations. I think there's probably 50 pages of 11 these regulations, IRS guidance that even further explains the 12 code and the regulations and a huge body of case law that's 13 developed on conservation easements as well as other donations
14 of charitable property.

15 Q You mentioned in an earlier answer, an appraisal. I
16 think the term that I've seen is a qualified appraisal. Have 17 you seen that term?

18 A Yes.

19 Q A qualified appraisal, does that have a different
20 meaning to you than an appraisal?

21 A A qualified appraisal is an appraisal that is described 22 in the tax code and in order to secure it, a deduction, the 23 appraisal that you have has to meet the requirements of a
24 qualified appraisal.

25 Q And the appraisal is an appraisal of the value of the

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2538

1 easement that is being donated; is that correct?

2 A It is the value of what you have given up in your
3 easement, the economic value of the rights and restrictions that 4 you have given up.

5 Q And you mentioned that you've worked on several of 6 these. Do you know how that value is determined by an 7 appraiser?

8 A There are different methods for determining that value.
9 The treasury regulations lay out the methods that may be used.
10 The primary method, I think my recollection is -- I don't have 11 the regs in front of me right now, but I believe the principal
12 method is to find sales of comparable conservation easements.
13 Those rarely exist, so the treasury regulations have an
14 alternative way to measure the value of a conservation easement
15 and that is called the before and after method.

16 Q And in the before and after method, does the appraiser
17 determine the value of the property before placement of the 18 easement, the value of the property after the placement of the 19 easement, subtract the latter from the former to come up with 20 that value of the easement itself?

21 A So, yes, the appraiser, if I understood this, first
22 determines --

23 Q If my question wasn't clear, please tell me and explain
24 it in your own words.

25 A The appraiser values the entire property unrestricted

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2539

1 meaning with no restriction.

2 THE COURT: You left out the word "first" which was
3 included in your first answer.

4 THE WITNESS: I will try to speak slower. So yeah,
5 we first start with the entire property. You value that.
6 So in my example, we'll say that's worth a hundred. You
7 then value the property after the restrictions have been
8 placed on, taking into the characteristics of the property
9 as it would then exist with the conservation easement. So
10 the after-value would generally be less.

11 So let's say started off of 100. Your after-value
12 is ten. The appraiser then would say, well, the easement is 13 the difference between the entire value of the property
14 unrestricted and the value of the property restricted. So 15 in my example, it would be 100 minus ten, would be 90 the 16 value of the property.

17 There would then need to be other considerations
18 taken into account which would have to do with does the 19 property owner have contiguous property that surrounds or is 20 in the nearby area of the property that's been restricted.

21 Q And if there is an enhancement to the value of the 22 contiguous property, that would be deducted from the value of 23 the donation, correct?

24 A That is correct.

25 Q We'll come back to easements in more detail as we go

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2540

1 on, but I would like to turn to something you mentioned about
2 doing work in connection with government investigations for the
3 Trump Organization.

4 Do you recall in or about September of 2016
5 communicating with the New York Attorney General's Office with 6 respect to an inquiry that the office was conducting?

7 A I know I have responded to lots of things. So again,
8 if you could give me a little more background, that might help
9 me.

10 Q I will show you a document, ma'am, and see if it
11 refreshes your recollection.

12 MR. SOLOMON: If we could, please, pull up PX 1001
13 and may I hand this up to the witness.

14 Q Ma'am, this is a letter dated September 27, 2016 sent
15 by electronic mail and certified mail return receipt requested
16 to you at Morgan Lewis. You were at Morgan Lewis in 2016,
17 correct?

18 A Yes, I was at Morgan Lewis then.

19 Q This is from the State of New York Office of the 20 Attorney General from the Charities Bureau, correct?

21 A Yes, the letter is from the Charities Bureau.

22 Q Did you receive this on or about September 27, 2016?

23 A Yes, I did.

24 MR. SOLOMON: We offer this in evidence.

25 THE COURT: Granted. It is in.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2541

1 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
2 Plaintiffs Exhibit 1001.)
3 Q Does this refresh your recollection to at least one
4 matter that you were handling for the Trump Organization in
5 connection with a government inquiry?
6 A Yes, it does.
7 Q What can you tell me if you -- withdrawn.
8 At a high level, what was your understanding of this
9 inquiry that was being conducted in or about September of 2016?
10 MR. ROBERT: I appreciate the way Mr. Solomon has 11 worded the question, "at a high level." I just want to make
12 sure there is no waiver of attorney-client privilege here
13 and I don't think that's what Mr. Solomon is getting at. I
14 just wanted the record clear. Do you agree, Mr. Solomon,
15 you are not trying to --
16 MR. SOLOMON: We are not asking the witness to 17 waive privilege. We just want to know the witness'
18 understanding of what the investigation concerned.
19 MR. ROBERT: From a high level, not conversations
20 with any of her clients?
21 MR. SOLOMON: My question did not ask for 22 conversations with the client.
23 MR. ROBERT: I didn't think you were and --
24 MR. SOLOMON: Also to be clear for the record, this 25 witness received the letter. So this information came to

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2542

1 the witness, not from the client, but from the Attorney
2 General's office.
3 MR. ROBERT: I hear what you're saying. I just
4 wanted the record to be clear. Got it.
5 MR. SOLOMON: No issue.
6 THE COURT: Please continue.
7 Q Does this letter refresh your recollection about
8 a -- about this inquiry?
9 A Yes, it does.
10 Q When you received this letter and read this letter, did
11 you have an understanding as to what the inquiry concerned?
12 A Yes.
13 Q What was that understanding?
14 A My understanding was the Charities Bureau was taking a
15 look at whether the Trump Foundation had complied with New York
16 State law in connection with its activities.
17 Q I only want the names. I'm not asking what you
18 discussed. So let's be clear. Did you discuss this request for 19 information with anyone from the Trump Organization?
20 A Yes.
21 Q With whom did you discuss it?
22 A That would have been Jason Greenblatt.
23 Q Anyone else?
24 A Certainly at some point President Trump. Probably at 25 some point a variety of the in-house lawyers at Trump when I was

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2543

1 trying to understand it. I would have talked to Jeff McConney.
2 I would have talked with Allen Weisselberg. I would have talked
3 with Debra whose last name is escaping me right now. She is one
4 of the internal bookkeepers at the organization.
5 THE COURT: I have to ask about "would have." Does
6 this mean you remember you did or does this mean you think
7 generally looking back, "Yeah, that's probably who I spoke 8 to"?
9 THE WITNESS: I would have spoken to them. Yes, I
10 spoke to them. I'm sorry. Got me there. Yeah, I would 11 have spoken to them.
12 THE COURT: Thanks.
13 THE WITNESS: I did speak to them to clarify.
14 THE COURT: We are very precise.
15 THE WITNESS: At some point in time, not with 16 everything in this letter, but in general in connection with 17 the investigation.
18 Q When you had these conversations, were you ever made
19 aware of a prior communication from the Attorney General's 20 office directed to Mr. Weisselberg concerning a contribution in 21 the amount of $25,000 made by the Donald J. Trump Foundation to 22 an organization known as And Justice For All?
23 MR. ROBERT: Objection. If the knowledge came from 24 a conversation with any of the clients, it would be 25 privileged. So if the question is "did the witness learn

1 from any source other than her client", that's a fair
2 question. But just a general question "did she become 3 aware," she may have become aware of it from her client and 4 the mere fact that she says that would be an invasion of the 5 privilege.
6 THE COURT: I'm not sure that that's right. The 7 fact that there was some discussion doesn't mean that that 8 was advice asked or advice given, but we might be able to 9 avoid that issue by --
10 MR. SOLOMON: That's all I was asking, was she made
11 aware. I am not asking what was said. I'm not asking
12 advice that was given. Was she made aware of the prior
13 communication from the Attorney General's office? May I
14 finish, please? I don't think that's privileged. The mere 15 fact of the existence of prior communications is not 16 privileged.
17 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, any fact that a lawyer
18 learns from his or her client during the scope of their
19 representation is governed by attorney-client privilege.
20 That's why if the question is "did you learn a fact from 21 someone other than the client," that's a fair question. But 22 once we get into "were you made aware of something," then
23 becomes the issue of who made you aware of it and that 24 conversation is absolutely privileged.
25 THE COURT: I disagree. It is not advice.

Page 2545

1 MR. SOLOMON: And also, Your Honor, not every fact
2 you learn from your counsel or from the client would be
3 privileged. If a client told me, "today is Thursday," that 4 doesn't make that communication privileged.
5 MR. ROBERT: It would make it confidential if it's
6 absent an order directing an attorney to provide it. It
7 would be a problem, but here, the judge made his ruling.
8 THE COURT: So objection noted, understood, but
9 overruled.
10 Q Simple question. Did you become aware of a prior 11 communication from the Attorney General's office relating to the 12 contribution that I described?
13 A At some -- I'm sorry. Of a prior communication from 14 the Attorney General to?
15 Q To the Trump Organization relating to a $25,000
16 contribution made by the Donald J. Trump Foundation to an 17 organization known as And Justice For All?
18 A I believe I was aware of that communication. I don't
19 recall the details.
20 (Continued on the next page.)

1 Q And were you made aware that the Donald J. Trump
2 Foundation responded to the Attorney General's Office? It's a
3 yes or no.
4 A I believe I was aware of that, too, yes.
5 MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Could we please mark as PX
6 1000 for identification?
7 Q Ma'am, while you're reviewing it, I'll just identify 8 for the record that this is or appears to be a letter on the 9 Donald J. Trump Foundation letterhead dated June 28, 2016
10 addressed to someone at the New York State Attorney General's 11 Office.
12 MR. KISE: Your Honor?
13 THE COURT: Yes.
14 MR. KISE: I'm just going to impose yet another
15 objection. What does this have to do with anything in this
16 case? I mean, maybe Mr. Solomon is going to connect it up,
17 but this is 2016 and it's a completely separate
18 investigation of an entity that's not a defendant here. It
19 has no connection to these proceedings of an investigation
20 in a matter that's long since been over, so I know we're all
21 interested in moving this along, I just don't see what 22 connection this has to these proceedings.
23 THE COURT: Mr. Solomon?
24 MR. SOLOMON: I think Your Honor heard earlier
25 today from the prior witness that representations were made

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2547

1 to potential insurance carriers that there were no
2 outstanding investigations, inquiries and the like. I don't
3 remember the exact language. I know we had to go back to 4 find the exact language, but in the vernacular there are no
5 outstanding claims asserted or unasserted and that 6 representation was made to HCC and what we're doing now is 7 just establishing whether there were --
8 MR. KISE: Right, but again -- well, as you know,
9 on the insurance matter, I had basically the same objection,
10 which is what does that have to do with a 6312 violation? I
11 mean, all of those matters between the insurance company and 12 the client are subsumed within the policy as we heard the 13 witness -- I'm not going to go off on that.
14 Anyway, we're now taking to a second degree of 15 relevance. We first had something that I objected to, you
16 overruled as marginally relevant -- not relevant in my
17 opinion, but marginally relevant and now we're taking yet
18 another step away from the core issues in the case because 19 I'm not sure what this has to do with anything in the case.
20 What count does it relate to in the case?
21 MR. AMER: Can I just say I didn't hear the word
22 "marginal" when Your Honor overruled --
23 MR. KISE: That was my description, as I just said.
24 THE COURT: As I told the witness, we are very 25 precise around here. One word or the other could make a big

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2548

1 difference.
2 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, an omission in seeking
3 insurance coverage is relevant. And if we show that there
4 was knowledge at the Trump Organization at the highest
5 levels of the existence of this inquiry and we actually are 6 going to get to an actual Notice of Violation that was sent
7 to the Trump Organization. The failure to disclose that, if 8 intentional, absolutely goes to the existing claims in this 9 case in the 6312 violations that we've alleged.
10 MR. KISE: Okay, Your Honor, the 6312 violations
11 relate to financial statements and the submission and use of 12 those financial statements in the course of obtaining loans
13 and insurance. They -- the case as pled and as tried 14 doesn't have to do with every single communication or 15 representation that was made to anyone at anytime by this is 16 the Donald J. Trump Foundation, again, a non-defendant,
17 nonparty. At some level there really needs to be some 18 containment of what we're doing here. This has gotten 19 pretty far afield. So, respectfully, the issue in the case
20 and the claims asserted again relate to statements of 21 financial condition that were inflated, not inflated,
22 whether they were used to obtain insurance, whether they 23 were used to obtain loans, but anything to do with 24 representations to anyone we'll be here until 2025.
25 MR. SOLOMON: We'll only be here that long, Your

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2549 1 Honor, if there that many fraudulent misrepresentations or 2 omissions. I have another five or ten minutes on this line. 3 It's not going to take that long. We're going to establish 4 that they knew about these inquiries, they knew about the 5 Notice of Violation, and as you heard earlier today in open 6 court, they did not disclose it to HCC. 7 MR. KISE: Okay. So, again, the case is about 8 statements of financial condition. 9 THE COURT: That's a banned word. 10 MR. KISE: I know it is, but I have to say it in 11 response. I realize that the case is about statements of 12 financial condition and the use of those -- I mean, we can 13 pull out the complaint and look at the claims, so -- and 14 whether or not the insurance company was notified properly 15 or not notified properly about something is as the witness 16 has testified and is clear for the policy subsumed within 17 the policy. The insurance company and the insured and the 18 insurer work that out. If there is something that wasn't 19 disclosed, then they don't cover it. 20 MR. ROBERT: In addition, Your Honor, they keep 21 using the phrase "they knew." Who knew what and when 22 because there is a policy of insurance that's in evidence. 23 There is specific provisions in that policy as to who is -- 24 who has to have notice in order to have a disclosure. So at 25 some point there has to be some connection of the dots as to	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2551 1 false financial statements anymore. That's their claim. 2 That's what they're seeking. That's part of their 3 injunctive relief is stop doing that. 4 THE COURT: Part of. 5 MR. KISE: But it can't be just stop committing 6 fraud generally. I mean, there is no provision in the law 7 for that. So any allegation of any claim of any kind that 8 they say is fraudulent is going to come in as evidence of 9 some pattern? I mean, it has to -- everything has to 10 connect back to the case that's been pled and is being 11 proven. Otherwise, there is absolutely no limits on what 12 comes in. It's just anything that they decide to look at 13 and say okay, this is fraud, that's fraud. How are you even 14 supposed to fashion relief in that regard? Stop committing 15 fraud generally? That's a prohibited order. 16 THE COURT: I have various ideas about how to do 17 that if it comes to it. 18 MR. KISE: But the point is there has to be some 19 connection to the claims. Otherwise, it's just adrift. 20 THE COURT: We're going around in circles. The 21 objection is overruled for the reasons I said and that 22 Mr. Solomon said. Let's move on. 23 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. 24 THE COURT: We'll break at five minutes to 1:00. 25 MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Thank you.
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2550 1 who knew what at one time. They're uniform. They knew, 2 they knew. Respectfully, it's inappropriate here because 3 there are multiple defendants. 4 THE COURT: I certainly see that and understand 5 that as an issue. The record will show who knew, who didn't 6 know. So that will be a consideration. 7 But let me make a general statement that might 8 foreclose or deter other objections. To me, this case is 9 not just about financial statements being submitted to 10 insurance companies. It's about whether or not the 11 defendants were committing fraud, persistent and whatever 12 the pervasive -- whatever the other wording is. And it's 13 also about what the -- what any alleged, of course, any 14 remedies will be. If it seems to me in taking Mr. Solomon's 15 -- building on what Mr. Solomon said, if the evidence shows 16 that a certain defendant was consistently acting 17 fraudulently if, if, if, then the law provides that there 18 can be all sorts of equitable relief. So I think this is 19 completely relevant. I understand it's not maybe the heart 20 of the case, but it is in the case. 21 MR. KISE: But, Your Honor, the equitable relief 22 being sought, the equitable relief that can be granted is 23 limited by what they're requesting and the equitable relief 24 cannot be just stop committing fraud generally. It has to 25 be specific. And so here the case is about don't issue	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2552 1 Q Ms. Dillon, have you had an opportunity to review what 2 is PX 1000? 3 A I did not read it word for word, but I looked at it 4 when you asked me to look at it before, but no, I did not 5 re-review it during the exchange. 6 THE COURT: You were riveted by the exchange? 7 THE WITNESS: As a lawyer I was riveted by the 8 exchange. 9 THE COURT: I was just going to say as a lawyer. 10 Q Ma'am, if you see on the second page there is a 11 signature above the printed name "Allen Weisselberg." 12 Would you recognize Mr. Weisselberg's signature if you 13 saw it? 14 A No, not necessarily. 15 Q Were you aware that the Donald J. Trump Foundation had 16 communicated in or about June of 2016 with the New York State 17 Attorney General's Office concerning the contribution described 18 in this letter? 19 A Isn't the letter the communication? I'm -- I didn't 20 maybe understand your question. Was I aware of this letter? 21 Q Yes, ma'am. 22 A Yes, I was aware of this letter. 23 Q Okay. When did you become aware of it? 24 A Contemporaneous with the letter. 25 Q Okay.

1 MR. SOLOMON: We offer the letter in evidence.
2 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
3 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
4 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1000 in
5 evidence.)
6 MR. ROBERT: Objection to relevance. It's a
7 continuing objection.
8 THE COURT: I understand. Objection noted.
9 Overruled.
10 MR. SOLOMON: If we could show the witness PX 1002?
11 Thank you, sir.
12 Q And PX 1002 is a letter on State of New York Office of 13 the Attorney General letterhead directed to you, Ms. Dillon, at 14 Morgan Lewis. Do you see that?
15 A Yes, I do.
16 Q And the "re:" is the "Donald J. Trump Foundation;"
17 correct?
18 A Yes.
19 Q And the title in the center of the first page is 20 "Notice of Violation?"
21 A I see that.
22 Q Okay. Did you receive this letter in or about
23 September of 2016?
24 A Yes, I did.
25 MR. SOLOMON: We move PX 1002 into evidence.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2554

1 THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
2 MR. ROBERT: Same objection.
3 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
4 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1002 in
5 evidence.)
6 Q Just a yes or no, ma'am, did you discuss this letter
7 with anyone at The Trump Organization?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Okay. Just the names of the persons with whom you
10 discussed this letter?
11 A Jason Greenblatt. I don't recall if there were others
12 that I discussed the contents of the letter with.
13 Q So you don't recall if you discussed the contents of 14 this letter with Mr. Allen Weisselberg?
15 A Of this letter in particular, no. I'm not sure if I
16 did or not.
17 Q Did you discuss the subject matter of this letter, the 18 Notice of Violation, if not the particular letter with 19 Mr. Weisselberg?
20 A I believe I did, yes.
21 Q Okay. Let's go then to the subject matter of the 22 letter, if not the letter itself.
23 With whom at the Trump Organization did you discuss the 24 subject matter of the letter?
25 A That would have been as mentioned, Mr. Greenblatt,

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2555

1 Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney.
2 Q Anyone else you can recall?
3 A I don't believe so. I could be wrong. There was a lot
4 going on at that time, but I think that's the list.
5 Q Okay. Did you provide a copy of this letter to your
6 client?
7 A Yes.
8 Q Okay. And at that time who did you understand your 9 client to be?
10 A The Trump Foundation, The Donald J. Trump Foundation.
11 Q So who at the Donald J. Trump Foundation did you
12 provide the letter to?
13 A I don't recall who I gave it to. Certainly I would 14 have given it to Mr. Greenblatt and he would have handled that.
15 Would be my -- again, this is a would be. That is my -- yes, to 16 the best of my recollection, it would have been Mr. Greenblatt
17 that I would have provided the letter to.
18 Q But in your practice, ma'am, if you received a letter
19 from a governmental authority titled, "Notice of Violation," you 20 would have sent it on to the client? Do you have any doubt of
21 that?
22 A I have no doubt that it would have gotten to the 23 clients, but it would have been through client's counsel.
24 Q In-house counsel?
25 A In-house counsel, yes.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2556

1 MR. SOLOMON: Can we please mark as PX 1003 for
2 identification?
3 And while you're looking at this letter I will
4 identify for the record it is a letter on Morgan Lewis
5 letterhead. It appears to be your letterhead, in fact,
6 dated October 7, 2016.
7 Q Ma'am, is that your signature on the second page of 8 this letter?
9 A Yes, it is.
10 Q And did you send it to Mr. Sheehan at the Charities
11 Bureau at the New York State Attorney General's Office on or 12 about October 7, 2016?
13 A Yes.
14 MR. SOLOMON: We offer PX 1003 in evidence.
15 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
16 MR. ROBERT: Same objection.
17 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
18 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1003 in
19 evidence.)
20 Q The first line of this indicates that it is -- excuse
21 me -- that "you are in receipt" -- "we are in receipt of your 22 letter dated September 30, 2016."
23 And that's the letter we saw a moment ago, PX 1002;
24 correct?
25 A Yes.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2557 1 Q Again, without discussing the substance, with whom did 2 you discuss this response prior to sending it to the New York 3 State Attorney General's Office? 4 A I don't recall who all I've discussed the response 5 with. 6 Q Do you recall anyone? When you say you all? 7 A Again, this would have certainly been Mr. Greenblatt. 8 It's -- I'm just not sure who I talked to about it. It was a 9 long time ago. 10 Q Okay. Would you have sent it -- in your practice, 11 would you have sent it to the client for review before sending 12 it on to the Attorney General's office? 13 A Generally I would send things, yes, to the client for 14 review. Again, meaning to in-house counsel at the Trump 15 Organization. 16 Q So is it fair to say by no later than October 2016 you 17 as outside counsel and The Donald J. Trump Foundation were aware 18 that the New York Attorney General's Office had issued a Notice 19 of Violation and that you were gathering information to respond 20 to that notice? 21 A I was certainly aware of it and certainly the Trump 22 Organization -- or the Donald J. Trump Foundation was aware of 23 this, yes. 24 Q Were you at that time gathering information to provide 25 to the New York State Attorney General's Office? When I say	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2559 1 in order for that to be appealable, then we would need to so 2 order that transcript for October 3rd. 3 THE COURT: I will take care of that. I agree with 4 you. 5 MR. KISE: Okay. And then at some point -- 6 THE COURT: One second. 7 MR. KISE: Yes, sir. 8 THE COURT: I'll take care of that or I'll get back 9 to you, if there is any issue or problem. 10 MR. KISE: The other thing, at the appropriate time 11 when the courtroom is empty, a photo of the bench empty so 12 we can lay out what adjoins next to and all that is because 13 I do think that is a matter of interpretation. 14 THE COURT: Okay. Let me just -- you are -- you 15 want to take a photo of the bench so -- 16 MR. KISE: For the record, yes, Your Honor. 17 THE COURT: I would suggest, it's up to you, a 18 photo with me here, with you there and I haven't discussed 19 that. 20 MR. KISE: I don't. 21 THE COURT: -- or some other person I think it will 22 show if there are people sitting in actual chairs. 23 MR. KISE: However you would like me to proceed, 24 although -- 25 THE COURT: We can do both.
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2558 1 "you," I mean you or someone at your direction? 2 A Yes, we would have been gathering information. 3 Q Do you know if this Notice of Violation or the need to 4 respond to the request for information were disclosed to the 5 Trump Organization's insurance carriers prior to soliciting 6 either a renewal or issuance of a new insurance policy? 7 A I don't know. 8 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I'd be moving on to a 9 completely different area. I can start or we can -- 10 THE COURT: I can tell you want a break now. We'll 11 break now until 2:15. 12 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. 13 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.) 14 A F T E R N O O N S E S S I O N 15 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in 16 session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding. 17 Please be seated and come to order. 18 THE COURT: Let's get the witness. 19 MR. KISE: Judge, while we're waiting on that, just 20 two very brief points. Can I ask the Court to so order -- I 21 believe it's the October 3rd transcript, which contains the 22 original gag order? Because I don't think that was ever 23 memorialized. The first violation last week was 24 memorialized and then, of course, yesterday you entered your 25 order, but the gag order itself was on the transcript. So	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2560 1 MR. KISE: Okay. I'll do that. 2 THE COURT: Okay. Good. Okay. 3 And Mr. Kise, you are about Michael Cohen's size. 4 Maybe you should sit there and I'll sit here. 5 MR. KISE: I'm not nearly as photogenic as you 6 might think. I'll stay back here. 7 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. 8 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and 9 approaches the witness stand.) 10 THE COURT: I'll remind the witness, as I always 11 do, that she is under oath. 12 And let's continue with the direct examination of 13 Sheri Dillon. 14 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. 15 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION 16 BY MR. SOLOMON: 17 Q Good afternoon, Ms. Dillon. 18 A Good afternoon. 19 Q Let's turn to conservation easements of particular 20 properties. We talked earlier about Trump National Golf Club 21 LA. Do you recall that? 22 A Yes. 23 Q Can I refer to that as TNGC LA? 24 A Yes, I'll know what you mean. 25 Q Okay. Do you recall the owner of that property is VH

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2561 1 Property Corp? 2 A I don't recall that, but I recall a name similar to 3 that, so. 4 Q We could -- we'll see a document later that has that in 5 there. We'll see if it refreshes your recollection. 6 Did there come a time that the owner of TNGC LA 7 contemplated donating a conservation easement over a portion of 8 its property? 9 A Yes, there was a time that was contemplated. 10 Q Okay. In my questioning today when I use the term 11 "communication" and I'm doing this because we had a little bit 12 of a misunderstanding with another witness another day, but when 13 I say "communications" I mean, all written, any other form of 14 transmitting or receiving information, okay? 15 A Okay. 16 Q Thank you. 17 Do you recall being involved in communications in the 18 second half of -- excuse me. 19 Do you recall being involved in communications in the 20 second half of 2012 relating to the potential donation of a 21 conservation easement over a portion of TNGC LA? 22 A I do recall during a general time frame being involved 23 in potential conversations. I'm not sure of the exact dates, 24 but. 25 Q Okay. Sure. Let's see if we can refresh your	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2563 1 2012? 2 A Yes, I would have received it on or about November 16, 3 2012. 4 Q Thank you. 5 MR. SOLOMON: We offer this in evidence. 6 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations. 7 THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It's in evidence. 8 I understand the objection. 9 Q Okay. You've read through the e-mail chain; correct? 10 A Yes, I quickly did. 11 Q Okay. You'll see that this e-mail chain at the top, 12 the most recent one from November 16th, Mr. Donald Trump, Jr. 13 indicates: "That's great. I'm glad the plans I had in 14 Westchester could be of use." Do you see that? 15 A I see that statement, yes. 16 Q Okay. And the "re:" just so we could clarify something 17 is the TIGC LA? Do you see that? 18 A I see the re: says TIGC LA. 19 Q Do people refer to the TNGC LA golf course sometimes as 20 TIGC LA Trump International Golf Course LA? 21 A Presumably so. 22 Q When you received this did you understand this e-mail 23 chain was referring to TIGC LA? 24 A I don't know what I thought because it seems to mix and 25 match conversations about Westchester as well as LA, so I'm not
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2562 1 recollection and put a time frame on this. 2 MR. SOLOMON: Ask to mark PX 1446 for 3 identification. For the record, this is a -- the top e-mail 4 chain is from Donald Trump, Jr.. 5 Q The date is 11/16/2012 to Josh Seidner to -- cc's to 6 Allen Weisselberg, Sheri Dillon, Andrew Weiss at the Trump 7 Organization and Jill Martin at TrumpNational.com? 8 Does this e-mail chain refresh your recollection that 9 it was in or about November 2012 that there were discussions 10 relating to a potential conservation easement over TNGC -- a 11 portion of TNGC LA? 12 A I see from the e-mail that it was being talked about in 13 November of 2012. 14 Q Okay. And the e-mail chain, you are cc'd on it; 15 correct? 16 A If you give me a second to look through it. 17 Q Of course. Whatever time you need, ma'am. 18 A I'm sorry, what was your question? 19 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, may I have a read back of 20 my question? 21 THE COURT: A read back, please. 22 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the 23 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.) 24 A Yes. 25 Q Okay. And did you receive it in or about November of	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2564 1 really too sure about that. 2 Q Sure. Turn to page two of three. It's from Allen 3 Weisselberg to Josh Seidner and you are cc'd. Do you see that? 4 A Yes. 5 Q Okay. "I understand you are working on the 6 conservation easement project for the above-captioned property." 7 The above-captioned property is TIGC LA; correct? 8 A That is what it says that Allen wrote and that's where 9 it starts, but rest of the e-mail provides for a lack of 10 clarity. 11 Q Okay. Did you have an understanding, however, that one 12 of the issues in this e-mail was TNGC LA? 13 A I don't know if it was an issue, but there is a 14 discussion about it from the re: line or appears to be a 15 discussion about it. 16 MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Let's mark PX 1412, please. 17 Q Ma'am, you see that PX 1412 is actually an offshoot of 18 the earlier e-mail chain we were just looking at, PX 1466. Do 19 you see that? 20 A I'm still looking at it. Give me just a second, 21 please. 22 All right. Could I have the question again, please. 23 Q Sure. Do you see that this e-mail chain is an offshoot 24 of the earlier e-mail chain we were just looking at, PX 1466? 25 A It looks to be a continuation or it looks to be

1 responding to that prior e-mail chain.
2 Q Okay. On the first page you send an e-mail to Josh
3 Seidner and Allen Weisselberg with ccs; correct?
4 A Yes.
5 Q And the re: is still TIGC LA. Do you see that?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And you suggested at the bottom of your e-mail that 8 your colleague, "Bob Leonard, worked extensively with our 9 engineer on another project." Do you see that?
10 A I do.
11 Q Did Bob Leonard work on the TNGC LA potential donation
12 of a conservation easement?
13 A I don't recall. That was a long time ago back in 2012
14 whether Bob helped me on that or not.
15 Q Okay. If you go up one on the e-mail chain, 11/26/2012
16 from Josh Seidner to you with a cc to the same people, Donald
17 Trump, Jr., Donald Bender, Allen Weisselberg, Andrew Weiss, Jill
18 Martin, and now Bob Leonard has been added as a cc. Do you see
19 that?
20 A I do.
21 Q And Mr. Seidner says to you -- writes to you, excuse
22 me: "Hi, Sheri. I hope all is well. Attached please find the 23 proposed master plan layout for LA."
24 Does that refresh your recollection that this relates
25 to TNGC LA?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2566

1 A This part of the e-mail certainly relates to LA, yes.
2 Q Okay. So you agree with me then in or about November
3 of 2012 the owner of TNGC LA was contemplating or discussing a
4 potential conservation easement over a portion of the TNGC LA
5 property; right?
6 A The owner of TNGC or TIGC LA, whichever it might be,
7 appears to have been contemplating one in November 2012.
8 THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. You say
9 "whichever it might be." I'd like to figure out whether 10 it's one property with two names or two properties with 11 their own name. I have my own opinion, but I'd rather hear
12 from the witness based on everything that's been in front of 13 you, everything you remember, everything you've ever seen.
14 Are they the same property or is it two different
15 properties?
16 THE WITNESS: There is one property that I'm aware
17 of in LA that's a golf course.
18 THE COURT: Which is?
19 THE WITNESS: I just don't recall if it's a TN or a
20 TI.
21 THE COURT: Yes, but it's the same property?
22 THE WITNESS: It's the same property.
23 THE COURT: Thank you.
24 Q You'll see in properties later on it's referred to as 25 TNGC LA. Thank you for confirming. One property may be

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2567

1 referred to two different ways?
2 A Correct.
3 Q Thank you.
4 On this e-mail -- and when I refer to this e-mail, I am
5 still referring to PX 1412, the one from Josh Seidner to you
6 with the ccs, second line, "Mr. Trump has reviewed this layout
7 and thought it can work for our purposes." Do you see that?
8 A I do.
9 Q Did you have an understanding as to which Mr. Trump
10 that was referring to?
11 A I may have at the time, but I don't know.
12 Q Was Donald Trump involved in the potential donation of 13 a conservation easement over a portion of TNGC LA?
14 A I don't recall whether he was involved or not.
15 Q Was Donald Trump, Jr. involved in the potential
16 donation of a conservation easement over TNGC LA?
17 A I similarly don't recall as to whether he was involved.
18 Q Same question for Eric Trump.
19 A I don't recall whether Eric was involved. And part of 20 this might be I don't know what you mean by "involved." Aware
21 of?
22 Q Let's take a step back.
23 Donald Trump Senior, to your knowledge, did he review
24 the layout for the constraints map and existing conditions?
25 A I am -- sitting here today I don't know which Mr. Trump

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2568

1 that's referring to.
2 Q Okay.
3 THE COURT: But that didn't answer the question.
4 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you.
5 May I have a read back, Your Honor?
6 THE COURT: Read back, please.
7 And listen carefully. It's a very specific
8 question.
9 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the
10 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
11 A I have no knowledge of that one way or the other.
12 Q Same question for Donald Trump, Jr.?
13 A Same answer. I have no knowledge of that one way or 14 the other.
15 Q Same question for Mr. Eric Trump?
16 A I have no knowledge of that one way or the other.
17 Q You'll see how I wrote "cc" on this for Mr. Seidner is 18 to Donald Trump, Jr.?
19 A I do.
20 Q Does that refresh your recollection as to which
21 Mr. Trump you understood this to refer to at that time?
22 A I'm sorry. That was 11 years ago, 12 years ago. I
23 just don't recall which Mr. Trump that was referring to.
24 Q And your e-mail ccs Mr. Donald Trump, Jr.. And as you
25 sit here today, you still don't have a recollection as to which

Page 2569 1 Mr. Trump was referred to in this e-mail chain? 2 A I do not have a -- I don't remember. Yes, I can 3 speculate for you, but I don't remember. 4 Q Speculate for us. 5 MR. ROBERT: Objection. 6 THE COURT: Sustained. Speculation is not allowed 7 in court. 8 MR. SOLOMON: She offered, Your Honor. 9 Transcript continues on the following page.... 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	Page 2571 S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) 1 Q You then forward his e-mail on to Jill Martin. Do you 2 see that, in the middle? 3 A I do. 4 Q First sentence, "Yesterday, we had a call with Donald 5 re valuation of the 16 lots." Do you see that? 6 A I do. 7 Q Does that refresh your recollection as to which Mr. 8 Trump was involved in the TNGCLA project? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Which Mr. Trump was involved in the TNGCLA project? 11 A It refreshes my recollection on who this call was with. 12 It doesn't refresh my recollection on who was involved because I 13 believe both -- I certainly know Don or I don't know. I'm not 14 sure who was involved, but I know who 15 this -- I believe I know who this call was. 16 Q Who was the call with? 17 A That would be with Sr. 18 Q And during the call -- next sentence, I'm reading, 19 ma'am. "During the call, we understood Donald to indicate that 20 the 16 lots (and I believe the rest of the "Phase 2" lots) had a 21 different zip code than the Phase 1 lots" and then it goes on. 22 Do you see that? 23 A I do. 24 Q Was it Donald Trump, Sr. that indicated during the call 25 that the 16 lots had a different zip code and then the
S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2570 1 Q Did you understand that the potential easement that was 2 being referred to or considered at that time covered all or a 3 portion of the driving range at TNGCLA? 4 A Yes. 5 MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, mark PX 1460. 6 Before we do that, Your Honor, I move into evidence PX 1412. 7 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations. 8 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence. 9 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 10 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1412.) 11 Q Ma'am, you will see this is an e-mail chain, the most 12 recent on this chain, meaning the first one, is Jill Martin sent 13 October 9, 2014 to you. Do you see that? 14 A I'm sorry. Yes. 15 Q Did the project or the consideration of potential 16 easement in 2012 cease for a period of time and then was 17 restarted in or about 2014? 18 A Yes, that's correct. 19 Q You'll see the bottom e-mail is from Brian Curry to 20 you, the one dated October 9th? Do you see that? 1:25 p m.? 21 A Yes. 22 Q Who is Brian Curry? 23 A He was the appraiser retained to work on that project. 24 Q The TNGCLA project? 25 A Correct.	S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2572 1 additional information you provide in this e-mail? 2 A I'm getting a little uncomfortable here with some of my 3 ethical obligations are privileged since we seem to be getting 4 into conversations I had with my client. 5 MR. SOLOMON: Several things. First off, the 6 privilege belongs to your client, so it is for them to 7 object to privilege, not the witness, as I think you 8 instructed the witness we had here yesterday, Your Honor. 9 Second, second, if I may, this is an e-mail that 10 was produced in this litigation. Your Honor has already 11 ruled that communications governing valuations and 12 appraisals are not privileged. 13 THE COURT: Because they involve business, not 14 legal advice; is that right? 15 MR. SOLOMON: Correct. 16 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, first of all, when we get 17 up too soon, we get criticized for objecting too soon by the 18 government and when we wait too long, they criticize we 19 waited too long. Ms. Dillon is appropriately setting forth 20 as a currently licensed attorney and a former attorney for 21 our clients. If she feels uncomfortable, I think it is 22 incumbent upon her and I commend her for making the 23 objection the way she did or at least making it an issue. 24 We do believe that any conversations, as I said 25 earlier this afternoon, between Ms. Dillon and her former

1 clients are privileged. Again, we weren't directly involved
2 in the special proceeding. I do know the Court made certain
3 rules as to what documents were in or not, but when we
4 address the issue with some previous witnesses, the fact
5 that the Court may have ordered a document to be turned over
6 previously in our view, especially since many of the 7 defendants in this case were not defendants in that case
8 were given an opportunity to assert privilege in that case.
9 But once again, we asserted attorney-client privilege in any 10 communication that Ms. Dillon had with those clients is 11 privilege and not the proper subject of inquiry.
12 THE COURT: Well, I'd rather not because I don't 13 need to address the question of who can object. I see your 14 point. Let's just go to the substance of it. Let me take a
15 very careful read-through of this. I understand
16 that -- not -- you as attorneys were not involved in the 17 special proceeding. I also realize that certain of the 18 defendants were not involved in the special proceedings
19 investigation phase we'll call it. Let me just look at this 20 for a minute.
21 MR. ROBERT: Yes, sir.
22 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the proceedings.)
23 THE COURT: Can I get a readback of the exact
24 question?
25 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2574

1 read back.)
2 THE COURT: I guess I have to rule now. I rule
3 that this is business information or advice, not legal
4 advice. I direct the witness to answer. You are not
5 prejudiced to where any other objections depending upon what 6 the other questions are.
7 A Could you read back the question one more time?
8 THE COURT: Please. My fault.
9 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
10 read back.)
11 A I'm not sure if it was Don, Sr. or Don, Jr.
12 Q Is the fact that you're unable to distinguish between 13 Don, Sr. and Don, Jr. with respect to the TNGCLA project because 14 they were both involved in it?
15 A It is because I saw from an e-mail that you showed me
16 and my recollection Don, Jr. was involved in a lot of things.
17 His father was involved in very few things, but was aware of a
18 lot of things. And it's unclear to me who I was talking to then 19 and confirming that Don, Jr. was potentially involved was the 20 fact who was on those prior e-mails. So it is just a little bit
21 confusing to me and it was a long time ago.
22 Q I understand it was a long time ago, but my question
23 was just a little bit different. Is the reason you can't
24 distinguish who was involved in conversations relating to TNGCLA
25 because both Don, Jr., Donald Trump, Jr. and Donald Trump Sr.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2575

1 were both involved in the project?
2 MR. ROBERT: Objection; leading.
3 THE COURT: Overruled.
4 A And my answer I think remains the same. One, I don't
5 know what you mean by involved. I would certainly agree that
6 Don, Sr. was aware. I don't think he was necessarily involved.
7 He was the highest level executive at the company and involved
8 is -- seems to suggest more to me as -- that seems to be more
9 of a day-to-day thing as opposed to aware of having a general
10 awareness. So that's the distinction I make.
11 As far as Don, Jr., I can't remember if he was involved
12 or also aware and whether it was the staff at the Trump Org who 13 was running the show. I just don't recall.
14 Q I appreciate, ma'am, your distinction between involved
15 and aware of. So when you say "involved," that's day-to-day and 16 when you say "aware," you mean aware of; is that fair?
17 A I would say there's two spectrums, right, and I would 18 say it is not every single detail every day to be involved, but 19 there's also a general awareness which can be a high level
20 awareness on the other hand and there is a spectrum there. So I
21 just want to be clear that I don't know what you exactly mean by 22 involved, but I don't think -- I don't -- in my view, neither
23 of them were involved as I would use the word "involved."
24 Q Okay. When I say "involved" and I asked you questions
25 using the word "involved," give me anyone on that spectrum you

1 just described and feel free to tell me where you think they are
2 on that spectrum. Is that fair?
3 A I think at a high level, Don, Sr. was aware. I think
4 Don, Jr. may have been more aware.
5 Q That's fair. I appreciate the differentiation between
6 the two and I thank you for that. I want to make clear when I
7 use the word "involved" today, I want you to understand it means
8 anywhere on that spectrum that you just described and if you
9 need to explain your answer to tell me where it falls. Feel
10 free to do so, but it would include someone if they're anywhere
11 on the spectrum you described, okay?
12 A Sure.
13 THE COURT: No. No. If we are going to refer to a
14 spectrum from aware to involve, I guess it's -- it is 15 involved to aware. Let's not call it the aware spectrum.
16 Let's call it the aware/involved spectrum.
17 MR. SOLOMON: Very fair enough, Your Honor. I will
18 be guided by that suggestion.
19 THE COURT: Or some other way, just so we're not 20 saying one end of the spectrum to refer to the whole
21 spectrum.
22 MR. SOLOMON: How about I use the term "a role in"
23 and then the witness can tell me where it falls between 24 aware and day-to-day involvement? Does that work?
25 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, I think this is an

1 important distinction if he asks a question and the witness
2 needs clarification. It is direct examination. The witness
3 will say, "I can't answer it that way" and explain it her
4 way. I think using a define term will create confusion.
5 MR. SOLOMON: I'm inviting the witness to explain.
6 THE COURT: A role in -- I would say being aware
7 of something is not necessarily, depending upon your view of 8 language, to have a role in. I'm sure you're creative
9 enough to come up some way to ask the question that doesn't 10 imply the answer and that the witness can explain if she 11 needs to.
12 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. We move PX
13 1460 into evidence.
14 THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
15 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
16 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1460.)
17 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
18 THE COURT: Overruled.
19 MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, mark PX 944 for
20 identification.
21 Q Ma'am, this is an e-mail chain between you and Brian 22 Curry with Rick Zbranek as a cc. Do you see that?
23 A Yes.
24 Q Who is Mr. Zbranek?
25 A Mr. Zbranek was another appraiser at Cushman &

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2578

1 Wakefield.
2 Q And was he working on the TNGCLA project, to your
3 knowledge?
4 A Yes, he was.
5 Q In the top e-mail from Mr. Curry to you on October 16,
6 2014, Mr. Curry writes, "Sheri, I revisited pricing in both lots
7 and home sales scenarios. Numbers come in around 27 to 28
8 million "-- "MM for the driving range property. That is about 9 1.7 to 1.75 MM per lot "as is" condition (not if yet fully 10 entitled before land development, time and risk, et cetera.)"
11 Do you see that?
12 A I do.
13 Q Did you understand that Mr. Curry was advising you that 14 the driving range property was worth approximately 27 to 15 $28 million?
16 A That seemed to be his preliminary view at that point in
17 time.
18 Q His preliminary estimate of the value of the driving
19 range property, right?
20 A I think it speaks for itself. He said the numbers come
21 in around 27 to 28, I understood "MM" to be million, for the 22 driving range property and at that point in time.
23 Q At that point in time. That's all we're asking. At 24 that point in time, the driving range property was the property
25 that was being considered for the potential donation of the

1 conservation easement, right?
2 A The conservation easement was considered -- the 3 easement that was being considered would be placed over part or 4 all of the driving range property.
5 Q So if it's over all of the driving range property, it
6 would be somewhere around 27 to 28 million, right?
7 A At this point, I don't recall whether it was all of the 8 driving range property that was being considered. It's been a
9 long time since I looked at these appraisals, so I don't want to 10 commit to something that I don't know if it is true or not.
11 Q It says for the driving range property. It doesn't say
12 for a portion of it, does it?
13 A Doesn't say for all of it either.
14 Q But it says for the driving range property, right?
15 A I find that to be sort of an imprecise and it also 16 isn't talking about the conservation easement. It is not 17 talking about a lot of things and if you have more documents, 18 that would be really helpful. I could take a look at them and 19 understand it, but --
20 Q We will get to more documents, ma'am, but I want to 21 know your understanding at various points in time.
22 A At this point in time, he was suggesting that numbers
23 come in around 27 to 28 million for the driving range property,
24 whatever he means by that.
25 THE COURT: Just a second. I learned in junior

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2580

1 high school or high school that if you refer to something,
2 you mean the whole thing unless there's some indication you
3 only mean part of it. Now, obviously, I don't know what Mr.
4 Curry was thinking at the time, but -- and there is no jury
5 here. I wouldn't be saying this, but I take the driving
6 range to mean the whole driving range. But, you know, if 7 there's an indication that less than that is meant, fine.
8 And I'm not sure that's what he meant, but that's how I
9 interpret it.
10 MR. KISE: Respectfully, Your Honor, we're back to 11 a little bit to where we were yesterday. It is a matter of 12 interpretation. I think the witness has to testify as to 13 what she can relate. Understanding your view, but she can 14 only testify to what she can testify to.
15 THE COURT: I agree. Thank you. You're right.
16 THE WITNESS: And I'm not trying to be difficult
17 here. It is just there's a lot of different pieces to a
18 driving range property. There's things beyond just the 19 driving range and the lots. Does it include the putting 20 range? I don't know. Does it include the huts? I don't
21 know. There's a lot to it, so that's what's complicating
22 this. There's a lot of shorthand and abbreviations used in 23 e-mails that make them very hard to understand.
24 Q Is that why you at one point in time you instructed
25 your associate not to send e-mails to avoid creating discovery?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2581

1 A I have routinely throughout my practice, through all of
2 years of practice, I was taught by lots of folks when anything
3 is complicated pick, up the phone. Don't use shorthand. Don't
4 use abbreviations. You will end up with 40 e-mails that make no
5 sense and no one understands even at the time or later, so pick
6 up the phone and give them a call.

7 Q Do you recall that the driving range was comprised of
8 16 lots?

9 A The driving range was a driving range with balls and 10 driving range on it.

11 Q Wasn't my question. Later in the process of the 12 analysis for the donation or potential donation of the 13 conservation easement, the appraiser determined that you could 14 do 16 lots on the driving range property. Do you recall that?

15 A The driving range property when it was being considered
16 for a conservation easement, one of the plans of a hypothetical
17 subdivision showed 16 lots.

18 Q Okay. 16 lots times he determined roughly 1.7 to 1.75
19 million per lot, right? You see that in the e-mail?

20 A I see the numbers 1. --

21 Q When we multiply 16 lots times 1.7 million, we've done
22 this before.

23 MR. SOLOMON: I ask the Court to take judicial 24 notice that I think that's $27.2 million.

25 THE COURT: I'm not surprised. I take judicial

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2582

1 notice.

2 Q Sound about right?

3 MR. ROBERT: Objection.

4 THE COURT: What's the ground of the objection?

5 MR. ROBERT: He's leading and turning this into a
6 cross-examination. It is a direct examination of a witness
7 they called. Is not "is this right," "is that right." Ask
8 open-ended questions and get answers.

9 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, this witness was counsel
10 for the Trump Organization and many entities as she 11 testified. She was an agent. We actually have the right to 12 treat her as a hostile witness and lead on it.

13 THE COURT: I would agree she can be considered a
14 hostile witness.

15 MR. ROBERT: This witness has demonstrated no
16 evidence of that at all. She's been incredibly forthright
17 and the fact that a question may be inarticulately phrased,
18 no offense to Mr. Solomon, the witness is being very careful
19 in the words she is using as a careful lawyer. So the fact
20 she may not understand one of his questions or she thinks he 21 is being combative is not what the record demonstrates. She 22 is not an adverse witness and she is not a hostile witness.
23 The government has to continue to treat her and do a normal
24 direct examination.

25 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, the standard isn't how

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2583

1 the witness is answering the questions. The standard is the
2 witness' status as a former attorney and as a former agent
3 for the Trump Organization and various entities as she
4 testified to. We have a right to treat her as a hostile
5 witness. The word 'hostile' doesn't mean 'antagonistic'
6 necessarily. It is a legal term. We all know that.

7 MR. ROBERT: The key is former, no longer current
8 attorney. Ms. Dillon is not our current agent. She was a
9 former attorney for our clients. Again, proceed as we have 10 been with other witnesses and so far, things have been going
11 well until the last few questions.

12 THE COURT: I want to make clear to the witness
13 that by deeming her hostile or adverse, I'm not criticizing
14 her. It is really more of a status situation. Whether or 15 not the answers have also indicated maybe a little bit of 16 body language one way or the other, you could argue that.
17 In any event, objection overruled. I direct the witness to 18 answer.

19 Do you need a readback or you want to just ask
20 again --

21 A Are you asking me to confirm your math?

22 Q I am just asking you if that sounds reasonable to you
23 that --

24 A 1 --

25 Q If it sounds reasonable to you that the 1.7 to 1.75

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2584

1 million times 16 lots comes out to in the ballpark of 27 to
2 $28 million as referenced in this e-mail?

3 THE COURT: We must have 50 calculators in this 4 room.

5 A 1.7 million for 10 of them. For six of them
6 at -- probably around that number, but --

7 Q Thank you.

8 THE COURT: That answers the question.

9 THE WITNESS: I use my Apple calculator all the
10 time.

11 THE COURT: We all do.

12 THE WITNESS: I haven't done multiplication in a 13 while.

14 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in evidence
15 if I have not already.

16 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations and relevance.

17 THE COURT: Overruled. Overruled. Granted. It's
18 in evidence.

19 (Whereupon, the Document were marked in evidence as
20 Plaintiff's Exhibit 944.)

21 MR. SOLOMON: Can we, please, mark PX 1402 for
22 identification.

23 Q Do you recognize this as an e-mail chain with respect
24 to the potential conservation easement donation for TNGCLA?

25 A Yes.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2585

1 Q And you are on this e-mail chain, correct?
2 A Yes.
3 Q And the top message, the most recent on the first page
4 is from Jill Martin. Do you see that?
5 A I to.
6 Q Did you understand that on or about November 2014 she
7 was the assistant general counsel for the Trump Organization?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Brian Curry, we've discussed. Selim Sawaya, do you see
10 Mr. Sawaya is a cc on this?
11 A I do.
12 Q Do you know who Mr. Sawaya is?
13 A Yes.
14 Q Who is he?
15 A He was an engineer.
16 Q Did he work on the TNGCLA project?
17 A Yes, he did.
18 Q What was Jill Martin's role involvement or awareness on 19 this project, to your knowledge?
20 A Jill Martin was in-house counsel for the Trump
21 Organization in LA. She was providing legal advice and 22 assisting one of my primary contacts in connection with the 23 conservation easement.
24 MR. SOLOMON: We offer PX 1402 in evidence.
25 MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2586

1 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
2 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
3 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1402.)
4 MR. SOLOMON: Can we, please, mark PX 1472 for
5 identification.
6 Q 1472 is an e-mail chain. At the bottom is from Brian
7 Curry to you with a cc back to Brian Curry and Rick Zbrank.
8 You see "attached"?
9 A Yes.
10 Q Shortly thereafter on December 12th, you forward it on 11 to Samuel Guthrie. Do you see that?
12 A Yes.
13 Q Who is Samuel Guthrie?
14 A He was an associate who worked with me.
15 Q The e-mail from Mr. Curry, the subject is 16 "attorney-client confidential work product." Do you see that?
17 A Yes.
18 Q When you forwarded on -- withdrawn.
19 And it just simply says, "see attached," right?
20 A Yes, that's what Brian Curry says.
21 Q Right. When you forwarded on, however, the forward on 22 subject "FW: Attorney-client confidential work product," right?
23 A I see that.
24 Q And now there is a line added that says "attachments."
25 Do you see that?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2587

1 A I do.
2 Q "trumpvalueconclusions.pdf," correct?
3 A I see those words.
4 Q Did you add that description for the attachment?
5 A I don't believe so. I don't know. I have no idea.
6 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, it looks like the e-mail
7 from Mr. Curry already has "attorney-client confidential
8 work product" in the subject line.
9 THE COURT: We understand that.
10 MR. SOLOMON: Yes, I wasn't questioning that.
11 That's forwarded. The next line, however, where it says
12 "attachments," "trumpvalueconclusions" is not in the e-mail
13 from Mr. Curry to Ms. Dillon.
14 MR. ROBERT: Correct. That's why this whole
15 document should not be in evidence because it is 16 attorney-client privilege. That makes our point. It
17 was -- the attorney forwarding the document doesn't undo it
18 and you're correct, sir. There is an additional document
19 that is privileged.
20 THE COURT: Let me try to get to the --
21 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, if you look at the second
22 page, the additional document is "Trump Estates Conservation
23 Easement Valuation." The Court has ruled repeatedly that
24 valuation numbers are not privileged. The appraisal process
25 to get to valuation numbers is not privileged. Only

1 attorney work product privilege does not make it attorney
2 work product or privileged.
3 MR. ROBERT: I understand that there is a
4 distinction between business and legal. I think we all get
5 that. Where things get a little blurry is when you have
6 lawyers that need to understand business aspects of a
7 transaction to give legal advice. Here, it is abundantly
8 clear that the information that's in this attachment, while
9 nobody's going to dispute that it is numbers, it is not a
10 legal opinion of an interpretation of a brief or a statute
11 is clearly designed in the process of obtaining information
12 to give legal advice. Therefore, it's privileged. Just 13 because it is a business item doesn't mean that now it's not
14 something that's subject and covered by attorney-client
15 privilege.
16 MR. KISE: It's also, Your Honor -- it's attorney
17 work product. Attorneys hire all sorts of consultants and 18 experts all day long whether in litigation or outside of 19 litigation. If your client has an issue and you need to 20 understand an issue, you can hire a subject matter expert.
21 It may be a business issue. It might be an accounting
22 issue. You would hire an accountant to provide information
23 that evaluates numbers.
24 So just because it's numbers and just because it
25 relates to business doesn't mean that it's not valid

Page 2589

1 attorney work product. That's what attorneys do all day
2 long. I mean, if we're waiving work product protections and
3 privilege protections simply because there are numbers in 4 the document, that eviscerates the attorney work product
5 privilege and attorney-client privilege in the case.
6 THE COURT: I have not seen any requests for legal 7 advice or legal advice. Work product, I would be happy to 8 discuss what's your definition or would you like to find the 9 definition of what attorney work product is? Or I know it
10 is not a privilege, what do they call it, the doctrine?
11 MR. KISE: I don't have to define it. The law
12 defines it and so --
13 THE COURT: What is the legal definition?
14 MR. KISE: Attorneys is work product, work product
15 gathered in the course of rendering legal advice. I mean,
16 it's very simple. So if an attorney hires someone to give
17 them information and input in the course of their rendering
18 legal advice, the product itself doesn't have to contain
19 legal advice. It doesn't have to contain a legal opinion.
20 It's something gathered during the course of their work.
21 THE COURT: Okay. Let's hear -- let's hear from 22 the other side.
23 (Continued on the next page.)
24
25

Page 2590

1 THE COURT: Why isn't this attorney work product?
2 What is attorney work product?
3 MR. SOLOMON: The work of the appraiser in 4 determining the valuations contained on the second page of 5 this exhibit. I assume that's all we're arguing over; is 6 that correct? The first page no one is claiming it is
7 privileged.
8 So the second page of this exhibit, Your Honor, is 9 work done by an appraiser. It is then forwarded on. The 10 original work done by the appraiser is not privileged merely 11 because the appraiser then sends it to the attorney does not
12 make it attorney work product.
13 THE COURT: Some of these points are clear. The 14 fact that they label it something, that doesn't make it
15 privilege. The fact that it's forwarded, doesn't make it --
16 well, it could be waived.
17 MR. ROBERT: Mr. Solomon is conflating. I think 18 the appropriate inquiry is if you ask the witness was this
19 information obtained by you in the furtherance of you
20 providing legal advice to the client. If the answer is no,
21 then it's free inquiry; if the answer is yes, it would be
22 subject to attorney work product.
23 It's not up to Mr. Solomon at this point to say
24 what Ms. Dillon needed or didn't need in 2014 to help her
25 render legal advice to her client. That's up to her as the

Page 2591

1 lawyer.
2 THE COURT: I think one thing I remember clearly
3 about work product is the purpose is that other people can't 4 say oh, this is what the attorney is thinking, this is what
5 the attorney is doing, this is not what the attorney is
6 thinking or doing. This is, what, somebody from Cushman &
7 Wakefield, right?
8 MR. ROBERT: Who is hired to assist the attorney in 9 providing legal advice.
10 THE COURT: Overruled. It's not the attorney work
11 product. It's the Cushman & Wakefield work product.
12 MR. KISE: But it's gathered in the course of the 13 attorney's duties and I believe that at least some of these 14 engagements, if not this one, I don't have it here, that 15 Cushman was engaged by the lawyers.
16 THE COURT: I understand.
17 MR. KISE: So if I engage as a lawyer and I hire an 18 expert to help me, by definition that's work product. Just 19 because the expert is an appraiser by definition that's work
20 product. That's -- the purpose I'm engaging him is to 21 assist me to render legal advice. I'm not engaging them to 22 assist in facilitating a transaction. If I share that work
23 product later with non-privileged individuals, that's a
24 different story, but we're not there yet.
25 THE COURT: I believe, again, that I remember the

Page 2592

1 language some cases discussing work product. The attorney's
2 thoughts, impressions. This not the attorney's thoughts and
3 impression. Overruled. It's in.
4 Any questions you want to ask about it, go ahead.
5 It may also be law of the case at this point.
6 MR. SOLOMON: I was going to cite Your Honor to 7 your September 23, 2020 decision in which the Court said,
8 "Part of the opinion is this Court orders Respondent Morgan
9 Lewis & Bockius to turn over by October 2, 2020 all
10 documents that they have" -- excuse me -- "identified as 11 settlement privilege." It goes on.
12 "The Court reflects the applicability of any
13 settlement privilege" and then continues with "Morgan Lewis
14 to produce to petitioner by October 2, 2020 all documents
15 related to the," quote, 'preliminary valuations' closed
16 quote, "of the Seven Springs easement as documents related
17 to a preliminary valuation are of a business and not of a
18 legal nature."
19 THE COURT: Well, that's the privilege. That's not
20 work product. By the way, I made a ruling. It was either
21 not appealed or affirmed. I'll change my mind if I think I
22 was wrong, but I don't think I was wrong.
23 MR. KISE: Again, Your Honor, I know Your Honor
24 loves that phrase, but as Your Honor's already pointed out,
25 work product and privilege are two different things.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2593 1 Second, it's not that -- if individuals or entities 2 that were not parties to that proceeding are here now, their 3 privilege isn't waived. I mean, it's not possible to waive 4 in perpetuity a privilege for some stranger to a proceeding. 5 And so those individuals and entities are entitled to assert 6 the privilege and they're entitled to assert work product 7 protection at this stage because they wouldn't have had any 8 opportunity at the prior stage. 9 THE COURT: I understand. 10 MR. KISE: There would be no waiver based on that. 11 So while I appreciate Mr. Solomon read, I'm sure, accurately 12 from the prior determination, that would have no bearing on 13 individuals or entities that were not participants in that 14 process. 15 THE COURT: Yes, I understand waiver is a partial 16 and fallback argument, but I don't think -- it's certainly 17 not privileged. I don't believe it's work product either. 18 So let's proceed. 19 MR. SOLOMON: Can we have it offered into evidence? 20 THE COURT: Over objection, it's admitted into 21 evidence. 22 Q Please look at the second page, ma'am. 23 Did you understand this to be the value conclusions 24 from Mr. Curry for the potential conservation easement over the 25 demonstrative driving range at TNGC LA?	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2595 1 it. I don't know who prepared it. This looks like lots of 2 things I've seen. I've seen many, many, many of these and I'm 3 sure you have, too, by now so I can't connect those dots for 4 you. I would like to. I'm not trying to be -- I prefer to go 5 home instead of sit here, so I'm not trying to delay this. I 6 just can't give you what you want. 7 Q See if we can approach this another way. 8 This is how it was produced to us, these pages 9 together, number one. 10 Number two, "VE" on the bottom, Vincent & Elkins, it 11 was produced by your prior firm, okay? I am making that 12 representation to you that that's who it came from and that's 13 how it was produced as one document. That was in fact an 14 attachment to the December 2014 e-mail, okay? Can you accept 15 that? Can you accept that representation? 16 A I didn't produce the document, so yes, I'll accept -- 17 I'm not trying to quibble with you. All I'm trying to say is 18 this has no date on it. I don't know. It's an e-mail on that 19 date. I'll agree with that it had an attachment of some sort. 20 Is this what was attached to that e-mail? If you say so, all 21 right. 22 Q Okay. Let's go based upon that, please? 23 A Okay. So your testimony is that this -- 24 Q No. My representation to you, ma'am? 25 A My representation.
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2594 1 A Looking at this document today I don't know if this is 2 the document that was attached to the e-mail you've got. 3 Assuming that it is, I assume this to be some sort of 4 preliminary value conclusion. I don't know if it's a final 5 conclusion. I don't know what it is in isolation, but it is 6 something that shows some valuation numbers. I don't know in 7 what context. If you had other documents -- the final ones are 8 in the appraisal. I know what those are, but these I don't 9 know. 10 Q I understand, ma'am, but I want to establish the 11 knowledge that you had at various points in time, okay? 12 I understand there is a -- you think there is a final 13 appraisal. We'll get to it whatever you think it might be. My 14 point is different. At this point in time, you had received 15 Trump Estates Conservation Easement Valuation from the person at 16 Cushman & Wakefield that was tasked with appraising the value of 17 the potential donation of a conservation easement at TNGC LA; 18 correct? 19 A And, again, I'm sorry, I'm a lawyer. I'm precise. 20 That's what I do. I get paid to be precise. I get paid a lot 21 to be precise, so my problem is if you want me to assume this 22 was attached to that e-mail, I can't coordinate these dates for 23 you because there is no date on what I'm looking at, so I don't 24 know what point in time. I agree at some point in time this 25 appears to be prepared. It doesn't say Cushman & Wakefield on	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2596 1 THE COURT: We agreed to be precise. 2 Q So this second page, if you see note one is before 3 condition. On the top line, "development and golf course 4 property value before condition note one;" right? 5 A Yes, I see that. 6 Q And if you look down bottom, the note says, "60 lots 7 and golf course without driving range;" right? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Okay. "Less development and golf course property value 10 after condition." That's note two; right? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And note two is "44 lots and golf course without 13 driving range;" right? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Okay. You don't need to grab a calculator. 60 minus 16 44 is 16? That's the 16 lots I made the representation to you 17 about earlier when I asked you to do the math and we did the 18 math together; right, 16 lots? 19 A I don't think we did math on 16 lots. We did math on 20 the value. 21 Q Yes. 16 lots times approximately 1.7 million per lot. 22 Do you recall that? 23 A Yes, but we weren't -- yes, but the question wasn't 16 24 lots. It was what was the value. That's what we were doing 25 before was the math.

1 Q You questioned whether there were 16 lots on the
2 driving range and I told you I was going to show you later that
3 there were in fact 16 lots on the driving range and that's what
4 I'm doing here. Do you see that the before and after show a
5 difference of 16 lots?
6 A I see 16 lots here, but my memory tells me there are 7 many -- there are different configurations at various points in 8 time and it wasn't always 16.
9 Q Is it 16 here?
10 A It's 16 on this document, yes.
11 Q Thank you.
12 So reading this now and assuming this was the 13 attachment to the e-mail cover, okay, Mr. Curry comes up with a
14 valuation for the development and golf course property before
15 the condition of 108 million; right?
16 A 108 million. I see that on the page, yes.
17 Q Okay. And then the value after the condition is 82
18 million. Do you see that?
19 A I see the total value after is 82 million.
20 Q Okay. So by no later than December of 2014 you had 21 received information that the value of the golf course according 22 to Mr. Curry before the condition was 108 million; right?
23 A Yes, if this document was attached to the December 12th
24 e-mail, then yes, this shows the 108 million.
25 MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Let's mark PX 1464 for

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2598

1 identification.
2 THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
3 MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
4 Q Do you recognize what's been marked as Exhibit PX 1464?
5 A I recognize -- I don't specifically recognize it, but
6 yes. It's an appraisal report.
7 Q Okay. And you'll see that on the page five of 160 it's 8 signed by Brian Curry?
9 A Yes.
10 Q And also by Richard Zbrank?
11 A Yes.
12 Q Did you receive this appraisal report on or about
13 March 12, 2015?
14 A I'm not sure when I received it, but it is dated
15 March 4, 2015 in the cover letter and it was sent to Ms. Jill
16 Martin. So I don't know when I got it, but somewhere around
17 that time frame.
18 Q Go back to the first page of the exhibit.
19 A Okay.
20 Q E-mail?
21 A The e-mail.
22 Q Yes, ma'am. Thank you.
23 You'll see that it was originally sent to Sam Guthrie
24 and on March 12th -- Samuel was -- is a he?
25 A Yes.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2599

1 Q He forwards it on to you on March 12, 2015; right?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Okay. So by no later than March 12, 2015 you had this
4 appraisal; correct?
5 A Yes.
6 Q Okay.
7 MR. SOLOMON: We'll offer this into evidence.
8 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and
9 the appraisal itself is hearsay.
10 THE COURT: I assume it's notice not for the truth
11 of its contents. Objection overruled. And it's introduced 12 solely for notice, not the truth of its contents.
13 MR. KISE: Notice to whom? To Ms. Dillon?
14 THE COURT: Plaintiff, you're claiming notice to 15 anyone else?
16 MR. SOLOMON: The interior letter on the appraisal
17 itself is directed to Ms. Jill Martin as the witness 18 testified.
19 MR. KISE: I'm looking at the top of the e-mail,
20 that's fine. If that's the case, I want to be clear.
21 THE COURT: So just Jill Martin.
22 MR. SOLOMON: Jill Martin originally and it was 23 forwarded to Samuel Guthrie who was --
24 THE COURT: Two people?
25 MR. SOLOMON: At a minimum.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2600

1 THE COURT: Deal.
2 MR. KISE: As reflected in this exhibit, that's who
3 is the notice, not at a minimum, if they're not in here.
4 THE COURT: It could have been shown to other
5 people.
6 MR. KISE: It could have been --
7 THE COURT: I understand just for purpose of notice
8 to those three people.
9 MR. KISE: Correct.
10 THE COURT: I told you we understand each other.
11 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, before I go into this in 12 depth, you have given me a five-minute warning.
13 THE COURT: About four minutes ago, so let's take a 14 break now. 15-minute break and I'm starting again in 15 15 minutes.
16 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
17 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
18 session. Please be seated and come to order.
19 THE COURT: Notice that Rock & Roll song, "Can I
20 get a witness?" "Can I get a witness, witness, witness?"
21 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
22 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and
23 approaches the witness stand.)
24 THE COURT: Please continue.
25 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2601 1 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION 2 BY MR. SOLOMON: 3 Q Ms. Dillon, can we turn to the appraisal which has been 4 marked as PX 1464? 5 A Yes. 6 Q You'll see on the cover of the appraisal itself, it's 7 dated as of December 16, 2014; correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And that is the valuation date; right? 10 A I believe so, yes. 11 Q Okay. 12 A I'd have to confirm it on the inside. 13 Q Please take a moment. I'm sorry if I misspoke. It's 14 December 26, 2014 is the date on the cover. 15 A Yes, and that is the valuation date. 16 Q Okay. The fourth page is the letter addressed to Jill 17 Martin. Do you see that? 18 A I do. 19 Q And I had mentioned to you an entity VH Property Corp 20 as one of the owners. If you look at the fifth line down there 21 is a reference to property owned by VH Property Corp and VHPS 22 LLC (collectively, the "Donor") and "donor" is in quotes. 23 Do you see that? 24 A I do. 25 Q Does that refresh your recollection that the owner of	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2603 1 A That is what it says. 2 Q And that gives you -- I think you explained the math 3 and how it is -- the value of the easement would be $25 million? 4 A Well, unless there are some other adjustments, but that 5 appears to be what they valued the easement as. 6 Q So the next line is 25 million? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And then they didn't have to make any adjustments, N/A? 9 A They did not make any adjustments. 10 Q I'm sorry. Please finish your answer. 11 A Yes, it said "not applicable" so there are no 12 adjustments. There is a difference. It's not zero. It's not 13 applicable. 14 THE COURT: Make sure she's completely finished and 15 try not to keep saying okay, okay, okay. Just ask your next 16 question. 17 Q Line E, which is "C-D, conservation easement 25 18 million." Do you see that? 19 A I do see that. 20 Q Did you understand that to be the conclusion of the 21 valuation of the conservation easement? 22 A I understood that to be the estimated fair market value 23 of the conservation easement as of December 26, 2014. 24 Q If I could ask you to turn to page 156 of 160 in the 25 exhibit.
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2602 1 the property were those entities? 2 A Yes, to a degree. 3 Q What do you mean by "to a degree?" 4 A Well, I'm not sure if it was VHPS LLC that directly 5 owned it or if it was Property Corp, but it was in a structure 6 and those were the ultimate -- I think one owned through the 7 other. I just can't quite remember the setup. 8 Q Do you have any reason to believe the information 9 contained in this cover letter is inaccurate in any way with 10 respect to the owner of the property? 11 A No. It's just a little unclear, perhaps. 12 Q Turn to the next page. You'll see there is a chart 13 Valuation Summary. Similar to what you saw in that attachment 14 to your e-mail; right? 15 A Yes. 16 Q Has the before condition property as note one; right? 17 A Yes. 18 Q $107 million; right? 19 A That's what it says. 20 Q Okay. And is that your understanding of Mr. Curry and 21 Mr. Zbranek's conclusion as to the value of the TNGC LA property 22 before the condition? 23 A It is my understanding that is the before condition of 24 the property they valued as 107 million. 25 Q Okay. And the after condition, 82 million; right?	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2604 1 A 156, did you say? 2 Q Yes, of 160. You'll see there are small numbers on the 3 bottom of each page. 4 A Yes, give me a second. I'm on the wrong -- 5 Q Of course. 6 A Yes, I'm there. 7 Q Do you see the chart in the middle of the page, "Sales 8 Price Per Hole Value Estimate?" 9 A I do. 10 Q And the sale price per hole conclusion is $15,800,000. 11 Do you see that? 12 A Yes. 13 Q What understanding, if any, did you have or do you have 14 as to what that number represents? 15 A It has been a long time since I've looked at this, so I 16 need to read around it to better understand it. I have no 17 recollection sitting here today it was another way of valuing 18 things. I just don't recall what it was doing. This is a 19 backup for their work product. 20 Q If you look at the top of page 156, the title is "Price 21 Her Hole." Do you see that? 22 A I see that. If you want me to read this, then maybe I 23 can help you, but it's going to take me a minute to get there. 24 It's been years since I've read this valuation and it was 25 complicated because of the golf course property, the driving

1 range property, and the concept, the hypothetical subdivision,
2 and lot.

3 THE COURT: Wait. Just to try to save time. If he
4 asks you if you see the title of a paragraph, just yes or 5 no. You don't have to say that you haven't read it. We 6 understand that.

7 THE WITNESS: Okay. So if all he wants me to do is 8 verify the words, yes, I see price per hole, yes.

9 Q Do you have any understanding as to whether that 10 $15.8 million number is the estimated value for the golf course
11 property?

12 A No, I don't have an understanding without having read
13 some of this.

14 Q Let's go back to the earlier chart that we were looking
15 at where the number was, if I recall correctly, $107 million.
16 And that's on page five of 160?

17 A Ma'am, it is --

18 Q Ma'am, it's up on the screen, if that helps you.

19 A Not really. Okay, yes.

20 Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump
21 Organization the Valuation Summary that valued the before
22 condition of the property at $107 million?

23 A My discussions with my --

24 Q Yes. It's a yes-or-no question.

25 MR. ROBERT: Objection.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2606

1 THE COURT: It's a yes-or-no question, isn't it?

2 MR. ROBERT: I think we're getting into issues of
3 attorney/client privilege. He's now asking the substance of 4 a conversation.

5 THE COURT: No, I think he asked her did she ever
6 discuss it with anybody at the Trump Organization.

7 Let's have a read back of the question.

8 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the
9 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)

10 MR. ROBERT: That would be in consultation with 11 providing legal advice. The questions that --

12 THE COURT: But it's not the advice. He's allowed
13 to ask that question, no doubt about it.

14 Answer the question, please.

15 A I don't remember whether I discussed specifically the 16 -- did you say the before condition of the property of 107
17 million?

18 Q That was my first question.

19 A Yes, I don't recall if I discussed the before condition
20 of the property at 107 million.

21 Q Did you discuss with anyone at the Trump Organization
22 any of the information contained on the Valuation Summary?

23 MR. ROBERT: I'll just have a continuing objection
24 to this line, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Understood. Overruled.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2607

1 A Not sure what you mean by "discussion," but I certainly
2 -- Jill Martin had the conservation easement showing it was
3 valued at $25 million, so I'm sure at some point I shared that 4 information with her and perhaps with others that this was the 5 final value conclusion so that they could make a decision as to 6 what they were going to do.

7 Q You say "perhaps others," which others?

8 A Again, we had a long list of people that might have
9 been involved in the project, so I'm not sure who was steering
10 the project besides Jill Martin. It might just have been Jill
11 Martin, it might have been any of the others that I talked to.

12 Q Okay. I wasn't asking who was steering the project. I 13 asked with whom you discussed any of the information on the 14 Valuation Summary.

15 A I do not remember who I would have spoken to some ten
16 years ago.

17 Q And let me be clear. Do you recall any communications
18 -- and remember I gave you that very broad definition of 19 communications earlier today? Orally, written or any other form
20 of transmitting or receiving information.

21 Did you have any communications with anyone at the 22 Trump Organization concerning any of the information on the 23 Valuation Summary?

24 A Sitting here today, I am confident I would have had 25 some communications about valuation with some people at the

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2608

1 Trump Organization. Sitting here today, ten years later, I
2 don't recall who that would have been with other than Jill
3 Martin.

4 Q Did you send a copy of this appraisal to anyone at the 5 Trump Organization at anytime?

6 A I can't recall sitting here today whether I did or not.
7 Jill had it, so I'm not sure if I was transmitting anything or 8 if they were getting it from Jill. I don't remember.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2609

1 Q Who would be getting it from Jill? Who are you
2 referencing in that last answer?
3 A It would be whoever she would send it to. I don't
4 know. Yeah, they would have needed it at the Trump
5 Organization.
6 Q What do you mean by "needed it at the Trump
7 Organization"?
8 A They would have needed documentation to know what they
9 did.
10 Q So who at the Trump Organization would need that 11 documentation to know what they did?
12 MR. KISE: Objection. Calls for speculation.
13 THE COURT: Without speculating, who, if any, would 14 have received this?
15 A And so who do I think Jill would have sent it to if I
16 don't recall who I sent it to? Is that the question?
17 MR. SOLOMON: That was not the question, Your 18 Honor. May I ask for a readback?
19 THE COURT: Readback, please.
20 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
21 read back.)
22 MR. KISE: Again, Your Honor, that's just -- now
23 that I see it read back, it's just complete speculation.
24 How would she know anything about internal affairs of the 25 Trump Organization?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2610

1 THE COURT: Well, she dealt with them.
2 MR. KISE: It doesn't appear that the witness
3 remembers who she sent it to herself much less who in the 4 Trump Organization might have received it. It appears to 5 call for complete speculation.
6 MR. SOLOMON: Question wasn't who might have 7 received it. The witness testified she understood it would
8 have been sent to whoever at the Trump Organization needed
9 it. And my question was specifically tailored to that last 10 answer as to who she was referring to when she said who at 11 the Trump Organization might have needed it.
12 MR. KISE: I don't think she was referring to 13 anyone. I think she was just simply saying when you say I
14 don't --
15 MR. SOLOMON: Counsel, your thinking of who she
16 might have been referring to is not relevant. The witness'
17 stated who would have needed it. I asked her who that was.
18 MR. KISE: She said whoever might have needed it
19 would get it.
20 MR. SOLOMON: I'm entitled to ask who she was
21 referring to.
22 MR. KISE: I'm entitled to say it is calling for 23 speculation because I don't know if this witness is capable 24 of knowing that.
25 THE COURT: Overruled. If she doesn't know, she

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2611

1 doesn't. If she can tell us, she'll tell us.
2 A Could we have the question again, please?
3 THE COURT: For a third time, yes. Let's have it
4 read back.
5 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
6 read back.)
7 A And it -- to the extent anyone wanted to use it to 8 support a charitable deduction on a tax return, the people that 9 would need it would be the accountants and most importantly, the 10 outside accountant who prepared the returns which would be 11 Donald Bender.
12 Q You said 'the accountants' and then differentiated "the 13 outside accountants." The first accountant, were you referring 14 to the inside accountants at the Trump Organization?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Okay. Who were those people?
17 A The person that probably would have needed it would
18 have been Jeff McConney.
19 THE COURT: Try not to say, "okay."
20 MR. SOLOMON: I'm sorry, Your Honor.
21 THE COURT: That's okay.
22 MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, pull up PX 731
23 native which is in evidence and go to lines 381 -- let's
24 start at the top of the document first.
25 Q This previously has been identified as what's known as

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2612

1 Jeff Supporting Data or the Supporting Data for the Donald J.
2 Trump Annual Statement of Financial Condition and this is the
3 one for June 30, 2015.
4 MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, go to lines 38
5 through 404.
6 Q You'll see that for the year ending 6/30/2014, the 7 total valuation for Trump National Golf Club LA is $213,690,642.
8 Do you see that?
9 MR. ROBERT: Objection.
10 THE COURT: Grounds?
11 MR. ROBERT: There is no foundation this witness
12 even knows what this document is. He's just asking her if 13 she sees something on a page up on a screen.
14 THE COURT: Okay.
15 MR. SOLOMON: I'm getting there, Your Honor. I'm 16 just asking if she saw that number on the screen.
17 THE COURT: Objection sustained. I think we need
18 to know context of what this document is.
19 Q You mentioned Jeff McConney --
20 MR. SOLOMON: Sorry. Your Honor, we need to know?
21 THE COURT: What this document is and the witness
22 certainly might need to know what this document is.
23 MR. SOLOMON: And I represented that this is Jeff
24 McConney Supporting Data. That's why we went to the top,
25 the June 30, 2015 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2613

1 J. Trump.
2 THE COURT: All right.
3 MR. SOLOMON: It is in evidence, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: Okay. And maybe I should have --
5 MR. SOLOMON: I understand the witness may not have
6 seen this document before. That's not what I'm asking.
7 THE COURT: That's what I want to get into.
8 Q What I want to show the witness is as you see as of 9 June 30, 2015 the valuation for TNGCLA according to this 10 document is $140,710,895. Do you see that?
11 MR. ROBERT: Objection.
12 THE COURT: Overruled. Maybe the question
13 was -- I don't know whether the question was proper before
14 or after, but now it is proper. It has been identified and 15 he's just asking if she sees the number on the document.
16 Overruled.
17 Q And you recall --
18 THE COURT: Did we get an answer? Did we get an 19 answer that she saw the number?
20 Q Do you see that, ma'am?
21 A I see the number sitting here right now in this
22 courtroom on that screen.
23 Q Thank you. And you recall the appraisal that we just 24 saw had valued the entire property at 107 million before the 25 donation of the conservation easement? Do you recall that?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2614

1 A I -- I want to take a step back first. I think --
2 Q Ma'am, my question was do you recall that the appraisal
3 that we saw earlier on the chart on page 5 of 160 valued the 4 property as you agreed at $107 million before the easement
5 donation? It is a yes or no.
6 MR. KISE: Objection, Your Honor. Mr. Solomon is 7 using this witness to make some sort of closing argument.
8 He's trying to get the witness to close the loop on 9 connections between documents, one of which the witness
10 hasn't even seen before today and she's just -- the only
11 answer she's given is, "Yes, I can see" like I could give 12 that answer, "Yes, I see the number on the screen says 213
13 million;" but there's no foundation for her to go ahead and 14 now extrapolate, "I see this appraisal," "I see Jeff 15 McConney's spreadsheet" and somehow there is an 16 interconnectivity there. There is no foundation at all for 17 this. It is totally improper to question this witness about 18 something she knows nothing about.
19 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I haven't asked her to 20 extrapolate anything. I asked her if she saw the number on 21 the screen and I asked her if she remembers a number on a
22 document that she identified that is in evidence for notice.
23 THE COURT: I don't think that proves much
24 necessarily.
25 MR. KISE: Notice to whom? We are back to that.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2615

1 We established before that the only people that was
2 introduced for notice for did not include Mr. McConney, that
3 I'm aware of. It was the people that were on the e-mail.
4 That was what was agreed to when we introduced the document.
5 THE COURT: You're objecting to the question or the
6 number's different? Is one number A and one number is B?
7 MR. KISE: If that's all he is asking, does this
8 number on that page says this, and this number on this page
9 says that.
10 MR. SOLOMON: So the record is clear, the witness
11 also said that since this was on the tax return as a
12 deduction, it would have been sent to Jeff McConney.
13 MR. KISE: No. No, Your Honor. She did not say
14 that. She said who might need it, might need it, but she 15 didn't testify that that's exactly who it was sent to. She 16 can't possibly do that because she doesn't know who it was 17 sent to. He is now putting words in her mouth which is the 18 danger of going down these lines of questioning.
19 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I will stand on the 20 record transcript as to what the witness testified to with 21 respect to Mr. McConney in receiving what I'm assuming this
22 appraisal.
23 MR. KISE: Your Honor, she didn't testify that Mr.
24 McConney received it because she can't probably do that.
25 THE COURT: You know, one thing that even though

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2616

1 I've been judge for over 20 years, I feel like I'm learning
2 more in this case than others, which is we don't deal
3 with -- we don't deal with speculation, the court system.
4 We don't deal with speculation, but we don't deal with 5 certainties either. If somebody says, "Well, I think this
6 person could have" or "I would have" or "This is how I
7 normally did things," it is up to the trier of fact to 8 decide whether it happened or not.
9 MR. KISE: I would respectfully disagree
10 particularly when it comes to things like intent of a
11 criminal statute. You can't just assume that someone
12 received a document and then ignored it which is exactly
13 what the Attorney General is asking. That's where they're 14 going with this is they're trying to establish through a
15 witness who would have absolutely no knowledge whether Mr.
16 McConney actually received something from Jill Martin.
17 The right witness to ask is Jill Martin or Mr.
18 McConney, but certainly not this witness. We can't skip
19 over the part where we establish that Mr. McConney actually
20 had a copy of this document and, therefore, would have acted 21 or not acted in a particular way. That's clearly what 22 they're trying to establish, to just back-door here
23 knowledge, actual knowledge and, therefore, intent which 24 they'll argue later that Mr. McConney acted in a certain way
25 or failed to act in a certain way. They can't presume that

1 based on a witness who has absolutely no basis to conclude
2 one way or the other whether or not Mr. McConney would have
3 received this document.
4 THE COURT: We have a fundamental difference about
5 that. Let me ask you a hypothetical. What if there's 6 proof, solid proof that this witness, and this is a
7 hypothetical, had mailed it to Mr. McConney? We
8 don't -- but we don't have Mr. McConney saying, "Yes, I
9 received it." Could the trier of fact conclude that yes, he 10 received it?
11 MR. KISE: We don't have that evidence. Your 12 hypothetical assumes facts not in evidence. So if they were 13 to establish that -- if they were to establish, for example,
14 that this witness actually e-mailed it to Mr. McConney, yes,
15 then they would be able to establish that, in fact, this
16 witness would have a basis to know or it would be reasonable
17 for her to conclude that Mr. McConney received it because of 18 the fact of sending.
19 We have none of that here. What we have is a
20 witness who has been more or less forced to speculate as to 21 who might need it within the organization based on her
22 knowledge and now they're taking that to mean that Mr.
23 McConney, in fact, received it and they're comparing it to 24 Mr. McConney's spreadsheet which the witness has never seen
25 before today it would appear and doesn't have any ability to

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2618

1 testify about what any of these numbers on the page mean and
2 connecting the dots.
3 THE COURT: The number says what it means.
4 MR. KISE: Well -- but there's a lot of different
5 numbers on here than when you compare them on the valuation
6 and the appraisal. They're oversimplifying and conflating
7 communications, oversimplifying comparison and conflating
8 the communications with a witness who, again, has no basis
9 to know what, in fact, was actually sent or received. If 10 she said it, that's a different story. If they would like 11 to establish that, then okay, then establish that; but they 12 haven't established that.
13 THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, who goes first, me or you?
14 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I've learned if you're 15 going to rule in my favor, to sit down, grab my briefcase
16 and leave the courtroom.
17 THE COURT: Mr. Kise, have we established that we
18 don't need the alleged recipient to say, yes, I received it?
19 There are other ways that a trier of fact can conclude that 20 somebody received something.
21 MR. KISE: There is, but you have to actually do
22 that. I mean, of course, there are other ways. Again, you
23 pointed out if this witness were to testify "I e-mailed it
24 to Mr. McConney," if this witness testified, "I Federal 25 Expressed it to Mr. McConney," if this witness testified, "I

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2619

1 mailed it to Mr. McConney," that would suffice. But what
2 you have here is a witness speculating on who might need it
3 within the organization, "might" being the operative word,
4 and no indication from this witness who is being examined
5 about this at this moment, whether or not Mr. McConney, in 6 fact, received it one way or the other. There's no indicia.
7 I don't think the witness could possibly tell you whether or 8 not it was even sent to him. All she has testified to is 9 what she thinks might have happened. That's not sufficient
10 to establish receipt or even delivery.
11 THE COURT: We're talking preponderance standard
12 here, 51 percent.
13 Mr. Solomon, would you explain as specifically as 14 you can what you think the witness has testified to that 15 would indicate in any way that Mr. McConney had received
16 the -- this, whatever we're calling it, origin document.
17 MR. SOLOMON: The fact -- number one, the fact the 18 witness testified that it was used for tax deduction and 19 that she would have to send it or the recipient would have 20 to be the accountant and the outside accountants. I asked
21 her who. She differentiated between inside and outside.
22 The inside was she identified Mr. McConney, but I didn't 23 want to interrupt Mr. Kise and I think, Your Honor, we can
24 settle this in one quick and easy moment. If the Court
25 looks at line 393 on Mr. McConney's spreadsheet, "per

1 appraisal."
2 MR. KISE: Right. Which appraisal? That's a
3 different -- that's yet a different number. Again, I'm not
4 sure exactly what Mr. Solomon -- he's smarter than this. I
5 don't know what he's trying to establish. I mean, truly,
6 you can't have this witness testify about who would have
7 received something, maybe might. It's not possible. And 8 it's not possible to connect up -- if they -- if they want
9 to call Ms. Martin to testify, if they want to call Mr.
10 McConney and ask him about it. I mean, while we're at it,
11 she said that Mr. Bender -- she said that Mr. Bender might 12 have received it or would have received it as well. Is that
13 then to mean Mr. Bender -- we can assume in evidence now
14 that Mr. Bender, in fact, received it?
15 THE COURT: I don't think it is a question of 16 assumption. It is an issue of fact. I think they raise
17 that issue.
18 MR. KISE: So then we are to say here that Mr.
19 Bender, in fact, received this appraisal as well. Based on 20 that testimony, she said Mr. Bender and Mr. McConney. So if 21 the sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander as you say,
22 so if, in fact, we're going to presume now that based on
23 this witness' testimony, which is speculation, that Mr.
24 McConney received it, well, then -- then the same fact has 25 to be assumed with respect to Mr. Bender. I don't think

1 either makes any sense, frankly, but if you're going to
2 allow one, then you have to allow that it is a fact now
3 established in the record that Mr. Bender --
4 THE COURT: If you want to try to bring that out on
5 any sort of questioning, feel free. I'm not going to go
6 there now.
7 MR. KISE: But there's no way to do one without the 8 other respectfully.
9 THE COURT: I made my ruling. Enough. I made my 10 ruling.
11 Mr. Solomon, where are we? I would like to know
12 how we know what -- how we connect that 50 million and 13 change number to a particular appraisal if we can or you can
14 just withdraw that point.
15 MR. SOLOMON: No. I was just pointing out to Your 16 Honor that the spreadsheet said "per appraisal" as to the 17 question with respect to Mr. McConney. The number I was 18 focusing the witness on is the line on 404 and I don't mean
19 404 error, I mean line 404 on the spreadsheet value as of 20 6/30/2015 is 140 million and I --
21 THE COURT: I know what number you're trying to get 22 to.
23 MR. SOLOMON: Right. I'm sorry.
24 THE COURT: I think you were trying to show that 25 Mr. McConney must have seen the appraisal because it says

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2622

1 "per appraisal," but it doesn't say which appraisal. But if
2 the number is the same, then I'll, as the trier of fact,
3 could say, "Oh, that's the appraisal that the number came
4 from."
5 MR. KISE: But it isn't the same number.
6 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm not reading anything into 7 that because we don't know what appraisal it was, but
8 everything else stands.
9 Q Ma'am, before today, were you ever aware that as of 10 June 30, 2015, the Trump Organization valued TNGCLA property at 11 $140 million?
12 A I was not aware of -- I've never seen this document.
13 Everyone seems to accept that, so I don't even know what this 14 is. I don't know what it's valuing. I don't know what it's 15 doing, so I don't know what the $140 million -- I've never been 16 aware of what they, otherwise, valued Seven Springs at in -- at 17 that time. I've certainly seen things in the news since that
18 time.
19 Q Okay. I think that was just a mistake in your answer
20 and let me clarify for the record. You said Seven Springs?
21 A Oh, I'm sorry. California.
22 Q It is a simple yes or no. Prior to today, were you
23 aware whether the Trump Organization valued TNGCLA as of 24 June 30, 2015 at $140 million? It is a yes or no.
25 THE COURT: That's a yes or no.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2623

1 THE WITNESS: You all think this is simple, Your
2 Honor. Respectfully, there's been so much in the news about
3 this, I don't know if I've heard this before or not. Am I
4 aware? Do I have personal knowledge of it? No. Have I
5 heard it in the last? I don't know. Two years since this 6 case has been going on, probably. I've heard various
7 numbers at various times that there's a value disparity
8 supposedly, allegedly and I, you know -- was I aware of any
9 of this realtime? No, if that's your question.
10 Q Sure. Let's talk about prior -- you said realtime so,
11 that may only be at one point in time.
12 Prior to the filing of this action, were you aware that 13 the Trump Organization valued TNGCLA at $140 million as of 14 June 30, 2015?
15 A I was not aware of the spreadsheet. I'm not sure what 16 they did with that number, so I don't know. Nothing to do with 17 the spreadsheet? Is that your question?
18 Q Yes, nothing to do with the spreadsheet. And ma'am,
19 let's be very clear. I'm just asking if prior to commencement
20 of this action, were you aware that the Trump Organization
21 valued TNGCLA at $140 million as of June 30, 2015; yes-or-no
22 question?
23 A No.
24 Q Did you ever discuss with Jeff McConney in form or 25 substance how he should value TNGCLA?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2624

1 MR. ROBERT: Objection. You are now getting into
2 legal advice that would have been given to a client.
3 THE COURT: That's business advice, not legal
4 advice.
5 MR. ROBERT: They're consulting their attorney who
6 is a tax attorney to give them tax advice. This is not a
7 business consultant. They're not talking to the appraiser.
8 The question was did you ever talk with Jeffrey McConney in 9 form or substance how he should value.
10 THE COURT: It is not asking for the substance.
11 Did they ever discuss? Overruled. They are allowed to ask
12 what was discussed. When it comes to a business advice
13 request, that's something else. So we're getting close to 14 that maybe, but we're not there yet.
15 Q It is a yes-or-no question.
16 A Could you read it back, please?
17 THE COURT: Read back.
18 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was 19 read back.)
20 A No.
21 Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump
22 Organization how they should value TNGCLA for purposes of the 23 Statement of Financial Condition?
24 A Not to my recollection other than -- let me correct
25 that. I did discuss how it was valued for tax purposes and

1 for, you know -- I made -- when we had the appraisal, so
2 certainly again -- are we including Donald Bender in the Trump
3 Organization or is he an agent? I don't know where he fits in.
4 Q Let's include him for the moment.
5 A I would have discussed it with Donald Bender because he
6 has to attach the appraisal to the tax return, so I would have
7 sent him the appraisal and discussed it with him and explained
8 the appraisal to him, so he would have known the value to report
9 on the tax return.
10 Q Other than Mr. Bender, did you discuss the valuation of 11 TNGCLA with anyone at the Trump Organization in connection with 12 the Statements of Financial Condition?
13 A I do not believe so, no.
14 Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump
15 Organization, and let's exclude Mr. Bender for the moment,
16 anyone at the Trump Organization the valuation of TNGCLA?
17 A I don't -- I don't recall. Over the years, I'm sure
18 it may have come up at some point in time, but I don't recall
19 any specific conversations about that.
20 Q Do you recall any general conversations?
21 A I don't recall whether we ever had any or not.
22 Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump
23 Organization? And for purposes of this --
24 A Can I correct my last answer?
25 Q Please.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2626

1 A I certainly would have had conversations with Jill
2 Martin when we were doing the appraisal for the federal income
3 tax purposes which is a very unique kind of appraisal.
4 Q Anyone else?
5 A I'm trying to think and remember.
6 Q Please.
7 A I don't believe so.
8 Q Would you have discussed it with Mr. Weisselberg since
9 this had to do with tax planning purposes? And I mean Allen
10 Weisselberg.
11 A I don't believe so, but people would have been aware
12 and I would have -- the bottom line, would have been discussed,
13 the value of the conservation easement is what would have been a
14 topic.
15 Q What about the valuation of the property?
16 A The valuation of the property as a whole? I don't 17 recall having conversations about that.
18 Q Let's turn to Briarcliff Manor.
19 A Yes.
20 Q Do you recall that property?
21 A Yes.
22 Q That's the property located in Westchester?
23 A I believe it is located in Westchester. It's been a
24 while since I've been there.
25 Q That's owned by Briarcliff Manor, LLC, right?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2627

1 A I would have to look at a chart. If you want to
2 represent that, I'll -- I accept your representation.
3 Q We'll get to it in a document later on. I don't need
4 to represent that, ma'am.
5 Did there come a time that you were consulted in 6 connection with the donation of a potential conservation
7 easement over a portion of that development?
8 A Yes.
9 MR. SOLOMON: Could we look at PX 157, which I
10 believe is in evidence already.
11 Q Ma'am, feel free to look at whatever you need to answer
12 my question, but I'm going to start with is that your signature
13 on page 9 of 11?
14 A Yes.
15 Q If you look at page 4 of 11 and look at "intended use,"
16 "To estimate the value of 71 hypothetical residential units
17 located at Trump National Golf Club Westchester, 1 Shadow Tree
18 Lane, Briarcliff Manor, New York, (the "property"). Do you see 19 that?
20 A Yes.
21 Q Do you now -- withdrawn.
22 Do you recall that the task for the Briarcliff property
23 was to determine the value of a potential donation of a
24 conservation easement over 71 hypothetical residential units?
25 A I'm sorry. I was looking at this. I didn't quite

1 catch the question. I was trying to take a look at the
2 engagement letter.
3 Q In looking at the engagement letter, do you have an
4 understanding as to why Cushman & Wakefield was being engaged?
5 A It was an engagement that we were exploring
6 whether -- the Trump Organization was exploring whether or not 7 to donate a conservation easement and restrict certain of its 8 land.
9 Q That would be over 71 hypothetical residential units,
10 right?
11 A Yes, it would be to prohibit the building of 71
12 hypothetical residential units.
13 Q Let's remember the number 71 because that's going to 14 come up later.
15 MR. SOLOMON: If we can, please, can we mark PX
16 3197 for identification. It is already in evidence. If can 17 we look at PX 3197, please.
18 Q Ma'am, do you recognize this document?
19 A I see that it is an e-mail that I was copied on, but I
20 don't have any particular recollection of it.
21 Q Is it fair to say, though, in or about October of 2013,
22 you were aware that Cushman & Wakefield was ready to move
23 forward with a written report?
24 A I see that's what it says.
25 Q And that's Trump Westchester. Is that a reference to

Page 2629

1 Trump Briarcliff?
2 A Sitting here today, I think so, but there are a variety
3 of Trump properties that were located in Westchester.
4 Q But sitting here today, you do believe this is a
5 reference to Briarcliff, right?
6 A Hopefully, that's what Mr. McArdle told you.
7 Q That wasn't my question.
8 Sitting here today, is it your understanding that that
9 is a reference to Briarcliff, Trump Briarcliff?
10 A It is a reference to Trump Westchester. I don't have 11 an understanding one way or the other that it says Trump
12 Westchester. Again, if you have materials, I'm happy to look at 13 things that say "Trump Briarcliff."
14 Q Maybe we'll get to those. Do you recall if you moved
15 forward with a written report for Trump Briarcliff on or about
16 October of 2013?
17 A What I recall is there was never a -- a donation was 18 never made. The project was explored on and on for a long
19 period of time. I don't recall the fits and starts and timeline
20 of it all.
21 MR. SOLOMON: If we can, please, mark for 22 identification PX 3201. Sorry. It's been corrected. It's 23 already been moved in evidence.
25

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2630

1 Q PX 3201 is an e-mail chain. Top line is from David
2 McArdle to Eric Trump with a cc to you. Do you see that?
3 A Yes.
4 Q "David per my conversation with Sheri, cc'd, please
5 finish but hold off on sending the appraisal until further
6 notice." Do you see that?
7 A I do.
8 Q Was Eric Trump involved in the consideration of the 9 potential easement donation for Briarcliff?
10 A He was aware. I'm not sure if I'd say he was involved.
11 I mean, he was involved. I just don't know what level of 12 involvement you have. But yes, he was more than aware of it.
13 He was more than aware and I don't know what you mean by
14 "involved."
15 Q Were you running all relevant material decisions past
16 him before moving forward?
17 A I would have run decisions by representatives of the 18 Trump Organization, not necessarily always Eric.
19 Q Did you run decisions past Eric in connection with the 20 Trump Briarcliff potential donation?
21 A You're making me uncomfortable again with privilege.
22 Q It's a yes or no. Not asking what the decisions were,
23 ma'am, and I'm not asking the substance of the decisions. I'm 24 simply asking if you ran the decisions past him before moving
25 forward.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2631

1 A Some decisions, yes; not all decisions.
2 Q Do you recall why a decision was made to hold off on
3 sending the appraisal until further notice at that time?
4 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Attorney/client privilege.
5 Why something was done or not done is clearly in the course
6 of acting as the attorney for the organization.
7 MR. SOLOMON: My question, Your Honor, was not why.
8 It's do you recall whether the decision was made. If I
9 misspoke, I will rephrase it.
10 MR. ROBERT: Question was do you recall why a
11 decision was made to hold off.
12 MR. SOLOMON: What I'm saying is yes or no. I
13 wasn't asking what the reasons were.
14 MR. ROBERT: But I would respectfully submit when 15 you're talking about an issue here that is clearly one of 16 attorney/client privilege even the question of if you know
17 why a decision was made, even the mere knowledge that the 18 attorney has it is covered by privilege.
19 THE COURT: Rephrase or read back, either way I
20 don't care, one other the other.
21 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I can withdraw the
22 question?
23 THE COURT: Okay.
24 MR. SOLOMON: We'll fight on other fights.
25 MR. ROBERT: That I agree with.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2632

1 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I'm going to ask to put
2 in front of the witness PX 1465, which I understand is
3 already in evidence.
4 THE COURT: Six-minute warning. Break at 4:30.
5 Mr. Kise, was that your saved by the bell gesture?
6 MR. KISE: Ready to be done for today.
7 Q Ma'am, the court officer has put in front of you PX
8 1465, which is in evidence. Do you recognize this e-mail chain?
9 A I can read it now and see there is the e-mail chain
10 that I was drafting and receiving. Do I have a specific 11 recognition of it, no.
12 Q Or recollection of it?
13 A Or recollection of it, no.
14 Q Okay. If you turn to the second page of the exhibit,
15 the e-mail from you to David McArdle?
16 A Yes.
17 Q Okay. "I spoke to Eric and he is aware that the more
18 supportable value at this point is around $45 million." Do you
19 see that?
20 A I do.
21 Q Was that the value of the hypothetical easement
22 donation -- withdrawn.
23 Was that the value of the potential easement donation
24 for the 71 hypothetical units?
25 A I'm not sure if it was of the 71 units because one of

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2633

1 the things that happens as you're going through this process is
2 you sometime -- you change what may or may not be donated, what
3 may or may not be restricted, whatever the case may be.
4 What I do see is that there was a value of around 45
5 million for whatever precisely it was that was being valued.
6 Whether or not -- I don't know if it was 70 units, I don't know
7 if it was determined there were really 75. I can't remember if
8 there were 65. I know there was some confusion around that 9 point, but it was -- the value of a potential donation was 10 around 65 million for IRS purposes under the IRS appraisal
11 standards as compared to other appraisal standards.
12 Q And you'll see that Mr. McArdle responds to you:
13 "Thanks, Sheri. That is a great summary of where we stand and 14 glad we are aligned here. I will speak with Eric." Do you see 15 that?
16 A Yes.
17 Q Let me take a step back. I didn't ask you. Your 18 e-mail that started with "I spoke to Eric," is that an accurate
19 summary of your conversation with Eric Trump?
20 MR. ROBERT: Objection. The document is one
21 sentence. There is a conversation with Eric Trump. That 22 one sentence is what's there. This question is saying is 23 that a -- let me have it right -- "Is that an accurate
24 summary of your conversation?" If you want to talk about 25 that -- whether that one sentence was said since that

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2634

1 document is now in evidence, that's a fair question, but to
2 talk about the conversation itself, I would say is
3 privileged, Your Honor.
4 MR. SOLOMON: Is a response necessary? We're
5 talking about valuations in an appraisal.
6 MR. ROBERT: You're talking about legal advice in a
7 conversation between a tax attorney and her client. This
8 can be nothing more fundamentally --
9 MR. SOLOMON: Which is disclosed in an e-mail
10 that's been produced.
11 MR. ROBERT: One sentence was produced that says "I 12 spoke to Eric and he is aware." If you want to say is that
13 statement accurate, that's one thing, but this is not a
14 waiver of the conversation that Ms. Dillon had with 15 Mr. Trump.
16 THE COURT: How is it not a waiver if it was turned 17 over?
18 MR. ROBERT: Well, first of all, let me just see.
19 This was produced by -- pursuant to a court order and 20 nonetheless the document itself may be provided, but the 21 underlying substance of the communication is not waived.
22 There is no waiver that's associated with that.
23 MR. SOLOMON: My question was if this was an 24 accurate summary.
25 THE COURT: I'll -- as I often do, I'll make the

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2635

1 simple ruling. Is this an accurate summary? That's a fair
2 question for document that's already in evidence, is that --
3 MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: Overruled. But again, we may be close,
5 but just is that a fair summary. That's a fair question, of 6 course to someone who says "I spoke to Eric." You mean is 7 that a fair summary of, what, the whole paragraph?
8 MR. SOLOMON: Of the portion that recite what she 9 said to Eric or you said, ma'am, to Eric. I don't mean
10 to --
11 MR. KISE: But again, Your Honor, if he's asking
12 the witness if what's in here is accurate does it say that,
13 did you write that communication and is that -- what's in 14 there accurate, that's one thing. But to ask what you --
15 THE COURT: That's all he asked.
16 MR. KISE: If that's what he's asking, but he's not 17 asking it quite that way.
18 MR. SOLOMON: Mr. Kise is trying to parse this in 19 what is not acceptable. I'm asking if what she wrote is an
20 accurate summary of what she told Eric Trump on the phone
21 call. I'm not asking if what she wrote -- this document is 22 accurate as to what she wrote. There is no question the 23 document is authentic. No one is challenging that. I'm 24 asking if this is an accurate summary of what she said to 25 Eric Trump in or about October 2013.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2636

1 MR. KISE: And that then calls for direct
2 attorney/client communication about the matters to which she
3 was engaged to represent him on and represent the 4 organization on, tax matters. That calls for just a direct
5 communication. They have this evidence. They can argue
6 whatever they want from this evidence, but to ask this
7 witness is this specifically what you told your client in a
8 privileged conversation, there is no waiver here of the 9 privilege. This doesn't waive that privilege. It's not 10 possible to waive that privilege just because you wrote in 11 here something to a third party and made a summary.
12 If what's in there is accurate then they can argue
13 what they want, but the idea that there is a waiver of 14 privilege based on a document -- this document is 15 nonstarter.
16 THE COURT: Just a side point, it's to David
17 McArdle. He is --
18 MR. ROBERT: So, Your Honor, the point is if the 19 question is did you tell Eric Trump and is he aware and you
20 want to say that first sentence, is it true that you spoke
21 to Eric Trump and did you tell him that the more supportable
22 value at the point is around 45 million, that's a fair
23 question. But to discuss that whether this e-mail is a fair
24 summary of the entire conversation that Ms. Dillon had with 25 Mr. Trump would constitute a waiver of attorney/client

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2637

1 privilege. So the document that was produced is talking
2 about that one sentence or what is contained in that
3 paragraph. Therefore asking about if that sentence was 4 discussed in the conversation is fair game, but once you go
5 beyond that -- this e-mail wasn't designed to summarize the 6 contents of the conversation between Ms. Dillon and
7 Mr. Trump.

8 THE COURT: Well, whether it was or wasn't
9 intended, I don't want to take more time on this. You can
10 object. All I understand the question to mean is asking
11 this witness who wrote that paragraph that starts with "I 12 spoke to Eric" and I think summarize -- a summary of the 13 conversation question is is that an accurate summary of the 14 conversation, is that what you're asking --

15 MR. SOLOMON: I could not have phrased it better
16 myself, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: I direct the witness to answer is that 18 one paragraph, one summary of the conversation? Blame me if 19 you have to.

20 A Let me give this a try.

21 MR. KISE: Same objection.

22 A Let me give this a try.

23 MR. SOLOMON: It's a yes-or-no question.

24 THE COURT: It's a yes-or-no question is that a
25 fair summary of your discussion with Eric?

Page 2639

1 THE COURT: We'll bill you for that. Let me -- I
2 order the witness not to talk about in this case or your
3 testimony or anything related to anybody until your 4 testimony is finished, which won't be at least until 5 tomorrow obviously.

6 THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

7 MR. KISE: We have Ms. Dillon tomorrow and Flores?
8 MR. AMER: Yes.

9 MR. KISE: Okay. Just want to be sure.
10 (Whereupon, the trial proceedings are adjourned to 11 Friday, October 27, 2023 at 9:30 a.m.)

1 A To your point about my entire discussion with Eric or
2 partial discussion, it's not a yes-or-no question in my view.
3 If I could just have --

4 THE COURT: Go ahead, explain.

5 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, other witnesses,
6 including us, you have indicated if it's a yes-or-no
7 question you have to answer yes or no and they're able to 8 explain their answers by questioning on the other side.

9 MR. ROBERT: First of all, Mr. Solomon, as the 10 judge would say if you can answer it yes or no and the 11 witness said that they couldn't the judge would then allow 12 them to answer.

13 THE COURT: Yes or no to me to the witness may not
14 appear, so I'll allow an explanation. I hope it's brief.

15 A It will be brief.

16 So I have no recollection of the conversation itself.
17 I don't know if there is more in the conversation, I don't know
18 if there is less in the conversation. I believe I would have 19 accurately reflected the parts of the conversation that I
20 reflected here I would believe are accurate, but whether there
21 were more things talked about, less things -- well, wouldn't be
22 less things, but I can't tell you that sitting here today. It
23 was a conversation ten years ago.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I've gone over my time.

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in
 2 session. Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding. Make
 3 sure all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and cellphones
 4 will be permitted, but only to members of the press.
 5 There's absolutely no recording or photography of any kind
 6 allowed in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come to order.
 7 THE COURT: Okay. So why are we here at 9:30
 8 instead of 10:00? Because we're going to hear oral argument
 9 on a motion by Ivanka Trump to quash a subpoena, trial
 10 subpoena issued against her.
 11 I read the papers, so, please, don't be too
 12 repetitive. I'm hoping that we can finish by 10:00. If we 13 can't, then by 10:30. We want to try to finish with the 14 current witness, Sheri Dillon, today. And without further
 15 ado, who would like to speak on behalf of the motion?
 16 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Bennet
 17 Moskowitz on behalf of non-party witness Ivanka Trump.
 18 First, let me say thank you everyone here, especially Your 19 Honor, Ms. Greenfield and the parties for giving us the time
 20 for this in the middle of a very busy trial.
 21 I heard you loud and clear. I have no intention to 22 just rehash what's in my moving papers. As Your Honor
 23 knows, I wasn't afforded a reply opportunity, so I'll take
 24 this opportunity to address things mostly that the AG
 25 raised. What I will say just to level set here and I don't

1 want to get lost in the shuffle with all the papers flying
 2 back and forth on this. We're not here about technical
 3 service defects. This is about fundamental issues of 4 jurisdiction.
 5 THE COURT: Good. That makes things a lot simpler.
 6 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Right, and hearing only facts that
 7 matter for purposes of the jurisdiction. Ms. Trump does not
 8 live in New York. She's not domiciled here and despite the 9 fact that the AG concludes otherwise and doesn't present
 10 evidence supporting that conclusion, she does not transact
 11 business here. Let me say it again, she does not transact
 12 business here. That has a very specific meaning under New 13 York law.
 14 Weinstein, Korn & Miller, no offense to Professor
 15 Siegal. He's great, too. I picked it up and Section 30809
 16 of Weinstein, Korn & Miller, so that section of Weinstein,
 17 Korn & Miller provides, Your Honor, that actual place of 18 business under New York law means where that person is 19 regularly, physically present and regularly transacts
 20 business.
 21 Ivanka Trump does not regularly transact business
 22 and does not regularly at any of the addresses where they
 23 served these subpoenas to these entities at most since 2017
 24 and if they want an affidavit for that business, that's 25 fine. By the way, side note, they didn't put in an

PROCEEDINGS Page 2644 1 affidavit because I urge the Court, and you read the papers, 2 if you revisit it, maybe you don't need to, the 3 correspondence attached to my affirmation, the AG's position 4 on this motion has been like a moving target. 5 First they said, "Oh, it is a subpoena to these 6 entities." No, it is a subpoena to her. Now I'm hearing in 7 their papers for the first time that she transacts business 8 at Trump Tower. She does not. Since 2017, she's been there 9 once or twice a year, never for business, to say hello, 10 people including family members for 15 minutes, 30 minutes, 11 things like that. So there is no basis to say a service on 12 an entity at Trump Tower is service on her individually. 13 That's just wrong. 14 Let's look at the case law here and I'll address 15 mostly the case law that was cited by my friends across on 16 the other side. First, they don't deal with the fact that 17 Justice Fried's decision just as an example, Amelius is 18 decisive. A non-party, non-domiciliary is not subject to 19 the subpoena power of the court. That's 64 New York State 20 3d 855 at 866. Again, that was Justice Fried. 21 When we had the ongoing discussions leading up to 22 this motion and still today, perhaps the AG relied on cases 23 like 2323 Communications Corp. Those cases stand for a 24 principle that's very different which is that where an 25 entity is a party, it can be compelled to appear through a	PROCEEDINGS Page 2646 1 months leading up to this. So if that's the best case they 2 can do, I'm happy with it. It doesn't help them. It helps 3 me. 4 There are other cases. The Court doesn't have to 5 take my word for it. A lot of cases have cited that Gibson 6 Dunn case and what they rely upon such as this Napoli vs. 7 Bern which is 2021 Westlaw 5458747 at page three, 2021 case 8 with the line of cases that I found talking about the Gibson 9 Dunn case. They'll hook on to that inducement. This guy 10 had the legal fees sent there, represented that's where he 11 worked, and then he turned around and said ha-ha, fee over 12 legal dispute, can't get me there. 13 Now, there is another new argument and, you know, 14 Your Honor, I always tell younger associates there comes a 15 time in trial where parties go a bridge too far and try not 16 to do it. Here is the AG's bridge way too far. How they 17 assert for the first time and they are getting a little 18 desperate here, respectfully, that Ms. Trump consented to 19 this jurisdiction in this case because she's a party in the 20 special proceedings. 21 They must take us all for fools. I'm looking 22 around. This is not the special proceedings. They didn't 23 issue the subpoenas in the special proceedings. There was 24 no trial in the special proceedings, so that's just false on 25 its face. And in any event, we could cite case law that
PROCEEDINGS Page 2645 1 specific person. The entities they subpoenaed are not 2 parties, so those cases are not applicable. 3 They also talk about this Gibson Dunn case. Let's 4 take a close look at that case, Your Honor. It is a First 5 Department case, doesn't help them. Maybe they didn't find 6 anything better. In that case, you could tell that -- it's 7 a Gibson Dunn case, is a dispute over legal fees and the 8 person trying to evade service, Your Honor, had the legal 9 fees sent to a specific Madison Avenue address. In the few 10 months leading up to -- 11 THE COURT: Wait. Wait, you don't mean that the 12 legal fee was sent. How the bills were sent. 13 MR. MOSKOWITZ: The bill, excuse me, for the legal 14 fees. Invoice me here kind of thing. Then there is a suit 15 over legal fees. The person trying to say service didn't 16 apply, jurisdiction didn't apply had been to that address 17 for work multiple times leading up to the legal proceedings 18 and leading up to the service. And what the court found 19 there was this guy induced Gibson Dunn to rely on this place 20 where he does go to work sometimes. He can't now turn to 21 the court and say that "I'm actually not really there that 22 much." That's not this case. 23 Ivanka Trump didn't induce anyone to go to Trump 24 Tower. She hasn't been there working since 2017 and she did 25 not go to work there since then, certainly not in the three	PROCEEDINGS Page 2647 1 stands for the proposition, including First Department case 2 law and this is pretty basic, that even consent in one 3 action does not mean that there's jurisdiction over a person 4 who consents even in a related action. Here is not what we 5 are dealing with. They're saying we had this years-long 6 social proceeding. She was subject to jurisdiction in that 7 proceeding. Therefore, in this trial, under separate index 8 number, which we issued subpoenas, she must come today. Not 9 how it works and there's a reason we didn't hear that 10 argument previously. It doesn't fly. 11 So let's talk about the entities. Again, I urge 12 Your Honor to revisit the fact that the AG kind of spoke 13 from both sides of the mouth about what these subpoenas 14 were. It is pretty simple. We all know what happened here. 15 They had easy jurisdiction over Ivanka Trump. They could 16 have served her at her house. Much different. We probably 17 wouldn't be here today. What appears to happen is they task 18 one someone in their office for saying let's go to the 19 transcript let's look at documents let's find some entities 20 that have something to do with her and let's fire off 21 subpoenas. That's what they did. 22 THE COURT: Wait. Wait. Entities that had 23 something to do with her? Didn't she own some of them and 24 didn't some of them own parts of others? 25 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I'll get to that. It is not clear.

1 The TTT and OPO entity, she absolutely has an affiliation
 2 with those entities as do other people who can competently
 3 testify for those entities, but let me stop there. Again,
 4 as non-parties, you don't get to subpoena those entities and
 5 say you must appear via specific person X rather, I'll get 6 to it in a minute, it's black letter law an entity can 7 provide anyone who's competent to testify which goes back to 8 my point.
 9 I asked them why TTT? Why this OPO entity? Why
 10 502 Park? I never got an answer because what they were very 11 honest about, and I appreciate, is that they want her to 12 appear and there's no limitation in their mind of what they 13 could ask her about because it is really not about these 14 entities. That's just the way that they're trying to get 15 jurisdiction over her. 502 Park, I said to them, "Guys, I'm 16 having trouble here. I can't find anything on my end that 17 shows what she has to do with this entity. What did you 18 have before you served the subpoena." I didn't get an 19 answer. You don't get to -- subpoena powers are awesome --
 20 THE COURT: You might get an answer today if there
 21 is an answer.
 22 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yeah, I would like to know the 23 answer because I haven't found it. I said, "Please, share
 24 it because if there is something "-- I'll note I spent a
 25 lot of time. I don't even know that that entity was used

PROCEEDINGS Page 2649

1 for anything. It exists, I grant you that. I could
 2 speculate at what it might have been. I have no document
 3 that says that like the other two that she was an officer or
 4 anything like that. She doesn't know what it is and the AG
 5 doesn't know what it is.
 6 So they weren't served on Ivanka Trump. They were
 7 served at best on these entities. And, by the way, not all
 8 cleanly, but again, I'm not here about service stands or 9 what. If they insist they need those entities, those 10 entities can appear. I think they should articulate with 11 why they need those entities, but I understand the 12 defendants will speak for themselves. They offered -- for 13 the two that we concern that they offer, they offered for 14 someone who has lived here appear and testify for those 15 entities, which you are allowed to do.
 16 New York law again, I pulled out Weinstein, Korn &
 17 Miller. You can look at Section 230504, "If a subpoena to 18 testify is served on and is addressed to an entity, that 19 entity may choose the person who will be deposed," period.
 20 So they cite --
 21 THE COURT: I'm very familiar with that concept
 22 that the entity has the right in the first instance to 23 decide who to produce. I think we are in a different
 24 situation than the normal one here. As we all recognize, we 25 are not looking for the entities. They're looking for the

PROCEEDINGS Page 2650

1 person.
 2 MR. MOSKOWITZ: That's exactly right. At the end
 3 of the day, Your Honor, they just don't have jurisdiction
 4 over her. They tried with this transient business again
 5 articulated to me for the first time in their papers that
 6 they submitted to Your Honor and I just addressed it. It's 7 just wrong and if they want an affidavit saying what I just
 8 represented to the Court as an officer and I'll say it again
 9 that she does not transact business at any of those places
 10 they served, I will be happy to do it.
 11 THE COURT: Did she ever transact business?
 12 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yes.
 13 THE COURT: When was the last time she transacted
 14 business?
 15 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Before 2017.
 16 THE COURT: Okay. So what?
 17 MR. MOSKOWITZ: You have to have jurisdiction over 18 her now. If someone worked in New York 50 years ago and 19 leaves, you don't get to say, "Hey, you once worked at this 20 address. Come to trial." That's not how it works. It has 21 to be jurisdiction now, transact business here now.
 22 THE COURT: How are we going to define now? What 23 if somebody transacts business here, leaves on a vacation or 24 a business trip or is away?
 25 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Again --

PROCEEDINGS Page 2651

1 THE COURT: A week later, they're not still --
 2 MR. MOSKOWITZ: No. The Weinstein, Korn & Miller
 3 basic principle addresses that, Your Honor. If it is a
 4 place you regularly return to work such as like I work on
 5 Third Avenue where my law firm offices are. If I leave for 6 a week and they serve me there, I can't turn around and say,
 7 "Oh, I was gone that week." Here, you have someone who
 8 didn't work at the place for many, many years. They no
 9 longer return there for work.
 10 THE COURT: Let me ask you a question. Did Ivanka
 11 submit any sworn statement?
 12 MR. MOSKOWITZ: On this motion, no, because again,
 13 I didn't hear this argument and didn't get a reply for it.
 14 I'm happy to submit one now. I would have done it in a
 15 reply brief.
 16 THE COURT: Now is too late. I'm hoping to decide
 17 this today and if she testifies, it will be fairly soon.
 18 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I wasn't put on notice that that 19 was their argument because they kept changing it. How could 20 I respond to something they didn't articulate? I can't 21 guess what their position is.
 22 THE COURT: Well, it's standard practice in New 23 York law that you need to have an affidavit from someone
 24 with personal knowledge if you're going to start spouting
 25 facts, but --

1 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I agree, and they don't have one 2 either showing the opposite, but I'm happy to put one in 3 today. 4 THE COURT: I'm not sure that they can prove a 5 negative. Ivanka would be the person best able to say when 6 she ever -- when was the last time she worked in New York 7 or whether she still works in New York, what she owns here, 8 et cetera, et cetera, but -- 9 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I could get it to the Court ASAP. 10 THE COURT: I promise you I'm not a "Ha-ha, I got 11 you" judge. I'm not trying to say, "Ha-ha, you didn't have 12 an affidavit from her," but it does weaken your argument 13 because you keep talking about what she does and doesn't do. 14 She would know better than you. 15 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I agree, and if I had been afforded 16 an opportunity to reply, I would have submitted it. I did 17 not want to disregard what the Court advised me which was no 18 reply afforded, which was the e-mail I received. 19 THE COURT: Whether you should have needed a reply, 20 waited for a reply, a reply is to respond to their 21 arguments, but if you don't make out a prima facie case by 22 an affidavit from Ivanka saying "I don't do these things. I 23 don't live there," et cetera, I don't think that should have 24 been in the reply. That should have been in moving papers, 25 but that's just my opinion. All right, continue.		1 sorry. She is and that changes things fundamentally. 2 You're no longer in the case. You're not a resident. You 3 don't work here. You don't have jurisdiction over that 4 person. That's the breaks. 5 THE COURT: The expression is "that is the breaks." 6 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I'm referring in the singular 7 situation, but I appreciate Your Honor's. 8 THE COURT: All right. Anything else on your 9 initial -- I don't know whether we will have time for a 10 reply, but was that it for now? 11 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yes, Your Honor. I mean, I 12 appreciate the possibility if I hear something new, to 13 address it. 14 THE COURT: Probably. Probably. 15 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yeah. 16 THE COURT: Okay. It is my understanding that the 17 defendants themselves do not have standing to contest this, 18 but I'll let them talk if they want to. 19 MR. KISE: Thank you, Your Honor. I don't know 20 that I would say we don't have standing since it affects the 21 impact of the trial and it affects the course of the trial, 22 but in all events, I appreciate the opportunity to address. 23 THE COURT: We always like to hear your mellifluous 24 voice. 25 MR. KISE: That's good. At least there's something
1 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor. So going 2 back to the idea that corporations can designate their own 3 witnesses, they cite the Standard Fruit case, totally 4 different. In that case -- by the way, it was from 5 1977 -- the court did allow a party to subpoena an 6 out-of-state witness. It was after the witness provided by 7 the subpoenaed corporation was unable to testify to the 8 relevant facts. And even then, the court allowed the 9 corporate entity to select between two different 10 individuals. 11 THE COURT: When I said, I read all the papers, I 12 didn't read all the cases, but that case, I did read. 13 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Right. Right. So again, that's 14 our point. The corporation gets to put someone up and it 15 has to be someone who can speak to the facts, again, which 16 is why my first question to them when we got notice that 17 they were trying to serve these subpoenas, "Hey, what 18 testimony are you going for" and we quoted this and it is in 19 the exhibits to my affirmation. They were honest about it. 20 I appreciate that. It was basically limited. It was, "She 21 knows this, she knows that, but I can't really limit it," so 22 they want her here. They want it to be unlimited. They 23 didn't depose her. They could have. They didn't de benne 24 esse, you know, subpoena her. They could have done that. I 25 guess they didn't think she'd be out of the case. I'm		1 positive that may happen here. I will try not to go over as 2 you suggested, Your Honor. I'm not going to belabor the 3 papers. I know you've read them and you've seen in our 4 papers that we view the subpoena truly as just continued 5 harassment of President Trump's children. They were all 6 named and included in this case as leverage. There's no 7 serious evidence that any of them had any involvement in the 8 Statement of Financial Condition preparation. 9 Ms. Trump was dismissed from the lawsuit by the 10 First Department and now despite having a year to depose Ms. 11 Trump in this case, several months post-dismissal to depose 12 her, now all of a sudden in the trial, the Attorney General 13 claims that her testimony is somehow essential. I thought 14 Mr. Wallace was going to object when he stood up. I'm just 15 so used to it. No. No. 16 THE COURT: Obviously, testimony does not have to 17 be "essential." 18 MR. KISE: Even if it were relevant then, then they 19 should have done it during discovery. They're claiming now 20 that only she can provide this information and if it was so 21 essential, then why are we here in the middle of trial? 22 There was no even attempt to do a de benne esse deposition 23 which was done with other witnesses who may or may not be 24 available for trial. 25 The exhibits attached to their motion demonstrate

1 that this is an inexcusable delay. All of the documents
 2 that I saw that were attached as exhibits were all things
 3 they had in their possession for at least a year, if not
 4 more. The Attorney General certified in their NOI, their 5 note of issue, that all discovery was complete and the 6 service of that prohibits reopening. I'll cite the Court to 7 the Melcher case, 38 AD3d 376. It is a First Department
 8 case that stands for that proposition that their 9 certification meant that they've completed their 10 investigative efforts for trial, their discovery efforts for 11 trial and yet, this is tantamount to a discovery subpoena.
 12 Nothing was done.

13 To us, again, our answer is obvious they want to 14 put Ms. Trump on the stand, create another media event while 15 I'm always certainly happy to have the Attorney General in 16 the courtroom, her presence today demonstrates that that's 17 what this is about. I doubt she came here to hear Ms.
 18 Dillon. I doubt she came here to hear Mr. Flores.
 19 Although, I'm sure the testimony will be riveting. Really 20 the purpose here is to focus on another one of Mr. Trump's 21 children who has been dismissed from the lawsuit.

22 To the jurisdictional point that Mr. Moskowitz
 23 raised, there's just no legal authority for the Court to 24 require a non-party, non-domiciliary to appear at trial as a
 25 representative of a non-party entity. It's non, non, non.

PROCEEDINGS Page 2657

1 And the Court itself could not compel her attendance under
 2 these circumstances.

3 The service issue, I'll just touch on briefly. The 4 service on -- and the cases -- I'm not citing all the
 5 papers. They're in their papers, Your Honor. The service
 6 on a non-party entity registered agent is not service. It
 7 is not service on Ms. Trump in her individual capacity and a
 8 non-party, non-domiciliary not subject to the court's
 9 subpoena power does not constitute service on Ms. Trump.

10 And I'll cite, as in our papers, the Genger case,
 11 50 Misc.2d 361. The Attorney General argues that Ms. Trump
 12 did not contest jurisdiction in the special proceeding, but
 13 that's frankly a complete non sequitur. The Coutts case
 14 they cite is completely in opposite. That's a judgment
 15 debtor who fled the jurisdiction after judgment that then
 16 filed a parallel action against the creditor in a New York
 17 court.

18 There was no dispute that the court could obtain
 19 the jurisdiction over the debtor in the very case at issue,
 20 but here, you have Ms. Trump is not a party. She was 21 dismissed by the First Department. She's not a judgment
 22 debtor and she's not actively litigating any affirmative
 23 case in New York.

24 The Standard Fruit case that they cite is also in 25 opposite. There, an investigative subpoena sought

PROCEEDINGS Page 2658

1 information about that entity, about Standard Fruit, about
 2 that specific entity. They produced, as was their right,
 3 the first witness, the corporate designee to testify about
 4 relevant facts. Only after that witness testified and there
 5 was a demonstration that that witness could not -- could
 6 not testify did the court order another witness.

7 The Amelius case, which we also cite 64 NY Supp. 3d
 8 855, draws the distinction further bearing out, Standard
 9 Fruit draws the distinction between a non-party corporation
 10 and a corporation under investigation. Here, you have three 11 non-parties, none of which are under investigation, none of 12 which have any association heretofore with this case.

13 So, the subpoenas were not served. They were 14 served all on Ms. Trump. They were served on the non-party
 15 entities. Those non-party entities are entitled to 16 designate a corporate representative and the Attorney
 17 General has the burden in the first instance to demonstrate 18 that that designation was inadequate. The Barone case, 260
 19 AD2d 417 and the other cases we cite stands for that 20 proposition that there must be some demonstration that the 21 initial witness that is designated by the entity is 22 inadequate.

23 There's no showing that the individual that's been 24 designated here by the corporate entities, Eric Trump is 25 inadequate. In fact, the Attorney General herself alleged

PROCEEDINGS Page 2659

1 in the complaint that Eric Trump is responsible for all
 2 aspects of management. I mean, that's their allegation. So
 3 I don't see how they can claim without any explanation
 4 that -- or any proof that Eric Trump is now somehow an 5 inadequate corporate designee, and they're not entitled to 6 raise that issue unless and until they make that -- make
 7 that showing and that has been established by the court.

8 Finally, and just briefly, the subpoena itself
 9 revealing what this is all about is truly overly broad.
 10 There is no attempt to narrow the issues. They just want
 11 another free-for-all on one of President Trump's children.
 12 There's no real relevance to the proceeding. It's more in 13 the nature of a subpoena for a deposition where we're going 14 to spend seven hours. "What do you know about this?" "What 15 do you know about that"?

16 THE COURT: She was deposed already in a different
 17 case related, if you pardon the expression, so it is not 18 like they're not -- it is not like a total shot in the 19 dark.

20 MR. KISE: It may not be a total shot in the dark,
 21 but the subpoena is pretty close. The lights are on dimly
 22 and they're shooting off to the right when there's someone 23 over on the left that's their target. So yeah, maybe it is 24 in the same room, but the lights are dim and they're going
 25 in the wrong direction. So there's -- if they had a

PROCEEDINGS Page 2660

1 specific focus, then they would have put that in the
 2 subpoena. If they had a specific purpose, they would have
 3 put that in the subpoena.
 4 And frankly, had they had such specific focus and 5 specific purpose, we wouldn't be here because they would 6 have either deposed Ms. Trump during the long course of 7 discovery in this case. They had ample opportunity to 8 depose anyone they wanted. She was certainly available for 9 that while she was a party. And then after she wasn't a
 10 party as of June of this year, they still had several months
 11 to conduct a de benne esse deposition.
 12 They haven't even deposed -- made any showing to 13 the Court as to why that wouldn't suffice or wouldn't have 14 sufficed. Even after the commencement of trial, they 15 haven't even proposed that. And I'm not going to agree to 16 that on behalf of Mr. Moskowitz' client. I'm just showing 17 that it just shows the real purpose here is to drag her into 18 court. It is bad faith and it is harassment of another one
 19 of President Trump's children who has been dismissed out of 20 this case.
 21 The First Department determined that she left in 22 2017, so to your point, Your Honor, about affidavit or 23 connectivity, I mean, I think the First Department has 24 certainly, if not established it fully, has established it
 25 almost 95 to 99 percent of the way. They basically said she

Page 2662

1 this case. She was dismissed in the case the end of June.
 2 There was still time to do the de benne esse deposition and
 3 they did not and instead of coming before this Court
 4 forthright and saying, "Listen, we want Ivanka Trump and 5 these are the reasons why," they come up with this Ruth
 6 Goldberg, coming up with these three companies that have
 7 nothing to do with it. We want them.
 8 Mr. Moskowitz in consultation with my client says,
 9 you know what, for the two companies that have something to 10 do with Trump, Eric Trump is willing to be the corporate
 11 representative because he's going to be testifying anyway
 12 and they said, "Well, no, no, not so fast." They were 13 smoked out as Your Honor pointed out. They want Ivanka
 14 Trump. If they want Ivanka Trump, there is a mechanism to 15 do it. If they do it in the appropriate way and even if 16 there is still an objection by Mr. Moskowitz, that becomes a
 17 motion that's before Your Honor. But right now, all there
 18 are are three subpoenas, three subpoenas in our view in our 19 papers are defective. There should be no question that they 20 be quashed and we move on. Thank you, Your Honor.

PROCEEDINGS Page 2661

1 doesn't have anything to do with this case and she should be
 2 out. She left years ago. This is not as Your Honor
 3 posited, respectfully, a situation where she's gone on some
 4 vacation or some business tip. She's been gone for years,
 5 multiple years, years and so for those reasons and the 6 reasons stated in our papers and those of Ms. Trump's 7 counsel, we would ask the Court to quash the subpoena.
 8 Thank you.
 9 THE COURT: Mr. Robert.
 10 MR. ROBERT: As usual, I will be extremely brief.
 11 The goosey gander rule, Your Honor refers to it, what's 12 sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. Yesterday
 13 morning when Mr. Holl was on the stand and I had colloquy
 14 with the Attorney General's office because we didn't think
 15 he was going to be called and I said, "Are you going to call
 16 him back?" And they said, "Well, no. Try to serve a
 17 subpoena on him." Turns out he is an out-of-state resident.
 18 We did effectuate service on him outside once he left the 19 court yesterday, but the rules are the rules.
 20 The motion that's before Your Honor today is a
 21 motion to quash the subpoena on three entities. I agree
 22 with Your Honor's sentiment that what this is really about
 23 is trying to serve a subpoena on Ivanka Trump individually.
 24 Then that's what they should have done. There were plenty 25 of opportunities to do it. They could have deposed her in

Proceedings Page 2663

1 THE COURT: Does the Attorney General have anything
 2 to say?
 3 MR. WALLACE: I will try to be brief, Your Honor.
 4 THE COURT: You don't have to be. They took their
 5 time.
 6 MR. WALLACE: I want to try to be, though.
 7 So I'll start with the point the defendants made
 8 about whether there is a mystery as to what Ms. Trump might 9 testify to, why it might be that Eric Trump is not a
 10 suitable replacement for Ms. Trump and the answer as you
 11 somewhat indicated is they have a very good idea of exactly
 12 what we would like to ask Ivanka Trump. I don't think we 13 were hiding it. Her name is on the subpoena. We've been 14 going back and forth about whether Ivanka Trump, the person,
 15 would be appearing.
 16 We have her examination during the investigation.
 17 We've even offered as -- as a resolution that we would put 18 being sued into evidence, her examination from 19 investigation. We even gave the defendants the designations
 20 of what we would have introduced from her examination and 21 the defendants, as is their right, declined to waive the 22 fact that they were not present to cross examine her during 23 that exam and hence, it's not admissible. But they very 24 much know exactly what we would like to put into evidence
 25 from Ms. Trump.

1 I'll also go back to the idea that she is no longer 2 a party and somehow the statute of limitations may play into 3 whether or not she has relevant evidence to provide the 4 Court and courts at trial. 5 I will note that the statute of limitations 6 stretches back to 2014. That means that Ms. Trump was an 7 executive of the Trump Organization in 2014, 2015 and 2016 8 before departing the company in 2017. All of that is 9 relevant to the case and within the statute of limitations 10 period. She was an executive of defendant entities and she 11 undertook transactions on their behalf. 12 Whether or not the First Department thought that we 13 had established she committed fraud during the period that 14 she was subject to the statute of limitations is unrelated 15 to whether or not she has relevant knowledge of what was 16 happening within the company at that time. And part of the 17 reason we need her knowledge and not Eric Trump's is because 18 she was the direct contact with Deutsche Bank on the OPO 19 loan. She ran that project, not Eric Trump. And I believe 20 the case law in our brief establishes that we're not 21 required to take a witness who may educate themselves about 22 the company's position and then testify. 23 I will also add the idea that we should have taken 24 her deposition is -- it is a red herring. She has a 25 presence in this state. She owns multiple businesses within		1 And this is identified in paragraph 17 and 18 of our 2 supporting affidavit. "She returned as a manager to that 3 entity after her time in Washington was over." 4 So she is a manager of the Trump Organization 5 business. I think you combine that with the fact that 6 they're offering Eric Trump as a replacement suggests that 7 she is very much still intertwined with the Trump 8 Organization. 9 So we're not just focused on the specifics of the 10 mechanics of service. I certainly think that under the 11 operative words of this Court she could be brought here by 12 the Trump Organization. They certainly seem to have enough 13 control of her. 14 The only other point that I think I would make is 15 she clearly owns and operates businesses. They're still 16 affiliated with defendants, they're still relevant to this 17 case and are located in New York. If she truly wanted to 18 completely absent herself from the company, from the state, 19 she was free to do that. She has maintained these 20 businesses and these businesses aren't complete strangers to 21 this action. Ivanka OPO is the ownership interest she held. 22 As late as after the sale of this property she obtained I 23 believe at least $4 million from her interests in the sale 24 of the OPO property which explains very much directly at 25 issue in this case. She was acting in her own interest when
1 the state. She owns multiple businesses that have their 2 principal place of business within the state. 3 And I'll note that Mr. Bennet -- Mr. Moskowitz 4 keeps talking about I believe he's a Weinstein & Miller fan. 5 THE COURT: Weinstein Koren & Miller is with a "K" 6 and not a "C." 7 MR. WALLACE: I'm aware of that at least. But he 8 also ignores the plain language of the CPLR 3086 which 9 states: "For purposes of this section, actual place of 10 business shall include any location that the defendant 11 through regular solicitation or advertisement has held out 12 as its place of business." Ivanka Trump has certainly held 13 out the location of Trump Tower and the Trump Organization 14 as a place of business for the OPO Ivanka entity, for TTT 15 and for the 502 entity. 16 I will add that if Mr. Moskowitz needs additional 17 information on relationship to the 502 entity that can be 18 found in the -- paragraphs 24 through 26 of the supporting 19 affidavit that we submitted and the documents attached 20 thereto. It is a property that she owns and is renting out 21 as a commercial enterprise for TTT. 22 I would note that this is part of the case already. 23 Ms. Kidder talked about it during week two of the trial. It 24 is part of the licensing fees that the company earns. 25 I would also note that she returned as a manager.		1 she was negotiating a loan with Deutsche Bank on OPO. 2 So, in any event, she very much remains intertwined 3 with the Trump Organization. She very much still has a 4 presence in New York and we are now obligated to go seek her 5 de bene esse deposition because she is still available to 6 this Court and through that commercial presence. She is a 7 hundred percent someone who can come in and testify and is 8 susceptible to subpoena in this jurisdiction. 9 So I don't think she is currently unavailable. She 10 is a hundred percent available and the subpoenas were 11 properly served on business addresses she maintains. Either 12 businesses can require her to come forward and testify or 13 she is holding out herself as doing business in those 14 locations in the services appropriate. The fact that 15 they're multiple avenues to secure her testimony in this 16 court does not mean that we're doing something untoward or 17 hidden or changing our tune. She is still apart of the 18 Trump Organization. She still has commercial interests here 19 in New York. She operates businesses here. Whether or not 20 she visits them once a year just to say hello to the good 21 people who are handling her paperwork or she comes more 22 regularly is really irrelevant under 308 subsection six. 23 But I'm happy to answer any questions Your Honor might have, 24 but we really don't see this as being a closed issue. She 25 has sufficient contact with New York if the subpoenas were

Proceedings Page 2668 1 appropriate. 2 THE COURT: What are your thoughts about granting 3 the motion only in part and limiting her testimony to the 4 OPO, Old Post Office transaction? 5 MR. WALLACE: I don't think -- I'm not sure what 6 the basis would be for that. She would have the knowledge 7 in her head of what the transactions are. I think it would 8 also cover her information on the licensing agreements of 9 TTT, her knowledge of the 502 Park apartment. But honestly, 10 if it's just the OPO, I do think relevant -- the course of 11 conduct with Deutsche Bank is relevant to the OPO loan. I'm 12 not sure it presents that much of a restriction to the scope 13 of her testimony, but I think it -- the entities we've 14 subpoenaed really do cover most of the breadth of what we 15 would be interested in hearing -- what we would be 16 interested in having her testify about. 17 THE COURT: Brief replies? 18 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor. 19 First, as to the only argument I heard that touches 20 on actual jurisdiction, the issue which is what dictates the 21 result today is whether there is jurisdiction over my 22 client. I heard this argument with this other CPLR section. 23 There is no case that says that being affiliated with an 24 entity registered to do business in New York means that 25 service of a subpoena on that entity means you have	Proceedings Page 2670 1 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Say owner. I can go with that. 2 Someone who lives in Nebraska can own shares in 50 New York 3 corporations. The case law is clear, Weinstein Koren & 4 Miller with a "K" is clear, Siegel is clear that service of 5 a subpoena of process of a complaint, whatever it is on 6 those entities is not service on that person and does not 7 mean that you necessarily have jurisdiction over that person 8 absent something like someone who is also subject to general 9 jurisdiction which is not what we're here talking about 10 today. Thank you, Your Honor. 11 MR. KISE: Just briefly, Your Honor. I think 12 Mr. Wallace's points about we have a very good idea what we 13 want out of Ms. Trump's testimony, we knew about the OPO 14 loan involvement, all the facts that he's reciting they've 15 known about since the investigation. Forget about since the 16 case started. Since the investigation. 17 So the question comes up again why not do this 18 during discovery. Why not depose her during discovery? Why 19 not depose her after she was dismissed from the case? They 20 had plenty of time to do that. Why issue a Note of Issue if 21 they had a witness that they still needed an essential 22 witness. The rules exist -- 23 THE COURT: You file a Note of Issue. You don't 24 issue a Note of Issue. 25 MR. KISE: That actually sounds better.
Proceedings Page 2669 1 jurisdiction over that individual. That is just wrong. We 2 do cite cases in our brief that go to that point. 3 Even when it's a party entity the cases make clear 4 it's not the same thing. What I guess I'm hearing now, 5 again, a new argument going back to, you know, why I didn't 6 put in certain affidavits I was replying to. I'm now 7 hearing basically a general jurisdiction argument. There is 8 no evidentiary record of asserting general jurisdiction over 9 Ms. Trump and now that we're here today and I'm hearing it 10 for the first time I go as far as to say that argument's 11 been waived. 12 I also heard beyond the jurisdictional argument 13 that was the briefest part of Mr. Wallace's presentation. I 14 heard a lot of, "I want this, we want her for that." I want 15 lots of things. My kid wants a unicorn. What I didn't hear 16 is why there is jurisdiction over her such that you can get 17 those things. There isn't. A lot of these things are not 18 in the record. A lot of it was just their say so 19 conclusion. She holds herself out as doing business in New 20 York? No, she doesn't. Where is that in the record? 21 Again, all they have submitted and all that there is in life 22 is that she is affiliated with certain entities that are 23 registered to do business in New York. 24 THE COURT: Well, again, "affiliated?" That's kind 25 of a loosey-goosey term.	Proceedings Page 2671 1 THE COURT: I'm just trying to get you up to speed 2 on New York law. 3 MR. KISE: By the time we're done here in November 4 of 2025, I probably will be. The rules exist for a reason, 5 Your Honor, they do. And the case I cited it's just black 6 letter law. Once the Attorney General files a Note of 7 Issue, that's it. They don't get to reopen discovery. 8 Particularly -- it would be one thing if this were some new 9 witness that no one knew about before that. Well, this is 10 something critical to our case and we didn't know about 11 these facts and there is some justification. This is an 12 individual that's been associated with the investigative 13 process and then this case then dismissed and no attempt to 14 do anything despite the fact that as Mr. Wallace said we 15 have a very good idea we've known about these specifics, 16 we've known about her specific involvement in the OPO 17 transaction, etc.. So they haven't provided the Court with 18 any explanation for that. The designations that Mr. Wallace 19 represent, I'm glad that he acknowledged and I appreciate 20 him acknowledging. Of course, we weren't there which is our 21 biggest problems with using the examinations under oath, but 22 the designations offer little because there were 23 designations essentially with most of the transcript. So it 24 wasn't really a narrowing in that sense. 25 The idea that somehow Ms. Trump is under the

1 control of the Trump Organization or any of the defendants, 2 her father, all I can say is anyone that's raised a daughter 3 past the age of 13 knows they are not under your control. 4 She lives in Florida, she has her own family. The 5 jurisdiction must be here and now irrespective of what she 6 did five years ago, ten years ago with the OPO transaction, 7 the jurisdiction must be here and it must be now and it 8 simply doesn't exist. 9 And respectfully, the Court doesn't have the 10 authority to just ignore that impediment. Respectfully, it 11 doesn't have the authority to ignore the Note of Issue. 12 Respectfully, the Court doesn't have the authority to just 13 say well, I don't care if they knew about all this a long 14 time ago, we're going to let this happen in the middle of 15 trial. I think the case law on that is very well 16 established. 17 So -- and, again, they haven't even proffered -- 18 I'm not offering this on behalf of Mr. Moskowitz and his 19 client. They haven't proffered the least intrusive means 20 which would be some deposition taking place where she does 21 live, in Florida. And if it's so narrow and it's so focused 22 her testimony, then perhaps that can accommodate the issues. 23 Again, I'm not volunteering that, but what I'm saying is the 24 Attorney General's offered nothing to this Court but no, she 25 must come in here now. We didn't depose her, we don't have		1 York now. 2 MR. KISE: Again, I don't know other than what's in 3 the record and that would -- any ownership of any nonparty 4 entity or party entity would not necessarily give the Court 5 jurisdiction. 6 THE COURT: I acknowledge that. 7 MR. KISE: Because JP Morgan is headquartered here 8 and I think it's somewhere in my 401(k) -- I have ownership 9 interest in a New York entity. 10 THE COURT: You have to be careful what you do up 11 here. 12 MR. KISE: Yes, right. 13 THE COURT: Defendants, what, if anything, in the 14 record shows current ownership interest by Ivanka in New 15 York? 16 MR. WALLACE: I believe that's almost everything 17 that's laid out in our affirmation in support. She owns the 18 OPO entity, which has its principal place of business at 19 Trump Tower; she owns the 502 entity; she owns an interest 20 in TTT Consulting. We -- she is also one of the managers. 21 She owns two apartments at the Trump Park Avenue property. 22 I believe that's primarily the scope of what we laid out in 23 our affirmation. 24 THE COURT: And was the affirmation -- were the 25 affirmations by someone with personal knowledge?
1 jurisdiction over her, we're sending subpoenas to these 2 nonparty entities, but she must show up now. Only one 3 reason: They want her in the courtroom so that it will be 4 filled again with media and we can have another circus day. 5 So for those reasons and the ones stated, the subpoena 6 should be quashed, Your Honor. 7 THE COURT: Okay. Give me a moment. 8 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.) 9 THE COURT: Let me turn on the microphone first. 10 Defendants, I'm not saying that this is sufficient. In 11 fact, it's not sufficient, but what properties does she 12 currently own in New York or what economic interests does 13 she currently have in New York? If you don't know, you 14 don't know. That's okay. 15 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I don't know, Your Honor. 16 THE COURT: Okay. 17 MR. MOSKOWITZ: And I'll point out that if it were 18 clearly in the submissions, which it's not, I would have 19 addressed it and I don't -- 20 MR. KISE: I don't know either, Your Honor. I just 21 know there is nothing in the record that shows that she does 22 other than ownership and entities that are nonparties. 23 Again, as Mr. Moskowitz -- 24 THE COURT: I didn't ask whether they were parties 25 or not. I asked whether she has ownership interest in New		1 MR. WALLACE: It was made by someone with personal 2 knowledge of our files and it attaches the documents that 3 are the support, so it shows the agreements relevant to the 4 OPO entity, to the TTT entity and to 502. So it lays out 5 documentary evidence that supports our assertions on those 6 fronts. 7 THE COURT: Any last words by defendants? And then 8 I'll retreat for properly ten or 12 minutes and come back 9 with a decision. 10 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I can 11 answer Your Honor's question. No, it was not someone with 12 personal knowledge. It was a member of counsel for the 13 Attorney General who attached stale documents. None of them 14 show, answer the question that I can't answer either, which 15 is what does she currently own. 16 By the way, that's all stuff that usually gets 17 addressed at a Traverse hearing, which again, they didn't 18 ask for. We're not submitting to, but that's all about 19 general jurisdiction which they never even argued until now. 20 THE COURT: I once read all the way through 21 "Prince, Richardson & Farrow On Evidence." One of the 22 things I really appreciated learning is there is a 23 presumption in the law that facts stay the same, that they 24 don't change unless there is some reason to think they 25 change. So I don't think the -- well, we don't know what

1 she owns today. Because she owns something six months ago, 2 I don't think that -- 3 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I was just going to say someone can 4 show you a piece of paper that says I go to NYU. 5 Unfortunately, for me, those days are long gone and my point 6 is that as to the question of what gives jurisdiction over 7 her now, there is nothing in this affidavit from someone who 8 in any event doesn't have personal knowledge of that 9 question. 10 THE COURT: You said you went to NYU? 11 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yes, Your Honor. 12 THE COURT: Which division, which school? 13 MR. MOSKOWITZ: College of Arts and Science. 14 THE COURT: Okay. The law school, '79. 15 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I'm aware of because my colleague 16 went to school with you. 17 THE COURT: Anyway, interesting. 18 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Your Honor, I could submit an 19 affidavit, though, again, if the Court has questions I would 20 like to point out, though, they flip the burden. 21 My life as a litigator would be very easy if I 22 could fire off subpoenas without the basis to do so which 23 last I checked I have to have the basis when I serve a 24 subpoena and then say to the person tell me why it shouldn't 25 be this subpoena which is what they're doing here, but		1 Also, and this phrase is engrained in all lawyers, 2 "Ms. Trump has clearly availed herself of the privilege of 3 doing business in New York." 4 Finally, plaintiff's papers make abundantly clear 5 by documentary evidence that Ms. Trump owns property in New 6 York and has done business in New York. Even Ms. Trump's 7 own papers admit that she is occasionally here. 8 With all due respect to Mr. Moskowitz, the record 9 is devoid of any evidence because we do not have a sworn 10 statement from Ms. Trump that she does not do currently or 11 has not recently done business here. The time to submit any 12 such affidavit in the first place was in the moving papers. 13 Movant made the argument. There is no jurisdiction over her 14 and it was her burden to provide an affidavit of someone 15 with personal knowledge, meaning herself, to substantiate 16 that. It is black letter law that you may not use a reply 17 to state facts that should have been in your moving papers. 18 Basically we don't know what she does or doesn't do because 19 only she could tell us that and it's too late to tell us 20 that now. That was -- that should have been, could only 21 have been in the moving papers. That's what you do in the 22 motion to quash a subpoena and I've seen that all the time. 23 I get affidavits from people in California or 24 Nebraska saying I don't own property here, I don't come 25 here, I don't do business here. We don't have that.
1 again, I could submit an affidavit and do it very quickly. 2 THE COURT: All right. Let's take a break until 3 10:35. I suspect to come back with a decision. 4 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.) 5 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in 6 session. Be seated and come to order. 7 THE COURT: Let me start with two basic ancient 8 principals for which no citation is necessary. 9 A trial is a search for the truth and the law is 10 entitled to every person's evidence. On the other hand, we 11 don't compel people to testify unless the Court has personal 12 jurisdiction over them. As we learned in law school in the 13 international shoe case, personal jurisdiction to satisfy 14 due process has two elements: Notice and power. 15 Here, the power of the Court to compel Ms. Trump 16 into court to testify. In this case, notice is clear which 17 is why we are here and in any event I think was essentially 18 conceded by her attorney. 19 I find that the power element is also clearly 20 satisfied here. "The due process element is satisfied where 21 the non-domiciliary has minimum contacts with New York State 22 and based upon those contacts the non-domiciliary could or 23 should have reasonably anticipated being hailed into court," 24 and that's more or less an exact quote or paraphrase from 25 LaMarca, 95 NY2d 216.		1 So the motion is denied, but her testimony shall 2 not be scheduled before Wednesday, November 1st for 3 Ms. Trump to appeal this decision if she deems herself so 4 advised. 5 Now, let's go on to the trial. First witness, next 6 witness or same witness? 7 Sure, Mr. Moskowitz, you want to say something 8 first? 9 MR. MOSKOWITZ: I just want to request a so 10 ordering of the transcript unless the written decision is 11 forthcoming. 12 THE COURT: Unlike what I sometimes do there won't 13 be a follow-up written decision. The decision will be a so 14 order of the transcript and I'll make sure it gets so 15 ordered today. 16 MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor. 17 MR. KISE: Not to volunteer, would the Court 18 entertain -- I mean, we just did one on Monday, a de bene 19 esse deposition? We just did one on Monday. That way 20 Ms. Trump doesn't have to leave her family and three 21 children to come to New York. 22 THE COURT: No. Denied. I want to see her in 23 person. That's how we prefer testimony. 24 I'll get the signed transcript from which you can 25 appeal by Monday morning. It's just tough, but you know

1 what it will say. 2 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, before the witness begins 3 her testimony, we did have one housekeeping matter 4 concerning today. I believe Mr. Solomon has maybe an hour 5 and a half -- at least an hour and a half of questioning. I 6 believe the defendants are going to cross and the question 7 is should we bring the next witness, Mr. Flores, back to the 8 courthouse or do defendants expect this will take us through 9 the remainder of today? 10 MR. KISE: I don't know if we're going to cross 11 this witness at this time. We may call her in our case, but 12 to preserve time we're not going to take up the Court's time 13 today necessarily. We reserve the right as we have with 14 other witnesses, but I'm not sure that's going to become 15 necessary. So I don't want to unnecessarily delay the 16 proceedings. 17 THE COURT: So that will save time for today. 18 Will there be enough time to finish the current 19 witness and have Flores testify? 20 MR. KISE: If we go like yesterday -- 21 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, my questions -- I should 22 be able to finish. With respect to objections and how long 23 they take, I can't speak to that. I will do everything in 24 my power to finish this witness today, if at all possible, 25 yes.		1 A Yes. 2 Q Okay. Please turn back to page six. 3 I'd like to focus your attention on the "Subject of the 4 Assignment and Relevant Characteristics." 5 THE COURT: Let me just suggest to the witness she 6 has -- you have three different ways to see this: the paper 7 copy, the screen in front of you and the screen there. I 8 often find the screens are a lot simpler. You don't have to 9 turn pages, they turn the pages for you, but whatever you 10 want to do is okay. Some people like physical papers in 11 their hands. 12 THE WITNESS: Thank you. 13 Q Ma'am, if you look at this paragraph, did you 14 understand you or your firm were retaining Cushman & Wakefield 15 to "perform an appraisal on the hypothetical 71-unit development 16 site located at Briarcliff Manor?" 17 A Yes, I did. 18 Q Okay. And was that appraisal to be done in connection 19 with a potential donation of a conservation easement? 20 A Yes, it was. 21 Q Thank you. 22 A And to be clear, the purpose of this was to document 23 the value of the conservation easement. In connection with that 24 as apart of that assignment it was to appraise the hypothetical 25 71-unit the residential development.
Proceedings Page 2681 1 THE COURT: The question is will we be able to get 2 to Mr. Flores today at all? Let's make it easy on 3 everybody. 4 MR. KISE: I think it would be optimistic. 5 THE COURT: All right, so we'll have Flores testify 6 starting next week, okay. 7 MR. WALLACE: Understood, Your Honor. 8 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor. 9 THE COURT: I like to make life easy on everybody. 10 I'll remind the witness as I always do that she is 11 still under oath. 12 And let's get right into it, Mr. Solomon. 13 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. 14 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION 15 BY MR. SOLOMON: 16 Q Ma'am, I'd like to ask the court officer for PX 158 in 17 front of you. This document is already in evidence. 18 If turn to page six of 13 you'll see that it's 19 addressed to you from Cushman & Wakefield, David McArdle's 20 letterhead. Do you see that? 21 A Yes. 22 Q Okay. And if you turn to page 11 of 13, is that your 23 signature? 24 A Yes. 25 Q And did you sign it on or about February 19, 2014?		Proceedings Page 2683 1 Q The development didn't exist at the time of the 2 appraisal; correct? 3 A No, no, no. It was a hypothetical. 4 Q When you say "no" let's clarify this. 5 Did the 71-unit development exist at the time of the 6 appraisal? 7 A There was no building. 8 Q And, in fact -- 9 A Or two buildings. 10 Q And, in fact, to your knowledge, it's never been built; 11 right? 12 A To my knowledge, it's never been built. 13 Q Okay. 14 MR. SOLOMON: Can I please have 3194? May I ask 15 the court officer to put 3194 in front of the witness which 16 was already in evidence. 17 A I'm sorry, could I clarify one more thing? 18 THE COURT: Yes. 19 A I guess it wasn't -- while there was a general scope of 20 -- I think you need to look more at the general scope of work to 21 understand the work that was being done. And, again, this was 22 all about documenting the value of a conservation easement and 23 not just the 71-unit hypothetical buildings, you know, units 24 needed to be appraised, but it was also the golf course and 25 other properties. So it was a little bit shorthand or

1 abbreviation just to say is that the 71-unit. That was part of 2 the whole project. 3 Q I appreciate that. 4 A That's why I wanted to take a look at the letter 5 because that didn't sound right to me, but I wanted to get that 6 right. 7 Q Sure. I appreciate that. 8 The appraisal needs to determine whether the 9 surrounding parcels or contiguous parcels that may be owned by 10 the same party are enhanced in some way by the conservation 11 easement. I think you mentioned that yesterday; right? 12 A That's apart of it, but again, the whole point is to 13 get to the differentials. What is the value of the conservation 14 easement, the rights and restrictions, the economic value of 15 those things that were being given away. 16 Q But in that process one of the steps is valuing the 17 hypothetical 71-unit residential development; right? 18 A That is apart of the assignment but it's not the entire 19 assignment. There was more to the assignment than that. 20 Q If you take a look at PX 3194. The cover is an e-mail 21 to you from Mr. McArdle dated April 25, 2014. Do you see that? 22 A I don't have that yet, but -- 23 MR. SOLOMON: PX 3194. 24 A Yes. It is an e-mail to me from Mr. McArdle. 25 Q And did you receive it in or about April of -- April --		1 "The development site is entitled to allow the 2 construction of 71 luxury housing units contained within two 3 adjacent low rise structure." Do you see that? 4 A Yes, I do. 5 Transcript continues on the following page.... 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

1 on or about April 25, 2014? 2 A I have no recollection of that, but I assume that I did 3 since it's an e-mail addressed to me and I have no reason to 4 believe I did not. 5 MR. SOLOMON: We offer it in evidence. 6 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 7 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations. 8 THE COURT: Overruled. Understood. 9 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 10 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3194 in 11 evidence.) 12 Q If you turn to page six of 193, please, under "General 13 Description." Do you see that? 14 MR. ROBERT: Excuse me, I haven't been provided 15 with a hard copy. Is it just the e-mail or is there an 16 attachment seeking to move it into evidence? 17 MR. SOLOMON: It's already in. 18 MR. ROBERT: I thought you moved it into evidence. 19 That's why you asked to move it. You said "we offer it into 20 evidence." 21 MR. SOLOMON: I'm sorry. It was already in 22 evidence. 23 MR. ROBERT: Got it. Thank you. 24 Q If you could turn to page six of 193. I'd like to 25 focus you on the general description, second sentence:		1 Q So in connection with this project, did the appraisers 2 determine in trying to calculate the value of the conservation 3 easement the value of the right to build 71 luxury housing 4 units? 5 A My understanding, that was part of the assignment, yes. 6 Q Please turn to page 4 of 193. The chart in the middle 7 of the page, "Final Value Reconciliation." And do you see, 8 "Final Value Conclusion of Conservation Easement $43,300,000?" 9 Do you see that? 10 A I see that. 11 Q Did you share this information, the value of the 12 conservation easement, with your client as reflected in this 13 appraisal? 14 A Yeah, I believe, I can. Although, this easement was 15 never completed, I'm not entirely sure. 16 Q Would it have been your practice whether the easement 17 was actually completed and donated or not to share the valuation 18 in the appraisal with your client? 19 A It would have been my practice as the project was going 20 along to share values along the way with my client. Do I have a 21 specific recollection of this? No. 22 Q I understand, but you said it was your practice and I 23 appreciate that. 24 MR. SOLOMON: PX 132, please. It's already in 25 evidence.

1 Q Ma'am, would you be comfortable while they're looking
2 for it to look at it on the screen if we move along?
3 A Yeah, if I could look at all the parts we need.
4 Q Then let's wait.
5 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you.
6 Q This is a document dated June 23, 2014 addressed to Mr.
7 Eric Trump, Cushman & Wakefield letterhead, again, from David
8 McArdle. Do you see that?
9 A I do.
10 Q Do you have an understanding why Briarcliff Manor
11 Development, LLC was retaining Cushman & Wakefield if you had 12 already retained them, as we saw in that other document, a few
13 months before?
14 MR. ROBERT: Objection.
15 THE COURT: Ground?
16 MR. ROBERT: Attorney-client privilege. "Do you
17 have an understanding why Briarcliff Manor Development, LLC
18 was retaining Cushman & Wakefield if you had already 19 retained them?" It would go to conversations Ms. Dillon had 20 with her client.
21 THE COURT: Response?
22 MR. SOLOMON: I don't believe that's in connection
23 with legal advice. The witness has testified that there is 24 a process in determining whether to place a conservation
25 easement on a particular piece of property and I believe the

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2689

1 witness testified there are preliminary steps and then there
2 is actually a formal appraisal. I'm just trying to 3 understand is this the next step in the process to get to 4 the formal appraisal.
5 MR. ROBERT: Those were general questions. I think
6 you started them all at a high level and now we're getting 7 into specifics as to this particular engagement and this
8 particular assignment.
9 THE COURT: Can you just, please, read back the
10 question.
11 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
12 read back.)
13 THE COURT: I don't see it as legal advice.
14 Overruled.
15 A Sitting here today, this is a little confusing for me
16 because I haven't had a chance to look at what was the prior
17 appraisal.
18 MR. KISE: The question as framed is a yes-or-no
19 question. So if your ruling is can she answer, does she 20 have an understanding yes or no, I would agree with you that 21 that answer is not privileged. But if he asks, then, what's 22 the basis for that understanding, that would be different.
23 THE COURT: I will buy that.
24 MR. SOLOMON: My first question was does she have 25 an understanding because if the answer is she does not, then

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2690

1 we don't need to go further.
2 Q Do you have an understanding?
3 A Sitting here today, I don't have an understanding
4 without looking through these documents in more detail.
5 Q You mentioned that you did not believe that a
6 conservation easement was ultimately placed on the Briarcliff
7 property. Do you recall that?
8 A Yes.
9 Q If you look at the intended use here -- highlight that.
10 "To document the value of a conservation easement placed," past
11 tense, "On a parcel of land for federal and state income tax
12 purposes."
13 Can you explain if you don't believe a conservation
14 easement was placed on the property, why they would be using the 15 past tense in this retention letter or engagement letter?
16 A In my experience, there are sometimes typographical
17 errors or misstatements and I believe that would be a
18 typographic or a clerical error.
19 MR. SOLOMON: 3127 which is already in evidence.
20 Q This is an e-mail to you from Mr. McArdle dated 21 July 30, 2014. "Sheri, here is the revised appraisal." Do you
22 see that?
23 A Yes, I do.
24 Q Okay. Again, on page 3 of 113 for the document, the 25 third paragraph, "Trump Briarcliff Manor owned a parcel of land

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2691

1 in Briarcliff Manor, New York, the parcel over which it has
2 placed." Again, is that just a typographical error?
3 A As I look here, yes. This is not a final appraisal and 4 I can see that because it says donated to XXX. So it appears to 5 be in contemplation, but using the past tense.
6 Q If you turn to page 4 of 113, you will see here, again,
7 the, "Final Value Conclusion of Conservation Easement
8 $43.3 million." Do you see that?
9 A I do.
10 Q Did you share that information with your client in or 11 about July of 2014?
12 A I don't recall.
13 Q Would it have been your practice to share that 14 information with your client upon receipt?
15 A I didn't share every bit of information I got along the 16 way. At various points in times, I would have shared some 17 values with the client.
18 Q Do you believe this was one of those various points in
19 time?
20 A I have no recollection of whether I did or not.
21 THE COURT: That's not the question. The question
22 is whether you would have, not whether you recollect that 23 you did or didn't.
24 THE WITNESS: I don't know if I would have because 25 I don't see all the other e-mail traffic around this. I

1 don't know if there is a valuation two weeks before, two
2 weeks later. I don't know if this particular valuation was 3 relevant. There's lots of activities with valuation because 4 lots of new facts and information come in and can make
5 things change from time to time.
6 Q But you do endeavor to keep your client informed of the 7 changes of the facts, right?
8 A Only if it is material and relevant.
9 Q Is the value of a conservation easement of $43,300,000
10 material and relevant?
11 A It may or may not have been. If I would have shared 12 that number with them a month ago, it wouldn't be relevant if it
13 is about the same number.
14 Q Is it fair to say if you hadn't shared that number with 15 them previously, you would have shared it with them at that
16 time?
17 A If if, yes, but again, I'm not saying whether I did
18 or not and I'm not trying to be difficult. I just want to be 19 accurate.
20 MR. SOLOMON: PX 910, please. This is an e-mail
21 from Mr. McArdle to you with a cc to your colleague Mr.
22 Zemil, "attaching a revised draft." Do you see that?
23 A I do.
24 Q He states that he "addressed your comments." Do you
25 see that?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2693

1 A I do.
2 Q Please turn to page 6 of 217. Do you see the value of 3 the conservation easement has now increased by $1.9 million to 4 45,200,000?
5 A I do.
6 Q Would you have shared that information with the client?
7 A Again, we can see this appears to be a work in 8 progress. I'm not sure which works in progress I would have 9 shared or not shared along the way. Only when I felt it was 10 relevant material and a decision needed to be made would I share
11 that information.
12 Q This is a difference of almost $2 million in the value
13 of the conservation easement from the appraisal we saw earlier,
14 correct?
15 A Yes, it is.
16 Q And is that something you would have shared with the
17 client?
18 A Again, not knowing where we were in the process, I
19 can't tell you yes or no would I have done that.
20 Q We've been talking about the 71 hypothetical units in 21 these appraisals, correct?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Didn't you and Eric Trump know by no later than June of 24 2014 that Briarcliff Manor Development did not have the absolute
25 right to build 71 units?

1 A I can't speak for what Eric Trump knew or didn't know.
2 As for myself, I don't recall. You'd have to refresh me with
3 some documents, if you have something that will help me.
4 Q Did there ever come a point in time that you became 5 aware that Briarcliff Manor Development did not have the 6 absolute right to build those 71 hypothetical units?
7 A I don't recall if it was 71 units or some other number,
8 but that wasn't particularly relevant to me, and that's because 9 it doesn't matter whether you had the absolute right or not in 10 valuing this. Again, it is a hypothetical exercise and what 11 you're trying to show is what is the highest and best use of the 12 property that you're intending to place a conservation easement
13 over. And then you hypothetically take a look and design and 14 design either buildings or commercial space or whatever the case
15 may be and it doesn't require you to have any permits, any 16 entitlements.
17 So whether it was 71, 69, 105, there is a number that
18 you thought is, you know, something that is physically possible,
19 feasible, legally permissible, and it doesn't require you to be 20 permitted. It just requires it to be permissible and things
21 change over time, so you certainly don't have to go and get all
22 the entitlements in place.
23 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, move to strike as
24 non-responsive.
25 MR. ROBERT: It is absolutely responsive.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2695

1 MR. KISE: It is, Your Honor. She answered the
2 question. He just doesn't like -- Mr. Solomon just doesn't
3 like the answer.
4 MR. SOLOMON: We like the answer, Mr. Kise.
5 MR. KISE: Then why are you moving to strike it?
6 MR. SOLOMON: Because it is not responsive to the
7 question.
8 THE COURT: Let me just check. I'm so happy --
9 MR. KISE: It looks very responsive to me.
10 THE COURT: -- we have the immediate transcript
11 here. It is stricken because it is not responsive to the 12 question which is a yes-or-no question. Is that --
13 MR. SOLOMON: May I --
14 THE COURT: Is that how you perceived it yourself,
15 Mr. Solomon, that it is a yes-or-no question?
16 MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor. May I ask the Court
17 for a readback of that question, please.
18 THE COURT: Sure. Please, read back.
19 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
20 read back.)
21 A I don't remember.
22 Q Let's see if we can refresh your recollection.
23 MR. SOLOMON: May I, please, have marked for 24 identification PX 3275.
25 Q Ms. Dillon, do you recognize this document to be the

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2696

1 amendments to the original offering plan for the residences at
2 Trump National Golf Club Condominium?
3 A I can read what it says, but I don't recognize it from 4 past experience. It looks like lots of documents I've seen in 5 the past.
6 Q Please turn to page 37 of 99. This in particular is 7 Amendment No. 8 to the original offering plan (a/k/a Amendment
8 No. 4 to the second restated offering plan) of the residences at 9 Trump National Golf Club Condominium."
10 You will see that this document is dated May 6, 2004.
11 A I do.
12 Q And, "roman numeral one, reduction in size of the 13 condominium," do you see that?
14 A I do.
15 Q And it still maintains the 16 golf villa residential 16 units on the third line. Do you see that?
17 A Yes.
18 Q And then it --
19 A Well, actually where? I'm sorry.
20 Q That's okay. Third line.
21 A Okay. Yes, I do.
22 Q "(16) golf villa residential units" and now it is 31
23 residential units in the Park Briar. Do you see that?
24 A I do.
25 Q Does that refresh your recollection that the sponsor

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2697

1 voluntarily reduced the number of units it could build from 71
2 to 31 in 2004?
3 A No. It refreshes my recollection that there were lots
4 and lots of amendments and in this particular document, at this
5 particular time, I have no independent recollection of it. I
6 see what the document says and I can read the words.
7 Q Okay.
8 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in
9 evidence.
10 MR. KISE: Your Honor, I'm not sure what basis
11 there would be to offer this in evidence. She doesn't
12 recognize it. There is no exception to the hearsay rule
13 that he's articulated. It was used as you can use anything
14 to refresh recollection, but that's it. I mean,
15 that's it. I mean, that's fine. We didn't object to his 16 question because his questions were "would this refresh your 17 recollection," but it is not substantively admissible in 18 evidence. There is no foundation. There's nothing to 19 support the admission of this in evidence at all. It is
20 hearsay.
21 THE COURT: Why is it not hearsay or what exception
22 might there be?
23 MR. SOLOMON: Certainly. There is a matter of 24 public record, Your Honor. These are amendments to a
25 condominium declaration that are publicly filed. They were

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2698

1 also produced from Morgan Lewis' files to us, so there is no
2 question about authenticity or--
3 THE COURT: Authenticity doesn't do it. Sorry. Go
4 ahead.
5 MR. SOLOMON: If that's not an issue, Your Honor, I
6 won't address that, but it's not hearsay. These are
7 publicly-available documents. These matters are a public
8 record.
9 MR. KISE: That's not demonstrable from the face of 10 the document. We can't tell one way or the other. If it
11 came from Morgan Lewis, that's fine; but they're not the 12 public repository last I checked.
13 THE COURT: How do we know it's a public record? I
14 know these things are routinely filed, but I don't know that 15 this was filed.
16 MR. KISE: We don't have to take up the Court's 17 time now. If they can demonstrate -- I'm not saying it is 18 or it isn't. I'm saying you can't tell from this record
19 that's presented here and we want to be very careful. The 20 witness on the stand is very careful because she unlike 21 litigators who are very loose with things, tax lawyers tend 22 to be very, very precise.
23 THE COURT: The objection is sustained.
24 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
25 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3275.)

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2699

1 Q Do you know if amendments to condominium declarations
2 in the State of New York are filed with the Attorney General's
3 office?
4 MR. KISE: Objection. Foundation.
5 THE COURT: She hasn't been qualified. Although,
6 she may be as an expert at this point, right?
7 MR. SOLOMON: I was asking her knowledge, Your 8 Honor, not as an expert, but --
9 THE COURT: But --
10 MR. SOLOMON: We'll move on. We offer it for 11 notice of the fact that it was reduced to 31 units not 12 necessarily for the truth of the matter asserted and we will
13 address that issue at a later time?
14 THE COURT: Notice to whom?
15 MR. KISE: To whom?
16 MR. SOLOMON: Notice to --
17 MR. KISE: Morgan Stanley.
18 MR. SOLOMON: Please, let me finish. Counsel --
19 THE COURT: All right.
20 MR. SOLOMON: Briarcliff Manor Development, LLC
21 which is a part of the umbrella organization in the Trump
22 Organization. That's the entity, that's the sponsor that 23 executed this, that filed this, that voluntarily reduced the 24 number of units.
25 THE COURT: It's even more than notice. They wrote

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2700

1 it so --
2 MR. KISE: Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: Yes?
4 MR. KISE: If they solve the hearsay problem, if it
5 is a matter of public record, I don't know why we are
6 debating it. They just simply demonstrate that it's a
7 public record. Otherwise, again, it is notice to whom
8 because there's no demonstration --
9 THE COURT: Notice to the author.
10 MR. KISE: This is our official document. It might 11 be Morgan Stanley's document, but there is no demonstration
12 it is ours. I'm not debating one way or the other. I'm 13 saying in this record as it stands right now, it is not 14 there. On a break, I'm sure they could find it if it is 15 public record. Most everything is online now.
16 THE COURT: It's admitted into evidence as notice
17 of the statements therein to Briarcliff Manor, whatever the 18 corporate entity is known as.
19 Q Ms. Dillon, do you remember specifically analyzing the 20 eighth amendment and providing to your client your conclusion
21 that it reduced the number of luxury residential units that it
22 could build from 71 to 31?
23 MR. ROBERT: I just want to be very careful that
24 this is a yes or no and beyond that, I will object that it
25 is privileged.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2701

1 THE COURT: Is that a yes or no?
2 MR. SOLOMON: For the moment, it is a yes or no,
3 Your Honor; but I will say that the Court has actually ruled
4 upon the documents that I'm about to show this witness
5 in-camera and determined that they are not privileged. So
6 this is a yes or no. I'm laying my foundation for the next
7 document.
8 THE COURT: Please answer yes or no.
9 A I analyzed thousands of documents for this client over
10 the year. Whether this was one of them, I don't recall; but if 11 you can help me, that would be great.
12 MR. SOLOMON: May we, please, mark PX 3261 for
13 identification.
14 Q Ms. Dillon, this is an e-mail chain from June 2014
15 between you and Eric Trump, correct?
16 A Yes, it is.
17 Q And the top e-mail, you wrote to Mr. Trump, Eric Trump,
18 "Hi Eric. In going through the documents, this is what I see 19 happening."
20 You first lay out what happens in the original offering 21 plan and declaration. Do you see that?
22 A I do.
23 Q You see "Park Briar units, 31"? Do you see that,
24 ma'am?
25 A Yes, I do.

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2702

1 Q Okay. Do you see, "Highlander units, 40"?
2 A I do.
3 Q Then you analyze what happens under the first amendment
4 to the declaration and the eighth amendment to offering plan,
5 reduced size of condominium. Do you see that?
6 A I do.
7 Q That was the eighth amendment we were just looking at,
8 right?
9 A That would be my expectation.
10 Q Now, there are still 31 Park Briar units, right, and 11 zero Highlander units?
12 A Yes, that's what it says.
13 Q So the number of units that the sponsor could build as 14 of right was reduced from 71 to 31 according to your analysis as 15 well as the language of the eighth amendment?
16 A That's what I understood in this e-mail.
17 Q Do you know if Mr. McConney and the Trump Organization
18 still valued on the Statement of Financial Condition the ability
19 to build 71 units as of right?
20 MR. KISE: Objection; foundation.
21 THE COURT: Overruled. She knows or she doesn't.
22 A I have no knowledge one way or the other.
23 Q Let's turn to the Seven Springs project. I think we've 24 established that you're familiar with the property located in 25 the Towns of Bedford, New Castle and North Castle, right?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2703

1 A Yes, we have.
2 Q Did there come a time that you on behalf of Seven
3 Springs, LLC began work on a potential donation of a
4 conservation easement?
5 A Yes.
6 Q Was that in or about October of 2012?
7 A I don't recall the date.
8 Q Do you recall Robert Heffernan? Excuse me. Yes,
9 Heffernan.
10 A I do know Mr. Heffernan.
11 Q And how do you know Mr. Heffernan?
12 A He is an appraiser that from time to time was 13 consulted, did various work.
14 Q Did you retain him in or about October 2012 on behalf
15 of Seven Springs to provide an estimate of the fair market value
16 of a portion of the property of Seven Springs located in New 17 Castle?
18 A I do not recall the dates and I don't recall exactly
19 what he was retained for, but I believe at one point in time,
20 Mr. Heffernan was retained to take a look at a part -- a
21 piece -- overall Seven Springs property.
22 MR. SOLOMON: Take one step back, if I may, Your 23 Honor. I think I may have forgotten to move PX 3261, Ms.
24 Dillon's e-mail chain to Eric Trump.
25 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2704

1 I believe it is a privileged communication.
2 THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It is in
3 evidence. It is business advice in my opinion as I've 4 already held.
5 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
6 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3261.)
7 Q Ms. Dillon, does this refresh your recollection as to 8 when you, you on behalf of your client, retained Mr. Heffernan?
9 A Yes.
10 Q Was that in or about October of 2012?
11 A Yes.
12 Q If you look at the second paragraph beginning, "the 13 scope," do you see that?
14 A I do.
15 Q Second line, "Estimating the fair market value of a 16 conservation easement placed on the client's property located in 17 the town of New Castle, New York." Do you see that?
18 A I do.
19 Q Is that your signature on the last page of that 20 document?
21 A Yes.
22 MR. SOLOMON: We offer PX 908 in evidence.
23 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
24 THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It is in.
25 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2705

1 Plaintiff's Exhibit 908.)
2 Q Do you recall the estimate provided by Mr. Heffernan as
3 to the fair market value of the conservation easement referenced
4 in this engagement letter?
5 A My recollection is he never completed the project.
6 Q Okay. My question was somewhat different.
7 MR. SOLOMON: May I ask for a readback, Your Honor?
8 THE COURT: Yes, readback, please.
9 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
10 read back.)
11 A No, because there wasn't one.
12 Q Do you recall if Mr. Heffernan provided an estimate of 13 the value for the lots in New Castle?
14 A He may have done a preliminary. I just don't recall.
15 MR. SOLOMON: Could we pull up the 202-G statement,
16 paragraph 52. I'm sorry. Paragraph 55.
17 Q Ma'am, this is a statement under rule 202-G of our 18 local rules here in New York for court practice. The beginning
19 paragraph 55 is the allegation by the plaintiff of an undisputed
20 fact and then the response from the defendants is below. Do you
21 see that?
22 A It seems to not be an undisputed fact. It looks
23 disputed.
24 THE COURT: I don't know what you mean by
25 "undisputed fact."

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2706

1 MR. SOLOMON: The response from the defendant.
2 Your Honor, I will withdraw the question.
3 THE COURT: Good.
4 MR. SOLOMON: And rephrase, if I may.
5 Q The paragraph 55 is the allegation by the plaintiff of 6 what is an undisputed fact. The response is the response by the 7 defendants. Do you see that?
8 A I'm very confused. It looks to me like 55 is an 9 allegation and the response disputes it, so it is not an
10 undisputed fact.
11 Q I understand, but after it disputes it, "There's an 12 explanation and further discussion where it states Mr. Heffernan
13 indicated he "didn't specifically recall" the preliminary value
14 range he determined, but he recalled an e-mail back and forth
15 with Bob Leonard that he was asking (Mr. Heffernan) why (he) was 16 coming in at a number somewhere around $700,000 a raw lot."
17 That's the response from the defendants.
18 Does that refresh your recollection as to the number
19 Mr. Heffernan came back with for the lots in New Castle?
20 A I can read what it says here today, but I don't recall
21 the preliminary numbers he was -- that he apparently provided.
22 I have no independent recollection of it.
23 Q Okay. Just so we are clear, again, Mr. Leonard was 24 affiliated with your law firm?
25 A Yes, he was one of my colleagues. He was an associate

Page 2707

1 that worked with me.
2 Q He was at Bingham with you at that time?
3 A Yes.
4 MR. SOLOMON: Can we, please, mark PX 3296.
5 Q Ms. Dillon, have you had an opportunity to review the 6 e-mail chain?
7 A I'm still working through it.
8 Yes, I've had a chance to review it.

1 Q Great.

2 Does this e-mail chain refresh your recollection as to

3 whether Mr. Heffernan provided a preliminary view as to the 4 value of the lots in New Castle?

5 A I see that Mr. Heffernan is providing preliminary

6 views, but I have no independent recollection of those numbers.

7 I do know we worked with him. I don't disagree with that, but I

8 just don't recall all of this since he ended up not being the 9 appraiser on the project.

10 Q You have no reason to doubt that he did in fact provide

11 this information to Mr. Leonard in or about December of 2012, do

12 you?

13 A I have no reason to doubt the authenticity of this

14 e-mail.

15 Q Let's move forward into 2013, please.

16 Were you aware that at a Town of Bedford Planning Board

17 meeting in May 2013, an attorney for Seven Springs LLC agreed to

18 restrict construction on the New Castle and North Castle

19 portions of the property in order to obtain approval for the 20 subdivision of the lots in Bedford?

21 A I was not aware of that at the time. I have some

22 awareness derived in the course of these proceedings and

23 historically I -- yes, so during the course of these

24 proceedings, not just here today, but overall I've become

25 aware -- yes, go ahead.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2709

1 Q I'm sorry. I didn't mean to interrupt you.

2 A No, go ahead.

3 Q Maybe I can clarify.

4 Prior to 2020 were you aware that an attorney for Seven

5 Springs LLC at a town planning meeting agreed to restrict

6 construction at the New Castle and North Castle portions of the 7 property in order to obtain approval for the subdivisions at the

8 lots in Bedford?

9 A I had an overall awareness of some activity, but I did

10 not have a specific awareness of that -- of the particular

11 planning meeting.

12 Q My question wasn't whether you were aware of the 13 planning meeting. My question was were you aware of the results

14 of the planning meeting?

15 A Can I have the question again? I'm not sure I

16 understood that.

17 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, may I ask for a read

18 back?

19 THE COURT: Read back, please?

20 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the

21 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)

22 A I don't recall being aware of that level of 23 specificity, but I may have had -- again, a general awareness of 24 the results of the planning board meeting developed at some

25 point in the project.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2710

1 Q Do you recall providing testimony in connection with

2 the investigation conducted by the Attorney General's office in

3 this matter?

4 A Yes, I do.

5 MR. SOLOMON: Could we pull up Ms. Dillon's

6 testimony, page 660, line 19?

7 Q You recall this was done during COVID; right?

8 A I remember that distinctly.

9 Q So we had -- the transcript may not be clear, but we'll

10 go through it, you were asking and we were discussing having the 11 document on the screen for everyone to share. Do you recall

12 that? And it had to be moved for a period of time so you could 13 see different portions of it?

14 A Yes, yes.

15 Q And my colleague, Alex Finkelstein, was the one who was

16 moving the documents. So when we see this on the transcript --

17 we'll be able to see this, 660, line 19. Okay:

18 "QUESTION: I'm going to ask Alex to pull up our

19 first electronically shared exhibit. It is a May 17, 2013

20 newspaper story from the Bedford/Pound Ridge Record Review.

21 Ma'am, as you've done in your prior sessions, if

22 you could please tell Alex when you refer to a portion and

23 you want him to move down that would be helpful."

24 "MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to mark this as

25 Exhibit 52."

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2711

1 And then you go on. The document is being

2 advanced.

3 "QUESTION: Does reading this article refresh your

4 recollection about any events involving Seven Springs before

5 the Bedford Planning Board?

6 "ANSWER: No, I was not involved in that process.

7 "QUESTION: That wasn't my question."

8 "MR. SOLOMON: Can I have the court reporter please

9 read back my question?"

10 Question is read back.

11 "ANSWER: --

12 It reads your answer; correct, just to clarify?

13 A Yes.

14 Q "Because I was not involved in the process, this

15 article does not refresh my" -- excuse me -- "doesn't refresh my

16 recollection about things I wasn't involved in.

17 "QUESTION: Ma'am, you will agree with me someone

18 could have told you about it, right?

19 "ANSWER: Someone could have told me about it.

20 "QUESTION: Right. So this article could have

21 refreshed that recollection, even if you weren't involved in

22 the events before the Planning Board?

23 "ANSWER: This article does not refresh my 24 recollection."

25 Was that your testimony during the investigatory

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2712 1 phase -- 2 A Yes. 3 Q -- of this? 4 MR. ROBERT: Objection. He's conflating refreshing 5 the recollection with trying to impeach his own witness. I 6 mean, this is consistent. 7 THE COURT: Overruled. I don't see any problem 8 with this at all. He's just asking her if she sees that was 9 her testimony. I don't know what you're reading into the 10 question. 11 MR. ROBERT: There would be no reason to do that 12 other than if it refreshed her recollection. 13 MR. SOLOMON: Can we go to page 663, line 8? 14 THE COURT: What was the purpose of asking her if 15 she -- 16 MR. SOLOMON: That she previously had no knowledge 17 about this planning meeting which is why we're going to this 18 next portion which is a short question and answer, Your 19 Honor. 20 THE COURT: So it is the admissibility of that 21 depending upon the admissibility or the answer or the 22 testimony you're going to read now? 23 MR. SOLOMON: Yes, it's being linked together. 24 MR. KISE: It looks like he's using something where 25 she didn't have a -- refresh her recollection -- to refresh	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2714 1 "Because I wasn't involved, I do not know." 2 So at that time you had no recollection of this 3 planning meeting; right? 4 A At that time I was -- I think I've been consistent. I 5 was not at that planning meeting. I was not involved in the 6 planning meeting. Have I learned things about the planning 7 meeting? Did I know some things? But I didn't know they came 8 about from the planning meeting, yes. It's complicated, but for 9 the most part it didn't matter. It didn't matter. It's again 10 back to hypothetical. It's a hypothetical subdivision that's 11 being drawn. No one needed to be permitted. The standard is 12 legally permissible and the courts have ruled time and time 13 again it's a waste of everyone's resources for taxpayers, 14 landowners, etc., to impinge upon a planning board, zoning 15 boards and everybody else that you don't have to actually be 16 permitted and entitled for anything. 17 MR. SOLOMON: Move to strike as nonresponsive, Your 18 Honor. 19 THE COURT: Stricken as nonresponsive. 20 I'll ask that the witness be taken out for a few 21 moments so I can talk to Counsel not in her presence. 22 (Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness 23 stand and exits the courtroom.) 24 THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, I feel like we're two or 25 three levels away from anything that's relevant. This all
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2713 1 her recollection now and in either case it didn't, but if 2 Mr. Solomon is going to tie it together here we're on the 3 edge of our seat. 4 MR. SOLOMON: Glad I can keep you entertained. 5 Can we please go to page 663, line 8: 6 "QUESTION: Were you aware that Mr. Martabano" -- 7 Q Mr. Martabano is the attorney at the planning meeting, 8 do you recall that? 9 A I have since. Yes, I recall that. 10 Q "Mr. Martabano on behalf of Seven Springs agreed to, 11 quote, 'restrict construction near the end of the road serving 12 Seven Springs to two houses to help resolve the dispute over the 13 need for an access road?'" 14 "ANSWER: I was -- I'm not aware of that if that's 15 accurate." 16 THE COURT: "I was not." 17 MR. SOLOMON: Excuse me. "I was not." 18 Thank you, Your Honor. 19 "QUESTION: I asked you to assume it was. You left 20 all of these negotiations to the land use attorneys 21 representing Seven Springs; correct? 22 "ANSWER: I was not involved in this. I didn't 23 leave or not leave. It wasn't my decision. 24 "QUESTION: To your knowledge who was involved in 25 this then?	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2715 1 seems to be what happened. She saw something, but didn't 2 you say something different what she knew about all this 3 stuff? 4 MR. SOLOMON: It goes to the valuation of Seven 5 Springs, Your Honor. They valued it as if they could build 6 24 lots on the three properties. That's what the appraisal 7 does, which is what we will get to. However, previously, 8 they had agreed to restrict the number of lots to I think 12 9 or 13. 10 THE COURT: Okay. But what does that have to do 11 with whether she remembers what happened at a meeting? 12 MR. SOLOMON: Because this witness was the one who 13 retained the appraiser, who gave the appraiser the 14 information necessary, was the conduit for the appraiser and 15 if she knew this and didn't give it to the appraiser that's 16 relevant. If she didn't know it and other attorneys at the 17 Trump Organization knew it, that's relevant because that 18 information should have been provided to the appraisers when 19 they projected their 24 hypothetical lots by law and we have 20 an Appellate Division decision which is coming up shortly 21 which said they have -- the Seven Springs LLC entity has no 22 access through Aragon Road. So they didn't have a second 23 access and this restriction was binding on them. 24 THE COURT: Okay. It seems to me this has become a 25 game of got you, didn't you say that, didn't you say this,

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2716 1 but then you said that. I'll let you go ahead because there 2 is no jury and I'd like to afford some leeway, but maybe if 3 we could get to the heart of the matter quicker, Mr. Kise? 4 MR. KISE: Your Honor, I think what the witness was 5 trying to say -- what Mr. Solomon asked it be stricken is -- 6 THE COURT: That was a speech. That was not 7 responsive. 8 MR. KISE: No, I'm just saying she's explaining why 9 what you're saying is correct that we're just going around 10 in circles here because from a tax perspective, from an 11 appraisal, for IRS purposes, for conservation easement you 12 don't get into all of this stuff about whether you had this 13 permit or didn't have this permit or what you knew or what 14 you didn't know. 15 If Mr. Solomon wants to use a witness to establish 16 the points that he's making, that's fine, but this witness 17 has said both today and before based on the testimony there 18 that she wasn't part of the process, she didn't have 19 anything to do with the process, she can't testify to the 20 process and, most importantly, it would not have been 21 relevant to her job, her role. So we are just kind of going 22 in circular fashion here because her role is with respect to 23 advice on conservation easements. She's already said twice 24 it's been stricken that when you do that you're not looking 25 at actual permits, actual this, actual that. She's the	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2718 1 A Yes, it is. 2 Q Did you send it to Mr. McArdle in or about July of 3 2014? 4 A I would assume so. 5 MR. SOLOMON: We offer it into evidence. 6 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and 7 privilege. 8 THE COURT: Overruled. Give me a second. 9 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.) 10 THE COURT: Overruled on both grounds. It's in 11 evidence. 12 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 13 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 899 in 14 evidence.) 15 Q Was this the engagement letter you were retaining 16 Cushman and specifically Mr. McArdle to provide an estimate of 17 the value of the potential conservation easement for the Seven 18 Springs property? 19 A It was to provide consulting services, yes, related to 20 the estimated value of the potential conservation easement. 21 Q And did he provide an analysis of the estimated current 22 value of these lots as of a particular valuation date? 23 A I can't recall how far along we got before the project 24 was discontinued in 2014. 25 Q Why was it discontinued in 2014?
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2717 1 expert on that and so I think that she's testified that's 2 why she wouldn't have a foundation here to have any of this 3 knowledge. But if we want to continue to go around, it's 4 their morning. I don't know that any of this has any 5 relevance. 6 THE COURT: I'll let the question continue in the 7 manner that Mr. Solomon thinks is relevant. 8 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we will endeavor to move 9 quickly on this. 10 THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the witness. 11 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. 12 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and 13 approaches the witness stand.) 14 THE COURT: I just want to make a general statement 15 without any accusations that when a witness is asked to 16 depart the courtroom, nobody should attempt to speak to him 17 or her. And let's go on. 18 MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. 19 We'd ask to mark for identification PX 899. 20 For the record, it is a July 16, 2014 e-mail on 21 Vinson & Elkins letterhead, Ms. Dillon's letterhead in 22 particular to David McArdle, Senior Managing Director at 23 Cushman & Wakefield. 24 Q Ms. Dillon, is that your signature on page four of the 25 exhibit?	S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2719 1 MR. ROBERT: Objection. 2 THE COURT: What's the objection? 3 MR. ROBERT: Why something was done and why if a 4 retention was discontinued is attorney/client privilege. It 5 clearly falls within if it was a direction from the client 6 as to do or not do something that's a continuation in the 7 course of giving legal representation. 8 THE COURT: It's business. Overruled. 9 Unless you want to withdraw it on the ground -- 10 MR. SOLOMON: I've learned, Your Honor, if you rule 11 in my favor to be quiet. 12 THE COURT: I ruled in your favor. 13 Why was the project discontinued? 14 THE WITNESS: I have no specific recollection, but 15 I can certainly give you the typical reasons projects would 16 be discontinued. 17 THE COURT: Do you want that or not? 18 MR. SOLOMON: I will take the typical reasons for 19 the moment. Thank you. 20 A The typical reason is a landowner just isn't ready, 21 they haven't made the determinations of what restrictions they 22 want to put on property, which land they want to keep out of the 23 restricted property. That's the biggest reason. 24 Other reasons are there is just simply not enough time 25 to get it done, but those tend to be the biggest reasons as you

1 have not yet decided what exactly you want to do with the
2 property, whether you want to retain it because, again, it's in
3 perpetuity, which is forever and it affects not just that
4 landowner but all landowners.
5 Q Is also one of the reasons for tax planning purposes?
6 A That could be one of the considerations.
7 Q Does it refresh your recollection as to whether in this
8 situation it was discontinued at that time because Mr. Trump did
9 not need additional tax deductions for tax year 2014?
10 MR. KISE: Objection. That's -- I mean, if she 11 wants to answer yes or no, perhaps, but once you get into 12 the substance, that's squarely within the attorney/client
13 privilege. I mean, I think all of it is respectfully, Your 14 Honor, but she is a tax lawyer being engaged to provide tax
15 advice and the conservation easement is -- the purpose of 16 doing one is to get a tax deduction. So it's all squarely
17 within the confines of the privilege. So I would 18 respectfully disagree, Your Honor, it's not business. It
19 involves business matters, but it's at the core of the 20 attorney/client relationship with a tax lawyer.
21 THE COURT: Overruled. The question is whether 22 that was a factor -- if she knows whether that was a factor
23 in why the process was discontinued.
24 THE WITNESS: Is it time for me to answer?
25 THE COURT: Yes, it's also a yes or no.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2721

1 A I believe it probably was one of the considerations
2 among many.
3 MR. SOLOMON: Could we please put PX 133 in front
4 of the witness? It's already in evidence.
5 THE COURT: Five-minute warning and then we'll come
6 back. It's not the end of the -- we started early. That's 7 what's throwing you off.
8 MR. SOLOMON: I'm just focused.
9 Q Do you recognize what was marked as PX 133?
10 A I have seen this before.
11 Q Okay. Do you have an understanding as to why Mr. Eric
12 Trump -- withdrawn.
13 Do you have an understanding as to why this letter was 14 addressed to Mr. Eric Trump at Seven Springs LLC directly when 15 the prior letter that we saw was addressed to you?
16 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Attorney/client privilege.
17 THE COURT: It's from Cushman & Wakefield.
18 Overruled.
19 A My understanding would be at this point in time it
20 appears that the project was still going forward and we were 21 seeking a formal appraisal that would be provided to the 22 Internal Revenue Service since this is being done for the 23 purpose of federal and state income tax purposes.
24 Q Okay.
25 MR. SOLOMON: Can I have PX 1861? I'm jumping

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2722

1 forward.
2 Q When the project was either terminated or put on hold
3 in 2014, had you already learned of Mr. McArdle's estimate of 4 the value of the lots for the potential conservation easement?
5 A I don't remember.
6 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, this may be a good point.
7 THE COURT: Is this a good time? All right. Let's
8 just make it 12:10 everybody and then we'll go to 12:55 or 9 so.
10 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
11 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
12 session. Please be seated and come to order.
13 THE COURT: Witness?
14 MR. ROBERT: Do we have a minute before the witness
15 comes in?
16 THE COURT: Sure.
17 Hold off on the witness.
18 MR. ROBERT: Are we going to finish today with
19 Ms. Dillon?
20 MR. SOLOMON: In light of the Court's instruction,
21 I have no more than 20, 30 minutes, max.
22 MS. GREENFIELD: That's after we finish the
23 witness?
24 MR. ROBERT: That's fine. I just want to know who 25 is on for Monday.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2723

1 THE COURT: Now witness?
2 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
3 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and
4 approaches the witness stand.)
5 THE COURT: So as everyone else has just heard,
6 we're hoping to finish with this witness this morning. So
7 let's keep the questions moving and the answers moving.
8 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION
9 BY MR. SOLOMON:
10 Q Ms. Dillon, could we please put -- I'm sorry -- PX 104
11 in front of you?
12 Is this an engagement letter signed by Eric Trump on 13 behalf of Seven Springs LLC dated June 1, 2015?
14 A Yes, it is.
15 Q And was this engagement letter executed in connection
16 with restarting the potential donation of a conservation
17 easement at Seven Springs?
18 A Yes.
19 MR. SOLOMON: Could we please mark PX 195 for
20 identification?
21 Q This is an e-mail from Timothy Barnes to you and 22 Mr. Zemil with a cc to Didi Yep. Who is Timothy Barnes?
23 A Mr. Barnes was the lead appraiser on the Seven Springs
24 project.
25 Q And do you know who Didi Yep is?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2724

1 A Yes, that was his second -- the second appraiser.
2 Q The second e-mail draft is attached. Let me know if
3 you have any questions. Do you see that?
4 A I do.
5 Q Did you see -- did you receive that in or about
6 November of 2015? Specifically November 6th is the date of the 7 cover e-mail?
8 A Yes, I fully expect I received it.
9 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I offer this in evidence.
10 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and
11 the attachment is hearsay.
12 THE COURT: Statute of limitations overruled.
13 What is it being offered for.
14 MR. SOLOMON: For notice, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: It's in simply for notice.
16 MR. ROBERT: Notice to whom?
17 THE COURT: The recipients?
18 MR. SOLOMON: Ms. Dillon and Mr. Zemil at this 19 point in time.
20 THE COURT: Okay.
21 MR. ROBERT: Thank you.
22 Q If you please turn to page 5 of 139 of this exhibit,
23 "Value Conclusions." Do you see that?
24 A I do.
25 Q Is this the method that we've been talking about

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2725

1 previously where you value the property before and after the
2 easement, make whatever adjustments are appropriate and then the
3 difference is the value of the easement?
4 A Yes, that is the before and after method that we talked
5 about before.
6 Q So the before method values the entire Seven Springs
7 property at 56,500,000. Do you see that?
8 A I see.
9 Q Did you advise your client in or about November of 2015
10 that the appraisal had valued the entirety of the property at 11 approximately $56.5 million?
12 A I don't recall.
13 Q Would it have been your practice to do so?
14 A I don't recall if we would have had a discussion about 15 this in November. There are thousands of e-mails and 16 conversations about this as the process goes through, so I have
17 no idea if I told him the before value of the property or if I
18 told anyone -- it would have been -- I don't know. At some 19 point I would have advised probably the value of the easement.
20 That's what they were interested in.
21 Q Would you have discussed how that easement was 22 calculated with the client?
23 A I may have.
24 Q Okay. You say there are many e-mails back and forth
25 and the like. When you received the first draft of an appraisal

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2726

1 the first time that you find out what the appraiser is coming in
2 with for the value of the property and the value of the 3 easement, would you advise your client at that point in time?
4 A I was in touch with the appraisers on a regular basis,
5 so I always had some understanding of where they were. At 6 various points in time I would have explained the indicated
7 value of the easement to someone at the organization.
8 Q Okay. Would you have done it the first time that you
9 found out what the value of the easement or the entirety of the 10 property was?
11 A Not necessarily. My practice would be to understand it
12 and see if I thought that was reasonable, if there were facts
13 that had been omitted, if they understood things, if they had 14 questions. Often these values are very preliminary and we learn
15 things as the project goes on is the things that may or may not 16 affect value.
17 Q So is it your testimony that you don't always keep your
18 client informed of changes?
19 A It is my testimony that I appropriately keep my client
20 informed of changes and I respect all of my duties and 21 obligations and ethics as a lawyer.
22 Q Do you recall when you first, a general time frame,
23 advised your client that the value of the entirety of the 24 property was 56.5 million?
25 MR. ROBERT: Objection. That's not the testimony.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2727

1 THE COURT: That was just a question. Does she
2 recall when she first notified?
3 MR. ROBERT: The testimony was that she doesn't
4 know if she ever told the value. She would have told them
5 the value of the easement, not the value of the property.
6 That was the testimony, Your Honor.
7 MR. SOLOMON: That's an easy foundation, Your
8 Honor.
9 THE COURT: Okay.
10 Q Do you believe you ever told your client what the value
11 of the property was as reflected in the appraisal?
12 A My expectation is I certainly would have given them the 13 appraisal at some point so they would have had that. Probably 14 also at some point in time I would have said here's how it was 15 calculated, but I can't recall when and I don't know if I would 16 have done it at various points along the way, but I would have 17 been in fairly regular communication about the value of the 18 easement.
19 Q When you received this draft appraisal in or about
20 November 2015, did you communicate with anyone at the Trump
21 Organization as to how they were valuing Seven Springs on the
22 statement of financial condition?
23 A I don't recall. I don't think so, no.
24 Q Did you ever communicate with anyone at the Trump
25 Organization as to how they were valuing Seven Springs on the

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2728

1 statements of financial condition?
2 A Not that I recall.
3 MR. SOLOMON: Could we please mark PX 3114 -- I'm 4 sorry. It's already in evidence. If we could show the
5 witness?
6 Q Ms. Dillon, you see this is an e-mail chain? At the 7 top it's from Mr. Weisselberg to Rebecca Marrochio, but the ones
8 below that it's from you to Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Trump with a cc
9 to Mr. Bender. Do you see that?
10 A I'm sorry, do I see what? I was trying -- I just 11 didn't recognize this. I was trying to see what it was.
12 Q Take a moment to look at the document, ma'am.
13 A All right.
14 Q Pointing to one side, the top e-mail, in this chain
15 that doesn't include --
16 A That doesn't seem to be the same chain I'm looking at.
17 I'm confused. What's on the screen doesn't seem to be what I 18 have.
19 Q PX 3144?
20 A No, I have 3144. Perhaps that's the difference.
21 THE COURT: That would make a difference.
22 I still suggest to follow on the screen because 23 when they highlight lines you don't have to go looking all
24 up and down at a piece of paper. You can see the yellow,
25 but, again, up to you.

Page 2730

1 easements?
2 A I don't know what you mean by -- could you restate --
3 could you read back that question? It was confusing to me.
4 MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, may we have a read back,
5 please?
6 THE COURT: Please.
7 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the
8 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
9 A Yes, but not things that necessarily looked like this.
10 Q How would you provide those updates to your client?
11 A More informal e-mails, conversations, things along
12 those lines from time to time and if regular means from time to 13 time, then from time to time. There was no set -- it's not like
14 every Monday we talk about conservation easements or anything
15 like that. It would have been from time to time as I had 16 something to say.
17 MR. SOLOMON: One moment, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: Sure.
19 MR. SOLOMON: Nothing further, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: Wow. Where is Flores?
21 MR. ROBERT: I was just about to bet the under.
22 MR. SOLOMON: Nothing further, Your Honor.
23 THE COURT: Okay.
24 Transcript continues on the following page....

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2729

1 THE WITNESS: Thank you.
2 A Yes, we are on the same page now.
3 Q Fair enough. Thank you.
4 You'll see pointing to one side of the top e-mail that 5 doesn't include you, but the one in the middle is from you to 6 Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Trump with a cc to Mr. Bender. Do you see
7 that?
8 A I do.
9 Q And just so we're clear, it's Mr. Eric Trump; right?
10 A Yes.
11 Q Okay. Did you send -- and the subject is "Easement
12 Analysis." Do you see that?
13 A I do.
14 Q Did you send this to Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Eric Trump
15 and Mr. Bender on or about September 23, 2014?
16 A Yes.
17 Q If you look at the chart that's attached to that, the 18 next page, "Potential Charitable Contribution Analysis." Do you
19 see that?
20 A I do.
21 Q And the next page you are suggesting topics they should 22 keep in mind. Do you see that?
23 A I do.
24 Q Did you provide regular updates to your client as to 25 the progress of conservation or potential conservation

PROCEEDINGS Page 2731

1 THE COURT: Plaintiff, are you finished with this
2 witness?
3 MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: Good.
5 Will there be any cross-examination despite what
6 you said previously?
7 MR. KISE: Not right now, Your Honor. We are going
8 to try and streamline and determine whether we need to call
9 the witness at all.
10 THE COURT: We should talk scheduling, but should I
11 let the witness go at this point?
12 MR. KISE: Fine with us, yes, Your Honor.
13 MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: Okay. I will let the witness go.
15 Thank you.
16 (Witness excused.)
17 THE COURT: Let's talk scheduling on the record.
18 Who wants to go first? Should I ask plaintiff since it's 19 still your case?
20 MR. WALLACE: Thank you, Your Honor. Should we 21 give the witness a moment to leave?
22 THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead.
23 MR. WALLACE: Okay, Your Honor. The next witness
24 that we will call on Monday would be Mr. Flores returning to 25 the stand. Our expectation is that examination would take

PROCEEDINGS Page 2732

1 about an hour. After that, we would have Mr. Cerrone, the
 2 City employee, who I think would also take probably about an
 3 hour at that point. My understanding is the defendants have 4 some cross-examination planned for that witness. I think we
 5 would then propose to play the Mouradian video tape
 6 testimony which is 2 hours and 16 minutes.

7 MS. GREENFIELD: You anticipate getting through all
 8 of that on Monday? Just wanted to be clear.

9 MR. WALLACE: So our total time, then, would be 4
 10 hours and 15 minutes and then accepting whatever defendants
 11 choose to do with their time on those witnesses.

12 MR. KISE: I would think Mr. Cerrone we'll have 13 questions for, not Flores. And obviously, the video is the 14 video, but I would -- given how our proceedings go, I think
 15 that would be a full day on Monday.

16 THE COURT: As long as we can finish it all Monday,
 17 let's hope.

18 MR. KISE: It would seem likely.

19 MS. GREENFIELD: Tuesday, who do you have next?

20 MR. WALLACE: So Tuesday would be Mr. Orowitz, Mr.
 21 Cornwell who would also be brief, and then when that
 22 is -- when those two fact witnesses are done, the People
 23 would move on to the one expert witness they are going to 24 present as part of this section of our case in -- our case
 25 in chief, which is McCarty.

PROCEEDINGS Page 2733

1 THE COURT: Will there be cross-examination of the
 2 two Tuesday witnesses as best you can tell?

3 MR. KISE: Orowitz, no. Cornwell, yes. And,
 4 obviously, the expert, yes.

5 MR. WALLACE: I would just clarify that Mr. McCarty
 6 has been proffered as an expert in bank underwriting issues,
 7 but we will -- and issues of disgorgement. At this time,
 8 we are only planning to examine him on the issues of 9 disgorgement. We are reserving any evidence or any 10 presentation on bank underwriting issues until after the 11 presentation of the defendant's case which I you understand 12 will cover a number of bank witnesses anyway, would 13 influence his opinion.

14 THE COURT: That's okay. Hold on.

15 MS. GREENFIELD: And Wednesday?

16 MR. WALLACE: Wednesday, we will then move on to 17 the defendants, specifically Mr. Donald Trump, Jr. Then
 18 after him, Eric Trump and presumably, depending on whatever
 19 may happen with appeals, would be Ivanka Trump. And as we
 20 have indicated to the Court, reserve Monday, November 6th
 21 for Donald J. Trump, for his testimony.

22 THE COURT: We like to keep families together.

23 MR. KISE: What about Garten and Brunnett? Are we 24 not calling them?

25 MR. WALLACE: We will not be taking Garten and

PROCEEDINGS Page 2734

1 Brunnett during our case in chief.

2 MR. KISE: Okay.

3 MR. WALLACE: Also, Mr. Greenblatt we will not be
 4 taking during our case in chief. They will be moved to our
 5 rebuttal list, but we will not be taking them at this time.

6 MS. GREENFIELD: Do you anticipate getting Eric
 7 Trump, Donald Trump Jr., Ivanka Trump pending the appeal all
 8 in one day?

9 MR. WALLACE: Our hope is to do one day for each of 10 them.

11 MS. GREENFIELD: That would be we are looking at 12 Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday for each of the three Trump
 13 defendants. Ivanka Trump is not a defendant.

14 MR. WALLACE: Correct.

15 THE COURT: Will there be any cross?

16 MR. KISE: Not -- well, I don't know about with 17 respect to Ivanka Trump just because to minimize her travel
 18 here and I can't really -- none of us here at this table
 19 can speak for her schedule and availability next week. Mr.
 20 Moskowitz, which I don't -- I don't know if he is still 21 here -- would have to address that. But that would be the 22 only witness, again, just to minimize her having to come
 23 back and forth whenever it is that she appears. We may try
 24 and just do that collectively.

25 MS. GREENFIELD: Okay. I want to -- I'm sorry,

PROCEEDINGS Page 2735

1 but just to be super clear, I understand that we are going
 2 to have each of the Trump witnesses on a separate day, but
 3 do we think their testimony will take the entire day or are 4 you going to have filler witnesses or anything in between?

5 MR. WALLACE: Our expectations, it would likely 6 take a full day. At this point, after we call Mr. Trump, we 7 would rest our case in chief is our expectation at this
 8 point. So there -- there's no filler witnesses remaining.

9 MR. KISE: So a question with respect to Ivanka
 10 Trump. To the extent -- and again, I can't speak -- I have 11 no idea what her schedule is, but is Ivanka Trump someone 12 that the People -- because I know you're moving a number of 13 other witnesses out of your direct case. Is that someone
 14 that you must have in your direct case?

15 The only reason I'm asking the question, I'm not 16 suggesting an outcome, if for whatever reason her
 17 availability becomes challenging, we certainly would be 18 calling her now that we know she's coming and we certainly 19 would -- I'm just trying to figure out whether we can do it
 20 all in one day, whether it is a day on their case or a day
 21 on our case on that particular witness. But if they feel
 22 that they need to have her in their case in chief, that's a
 23 determination they need to make. I just don't -- I'm just 24 trying to minimize the schedule conflicts for that witness.

25 THE COURT: Well, I think it would be preferable if

Page 2736

1 we could get her Friday and maybe it is up to the plaintiffs
2 to communicate with Mr. Moskowitz about her availability.
3 If not then, when?

4 MR. KISE: Okay. That's fine.

5 MS. GREENFIELD: I just want to also point out that 6 Friday is a half day, so whoever's testimony we think is
7 going to take the least amount of time between Donald Jr.,
8 Eric and Ivanka, that should be scheduled for Friday just
9 for the Court's logistics.

10 MR. ROBERT: I would need to know that now because 11 as things stand now, Donald Trump, Jr. on Wednesday and Eric
12 Trump for Thursday and since we need five days notice, can 13 you confirm that now that that's your order?

14 MR. WALLACE: We provided you guys notice earlier
15 that we might call them as soon as Monday, but I think that 16 is the order. I would propose that Eric Trump be ready to 17 testify whenever Donald Trump, Jr. is completed, so that 18 could be Wednesday. That would be the order, Donald Trump,
19 Jr. and then Eric Trump to clarify.

20 MR. ROBERT: And then Ivanka last?

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 MR. KISE: I don't know about prior notice. I just 23 know if we are talking about Wednesday and Thursday, that
24 would be five days in any event, right?

25 MR. ROBERT: That's fine.

Page 2737

1 MR. WALLACE: And we can work with Mr. Moskowitz
2 and the defendants if there are issues with Ivanka Trump or 3 if there is some -- but we are definitely calling her as 4 part of our case in chief.

5 MR. KISE: Okay.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I will say again. It is my 7 understanding that defendants do not have a standing to 8 object, but I don't mind them being part of the process as a
9 courtesy, whatever. Maybe Mr. Kise is right. Maybe he does
10 have standing.

11 MR. KISE: They certainly objected or you allowed
12 them to speak yesterday when I was talking about the other
13 matter in the morning and I told you I didn't think they had 14 a dog in the hunt, but you allowed them to speak in any 15 event.

16 THE COURT: In any event, Monday, ten o'clock,
17 okay. Thanks, everybody. Great weekend.

18 (Whereupon, the trial was adjourned to Monday,
19 October 30, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.)

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in
 2 session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding.
 3 Please make sure all cell phones are on silent. Laptops and
 4 cell phones will be permitted, but only to members of the
 5 press. There is absolutely no recording or photography of
 6 any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now be seated and come
 7 to order.
 8 THE COURT: Good morning. Either the room is 9 getting bigger or more people are showing up.
 10 In this case, as in I'm sure others, the 11 housekeeping matters can be explored as actual testimony,
 12 not last week's, but I understand we have a couple of 13 housekeeping matters. I'll just start with the plaintiff
 14 because they're the plaintiff.
 15 MR. WALLACE: Thank you, Your Honor.
 16 Just the primary issue is that there is a change
 17 from the end of last week is the scheduling of the testimony
 18 for Ivanka Trump. We've had a number of e-mail exchanges
 19 with Ms. Trump and her counsel over the weekend and I think
 20 we have come to an agreement we will not be able to complete
 21 her testimony on Friday, the 3rd of this week and so the OAG
 22 had proposed November 8th and 9th, but because of travel
 23 obligations of -- that Ms. Trump had, she had proposed 24 Wednesday, November 15, which is not ideal from our 25 perspective, but the OAG is willing to book that date and

1 proceed with her testimony then. We would just need
 2 agreement from the Court and from defendants that our case
 3 would not actually close with our final witness of Mr. Trump
 4 but would remain open for her testimony on the 15th.
 5 THE COURT: Clearly as we work this out in that
 6 fashion, there is going to be any -- how long do you think
 7 the direct examination would be and how long do we think the 8 cross examination will be?
 9 MR. WALLACE: I think we would certainly complete
 10 it within the day, but I don't think it would take a full
 11 trial day and that we could do it with three to four hours
 12 of testimony.
 13 THE COURT: You mean three to four hours of direct?
 14 MR. WALLACE: Correct.
 15 THE COURT: How long do you think cross
 16 examination?
 17 MR. KISE: Probably a little less than that. I
 18 think overall it will be a full trial day between the 19 government and the defense. That's I think why the 3rd
 20 doesn't really work just because we would get started and 21 they might even finish their direct on the 3rd, but we're
 22 fine with the proposal if the Court is okay with it.
 23 THE COURT: I have one creative thought. Let me
 24 run it by the person who sits along side of me.
 25 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

Proceedings Page 2742 1 THE COURT: We have things scheduled for Friday 2 afternoon, the proverbial other cases we have. Any chance 3 of turning Friday into an all day? We would just have to 4 move things, which would be a bit of a pain, but might be a 5 better alternative. Let's hear from both sides. 6 Plaintiff? 7 MR. WALLACE: Certainly. I think we would have no 8 objection to that. 9 MR. KISE: I would have to note, for me, at least I 10 don't know about the rest of us, since that's our only 11 afternoon off for other cases, that may pose a bit of a 12 train wreck on our side just because we've got -- I know 13 it's hard to imagine there is anything else going on in the 14 world right now other than this trial. Certainly happy to 15 explore this afternoon and try and work that out. I'm not 16 philosophically opposed to it, but I just don't know 17 logistically if it's an option. 18 THE COURT: Let's talk about it after the lunch 19 break. It would be so much easier for her in particular, 20 right? 21 So other housekeeping matters by the plaintiff? 22 MR. WALLACE: That was the only issue. Otherwise, 23 we're prepared to proceed on the issue we laid out at the 24 end of last week. 25 THE COURT: What is the story with Mr. Solomon?	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2744 1 flow from unit sales prepared by Ray Flores 10/20/2103?" 2 Do you recall that we had looked at that before? 3 A I believe so, yes. 4 Q And I believe you testified that you did recall putting 5 this together, this cash flow analysis, that's referenced in 6 line 751; right? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Were you aware in this time frame that your cash flow 9 analysis was being used for the purpose of valuing this asset 10 for Mr. Trump's statement of financial condition? 11 A No, I was not. 12 Q Now, let's go ahead and -- what was the business 13 purpose by the way for your preparation of the cash flow 14 analysis that's referenced here? 15 A I believe I was keeping track of the properties's 16 performance and that's the extent of what I thought I was doing. 17 Q And you were doing that at the direction of Eric Trump; 18 correct? 19 A I believe at this time it was David Orowitz. 20 Q And at some point in time when you were preparing the 21 cash flow analysis was it at Mr. Eric Trump's direction after 22 Mr. Orowitz left the company? 23 A It would have been -- I don't recall. 24 Q Let's go ahead and look at the 2016 Jeff Supporting 25 Data spreadsheet, which is Exhibit 742 in evidence. And if we
R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2743 1 MR. WALLACE: We'll go off the record for this? 2 MR. KISE: Sure. 3 THE COURT: Okay. 4 (Whereupon, there is an off-the-record discussion 5 held.) 6 THE COURT: Let's call the next witness ASAP. 7 MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor. We recall to the 8 stand Raymond Flores. 9 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. 10 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and 11 approaches the witness stand.) 12 THE COURT: I'll remind the witness, witness, as I 13 always do, you're still under oath. 14 THE WITNESS: Yes. 15 THE COURT: Please proceed. Continue. 16 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION 17 BY MR. AMER: 18 Q Welcome back, Mr. Flores. I'd like to quickly review 19 where we ended your examination a week ago last Friday. 20 We were discussing the joint venture Vegas property and 21 we had looked at the 2017 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, 22 which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 719 in evidence. And if we could 23 go to Row 751, which we had looked at before. 24 It states in Row 751 that the values listed for 25 June 30, 2013 and June 30, 2014 are, quote, "based on the cash	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2745 1 go to Row 816, this is now for the next two years 2015 and 2016. 2 Same note or similar note on Row 816 says "based on the cash 3 flow from unit sales prepared by Ray Flores." 4 You recall that you continued preparing this cash flow 5 analysis? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And am I correct that you were not aware in this time 8 frame that your cash flow analysis was being used for the 9 purpose of valuing this asset in Mr. Trump's Statement of 10 Financial Condition? 11 A That's correct. 12 Q Now, if we could look at the next two years the 2018 13 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet that's Exhibit 774 in evidence 14 and if we could go to Row 841 that's where Vegas begins. 15 And do you see, Mr. Flores, that there is no longer any 16 reliance based on the notation to your spreadsheet, your cash 17 flow analysis, rather? 18 A Can you scroll down, please? 19 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.) 20 A Yes, that's correct. 21 Q So your cash flow analysis was no longer being 22 referenced as the basis for the valuation in either 2017 or 23 2018; correct? 24 A That appears to be the case. 25 Q Let's go ahead and pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1208

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2746 1 native. And the document I've handed you is a series of e-mail 2 exchanges that include you as a sender and recipient; correct? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And you'll see the last page is an attachment that's a 5 document prepared natively. Do you see that? 6 A Can you show me the document, please? 7 Q Well, just that last page is a slip sheet for an 8 attachment? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Provided natively. And we'll look at that in a moment. 11 And I just want you to notice that's a native attachment. Do 12 you see that? 13 A Yes. 14 Q And you'll see in on the first page of the exhibit your 15 e-mail in the middle of page to Mr. McConney, Jeff. "As 16 discussed, please find the updated workbook attached," and then 17 he forwards that on to Mr. Birney in the e-mail above that. Do 18 you see that? 19 A Yes. 20 Q And the attachment, the Trump rough and financial 21 model, that's your cash flow analysis; correct? 22 A Yes, I believe so. 23 Q Let's go ahead and put up the native of 1208. 24 And do you recognize this as your cash flow analysis 25 that was forwarded by you to Mr. McConney and that is as of	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2748 1 A Yes. 2 Q Were you made aware, Mr. Flores, of a decision to stop 3 using your cash flow analysis to value this Vegas asset for 4 Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition as of the 2017 5 statement? 6 A No, not that I recall. 7 Q Before we move on to a new property I just wanted to 8 quickly circle back to Niketown to see if I could refresh your 9 recollection on a couple of points. 10 You'll recall we had looked at the 2020 Jeff Supporting 11 Data spreadsheet, which is Exhibit 857 in evidence and Row 88 is 12 where Niketown begins, so if we could look there. 13 Do you recall we had looked at this before? 14 A Yes. 15 Q And if you go to Rows 88 to 103 you will see that there 16 is a method used to value the property in 2019 from Rows 88 to 17 103 that produce a value of 445 million. Do you see that? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And then if we just go down to Row 106, you'll see that 20 there is a change in methodology for 2020 that says "value per 21 20 year discounted cash flow from Ray Flores." Do you see that? 22 A Yes. 23 Q And I believe your testimony was that you don't recall 24 performing a 20 year discounted cash flow analysis for Niketown 25 for 2020; is that right?
R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2747 1 June 30, 2017? 2 A Yes. 3 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask to move into evidence 4 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1208, including the spreadsheet. 5 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 6 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 7 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1208 in 8 evidence.) 9 Q And if you look at Row 37 of your spreadsheet that has 10 the cash flow to Trump; correct? 11 A Yes, that's what the document says. 12 Q And so the value of the cash flow to Trump for your 13 cash flow analysis has a total value of a little over 14 $77 million; is that right? 15 A Yes. 16 Q Okay. If we could now split the screen and look at 17 Plaintiff's Exhibit 774, which is the 2018 Jeff Supporting Data 18 spreadsheet in evidence that we were just looking at. 19 If we could go to Row 872 and go over to Column G. 20 That's the June 30, 2017 value for this property which 21 is slightly over 102 million; correct? 22 A Yes, that's what the document says. 23 Q Okay. And that value for the Vegas property as of 24 June 30, 2017 is about $25 million, more than the $77 million 25 value in your cash flow analysis; correct?	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2749 1 A Yes, that's correct. 2 Q And then I showed you the 20 year discounted cash flow 3 analysis for Nike for 2020 which we could put up on the screen 4 now. It's PX 857. Anyway, I believe we put up a spreadsheet 5 and when we looked at that spreadsheet you still did not recall 6 whether it was your work product. Do you remember that? 7 A Yes. 8 Q So we're going to look at a few more pieces of evidence 9 to see if it refreshes your recollection about the 20 year 10 discounted analysis for 2020. 11 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and look at an earlier 12 draft of the 2020 Jeff Supporting Data, which is Plaintiff's 13 Exhibit 2293 in native and let's go ahead and look at 14 Row 118 and actually go down a little bit further just so we 15 can see the Niketown section. The other way. Sorry. 16 Q You see this is the section starting at 86 that relates 17 to Niketown. Do you see that? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And in this earlier draft of the Jeff Supporting Data 20 spreadsheet for 2020 you'll see rather than reference the 20 21 year discounted cash flow analysis, it has -- starting in 22 Row 105 and going down, a method -- keep going -- a method that 23 takes the net operating income shown in 117 and divides it by a 24 cap rate of four percent to produce a value of 265.1 million. 25 Do you see that?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2750 1 A Yes. 2 Q Do you -- 3 MR. AMER: Well, let me move to admit this exhibit, 4 Your Honor. 5 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 6 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 7 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 857 in 8 evidence.) 9 Q Do you recall Mr. McConney asking you to come up with 10 additional reasoning -- actually, before we get there I'll 11 withdraw that. 12 If you look at line 123, you'll see it says "cap rate." 13 And you see there is a note below it for 6/30/2020 that says 14 "given the prime location in the plaza district, the proximity 15 to Trump Tower and the high profile tenant, we use the same four 16 percent cap rate as Trump Tower." Do you see that note? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Do you recall Mr. McConney asking you to come up with 19 additional reasoning to justify using the four percent cap rate 20 for Niketown in the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition 21 because Mr. Bender was pushing back on using the four percent 22 cap rate? 23 A I don't recall, no. 24 Q You don't recall that. 25 If I suggested to you that he made such a request to	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2752 1 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 397 in 2 evidence.) 3 THE COURT: I don't know how these things work. Is 4 there a transcript of that that will actually be in evidence 5 or just this recording? 6 MR. AMER: We can transcribe it and put that in as 7 an exhibit as well. 8 THE COURT: Please do. 9 MR. AMER: Okay. We will. 10 Q Do you recall, Mr. Flores, that in lieu of convincing 11 Mr. Bender to accept the four percent cap rate you and others 12 working on the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial 13 Condition used the 20 year cash flow analysis we've been 14 discussing as an alternative method for valuing Niketown in 15 2020? 16 A I'm sorry, can you repeat the question? 17 Q Sure. Do you recall -- and we've listened to this 18 voicemail message where Mr. McConney is asking you to come up 19 with additional reasons to justify the four percent cap rate. 20 Do you recall that in lieu of trying to convince 21 Mr. Bender to accept the four percent cap rate you and others 22 working on the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial 23 Condition used the 20 year cash flow analysis we've been 24 discussing as an alternative method for valuing Niketown in 25 2020?
R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2751 1 you on Christmas Eve of 2020, does that ring a bell? 2 A No. 3 Q Mr. Flores, were you aware that as part of discovery in 4 this case and in the investigation you received production of 5 voicemail messages that were left on your office phone? 6 A No. 7 Q Okay. 8 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I'd like to play an audio 9 file which is a voicemail message that Mr. McConney left on 10 Mr. Flores' phone that we marked at PX 397 and then I'll ask 11 you if it refreshes your recollection. 12 THE COURT: Go ahead. 13 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.) 14 Q I know you -- he spoke a little quickly. I don't know 15 if you need to play it over again or not, but my question is 16 whether that refreshes your recollection that Mr. McConney left 17 you a message on Christmas Eve Of 2020 asking you to come up 18 with additional reasoning to justify using the four percent cap 19 rate for Niketown? 20 A No, I don't recall that. 21 Q Okay. 22 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that the voicemail 23 message be admitted into evidence. 24 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 25 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2753 1 A No, I don't recall. 2 Q Let's go ahead and put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 3294 in 3 native. This is a draft 20 year cash flow analysis for Niketown 4 for 2020. Do you recall creating this analysis shortly after 5 receiving -- well, shortly after Christmas Eve of 2020? 6 A No, I don't recall that. 7 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark as 3295, the 8 metadata for this spreadsheet. 9 Q Mr. Flores, this document is a printout of the metadata 10 that was produced along with the spreadsheet we were just 11 looking at. And if you go down you will see that it says the 12 author is you. Do you see that? 13 A Yes, that's what this says. 14 Transcript continues on the following page.... 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

1 Q And you will see that the created date is December 28,
2 2020. Do you see that?
3 A Yes.
4 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I'll represent, and the 5 Court can take judicial notice, that the very first business
6 day after Christmas Eve in 2020, which fell on a Thursday,
7 is Monday, the 28th of December.
8 THE COURT: I'll assume that's correct.
9 Q So this metadata shows that the very first business day
10 after Mr. McConney left you the voicemail message that we 11 listened to, there is a 20-year cash flow analysis that the 12 metadata indicates was created by you on that date, the 28th.
13 Do you see that?
14 A That's what the document says.
15 Q Does this refresh your recollection, Mr. Flores, that 16 you prepared the 20-year cash flow analysis that we've marked as 17 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3294 shortly after Christmas Eve as an 18 alternative valuation method for Niketown because Mr. Bender was 19 pushing back on using a cap rate of four percent?
20 A No, it doesn't.
21 Q So you have no recollection of doing this work based on 22 a Christmas Eve 2020 voicemail message less than three years ago
23 today, correct?
24 A Correct.
25 Q Just to close the loop, let's compare the MPV value on

R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2755

1 the spreadsheet that we were looking at.
2 MR. AMER: If we could put that back up.
3 Q You'll see the MPV value in Row 14 is $252,779,805?
4 A Correct.
5 Q And again, this is the spreadsheet that has the 6 metadata that says you are the author of this document based on
7 what we were looking at, right?
8 A That's correct. Correct.
9 Q And let's put up next to this the final 2020 Jeff
10 Supporting Data spreadsheet that is Exhibit 857 in evidence and 11 let's go to Row 86 where Niketown starts and then if you go to 12 Row 106, which has the value that is attributed to you, same
13 value that's in the spreadsheet -- sorry. The analysis that 14 the metadata says you created on December 28, 2020, correct?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Mr. Flores, having looked at a number of 20-year
17 discounted cash flow spreadsheets for Niketown, the metadata for 18 one of those spreadsheets identifying you as the author, the 19 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheets attributing the spreadsheets
20 to you and the voicemail message that Mr. McConney left for you
21 on Christmas Eve in 2020 asking for your assistance, is your 22 recollection now refreshed that less than three years ago, you
23 created a 20-year cash flow analysis for Niketown to be used to 24 value the property in 2020 for Mr. Trump's Statement of
25 Financial Condition?

R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2756

1 A No, it's not refreshed.
2 Q In terms of the statements that you worked on
3 preparing, I believe you previously testified that you believed
4 you worked on the statement as of June 30, 2020, but that you
5 didn't recall if you also worked on preparing the Statement of 6 Financial Condition as of 6/30/21 before you left the company in 7 March of 2022. Did I get that right?
8 A Yes, that's correct.
9 Q Let me see if I could refresh your recollection. We 10 did receive in production along with an audio file of a phone
11 message that Mr. Birney left for you some metadata attached to 12 that audio file, all of which gets produced in something called 13 a Cellebrite file.
14 MR. AMER: So I would like to mark as Plaintiff's
15 Exhibit 3300 which I'm going to hand to the witness a report
16 generated by the metadata from Cellebrite file.
17 Q I may have misspoke, but this is a message that was
18 left for Patrick Birney, not by him, and based on Plaintiff's
19 Exhibit 3300, which is the report for the audio message, it says
20 that the message was left on August 2nd of 2021 and it has the 21 phone number of the message of the phone that was calling,
22 leaving the message, and you'll see it is (212) 715-7282.
23 That's your office number, isn't it?
24 A It was, yes.
25 Q And you'll see it's a 27-second message that is being

R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2757

1 retrieved from the phone of Mr. Birney?
2 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I'd like to have this
3 document 3300, admitted into evidence.
4 THE COURT: Granted. It is in .
5 (Whereupon, the Audio recording was marked in 6 evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3300.)
7 MR. KISE: For what purpose, Your Honor?
8 THE COURT: Mr. Amer, you can say it better than I
9 can.
10 MR. AMER: We are going to play the message. This 11 tells us who the message is coming from and the date of the 12 message.
13 MR. KISE: Okay. All of these are being used,
14 though, to refresh recollection. Is there some purpose that 15 the hearsay itself is coming into evidence, the same is true
16 as the other message.
17 MR. AMER: I did not admit them for a limited
18 purpose Your, Honor. I admitted them into evidence because 19 they're all admissible for all purposes. They are party
20 admissions against interest.
21 THE COURT: Well, I don't know what this new one
22 will show, but the last one was relevant to how things were 23 playing out there, simply put.
24 MR. AMER: Is it in evidence?
25 THE COURT: The metadata?

R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2758 1 MR. KISE: We haven't heard it yet. 2 MR. AMER: No. 3 THE COURT: We could wait -- 4 MR. AMER: It was this report admitted in evidence. 5 Now, we are going to play the message. 6 THE COURT: If we haven't heard the metadata, we 7 don't -- if we haven't heard the -- what you're going to 8 play, I don't know whether the metadata is relevant. So why 9 don't we wait until we hear. 10 MR. AMER: Okay. 11 Q Let's go ahead and play the voicemail message that was 12 left from your phone number. 13 (Whereupon, the audio recording was played.) 14 MR. AMER: Do we need to hear it one more time? 15 THE COURT: No, I don't. Anybody else does? 16 Q That was your voice, Mr. Flores, was it not? 17 A Yes. 18 THE COURT: They're both in evidence now. 19 MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor. 20 Q You were leaving a message for Mr. Birney saying that 21 Eric had asked you to reach out to him about preparation of the 22 financial statement, correct? 23 A Correct. 24 Q And that Eric was Eric Trump, right? 25 A Yes.	R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2760 1 this refresh your recollection." He says no and now it is 2 in evidence for all purposes at least according to them and 3 I'm just wondering how that can be because that's not really 4 consistent with the line of questioning. If they're 5 introducing hearsay to -- well, if they're introducing 6 hearsay evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted 7 and not meaning the substance of the communication, not to 8 establish either that this witness doesn't remember or not 9 to establish that a conversation may or may not have taken 10 place. Those are just two very different things. 11 MR. AMER: It is absolutely being offered into 12 evidence and has been in my view admitted into evidence to 13 prove the truth of the matters asserted which is that what 14 is stated in both messages is a correct statement of what 15 was going on at the time. The fact that he doesn't 16 remember, it is also something that's very interesting and 17 pertinent, but it is not the sole basis for wanting to get 18 those into evidence. 19 THE COURT: Probably not the main basis, but in any 20 event, I think Mr. Amer adopted my phraseology what was 21 going on. I want to know who was talking to whom about what 22 in terms of these financial statements, who was 23 communicating with whom about what numbers were going to be 24 put in place. Is that a fair statement? 25 MR. AMER: Yes, absolutely, Your Honor.
R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2759 1 Q And this is a phone message you were leaving for Mr. 2 Birney in mid 2021, right? 3 A That's what the metadata says. 4 Q And does the fact that Eric Trump touched base with you 5 in mid 2021 about having you work on the preparation of the 6 financial statement refresh your recollection that you indeed 7 were involved in the preparation of the 2021 Statement of 8 Financial Condition? 9 A I could have been. I don't recall. 10 Q No doubt, though, that that was your voice -- 11 A Yes. 12 Q -- leaving that message for Mr. Birney, correct? 13 A Correct. 14 MR. KISE: So Your Honor, just to clarify, I guess 15 this is where I'm not stating it correctly. Is this message 16 and the subsequent -- or the prior message being introduced 17 to establish that Mr. Flores doesn't actually remember what 18 took place? Is it being introduced to establish that it, in 19 fact, took place? I'm just -- I think those are two very 20 different things. If the government is trying to establish 21 that Mr. Flores doesn't remember something that happened, 22 because that's what the questions are. 23 THE COURT: I'm sure that's not the reason; am I 24 correct? 25 MR. KISE: That's all the questions are. "Does	R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2761 1 MR. KISE: Then with respect to the -- this 2 statement since Mr. Flores accurately acknowledged that it 3 was his voice on the message and, in fact, he has no reason 4 to doubt it, then the foundation has been laid. With 5 respect to the McConney message, which the witness doesn't 6 remember and doesn't recall, you would need Mr. McConney 7 here to say, yes, in fact, I left that message unless this 8 witness can say he did leave the message. This witness 9 can't get in a hearsay statement even if it is an admission 10 by a party. 11 THE COURT: Even if it is an admission by a party? 12 That's classic -- 13 MR. KISE: But we don't know whether it is or not 14 unless someone has authenticated it for that purpose. 15 MR. AMER: Do you need me to respond? It is a 16 voicemail message produced in discovery by the defendants. 17 Mr. McConney is a defendant in this case. It is an 18 admission against interest, clear, classic traditional to 19 the hearsay rule. 20 MR. KISE: I don't know why it is being admitted 21 other than that he called Mr. Flores. 22 MR. AMER: I think it is admitting quite a bit and 23 that's for argument. 24 MR. KISE: I'll leave it there. 25 THE COURT: It is in evidence for the "quite a

1 bit."
2 MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor.
3 Q We are now going to move, Mr. Flores, to a different
4 property, Doral. Do you recall from your prior testimony
5 discussing Poer & Company the tax certiorari firm?
6 A Yes.
7 Q You previously testified that the firm handled property
8 tax assessment appeals in Florida for the Trump Organization,
9 right?
10 A Correct.
11 Q You mentioned that you worked with that firm in 12 connection with reviewing property tax assessments of Trump
13 Organization properties in Florida, right?
14 A Yes.
15 MR. AMER: I'd like to introduce Plaintiff's
16 Exhibit 3211.
17 Q You will see that this is an e-mail from Tony Garcia at 18 Poer & Company to you. Do you see that?
19 A Yes.
20 Q Is Mr. Garcia one of the individuals you interacted
21 with on tax assessment appeal matters that Poer & Company filed
22 on behalf of the Trump Organization?
23 A Yes.
24 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be admitted
25 into evidence.

R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2763

1 THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
2 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
3 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3211.)
4 Q Now, if you look at the e-mail starting with the second
5 sentence of the first full paragraph, he says, "Per our 6 conversation, we will withdraw the RE appeals for lack of 7 supporting evidence."
8 First of all, do you recall what "RE" stands for in 9 that sentence?
10 A Real estate.
11 Q Real estate, okay.
12 Do you have a recollection of having this discussion
13 with Mr. Garcia about the real estate appeals for Doral?
14 A This specific discussion, it seems familiar.
15 Q And Mr. Garcia goes on to say, "Our opinion is the 16 property was fairly too favorably assessed as of the 1/1/2020
17 assessment date." The "YE 2019," we can agree that means year
18 end, the year?
19 A Correct.
20 Q "The year end 2019 operating statement still supports
21 the county's value as being fair." Do you see that?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Do you recall what the property appraiser determined
24 was the market value of Doral for 2020?
25 A No, I don't recall.

R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2764

1 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Exhibit 3209.
2 Your Honor, this is the official notice of proposed property
3 taxes from the Miami-Dade property appraiser that's 4 available on the government's website and I move that this
5 be admitted into evidence as a business record from a
6 government website.
7 THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
8 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
9 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3209.)
10 MR. KISE: Your Honor, just briefly. I mean, I'm 11 assuming this is a public record, so that satisfies that 12 basis; but I'm just wondering what's the relevance of this 13 document. Why is this coming in?
14 THE COURT: I guess we'll find out.
15 MR. KISE: Okay. Subject to connection.
16 MR. AMER: Indeed.
17 THE COURT: Okay.
18 Q If we go down, down the document, you'll see that
19 there's value information column. Keep going. You see it says,
20 "Value information, prior value 2019, current value 2020."
21 There are two columns. Well, multiple columns. There is a
22 market value column and then there are two assessed value
23 columns. Do you see that?
24 A Yes.
25 Q And the market value in both years is $78 million,

R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2765

1 correct?
2 A Correct.
3 Q And that is the market value that Mr. Garcia from Poer
4 & Company was indicating in his e-mail to you as being fair,
5 correct?
6 A I believe so.
7 Q Let's go ahead now and --
8 MR. AMER: Oh, I think we had your ruling that this 9 is admitted?
10 THE COURT: Yes.
11 MR. AMER: Okay.
12 Q Let's go ahead and turn to Mar-A-Lago. And before we
13 talk about Mar-A-Lago, I wanted to just put up plaintiff's
14 demonstrative Exhibit 3.10, just so that we can all see the 15 values of Mar-A-Lago for the 11-year period in the Statements of 16 Financial Condition.
17 THE COURT: But before we --
18 MR. KISE: Before we get there, was that the 19 connection? I'm lost. Was that the connection? We are 20 moving away from this exhibit now. It was offered subject
21 to connection. Maybe I missed the connection.
22 THE COURT: Well, I think the connection was market
23 value and $78 million.
24 MR. AMER: That's right.
25 MR. KISE: So this is being offered as the actual

R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2766 1 market value of the property in this year, just so I'm 2 clear? 3 THE COURT: Well, the tax assessor's view and I 4 think Mr. Garcia's view of the market value. That's what it 5 says. Now, Mr. Kise, you can certainly argue that there are 6 different market values, but it is still relevant. 7 MR. KISE: Okay. Same objection, but thank you, 8 Judge. 9 Q I just wanted all of us to familiarize ourselves with 10 the values for Mar-A-Lago that are in this statements from 2011 11 to 2021. 12 Mr. Flores, we heard testimony from Mr. McConney that 13 every year from 2011 to 2021, Mar-A-Lago was valued as if it 14 could be sold as a private residence. Do you have an 15 understanding that Mar-A-Lago was being valued as a private 16 residence when you were working with others to prepare 17 valuations for the Statements of Financial Condition? 18 A I don't recall, no. 19 Q Do you have any reason to doubt Mr. McConney's 20 testimony that every year it was being valued as a private 21 residence? 22 A No. 23 Q Let's go ahead -- 24 MR. KISE: Objection; foundation. 25 MR. AMER: I think there was foundation because the	R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2768 1 question? That's the first question. Any reason to doubt? 2 I mean, he's not demonstrated that the witness has any basis 3 to know one way or the other. 4 THE COURT: Please explain the basis which I think 5 was evident. 6 MR. AMER: The basis is that this witness said he 7 was personally involved with others in the preparation of 8 the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition and I will -- if 9 you will refrain from characterizing my questions in a 10 pejorative way, I will extend you the same courtesy if and 11 when you get to the podium to question witnesses, Mr. Kise. 12 MR. KISE: But I'm still -- pejoratives aside, just 13 because he was involved in the preparation of the 2020 14 Statement of Financial Condition, there's literally hundreds 15 of properties. There's all sorts of properties. I mean, 16 the question relates to this one particular property and not 17 even that one particular property, but a particular aspect 18 of that one particular property. 19 So to say that I'm involved -- that a witness is 20 involved generally in the preparation of the Statements of 21 Financial Condition is very different than saying the 22 witness was involved specifically with respect to this asset 23 and would know specifically Mr. -- have a basis to know one 24 way or the other Mr. McConney's rationale. 25 THE COURT: Mr. Kise, I think the questions are
R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2767 1 witness testified he was involved in discussions with others 2 about the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial 3 Condition. So he has a foundation for knowing if he has any 4 reason to doubt Mr. McConney's testimony. 5 MR. KISE: But he testified he doesn't know whether 6 it was valued as a private residence or not. 7 THE COURT: Well, that's his testimony. 8 MR. KISE: Right. 9 THE COURT: It doesn't mean -- 10 MR. KISE: Now, any reason -- I mean, is there any 11 reason to doubt that it is raining outside? If you know, 12 you know. If you can't look out the window, you don't know. 13 This witness doesn't have any basis to know what Mr. 14 McConney was doing or what he testified to or the accuracy 15 of it. It is just sloppy, Your Honor. 16 MR. AMER: Well, I take offense to calling my 17 questions sloppy, but I think it was appropriate. I think 18 the witness said he didn't recall how Mar-A-Lago was valued 19 and it is appropriate to ask him if he has any basis to 20 dispute Mr. McConney's testimony. 21 THE COURT: He doesn't say, "I would have no way of 22 knowing that." He says, "I don't recall." The objection is 23 overruled. 24 MR. KISE: It would be better if he -- I mean, 25 does he have any understanding one way or the other is the	R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2769 1 perfectly appropriate. There was a basis and the witness 2 said he didn't remember, didn't know. If we're going to 3 have to go through this every time there's some -- you 4 perceive an issue with relevance, we'll be here a lot longer 5 than I think we need to be. 6 I don't want to stop you from presenting your 7 defense or questioning the plaintiff's case, but gee, save 8 it for something that matters. I don't see that this even 9 matters much less I think you're wrong on the merits. So 10 let's move on. 11 MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor. 12 MR. KISE: Respectfully, Your Honor, it does 13 matter. The rules matter and this witness' knowledge 14 matters. This is a highly-technical case, so all of this 15 collapsing and conflating that has been done throughout the 16 course of their case is inappropriate. 17 So I am -- respectfully, I'm not trying to take up 18 a lot of time, but I am respectfully going to have to object 19 to that. I understand the Court's position and I will just 20 make my objection and leave it there. Thank you. 21 THE COURT: Yes, the rules matter at a certain 22 point. I'm just going to say, and maybe the point is now, 23 my ruling is my ruling. I give you some leeway because you 24 know what you're doing and this is an important case and the 25 details do matter, but if I rule rather than you might just

R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2770 1 question whether it really matters, and "I don't know," "I 2 don't remember," "I don't think" really matters. 3 But anyway, again, a ruling is a ruling and I'll 4 give you some leeway as I have this whole trial, but let's 5 try -- both of us try to be reasonable about this, okay. 6 Let's just move on. 7 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I do have to just make a 8 simple request. In my experience, evidentiary objections 9 are very short and concise. It is the word "objection" and 10 maybe five or six words after that. I have reviewed the 11 transcripts to date and there are any number of instances 12 where Mr. Kise's evidentiary objections go on for pages in 13 the record. And then when Your Honor rules against Mr. Kise 14 and overrules the objection, it is an invitation for 15 reconsideration and we get another several pages of the same 16 objection. 17 It does three things. It interrupts the flow of 18 the examination which is unfair. It educates the witness 19 potentially which is improper, and it prolongs the trial. 20 So I'm just going to ask not for a particular ruling now, 21 but I ask that you consider whether it's now time to 22 restrict Mr. Kise when making an evidentiary objection to 23 what is the standard practice, which is very short, concise 24 statement, the word "objection," and a very quick basis of 25 what the objection is.	R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2772 1 would just say it is a bench trial. We'll just move on. I 2 understand the Court's direction and as always, I take it 3 under advisement. 4 THE COURT: Thank you. I won't make any such broad 5 ruling at this point. 6 Mr. Kise, obviously you're free to object, but keep 7 in mind the point about the deleterious effects of long 8 speeches, speaking objections. 9 And by the way, Mr. Amer, compared to most judges, 10 I probably do allow and actually seek more of an explanation 11 on objections. In fact, I often turn to the defense side 12 and say "what's the ground." But again, we will all try to 13 use commonsense here and let's move on. 14 MR. AMER: I appreciate, Your Honor. 15 Q Let's look at Exhibit 3214. This is an e-mail from Mr. 16 Garcia of Poer & Company to you, cc'd to Mr. Corbiciero on 17 November 13th, 2020, correct? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And you'll see that the second sentence refers to Mr. 20 Garcia getting calls from the media about the appeals for 21 Mar-A-Lago and Doral. Do you see that? 22 A Yes. 23 Q Did Poer & Company file an appeal for the 2020 tax 24 assessment for Mar-A-Lago on behalf of the Trump Organization? 25 A I don't recall.
R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2771 1 THE COURT: Well -- 2 MR. KISE: Most of the time, Your Honor, that's 3 exactly what happens, and then there's a colloquy about why 4 do you think -- you asked Mr. Amer how about it. You ask 5 me to explain. I mean, this is part of the give and take. 6 It is a bench trial. I'm not sure what Mr. Amer's 7 experience is and I'm not going to get into pejoratives, but 8 I have to make our record. 9 If they are now asking -- they're now asking that 10 the defense not even be allowed to make its case. They're 11 asking that the defense not be allowed to make objections. 12 They're asking that the defense not be able to make its 13 case. Why don't we just skip over the part where there is a 14 trial and just move to the ruling because that's what they 15 want to do? That's clearly what they want to do. 16 That's where they began this case from the 17 beginning. That's what they're used to in the Attorney 18 General's office, bullying people in examinations under oath 19 and now we are in open court, in an open trial, in a 20 highly-publicized case and now they're asking that the 21 lawyers not even be able to make sure arguments. 22 I think it's highly improper for them to even make 23 the request. Your Honor has done a very good job of 24 navigating and negotiating between the lawyers as to their 25 objections. They have done many similar things and so I	Page 2773 1 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this into evidence. 2 THE COURT: Granted. 3 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 4 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3214.) 5 (Continued on the next page.) 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2774 1 Q Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's Exhibit 3170. 2 These are a series of petitions and other materials that were 3 provided to us by the Valuation -- by the Value Adjustment 4 Board. If you go to the second page you'll see that there is on 5 the bottom the certification from the Board of County 6 Commissioners and that same certification appears on the bottom 7 of page two, the bottom of page four, the bottom of page five, 8 the bottom of page six, and the bottom of page seven, 9 establishing that this is the county's official records. 10 MR. AMER: I move this into evidence, Your Honor, 11 under the business exception -- business records exception 12 to the hearsay rule. 13 THE COURT: Isn't it more specific than business 14 record exception, public document exception, something like 15 that? Where is Mr. Robert now that we need him? He's our 16 CPLR expert. It's in evidence. I'll just save time. Let's 17 move on. 18 MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor. 19 THE COURT: Tell him I said so. 20 Q Let's look at the first page of this exhibit. You'll 21 see that this is the petition to request a hearing and you'll 22 see that it's being filed by Mr. Corbiciero. He's the 23 representative and it's on behalf of Mar-A-Lago Club, Inc. 24 Do you see that? 25 A Yes.	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2776 1 Mar-A-Lago was; right? It was a commercial property being used 2 as a social club; right? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And there were boxes that would have permitted 5 Mr. Corbiciero to indicate that the property was residential; 6 right? There is a box next to "type of property" that says "RES 7 one to four units" and "RES five plus units;" right? 8 A Correct. 9 Q So he could have designated it as a residential 10 property if he checked those boxes, but he did not; right? 11 A That's correct. 12 Q Okay. And so if we go to the last page of the document 13 you'll see this is a withdrawal petition. Do you recall that 14 the petition appealing the assessment was withdrawn? 15 A Yes, I believe so. 16 Q And the reason for the withdrawal if you go down a 17 little bit there is a box checked, says "the petitioner agrees 18 with the determination of the property appraiser or tax 19 collector." Do you see that? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And so was it your understanding that the appeal was 22 withdrawn because the Trump Organization agreed with the 23 determination of the property appraiser? 24 A Yes. 25 Q And that determination was based on Mar-A-Lago being
R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2775 1 Q So this is the appeal that was filed, request for a 2 hearing of the tax assessment for the 202 year; correct? 3 A I believe so, yes. 4 Q Did you review this petition before Mr. Corbiciero 5 filed it with the county? 6 A I don't believe so. 7 Q To your knowledge did anybody review it -- anyone from 8 the Trump Organization review it before Mr. Corbiciero filed it 9 with the Value Adjustment Board? 10 A I don't believe so, no. 11 Q You don't have any reason, do you, to believe that 12 Mr. Corbiciero would file this petition without appropriate 13 authorization from the Trump Organization; is that right? 14 A Correct. 15 Q Now, if we go down to the petition you'll see -- too 16 far -- you'll see there is a section that says "type of 17 property." Do you see that? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And can you tell us the type of property Mr. Corbiciero 20 checked for Mar-A-Lago? 21 A Says "commercial." 22 Q So he's in an official filing with the Valuation Board 23 denoting Mar-A-Lago as a commercial property; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q And that's consistent with your understanding of what	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2777 1 categorized as a commercial property; correct? 2 A Yes. 3 Q Let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1382. 4 You'll see the e-mail that begins in the middle of the page is 5 from Mr. Corbiciero to you copied to Mr. Garcia dated 6 November 17, 2021 and the subject is "Mar-A-Lago Homestead 7 Exemption." Do you see that? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Now you go ahead and pass along Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail 10 to Eric Trump and Allen Weisselberg in the e-mail above; right? 11 A That's what the document says, yes. 12 Q Do you recall reading Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail before 13 you passed it on to your boss Eric Trump and Mr. Corbiciero? 14 A No, I don't recall. 15 Q Can we agree that you would have reviewed the e-mail 16 before passing it along to your boss Eric Trump and 17 Mr. Weisselberg? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And you ask and you tell them that they should let you 20 know if they would like to discuss further; right? 21 A Yes. 22 Q So can we agree that at the time you passed along 23 Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail about the homestead exemption you were 24 prepared to discuss it with them if they so chose? 25 A Yes.

1 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this exhibit
2 into evidence.
3 THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
4 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
5 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3170 in
6 evidence.)
7 Q Let's look at the second sentence in this e-mail from 8 Mr. Corbiciero. He says "last year we briefly discussed the 9 possibility of filing for a homestead exemption on the 10 Mar-A-Lago property since President Donald Trump had legally
11 declared Palm Beach and the Mar-A-Lago property as his permanent 12 residence." Do you see that?
13 A Yes.
14 Q Do you have any reason to doubt that you did in fact
15 discuss this possibility with Mr. Corbiciero the prior year?
16 A No.
17 Q Let's look at the second paragraph.
18 "In order to do this Mr. Trump would have to do certain 19 things to establish residency" and I'm going to -- it says 20 "since the private club is currently owned by a corporation, the 21 property ownership would need to be changed/transferred into his 22 name as an individual and not under a corporation."
23 Do you recall being aware of that point that
24 Mr. Corbiciero was mentioning?
25 A I believe so, yes.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2779

1 Q And he goes on to say "if he was to meet all these
2 requirements then the part of the property that he uses as a
3 residence would be eligible for homestead. The property
4 appraiser would need to come out and do a property inspection
5 and measure the residential area and that portion of the 6 assessment would receive the homestead exemption."
7 You understood what he was explaining to you when you
8 received this e-mail; correct?
9 A I believe so.
10 Q And let's look at the next paragraph.
11 "Currently, this property is assessed as a private club
12 with the current assessed value at $359 per square foot. The 13 surrounding residential properties are assessed on average of 14 over 2,000 per square foot with a recent sale with just 3,000
15 per square foot. If the property appraiser were to separately
16 assess the residential portion of Mar-A-Lago in order for it to 17 qualify for homestead, we believe this would result in a much
18 higher assessment and therefore outweigh the potential tax
19 savings from the $50,000 homestead exemption in the immediate 20 future. Please let us know if you have any questions or 21 concerns."
22 Mr. Flores, did you understand from this e-mail from 23 the company's tax advisor that Mar-A-Lago was currently assessed
24 as a private club and not a private residence?
25 A Yes.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2780

1 Q And did you understand, sir, that as a result of being
2 assessed as a private club and not a private residence, it was
3 assessed at a much lower price per square foot?
4 A That's what the e-mail says. I don't recall.
5 Q And that's what you were to understand when you
6 received this e-mail and read it?
7 A Correct.
8 MR. AMER: Your Honor, the Court can check my math,
9 but based on the numbers in Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail and 10 going off of the $3,000 per square foot figure, private 11 residences are assessed at almost eight and a half times the 12 price of a private club based on just the math and I think
13 the Court can take judicial notice of the math.
14 THE WITNESS: I'll take judicial notice subject to 15 any contradictory views.
16 Q And you understood that Mr. Corbiciero was saying it's 17 not worth the $50,000 homestead exemption because of the 18 increase in the assessment of the residential portion of 19 Mar-A-Lago were that to be carved out and designated at a
20 private residence; right?
21 A Correct.
22 Q And that's because private residences are assessed at a
23 much higher rate than a private club; correct?
24 A That's what the --
25 MR. KISE: Objection. Foundation.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2781

1 MR. AMER: He received this e-mail, Your Honor.
2 THE COURT: Let's ask. I think the question was
3 basically do you understand it that way and he says that's
4 what the e-mail says.
5 Mr. Flores, aside from the fact that's what the 6 e-mail said, is that what you understood, which is what the 7 question was?
8 THE WITNESS: I don't know.
9 Q But isn't that what you would have understood from 10 reading this e-mail?
11 A Yes, that's what this e-mail says.
12 MR. KISE: That's an entirely different question.
13 MR. AMER: I'm happy with the question I asked and 14 the answer I got.
15 THE COURT: And any objection overruled.
16 Q Did Eric Trump or Allen Weisselberg ever get back to 17 you to discuss this e-mail further?
18 A Not that I recall.
19 Q To your knowledge, did Donald J. Trump ever apply for 20 the homestead exemption?
21 A Not that I recall.
22 THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
23 Q When you participated in the preparation of the 24 Statement of Financial Condition, do you recall that Mar-A-Lago
25 continued to be valued as a private residence while being taxed

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2782 1 as a commercial property? 2 A No. 3 Q You don't know one way or the other? 4 A No. 5 Q We can agree that in 2020 it was being taxed as a 6 commercial property based on what Mr. Corbiciero had designated 7 the property as in the petition; correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q You mention that your job entailed conducting financial 10 analyses on real estate investments, including new acquisitions 11 and development opportunities; is that right? 12 A Correct. 13 Q And in connection with doing that work, you were 14 required to analyze future cash flows; correct? 15 A Correct. 16 Q And we've looked at some examples of discounted cash 17 flow analyses you prepared over the years at the direction of 18 Mr. Orowitz and Eric Trump; correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And so that is a type of analysis that is discounting 21 cash flows to present value that you knew how to do as part of 22 your job at the Trump Organization; right? 23 A Yes. 24 Q And you shared some of your discounted cash flow 25 analyses with Mr. Weisselberg?	R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2784 1 see it indicates on Row 480 23 lots are being valued at roughly 2 $63 million. Do you see that? Actually, it's for 2021. 3 And if you go down to Row 490, the same 23 lots are 4 being valued at about 53 million for 2020. Do you see that? 5 A Yes. 6 Q Did any of the individuals you identified as working 7 with you on the preparation of the Statement of Financial 8 Condition ask you to perform -- ask you to review the 9 assumptions involved in the sale of the 23 lots for this asset? 10 A No. 11 Q Did any of the individuals you identified as working 12 with you on the preparation of the Statement of Financial 13 Condition ask you to perform a discounted cash flow analysis for 14 the sale of these 23 lots? 15 A No. 16 Q Did any of them ask for your input on whether the 17 profit from these lot sales should be discounted to present 18 value? 19 A Not that I recall. 20 Q Mr. Flores, would you agree that future cash flows need 21 to be discounted to present value? 22 A Yes. 23 MR. AMER: That's all I have, Your Honor. 24 THE COURT: That's it for this witness? 25 MR. AMER: Right on schedule.
R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2783 1 A Yes. 2 Q And you shared some of your discounted cash flow 3 analyses with Mr. McConney; correct? 4 A Yes. 5 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and put up the 2020 Jeff 6 Supporting Data spreadsheet, which is Exhibit 1352, native. 7 If we could go to rows 311 to 316. 8 Q You'll see that they calculate the profit for the sale 9 of 71 mid rise units approved but put on hold and it comes to 10 over $90 million in 2020 and over $86 million for 2021. Do you 11 see that? 12 A Yes, that's what the -- that's what the document says. 13 Q In connection with your work on the Statement of 14 Financial Condition were you asked to review the assumptions for 15 the portion of the valuation of this asset that involves the 16 sale of 71 mid rise units? 17 A What is this asset? 18 Q This asset is Briarcliff. 19 A Then, no, I don't believe so. 20 Q Did anyone ever ask for your input on whether the 21 profit attributable to the sale of these 71 units should be 22 discounted to present value? 23 A No. 24 Q Let's turn to Row 453, which begins "the valuation for 25 the LA golf course." AMER: I do have one quick housekeeping matter. 13 THE COURT: Okay. 14 MR. AMER: Just about an exhibit. I showed 15 Mr. Flores it was Exhibit 1352. That was the 2021 16 supporting data spreadsheet. I mistakenly believe it had 17 been admitted into evidence, but it's the Whitley Penn 18 document that was admitted whereas the one I showed 19 Mr. Flores was the one produced by the Trump Organization, 20 so I think for the sake of good order we should just get the 21 one I used with the witness admitted and, again, that's 22 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1352. 23 THE COURT: Granted. You'll just make sure it 24 happens. Okay. 25 MR. GABER: People call David Cerron.

8 Do you solemnly swear or affirm any testimony you

10 truth?
11 D A V I D C E R R O N, called by and on behalf
12 of the Plaintiff, having been first duly sworn, was examined and 13 testified as follows:
14 THE WITNESS: I do.
15 THE COURT OFFICER: Please state your name and
16 either business or home address on the record.
17 THE WITNESS: My name is David Cerron. Business
18 address 830 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10065.
19 THE COURT: Okay. Counselor, please proceed.
20 DIRECT EXAMINATION
21 BY MR. GABER:
22 Q Good morning, Mr. Cerron. Can you please state your 23 employer and title for the record?
24 A My employer is the City of New York. I work for the 25 New York City Department of Parks and Recreation. I am the

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2787

1 assistant commissioner for business development and special
2 events.
3 Q And until recently, New York Department of Parks and
4 Recreation had a concession agreement with the Trump
5 Organization; is that correct?
6 A That's correct.
7 Q Could you give me some of your professional background
8 within the Parks Department, please?
9 A Sure. I've had the privilege of working for Parks in 10 the city for just over 21 years. I started there working in our 11 citywide services office, so that was doing a variety of 12 different programs with our parks enforcement; with the Green
13 Thumb Organization, which is community gardening; with arts and 14 antiquities, variety of different operations there.
15 I moved -- I worked in public programs, which does all
16 the recreation centers in the city and I had a chance to work on 17 their after-school programming and other different events and 18 I've worked in our transitional job programming, parks
19 opportunity program and with the concessions team and have been 20 there since about 2007, 2008.
21 Q And can you tell me at a high level what your role has 22 been as a member of Parks and Recreation with respect to the 23 Ferry Point Golf Course?
24 A So my role has been to work with colleagues in the 25 concessions division on contract administration. So contract

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2788

1 administration is effectively the oversight of the terms of the
2 contract. So we'll focus on things related to operations, you
3 know, is the operation -- and in this case Ferry Point.
4 Is it open to the public seven days a week; when does
5 the day start, when does the day end; are we sure that it's 6 being operated that time; when does the season end for most of 7 our golf courses, effectively all of them.
8 They have a season, so the weather has changed, but 9 they could be open until September or October, sometimes later
10 and then they'll kind of start a new season in the spring.
11 We'll go over reports that are due to us. We want to 12 make sure they have insurance. We want to make sure they're 13 charging the right rates if rates go up, which they tend to. We 14 want to review those rates and we have to approve them, so those 15 sorts of things.
16 Q And at what point in the history of the concession
17 agreement for Trump Ferry Point did you become directly involved
18 in the --
19 A I became involved once the license was registered by 20 the New York City Comptroller's Office and the agency had issued 21 a notice to proceed. So that was when the contract commenced in 22 I believe it was like the spring of 2015.
23 Q Were you in the office, though, during the period when 24 the request for offers was issued and being considered?
25 A I was.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2789

1 Q And did you have familiarity with that process?
2 A I was -- you know, I was there during that process and
3 certainly remember, you know, colleagues talking about it. I
4 was not involved in the selection.
5 Q Not formally involved?
6 A Not formally involved.
7 Q Can you describe what a request for offers is in terms
8 of city procurement? Your understanding?
9 A So it's an -- it's under the other procedures under the 10 city's Franchise and Concession Review Committee rules, so
11 that's the -- for short, the FCRC is the acronym that we use.
12 Typically, when the city does its solicitation to have 13 an operator provide a public service that includes fees we would 14 use two methods: A request for proposals, an RFP, or request
15 for bid, an RFB. Generally those are going to be the methods
16 that we'll use. There are instances where we will use either a
17 sole source where there is no competitive process and we go
18 through a process instead to award it directly to one operator.
19 We can just -- this operator is uniquely qualified to provide 20 that service and that, you know, the deal offered to the city is 21 sufficient for that justification.
22 And then in other circumstances we'll go through 23 another process. And this RFO, requests for offers, is part of 24 the other process and to the best of my recollection this is the 25 only time that the agency has done an RFO.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2790

1 MR. KISE: Your Honor, just -- very briefly just so
2 we avoid interruptions. One thing I notice on the record,
3 it's f-e-r-r-y, not f-a-i-r-y. And the other is that I just
4 want to have a standing objection so we can avoid on statute
5 of limitations and relevance to this line of questioning,
6 this testimony for this witness. Thank you.
7 THE COURT: We certainly want to get the spelling
8 correct and the objections are considered standing and
9 overruled.
10 Q Can you give me some background maybe about the --
11 before we get further into the request for offers, some 12 background about the genesis of the Ferry Point Park Golf
13 Course?
14 A So the Ferry Point site, the scenario before it was a
15 golf course was a municipal landfill and this was something that 16 when I was working with the city under the Bloomberg
17 administration was a priority for the agency to convert this 18 landfill into a golf course and that was something that, you
19 know, the city had attempted to do through a private operator.
20 We had issued other RFPs and solicitations to try and achieve
21 that goal and ultimately were not able to. So the city
22 invested, you know, approximately $120 million, I think, over
23 that in order to, you know, design and construct the golf
24 course.
25 MR. GABER: So at this point I'd like to bring up

Page 2792

1 was not a sole source, so this was the other -- and in this case
2 the other was the RFO.

1 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3289 for identification.
2 Q So Mr. Cerron, there is some addition. It was publicly
3 filed in a different legal proceeding, but the document in chief
4 begins on page two of four of this exhibit and I just ask that 5 once you've had a chance to take a look at it to let me know if
6 you recognize this document.
7 A Yes. This is a pre-solicitation review, what we call a
8 PSR, and this is part of the documentation that we have to 9 submit to the mayor's office of contract services before we can
10 formally issue a solicitation, in this case, the RFO.
11 MR. GABER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence.
12 THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
13 MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.
14 THE COURT: Standing objection overruled. It's 15 understood.
16 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
17 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3289 in
18 evidence.)
19 Q And Mr. Cerron, could I ask you to describe your 20 understanding from this document of the selection procedure
21 that's being outlined here?
22 A So, the selection procedure is along the lines of what
23 we had just discussed a few minutes ago. It is neither a
24 competitive sealed bid, which is an RFB or competitive sealed
25 proposal, which is an RFP. We did a different procedure that

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2793

1 Q So this would be followed by your request for offers?
2 A Correct.
3 MR. GABER: I ask to bring up Plaintiff's 3290 for
4 identification.
5 Q Again Mr. Cerron, once you've had a chance to review
6 this document, can you, please, tell me if you recognize this
7 document?
8 A This is the RFO document that was issued after the 9 approval of the PSR that we just discussed.
10 MR. GABER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence.
11 MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.
12 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
13 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
14 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3290.)
15 Q Mr. Cerron, I'd like to direct your attention on page
16 two of this document, the underlined header, "Goals for Request
17 for Offers." Starting at the end of the second line, "Parks is 18 seeking innovative offers from entities that can demonstrate 19 substantial experience in the operation of golf courses and 20 management of large scale events and significant financial 21 capability to operate and maintain this concession at the 22 highest level."
23 So can you, I suppose, tell me your understanding of 24 the goals of this RFO based on this language here?
25 A Yeah. The agency was seeking an operator that had

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2794

1 experience and I think that can be interpreted in a few ways,
2 but mainly operation of a golf course and a golf course that had
3 hosted, you know, major tournaments from the PGA or LPGA and 4 then have an entity that has the financial wherewithal to ensure
5 that the course is maintained at a high level and also any other
6 capital work that would be necessary.

7 Q Can you turn to page 3 of 8 under, "Content of offers,"
8 item number five, it says, "Financial capability, including 9 financial statements and other supporting documentation of the 10 responder's financial worth."

11 Is that what you were just referring to I think in 12 terms of the wherewithal to operate the concession?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And then moving forward to page seven of the document,
15 and we'll go between seven and eight. So there's here, it
16 discusses scoring, I believe in the document, of the offers that 17 are received; is that correct?

18 A If you could scroll I guess -- scroll down a little,
19 so I can -- or the other way. Sorry. Okay. "The conditions 20 based on the following criteria," is that the --

21 Q Yes, "conditions based on the following criteria." Do
22 you understand that to be the criteria on which offers would be 23 scored?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And you see there it says, "Financial ranking, ten

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2795

1 percent financial capability." Can you, I guess, provide your
2 understanding of how financial capability would be scored in a
3 request for offer such as this?

4 A So this is -- this is a category that, you know, we
5 would look for documentation verifying someone's finances to 6 move forward with the commitments that they're making in their 7 offer.

8 You know, there's a number of different documents that 9 we would -- could review depending on what someone provides.
10 It could be tax returns. It could be bank statements. It could
11 be financial statements. It could be attestation letters. It
12 is a variety of different things.

13 Q I think you said this a little bit before, but can you
14 explain Parks' interest in ensuring that an offerer has 15 sufficient financial capability?

16 A Well, I think generally for any project that we want to 17 do, we want to work with someone that we're sure has the money
18 or the financing to be able to deliver on what will be 19 obligations under the contract and I think specifically given
20 this -- the history of this course and the fact that we ended
21 up doing an RFO, I think the city was even more focused because 22 this was a tough one to get -- to get accomplished and to 23 actually complete.

24 Q Can you elaborate what you mean by "tough one to 25 accomplish"?

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2796

1 A As I mentioned, we had tried a handful of times through
2 an RFP to find an operator for this course and to have someone
3 else perhaps help with the construction or do the construction.
4 The city ended up investigating over $120 million and there was 5 a certainly a sense of importance placed on making sure that
6 this course was open and available to the public. And in doing
7 so, we wanted to be sure that whoever we had operating the 8 course had the financial capability to deliver on their 9 obligations including making sure the course was operating and 10 working every day.

11 Q Do you have a sense of how many offers were submitted
12 in response to this RFO?

13 A My recollection is that there were four offers.

14 MR. GABER: I'm going to now pass up PX 1331 for
15 identification.

16 Q Mr. Cerron, please let me know if you recognize this 17 document once you've had a chance to read it.

18 (Witness reviewing document.)

19 A This is the response to the RFO from the Trump
20 Organization.

21 MR. GABER: I'd ask this document be moved into
22 evidence.

23 MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.
24 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
25 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2797

1 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1331.)

2 Q Mr. Cerron, if I could point you to page four of this
3 document, heading "F, financial capability." It says, "We have 4 enclosed a statement from the certified public accounting firm
5 of Weiser, L.L.P. indicating a net worth in excess of $3 billion
6 and cash on hand in excess of $200 million. As such, we will 7 easily be able to meet any and all financial obligations under 8 this contract."

9 Just to move to page seven of the document, there's a
10 letter here from Weiser L.L.P. that I think says substantially 11 the same. So Mr. Cerron, is this the type of documentation of 12 financial capability that the city would use in considering
13 offers submitted to it?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And the city did consider this letter in reviewing the 16 request for offers?

17 A I believe so.

18 MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection; foundation.
19 THE COURT: Do you want him to ask if he knows?
20 MS. HERNANDEZ: He already testified that he was 21 not involved in the bid process.

22 MR. GABER: I believe he testified that he was not
23 formally involved, but he had an understanding of process
24 both generally as a Parks employee familiarity, but also
25 specifically in discussions with colleagues. I can ask him

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2798

1 what his understanding is or if he knows whether --
2 THE COURT: Let's start with does he know and then
3 what is his understanding.
4 Q Mr. Cerron, do you know if this document was considered
5 as part of the offer from the Trump Organization?
6 A I believe it was.
7 MR. GABER: At this time, I'd like to hand up this
8 document Plaintiff's Exhibit 3291. It is entitled,
9 "Recommendation for Award of Concession Agreement,
10 Responsibility Determination."
11 Q Mr. Cerron, let me know if you recognize this document,
12 please.
13 A Yes, I recognize it.
14 Q What is this document?
15 A This is the request for award. This is what we refer 16 to as an RFA and this is part of the documentation that we have 17 to provide to the mayor's office of contract services to 18 formalize the award of a license agreement.
19 Q So if you look there, there's a box here. It says,
20 "This is to certify that I have determined that the subject
21 concessionaire has the capability in all respects to perform
22 fully the concession requirements and the business integrity to 23 justify the private use of city-owned property and is,
24 therefore, responsible." And it appears to be signed by 25 Elizabeth W. Smith, Assistant Commissioner for Revenue and

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2799

1 Marketing.
2 So Mr. Cerron, does this certification mean that NYC
3 Parks is recommending that Trump Ferry Point, LLC be awarded the 4 concession?
5 A Yes.
6 Q So if we go down to the second -- page three of the 7 document, under the header, "Financial Resources, Adequate and 8 Accounting Procedures", the document says here, "Trump has
9 provided Parks with documentation from WeiserMazars, LLP,
10 certified public accountants, stating that Donald J. Trump, the 11 president of Trump, has a substantial net worth and cash
12 position as set forth in Exhibit V to the concession agreement.
13 There is also a personal guaranty from Donald J. Trump regarding 14 payment obligations and the completion of capital improvements.
15 Trump's offer includes setting aside three percent of gross
16 receipts towards a capital reserve fund in years 5 through 12
17 and two percent in years 13 through 15 of the term of the 18 concession agreement."
19 Mr. Cerron, can you explain your understanding of this 20 paragraph here and how it relates to the recommendation?
21 A So this part of the -- this part of recommendation is 22 kind of just verifying to the mayor's office that we believe
23 that this elected operator has the financial resources, the 24 wherewithal and organization to competently run this concession.
25 Q Could I ask you why did the city need to see, I guess,

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2800

1 a demonstration of assets of Donald J. Trump in order to grant
2 the concession to Trump Ferry Point, LLC?
3 A I mean, in terms of why they needed to see it, this was
4 part of the financial capability section. And as I had
5 mentioned, this was a course that the city wanted to open for 6 quite some time and we wanted to be sure as we would always that 7 the operator in place had the funds to deliver on their
8 obligations under the license.
9 Q I think -- let me rephrase my question. The 10 concessionaire here formally is Trump Ferry Point, LLC. The 11 paragraph here is referring to the net worth and cash position
12 of Donald J. Trump personally.
13 Do you understand why the recommendation for award here
14 is interested in Mr. Trump's personal financial position and not 15 that of the entity?
16 A Well, in his personal position, it relates to the 17 personal guaranty from Mr. Trump, which was to 18 I think -- again, very important and helpful in helping the 19 city feel comfortable that all of the obligations were indeed
20 going to be met.
21 Q The next two headers, I just like to briefly ask you
22 about. They are "business integrity" and "other sources of 23 responsibility information." Can you just to a high explain
24 what these categories refer to?
25 A This is -- this is a section where the agency will

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2801

1 look for adverse information. So are there outstanding tax
2 liens due to the state, due to the city? Are there outstanding
3 lawsuits going back to a certain period of time? Are there
4 other kind of like, you know, workplace violations or other
5 issues that are available on any databases that we would need to
6 identify and discuss before moving forward with an award.
7 Q So going back to the certification at the -- on page
8 two of this document, at the top of the recommendation, is 9 that -- are those two sections we just looked at responding to,
10 I guess, the discussion of business integrity to justify the 11 private use of city-owned property and is, therefore,
12 responsible. That's what's being --
13 A Yes.
14 Q -- analyzed there?
15 A Yes.
16 Q And so business integrity and responsibility of a
17 concessionaire are important to the city?
18 A Yes.
19 Q So was it important in recommending the award for Parks
20 & Recreation to receive truthful, accurate and complete
21 information from offerers?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Based on the submissions here, the offer that we just 24 looked at and the additional determinations described in the 25 recommendation for award, did the city and the Department of

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2802

1 Parks & Recreation believe that it was receiving truthful,
2 accurate and complete information from the offerers?
3 A Yes.
4 Q I'm going to hand you a very voluminous exhibit marked
5 Defendant's 981. Let me know if you recognize this document.
6 A This is the license agreement between Trump Ferry
7 Point, LLC and the City of New York.
8 MR. GABER: I'd ask that this be moved in evidence.
9 THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
10 MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection; statute of limitations.
11 THE COURT: You really don't have to do that every 12 time. It is a standing objection, if that phrase means
13 anything.
14 Go ahead, Mr. Kise.
15 MR. KISE: As to the testimony, the standing
16 objection, but the documents, we need to object one by one
17 like we've been doing throughout the trial.
18 THE COURT: Why is that? Don't the documents
19 always or almost always have the date of them?
20 MR. KISE: Again, I mean, we -- not to belabor it,
21 but our research has concluded that there's no standing
22 objection with respect to documents, but with respect to 23 testimony, yes, but with respect to document by document,
24 no.
25 THE COURT: Well, Cliff isn't here, so we can't

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2803

1 consult him, but I'll assume -- I'll let you do whatever
2 you need to do, okay.
3 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
4 Plaintiff's Exhibit 981.)
5 MR. GABER: I realize I may not have admitted
6 Plaintiff's 3291. I move to admit 3291, plaintiff's.
7 MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.
8 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
9 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
10 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3291.)
11 Q Can I just quickly -- I just want to direct your 12 attention to pages 103 and 104 of this document. Just to 13 confirm that this is a signed version of a license, so this
14 would be the final agreement between the city or Parks &
15 Recreation and Trump Ferry Point, LLC?
16 A Yes.
17 Q With respect to the trees that went into printing this
18 out, I'm going to move on to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3283. Let me
19 know if you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron.
20 A Yes. This is the personal guaranty made by Mr. Trump.
21 Q Is it your understanding that this personal guaranty
22 was a condition of the license that we just looked at?
23 A Yes.
24 Q If you look, Mr. Cerron, at page eight and nine of this 25 document, you'll see that it is signed by Donald J. Trump as

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2804

1 guarantor and then there is the signature of Ms. Smith, the
2 Assistant Commissioner of Revenue, correct?
3 A Correct.
4 Q So I'd like to draw your attention, Mr. Cerron, to page
5 three of this document; heading four there, "Financial
6 Covenants." Well, actually before that, can you just explain
7 your understanding of this guaranty, the personal guaranty here
8 as it relates to what we have been discussing, financial
9 capability and Ferry Point license.
10 A Just generally, that it is -- it's a guaranty to meet
11 the financial obligations of the license. So effectively, that 12 was the biggest part of the obligation was the clubhouse and the 13 concessionaire was obligated to design and construct clubhouse 14 for the golf course and that would also host catered events in 15 the amount minimum of $10 million.
16 Q So the city or Parks & Recreation asked for a guaranty
17 in order to ensure that the concessionaire would meet those 18 obligations?
19 A Correct.
20 Q And so under Section A here of heading four, it says,
21 "Until the guaranteed obligations are released or terminated,
22 within 120 days of the end of each calendar year, guarantor
23 shall be required to furnish Parks with a letter from 24 guarantor's accountant stating that there has been no material
25 adverse change in guarantor's net worth (such letter a "No MAC"

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2805

1 letter)."
2 Can you explain the purpose of these "No MAC" letters
3 on an ongoing basis?
4 A That it was an annual letter that was to be sent to the
5 city to just reaffirm that the initial financial statements that 6 were shared with the city during the award process were in
7 material respects the same.
8 Q And would you expect those letters to be true, complete
9 and accurate?
10 A Yes.
11 Q Would submission of false or fraudulent information in 12 those "No MAC" letters be a matter of concern to Parks?
13 A Yes.
14 Q Can you elaborate on that, what type of concern would
15 be raised?
16 A I think, you know, for -- I guess the first concern
17 would be our questioning of whether or not the financial 18 obligations under the license could continue to be met. And 19 then I think the second concern would be if this was not 20 accurate, are there other documents, other reports that were 21 provided to the city that were also not accurate.
22 Q As a general matter, does Parks & Recreation have 23 procedures or mechanisms in place for reporting suspected or 24 actual false or fraudulent submissions if you know about them?
25 A If we become aware of something that was reported

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2806

1 falsely, yes. Generally, that's a matter we would refer to our
2 counsel's office and then potentially to the city's department
3 of investigation.
4 Q So, Mr. Cerron, I'm just going to ask you before I let 5 you -- before I'm concluded to just take a look at a number of 6 documents and tell me if you recognize them. They're going to
7 look substantially similar. This is Plaintiff's 3282. It is a
8 letter from WeiserMazars dated December 21, 2011. Just let me
9 know if you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron.
10 this is -- this is an e-mail and then starting on page two is 11 the letter. I'm sorry. It is an e-mail with an attached
12 letter.
13 A This is one of the "No MAC" letters that were 14 referenced in the personal guaranty that you just had up.
15 Q Okay.
16 MR. GABER: I'd ask that this be moved into
17 evidence.
18 MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations
19 and foundation.
20 THE COURT: Overruled on statute of limitations.
21 What's the foundation?
22 MR. GABER: The foundation is -- I can ask a
23 question just to --
24 THE COURT: Sure.
25 Q Mr. Cerron, is it your understanding that this letter,

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2807

1 which I believe you yourself said is the "No MAC" letter, was
2 submitted to the city?
3 A Yes.
4 MR. GABER: I move to admit it.
5 MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection, Your Honor. He
6 testified he doesn't recognize the first page of the 7 exhibit, only the second page.
8 MR. GABER: It was produced as a family with the 9 cover e-mail that's an internal Trump Org document. I'm 10 happy to admit only as to the letter at this time just to 11 obviate.
12 THE COURT: Okay. Then that's what we will do.
13 Just submit it as to the letter.
14 MR. GABER: Although, I will note that the e-mail
15 is from Mr. McConney and so to the extent that it's a party
16 admission, perhaps we just seek to have it admitted for all
17 purposes at this point and Mr. Cerron is only testifying as 18 to his knowledge.
19 THE COURT: It is admitted all pages for all
20 purposes.
21 MR. GABER: Once again, I think I need to admit
22 3283 the previous exhibit as well into evidence.
23 THE COURT: Sorry. Say it again.
24 MR. GABER: 3283, I may not have moved that in 25 formally. It is the previous.

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2808

1 THE COURT: All in for all evidence for all
2 purposes.
3 (Whereupon, the Documents were marked in evidence
4 as Plaintiff's Exhibits 3282 & 3283.)
5 MS. HERNANDEZ: Just note our objection. Statute
6 of limitations.
7 THE COURT: Overruled.
8 Q Mr. Cerron, first paragraph here, the last sentence
9 refers to -- well, let me start with the whole first paragraph.
10 "We are the accountants for Mr. Donald J. Trump and have
11 previously compiled his Statement of Financial Condition as of
12 June 30, 2011 as indicated in our accountant's compilation
13 report dated October 6, 2011. This compiled financial statement
14 showed a net worth in excess of $4 billion and cash and 15 marketable securities in excess of $250 million."
16 So Mr. Cerron, would the city expect that 17 representation to be true, complete and accurate?
18 A Yes.
19 MR. GABER: I would now move on to Plaintiff's
20 Exhibit 3286 for identification.
21 Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Can you tell me what it is?
24 A This was -- this was a proposal from the 25 concessionaire at the time to extend, if memory serves, the 18th

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2809

1 hole and perhaps the 17th hole into what is now a passive
2 waterfront park that is approximately 19.5 acres.
3 Q And this was sent to the Department of Parks &
4 Recreation?
5 A Yes.
6 Q I direct your attention to page seven of this document.
7 Section F there, "financial capability." "We have enclosed as
8 attachment F a statement from the certified public accounting
9 firm of Weiser, LLP indicating a net worth in excess of 10 approximately $5 billion and cash on hand in excess of 11 $330 million. As such, we will easily be able to meet any and 12 all financial obligations under this extension proposal" and 13 then it is signed at the bottom there, "Donald J. Trump."
14 MR. GABER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence.
15 MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection, Your Honor; relevance,
16 statute of limitations and beyond the proffer that we
17 received for this witness.
18 THE COURT: Would you have done anything
19 differently if you had received their proffer in the sense
20 that it is now being offered?
21 MS. HERNANDEZ: Yes, Your Honor. We had a
22 deposition on Monday, last Monday of this witness. We would 23 have asked more questions. That was the intention of the 24 proffer.
25 MR. GABER: How is this beyond the proffer? I

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER) Page 2810

1 believe that we had a pretty broad proffer related to the
2 "No MAC" letters and the maintenance and administration of 3 the --
4 MS. HERNANDEZ: This was a proposal for extension,
5 so it doesn't relate to the maintenance of the Ferry Point
6 property.
7 MR. GABER: But it does contain a letter from
8 Mazars and it reflects the -- contains a letter from Mazars
9 which reflects the financial capability of the guarantor.
10 MS. HERNANDEZ: The proffer doesn't specifically
11 mention the WeiserMazars letters. It is a little bit
12 different. I don't know how much of this we want to get
13 into in front of the witness, but this is beyond the scope
14 of the proffer we received.
15 THE COURT: Was it beyond the scope of the proffer?
16 MR. GABER: We don't believe so.
17 THE COURT: I don't think so either. Overruled on 18 all three grounds. So it is in for -- the document is in 19 for all purposes. Signed by -- apparently signed by Donald
20 J. Trump.
21 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
22 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3286.)
23 Q So I would just like to have you look at page 21 of the 24 document now, Mr. Cerron. This is a letter from WeiserMazars, 25 LLP dated October 29, 2013. It is addressed to Ms. Smith, the

Page 2811

1 assistant commissioner of revenue again. It says, "Dear, Ms.
2 Smith. We are the accountants for Mr. Donald J. Trump and have
3 previously compiled his Statement of Financial Condition as of
4 June 30, 2013. As indicated in our accountants' compilation
5 report dated October 28, 2013, this compiled financial statement
6 showed a net worth in excess of $4,900,000,000 and cash and
7 marketable securities in excess of $330 million."
8 Mr. Cerron, would the city expect this to be true,
9 complete and accurate representation?
10 A Yes.

1 Q I'd like to now hand the witness Plaintiff's
2 Exhibit 3284 for identification. Again, this was produced as a
3 family with a cover e-mail, but I'm only going to be asking the 4 witness about page three of three here.
5 Do you recognize this letter dated March 28, 2016 from 6 WeizerMazars LLP, Mr. Cerron?
7 A Yes.
8 Q What do you recognize this to be?
9 A A No Mac letter.
10 Q For what year?
11 A For the year ending December 31, 2015.
12 Q Okay. Thank you.
13 So this letter states in the second paragraph:
14 "While we have not reviewed computations of value since 15 the aforementioned June 30, 2015 financial statement, based on 16 discussions with Mr. Trump and his advisors, we are not aware of 17 any matters that would indicate a significant change in 18 Mr. Trump's net worth as of this date or as of December 31,
19 2015."
20 Mr. Cerron, the city expects this to be true, complete
21 and accurate as to the representations in this letter?
22 A Yes.
23 THE COURT: I'll ask the witness to speak a little 24 louder and closer to the microphone, directly in.
25 THE WITNESS: Sorry. Yes.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2813

1 THE COURT: Much better.
2 MR. GABER: Does it to every witness.
3 THE COURT: And usually much earlier, right?
4 MR. GABER: And I'd like to move this into
5 evidence, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3284.
6 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
7 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
8 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3284 in
9 evidence.)
10 MS. HERNANDEZ: Sorry. Objection also they're only
11 showing the third page of a three-page exhibit. The first 12 two pages he does not have knowledge of and there is no
13 foundation to admit those.
14 MR. GABER: I said I'm only showing him the third
15 page and that there is an e-mail there that at this point
16 I'm only admitting it as to the --
17 THE COURT: The third page. Okay. So it's only as 18 to the third page.
19 Q So Mr. Cerron, I'm going to hand you Plaintiff's
20 Exhibit 3285, and again, this was produced as a family, so I'm 21 only going to be making reference to page two of two of this
22 document at this time.
23 Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?
24 A Yes. This is a No Mac.
25 Q I don't think we -- so Mr. Cerron, do you know what

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2814 1 year this No Mac letter is for? 2 A Just a moment. I believe this is for June 30, 2016. 3 Q The 2016 calendar year? 4 A Or I believe if they have a financial year that ends 5 June 30th. 6 MR. GABER: Okay. So the second paragraph here, 7 I'd ask that this letter, page two, be moved into evidence. 8 THE COURT: You ask that it be admitted into 9 evidence? Granted. It's in evidence. 10 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 11 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3285 in 12 evidence.) 13 Q This paragraph, second paragraph here, says, "While we 14 have not reviewed computations of value since the aforementioned 15 June 30, 2016 financial statement, based on discussions with the 16 trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust dated April 7, 17 2014, as amended, and their advisors, we are not aware of any 18 matters that would indicate a significant change in Mr. Trump's 19 net worth as of this date." 20 Mr. Cerron, would the Department of Parks and 21 Recreation expect this representation to be true, complete and 22 accurate? 23 A Yes. 24 Q I'm now going to hand you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3280 for 25 identification. Again, this was produced with a transmittal	D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2816 1 Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron? 2 A Yes. This is a No Mac letter for the year ending 3 June 30, 2020. 4 MR. GABER: I'd ask that this be admitted into 5 evidence. 6 THE COURT: Granted. It's in. Can't object on 7 statute of limitations grounds. 8 MS. HERNANDEZ: No objection. 9 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 10 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3281 in 11 evidence.) 12 Q So here, this is substantially similar to what we've 13 read. I'll note that the last sentence of the last paragraph 14 says that this compiled financial statement showed a net worth 15 in excess of $3 billion in cash and cash equivalents in excess 16 of $90 million. 17 Mr. Cerron, would the Department of Parks and 18 Recreation expect the representations in this letter to be true, 19 complete and accurate? 20 A Yes. 21 MR. GABER: I believe I have no further questions 22 for the witness. Is this in evidence? 23 THE COURT: It's in. 24 Will there be any cross examination? 25 MS. HERNANDEZ: Yes, Your Honor.
D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2815 1 e-mail, so I'm only going to ask you to look at page two of two. 2 Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron? 3 A Yes. This is a No Mac letter for the year ending 4 June 30, 2017. 5 Q This contains similar language in the second full 6 paragraph as to the last letter I read. 7 MR. GABER: The -- first, I'd ask this be moved 8 into evidence -- admitted into evidence. 9 THE COURT: Quick learner. Yes, granted. It's in 10 evidence over an objection. 11 MS. HERNANDEZ: Just the second page? 12 THE COURT: Yes, just the second page. 13 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 14 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3280 in 15 evidence.) 16 Q And so this is -- I believe this is the same language 17 as in the previous letter we read; is that correct? Same or 18 substantially the same? 19 A It seems so, yes. 20 Q And would the City and/or Department of Parks and 21 Recreation expect this representation to be true, complete and 22 accurate? 23 A Yes. 24 Q I'd like to hand the witness Plaintiff's Exhibit 3281 25 for identification.	D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2817 1 THE COURT: I look forward to it. 2 You know, before you start I have a few quick 3 questions. I won't disturb your situation. 4 You described the property before it became a golf 5 course as landfill; correct? 6 THE WITNESS: Correct. 7 THE COURT: And can you in one or two sentences 8 describe what material was there? What was the fill? 9 THE WITNESS: Municipal waste, people's garbage. 10 THE COURT: Yes. It was what we would call a 11 garbage dump as I remember it from many, many years ago, 12 which might have made turning it into a golf course 13 difficult if it was just grass or sod or something. 14 Anyway, okay. Cross examination. Let's begin. 15 MS. HERNANDEZ: Your Honor, for the record, my name 16 is Jennifer Hernandez on behalf of the various corporate 17 defendants, our first time officially meeting. 18 THE COURT: Welcome to Room 300. 19 MS. HERNANDEZ: Thank you. 20 CROSS EXAMINATION 21 BY MS. HERNANDEZ: 22 Q So Mr. Cerron, you were not involved in the award 23 process to Trump Ferry Point LLC for the Ferry Point property? 24 A Correct. 25 Q And you only later became involved in the

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2818 1 administration of the license when the license was entered into 2 between Trump Ferry Point LLC and the city? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And you are aware that the award to Trump Ferry Point 5 was made pursuant to a request for offers process; correct? 6 A Correct. 7 Q And that is different from the request for proposal or 8 request for bid process; correct? 9 A Correct. 10 Q And in your experience with Parks this is the only time 11 you are aware of a request for offers being utilized in the 12 concessions division for an award process; correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And so we're going to now pull up PX 3290, which has 15 already been admitted into evidence. And can you go to the next 16 page? 17 And this is the request for offers that you took a look 18 at earlier today; correct, Mr. Cerron? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And if we could go to page seven? And right there in 21 the middle of the page, you see that it says "Selection 22 Committee will evaluate the resulting concession offers and will 23 select or award the entity that proposes the best overall terms 24 and conditions based on the following criteria." Do you see 25 that?	D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2820 1 in accordance with this criteria; correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q Thank you. 4 MS. HERNANDEZ: And so we're going to now move to 5 PX 3291, which I think it's already been admitted. And so 6 we could go -- could you go to the next page, Nate? 7 Q And so this is the recommendation -- this is the 8 recommendation for -- award for the Trump Ferry Point -- for 9 Trump Ferry Point LLC; correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And if we can go to the bottom of this page, this is a 12 the technical qualification section; correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And as we saw in the request for offers, the operating 15 experience of the offer was 30 percent of the selection 16 criteria; correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q And this technical qualification section generally 19 explains why the agency moved forward with an operator; correct? 20 A This is part of why the agency moved forward with the 21 operator, correct. 22 Q And that is the experience of the operator in running 23 high-end golf courses; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q And here, the operator, just to be clear, is Trump
D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2819 1 A Yes. 2 Q And this selection criteria, similar criterias used in 3 a request for proposal process; correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q And the bulk of the criteria here, 60 percent of it was 6 based on the planned operations and operating experience; 7 correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And then 15 percent was for the investment and design 10 submitted? 11 A Correct. 12 Q 15 percent was for the compensation to the city? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And then ten percent was for the financial capability 15 of the offer; correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And that is the lowest percentage of the selection 18 criteria; correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q It had the highest importance to the Selection 21 Committee; correct? Sorry. Excuse me. The lowest importance 22 to the Selection Committee; correct? 23 A This was weighted the lowest. 24 Q And from your experience with the selection criteria in 25 the request for proposal context the Selection Committee scores	D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2821 1 Ferry Point LLC; correct? 2 A Yes. 3 MS. HERNANDEZ: And so if we could move to the next 4 page right where it says "financial resources." 5 Q And the financial resources section here is meant to 6 provide as much assurance to Parks as possible that the operator 7 is able to meet the financial commitments under the license; 8 correct? 9 A Correct. 10 Q And for this section I believe you testified there is 11 no one-size-fits-all requirement for the type of financial 12 information required? 13 A Correct. 14 Q Concessionaire to provide a tax return, a bank 15 statement or other documentation to provide financial 16 information to Parks; correct? 17 A Correct, the committee that is reviewing these 18 documents collectively has to decide that they're comfortable 19 with what's been submitted. 20 Q And you were not involved in that committee; correct? 21 A Correct. 22 Q And so if we could move -- well -- and parties after 23 this recommendation entered into a license agreement; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 MS. HERNANDEZ: And so if we could move to D 981,

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2822 1 which is already in evidence. 2 Q And this is the license agreement between Trump Ferry 3 Point LLC and the City of New York Department of Parks and 4 Recreation; correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q And it's for the operation management and maintenance 7 of an "18 hole Jack Nicklaus signature golf course, lighted 8 driving range and ancillary facilities and the design 9 construction operation management and maintenance of a permanent 10 clubhouse at Ferry Point Park;" correct? 11 A Correct. 12 Q And we're going to go to page 52 of the License 13 Agreement. 52, sorry, right. Thank you. 14 This is the capital improvements portion of the License 15 Agreement; correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And here it says: "Licensee shall during the term at 18 its sole cost and expense perform and complete all costs to be 19 performed and completed the capital improvements described 20 conceptually on the schedule capital improvements annexed to" -- 21 "annexed hereto as Exhibit F." 22 And if we move forward a little bit, "licensee shall 23 spend or cause to be expended capital improvements costs of at 24 least ten million dollars;" correct? 25 A Yes.	D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2824 1 A Correct. 2 Q And so this is -- 3 MS. HERNANDEZ: Can we go to the next page, Nate? 4 Q This is a Guaranty Agreement between Donald J. Trump 5 and the city; correct? 6 A Correct. 7 Q And at the end of the page, it says "guaranteed 8 obligations;" correct? 9 A Are you referring to -- 10 Q B? 11 A Correct. 12 Q And so B is guaranteed obligations. Are the 13 obligations under the License Agreement that Donald J. Trump 14 guaranteed; correct? 15 A Can you repeat that, please? 16 Q These guaranteed obligations are the obligations that 17 Donald J. Trump guaranteed under the License Agreement; correct? 18 A Correct. 19 Q And so if it's not under this list, under V, he didn't 20 guarantee it; correct? 21 A I believe so. I'd have to take a look at the whole 22 document, but I believe so, yes. 23 Q We're going to run through some of it now. 24 So here in romanette i, President Trump guaranteed the 25 payments of all due and unpaid license fees to the city;
D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2823 1 Q And so under this section the licensee is Trump Ferry 2 Point LLC; correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And the most relevant element of the required capital 5 improvement was the clubhouse; correct? 6 A Correct. 7 Q And so Trump Ferry Point LLC agreed to spend at least 8 $10 million to construct the clubhouse and any other capital 9 improvements; correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And did Trump Ferry Point spend at least $10 million on 12 those capital improvements? 13 A Yes. 14 Q In fact, Trump Ferry Point LLC spent more than 15 $10 million on the capital improvements; correct? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And so we're going to go to page 319 of this exhibit 18 now and so this is Exhibit 5, the Guaranty Agreement; correct? 19 MR. GABER: Objection. I believe it's Exhibit V 20 just for clarity of the record. 21 MS. HERNANDEZ: Sorry? 22 MR. GABER: I believe it's not Roman V. I believe 23 it's Exhibit V. 24 MS. HERNANDEZ: So that's news to me. 25 Q So Exhibit V is the Guaranty Agreement?	D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2825 1 correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q And those yearly license fees were usually in the 4 neighborhood of approximately $300,000 a year; correct? 5 A That's correct with the caveat that the first -- if 6 memory serves, the first five years there were no license fees 7 due. 8 Q Understood. And were there any unpaid license fees for 9 Trump Ferry Point LLC? 10 A No, there were not. 11 Q So the guaranty was never invoked for payment of any 12 license fees; correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And so we're going to move down to romanette ii now and 15 so under Section 2, President Trump guaranteed any unpaid 16 deposits to the capital reserve fund less any credit Trump Ferry 17 Point was entitled to; correct? 18 A Correct. 19 Q And were there ever any unpaid deposits under the 20 license agreement? 21 A No, there were not. Again, just with the caveat as we 22 had discussed during the deposition that there was a credit 23 related to -- 24 Q Correct, which we're going to get to. Thank you. 25 So the guarantee was never invoked under this section;

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2826

1 correct?
2 A Correct.
3 Q And Section 3, romanette iii, President Trump
4 guaranteed the payment of a one-time design review fee; correct?
5 A Correct.
6 Q And was the design review fee paid?
7 A Yes.
8 Q So the guarantee was never invoked for payment of the 9 design review fee; correct?
10 A Correct.
11 Q And moving to --
12 MS. HERNANDEZ: We're going to put them up
13 together, Nate, Section 4 and 5.
14 Q And under Section 4 and 5, President Trump guaranteed
15 any unpaid portion of insurance premiums and deductible under 16 either the license agreement or the development agreement;
17 correct?
18 A Correct.
19 Q And was the guarantee ever invoked to pay any unpaid
20 insurance premiums or deductibles?
21 A No.
22 Q And then under Section 6, President Trump guaranteed
23 any unpaid grow-in costs beyond the cap of $750,000; correct?
24 A Correct.
25 Q And grow-in costs relates to the costs the

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2827

1 concessionaire takes over for the city to grow and preserve the
2 grass on the golf course?
3 A Correct. This was before the course opened.
4 Q Right. And these grow-in costs were capped at $750,000
5 under the contract from the city and Trump Ferry Point LLC;
6 correct?
7 A Correct.
8 Q And anything over the $750,000 cap was reimbursed to 9 Trump Ferry Point LLC through a credit that would apply to 10 license fees in future years; correct?
11 A Correct.
12 Q And the city performed an informal review to determine
13 the grow-in costs Trump Ferry Point LLC incurred; correct?
14 A Correct.
15 Q Do you recall what year that was done?
16 A To the best of my memory it would have been 17 approximately 2015 or 2016. Sorry, sorry. It couldn't have 18 been -- probably 2016 or 2017 because the course opened in 2015
19 and up until that point the costs would have still been 20 accumulated.
21 Q Got it. And so the informal review that the city
22 performed was to see how much Trump Ferry Point LLC expended
23 beyond the cap; correct?
24 A Correct.
25 Q And the review showed that Trump Ferry Point LLC

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2828

1 expended approximately 5 to $7 million more than the $750,000
2 grow-in cap; correct?
3 A Correct.
4 Q And as a result, Trump Ferry Point LLC received a 5 to 5 $7 million credit to any license fees; correct?
6 A Correct.
7 Q And --
8 MR. GABER: I'm just going to briefly object. This
9 is beyond the scope of direct it feels like at this point,
10 so I just want to launch that objection.
11 MS. HERNANDEZ: It goes to exactly what was 12 guaranteed, Your Honor, and the scope of their agreement and 13 -- with Trump Ferry Point LLC.
14 THE COURT: Well, I don't think it matters much.
15 They could always call him as their witness, so as a
16 practical matter, overruled.
17 MS. HERNANDEZ: And we're trying not to call
18 Mr. Cerron again.
19 MR. GABER: Under that representation, I will
20 reserve any further scope objections.
21 Q So the 5 to $7 million credit, did it cover all of the 22 license fees due under the agreements?
23 A I'm sorry. I don't believe I fully understand the
24 question.
25 Q The 5 to $7 million credit we just discussed did it

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2829

1 cover all of the license fees that were due under the agreement?
2 A It covered all the license fees that were due under the
3 agreement up until the point that the license was assigned.
4 Q Correct. So Trump Ferry Point LLC never had to pay any
5 license fees under the agreement; correct?
6 A Correct.
7 Q And so moving back to the guarantee, there was no
8 unpaid grow-in costs beyond the cap for President Trump to pay;
9 correct?
10 A There were no fees that were due to the city from this
11 license.
12 Q And so President Trump's guaranty was never invoked for 13 -- under this section; correct?
14 A Correct.
15 THE COURT: Try not to comment on the answer like
16 "right."
17 MS. HERNANDEZ: Sorry, Your Honor. Understood.
18 Q So moving to Section 7, President Trump guaranteed
19 payment of any due and unpaid late charges; correct?
20 A Correct.
21 Q And were there ever any due or unpaid late charges
22 imposed on Trump Ferry Point LLC?
23 A Not that I recall.
24 Q Okay. And then moving to Section 8, President Trump
25 guaranteed any other due and unpaid financial obligations under

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2830

1 the license agreement or development agreement, which -- and
2 you'll see there at the end "at no time shall exceed $150,000 in 3 the aggregate;" correct?
4 A Correct.
5 Q And were there ever any due and unpaid obligations
6 under these agreements?
7 A No.
8 Q And then finally on Section 9, President Trump
9 guaranteed the completion of the required capital improvements;
10 correct?
11 A Correct.
12 Q And as we discussed, the required capital improvements
13 were completed in accordance with the contract; correct?
14 A Correct.
15 Q And so the guaranty was never invoked under this 16 section; correct?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And President Trump's guaranty was never invoked under 19 these agreements; correct?
20 A Correct.
21 Q Because Trump Ferry Point LLC met all of their
22 financial obligations under the contracts; correct?
23 A There was not a need to invoke the personal guaranty.
24 Q Because Trump Ferry Point LLC met all their --
25 A They were met.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2831

1 THE COURT: If you asked that question 20 minutes
2 ago, we could have saved a lot of time. I understand you
3 had a need to go through it all, so.
4 Q So moving to page three of the guaranty -- or I think
5 we are on page three.
6 Under Section 4 where it says "financial covenants."
7 MS. HERNANDEZ: If you could blow that up, Nate.
8 Q So under the guaranty, President Trump was prior
9 required to furnish a letter from his accountant saying there
10 has been no material adverse change in his net worth; correct?
11 A Correct.
12 Q And those are referred to as No MAC letters; correct?
13 A Correct.
14 Q And there is no requirement that President Trump submit
15 his statements of financial condition to Parks; correct?
16 A I'm sorry. I'm missing that here.
17 Q I'm asking whether there is any requirement that 18 President Trump submit his Statement of Financial Condition to 19 Parks under the guaranty.
20 A I'm not recalling a provision in the license that 21 required it.
22 Q And you've never reviewed President Trump's Statement
23 of Financial Condition in connection with the Ferry Point
24 agreements; correct?
25 A I have not.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2832

1 Q And moving --
2 MS. HERNANDEZ: Could we pull B up between page
3 three and four?
4 THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
5 MS. HERNANDEZ: Thank you, Your Honor.
6 Q "And under the guaranty, in the event that guarantor
7 does not finish" -- "furnish," excuse me, No MAC letter as 8 required here, Parks' sole remedy is to increase the security
9 deposit;" correct?
10 A Correct.
11 Q And the security deposit can -- "in no event" --
12 looking to the last section, "in no event shall guarantor be 13 required to pay any additional security deposit after the 14 security deposit has been increased to $470,000 pursuant to this 15 Section B regardless of any additional guarantor MAC failures;
16 correct?
17 A Correct.
18 Q So the sole remedy for failure is to submit the No MAC
19 letter with an increase of the security deposit to a maximum of
20 $470,000; correct?
21 A Correct.
22 MS. HERNANDEZ: Your Honor, I think that's a good
23 point to stop.
24 THE COURT: But you have more after lunch?
25 MS. HERNANDEZ: Yes, unfortunately.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2833

1 THE COURT: Okay. Any progress or responses on the
2 question about Ivanka Trump's testimony on Friday's
3 schedule?
4 MR. KISE: We're waiting to hear back, Your Honor.
5 Hopefully by the lunch hour. We've been in contact with 6 her. We're working out -- as I mentioned to Mr. Wallace,
7 we're working on a solution.
8 THE COURT: Great. The witness is excused. I'll 9 direct him not to discuss the case, his testimony or 10 anything related until he's fully excused, so no talk.
11 We'll see everybody at 2:15.

 3 THE OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
 4 session. The Honorable Arthur Engoron presiding. Now,
 5 please be seated and come to order.
 6 THE COURT: Let's hear from the defense about
 7 Friday's schedule.
 8 MR. KISE: About what?
 9 THE COURT: Friday's schedule.
 10 MR. KISE: Oh, Friday's schedule. I think we 11 reached an agreement on the 8th, doing Ms. Trump's testimony
 12 on the 8th. She's going to move her trip around. That way
 13 if we start, we can finish that day and if we don't -- and 14 if we don't finish that day, we will have the night to 15 rollover.
 16 THE COURT: Okay.
 17 MR. KISE: I think at least with Mr. Wallace -- I
 18 haven't spoken --
 19 MR. AMER: That's fine with us, but I thought the 20 Court was inquiring whether the 3rd was possible if we did a
 21 full day rather than a half day.
 22 THE COURT: That was the original idea.
 23 MR. KISE: Well, for the logistical reasons and 24 otherwise I pointed out at least from my end, our end, the 25 3rd represents a challenge so -- and I don't know that

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2835

1 we'll get to her. I know we all have these lofty plans when
 2 we start early in the week to get through witnesses, but I'm
 3 not entirely sure we'll get through the expert, Don, Jr. and
 4 Eric by Friday in any event.
 5 MS. HABBA: I just talked to them about the
 6 schedule. We were just going back and forth. I don't know
 7 about the 3rd. I'm not Bennet Moskowitz. That's her
 8 attorney. But I know the way the schedule would work now,
 9 we have Don Wednesday, Eric Trump --
 10 THE COURT: Thursday.
 11 MS. HABBA: -- Thursday. I think they're 12 representing Eric might be longer than Don. If we have 13 Donald Trump on Monday, then at least there's a day off and 14 a clean break that we have. Ivanka goes into the next day.
 15 She is here and can do two full days and then they rest.
 16 THE COURT: Do we know who's going to cross-examine 17 Ivanka?
 18 MS. HABBA: I don't.
 19 MR. KISE: I don't know that's been decided that we 20 will, but I'm sure -- without Mr. Robert here, I don't want
 21 to say anything at all about that decision because I haven't
 22 spoken to him about that.
 23 THE COURT: Mr. --
 24 MR. AMER: I wanted to mention one thing, so we are 25 clear. My understanding is Eric Trump will testify when

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2836

1 Donald Trump Jr. is finished. Now, that may be Thursday,
 2 but it may also be Wednesday afternoon. I think we don't
 3 want to have dead time --
 4 THE COURT: Dead time.
 5 MR. KISE: That seems awfully optimistic. I know
 6 they've been eternally optimistic. We never have met those 7 expectations.
 8 MR. AMER: I'm putting the marker down because I
 9 don't want to hear that we weren't on notice that he could 10 go as early as Wednesday afternoon. I don't know --
 11 MR. KISE: Oh, that. I don't think that's an 12 issue.
 13 THE COURT: Well --
 14 MR. KISE: Without Mr. Robert being here, I can't 15 represent anything, but I don't -- I don't know. I don't 16 anticipate that's going to be that big of an issue.
 17 THE COURT: Well, will Eric be here on Wednesday?
 18 MR. KISE: As far as I know, he will. But again,
 19 I'm not representing anything without Mr. Robert here.
 20 MR. AMER: Mr. Farina is here. We have somebody
 21 who is representing Eric Trump here. I just -- I mean, my 22 understanding is that we start Donald Trump, Jr. Wednesday
 23 morning. I don't think we have a full day with him. I
 24 think he could be shorter than a full day, so I think in 25 order to not waste time, Eric Trump should be available to

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2837

1 start whenever we finish Donald Trump, Jr.
 2 MR. KISE: Well, we'll have an answer for you by
 3 tonight or tomorrow morning, well in advance of Wednesday.
 4 I just don't want to give you an answer that I can't give
 5 you only to have to retreat from.
 6 THE COURT: I think we are all okay with Ivanka on 7 the 8th, Wednesday. What will we do Friday? What can we
 8 accomplish?
 9 MR. KISE: My questions is we're going to be -- it
 10 is an educated guess after what we've been through that we 11 will need Friday to finish the witnesses that are already on 12 deck. I'm pretty sure. Nothing ever goes according to 13 plan.
 14 THE COURT: S-N-A-F-U I think they call that.
 15 MR. AMER: I don't disagree. We don't have any 16 witness between Eric Trump and Donald Trump. So whenever we 17 finish Eric Trump, I think we're not going to have anything
 18 else to put on until Donald Trump goes the following Monday,
 19 which is the only day he's available as I understand it.
 20 THE COURT: So we'll leave Friday as a big question
 21 mark and we will all agree Ivanka Wednesday, the 8th and 22 possibly Thursday?
 23 MR. KISE: Yes, Your Honor, that's fine.
 24 THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the witness back.
 25 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2838

1 THE COURT: I will remind the witness, as I always
2 do, that he's still under oath. Let's continue with the
3 cross-examination.
4 Q Mr. Cerron, have you spoken to the Attorney General
5 since your deposition on Monday October 23rd?
6 THE COURT: Or anybody from her office.
7 Q Or anybody from her office?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Who did you speak to from the Attorney General's
10 office?
11 A Mr. Gaber.
12 Q When did you speak to Mr. Gaber?
13 A Approximately -- last week if I'm not mistaken, on 14 Thursday.
15 Q How long was that conversation?
16 A Approximately 45 minutes.
17 Q And what did you speak to with Mr. Gaber -- speak about 18 with Mr. Gaber?
19 A Regarding testimony today.
20 Q What specifically --
21 THE COURT: I'm not sure the microphone --
22 MS. HERNANDEZ: I don't know if it is working now.
23 THE COURT: Now it --
24 MS. HERNANDEZ: Is that better?
25 THE COURT: Yes.

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2839

1 Q So what did you speak to about Mr. Gaber more
2 specifically about your testimony?
3 A Predominantly, it was a review of many of the documents
4 that we've seen here today and kind of generally on questions
5 that I may be asked --
6 Q So he --
7 A -- by him.
8 Q So he walked you through the direct examination that
9 you all did earlier today, correct?
10 A We went through some of those documents, yes. I mean,
11 not exactly, but yes.
12 Q Was there anyone else there other than Mr. Gaber?
13 A I believe there was another gentleman, but I don't
14 remember his name.
15 Q And is that the only instance that you spoke to anyone
16 from the Attorney General's office since your deposition?
17 A Yes.
18 Q You testified --
19 A Just if I could correct.
20 Q Go ahead.
21 A We did text this morning just to let them know that I
22 was here, procedural stuff, nothing of materiality.
23 Q Got it. So you testified on direct examination that
24 Ferry Point was a tough one to accomplish, correct?
25 A Correct.

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2840

1 Q But Trump Ferry Point, LLC did accomplish the goals of
2 the contract, correct?
3 A In which respect?
4 Q The clubhouse was built, correct?
5 A The clubhouse was built, correct.
6 Q The golf course was maintained, correct?
7 A And the golf course was maintained, correct.
8 Q And the grass was grown in correctly, correct?
9 A The grass was grown in correctly, that's correct.
10 Q Mr. Trump put more money in the property than was 11 required under the contract, correct?
12 A To the best of my recollection, the capital commitment
13 exceeded the obligated amount, that's right.
14 Q And Trump Ferry Point, LLC met all of their 15 obligations, all of its obligations under the contract, correct?
16 A With regard to the items that we discussed. I don't
17 want to give a blanket, correct, to a pretty sizable document,
18 but with regard to the capital, with regard to the grow-in, with 19 regard to the clubhouse, those were all obligations that were 20 met, yes.
21 Q Are you aware of any obligation that was not met by 22 Trump Ferry Point, LLC as you sit here today?
23 A There's not a firm capital obligation that comes to 24 mind that was not met.
25 THE COURT: Can you just hit your microphone again.

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2841

1 We'll call the tech guy.
2 MS. HERNANDEZ: It says it is on. It's in and out.
3 THE COURT: Some drunk who's losing consciousness
4 is becoming conscious.
5 MS. HERNANDEZ: I'll try to project either way.
6 Q We are going to pull up PX 1331 which is already in
7 evidence. This is Trump's response to request for offers,
8 correct?
9 A Correct.
10 Q And you testified on direct examination that you
11 believe this letter was relied on by -- sorry. Go to page
12 seven before I ask this question.
13 You testified on direct examination that you believe
14 this letter was relied on by Parks, correct?
15 A Correct.
16 Q But you weren't involved in the award process, correct?
17 A Correct.
18 Q And so you don't know for certain what was relied on by 19 Parks during the award process, correct?
20 A I was -- I was not on -- I was not on the selection
21 committee, so to the extent that that is the definitive marker
22 of whether I know something or I don't and how they made that 23 determination, you know, I would agree, but I think when we're 24 talking about this process that -- of awarding concessions that 25 I've been involved in for over a decade and I look at the

1 requests for recommendation for award, and it cites the content
2 of this letter. In knowing that process, I do believe that this
3 was part of that determination for, you know -- to help them
4 feel comfortable with financial capability.

5 MS. HERNANDEZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move to 6 strike that answer as non-responsive. It was a yes or no
7 whether he is aware for certain what was relied on in the 8 award.

9 THE COURT: Well, off the record.
10 (Whereupon, a discussion was held off the record.)

11 THE COURT: I'll ask for a readback and I believe 12 that counselor is correct that part of the answer was 13 non-responsive.

14 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
15 read back.)

16 THE COURT: Can you answer that yes or no?
17 A Correct.

18 MS. HERNANDEZ: So we are going to now pull up PX
19 3258 which is already in evidence.

20 THE COURT: And the earlier answer is stricken
21 because some of it was non-responsive.

22 MR. GABER: I believe Mr. Cerron on direct
23 testified as to the basis for his understanding as to what 24 was and wasn't relied on.

25 THE COURT: He did, but --

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2843

1 MR. GABER: He laid a foundation that I think
2 allows this to be considered responsive.

3 THE COURT: You can re-direct him if you want.

4 Q So can we go to page two. So this was admitted. Page
5 two of this document was admitted earlier today and I want to
6 point your attention to the third paragraph there. "This letter
7 should be read in conjunction with Mr. Trump's above-referenced
8 Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2016." Do you
9 see that?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And are you aware of any instance where the city
12 requested a Statement of Financial Condition from President
13 Trump in connection with the maintenance of the Ferry Point
14 contract?

15 A Can you repeat that question, please.

16 Q Sure. Are you aware of any instance where the city
17 requested a Statement of Financial Condition from President
18 Trump in connection with the maintenance of the Ferry Point
19 contract?

20 A So this is not a yes or a no. It's the last part of 21 that question is a little bit confusing, so I'm sorry if I'm not 22 able to answer this on the first -- on the first try. But with 23 connection with the maintenance of the course, there
24 was -- there's an annual income statement that's submitted by 25 the concessionaire at the end of each -- at the end of each

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2844

1 operating year, which we would review. And that would have
2 information on the costs related to the maintenance of the golf
3 course and it would also have the revenues that would either
4 support that cost or which would not and they might be at a loss
5 or gain depending on how things shook out, but we would not have
6 requested it -- we did not request, you know, certified
7 financial statements, but it would not have been related to 8 maintenance because the maintenance is something we would have
9 seen in the financial statements that they would have sent us
10 purely related just to the course, not to any other business
11 dealings.

12 Q What you're describing is financial statements from 13 Trump Ferry Point, LLC, correct?

14 A Correct.

15 Q So did you ever receive President Trump's Statement of 16 Financial Condition during the maintenance?

17 A No. During the term of the license or related to 18 maintenance, no.

19 Q And did anyone from Parks ever request the Statement of 20 Financial Condition?

21 A Not that I'm aware of.

22 Q And so when you reviewed these "No MAC" letters, you
23 did not review them to determine whether President Trump had the 24 financial capability to perform the contract, correct?

25 A Correct.

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2845

1 Q The determination of whether someone has the financial
2 capability to perform under the contract is largely made during
3 the award process, correct?

4 A Correct.

5 Q And your interest in reviewing the "No MAC" letters is 6 making sure that all of the obligations under the contract are 7 being completed, correct?

8 A Our interest in reviewing the "No MAC" letters is 9 simply just to confirm that what was is what is. So I think
10 that's correct.

11 Q He was required to submit it and he submitted it,
12 correct?

13 A Correct.

14 Q And at the time of this letter, it is dated April 22,
15 2017, correct?

16 A Correct.

17 Q At the time of this letter, there was a rent credit in 18 favor of Trump Ferry Point, LLC, correct?

19 A Correct. And my apologies. I think at this point,
20 there might have not -- there might have been before the rent
21 kicked in.

22 Q You're not sure?

23 A If it was '15, '16, '17, this would have been before
24 rent was due because the first five years of the license, there
25 was no rent.

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2846

1 Q So when you were reviewing this letter, there was no
2 rent due under the license agreement?
3 A Correct.
4 Q And as you sit here today, you're not aware of any
5 false statements in this "No MAC" letter issued by Mazars, LLP,
6 correct?
7 A Other than, you know, this -- I think the -- some of 8 basis for this trial, but no, I am not aware of, you know, if 9 there's been -- if it's been revised or anything else.
10 MS. HERNANDEZ: So we're going to move to PX 3280
11 which is also in evidence. Can you go to the second page,
12 Nate. Only the second page is in evidence.
13 Q So this is another "No MAC" letter, correct?
14 A Correct.
15 Q And this one is dated April 5, 2018, correct?
16 A Correct.
17 Q And so highlighting that third paragraph, it says,
18 "This letter should be read in conjunction with Mr. Trump's 19 above-referenced Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30,
20 2017," correct?
21 A Correct.
22 Q At the time of this letter, so April 5, 2018, was there
23 a rent credit in favor of Trump Ferry Point, LLC?
24 A I believe so, yes.
25 Q And so the rent credit basically means that the city

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2847

1 owed Trump money under the contract, correct?
2 A It meant that he had a rent credit. I defer to our
3 attorneys if somehow the license was terminated, whether the 4 city owed money or not, but it meant that the concessionaire had 5 a rent credit.
6 Q A rent credit because he --
7 A Because related to the grow-in, so there was -- once
8 after the five years -- once the license fees were billed, they 9 were billed against a credit of several million dollars that he
10 had, so we would just be drawing down on that credit month over 11 month.
12 Q Because Trump Ferry Point, LLC and President Trump
13 spent more than what was required under the contract, correct?
14 A For the grow-in, correct. Right.
15 Q As you sit here today, you're not aware of any false
16 statements in this "No MAC" letter issued by Mazars, correct?
17 A Correct.
18 Q So we are going to move to PX 3281 which is already in 19 evidence. And so the second paragraph in this one says, "This 20 letter should be read in conjunction with Mr. Trump's 21 above-referenced Statement of Financial Condition including
22 notes and narratives included therewith as of June 30, 2020,"
23 correct?
24 A Correct.
25 Q And at the time of this letter --

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2848

1 MS. HERNANDEZ: If you can scroll up a little,
2 Nate.
3 Q This is dated February 26, 2021, correct?
4 A Correct.
5 Q And at the time of this letter, the rent credit that
6 we've been discussing was already in place, correct?
7 A Correct.
8 Q And so as you sit here today, you're not aware of any
9 false statements in this "No MAC" letter issued by Mazars,
10 correct?
11 A I think as I mentioned, I'm not aware of them except 12 for my understanding is part of the basis of this trial is that 13 these were not -- these were not accurate. So I have not
14 received a letter saying, "Here is a revised statement" or "Here
15 is what the numbers should be." So when I say correct, I'm not 16 aware of it. That's because nothing's been brought to me, but 17 it is something that obviously seems like an outstanding
18 question.
19 MS. HERNANDEZ: I would move to strike that as 20 non-responsive. It is just whether he is aware of it or 21 not.
22 THE COURT: I understand where both of you are 23 coming from. Why don't we do this. Can I deem the question
24 withdrawn and you will ask it more precisely if you think 25 you can.

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2849

1 MS. HERNANDEZ: I can try.
2 Q So as you sit here today, aside from any allegations in
3 this case, are you aware of any actual false statements in this
4 "No MAC" letter issued by Mazars?
5 A I haven't received a correction letter. I have not 6 received anything from Mazars to say that this is -- this is
7 being -- this is being -- these numbers are being corrected.
8 I just -- I feel uncomfortable saying like there's nothing
9 inaccurate here even if I don't know precisely what it is. I'm 10 just not in a position to have the knowledge to know, precisely
11 know what it is and that's part of why I think there is this 12 trial. So I wish I could be more helpful to just in general to 13 anyone in answering that question, but I don't want to represent 14 that my understanding is that there are no misstatements here
15 because I'm just not -- I'm just not sure at this point what 16 the facts are.
17 MS. HERNANDEZ: Your Honor, could I move to strike
18 that answer as well?
19 THE COURT: Granted. If you listen to the 20 question, we'll get a --
21 MR. GABER: If we're talking about any of the other
22 allegations in this trial, then the question is no longer
23 relevant.
24 THE COURT: Disagree.
25 MS. HERNANDEZ: I'm asking what Mr. Cerron is aware

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2850

1 of.
2 THE COURT: Well -- but it is a lot more limited
3 than that.
4 MS. HERNANDEZ: Correct. Correct.
5 Q What you are actually aware of? Are you actually aware
6 of any false statements that are in this "No MAC" letter issued
7 by Mazars in 2021?
8 A I am not aware of any other statements regarding this
9 financial -- these financial documents during this time period.
10 MR. HERNANDEZ: Okay. Thank you. We can take that 11 down now.
12 Q So you are familiar with the assignment of the 13 concession for the Ferry Point property from Trump Ferry Point,
14 LLC to Bally's, correct?
15 A Correct.
16 Q You were involved in working with counsel's office on 17 that deal, correct?
18 A I worked with our -- with the agency's general
19 counsel.
20 Q So you were involved in that deal, correct?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And Bally's paid Trump Ferry Point, LLC approximately 23 $60 million for the assignment of this concession, correct?
24 A That is my understanding, correct.
25 Q And so I'm going to show you what's already in evidence

Page 2852

1 judicial notice of it, then I have no further questions.
2 THE COURT: Okay. Any re-direct?
3 MR. GABER: No, Judge. Thank you.
4 THE COURT: Okay. We are all finished with this
5 witness, I assume.
6 Thank you, witness. You're excused.

2 MS. HERNANDEZ: The native, Nate, please.
3 Q So I'm going to represent to you that this is the 2021
4 supporting data for the Statement of Financial Condition. And 5 I'm going to direct your attention to Row 575 of the supporting
6 data. Do you see there where it says, "Trump Golf Links Ferry
7 Point"?
8 A I do.
9 MR. GABER: I'm going to object to foundation here.
10 The witness -- the witness is incompetent to testify on an 11 internal valuation document from the Trump Organization.
12 THE COURT: The question was simply did he 13 see -- does he see it. So objection overruled without 14 prejudice to see where it goes.
15 MR. GABER: Okay.
16 MS. HERNANDEZ: And on Row 584, you could highlight
17 that, Nate.
18 Q You see the value in 2021 is $22,548,589?
19 A I do.
20 Q And the $22,548,589 is significantly less than the 21 $60 million that you just testified Bally's paid Trump Ferry
22 Point LLC for the assignment of the concession, correct?
23 THE COURT: I'll take judicial notice that the 24 $22 million is less than the $60 million.
25 MS. HERNANDEZ: Okay. If Your Honor will take

1 THE COURT: Am I correct that the next witness we
2 are going to hear from via recorded -- video recorded
3 testimony?
4 MR. AMER: That's right, Your Honor. I think we
5 clocked the video at two hours and 16 minutes. I don't 6 think with our afternoon break we're going to be able to 7 play the entire video given our timing, but if we have to 8 spill over until tomorrow morning, then we can just finish
9 it then.
10 THE COURT: And why are we not hearing live
11 testimony, which I'm on record as wanting -- valuing?
12 MR. AMER: We were in agreement that the witness is 13 unavailable. She is not in New York, she doesn't work in 14 New York and she is also in her -- knew she was going to be 15 nine months pregnant around the time of the trial.
16 THE COURT: And defendants, there is no issue, I
17 assume?
18 MR. KISE: No, not at this time, Your Honor, no.
19 THE COURT: Okay. Let's play the movie.
20 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings
21 while the video recorded testimony is played in open court.)
22 THE COURT: Okay. We're going to take a ten-minute
23 break, so I'll see you back here in 15 minutes.
24 MS. GREENFIELD: Just Counselors for the AG, I know
25 that the exhibits for this deposition were marked as

Proceedings Page 2854

1 deposition exhibits. Would it be possible to get a list of
2 the corresponding Plaintiff's Exhibit number that that
3 corresponds to?
4 MR. AMER: I have that and I was going to move all
5 of the exhibits into evidence as soon as the video is over.
6 MS. GREENFIELD: Fantastic.
7 THE COURT: So we'll get that in the record. So
8 15 minutes from now.
9 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
10 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
11 session. Please be seated and come to order.
12 THE COURT: I hope you enjoyed the intermission.
13 Let's go back to the movie.
14 MR. AMER: Before we start, I want to confirm you
15 see the table of exhibits?
16 THE COURT: Thank you very much.
17 MS. FAHERTY: No problem.
18 THE COURT: Okay. Let's play the feature film.
19 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings
20 while the video recorded testimony is played in open court.)
21 THE COURT: We just want to discuss witnesses for 22 tomorrow.
23 MR. AMER: So the completion of Ms. Mouradian's
24 video deposition -- video de benne esse testimony then we 25 have Mr. Cornwell is next followed by Mr. Orowitz followed

Page 2856

1 THE COURT: Okay. That's it. Ten o'clock

1 by Mr. McCarty.
2 THE COURT: And we going to finish all of them?
3 MR. AMER: I don't know.
4 THE COURT: That's a lot more than we've ever done
5 in a day.
6 MR. AMER: My understanding is there will be cross
7 examination of Mr. Cornwell. I don't believe there is cross
8 examination of Mr. Orowitz; is that right?
9 MS. HERNANDEZ: That's my understanding as well.
10 MR. AMER: And there certainly will be cross
11 examination of Mr. McCarty, who is our banking expert
12 although, I will say his examination is going to be shorter
13 than it otherwise would have been but for the summary
14 judgment ruling, so we're obviously taking that into account
15 in terms of what is now relevant for him to testify to.
16 MS. GREENFIELD: Assuming we don't finish all of 17 these witnesses tomorrow, are they available to resume
18 Friday since that morning is now available? You don't have 19 to answer right now, but if you can find out.
20 MR. AMER: Yes. I mean, I think the idea was to 21 have them finish and have Donald Trump, Jr. start when 22 Mr. McCarty is finished.
23 MS. GREENFIELD: Okay. So it could be Donald
24 Trump, Jr., would start later in the day on Wednesday?
25 MR. AMER: It could be.

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in
 2 session. The Honorable Arthur Engoron presiding. Make sure
 3 all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and cellphones will
 4 be permitted, but only to members of the press. There's 5 absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed
 6 in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come to order.
 7 THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. Last night,
 8 defendants filed a motion in liminae to preclude the 9 plaintiff's expert, Michiel McCarty, from testifying.
 10 Defendants first assert, despite repeated rejection from 11 this Court and the First Department, that disgorgement of 12 profits are not available as a remedy in a "purely Executive 13 Law Section 63 (12) case."
 14 For reasons this Court has explained ad naseum,
 15 that is simply incorrect, and this Court will not belabor
 16 the point here. Disgorgement is clearly an available remedy
 17 under Executive Law 63 (12) case.
 18 Defendants next assert that the expert testimony
 19 seeks to rely on facts not supported by the record, and that 20 the expert will rely on cherry-picked facts from the 21 Attorney General's office. For example, defendants assert
 22 that "the Attorney General certainly could have asked Mr.
 23 Haigh whether additional information would have, in fact,
 24 altered the loan approvals and/or the pricing. But now,
 25 after avoiding what is no doubt unfavorable testimony from

1 those directly responsible for approving the loans and
 2 determining the terms and pricing, she seeks to fill the
 3 factual void in her case with 'expert' testimony amounting
 4 to no more than speculation as to what 'might' have 5 happened."
 6 First, obviously plaintiff has free reign to build
 7 the record it believe supports its case, as defendants are 8 free to do the same. To that end, defendants' argument that 9 the Attorney General should have asked Mr. Haigh other
 10 questions is as a non-starter, as defendants were free to 11 ask Mr. Haigh those questions on cross-examination. The 12 plaintiff is not obligated to ask questions that inure to 13 the defendants' benefit.
 14 Second, contrary to defendant's assertion, the 15 proffered expert testimony relies upon facts that are in the 16 record, not mere speculation. Several witnesses have 17 testified that they would have acted differently had they 18 known that the Statements of Financial Condition were 19 fraudulent.
 20 Further, to the extent that the defendants wish to 21 cross-examine Mr. McCarty about other facts that they 22 believe are in the record, they may do so. Moreover, the 23 proffered expert testimony is not subjective. It is based 24 on four decades of banking expertise, an evaluation of 25 Deutsche Bank's contemporaneous internal communications and

PROCEEDINGS Page 2861 1 documents, and research into available public sources. If 2 the Court, as the trier of fact, does not find the expert 3 testimony reliable or credible, it may choose to disregard 4 it. 5 Furthermore, as plaintiff has pointed out, when 6 employing the equitable remedy of disgorgement of profits, 7 precision is not required. As the Second Circuit held in 8 Sec. & Exch. Comm'n v. Fowler, 6 F. 4th 255, 267 (2d Cir 9 2021), "In general, the amount of disgorgement ordered need 10 only be a reasonable approximation of profits causally 11 connected to the violation. If the disgorgement amount is 12 generally reasonable, any risk of uncertainty about the 13 amount falls on the wrongdoer whose illegal conduct created 14 that uncertainty." 15 Finally, to the extent defendants assert that 16 McCarty's expert testimony should be precluded because it is 17 beyond the scope of the statute of limitations, as has been 18 explained many times, the statute of limitations bars 19 claims, not evidence. Where, as here, disgorgement of 20 profits is an available remedy, the Court may, depending 21 upon the circumstances, be permitted to look at any 22 "ill-gotten gains" for the entire life of the loan, so long 23 as the final damages award is appropriately prorated to 24 include only such ill-gotten gains that occurred within the 25 statute of limitations.	PROCEEDINGS Page 2863 1 the Attorney General the ability to stop conduct that she 2 thinks may be harming the public. None of that conduct has 3 actually harmed the public or not. That's why in the first 4 instance, to stop the conduct, there doesn't have to be any 5 demonstration that someone has actually been hurt yet. 6 So using our example, if the Attorney General 7 thinks that someone is using a financial statement in a way 8 that could theoretically harm someone, then she goes to 9 court and says, "You're using a financial statement in a way 10 that could theoretically harm someone." "There is a false 11 or misleading statement, you know, something false or 12 misleading contained in the financial statement. 13 Something's in there and you shouldn't be doing that." 14 Now, as you know, we disagree with whether or not 15 it is false or misleading, but setting that aside, that's 16 one aspect of the statute. That's one reason it exists, is 17 to stop someone, so the court can issue an order saying stop 18 issuing those false and misleading financial statements. 19 You defendants, stop doing that. That's a very separate 20 issue, though, from the other piece which -- and again, I'm 21 not belaboring this point, but restitution, which we think 22 is allowable under the statute, disgorgement, accepting Your 23 Honor's views at this point without waiving our position, 24 but in order to get there, you have to now establish that 25 something actually took place and the restitution in
PROCEEDINGS Page 2862 1 And this is all done this morning, by the way. 2 There may be some meaty issues to look into, but this is my 3 current understanding. The motion to preclude is denied and 4 if defendants want to put their objections on the record, 5 they may do so now. 6 MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge. I'll be brief, but I 7 think I want to at least point out a few things that Your 8 Honor mentioned. First of all, I think you know this, but I 9 just want to make it clear on the record. The issue about 10 disgorgement not being available was not our first argument. 11 It is just simply for not to belabor the point and that's 12 why it is in the footnote. 13 THE COURT: I appreciate that. 14 MR. KISE: The fundamental difference here, I guess 15 the disconnect is there's no establishment in the record 16 that the gains are ill-gotten. That's really the issue 17 here. They haven't established that they're ill-gotten. 18 They haven't established that something would have actually 19 been different and that's a very different thing than the 20 SEC case and the other cases they cite. Those cases are 21 traditional fraud cases and materiality and reliance and all 22 of that has been established and so that's what's not been 23 established here. 24 The purpose of 63 (12) is essentially two-fold. 25 It's one, to stop conduct that the Attorney General -- give	PROCEEDINGS Page 2864 1 disgorgement, you can't just assume theoretically that 2 something is ill-gotten in the disgorgement context. 3 You can't assume in the restitution context that 4 someone has lost money based on the conduct. You have to 5 actually establish that and that's the part that the 6 Attorney General is skipping over. This ill-gotten concept 7 that their whole case is premised on, the fact that the 8 defendants secured more favorable loan and insurance terms 9 and then retained those terms with each statement, with each 10 submission of the statement ongoing, but that premise 11 assumes something that hasn't been proven. 12 That's the whole purpose of bringing Mr. McCarty in 13 here. They are assuming that the defendants received 14 something. They secured more favorable loan or insurance 15 terms that they wouldn't have otherwise received. There's 16 just no evidence in the record. And the point about Mr. 17 Haigh's testimony is not to say, well, they could have asked 18 this question or they could have asked that. The point is 19 to demonstrate that Mr. Haigh's testimony is squarely 20 counter to their position in the case. 21 Mr. Haigh never said that something would have 22 actually been different. Mr. Haigh never said because they 23 didn't ask him, no, these loans would not have been issued. 24 So they have -- without that testimony, they haven't 25 established that the loan wouldn't have been issued anyway.

1 And if the loan would have been issued anyway, there is no 2 ill-gotten gain. It's not possible to have. The bank's 3 role is to make the decision and as Mr. Haigh testified, 4 there's myriad factors. There's multiple, multiple factors. 5 So the bank's role is to make the decision. 6 The same with the pricing of the loan. The pricing 7 of the loan is something within the bank's determination. 8 Unless the bank comes into court and says, "Yes, I would 9 have priced this loan differently," there's no basis upon 10 which Mr. McCarty can testify as to what that would look 11 like. If the loans would have been the same anyway, 12 then -- and the pricing would have been the same anyway, 13 while an Attorney General can certainly stop someone upon 14 proof from issuing financial statements that contain 15 something false or misleading, a premise we disagree with, 16 but that's very different than now saying that we can 17 recover money under anything, whether it be damages, 18 disgorgement, restitution, without that necessary element of 19 proof because, otherwise, the statute becomes limitless. 20 Now, we're dealing with the -- the Attorney 21 General called it in their letter response that I saw this 22 morning a counterfactual world. I'm not talking about a 23 counterfactual world. I'm talking about the real world. In 24 the real world, the banks make these decisions. In the real 25 world, the banks evaluate the decision. In the real world,		1 its own, forget about all this criteria. I mean, Mr. Haigh 2 talked about both on direct, and I won't put it in here, it 3 is in our papers, both on direct and on cross that the 4 approvals terms and pricing were based on multiple factors, 5 innumerable factors. They are all in the credit memos. 6 He also testified that the relevant approvals year 7 after year after year were based on their own internal 8 analysis. That's not testimony that the Attorney General is 9 free to simply ignore. There has to be something in the 10 record that establishes that something would have been 11 different here because if you don't establish that there was 12 real harm, any real world impact, you can't have an expert 13 come in and say, "Okay. Well, now here is the document." 14 What the expert is testifying to is a penalty. The 15 expert is now testifying as to a penalty. We think -- the 16 AG says, "We think the conduct of using these financial 17 statements was wrong. We don't care whether anything would 18 have been different factually. We don't care whether the 19 banks would have done something differently. We think it is 20 wrong and here is what we think the ill-gotten gains are." 21 That's -- it's beyond counterintuitive to contend 22 that what the bank actually thinks and what the bank 23 actually did is irrelevant and immaterial to the analysis. 24 So to allow this testimony and to allow this theory, 25 frankly, to advance is to substitute a decade later,
1 the banks determine the pricing for loans. That's what 2 happens in the real world. 3 The Attorney General can postulate, anyone can 4 postulate that something might be different; but unless the 5 bank says it would have been different, meaning that they 6 would have decided something differently, an expert can't 7 come in and now introduce his or her own opinion as to what 8 he or she might have done under the circumstances because 9 there's no room for that sort of -- it renders the statute 10 at that point limitless and I would say respectfully 11 unconstitutional as vague. 12 There's no way -- there's no way parameters around 13 what conduct it is that's required. So the Attorney General 14 is not allowed at this phase to simply presume and have the 15 Court presume that the Statements of Financial Condition 16 here were relied on, that that was -- and that was material 17 and that that reliance and that materiality then made a 18 difference in the loans. Because again, there's nothing 19 ill-gotten if they haven't proven that anything would have 20 been any different. 21 That's not a counterfactual world. That's the real 22 world. That's how -- that's how loan transactions works. 23 That's how the capital markets work and what the Attorney 24 General wants to do now is say forget about what the real 25 world thinks, forget about what the bank actually decided on		1 post-closing of the loan transactions the Attorney General's 2 opinion or her expert's opinion, in this case, for what the 3 bank might or might not have done. 4 I just want to put on the record briefly the 5 cases -- the case law on this is very straightforward and 6 again, the case law that the Attorney General cites, the SEC 7 cases and the one Your Honor cited, those are 8 traditional -- that's where there has been an establishment 9 that there was reliance and materiality and things would 10 have, in fact, been different. 11 There, the issue is we can't get precise, but the 12 Gathers case, 242 AD2d 506, a First Department case, 13 reversed admission of expert testimony because the expert 14 reached his conclusion by assuming material facts not 15 supported by the evidence. That's exactly what Mr. McCarty 16 is going to do here. He is going to assume that the gains 17 are ill-gotten. 18 They're skipping over the part where they have to 19 establish that the gains are ill-gotten, meaning that the 20 loans would not have been issued in the first place or that 21 the terms would have been different. There's nothing for 22 him to testify on otherwise and an expert is not entitled to 23 just flatly contradict the record evidence. They can't 24 substitute their opinion for what actually is in the record. 25 The other case that I'll cite in addition to the

1 ones that are in there in the brief is the Ortiz case, 19 2 AD3d 239, another First Department case. There, the issue 3 is whether or not an accident reconstructionist could come 4 in and reconstruct the accident in a way different than the 5 two eyewitnesses that actually testified to. 6 And so again, that's what McCarty is going to do 7 here. He's going to come in and reconstruct the financial 8 analysis irrespective of what the bank would have done, and 9 that's just plainly impermissible because the gains are not 10 ill-gotten until you prove that something would have been 11 different. There's no basis for restitution or, as the 12 Court is saying, disgorgement. There's no basis in the law. 13 THE COURT: Those are very different -- 14 MR. KISE: I understand that, but both of them 15 hinge on the same underlying premise, though. They 16 are -- the proof is different, but they center around the 17 same underlying premise that something happened that 18 shouldn't have taken place in the first place, that there's 19 already been proof that the gains were ill-gotten. There's 20 already been proof that someone was deprived of something 21 that they shouldn't have. There's already been proof in the 22 case of restitution that someone paid something that they 23 shouldn't have paid and they're entitled to get that money 24 back. 25 Here, the Attorney General wants to skip over all	1 Honor said at the end about the pre- versus post-statute of 2 limitations period. To the extent that this Court is, in 3 fact, going to pro rate, meaning look at the arguments that 4 we've made -- 5 THE COURT: Subject to some further research on 6 this, of course. 7 MR. KISE: -- then we can be heard on that later, 8 but yes, I mean, if you want to hear evidence as you've been 9 doing. I mean we object to it, but that's a very different 10 ruling than saying, okay, not only am I going to listen to 11 it, but I'm actually going to come up with a number based on 12 dollars and cents that took place prior to in this instance 13 July 13, 2014. 14 Our position is, as it must be, that anything that 15 happened with respect to the loan approval or the pricing 16 and terms was set as of the date of the closing. So those 17 subsequent submissions could not possibly have altered that. 18 They would not have changed the pricing decision that was 19 made in 2011, 2012, 2013. They wouldn't have changed those 20 pricing decisions, so there's no -- there's no basis to 21 then assume, again, that there's ill-gotten gain because the 22 subsequent submission of the certification has nothing to do 23 with the initial pricing. That's all wrapped up in the loan 24 agreement. 25 So there isn't any monetary calculus to be made
PROCEEDINGS Page 2870 1 of that without any introduction in the record about whether 2 or not the gains themselves are ill-gotten. So experts come 3 in to analyze, evaluate, explain facts that are in the 4 record. They don't substitute their own facts for what's in 5 the record. They opine on the factual predicate as it 6 exists in the case. They don't supply the factual 7 predicate. 8 So here, what Mr. McCarty is doing, what the 9 Attorney General wants Mr. McCarty to do and is asking this 10 Court to accept, to substitute a factual predicate, to have 11 the Court presume, which he's doing, that the gains are, in 12 fact, ill-gotten before that's ever been established 13 anywhere in the record. And so it's one thing for the Court 14 to say as it has, again reserving our objection, that these 15 statements are false, stop doing them, stop. I'm going to 16 tell you not to do that in the future, and here is the 17 things I'm going to do to keep you from doing it in the 18 future. 19 All of that is step one, but before any dollars and 20 cents can be computed under any theory, there has to be some 21 showing that the gains were ill-gotten. The Attorney 22 General is not simply allowed to substitute her own judgment 23 for that of the bank and using an expert to do that doesn't 24 make it any more proper than it would have in the abstract. 25 Then I'll make just a final comment on what Your	PROCEEDINGS Page 2872 1 with respect to the subsequent certifications. This 2 is -- this goes back to our whole position as to why the 3 subsequent certifications are not false statements in the 4 first place. We're not going to go there today, but because 5 there's no -- it is not connected to any activity, it is 6 not connected to any claim, it is just out there in the 7 abstract. 8 So for these reasons, Your Honor, most notably that 9 there hasn't been any proof that anything is ill-gotten and 10 that the Attorney General is not allowed to skip over that, 11 we think the admission of Mr. McCarty's opinion is purely 12 speculative and hypothetical. Thank you. 13 THE COURT: Question for Mr. Robert. Did your 14 colleague start out by saying he would be brief? 15 MR. ROBERT: It is all relevant, Your Honor. 16 THE COURT: I would say relative to the 17 Lincoln-Douglas debates of the 1850s in Illinois, which went 18 on for four hours or something. They would talk for two 19 hours and the other guy would talk for two hours. 20 MR. KISE: I think I kept it under seven pages. 21 Mr. Amer set the bar yesterday. 22 MR. AMER: I don't think you did. We clocked it at 23 15 minutes. 24 THE COURT: I'll be brief. First of all, I 25 apologize for mispronouncing Haigh's name right. It was

1 Haigh, not Haigh. I think to a certain extent the 2 defendants are whistling past the graveyard here. 3 they -- they think that all of these financial statements, 4 the people, the employees submit numbers, McConney puts 5 together a spreadsheet. It goes -- it gets reviewed. It 6 goes to Mazars to put together a compilation or they compile 7 these data. They send it to the banks. Nobody relies on 8 them. It's -- I'm sorry. It is a fantasy world. 9 These things, obviously, are done for reasons and 10 we've had testimony that says, yeah, we looked at that, we 11 relied on that. I don't know whether Haigh ever said we 12 would have done things differently. Of course, defendants 13 could have asked him that. The videotaped testimony we are 14 listening to, she said, "I wish I had known what I know 15 now." 16 I will leave it at that. I don't want to get into 17 the weeds here. In the motion papers that were filed last 18 night and in what Mr. Kise just said this morning said there 19 were many factors. Nobody is saying, and I'm certainly not 20 saying, that the financial statements were the only factor, 21 but they are a factor. To me, that's -- again, without 22 getting too deep into proximate cause whether the financial 23 statements were "false and misleading," I'll let my 35-page 24 decision and order of September 26th stand on its own. 25 I think they were clearly false and misleading is a		1 that's going to come in today, if we have enough time, is I, 2 think, admissible and it is up to the Court to accord it 3 whatever weight it decides when it is reaching its final 4 decision. 5 THE COURT: Okay. Back to Tuesday morning at the 6 movies. Is that what we are? 7 MR. AMER: Yes, Your Honor. We will continue 8 playing the video of Ms. Mouradian. I believe we have just 9 under 50 minutes left to the video and then we'll move in 10 some exhibits. 11 THE COURT: Okay. Let's do it. 12 (Whereupon, the video was played.) 13 (Continued on the next page.) 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
1 little bit more subjective statement, but I think the 2 statute covers false. I think -- I think there's 3 also -- there may also be documentary evidence about the 4 internal analysis by Deutsche Bank and maybe some of the 5 other financial institutions about what their statements of 6 finance conditions said. What were they looking at these 7 things for without relying on them? So if the Attorney 8 General wants to say something on the record, I stand by my 9 decision; but for the record, do you agree with me or Mr. 10 Kise? 11 MR. WALLACE: As to whether or not the defendants 12 are whistling past the graveyard, 100 percent. There is a 13 decision, Your Honor has highlighted it, saying that the 14 statements are false and misleading, and that they were used 15 in business to obtain these loans. I understand 16 Mr. Kise's arguments. I expect to hear them again at 17 closing. I expect to read them in his post-trial brief. I 18 expect to see them if they challenge this decision to the 19 First Department, but the question before us this morning is 20 can an expert witness come in and tell you the difference 21 between a commercial real estate loan price and a private 22 wealth bank price. And the Court is free to say, "I think 23 that's a fair measure of disgorgement" or "I'm going to find 24 some other measure of disgorgement or "I don't think 25 disgorgement is appropriate in this case," but this evidence		1 MR. AMER: Your Honor, we do have some exhibits to 2 move in to evidence. First of all, because this wasn't 3 being transcribed, we need to move into evidence the 4 actual -- 5 THE COURT: Video. 6 MR. AMER: -- designations of what we were just 7 playing. So we've marked that as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3324 8 and ask that it be admitted into evidence. 9 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 10 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 11 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3324 in 12 evidence.) 13 MR. AMER: And then we have Deposition Exhibit 1, 14 which we've marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1540. We ask that 15 that be admitted into evidence. 16 MS. HERNANDEZ: No objection. 17 THE COURT: Granted. 18 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 19 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1540 in 20 evidence.) 21 MR. AMER: There were two other deposition exhibits 2 which were excerpts, one from the complaint and one from the 3 deposition of Mr. Weisselberg. Those were read into the 4 record, so they'll be in the exhibit we've admitted, which 5 is Exhibit 3324. 6 THE COURT: Sounds right. 7 MS. HERNANDEZ: That's fine. 8 THE COURT: Okay. Granted. 9 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 10 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3324 in 11 evidence.) 12 MS. HERNANDEZ: And, Your Honor, we would also like 13 to move in the two defense exhibits that were used, so we 14 would like to move into evidence D 969, which was Defense 15 Exhibit A in the deposition. 16 MR. AMER: No objection. 17 THE COURT: Granted. 18 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 19 received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 969 in 20 evidence.) 21 MS. HERNANDEZ: And we'd like to move D 970, which 22 was Defendant's Exhibit B. 23 MR. AMER: No objection. 24 THE COURT: Granted. 25 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is

HERNANDEZ: No objection. 5 THE COURT: Granted. 6 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 7 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1561 in 8 evidence.) 9 MR. AMER: And Deposition Exhibit 7, Plaintiff's 10 Exhibit 3014, we ask that be admitted into evidence. 11 MS. HERNANDEZ: So that one we have an objection 12 to, as sad as I am to break up that little routine we had 13 going. 14 To PX 3014 has a cover e-mail that was not shown to 15 Ms. Mouradian, so I don't have an objection to the 16 remainder of the exhibit coming in, but that cover e-mail 17 was not part of the deposition. 18 MR. AMER: We're fine if we put it in without the 19 cover e-mail because it wasn't anything that she was asked 20 about. 21 THE COURT: Okay. Granted, but only as to or 22 except as to the cover e-mail. 23 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 24 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3014 in 25 evidence.)		1 received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 970 in 2 evidence.) 3 MR. AMER: That concludes the movie, Your Honor. 4 THE COURT: Okay. Is anybody hungry? Tired? 5 Okay, 15-minute break or ten-minute break over the next 6 15 minutes. See you in 15 minutes. 7 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.) 8 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in 9 session. Please be seated and come to order. 10 THE COURT: Would the Plaintiff like to call the 11 next witness? 12 MR. FINKELSTEIN: The People call K. Don Cornwell 13 to the stand. 14 THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the witness. 15 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. 16 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and 17 approaches the witness stand.) 18 THE COURT OFFICER: Please raise your right hand. 19 Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony you give 20 will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the 21 truth? 22 K. D O N C O R N W E L L, called by and on behalf of 23 the Plaintiff, having been first duly sworn, was examined and 24 testified as follows: 25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2881 1 THE COURT OFFICER: Please have a seat. State your 2 name and either home or business address for the record. 3 THE WITNESS: Don Cornwell. I live at 90 Furman 4 Street, Brooklyn, New York, Apartment 1004. 5 THE COURT: But before you do, to quote Groucho 6 Marx, "A hot dog stand would clean up around here." 7 Please proceed. 8 DIRECT EXAMINATION 9 BY MR. FINKELSTEIN: 10 Q Good morning, Mr. Cornwell. 11 A Morning. 12 Q Can you please describe your educational background 13 post high school? 14 A Sure. I attended Harvard College where I studied 15 government, graduated from there 1992. Then, I went to Stanford 16 for business school where I received an MBA. I graduated 1998. 17 THE COURT: Please speak a little louder. You have 18 to go right into the microphone like that and we'll be good. 19 THE WITNESS: Is that better? 20 THE COURT: Now we're in business. 21 THE WITNESS: All right. 22 Q Can you provide a brief overview of your employment 23 history post college? 24 A Sure. Post Harvard I worked at McKinsey Management 25 Consulting Company for two years in New York. After that, I	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2883 1 Q And what were your duties and responsibilities as an 2 associate at Morgan Stanley? 3 A Hard work. I executed transactions. So in any given 4 deal, you have a deal team. For the most part the associate did 5 a lot of the analytics, a lot of putting together presentations 6 and the like. 7 Q And how, if at all, did your responsibilities change 8 upon becoming managing director in and around 2007? 9 A I actually progressed through you start to lead teams 10 and be responsible for revenue generation and getting new 11 clients. 12 Q And do -- you also mentioned the title "head of global 13 sports investment banking?" 14 A Yes. 15 Q Did your responsibilities change with that title? 16 A No, same thing. I was just the lead investment banker 17 on all sports deals. 18 Q Did there come a time when Morgan Stanley was tapped to 19 assist the Wilson estate in selling the Buffalo Bills? 20 A Yes. 21 Q Who are the Buffalo Bills? 22 A They are a franchise in the National Football League. 23 Q How did Morgan Stanley become involved in the Buffalo 24 Bills transaction? 25 A So the estate of Ralph Wilson was looking to sell the
D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2882 1 worked for two years at the National Football League, '94 to 2 '96. Post business school starting 1998 I was at Morgan Stanley 3 for 17 years until 2015. 2015, I left Morgan Stanley for a firm 4 called PJT Partners. I was there for eight years and for the 5 last year I've run a private equity firm called Dynasty Equity. 6 Q And what is PJT Partners? 7 A It's an investment bank. 8 Q And where is that based? 9 A New York City. 10 Q And what was your role at PJT Partners? 11 A I was a partner doing MNA work around sports and 12 gaming. 13 Q And after that you went to Dynasty Equity. What is 14 Dynasty Equity? 15 A Dynasty Equity is an investment firm focused on sports. 16 Q What is your role at Dynasty Equity? 17 A Cofounder and CEO. 18 Q Focusing your time at Morgan Stanley, what titles or 19 positions did you hold there? 20 A I started there in the summer of 1997 as a summer 21 associate while in business school. 1998, I was an associate 22 eventually getting promoted to managing director in 2007. 23 From 2007-2015, I was a managing director and certain 24 times towards the last five years I was the global head of 25 sports investment banking.	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2884 1 team and as part of that process they needed to hire an 2 investment bank. They invited several different firms to give a 3 presentation about their credentials and Morgan Stanley was one 4 of those participants. 5 Q What was Morgan Stanley's role in the transaction once 6 it was picked by the Wilson estate? 7 A Yes, we led the transaction and assisted with the 8 estate, the trustees, to help them find a buyer for the team. 9 MR. FINKELSTEIN: I'd like to hand up PX 980 to the 10 witness for identification. 11 Q Do you recognize this document? 12 A I do. 13 Q What do you recognize it to be? 14 A This is an e-mail -- well, it's an e-mail thread, but 15 the e-mail is from me to one of my colleagues discussing our 16 first round bid letters in the Buffalo Bills process. 17 Q So you just referenced the bid letter. What do you 18 mean by that? 19 A So this MNA process is one which is very common where 20 we had two steps and what happens is you have interested buyers, 21 people who indicated they'd like to learn more about the asset 22 that you're selling. You've signed a non-disclosure agreement, 23 you give them information, they provide you a bid, a first round 24 bid based on information you've received. Then what happens is 25 you review the bids and you take some or all of the folks who've

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2885 1 submitted bids letters into the next phase of the process where 2 they get to have the opportunity to do diligence, take site 3 tours and decide if they want to further acquire the asset they 4 have. 5 Q So is there any process to screen through the letters 6 you received in the first step? 7 A I'm sorry, say again. 8 Q My question was did the Morgan Stanley have any process 9 to screen through the letters that you received in the first 10 step that you just described? 11 A Yes, absolutely. We obviously read the letters and 12 what we're trying to achieve in the process is really two 13 things: We want the highest value and certainty of closing and 14 so what we look for in those letters is, number one, what they 15 think valuation is; number two, we start the process of 16 understanding what their ability to close will be. 17 Q So in this first message that's shown on the screen 18 there are several attachments. I would like to just direct your 19 attention to two of those attachments. 20 So if we could turn to page eight? Do you recognize 21 this letter? 22 A I do. 23 Q What do you recognize it to be? 24 A This was the bid -- first round bid letter that we 25 received from the Trump Organization.	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2887 1 Do you ever recall speaking with Rosemary Vrablic 2 regarding this bid? 3 A I don't recall. 4 Q Do you recall ever speaking with Allen Weisselberg 5 regarding this bid? 6 A I don't recall. 7 Q Do you recall ever speaking with Donald J. Trump 8 regarding this bid? 9 A Yes. 10 Q What do you recall about that? 11 A Not much. 12 Q So I would like to now turn to page 20 of the exhibit. 13 So you had mentioned earlier that there was a second 14 letter. Does this appear to be that letter? 15 A Yes, it does. 16 Q What do you recognize this letter to be? 17 A This was a letter we got from Deutsche Bank indicating 18 something about Donald Trump's net worth. 19 Q And was it your understanding that Deutsche Bank 20 provided this letter to you at the behest of Donald Trump? 21 A Yes. 22 Q And in the third paragraph the letter reads: 23 "Our understanding is that Mr. Donald J. Trump has made 24 or intends to make a bid for the Buffalo Bills in the amount of 25 $1 billion in the aggregate. Based upon our preliminary review
D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2886 1 Q And this letter is addressed to you at Morgan Stanley? 2 A That is correct. 3 Q And what is the date of this letter? 4 A July 29, 2014. 5 Q What was your understanding of the purpose of this 6 letter? 7 A This letter was to indicate that the Trump Organization 8 would like to buy the Buffalo Bills for $1 billion. 9 Q And turning to the second paragraph of the letter, the 10 letter states: "I have a net worth in excess of $8 billion 11 (financial statements to be provided upon request)." 12 Does -- was that representation considered by Morgan 13 Stanley in the bidding process? 14 A It was, although we also received another letter that 15 was very important. In our bid instructions we ask people to 16 provide us proof of funds. 17 Q Did Morgan Stanley ever request financial statements 18 from Donald Trump? 19 A Yes. 20 Q I would like to direct your attention to the third 21 paragraph on the bottom, the next page, page nine. It says, 22 "Please feel free to call Rosemary Vrablic, managing director of 23 Deutsche Bank's private wealth management; Mr. Allen 24 Weisselberg, chief financial officer of the Trump Organization; 25 or me directly if you have any questions about this bid."	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2888 1 of the current financial information of Mr. Donald J. Trump made 2 available to us, including liquidity and asset value, it is our 3 assessment that Mr. Donald J. Trump would have the financial 4 wherewithal to fund his bid." 5 Did you have any understanding of what financial 6 information Mr. Trump made available to Deutsche Bank? 7 A I did not. 8 Q Was the representation I just read important to Morgan 9 Stanley in its role in managing the bidding process for the 10 Buffalo Bills? 11 A Yes. 12 Q Why was it important? 13 A We asked for some proof of funds and at this stage of 14 the process a letter from a credible, reputable bank sufficed. 15 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Your Honor, I would like to move 16 to admit PX 980 into evidence. 17 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Relevance and statute of 18 limitations. 19 THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It's in. 20 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 21 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 980 in 22 evidence.) 23 MR. FINKELSTEIN: If we can set that aside and move 24 on to a new document? I'm handing to the witness through 25 the court officer for identification PX 3274.

1 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, in that last exhibit I saw 2 there were a series of attachments in the PDF. Since it was 3 just electronic, what's being moved in, just recovery e-mail 4 and the one attachment referenced or all the attachments? 5 MR. FINKELSTEIN: I believe the witness has 6 foundation so that we can move in the whole thing. 7 MR. ROBERT: Can we look at it and see what it is? 8 Because they look like bids from other people. 9 THE COURT: Those would probably not be relevant. 10 MR. FINKELSTEIN: At a minimum we would like to 11 move in the e-mail and both of the letters we just looked 12 at. 13 THE COURT: Those are granted -- that's granted. 14 Those are in. 15 Q Do you recognize PX 3274 in front of you? 16 A I do. 17 Q What do you recognize it to be? 18 A Looks like an e-mail from Michael Cohen to my 19 colleague, Alex Hill. 20 Q Do there appear to be additional messages in this 21 thread? 22 A Yes. There is some back and forth between Alex and 23 Michael. 24 Q So I'd like to direct your attention to page four. 25 There is an e-mail from Michael Cohen to Alex Hill with you	1 team CEO talking about the future of the Buffalo Bills and why 2 it's such a great asset. 3 Q Did the Trump Organization in fact receive a management 4 presentation? 5 A They did. 6 Q Were you present? 7 A I was. 8 Q Who from the Trump Organization do you recall 9 attending? 10 A I know Donald Trump was there. I don't recall who 11 else. He had people with him, but I don't recall those people 12 were. 13 Q What, if anything, do you recall being discussed at the 14 management presentation? 15 A We talked about the Buffalo Bills and lots of topics. 16 We talked about the USFL, we talked about lots of things, but it 17 was sort of a wide-ranging conversation. 18 Q Do you recall whether Mr. Trump provided any documents 19 to you at the presentation? 20 A He gave us handouts of the Forbes list of top paid 21 entertainers. 22 Q On page two of the e-mail Alex Hill writes a message to 23 Jason Greenblatt and Michael Cohen with you cc'd that says: 24 "One near term NFL item we would like you all to fill out and 25 have Mr. Trump sign is the attached Authorization and Consent to
D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2890 1 cc'd. Do you see that? 2 A Yes, yes. 3 Q And who is Alex Hill? 4 A Alex was a colleague of mine, somebody -- a member of 5 my team at Morgan Stanley. 6 Q The e-mail says: "Alex, Jason Greenblatt and I just 7 dropped off a packet with Margay at your office for Don. Can 8 you please ensure he receives it and advise me so I can confirm 9 to Mr. Trump its receipt? Thank you." 10 What is your understanding of what Michael Cohen meant 11 when he said he dropped off the packet for Don? 12 A The bid package. 13 Q And the bid -- what did the bid package contain? 14 A I know it contained a letter, the two letters that we 15 saw. I don't know if there is anything else. 16 Q So in the middle of page three, Alex Hill sends a 17 message to Michael Cohen and to you saying "regarding management 18 presentation dates, would you all be able to do August 6th in 19 Detroit?" What is a management presentation as described in 20 this e-mail? 21 A Sure. So as I talked about in the second part of the 22 MNA process as part of diligence we would provide potential 23 bidders an opportunity to meet with the management team. 24 Typically, what happens in those meetings is the management team 25 presents the story of the asset. So in this case it was the	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2892 1 Release Records." What is the Authorization and Consent to 2 Release Records? 3 A So in order to purchase an NFL team you have to go 4 through a very thorough financial review with the league office. 5 As we progressed through the process we want to make sure that 6 bidders are getting the appropriate paperwork into the league so 7 they can begin that process because it does take sometime so 8 that Authorization and Consent to Release Records is something 9 we need from each perspective bidder so therefore the NFL can go 10 and start doing their diligence. 11 Q So at the very first message in this document is a 12 message from Michael Cohen that says "after some internal 13 deliberation, we feel it is premature to sign the consent to 14 release forms until such time as we know that Mr. Trump is the 15 final bidder." Do you recall learning in or about August 2014 16 that the Trump Organization was refusing to sign the consent to 17 release records? 18 A I do. 19 Q Did Morgan Stanley ever receive signed consent to 20 release records forms? 21 A We did not. 22 Q After the management presentation that we just 23 discussed did the bidding process continue? 24 A It did. 25 Q What happened next?

1 A We continued having those meetings with other parties. 2 Several parties took stadium tours. We then asked for final 3 bids. I don't recall the exact date. We got those final bids 4 and we decided on the winning bidder. That winning bidder then 5 went through the NFL approval process and became owners of the 6 team I believe in October that year. 7 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Before we get to that really 8 quickly, Your Honor, I move to admit PX 3274 into evidence. 9 THE COURT: Granted. 10 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Relevance. Statute of 11 limitations. 12 THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It's in. 13 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 14 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3274 in 15 evidence.) 16 Q I'll now hand the witness for identification a document 17 marked PX 3219. Do you recognize this document? 18 A I do. 19 Q What do you recognize it to be? 20 A This is a letter or an e-mail from Daniel Barzac, who 21 is a member of my team, to me discussing a draft of what we call 22 fairness materials. 23 Q What are fairness materials? 24 A So in certain circumstances an investment bank will 25 provide what's called a fairness opinions to -- mostly a board	1 A Terry and Kim Pegula. 2 Q How much is the purchase price listed? 3 A $1.4 billion. 4 Q Did the Pegulas in fact purchase the Bills for 5 $1.4 billion? 6 A Yes. 7 Q Does this -- do these attached fairness materials 8 accurately summarize the terms of the transaction? 9 A Yes. 10 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Your Honor, I move to admit PX 11 3219 into evidence. 12 MR. FIELDS: Objection. Statute of limitations. 13 THE COURT: What's the relevance of this? This 14 particular page, let's say? 15 MR. FINKELSTEIN: So this page was just to 16 summarize the final result of the transaction and the other 17 page was to show that Donald Trump participated in all three 18 stages of the bidding process, even though his bid did not 19 turn out to be the final. 20 MR. FERIS: Your Honor, it's the defendants's 21 position none of this is relevant to any cause of this case. 22 We agree with Your Honor here. This is completely 23 irrelevant. 24 THE COURT: I just asked the question. What's the 25 relevance of the final bid? We know the successful bid.
D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2894 1 of directors, but in this case we were providing that fairness 2 opinion to the trustees of Ralph Wilson's estate. 3 Q So on page five of this exhibit there is a slide titled 4 "Evolution of Participants." 5 A That's a good title. 6 Q The slide states that nine parties gave initial 7 indications. Was Donald Trump one of those nine parties? 8 A He was. 9 Q The slide states that five parties received management 10 presentations. Was Donald Trump one of those five parties? 11 A He was. 12 Q The slide states that six parties gave final offers. 13 Was Donald Trump one of those parties? 14 A Don't recall the nature of his final offer. 15 Q But he is? 16 A Listed, yes. 17 Q Is Donald Trump's name listed? 18 A Yes, it is. 19 Q Do you have any reason to dispute that Donald Trump 20 provided a final -- 21 A No. 22 Q So going back to page four, the slide is titled 23 "Summary of Key Transaction Terms." Do you see that? 24 A I do. 25 Q Who is the purchaser of this bid on this page?	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2896 1 Attorney General? 2 MR. FINKELSTEIN: I am offering it for 3 clarification just to show the full story on the Bills' 4 transaction. The amount of the bid is not necessarily 5 relevant, just I was just trying to show that Donald Trump 6 was not the ultimate buyer. 7 THE COURT: I'll let it in. There is no jury, 8 doesn't really matter, but I understand you're completing 9 the circle. 10 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 11 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3219 in 12 evidence.) 13 MR. FINKELSTEIN: That's all. And I have no 14 further questions. 15 THE COURT: Okay. Any cross examination? 16 MR. FERIS: Yes, Your Honor. 17 THE COURT: Counselor, I don't believe we ever met. 18 MR. FERIS: My name is Ivan Feris, Your Honor. 19 Can you hear me, Your Honor? 20 THE COURT: Loud and clear. 21 MR. FERRIS: Awesome. As I was saying, my name is 22 Ivan Feris, and I'm here on behalf of several of the 23 corporate defendants in this matter. 24 THE COURT: Welcome. 25 MR. FERRIS: Thank you.

Page 2897 1 And if it may please the Court, I would like to 2 proceed. 3 THE COURT: Please do so. 4 DIRECT EXAMINATION 5 BY MR. FERIS: 6 Q Hello, Mr. Cornwell. 7 A How are you? 8 Q As you heard, my name is Ivan Feris. I'm going to ask 9 you a series of yes-or-no questions and to the best of your 10 ability, please try to answer them with yes or no, okay? 11 So, we just heard from you that President Trump was not 12 the ultimate buyer of the Bills; correct? 13 A Yes. 14 Q I want to talk a little bit about how the process of 15 selling a professional football team works. 16 You told us here in your direct examination that Morgan 17 Stanley had to compete for a spot to sell the Bills? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And the process started somewhere in April of 2014 or 20 closer to that date; right? 21 A I don't exactly recall. 22 Transcript continues on the following page.... 23 24 25	Page 2899 D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) 1 Q You said that your "best guess is GS, JPM based on 2 their experience and league relationships," right? 3 A Yes, that's what I wrote. 4 Q So other banks were involved in the bake off, right? 5 A Yes. 6 Q Correct. So -- and Morgan Stanley was ultimately the 7 bank chosen out of the options? 8 A Yes. 9 Q And Morgan Stanley had an incentive to put a list 10 together of suitable buyers, right? 11 A I don't understand the question. 12 Q You weren't just going to put anybody on that list? 13 A No, I wouldn't just put anybody on the list. 14 Q Morgan Stanley had to stand by that list, right? 15 A No, nothing binding about the list. 16 Q Nothing binding, but Morgan Stanley's name was on the 17 list, right, that it submitted? 18 A We would not have been a buyer of the Buffalo Bills. 19 Q Can you repeat that? 20 A Morgan Stanley would not have been -- I don't 21 understand the question. 22 Q Morgan Stanley would submit the list of buyers on 23 behalf of Morgan Stanley trying to get chosen as the bank who 24 would broker the sale, right? 25 A Yeah. The process wasn't one where we submitted a
D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2898 1 Q And you as a member of Morgan Stanley and Morgan 2 Stanley as a bank had to participate in what is known as a bake 3 off for the opportunity, right? 4 A Yes. 5 Q Okay. So this bake off, Morgan Stanley would gather a 6 list of potential buyers and eventually make a pitch to the 7 seller of the team, correct? 8 A No. 9 Q You told us here on your direct that you would gather 10 potential buyers and that was Morgan Stanley's role, right? 11 A We did more than that, yes. We presented our 12 credentials. 13 Q That was part of what you did, though, right, gather 14 the list of buyers? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And other banks did the same thing? 17 A I don't know. 18 MR. FERIS: Can I pull up document D1001, please. 19 Q I'm showing you this document, Mr. Cornwell, to see if 20 it refreshes your recollection. Right at the top, it says, 21 "From Cornwell K. Don." That's you, right? 22 A Yes. 23 Q It says, "Three banks invited including us" in the 24 second bullet point. Do you see that there? 25 A Yes.	D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2900 1 list. 2 Q You didn't submit a list? What -- 3 A That's not how that works. 4 Q We'll come back to that later, sir. 5 In the list of buyers that you did put together, you 6 placed Donald Trump, the President of the United States later, 7 he later became the president on the list, right? 8 A Yes. He had publicly indicated he was interested in 9 the team. 10 Q And the list was eventually submitted to the CFO of the 11 Bills, right? 12 A Presented to. 13 Q Presented. 14 A To the trustees. 15 Q And it was also presented to the NFL eventually? 16 A It was discussed with the NFL. 17 Q And even before Morgan Stanley was chosen, you knew 18 President Trump was, right? 19 A Yes. 20 Q That's right. And his name came to your mind even 21 before Morgan Stanley was chosen as the bank that would broker 22 the sale, right? 23 A He probably stated he was interested. He was Tweeting 24 about it. 25 Q But in your mind, Donald Trump was not an option as a

1 buyer, right?
2 A So you're referring to what I wrote here, "Donald Trump
3 is not an option"?
4 Q Correct.
5 A The NFL had or still has a rule around people involved
6 in gaming being prohibited from buying NFL teams. So this was a
7 discussion that needed to happen with the NFL, his suitability
8 for NFL ownership because of his affiliation with casinos.
9 Q So in your mind, he wasn't an option at the time,
10 right?
11 A At that time, yes.
12 Q So one of the things that you said that you looked at 13 was certainty of closing, correct?
14 A Yes.
15 Q But before you started the process, you knew that Trump
16 President Trump was not likely to close; am I right?
17 A We needed to have a conversation with the National 18 Football League.
19 Q Is that a yes, sir?
20 A No.
21 Q But he wasn't an option to you. You admitted that 22 much, right?
23 A We needed to have a conversation actually both with the 24 National Football League and with the Trump Organization to 25 understand where they sat in the gaming world. His affiliations

1 were unclear to us.
2 Q Regardless of how you felt about him, his name came to
3 mind when Morgan Stanley was competing for the chance to broker
4 the sale, correct?
5 A Yes.
6 Q And this was before you actually spoke to President
7 Trump about the sale of the Bills, right?
8 A Yes.
9 Q You needed to have a conversation. You just testified
10 to that, right?
11 A Yes.
12 Q This was before any financial disclosure was provided
13 to you from President Trump, correct?
14 A Yes.
15 MR. FERIS: Can we pull that e-mail back up,
16 please. Your Honor, I would like to move D1001 into
17 evidence.
18 MR. FINKELSTEIN: No objection.
19 THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
20 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 21 Defendant's Exhibit 1001.)
22 Q And even before Morgan Stanley was chosen to broker the 23 sale, President Trump showed some interest in wanting to buy the 24 Buffalo Bills, correct?
25 A Yes.

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2903

1 Q In fact, the chairman of Morgan Stanley communicated
2 with President Trump's interest to you, correct?
3 A Chairman --
4 Q The chairman at the time.
5 A No. No.
6 Q No?
7 MR. FERIS: Can we get on the screen D1002, please.
8 A Jeff's not -- he was not the chairman of Morgan
9 Stanley.
10 Q Doesn't it say the "chairman of the institutional
11 securities"?
12 A That's not Morgan Stanley, so he's -- he had a 13 chairman title. He was not the chairman of Morgan Stanley.
14 Q He was a chairman?
15 A Yes.
16 Q So he was a chairman, just to get it clear?
17 A No, no, not the chairman of the board, but okay.
18 Q He was the chairman of institutional securities at 19 Morgan Stanley, right?
20 A Yes. Yes.
21 Q So that's accurately reflected on that e-mail there,
22 highlighted on the screen?
23 A I assume so, yes.
24 Q Just making sure.
25 And at this time, the bank was still participating in

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2904

1 the bake off, right?
2 A I don't know the timing. I have to -- I don't recall
3 the timing of the various meetings.
4 Q But you thought according to this e-mail that President
5 Trump had no chance of being approved by the NFL? Is that true?
6 I'm looking at page two of the e-mail.
7 A Yes.
8 Q Yes, right.
9 How do you pronounce his name, so I don't butcher it?
10 A Holzschuh.
11 Q So he told you that he had spent some time with Donald
12 Trump, correct?
13 A Correct.
14 Q And he told you that President Trump wanted your help
15 with buying the Bills, right, putting in an offer?
16 A Yes.
17 Q And he asked you what's your view? You were asked by 18 James Head on behalf of Mr. Holzschuh?
19 A Yes.
20 Q You thought that President Trump had little chance of 21 being approved by the NFL, true?
22 A Yes.
23 Q You knew that the president had been previously
24 involved with litigation involving the NFL?
25 A Yes.

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2905

1 Q You told us that here today, right?
2 A Yes.
3 Q But that President Trump's strong show of interest
4 doesn't hurt the process, correct?
5 A I'm sorry. Are you quoting something? Where are you?
6 Q At the top of page two, you said, "That being said, his
7 strong show of interest doesn't hurt the process, which I think
8 will be well-attended both north of the border and down into 9 NYC"?
10 A Yes.
11 Q So President Trump being involved didn't hurt the 12 process?
13 A No.
14 Q That means it helped the process, right?
15 A Hard for me to know.
16 Q You were the managing director at this time, right?
17 A Yeah, but I can't tell you whether it helped or hurt.
18 Q You told us that as a managing director, it was your 19 responsibility to lead these type of transactions?
20 A Yes.
21 Q So you were involved, right? You had information
22 relevant to this, correct? You thought that --
23 A At this point, I'm now looking at the dates. At this
24 point, we weren't hired to sell the team.
25 Q Which was one conflict. "We are of three pitching for

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2906

1 sell side assignment?"
2 A That's correct.
3 Q So at this time, there were conflicts with President
4 Trump potentially?
5 A President Trump had asked if we would represent --
6 Q Sir, yes or no? My question is a yes-or-no question.
7 Did you have a conflict with President Trump; yes or
8 no?
9 A No.
10 Q Is that what you said in your e-mail there?
11 A We hadn't been hired yet.
12 Q So it was a potential conflict?
13 A Potential. There you go.
14 Q Okay. And you said that you thought that wealthy hedge
15 fund guys would take a hard look?
16 A Yes.
17 Q So President Trump being involved attracted other
18 bidders?
19 A I don't know.
20 Q You don't know? So you're telling me here that a
21 world-renowned person like President Trump showing interest in 22 the bills, you don't know if that would have attracted other
23 bidders?
24 A Many times, that can scare away other bidders.
25 Q What was that, sir?

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2907

1 A Many times, that can scare away other bidders.
2 Q But your incentive as the managing director at this
3 time before -- even before the sale was to attract as many
4 bidders as possible, right?
5 A At this time, my incentive was to get hired.
6 Q And you would get hired. You would agree the more
7 bidders you had, the more attractive the bank would be to the 8 seller, right, more qualified bidders?
9 A No.
10 Q So you're saying if you had only one bidder on the 11 list, you were more likely to get chosen?
12 A No.
13 Q No, right.
14 THE COURT: Please, one at a time, so the reporter
15 can take this all down.
16 MR. FERIS: Sure, Your Honor.
17 Q And then the conversation continues with Mr. Holzschuh
18 on the first page of this document and he said that "He probably 19 does have the dough and he told me the bid was 1 billion, so at 20 least he's in the right ballpark," correct?
21 A That's what the e-mail says.
22 Q But he told you that he was glad to pass on Donald
23 Trump if that was the call, correct?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Or at least you could tell him that since you were

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2908

1 baking off, you could hold off the president for a little bit,
2 right?
3 A That's not what the e-mail says.
4 Q "Can certainly tell him we are baking off for sell side
5 and not free until we know the outcome." That's what he said,
6 right?
7 A Correct.
8 Q And you told him that "I can get an unofficial view
9 from the league office on Trump pretty easily if that's 10 helpful"?
11 A Yes.
12 Q So despite certain issues, Morgan Stanley didn't turn 13 away Trump's business outright, correct? I can rephrase my
14 question.
15 A No. I don't understand the question.
16 Q You had the opportunity to pass on President Trump,
17 right?
18 A Pass what?
19 Q Pass on him as a buyer. Is that not what this meant,
20 "glad to pass if that's" --
21 A Representing him.
22 Q As a buyer?
23 A This would be us working for him. That's what this was 24 about. This was us representing him.
25 Q You put President Trump on the ultimate list of buyers,

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2909

1 right?
2 A Yes.
3 Q You didn't have to do that?
4 A So in an estate sale --
5 Q Yes or no, please, sir.
6 THE COURT: It is a yes or no.
7 A No.
8 Q You didn't have to put him on the list?
9 A No.
10 THE COURT: Hold on a second. I'll ask that the 11 witness be excused from the room for a minute and I can talk
12 to the attorneys.
13 (Witness exits the stand.)
14 THE COURT: Well, we spent I don't know how long,
15 but a significant period of time in which the questions seem 16 to elicit some sort of prejudice against President Trump or 17 against some sort of bait and switch. I don't know where we 18 are going with this. I don't know what this proves. Can I
19 get an offer of proof from anybody?
20 MR. KISE: It goes back to what we were talking
21 about this morning, which I think we need to be allowed to 22 make this record whether or not you actually agree with us.
23 They need to establish that there is materiality and 24 reliance. It's not enough that a piece of paper was handed
25 to someone that contained, in your view over our objection,

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2910

1 a false statement. That establishes only one piece of the
2 case. That was the piece of the case that you decided on
3 summary judgment. That doesn't establish anything about
4 this part of the case.
5 The two are not connected necessarily and I
6 respectfully disagree with your conclusion, apparently, that
7 they are because if no one does anything with it, if no one
8 relies on it, then it has no impact of any kind, no real
9 world impact. Even if it is out there, even if it is 10 inaccurate, it has no real impact.
11 So here with this witness, what we will establish
12 is Trump was never a serious bidder in the first place.
13 This guy's dancing all over the place. I'm not sure why,
14 but they never considered him a serious bidder. They took 15 him in to use his name to gin up the price. Sorry. To bid
16 up the price. That's one of those --
17 THE COURT: It's a southern thing.
18 MR. KISE: Right. But that's what they were doing.
19 They were using Trump to manipulate the purchase price
20 thinking that he wasn't really a serious contender at all.
21 And so the financial information that came in, so what,
22 okay? Again, back to my point this morning. Whether that 23 financial information contained something accurate or
24 inaccurate is immaterial if the recipient of the information
25 doesn't do anything with it. Just like with the bank. If

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2911

1 the bank doesn't actually -- you know. So any way, that's
2 really where we are going, to just establish --
3 THE COURT: There was no reliance on the statement.
4 MR. KISE: We think the whole thing is irrelevant
5 because there's no claim or cause of action. We think the 6 entirety of this is not correct so -- and I'll wait. You
7 may have a question. I see that Ms. Greenfield passed you a
8 note, so you may have a question.
9 THE COURT: She's asking me what I'm going to have 10 for lunch.
11 MR. KISE: Okay. I can help you with that. Thank
12 you.
13 THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, would you like to respond?
14 MR. WALLACE: I was just going to say this 15 obviously goes to use and business and repeated use of the 16 false statements. Not every single use is going to generate
17 some disgorgement amount or something else. That's why this 18 is in. That's why it has been introduced. I think part of 19 the reason I guess he's dancing around is I found the 20 questions confusing myself, but obviously, that's the reason
21 why the people are introducing this evidence and it is 22 fairly limited. Thank you.
23 THE COURT: Well, how much longer do you think your
24 cross-examination will be?
25 MR. FERIS: It really depends on how the witness

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2912

1 answers the questions, Your Honor, but not much longer. I
2 think I'll be done before lunch.
3 THE COURT: All right. As is often the case, my
4 attempt to save time is just costing time. So I understand
5 Mr. Kise's point about reliance, so let's get the witness
6 back.
7 Q Welcome back, Mr. Cornwell.
8 A Thank you.
9 Q So before you left, we established that Morgan Stanley
10 didn't flat out turn away President Trump, right?
11 A For what?
12 Q As a buyer, potential buyer.
13 A No.
14 Q No, right. Had the chance to, but didn't, correct?
15 A Sure.
16 Q So let's talk about what Morgan Stanley did before the 17 potential buyer submitted bids.
18 A Yes.
19 Q Now, I'm no expert in the sale of an NFL team, but you
20 would agree with me that the bidding process is essentially a
21 competition between the potential buyers, right?
22 A Yes, and this was an open process because of the estate
23 sale, so we had to talk to all interested parties.
24 Q And the potential buyers would each submit a bid or 25 series of bids, right?

D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2913 1 A That is correct. 2 Q And at this point, Morgan Stanley wouldn't simply turn 3 away buyers if they thought that a bidder was qualified on basic 4 information it had? 5 A We gave all people an opportunity to credentialize 6 themselves. 7 Q And even if a bidder had potential problems, that would 8 ultimately disqualify them in the beginning stages? You weren't 9 turning away buyers, right? 10 A No. 11 Q And you told me that you would vet these buyers, you 12 would give them a chance to qualify themselves? 13 A Credentialize themselves, yes. 14 Q Yes, credentialize. Generally, the more qualified 15 suiters for an NFL team, the higher the ultimate selling price 16 would be, right? That's what drives the competition? 17 A No. No. 18 Q So people don't bid against each other driving up the 19 selling price? Is that what you're telling me? 20 A Sometimes. 21 Q And the higher the selling price, the more money that 22 Morgan Stanley would earn on the deal, right? 23 A I don't recall. 24 Q You don't recall? 25 MR. FERIS: Can I, please, have the Morgan Stanley	D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2915 1 A No. 2 MR. FERIS: We can take it down. 3 Q Part of your job on behalf of the estate was to 4 maximize the selling price, right? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And the bidder might be included in that process simply 7 because they drive up the value, correct? 8 A Restate the question, please. 9 Q A bidder might be included simply because they drive up 10 the value, correct? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And you told me earlier that representatives of Morgan 13 Stanley met with the NFL to discuss potential buyers before bids 14 were submitted, right? 15 A Yes. 16 MR. FERIS: Can we get 1003 up here on the screen. 17 Q This is an e-mail from Robert Kindler on which you're 18 cc'd, your e-mail is cc'd, right? 19 A To Robert Kindler. 20 Q In which you were cc'd from Alex Hill? 21 A Yes. 22 Q And you discussed President Trump at the meeting with 23 the NFL, right? 24 A Yes. 25 Q And the NFL raised some concerns about President
D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2914 1 document up on the screen. I want to go here where it says 2 "brokerage." Can you zoom in on that? 3 Q This is from the Morgan Stanley website. It says, "For 4 brokerage activity, we offer transaction-based pricing in which 5 you pay commissions, sales loads, markups, markdowns, or other 6 fees for each transaction you and your financial advisor 7 execute", correct? 8 MR. FINKELSTEIN: I would like to object to this 9 document that has not been previously identified or 10 otherwise provided to us. 11 MR. FERIS: Your Honor, he doesn't recall and I'm 12 showing him something to refresh his recollection. 13 THE COURT: If it is just to refresh his 14 recollection, you can -- 15 MR. GABER: Does the witness have to indicate what 16 would refresh his -- it is withdrawn. 17 Q So Morgan Stanley earns commissions off the sales 18 price, correct? 19 A That is not related to investment banking, this 20 document. 21 Q This is not about Morgan Stanley's services? 22 A This is about brokerage services. 23 THE COURT: Hold on. I think first you have to ask 24 does this refresh your recollection. 25 Q Does this refresh your recollection, sir?	D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2916 1 Trump's liquidity, true, looking at the fourth bullet point 2 there. 3 A Yes. 4 Q They also question his ability to get votes? 5 A Yes. 6 Q The NFL wanted to look at certain management contracts 7 that President Trump was involved in, correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Despite all this, the NFL was not opposed to Donald 10 Trump submitting a bid, right? 11 A They had no jurisdiction over who submits a bid. 12 Q If I could point you to David Einhorn, it says, 13 "Unlikely, but no problems from the NFL's perspective," right? 14 A Yes. 15 Q So the NFL could have told you, "We have a problem with 16 this person," right? 17 A Yes, but somebody could still submit a bid. 18 Q But they didn't tell you that about Mr. Trump? 19 A Sorry. Tell me what? 20 Q Withdrawn. 21 Morgan Stanley didn't oppose President Trump submitting 22 a bid, right? 23 A No. 24 Q And this meeting took place before any official offer 25 was made, right?

Page 2917 1 A Yes. 2 Q You still had not received any financial representation 3 from President Trump? 4 A No. 5 Q This was just based on the Trump name and the 6 conversation with NFL, right? 7 A No. 8 Q So you had no financial disclosure from President 9 Trump, right? 10 A No. 11 THE COURT: You know, again, and I've been saying 12 this all trial long, when you ask negative questions, "so 13 you didn't, did you," the answer is inherently ambiguous. 14 Just ask him if he did and that's a direction to attorneys. 15 If you can, please, adhere to that. Ask questions -- well, 16 I'll rephrase it. Withdrawn. Don't ask questions in the 17 negative. "You didn't do that, did you." What does yes 18 mean? What does no mean? It is ambiguous. 19 (Continued on the next page.) 20 21 22 23 24 25	Page 2919 D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) 1 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 2 received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 1002 in 3 evidence.) 4 MR. FERIS: Can I get P 0980 on the screen, please? 5 Q I want to talk to you about Morgan Stanley's reaction 6 to the bids. And you went over this document with the Attorney 7 General recently. 8 MR. FERIS: Can we turn to page nine of the 9 document, please? 10 Q This letter is signed by Donald J. Trump; correct? 11 A I don't know. 12 Q That's what the letter represents; right? 13 A That's what it represents, yes. 14 Q And above Donald J. Trump's name it says "Trump 15 Acquisition LLC?" 16 A Yes. 17 Q It doesn't say DJT Holdings LLC; right? 18 A It does not. 19 Q It doesn't say DJT Holdings managing member; right? 20 A No. 21 Q Same question with regard to Trump Organization Inc.? 22 A No. 23 Q Same question to Trump Organization LLC? 24 A No. 25 Q Same question with regard to Trump Endeavor LLC?
Page 2918 D. That was my question. 8 David Einhorn, unlikely? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Where it says "Donald Trump," it doesn't say 11 "unlikely;" right? 12 A Does not say unlikely. 13 Q So I want to -- 14 MR. FERIS: I would like to move Exhibit 1003 into 15 evidence, Your Honor. 16 THE COURT: I'll do whatever you want as long as 17 you're finished soon. I feel like we're spinning on wheels 18 here. Yes, it's in evidence. 19 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 20 received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number 1003 in 21 evidence.) 22 MR. FERIS: We can take this exhibit down. 21 Q And you told us that that bid on July 29, 2014 was a 22 nonbinding bid; right? 23 A That's correct. 24 Q And then based on the bids they received Morgan Stanley 25 put together a bid summary presentation; yes?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2921 1 A Yes. 2 Q And it also put a script together of what it would tell 3 potential buyers that submitted bids; right? 4 A Yes. 5 MR. FERIS: Can we pull up D 1004? 6 Q This was sent to you, right, Mr. Cornwell? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And it says "attached is the bid summary and script." 9 Right? 10 A Yes. 11 MR. FERIS: Your Honor, I would like to move this 12 exhibit into evidence. 13 THE COURT: Granted. It's in. 14 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 15 received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 1004 in 16 evidence.) 17 MR. FERIS: If we could scroll down, please? 18 Let's go to page five. 19 Q Do you see with where it says "Donald T. Trump?" I 20 believe you meant "J" there, right? 21 A Yes. 22 Q Yes, right. 23 A Yes. 24 Q So he submitted a bid for 1 billion? 25 A That's correct.	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2923 1 Q That he would have to? 2 A Not encourage, but he would have to. 3 Q You were telling him to win he needed to raise his bid? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And Pegula, the ultimate buyer, you, Morgan Stanley, 6 planned to tell him you bid enough to get into the next round, 7 but "at the top of your range you were not the highest bidder?" 8 A Yes. 9 Q So you were planning to communicate to Pegula that he 10 needed to raise his bid -- that they needed to raise the bid to 11 be ultimately successful; right? 12 A At the top end of his range he was not the highest 13 bidder. That's what we said. 14 Q Which means that to be successful he would have needed 15 to raise his bid; right? 16 A No. 17 Q So the person with the highest bid doesn't win? 18 A Certainty of closing also matters. 19 Q But one of the factors is whether the bid is -- 20 A Yes. 21 Q -- high in value; correct? 22 A Yes. 23 Q A higher bid would have been beneficial to Morgan 24 Stanley? 25 A I don't understand the question.
D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2922 1 Q And it says that it was "subject to finalization and 2 signing of all documents and approval by the NFL's member 3 clubs?" 4 A Yes. 5 Q So at this time nothing was final? 6 A Nothing was final. 7 Q And then it said he had a stated net worth of in excess 8 of 8 billion? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Correct. 11 MR. FERIS: And let's go down to the script that 12 you were going to speak about with the potential buyers. 13 It's going to be on page 7. 14 Q Morgan Stanley at the time had an intention to tell 15 President Trump that his bid was below several others in the 16 process; right? 17 A Yes. 18 Q But you plan to communicate to him that he could 19 prevail during the diligence process if he could move up in 20 value? 21 A Yes. 22 Q So Morgan Stanley was encouraging President Trump to 23 raise his bid if he wanted to win; right? 24 A That he would have to raise his bid if he wanted to 25 win.	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2924 1 Q The higher the bid the higher the ultimate selling 2 price; right? 3 A The higher the bid the higher the -- yes. 4 MR. FERIS: Let's pull up D 1011, please. Let's go 5 to page two of the document. Let's actually start with page 6 three. 7 Q So at the top of page three you write an e-mail that 8 says "have you given any of the NFL forms to the league yet;" 9 correct? 10 A Yes. 11 Q And then you said "we should discuss the process of 12 starting to get people vetted;" right? 13 A Yes. 14 Q Then your e-mail is responded to saying "certain people 15 had submitted the background forms; Pegula, the JBJ Group and 16 the Kelly Group;" correct? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Now, if we turn to page two you write back, "okay, I'd 19 like to get Trump in as well. We don't have the signature page; 20 correct?" That's what you wrote, right? 21 A Yes. 22 Q So you wanted to get Trump's forms in; correct? 23 A Yes. 24 Q You wanted President Trump as a bidder? 25 A Yes.

1 Q You wanted to keep him around? 2 A Yes. 3 Q Even though he hadn't signed the final consent forms; 4 right? 5 A That's the signature page. That's what we're referring 6 to. I wanted him to sign it, to sign the consent form. 7 Q The signature page of the background forms, right, you 8 wanted him to? 9 A The consent form. 10 Q He hadn't signed it? 11 A He had not signed that. 12 Q So you wanted him as a bidder even though he hadn't 13 signed; right? 14 A I wanted him to sign it. 15 Q You told me right now that you wanted him as a bidder. 16 That was your answer, right? 17 A Yes. In order to be a bidder he needed to sign it. 18 Q Mr. Wayne Katz told you "as far as I know we don't have 19 President Trump's" -- it says "Trump's," but I'm adding the 20 "President Trump" as an honorarium, "background check 21 authorization form and I'd be surprised if we ever get his 22 financials?" 23 A What page are you on? 24 Q I'm on page two. 25 A Yes.	1 active in the data room; right? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And the data room is where a potential buyer receive 4 all of their diligence materials; right? 5 A That's correct. 6 Q When the bidder is not very active in the data room 7 that means they're not really looking at those diligence 8 materials; right? 9 A Yes. 10 Q And in your experience when a bidder is highly 11 interested in a purchase, they're active in data rooms; correct? 12 A Sometimes. 13 Q They want to know where their money is going; correct? 14 Usually? Can we get a verbal response, sir? 15 A Sometimes. 16 Q And then you go on that despite him not being active in 17 the data rooms, despite him not signing the background consent 18 form on page one, you say "yes, still want to keep him around 19 though." That's what you said; right? 20 A Yes. 21 Q You still wanted to keep Donald Trump around; right? 22 A Yes. 23 Q And then you were told "understood, but that's why I 24 think it's hard to get his forms;" right? 25 A Yes.
D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2926 1 Q And you said "I'll talk" -- "we'll talk to him about 2 it. We'll talk to him on Monday about it. He has asked we 3 pre-check him with the league and that's what we want to do." 4 A Yes. 5 Q So President Trump hadn't signed the forms; right? 6 A No. 7 Q But you were still pursuing him as a bidder; right? 8 You were getting him pre-checked with the NFL? 9 A That's signing the forms. 10 Q You said he has asked we pre-check him, so that's what 11 we're going to do; right? 12 A Yes. 13 Q So you were pre-checking him even though the forms were 14 not signed; right? 15 A No. 16 Q That's not what the e-mail says? 17 A There is no pre-checking without the signed form. 18 Q At this point you just told me that Trump hadn't signed 19 the forms, but you were pre-checking him. "So that's what we 20 want to do." 21 A We want to pre-check him. 22 Q And then you were told thereafter, "I hear Trump hasn't 23 been doing anything in the data room;" right? 24 A Yes. 25 Q So you were on notice that President Trump was not	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2928 1 Q When you said "Trump asked to be pre-vetted so that's 2 what we're going to do from his perspective. Better to find out 3 if he is a no go now in a private fashion;" right? 4 A Yes. 5 Q So he hadn't signed the forms, but you were pre-vetting 6 him; right? 7 A No. 8 Q "I've got some pretty good intel he has the money;" 9 right? Yes? 10 A Yes, I wrote that. 11 Q You wrote that. 12 So -- and you wrote "pre-vetting him." That's what it 13 says. That's what we are doing; right? 14 A No. 15 Q That's not what you wrote? 16 A I wrote that, but not -- we -- not Morgan Stanley doing 17 pre-vetting, no. 18 Q Did you write that inaccurately when you wrote it, sir? 19 A I can't answer your question unless I can go outside 20 the yes/no construct. 21 MR. FERIS: Your Honor, at this time I would like 22 to move D 1011 into evidence, sir. 23 THE COURT: Okay. Five-minute warning and I 24 hope -- 25 MR. FERIS: I'm almost done, Your Honor.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2929

1 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
2 received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 1011 in
3 evidence.)
4 THE COURT: Will you be able to finish in five
5 minutes?
6 MR. FERIS: I'm going to try.
7 THE COURT: I may limit you. I mean, I just have
8 to say, Mr. Kise, you pointed out that the cross examination
9 was supposed to show there was a reliance because they
10 weren't going to pick him anyway, but no other questions
11 seem to be they really did want him as a bidder. I don't
12 get where we're going with this. Am I the only one --
13 MR. FERIS: Your Honor, this goes to show Morgan
14 Stanley did want him as a bidder because it helped the 15 process. The witness has testified that it --
16 MR. KISE: The witness is on the stand, Your Honor,
17 so I don't really want to discuss this in front of the 18 witness is all I'm saying. I just want to note again --
19 THE COURT: You don't have to do it again. You
20 already did it. All right. Here's what we'll do: Ten
21 minutes. I really hope that you finish within the ten
22 minutes. I'll ask the witness to answer quickly as best he 23 can and I'll consider just stopping it at that point because 24 I don't see the point.
25 MR. KISE: This never happens with the government,

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2930

1 never. You never put them on the clock.
2 THE COURT: Maybe they ask questions in a different
3 matter.
4 MR. KISE: They don't. They ask a lot of laborious
5 questions and they drag us through a lot of exhibits and 6 lots of things that take a lot of time. They're never 7 questioned about anything they do. I just want to put that 8 on the record because this is becoming a pattern, Your
9 Honor. I'm sorry. Every time something takes a little bit
10 longer with our side it's like you have to hurry up, you
11 have to hurry up, you're on the clock. And, respectfully,
12 that's not fair to us. They spend all the time that they 13 want and I just ask Your Honor to consider that. We're 14 going to move as fast as we can with this witness. As I've 15 told you before, there is -- no one in this courtroom wants 16 to leave here and have this trial over sooner than me.
17 THE COURT: Let's continue.
18 Q Are you aware that Mr. Holzschuh -- you are aware that 19 Mr. Holzschuh encouraged President Trump to put his best offer
20 forward; right?
21 A I'm sorry, where are you?
22 Q I'm not on the document anymore. I'm asking you about
23 your knowledge?
24 A I don't recall.
25 MR. FERIS: Can we pull up D 1012, please?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2931

1 Q You checked off with Mr. Holzschuh about a conversation
2 we had with Trump; right? You told him "how did it go last
3 week."
4 A Yes.
5 Q And he said he will stay in the process; right?
6 A Yes.
7 Q Followed by, "I encourage him to put his best offer
8 forward and let the process work;" correct?
9 A Yes.
10 Q So you were encouraging -- you, being Morgan Stanley --
11 President Trump to put his best offer forward; correct?
12 A Jeff Holzschuh did.
13 Q On behalf of Morgan Stanley?
14 A No.
15 Q You know President Trump is --
16 MR. FERIS: We can take that down.
17 Your Honor, I move this document D 1012 into
18 evidence.
19 THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
20 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 21 received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number 1012 in
22 evidence.)
23 Q You know that President Trump is a real estate
24 developer; right?
25 A Yes.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2932

1 Q A successful one; correct?
2 A I don't know.
3 Q You know he has an interest in several commercial
4 properties in New York?
5 A I don't know.
6 Q Several golf properties around the world?
7 A I don't know.
8 Q You were heading this deal and you don't know about
9 Donald Trump's equity holdings?
10 A I don't know whether he held equity or had a license --
11 he licensed his name. I don't know.
12 Q You would agree with me that you're aware of President
13 Trump's a world renowned brand name; right?
14 A I don't know.
15 Q You're not familiar with the Trump brand?
16 A Yes.
17 Q So you do know about the world renowned brand?
18 A I don't know. World renowned? I don't speak for the 19 world.
20 Q You're aware there is value in that brand, sir?
21 A I don't know.
22 Q You are aware that excluding the brand value Mr. Trump
23 had a net worth of 5.7 billion in 2014?
24 A I don't know.
25 MR. FERIS: Can we pull up on the screen what has

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2933 1 been introduced into evidence as PX 730, please? 2 Q I'm going to represent to you this is Donald Trump's 3 Statement of Financial Condition that the New York Attorney 4 General moved into evidence. 5 If we can turn to page four, please. You see this says 6 "assets" right here, sir? 7 A Yes. 8 Q It lists "cash and marketable securities," right, on 9 the first line? 10 A Yes. 11 Q "Escrow and reserve deposits and prepaid expenses?" 12 A Yes. 13 Q In the second line? 14 A Yes. 15 Q "Real and operating properties;" correct? 16 A Yes. 17 Q If we skip down after all the properties are listed out 18 it says "partnerships and joint ventures net of related debt;" 19 correct? 20 A Yes. 21 Q Says "real estate licensing developments?" 22 A Yes. 23 Q And "other assets?" 24 A Yes. 25 Q It doesn't list "brand" on there anywhere; correct, on	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2935 1 right? 2 A According to what we just read. 3 Q That would be a yes, right, according to what we just 4 read? 5 A Yes. 6 Q Are you aware that Trump's brand value is up to 7 $3 billion? 8 A No. 9 MR. FERIS: Can we pull up PX 431, please? 10 Q And I'll represent to you this is a brand -- a letter 11 from Predictiv, that the value -- that values President Trump's 12 brand. 13 MR. FERIS: If we can turn to the bottom of page 14 two? 15 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Objection. 16 THE COURT: Go ahead. 17 MR. FINKELSTEIN: Hearsay. This exhibit is not in 18 evidence and this witness has no foundation. 19 MR. FERIS: Your Honor, I haven't tried to move 20 this exhibit into evidence. I'm just showing it into 21 evidence. 22 MS. HABBA: It's already into evidence. I brought 23 it in through Michael Cohen. 24 THE COURT: I guess we'll accept that 25 representation that it's already in evidence. Yes, no?
D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2934 1 this page? 2 A I haven't read it in full, but I assume it does not. 3 Q You don't see it on there right now? 4 A I don't see it. 5 MR. FERIS: We can turn to the next page. 6 Q Now, his net worth there is listed as 5.7 just to round 7 or for time consistency as his net worth; correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q And, again, we just went through that it's free of any 10 brand value; right? 11 MR. FERIS: If we turn to the next page? 12 Q In the bottom paragraph at the top it says "pursuant to 13 GAAP, this financial statement does not reflect the value of 14 Donald J. Trump's worldwide reputation; however, the brand value 15 has afforded Mr. Trump the opportunity to participate in 16 licensing deals around the globe as reflected on the balance 17 sheet therein." Do you see that? 18 A I do. 19 Q And then the final sentence of this says "the goodwill 20 attached to the Trump name has significant financial value that 21 has not been reflected in the preparation of this financial 22 statement." Do you see that? 23 A I do. 24 Q So this financial statement with a 5.7 billion net 25 worth does not include brand, according to what we just read;	D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2936 1 MR. GABER: Was this introduced for the truth of 2 the matter asserted at the time or just for notice purposes? 3 THE COURT: Might just be notice. Anyone remember? 4 MS. HABBA: I mean, I can look back, Your Honor. I 5 believe we brought it in for the truth of the matter 6 asserted, but it was solely -- I will tell you the part I 7 brought in was the last sentence where it said the value 8 only. 9 MR. WALLACE: We're happy to just have our 10 objection noted and keep it moving. 11 MS. HABBA: Yes, we can keep it moving. 12 THE COURT: I don't know what this witness has to 13 do with this, but okay. Go ahead. Objection overruled 14 without prejudice. 15 Q Do you see where it says: Based on the information 16 provided it was concluded that the value of the Trump brand was 17 in the 2.8 to $3 billion range?" 18 A I do see that. 19 Q You would agree with me that 5.7 plus 3 billion is 20 8.7 billion? 21 A Yes. 22 Q And that's in excess of 8 billion? 23 A Yes. 24 MR. FERIS: Your Honor, will the Court take 25 judicial notice that 5.7 plus three billion is 8.7 billion?

1 THE COURT: I hereby take judicial notice of it.
2 Q Just to remove all room for doubt, Trump didn't
3 actually buy the Bills; correct?
4 A He did not.
5 MR. FERIS: If I could have one moment to confer
6 with Counsel?
7 THE COURT: Sure, go ahead.
8 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
9 MR. FERIS: No further questions, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: Will there be any redirect?
11 MR. FINKELSTEIN: No, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: That's that. The witness is excused,
13 and I'll see you all at 2:15.
14 MS. HABBA: Your Honor?
15 THE COURT: Wait, wait. Don't go away.
16 MS. HABBA: I just have a housekeeping matter.
17 THE COURT: Well, the witness is excused.
18 What is the housekeeping matter?
19 MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor. My far smarter
20 associates have corrected some exhibit numbers that were in 21 the record wrong when I cross examined Michael Cohen, so I
22 just wanted to clean it up and make a record. I showed 23 them. If I could just put that on the record quickly?
24 THE COURT: How long about will it take?
25 MS. HABBA: Two seconds.

Page 2938
1 Record page 2356, exhibit on the record was D 995.
2 What the record should reflect is D 955.
3 Record 2361, this is not really relevant. D 958-3
4 is on the record. It should just be D 958, no -3.
5 2364 record page. PX 341 is the exhibit on the
6 record. It should be D 984.
7 And the last one is record page 2400. Exhibit on 8 the record is PX 987. It should reflect D 988.
9 I'm -- I will give this to the Attorney General, as 10 well, so if they have any objection they can put it on.
11 THE COURT: Any objections you can raise later.
12 MS. HABBA: Thank you.
13 THE COURT: For the time being we'll assume that's 14 all correct. All right. Have a good lunch, everyone.
15 (Whereupon, there is a luncheon recess in the 16 proceedings.)

3 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
4 session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding.
5 Please be seated and come to order.
6 THE COURT: I know you're ready to call your next
7 witness because the guy is standing there walking around
8 like that. Would you like to call your next witness?
9 MR. HAREN: Yes, we would. The people call David
10 Orowitz. I understand Mr. Wallace has one matter to place
11 on the record before we begin.
12 MR. WALLACE: Cleaning up from the last
13 examination, there was a question as to whether Plaintiff's
14 Exhibit 431 had been entered into evidence. This was the --
15 THE COURT: Right.
16 MR. WALLACE: Valuation. It was sought to be 17 introduced during Mr. Cohen's testimony. The objection was 18 sustained. I don't know that it needs to change anything
19 else on the record, but since I just wanted it to be 20 reflected, that that's where we understood it came out.
21 THE COURT: Okay. So we all agree it is not in 22 evidence. Thank you.
23 MR. HAREN: We call David Orowitz.
24 THE COURT: Can we get Mr. Orowitz.
25 THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2940
1 D A V I D O R O W I T Z , a witness called by the People,
2 after having been first duly sworn by the Clerk of the Court,
3 took the witness stand and testified as follows:
4 THE COURT OFFICER: State your full name and your
5 business or home address on the record.
6 THE WITNESS: David Orowitz.
7 THE COURT: You are going to have to talk a lot
8 closer to the microphone.
9 THE WITNESS: Okay.
10 THE COURT: Keep your voice up, of course.
11 THE WITNESS: David Orowitz. 600 West 111th, New 12 York, New York.
13 THE COURT: Please proceed with the questioning.
14 MR. HAREN: Thank you, Your Honor.
15 DIRECT EXAMINATION
16 BY MR. HAREN:
17 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Orowitz. My name is Eric Haren. I
18 am an attorney with the Attorney General's office. Thank you
19 for being here.
20 Can you, please, describe your educational background
21 after high school?
22 A I went to Hamilton College for undergraduate and I went 23 to the Wharton School at University of Pennsylvania for my 24 M.B.A.
25 Q Do you hold any professional licenses?

D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2941 1 A No. 2 Q Do you have any professional certifications? 3 A No. 4 Q Can you, please, describe your employment history after 5 college? 6 A After undergraduate, I worked at Kaiser Associates 7 which was a strategy consulting firm. Then I went for my M.B.A. 8 for two years, then went to the Trump Organization for eight 9 years, and then after that and since then, I've worked at L&L 10 Holding. 11 Q At what? Sorry. I didn't hear that. 12 A L&L Holding. 13 Q Thank you. Can you describe just in general terms your 14 history of working for the Trump Organization? 15 A I joined as a summer intern in between my two years of 16 my M.B.A. and then I joined full time at the end of the summer 17 after I graduated from business school. 18 Q And approximately what year was that? 19 A 2008. 20 Q So you joined as a full-time employee of the Trump 21 Organization in 2008? 22 A Correct. 23 Q Okay. And who offered you the full-time position at 24 the Trump Organization? 25 A Donald J. Trump, Jr.	D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2943 1 employment at the Trump Organization? 2 A Yes. 3 Q Speaking generally, what projects did you work on with 4 Ivanka Trump? 5 A I worked on the Old Post Office, the acquisition and 6 financing of Doral, the refinancing of Trump Chicago, and 7 several brand licensing deals around the world. 8 Q And same question for Eric Trump. 9 A Eric Trump, I worked on and off with him, but I would 10 say one of the things I worked with him on was the retail at 11 Trump Chicago and I'm sure a number of other things while I was 12 there. 13 Q And same question for Donald Trump, Jr. 14 A With Donald Trump, Jr., I worked on some of the leasing 15 at the Old Post Office and some of the Trump India brand 16 licensing deals. 17 Q Who do you understand to have worked in the accounting 18 department while you worked at the Trump Organization? 19 A Allen Weisselberg, Jeffrey McConney, Donna Kidder, I 20 believe Patrick Birney. 21 Q And in terms of the physical layout of the office, 22 where was the accounting department located? 23 A The accounting department was on the 18th floor. 24 Q Where was Mr. Weisselberg's office located? 25 A On the 18th floor.
D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2942 1 Q Could you walk us through your titles at the Trump 2 Organization from 2008 until when you left? 3 A When I joined, I was VP of acquisition and development 4 and when I left, I was SVP, senior vice-president of 5 acquisitions and development. 6 Q There came a time when you were promoted from 7 vice-president to senior vice-president? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Who offered you that promotion? 10 A It was the Trump -- the Trump kids. I don't remember 11 specifically who. 12 Q So by kids, who are you referring to? 13 A Sorry. Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump. 14 Q Thank you. Who did you report to when you worked for 15 the Trump Organization? 16 A I reported to Donald Trump, Jr. and Ivanka Trump and 17 Eric Trump. 18 Q And was that reporting structure the same throughout 19 your tenure at the Trump Organization? 20 A Yes. 21 Q Approximately when did you leave your employment at the 22 Trump Organization? 23 A I left in October of 2016. 24 Q Is it correct that you frequently met or spoke with 25 Donald Trump, Jr., Eric Trump and Ivanka Trump during your	D. D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2945 1 A That his goal was for it to be represented higher on 2 the listing. 3 Q Thank you. During your time at the Trump Organization, 4 did you ever have an understanding about a report on Mr. Trump's 5 net worth? 6 A Could you clarify what kind of report you mean? 7 Q A financial statement about Mr. Trump's net worth. 8 A Yes. 9 Q How did you gain that understanding? 10 A There was a transaction that I was working on where he 11 needed to provide a statement to his net worth. 12 Q Which transaction was that? 13 A It may have been more than one, but I know that it was 14 in relation to the Old Post Office. 15 Q When you say "in relation to the Old Post Office, can 16 you be more specific about what you mean? 17 A It was in relation to when we put the RFP response 18 together in reaction to the original request for proposals. We 19 had to demonstrate financial wherewithal and his statement was 20 needed for that purpose. 21 Q Thank you. 22 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, a continuing objection to 23 this line of questioning. The RFP was well outside the 24 statute of limitations. 25 THE COURT: Duly noted. Usual ruling.	D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. Do you see 16 that? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Do you have an understanding of what that refers to? 19 A I believe this was another financial institution that 20 was a potential lender for Doral. 21 Q And there are other references here to Macquaire, 22 Criterion, Colony, Baupost and HSBC. 23 It's your understanding that those are potential 24 sources of financing? 25 A Yes. I don't recall at the time all of them being
D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2946 1 Q Mr. Orowitz, I would like to change topics to the Doral 2 transaction. 3 Do you have a general recollection of when the Trump 4 Organization purchased the Doral property and obtained 5 associated financing? 6 A Yes, it was generally in the early 2010s. 7 Q What was your role in that process? 8 A I was involved with putting together the underwriting. 9 I was involved with the 1031 auction or that may not be what it 10 is called, the bankruptcy auction because we were buying another 11 bankruptcy estate and I was involved in the financing. 12 MR. HAREN: I'd like to have marked for 13 identification PX 3243. I would like to pull it up on the 14 screen. 15 Q Mr. Orowitz, the document on the screen, as you will 16 see on the first page, begins with an e-mail from Ronnie Levine 17 to Ivanka Trump and in the e-mail address, it states that Ronnie 18 Levine is from meridiancapital.com and the e-mail is forwarded 19 to you. Do you see that? 20 A Yes. 21 Q Can you describe the role of Meridian Capital in 22 connection with the Doral transaction? 23 A My recollection is that they were helping to find 24 potential lenders. 25 Q Helping meaning they were -- were they engaged by the	D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2948 1 involved, but yes, based on this e-mail, that appears to be the 2 case. 3 Q There is a question in the e-mail on the first page 4 that reads, "Have you received any feedback from DB." 5 What do you understand that to be a reference to? 6 A I would presume this was asking whether Meridian heard 7 back from DB about their interest in the loan. 8 Q DB, is that Deutsche Bank? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Moving to the top of the page, there is a response from 11 Ivanka Trump that reads, "I actually spoke to Todd Harrison at 12 Colony today (I know Todd through Jared as well). We are 13 partners on another deal together. He said that we wouldn't do 14 a deal with them on the debt side as they are too expensive for 15 what we'd be looking for (low teens)." 16 What do you understand "low teens" to refer to in the 17 context of this e-mail? 18 A I would assume it refers to the interest rate. 19 MR. HAREN: Your Honor, I move this exhibit into 20 evidence. 21 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, continuing objection on 22 statute of limitations and objection to this whole line of 23 questioning. 24 THE COURT: Overruled, but I will consider it a 25 continuing objection.

D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2949 1 MR. ROBERT: Thank you. 2 THE COURT: Okay. It is in. 3 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 4 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3243.) 5 MR. HAREN: Moving to a different document. This 6 is Plaintiff's Exhibit 3244. 7 Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize this set of e-mails? 8 A I don't remember it, no. 9 Q But it does appear to be an e-mail chain involving you 10 in the middle of the first page? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And looking at page one, there is an e-mail from again 13 Ronnie Levine at Meridian Capital to Ivanka Trump that copies 14 you. Do you see that? 15 A Yes. 16 Q The e-mail states, "Citi has all the info on the deal, 17 but I don't think they are going to make an offer." What do you 18 understand that to refer to? 19 A I would presume that Meridian had sent over due 20 diligence materials and offering memoranda related to the 21 transaction and that Citi was not interested in being a lender. 22 Q City refers to? 23 A Citibank. 24 Q Again, on page one, there is a statement that reads, 25 "They might consider a low-leverage first mortgage, but it would	D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2951 1 THE COURT: I think we've been over this many 2 times. You still feel that you need to object every time 3 even though it is a continued objection because it is a 4 document, not testimony? 5 MR. ROBERT: Yes, sir. 6 THE COURT: I'm learning. All right. Do what you 7 feel you have to do. Overruled. It is in. 8 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 9 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3244.) 10 MR. HAREN: I've handed or the witness has been 11 handed plaintiff's Exhibit 3247. That document is also up 12 on the screen. 13 Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize, if you could take a 14 moment to look through it, the e-mail and the attachment that 15 follows. 16 (Witness reviewing document.) 17 A I don't recognize it specifically, no. 18 Q Do you see there at the bottom of the first page is an 19 e-mail from Ivanka Trump to Enrique E. Morelos Zaragoza on 20 November 28, 2011? 21 A Yes. 22 Q And the e-mail is then forwarded to you? 23 A Yes. 24 Q And the e-mail from Ms. Trump refers to "Inbursa's term 25 sheet" at the beginning of the first paragraph. Do you see
D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2950 1 be sized to a ten percent debt yield on the in-place cash flow. 2 Even that would be a stretch for them." 3 Do you have an understanding of those sentences? 4 A Yes. 5 Q What's your understanding? 6 A Debt yield is the percentage of the assets or the debt 7 that proceeds, so it is the income divided by the debt. So this 8 is basically saying that they would only lend ten times whatever 9 the current cash flow or income was of the asset. 10 Q Continuing that same e-mail, there's the next paragraph 11 reads, "I spoke with Loancore early last week. My 12 brother-in-law works at Jefferies and is on the JLC credit 13 committee. This transaction is too large for them and they are 14 generally not looking to do deals with large renovation 15 components." 16 What's your understanding of that information? 17 A My interpretation of it is that they had reached out to 18 Loancore and Loancore wasn't able to do loans this large or 19 loans on assets that required investment in improving them. 20 Q What is Loancore? 21 A I'm not familiar with Loancore. 22 Q Do you have an understanding what Loancore is? 23 A -- I believe they are a real estate lender. 24 MR. HAREN: I move Exhibit P X 3244 in evidence. 25 MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.	D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2952 1 that? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And then you can see at the top of the first page, 4 there's an attachment entitled "inbursatermsheet.docx"? 5 A Yes. 6 Q If you could look then to page -- beginning on page 7 three, do you see a document that appears to be a term sheet 8 from Inbursa Grupo Financiero? 9 A Yes. 10 Q It refers to Donald Trump as the sponsor? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And it refers to the sponsor as the guarantor? 13 A Yes. 14 MR. HAREN: I move Plaintiff's Exhibit 3247 into 15 evidence. 16 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations and relevance. 17 THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It is in 18 evidence. 19 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 20 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3247.) 21 Q Mr. Orowitz, we're going to move to some information 22 from another potential lender. We're looking at Plaintiff's 23 Exhibit 3231. 24 MR. HAREN: Could we pull down -- I have the wrong 25 document in front of me, so let me try to fix that. One

D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2953 1 moment, Your Honor. 2 THE COURT: Yes. 3 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I apologize for 4 interrupting Mr. Haren. I want to note for the record that 5 there appears to be no attorney right now for Donald Trump, 6 for Mr. Weisselberg or for Mr. McConney and I just want to 7 know if the defendants have made some arrangements for this 8 absence, but I don't believe either Mr. Robert or Mr. Kise 9 represent those individuals. 10 MR. KISE: I certainly represent Donald Trump 11 whether it says so on the docket or not. I mean, that's 12 been obvious since the beginning, that I'm the lead counsel 13 and if you want to ask him next time he's here, you can ask 14 him, but there's no question as to that. I think Mr. Gabra 15 is here. He may be in the back watching, but I think -- I 16 mean in the video room watching, but I'll confirm that. 17 For Mr. Weisselberg and McConney, I clearly do not 18 represent Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney, but I can check 19 on that momentarily. We can continue the proceeding and I 20 can -- if you'll allow me to go check, I could go do that. 21 THE COURT: Of course. 22 MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge. 23 MR. HAREN: You could put the document you've been 24 handed to the side. We will move to a different one and see 25 if we can correct that issue.	D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2955 1 "Doral term sheet 111114 "which I assume is November 11, 2014 -- 2 November 14, 2011. 3 Is it fair to say that this document represents a 4 transmittal of a term sheet with Beal Bank or CSG Investments 5 regarding the Doral property? 6 A Yes. 7 Q If we could take a look at the attachment. Do you see 8 that this document appears to be such a term sheet? 9 A Yes. 10 Q It contains an interest rate term of LIBOR plus 11 5.5 percent? 12 A Yes. 13 Q And do you see that it provides a floor rate of two 14 percent? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And there's a default interest rate of five percent 17 above the interest rate? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And on page three, there are a series of additional 20 fees including an upfront fee, a breakage fee. Do you see 21 those? 22 A Yes. 23 MR. HAREN: Your Honor, I move Plaintiff's 24 Exhibit 3232 into evidence. 25 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and
D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2954 1 MR. KISE: He is now here, Your Honor. I 2 appreciate the concern of the government for representation. 3 MR. WALLACE: We want to keep the record clean. 4 Q So Mr. Orowitz, you have in front of you Plaintiff's 5 Exhibit 3232. You see on the top of the first page, there's an 6 e-mail from someone named Steve Harvey to you and Ivanka Trump 7 copying Jacob Turner and some other people and the e-mail 8 signature states that Steven L. Harvey is an executive 9 vice-president at CSG Investment, Inc. 10 Do you have an understanding as to who Mr. Harvey is in 11 the context of this e-mail? 12 A I don't have a recollection of it, no. 13 Q Are you familiar generally with Beal Bank and CSG 14 Investments? 15 A Yes. 16 Q What is your understanding of those entities? 17 A They're affiliated entities that are both owned or 18 partially owned by Andy Beal. 19 Q And then are they potential sources of financing? 20 A Yes. 21 Q So the e-mail states, "Attached is a redraft of the 22 term sheet based on our conversation today. If you find this 23 acceptable, the next step for us will be a loan application, 24 which I am working on right now." 25 And you can see that there is an attachment entitled,	D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2956 1 hearsay and relevance. 2 MR. HAREN: Your Honor, this is a term sheet for a 3 potential loan received by Mr. Orowitz and Ivanka Trump at 4 the Trump Organization. They are right there in the "to" 5 line in the e-mail. 6 MR. ROBERT: It is not prepared by the witness. It 7 is prepared someone. It is an out-of-court statement and it 8 was produced by whoever Beal is. I don't know who that is. 9 MR. HAREN: It is a bank that offered terms to the 10 Trump Organization for a potential loan and I'm introducing 11 it for notice for the terms that were offered. 12 MR. ROBERT: Notice of what to whom? Notice that 13 there was a term sheet, but not any of the contents of the 14 term sheet including the amount or the interest rate, 15 correct? 16 MR. HAREN: The term sheet is contained in the 17 document beginning at page two, portions of which I read to 18 the witness and that do specify the interest rate, loan 19 term, loan amount and other terms. 20 THE COURT: It's in simply for the notice of what's 21 in it, not for the truth of the statements asserted. 22 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 23 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3232.) 24 MR. HAREN: Your Honor, I have another exhibit, but 25 before I show it to the witness, it's my understanding that

1 it is still subject to a confidentiality designation under
2 the protective order, so I wanted to hand a copy up to the 3 Court and to counsel.
4 THE COURT: Is there an issue about showing this to 5 the witness? Mr. Haren, is that a threshold question?
6 MR. HAREN: I don't think there should be an
7 objection. It is a perfectly appropriate document that 8 could be shown to the witness and support in kind to the 9 other documents I showed the witness, but just want to make
10 sure -- the protective order allows that the Court can 11 order that I can show it to him, so I think that that would 12 be appropriate.
13 THE COURT: I'll give them, defendants, a moment to 14 look at it.
15 MR. KISE: Is the question as to the protective 16 order, the confidentiality order?
17 THE COURT: Yes.
18 MR. HAREN: Yes.
19 MR. KISE: No, there is no objection on that 20 ground. I could come up with a lot of other objections, but 21 not on that.
22 THE COURT: You probably already have. You can
23 show it to the witness.
24 MR. HAREN: Thank you, Your Honor.
25 Q So, Mr. Orowitz, you could see on the first page of

D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2958

1 Exhibit 3233 that there's an e-mail exchange involving you and
2 Ivanka Trump and Jacob Turner and Steve Harvey at CSG
3 Investments. Do you see that.
4 A Yes.
5 Q The e-mail states in the second line, "I understand
6 that there is no need to discuss the $130 million comment on the 7 markup (CSG is not going to get to that advance level)."
8 Do you have an understanding of what that line
9 indicates?
10 A Yes, I believe it refers to the loan proceeds that they
11 would be willing to loan.
12 Q The e-mail also states, "We had a number of 13 discussions" --
14 MR. KISE: Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: Hold on.
16 MR. KISE: So the confidentiality, are we asking
17 him questions about a document that's not in evidence that 18 he can't authenticate or can he? I don't know. I did not
19 see that he did. Maybe he did.
20 Q Mr. Orowitz, did you receive this e-mail?
21 A I don't -- I don't recall receiving it.
22 Q Do you see in the "to" line that it states "David 23 Orowitz"?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Do you have any reason to doubt that you received this

D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2959

1 e-mail?
2 A No.
3 Q Do you understand that it contained responses from CSG
4 Investments concerning potential loan terms?
5 A Yes.
6 MR. HAREN: Your Honor, I move to admit Plaintiff's
7 3233 in evidence for notice.
8 MR. ROBERT: I want to be clear with this for 9 notice. Notice of what? I mean, if you intend to try to 10 show later with this document and the other document that 11 there's certain interest rates that are here, that's not 12 notice. So let's just be clear. You want this notice of 13 who of what?
14 MR. HAREN: I want it for notice that Ivanka Trump
15 and David Orowitz at the Trump Organization were expressly 16 advised about potential loan terms from Beal. That's what 17 that document provides them notice of.
18 MR. ROBERT: Not any of the terms of the loan
19 because the terms of the proposed loan are hearsay.
20 MR. HAREN: I don't understand how they are hearsay
21 if they were expressly advised what the terms would be.
22 THE COURT: They are not hearsay. I don't know
23 what you mean by that.
24 MR. ROBERT: A statement coming from Jacob Turner
25 who is not a party, sending an e-mail, making a statement of

D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2960

1 potential terms, that's quintessential hearsay.
2 THE COURT: It is not being introduced to prove the 3 truth of the contents, just that the recipients were 4 notified that this sender was willing to do these terms. Is
5 that what I --
6 MR. HAREN: Yes.
7 MR. ROBERT: That goes to the truth of the matter
8 asserted. We are now interpreting that to mean that the 9 lender was going to go ahead on these terms. That, in 10 essence, is the truth of the matter asserted. If it is a
11 question of did you receive a document that said that 10:30
12 a m. central standard time, that's one thing, but Your 13 Honor's hypothetical goes to the truth of the matter
14 asserted.
15 THE COURT: So just to make sure I understand your 16 point, we don't -- does your point boil down to we don't 17 know that this sender really would have done these --
18 MR. ROBERT: Correct. Correct.
19 MR. WALLACE: It constitutes an offer which is 20 another reason that it can be admitted on its own for the 21 purposes that there was an offer made. It doesn't need to 22 show whether the offer was going to be closed, whether 23 everything is going to proceed from here, we are not
24 going -- that was down the road.
25 THE COURT: I don't -- when you say "offer," you

D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2961 1 mean binding as in we learned in contracts, an offer is 2 binding? 3 MR. WALLACE: Not binding. 4 THE COURT: So, then, it is not really an offer. 5 MR. WALLACE: That's fine, Your Honor. 6 MR. HAREN: I could ask a slightly different 7 question. 8 THE COURT: All right. Withdrawn. 9 Q Mr. Orowitz, when you received this e-mail, did you 10 understand -- did you form an understanding that Beal Bank was 11 responding to potential loan terms with the responses that are 12 here indicated? 13 A I don't remember receiving this specific e-mail at that 14 time. 15 Q Do you -- 16 THE COURT: I think you said you have no reason to 17 doubt that you did, right? 18 THE WITNESS: No, no reason. 19 THE COURT: Okay. 20 THE WITNESS: Your Honor. 21 Q Do you have a general recollection of engaging 22 in -- withdrawn. 23 MR. HAREN: Just want to be clear, is the document 24 in evidence for those purposes or is it -- 25 MR. ROBERT: If it is noticed that an e-mail was	Page 2963 1 (Continued on the next page.) 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN) Page 2962 1 received, but none of the contents -- all of the contents of 2 the notice are hearsay. 3 MR. HAREN: I mean, just to be clear on the 4 question of hearsay, it's not a truthful fact that it is 5 being asserted by the statement. It is a market term that 6 is being offered. I don't think it is hearsay at all. I 7 don't think it is being offered for its truth. It is being 8 offered to show what a third-party bank offered and notified 9 the defendant organization was the subject of their offer. 10 MR. ROBERT: That's the definition of the truth of 11 the matter asserted because you want to try to bootstrap 12 that there were other offers, that these other interest 13 rates, these interest rates differed than the ultimate 14 interest rate and you're going to connect those dots or 15 attempt to connect those dots. 16 What I'm saying is the underlying substance of 17 what's contained here is hearsay. If you had the ability of 18 the time is expired, someone from the bank to come in here 19 and explain something, but that's not what we have. We have 20 a document that you're trying to introduce from a witness 21 who doesn't recall receiving it. 22 To Your Honor's point, he doesn't dispute that he 23 probably got it because he is on the e-mail exchange, but 24 the underlying substance of this and of the earlier e-mail 25 are all hearsay.	D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2964 1 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, if I could just clarify 2 my point about it. It's an offer to constitute a verbal act 3 under 8.47 under the rules of evidence and that even if it's 4 not a binding offer it is contractual term. 5 By making this offer we are interested in 6 establishing and making the offer to the Trump Organization. 7 And so that is how the -- that's how Mr. Haren is offering 8 to use this document. 9 And just to go back to one other point. This came 10 from the Trump Organization, so any issues with authenticity 11 because this was produced in discovery. 12 MR. ROBERT: I'm not questioning -- so I didn't 13 think it came from us, this exhibit that's here, but I take 14 your word for it. 15 MR. WALLACE: I'll just clarify that's the 16 production stamp that the Trump Organization used for civil 17 discovery in this action as opposed to TTO is from the 18 underlying investigation. 19 MR. ROBERT: I'm just saying nonetheless if you 20 want to introduce something as an offer, the person that 21 made the offer has to come in and say here was the offer, 22 here are the terms, not the witness who is looking at the 23 document coming from a third party relaying terms or 24 potential terms of a deal. 25 THE COURT: All right. Give me a moment.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2965 1 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.) 2 THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, what is -- was the 3 evidentiary rule you just referred to? 4 MR. WALLACE: I believe 8.47 Verbal Act. 5 THE COURT: 8.47 of? 6 MR. WALLACE: I'm -- 7 MR. GABER: This is Section 8.47 of the Bench Book 8 on New York Evidence Article 8 rules. I think it's 9 incorporated as the rules, but I'm reading it off of the New 10 York courts website. I think it is -- it comes from a line 11 of Court of Appeals cases. I'm not sure if it's codified. 12 I believe 8.47 is the citation here. 13 THE COURT: Okay. Thanks. 14 Is plaintiff willing to I think go along with 15 Mr. Robert's view that it can be admitted only for the fact 16 that this was sent -- and by the way, I think we learned in 17 law school back decades ago there is a presumption that 18 something mailed to someone, has been received by the 19 recipient, I'm assuming that should be at least the same 20 with e-mail. So anyway, plaintiff, are you willing to 21 accept that as I just -- 22 MR. WALLACE: I think it essentially does get us to 23 the same place. I think it's fine. 24 THE COURT: I'll take that as a yes? 25 MR. WALLACE: As a yes.	D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2967 1 A Yes. 2 Q Do you have an understanding in the context of seeking 3 financing for the Doral property what the phrase "investment 4 memo" refers to? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And what's your understanding? 7 A It's a presentation that gives key information to 8 potential lenders to explain general terms around what the plan 9 is for the development and what the financial projections are in 10 order for them to evaluate it. 11 Q And in the e-mail in the first page from Ms. Trump she 12 writes that she's copied you on the e-mail and you'll be putting 13 together all the information. Do you see that? 14 A Yes. 15 Q I'll put that to the side for a moment and I'll hand 16 you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3112. 17 Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize this document as a chain 18 of e-mails involving you, Allen Weisselberg and Ivanka Trump? 19 A I don't remember this e-mail specifically. 20 Q But looking at it here today do you have any reason to 21 doubt it's an e-mail chain involving you, Allen Weisselberg and 22 Ivanka Trump pertaining to the Doral transaction? 23 A No. 24 MR. HAREN: Move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3112. 25 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2966 1 THE COURT: It's admitted in evidence over the 2 hearsay objection and only for the purpose that the 3 recipients David Orowitz and Ivanka Trump received this 4 e-mail. 5 MR. ROBERT: That would be the same ruling for the 6 previous e-mail as well which was the same objection? 7 THE COURT: I think that's correct. 8 MR. ROBERT: Thank you, sir. 9 THE COURT: Okay. Let's move on. 10 Q Mr. Orowitz, we saw earlier in Plaintiff's Exhibit 3243 11 that there was a question posed by Meridian Capital about the 12 status of any discussions with DB. Do you generally recall 13 that? I asked you about it in the beginning of the discussion. 14 A I recall discussions with DB. 15 Q I want to hand you a document that's been marked as 16 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3111. 17 And Mr. Orowitz, you see at the top of this e-mail is 18 an e-mail from you to Marc Levine, David Goodman and some other 19 folks at Deutsche Bank with Allen Weisselberg copied? 20 A Yes. 21 Q I'd like to direct your attention to the e-mail that is 22 on the second page. It goes from the first page on to the 23 second page from Marc Levine to Ivanka Trump and it reads: 24 "Refers to an investment memo and projections for the Doral Golf 25 Resort and Spa in Miami, Florida." Do you see that?	D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2968 1 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence. 2 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 3 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3112 in 4 evidence.) 5 Q The exhibit begins on page one with an e-mail from Marc 6 Levine at Deutsche Bank to you. Do you see that? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And it reads: "David, received your e-mail last night 9 regarding the due diligence checklist. I checked with the rest 10 of the team and we are available after 10:30 after a call. Let 11 me know what time works for you and we will send around a dial 12 in for the call." 13 So you then forwarded that e-mail to Allen Weisselberg 14 and asked him if he could do 10:30 for the call; is that right? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And is it fair to say you were trying to ensure Allen 17 Weisselberg was available to join a call with you and Marc 18 Levine from Deutsche Bank on or about this date? 19 A Yes. 20 Q I'd like to show you another document, Plaintiff's 21 Exhibit 3117. 22 Mr. Orowitz, just directing your attention to the first 23 page of the exhibit. Do you recognize it to be a calendar 24 invitation ? 25 A Yes.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2969

1 Q And the original appointment in the calendar invitation
2 includes you and you forwarded it to Allen Weisselberg; is that
3 right?
4 A Yes.
5 Q And looking at the attendees in the original
6 appointment, do you see that there are two names, Mason Parker
7 and William Frauen. Mr. Parker is on the second line and 8 Mr. Frauen is on the third line?
9 A Yes.
10 Q And the information beginning on page two of the 11 exhibit is a diligence list pertaining to the Doral Golf Resort;
12 is that right?
13 A Yes.
14 MR. HAREN: Your Honor, I move the Exhibit 3117
15 into evidence.
16 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and
17 the attachment is hearsay.
18 MR. HAREN: And I'm fine moving into evidence the 19 calendar invitation. I have no need for the remainder of
20 document.
21 THE COURT: Okay. Overruled on the statute of 22 limitations grounds and it's in evidence just for the 23 invitation.
24 MR. ROBERT: So then that will come off the exhibit
25 and I guess the question of the witness to the attachment

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2970

1 will be stricken since it's not in evidence?
2 MR. HAREN: Why don't we make it easier.
3 Q Mr. Orowitz, you were provided a copy of this diligence
4 list in connection with the calendar invitation. Is that fair?
5 And just so we don't have to generate another exhibit solely for 6 the fact you were provided we could just admit it for that 7 purpose.
8 A That appears to be attached to the invitation.
9 THE COURT: Okay. That resolves that.
10 Q And so if we could go back to Exhibit 3111.
11 At the top of the page we talked about this e-mail a
12 minute ago, but this is the same day as that calendar
13 invitation, November 18, 2011, and you wrote to Mr. Levine:
14 "Marc, it was good speaking with you earlier today.
15 Please find a link to a folder containing the due diligence
16 materials that you requested." Do you see that?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Did you have a call with Mr. Levine from Deutsche Bank
19 on or about November 18, 2011?
20 A From this e-mail it appears so.
21 Q Was Mr. Weisselberg on the call?
22 A I don't recall the call.
23 Q On the November 18, 2011 phone call did anyone from the 24 bank, meaning Deutsche Bank, convey what interest rate the bank
25 might seek for a commercial real estate loan regarding the Doral

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2971

1 property?
2 A I don't recall the call.
3 Q Let's see if a document refreshes your recollection and
4 I'll admit -- I'd ask to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3111.
5 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Even if this refreshes the 6 witness's recollection it will be hearsay what Deutsche Bank
7 may have told him.
8 MR. HAREN: I'm speaking about the e-mail where 9 Mr. Orowitz wrote: "Marc, it was good speaking with you
10 earlier today." I'm not talking about the content of any 11 phone call at this point.
12 MR. ROBERT: I thought the question was I thought
13 on the November 18, 2011 phone call did anyone from the 14 bank, meaning Deutsche Bank, convey what interest rate the 15 bank might seek for a commercial real estate loan regarding 16 the Doral property so whatever they may have said to this
17 witness is hearsay.
18 MR. HAREN: I'm asking to admit the document that 19 was the precursor to that question and I will have another
20 document that may refresh him.
21 MR. ROBERT: But even if it refreshes his
22 recollection as to what the bank says, it's still hearsay.
23 MR. HAREN: The e-mail that Mr. Orowitz said when 24 he wrote "Marc, it was good speaking with you earlier
25 today," this is an e-mail that he wrote. The witness is

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2972

1 sitting here, he testified --
2 MR. ROBERT: I think we're talking about two
3 different things.
4 MR. HAREN: That's right. We are talking about two
5 different things. I haven't shown him the document that may
6 or may not refresh his recollection. That's not what I move
7 to admit. I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3111.
8 MR. ROBERT: So you're not going to ask him what
9 the conversation was with Deutsche Bank? If you're not 10 going to ask him what the conversation was I have no
11 objection.
12 MR. HAREN: This may --
13 MR. WALLACE: If we have to lay out how we're doing
14 this we will also say that the defendants are receiving
15 multiple offers from different banks and they choose a bank
16 offer that has a different term. That is an appropriate use
17 of them having learned of the other offers from the other
18 banks.
19 So we're saying putting things in for notice, but 20 it is notice because we want to show what the defendants
21 understood when they were making decisions about which loan
22 to select.
23 MR. ROBERT: And, Your Honor, that proves my point.
24 This is for the truth of the matter asserted. If they 25 wanted to call people from these institutions, they very

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2973

1 well could have in their case. They didn't. They're now
2 trying to use hearsay documents and hearsay testimony to
3 make up for the deficiency in their case.
4 MR. WALLACE: Absolutely not.
5 MR. ROBERT: I'm still speaking, Mr. Wallace. It
6 is inappropriate.
7 MR. WALLACE: It is whether or not the defendants
8 had notice of the other terms of what were being offered and 9 then selected another loan.
10 THE COURT: Now, what the banks would actually have 11 lent the money at these rates I think that's a question of 12 fact.
13 MR. ROBERT: Then you need someone from the bank to 14 testify; otherwise, it's completely irrelevant. If someone 15 is saying here -- to allow this to come in now without the 16 bank saying they would have done it is completely irrelevant
17 I think because what someone didn't intend to do can't show
18 reliance, can't show any of the elements they need to prove 19 their case. So just because their bank may have sent an 20 e-mail about something without the bank explaining what 21 that's about, it's completely and utterly irrelevant.
22 They need it for the purpose of the bank made an 23 offer at X and the defendants decided not to do it. They 24 can't do that through hearsay.
25 MR. WALLACE: I don't know why we can't show that

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2974

1 they got an offer and decided not to go with it through
2 their own documents and witnesses.
3 MR. ROBERT: You have to bring in a witness who
4 actually made the offer. I don't see these documents saying
5 -- first of all, even if they said there was an offer you
6 still need the person that made the offer. You're 7 conflating notice with the substance of it. If you want to 8 show they got an e-mail and there was words on the page of 9 an e-mail, I can't fight you on that. But underlying 10 substance of what the potential offer was and what their 11 notice of that was that's hearsay.
12 MR. HAREN: So I think we're arguing about an 13 e-mail that's not even in front of us.
14 MR. ROBERT: It's not about the e-mail, Mr. Haren.
15 MR. HAREN: If I can finish, please, Mr. Robert.
16 The e-mail that's in front of us is a statement
17 from Mr. Orowitz who at the time was an employee of the 18 Trump Organization that "it was good speaking with you
19 earlier today" and in response to a series of other e-mails
20 involving Mr. Orowitz and Ms. Trump who was also an employee
21 of the Trump Organization at the time. That's all this
22 e-mail is. That's what I move to admit. I don't understand
23 the debate we're having here. It's not about this e-mail.
24 THE COURT: All right. So objection overruled to 25 the extent we're talking about what Mr. Haren just said.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2975

1 MR. HAREN: So I'd like to bring up Plaintiff's
2 Exhibit 3107, which is being shown to the witness solely for 3 the purpose of refreshing his recollection if it does.
4 Q Mr. Orowitz, do you see on the screen an e-mail from 5 William Frauen to Richard Byrne and Mason Parker?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And Richard -- just William Frauen and Mason Parker
8 were both on the calendar invite we looked at a few minutes ago?
9 A Yes.
10 Q The e-mail states:
11 "Had call with them this morning (not Ivanka or Donald 12 was Allen) and some other guy-David Orowitz I think."
13 Do you see that?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And it continues: "We told them" -- and this is in the 16 fifth paragraph down, and I realize some of the wording in the 17 e-mail is in shorthand. "We told them we are working two 18 angles: A) MTG plus mezz and B) whole loan to Levfin investors.
19 They asked what whole loan costs, we said project development
20 pricing is around ten PCT." Do you see that?
21 A Yes.
22 Q Does that refresh your recollection as to any loan
23 pricing conveyed by Deutsche Bank to you on the phone call of 24 November 18, 2011?
25 A No, it doesn't.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2976

1 Q And directing your attention to information further
2 down in this e-mail. It states: "Also suspect others" -- let 3 me ask you a question before that.
4 Do you have a recollection of Mr. Weisselberg conveying
5 any information regarding Mr. Trump's personal financial 6 statement on the November 18, 2011 call?
7 A I don't.
8 Q And so if you take a look at Exhibit 3107 and you look
9 down where it states -- this is in the second to last line --
10 "also suspect others may be thinking/exploring direct Donald 11 GNTY or other asset pledge as Allen again mentioned he sent you
12 personal statement." Does that refresh your recollection as to 13 whether Mr. Weisselberg conveyed any information about 14 Mr. Trump's personal financial statement on that November 18, 15 2011 call?
16 A It does not.
17 Q You can set that to the side.
18 Putting aside any particular phone call, were you
19 generally aware whether Deutsche Bank offered an interest rate
20 of approximately ten percent on a nonrecourse commercial real
21 estate loan for the Doral property?
22 A I don't remember that.
23 Q Do you have a general recollection of any difference
24 between terms offered by the commercial real estate arm of 25 Deutsche Bank and the private wealth arm of Deutsche Bank?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2977 1 A Yes. I recall that the commercial real estate arm, the 2 rates and other terms were less favorable. 3 Q And what do you mean by "less favorable?" 4 A I believe the rates were higher and I'm not certain, 5 but I -- the proceeds I believe were lower. 6 MR. HAREN: Let's go to Plaintiff's Exhibit 369. 7 And Mr. Orowitz, again, I'm going to show you this 8 document solely for the purposes of determining whether it 9 refreshes your recollection, and I'll direct your attention 10 to you -- you can see beginning on page two there is a title 11 "Doral Golf Resort and Spa Miami." 12 A Yes. 13 Q And on page four on the left side of the page there is 14 a series of items proceed by hyphens, one of which states 15 "$130 million term loan priced at L + 800 with a two percent 16 LIBOR floor." Do you see that? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Does that refresh your recollection that the rate 19 offered by Deutsche Bank's commercial real estate arm is 20 approximately ten percent? 21 A No, it does not. 22 Q Let's move to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3245. 23 Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize Plaintiff's Exhibit 3245 24 as an e-mail from you to Ivanka Trump and Allen Weisselberg? 25 A I don't remember it, but it appears to be an e-mail,	D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2979 1 Five-minute warning. 2 MR. HAREN: Thank you, Your Honor. 3 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 4 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3245 in 5 evidence.) 6 Q Up on the screen will be Plaintiff's Exhibit 3226. 7 And Mr. Orowitz, do you see in this exhibit a series of 8 e-mails involving you Ivanka Trump and Allen Weisselberg? 9 A Yes. 10 Q And do you understand that this e-mail chain involves 11 the Doral property? 12 A Yes. 13 Q And beginning on page two there is an e-mail from 14 Rosemary Vrablic at Deutsche Bank stating: 15 "Please find attached our summary of terms for the 16 proposed acquisition of the Doral resort." 17 And Ms. Trump's response: "It doesn't get any better 18 than this." Do you see that? 19 THE COURT: There is no "any" in there. 20 Q "It doesn't get better than this," excuse me. 21 A Yes. 22 Q And Ms. Trump continues, "I am tempted not to negotiate 23 this, though?" 24 A Yes. 25 Q And there are a series of other e-mails involving
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2978 1 yes. 2 Q And do you understand the subject "DB" to refer to 3 Deutsche Bank? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And given the timing just five days after the 6 November 18th documents we looked at -- do you understand that 7 this refers to this -- this relates to Doral? 8 A I would assume so. 9 Q The e-mail states: "I spoke to the DB guys this 10 morning. They are focused on how they are going to present the 11 project to other lenders, which I do not think bodes 12 particularly well." 13 Do you have an understanding as to what you meant by "I 14 do not think bodes particularly well?" 15 A I'm not certain exactly what I meant at the time, but I 16 could presume what it means. 17 Q What do you understand it to mean? 18 A I think it means I had concerns that they didn't want 19 to hold the loan on their balance sheet and that they were -- 20 that that might indicate that they were less interested in the 21 loan. 22 MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's 23 Exhibit 3245. 24 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations. 25 THE COURT: Overruled. Its 'in evidence.	D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2980 1 Ms. Trump and Jason Greenblatt. 2 Do you have an understanding as to who Jason Greenblatt 3 was at the time of this e-mail? 4 A Yes, he was the general counsel at Trump Organization. 5 MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's 6 Exhibit 3226. 7 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations. 8 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in. 9 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 10 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3226 in 11 evidence.) 12 Q Let's move to another document, Plaintiff's 13 Exhibit 3271. 14 And Mr. Orowitz, in Plaintiff's Exhibit 3271, there is 15 a response from you to Ms. Trump's e-mail where she stated, "it 16 doesn't get better than this?" 17 A Yes. 18 Q And you stated: "Some areas that could be problematic 19 in the covenants" and under there you wrote "during reno and 20 during reno and amo periods-guarantor shall maintain a minimum 21 net worth of 3.0 billion excluding any value related to the 22 guarantor's brand value." What does reno refer to in that line? 23 A I think in the context of this loan there was a 24 bifurcation of two time periods; one was while construction was 25 going on and one was after and so I think renovation is reno and

1 amo is probably amortization.
2 MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's
3 Exhibit 3271.
4 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
5 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
6 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is
7 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3271 in
8 evidence.)
9 Q Moving to another document, Plaintiff's Exhibit 332.
10 Mr. Orowitz, you'll see Plaintiff's Exhibit 332 is an 11 e-mail from Ivanka Trump to Rosemary Vrablic, Dominic Scalzi and 12 copied are you and Allen Weisselberg and the subject is "Doral 13 term sheet." Do you see that?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And I just want to do a quick look through the 16 document. If you could just flip through it and I'll just ask
17 you one question about it.
18 So, looking at the e-mail and the attachment does this 19 appear to be -- to be the Trump Organization's response to 20 proposed terms from the private wealth group of Deutsche Bank?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And I'll just pull up on the screen an undisputed fact
23 from the summary judgment proceeding number 472 that indicates
24 that it's an admitted fact that Ivanka Trump sent a revised term
25 sheet as indicated in this e-mail.

Page 2982

1 MR. HAREN: And that would be a perfect time for a
2 break once that's up on the screen. We can do that after 3 the break.
4 THE COURT: Looks complicated and long.
5 Okay, 15-minute break. See you all at that time.
6 (Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)

1 THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in
2 session. Be seated and come to order.
3 Witness entering.
4 (Witness resumes the stand.)
5 THE COURT: Let's continue.
6 Q Welcome back, Mr. Orowitz. I would like to turn your
7 attention to the Chicago property and pull up Plaintiff's
8 Exhibit 3240.
9 Mr. Orowitz, do you see on the first page of the 10 exhibit an e-mail from you to David Goodman and Jim Griffith at 11 Deutsche Bank?
12 A Yes.
13 Q And the attachment -- well, one of the attachments is 14 identified as a financing memo?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Do you have an understanding of what a financing memo
17 refers to in the context of this e-mail?
18 A Yes, it was a document that was put together with basic 19 information that a lender would need to understand a real estate
20 deal.
21 Q You said "was put together." Is that something that was 22 put together in the Trump Organization?
23 A Yes, either -- in some cases, we do it or a broker
24 would do it.
25 Q Broker, did you say?

Page 2984

1 A Sometimes a broker would do it as well.
2 Q Thank you.
3 MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's
4 Exhibit 3240.
5 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and
6 so the record is clear, is this one that was prepared by the 7 Trump Organization or by a broker because the witness said
8 sometimes it is one or the other.
9 Q Mr. Orowitz, can you describe the circumstances under 10 which this financing memo was prepared?
11 A This appears to have been put together by the Trump
12 Organization.
13 Q Thank you.
14 THE COURT: So it is in. Objection overruled.
15 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
16 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3240.)
17 Q And directing your attention to page two -- not the 18 page -- the page two of the exhibit where it says 2 of 22 at 19 the bottom, there is a description in the middle of the page
20 that reads -- excuse -- I'll just -- in the interest of time,
21 we could just move on from the document.
22 Withdraw the question and move to Plaintiff's
23 Exhibit 3239.
24 Mr. Orowitz, do you see in the first page of 25 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3239, there is an e-mail from David Goodman

Page 2985

1 at Deutsche Bank to you and Ivanka Trump?
2 A Yes.
3 Q And just to situate that in the timeline, the prior 4 exhibit when you sent the financing memo was three days before
5 this exhibit or this e-mail, right?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And the e-mail from Mr. Goodman states, "Attached,
8 please find term sheets for hotel and condo financings."
9 Do you have an understanding of what Mr. Goodman was 10 providing in this e-mail?
11 A Yes.
12 Q Okay.
13 A I believe he was providing two separate financing. One
14 was for the hotel which was an asset that we were going to hold 15 on to and the other was for the residential condominiums which 16 we would sell off over time and paydown the loan.
17 Q And could you just describe the nature of the Chicago
18 property and how it relates to those two categories of financing
19 you described?
20 A Yeah. The Chicago tower had retail. It had 21 residential condominium, so individual residences that were sold
22 off to individual buyers and then it had a hotel and that hotel
23 originally was hotel/condominium, so the hotel units would be 24 sold off when we refinanced. At this point, the intention was 25 to hold on to all the remaining hotel/condo units and operate

Page 2986

1 them as a sponsor-held hotel along with the hotel/condo units
2 that had been sold off.
3 Q And beginning on page two of the exhibit, there's 4 identified as up to 56 million in financing for the commercial
5 condo component.
6 A Yes.
7 Q And on page four, there is an indication of the type of 8 recourse provided for in this term sheet. It states, "The loan
9 will be non-recourse to borrower with some exceptions."
10 Do you see that?
11 A Yes.
12 Q On page six, there is an indication that the interest
13 rate fees, et cetera, are outlined on Schedule A?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And on page ten, there is actually a Schedule A that 16 provides for pricing and various other terms?
17 MR. ROBERT: Objection.
18 THE COURT: The ground?
19 MR. ROBERT: He's reading from a document that's 20 not in evidence and it wouldn't be able to come into 21 evidence because it is hearsay.
22 MR. HAREN: This is the same point as we dealt with 23 with the prior term sheet. This is a term sheet received by 24 Mr. Orowitz in the ordinary course of business seeking 25 financing for the Chicago property. We're offering it for

Page 2987

1 the same purposes as the earlier exhibits were offered and
2 accepted.
3 MR. ROBERT: For the purpose that they received
4 something, but all of the contents of it are inadmissible
5 hearsay. Is that what you are saying?
6 MR. HAREN: Could go to state of mind internally,
7 inside the company to choose as a private wealth loan with a
8 guaranty as opposed to a commercial real estate loan that is 9 non-recourse, would tend to go to state of mind.
10 MR. ROBERT: Notwithstanding the fact that you
11 would have to stay whose state of mind you are trying to 12 attribute this to. It doesn't change the fact that the 13 contents of this attachment from Deutsche Bank is 14 inadmissible hearsay.
15 MR. HAREN: I think we dealt with this in the prior
16 exhibit. It is the same principle.
17 THE COURT: Same ruling, same principle.
18 Overruled.
19 MR. ROBERT: I think it was sustained as to what
20 our objection was subject to what Mr. --
21 THE COURT: Oh, well, let's try to be very precise.
22 It is being introduced for what purpose?
23 MR. HAREN: It is being introduced for two 24 purposes; one to show notice of the terms received by the 25 Trump Organization.

Page 2988

1 THE COURT: Well, that alone should do it. Doesn't
2 it?
3 MR. ROBERT: Notice of purported -- notice of 4 what's contained in the document, but not those were 5 actually the terms offered by the bank.
6 MR. HAREN: It goes to state of mind, as I said.
7 MR. ROBERT: That part I don't understand because
8 it would be whose state of mind.
9 THE COURT: Right. Let's go to the second ground.
10 Whose state of mind?
11 MR. HAREN: Sure. Inside a company, companies work
12 through people. There's imputed knowledge of an agent that 13 gets imputed to the principal. If there is one set of terms
14 that involves the submission of Statements of Financial 15 Condition and those terms have a very low interest rate and 16 there is another set of terms that are a much higher
17 interest rate that are not private wealth loans that would 18 tend to show a motive or a -- minimum a motive to use those 19 statements.
20 THE COURT: In for both purposes or on both
21 grounds.
22 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
23 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3239.)
24 Q Then turning to page 15, there begins a summary of 25 terms for unsold residential condominium units. Do you see

Page 2989

1 that?
2 A Yes.
3 Q On page 18, there is a description of recourse at the 4 very top that says, "The loan will be non-recourse to borrower
5 with certain exceptions"?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And on page 18 also -- excuse me. I may have the 8 wrong page. At the very bottom of page 18 that provides loan
9 interest rate fees, et cetera are outlined on schedule A. Do
10 you see that?
11 A Yes.
12 Q And page 22 is the Schedule A that pertains to this 13 particular term sheet and it -- do you see that it provides an 14 interest rate with a spread of 800 basis points?
15 A Yes.
16 Q You can set that document aside. We will turn to 17 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242. Now, Mr. Orowitz, in the e-mail on 18 the first page, do you see that there's an e-mail from Jason
19 Greenblatt to David Goodman at Deutsche Bank on which you,
20 Ivanka Trump and Allen Weisselberg are copied?
21 A Yes.
22 Q And the e-mail from Mr. Greenblatt provides, "Attached, 23 please find a revised draft of the proposed term sheet."
24 Do you see that?
25 A Yes.

Page 2990

1 Q And since the subject of the e-mail refers to Chicago,
2 do you have an understanding that the proposed term sheet
3 relates to Chicago?
4 A Yes.
5 MR. HAREN: And if we could turn to -- I guess
6 I'll move to admit this document, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242
7 as Mr. Greenblatt who was the -- withdrawn. I move to 8 admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242 as the Trump Organization's 9 response to a term sheet regarding the Chicago property.
10 MR. ROBERT: This one is just a statute of 11 limitations defense. This is fine because this is us
12 sending our work product to them, so it is not hearsay.
13 THE COURT: Okay. Understand. Overruled.
14 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
15 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242.)
16 Q If you can turn to page 17 of the document, please. Do
17 you see at the very top, there's a reference to "Trump draft 18 6/19/12"?
19 A Yes.
20 Q Do you have an understanding as to what that refers to?
21 A Yes, this is -- this is a redline or a markup of a
22 term sheet and that refers to a draft.
23 Q When it says, "Trump draft," that means it is a Trump
24 Organization response, correct?
25 A Yes.

Page 2991

1 Q And if you could turn to page 29. Do you see that
2 there is a Schedule A that provides an interest rate?
3 A Yes.
4 Q And it provides, "The interest rate shall be calculated
5 at rate lock (see below) by adding [392] basis points (the 6 spread) to the yield on the ten-year on the run swap rate.
7 However, in no event shall interest rate be less than 8 5.64 percent with that number in brackets?"
9 A Yes.
10 MR. HAREN: Since that's -- if we can move to the 11 next document. Handing up to the witness Plaintiff's
12 Exhibit 3235.
13 Q Mr. Orowitz, looking at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3235, you
14 can see an e-mail from Jacob Turner at CSG Investments to Ivanka
15 Trump followed by an e-mail from Ivanka Trump to you and Allen
16 Weisselberg on April 18, 2012. Do you see that?
17 A Yes.
18 Q And the subject of the e-mail is "Trump Chicago
19 investment memo"?
20 A Yes.
21 Q And could you just take a look at Mr. Turner's e-mail.
22 I am going to ask you some questions about the e-mail that's at 23 the top, but take a look at Mr. Turner's e-mail before I do
24 that.
25 (Witness reviewing document.)

Page 2992

1 Q So I guess I'll walk you through it before I ask you
2 questions about the e-mail that Ms. Trump sent to you.
3 On page three, there's an e-mail from Ivanka Trump to 4 Andrew Beal. Is that the Andy Beal you referenced earlier?
5 A Yes.
6 Q And Ms. Trump writes in that e-mail to Mr. Beal, "My 7 father had asked me to send you the Trump Chicago loan memo per
8 your conversation yesterday. Sometime in the next few weeks, I
9 was planning to go to market for senior financing on our iconic
10 92-story mixed-use skyscraper in Chicago Trump International
11 Hotel and tower. This loan would be secured by both the unsold
12 inventory of the condominium units and retail component as well
13 as operating cash flow from the hotel commercial and parking
14 facilities."
15 On page three of the document, Mr. Turner responds,
16 "Ivanka, thanks for the Trump Chicago memorandum. I have 17 reviewed the materials on a truly beautiful first-class
18 property. We are passing on the loan opportunity based 19 predominantly on the interest rates sought."
20 A Yes.
21 Q It is a little bit difficult to read because of the 22 small print, but on page two at the very bottom, Ms. Trump asked
23 Mr. Turner the following question. "Out of curiosity and so I
24 can better understand how you look," I think it says, "how you
25 took at these type of loans, what type of pricing would you

Page 2993

1 attach to the Chicago financing request"?
2 And Mr. Turner responds in part on page one, bolded
3 underline text short answer, "Our new loan originations
4 generally start with a baseline of around L plus 500, with a
5 LIBOR floor of two." And Ms. Trump then forwarded that
6 information to you and Mr. Weisselberg stating "some interesting
7 feedback." Do you see that?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Do you have an understanding as to why Ms. Trump added
10 Allen Weisselberg to this e-mail chain and stated to you "some 11 interesting feedback"?
12 A I would presume she wanted to give him the benefit of 13 understanding how this specific lender was looking at a loan
14 like Trump Chicago.
15 MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's
16 Exhibit 3235 into evidence.
17 MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.
18 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
19 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
20 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3235.)
21 MR. HAREN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236 is being
22 handed up to the witness.
23 Q Mr. Orowitz, looking at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236, you
24 recognize that it is the same e-mail chain that we just looked 25 at except for a different ending?

Page 2994

1 A Yes.
2 Q And following Mr. Turner's e-mail to Ms. Trump, Ms.
3 Trump then e-mailed you directly and stated, "I think we made a
4 mistake adding rate to our memo...." Do you see that?
5 A Yes.
6 Q What did that indicate to you?
7 A It indicates to me that she was questioning whether we
8 should have included a rate because it does seem to have made
9 them not dig in on potentially giving a loan.
10 MR. HAREN: Move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236.
11 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
12 THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
13 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
14 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236.)
15 Q Now, Mr. Orowitz, let's talk about the Old Post Office
16 project. You have a general recollection of working on that 17 project during your time at the Trump Organization?
18 A Yes.
19 MR. HAREN: Handing up to the witness Plaintiff's
20 Exhibit 3241.
21 Q Mr. Orowitz, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241, you see that it
22 is an e-mail from you to Allen Weisselberg, Jason Greenblatt,
23 Ivanka Trump and Ray Flores on September 3, 2013?
24 A Yes.
25 Q The subject is "All documents for OPO financing."

Page 2995

1 What did you understand that to refer to?
2 A It appears to be me sharing two clean versions of the
3 term sheet that we got from Natixis and DB and then a quick
4 markup of like my initial thoughts on them and then a comparison
5 that Ray did, Ray Flores did against some previous loans that
6 the Trump Organization had done.
7 Q And for what purpose were you sending this information
8 to the recipients of the e-mail?
9 A I believe it was to get my initial thoughts out to them
10 as quickly as possible and get everyone thinking about how to 11 proceed with a loan.
12 Q The e-mail states, "We are speaking to Iron Hound about 13 DB and Natixis today at noon." Do you see that?
14 A Yes.
15 Q Can you explain what Iron Hound is and what its role
16 was in this transaction?
17 A Iron Hound is a broker and consultant that helps real
18 estate owners attain financing.
19 Q And what was its role in this transaction?
20 A They were helping us to find potential lenders and 21 negotiate with them.
22 Q So they were working on behalf of the Trump
23 Organization?
24 A Yes.
25 Q In item three on your list, you state that "One item

Page 2996

1 attached was a comparison that Ray finalized last night of
2 Natixis and DB versus our previous DB, Hypo and Fortress loans.
3 Who is Ray as referred to there?
4 A Raymond Flores.
5 Q What was Mr. Flores' role at the Trump Organization at 6 the time?
7 A He was a financial analyst and reported to me.
8 MR. HAREN: And I'm going to move to admit
9 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241.
10 MR. ROBERT: As to the cover e-mail, objection,
11 statute of limitations. As to the attachments, there
12 appears that there are more attachments listed on the cover
13 e-mail than are attached to this exhibit. To the extent
14 that they are documents prepared by anyone other than Trump,
15 I object that it is hearsay; but it is not complete because 16 the e-mail talks about a preliminary markup and a comparison
17 and it looks like those are in the attachment, but it is not
18 on what I was just handed.
19 MR. HAREN: So as to any item, one term sheet from 20 Natixis and DB, the Court has already ruled the various 21 purposes for which term sheets could come in. Item two, Mr.
22 Orowitz's preliminary markups, those are his markups. He
23 was an employee of the organization.
24 MR. ROBERT: I'm not fighting you on two and three.
25 They're not here, so it is not complete. I don't know what

Page 2997

1 they are.
2 MR. HAREN: One may be -- well, page seven of the 3 document, there is a document withheld for privilege in the 4 middle of the document. So why don't we do this? We can
5 take a look at the term sheet from Natixis which is in the 6 document, the term sheet from Deutsche Bank which is in the 7 document, and we can take a look at the native Excel file
8 that's the other attachment, and the defendants can advise
9 if they continue to object to Mr. Flores' -- excuse me.
10 Mr. Orowitz's markups of term sheets and we can move past
11 that issue.
12 MR. ROBERT: I'm sorry. I didn't understand any of 13 that. I'm sorry. Maybe I didn't hear it.
14 THE COURT: That was tough to follow.
15 MR. HAREN: In the exhibit, there is a term sheet
16 from Natixis. That's the first attachment beginning at page 17 two.
18 MR. ROBERT: Goes from page two to page five?
19 MR. HAREN: Page two to page five. Page seven,
20 there is document withheld for privilege.
21 MR. ROBERT: Seven and eight. Got you.
22 MR. HAREN: And then following that, there is a
23 term sheet from Deutsche Bank.
24 MR. ROBERT: Okay.
25 MR. HAREN: That concludes on page 21. And then

Page 2998

1 page 22 is a document provided natively which our other
2 discussions is likely an Excel file and you can see that the
3 last attachment listed in the e-mail is an Excel file.
4 MR. ROBERT: So you're representing to me that item
5 two in the e-mail was withheld for privilege? I can't tell.
6 MR. HAREN: You would know better than I would the 7 documents that are withheld for privilege based on the pages
8 that are attached to the exhibit is my understanding.
9 MR. ROBERT: You are telling me this is the 10 complete e-mail of attachments that was turned over to you?
11 MR. HAREN: Except for the native file which is 12 Excel.
13 MR. ROBERT: I keep my standard objection then.
14 THE COURT: Same ruling. It is in.
15 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
16 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3641.)
17 MR. HAREN: I'm informed that there may be -- since 18 it says "document withheld for privilege" on page seven and 19 page eight, that may be two different documents that are 20 withheld for privilege.
21 THE COURT: Defendants, Mr. Robert, do you want to 22 waive the privilege?
23 MR. ROBERT: I accept his representation and later
24 we can clean it up.
25 THE COURT: Do you want to waive the privilege?

Page 2999

1 MR. ROBERT: Absolutely not.
2 Q I want to move to page two of the exhibit. Mr.
3 Orowitz, you see there is a label at the top "Natixis" and it
4 appears to be a term sheet from Natixis for a loan related to 5 the Old Post Office?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And beginning on page nine, there appears to be a term
8 sheet from Deutsche Bank related to the Old Post Office?
9 A Yes.
10 MR. HAREN: If we could pull up on the screen
11 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241 native one.
12 Q Mr. Orowitz, you recall in the e-mail there was a
13 reference to a comparison that Mr. Flores prepared of potential
14 terms for the Old Post Office transaction. You can see -- do
15 you recognize this Excel spreadsheet on the screen to be that
16 document?
17 A Yes.
18 Q And you can see in this document there are interest
19 rate terms identified?
20 A Yes.
21 Q And so there's a spread from Natixis of 5.25 in the 22 document. Do you see that?
23 A Yes.
24 Q From Deutsche Bank, this is a spread identified at 25 4.25 percent?

Page 3000

1 A Yes.
2 Q And there is a comparison to a Fortress loan that had a
3 spread of 11 percent?
4 A Yes.
5 MR. HAREN: I'm going to move to admit Plaintiff's
6 Exhibit 3241 including the native file that Mr. Flores
7 prepared.
8 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations, but I thought
9 it is already in based on the Court's ruling.
10 THE COURT: It was a different document, right?
11 Anyway, it is in either way.
12 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as
13 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241.)
14 Q We are going to move to Plaintiff's Exhibit 513. Mr.
15 Orowitz, Plaintiff's Exhibit 513, you mentioned that Iron Hound
16 was working on the Trump Organization's behalf in connection
17 with seeking financing for the Old Post Office transaction?
18 A Yes.
19 Q And you can see that this is an e-mail that is sent to 20 Chris Herron at ironhoundmgt.com?
21 A Yes.
22 Q Was he working on behalf of the Trump Organization at 23 Iron Hound in connection with the Old Post Office?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Beginning on page two, there is a document -- does the

1 document appear to you to be a term sheet from Deutsche Bank for 2 the Old Post Office project? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And just directing your attention to page 15 -- excuse 5 me -- 14, do you see that there's a spread identified of 6 400 basis points? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And just turning your attention back to the e-mail, 9 there are three attachments identified. There's 10 "db_old postofficetermsheet.doc," 11 "termsheet(v7versusborrowercommentstov4).doc" and 12 "termsheet(v7versulenderpriordraft(v4).doc." 13 MR. HAREN: Just want to move to admit this 14 document and the attachments as notice to Mr. Herron from 15 Iron Hound who was working on the Trump Organization's 16 behalf. 17 MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations and 18 hearsay. 19 THE COURT: Overruled. 20 (Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as 21 Plaintiff's Exhibit 513.) 22 MR. HAREN: Moving to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3303. 23 Q So Mr. Orowitz, in Plaintiff's Exhibit 3303, you see an 24 e-mail from Chris Herron at Iron Hound to you, Jason Greenblatt 25 and others with the subject "OPO term sheet." Do you see that?	1 MR. HAREN: I'm going to move to admit this 2 document for the same purpose as the last document. 3 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and 4 hearsay. 5 THE COURT: Overruled. 6 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 7 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3033 in 8 evidence.) 9 MR. HAREN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 322. 10 Q And Mr. Orowitz, just directing you back to 11 Exhibit 3303. I just want to note the date was November 5, 2013 12 on the prior exhibit. 13 MR. ROBERT: Can I ask Mr. Haren to speak up a 14 little? I'm having difficulty hearing. 15 MR. HAREN: Sure. Is that better? 16 THE COURT: Much. 17 MR. HAREN: Sure. I indicated to the witness that 18 the last document was November 5, 2013. 19 Q Exhibit 322 is an e-mail from you to Tom Sullivan at 20 Deutsche Bank. Do you see that? 21 A Yes. 22 Q And you were e-mailing him a document entitled, "Old 23 Post Office Offering Memo August 2013?" 24 A Yes. 25 Q What do you understand that offering memo to be?
1 A Yes. 2 Q And the e-mail states, "There are certain points in 3 that term sheet that DB specifically pointed out to us that they 4 do not have room to move on (economics as we discussed) and 5 others that were made without a detailed explanation that may 6 require a direct conversation." Do you see that? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Now, there are three documents attached to this e-mail. 9 "db_oldpostoffice-termsheet.doc" and 10 "term sheet(v7versusborrowercommentstov4).doc" and 11 "termsheet(v7versulenderpriordraft(v4).doc." 12 The document is 78 pages long, so I don't want to take 13 you through all of it, but I want to direct your attention to 14 page 14 entitled "Economics" at the top left. 15 Do you see that this page also contains the same spread 16 400 basis points? 17 A Yes. 18 (Continued on the next page.) 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	1 A This is a document explaining the general facts that a 2 lender would want to know about a potential real estate 3 investment in their interest in lending against it. 4 Q And the attachment is identified as -- on the first 5 page, it's page two of the document, "Trump International Hotel 6 The Old Post Office Building Washington, D.C." and on the bottom 7 left, it says, "Ironhound Management Company LLC?" 8 A Yes. 9 Q And so this document, was this the Trump Organization's 10 offering memo in connection with seeking financing for the Old 11 Post Office? 12 A This was a memo that was put together. I'm not sure to 13 what degree Ironhound was involved in that, but we were 14 certainly involved in putting it together. 15 MR. HAREN: I'm going to move to admit Plaintiff's 16 Exhibit 322. 17 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations. 18 THE COURT: Overruled. 19 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 20 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 322 in 21 evidence.) 22 Q And did you have an understanding that Mr. Sullivan was 23 with the private wealth group at Deutsche Bank? 24 A Yes. 25 Q And so just on or about this time November 22nd, is

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3005 1 that a -- that was essentially when the Trump Organization began 2 to seek financing for the Old Post Office from the private 3 wealth management group at Deutsche Bank? 4 A It appears to be from the same, yes. 5 MR. HAREN: Just give me one second, Your Honor, to 6 confer with colleagues. 7 THE COURT: Sure. I confer a lot too, you know. 8 (Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.) 9 MR. HAREN: So can we pull up Plaintiff's 10 Exhibit 327? 11 Q So Mr. Orowitz, this is an e-mail from Tom Sullivan to 12 you and Ivanka Trump and others attaching a term sheet in 13 connection with the Old Post Office property. Do you see that? 14 A Yes. 15 Q And so is this document and the attached term sheet, do 16 they represent terms from the private wealth management group at 17 Deutsche Bank? 18 A Yes. 19 MR. HAREN: I'll move to admit Plaintiff's 20 Exhibit 327. 21 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations, 22 hearsay. 23 THE COURT: Overruled. 24 Q And let's pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1286. I assure 25 you, Mr. Orowitz, I will not be asking you about this entire	D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3007 1 insurance company or the federal government. There is a 2 manner in which to properly present their case. 3 Respectfully, this is not one of them. 4 MR. HAREN: If a person had a business, receives a 5 request for proposals, takes steps to respond to it, 6 participates in the response to it, the request for 7 proposals itself to come in to show what the witness and the 8 business were responding to. 9 MR. ROBERT: I disagree with that. 10 THE COURT: I agree with it. Objection overruled. 11 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is 12 received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1286 in 13 evidence.) 14 MR. HAREN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 1164? 15 Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize Plaintiff's Exhibit 1164 16 as the response of Trump Old Post Office LLC to the GSA's RFP 17 regarding the Old Post Office property? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And I just want to direct your attention to page two of 20 the document. There is a letter on page two, letter signed by 21 Ivanka Trump. Do you see that? 22 A Yes. 23 Q And do you see that the letter describes the Trump 24 Organization on the roles of Donald Trump, Jr., Eric Trump and 25 Ivanka Trump within the company?
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3006 1 document, but do you recognize it to be the request for 2 proposals from the General Services Administration in connection 3 with the Old Post Office property? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And turning to page five of the document. 6 MR. HAREN: I move to admit Exhibit 1286 as the RFP 7 for the Old Post Office project. 8 MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. Statute of 9 limitations, but this is a complete hearsay document. It's 10 prepared by the government, a request for proposal for Old 11 Post Office. 12 MR. HAREN: It's going to be used to show the Trump 13 Organization's responses not for the truth of any items 14 contained. 15 MR. ROBERT: I still would object that it's 16 impermissible to have it come in through this witness and it 17 that it's hearsay. 18 THE COURT: I would think that it's -- the overall 19 -- overall it's basically saying -- the government is saying 20 we want to renovate the Old Post Office, here is what we 21 want, send us your proposals. What about that is -- 22 MR. ROBERT: And they can call a witness from the 23 government to do that. They're using a former employee of 24 the company to admit documents without having to lay the 25 proper foundation through either a representative of bank,	D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3008 1 A Could you direct me to that? 2 Q Sorry. I withdraw it. I think I may have the wrong 3 page, so I just withdraw that question. 4 Page 145 of the document refers to the developer's 5 financial capacity and capability. Do you see that? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And then page 153 refers to financial statements. 8 A Yes. 9 Q And it reads: "Please find Trump's Statement of 10 Financial Condition in an envelope submitted with each copy of 11 this proposal." And it continues at the next paragraph. 12 "Please note that Trump affiliates are all private 13 companies. The attached Statement of Financial Condition was 14 compiled under GAAP, but it should be noted that there are 15 departures from GAAP that are described in the accountant's 16 compilation report attached to the Statement of Financial 17 Condition. Most personal financial statements contain GAAP 18 exceptions. WeiserMazars LLP has compiled these financials." 19 Do you see that? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And I'm going to note an undisputed fact from 22 defendant's summary judgment papers, paragraph 143 where 23 defendants stated: "As required by the GSA, the 2008 to 2010 24 SOFCs were submitted as part of the bid and the Attorney 25 General's office response was undisputed." That's number 143 of

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3009 1 the defendant's 202 statement. 2 MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's 3 Exhibit 1164. 4 MR. KISE: So, Your Honor, I don't know whether he 5 did or not -- 6 MR. HAREN: I move to admit the Trump 7 Organization's response to the GSA RFP Exhibit 1164. 8 MR. KISE: So hearsay obviously, relevance, statute 9 of limitations, and his reference to the 2008 to 2010 SOFCs, 10 I don't even know those are at issue in the case, so I'm not 11 sure -- there hasn't even been any allegation that there is 12 a problem with the 2008 to 2010. That has never come in 13 before, so I'm not exactly sure what that reference related 14 to -- I'm sure it was undisputed in the summary judgment 15 that they were submitted because yes, but that doesn't make 16 it relevant to this trial proceeding and I don't see what 17 any relevance of these RFPs is. I mean, this is way outside 18 the statute of limitations. There is no claim that is 19 presented with respect to the OPO award process. So is 20 there? 21 MR. HAREN: Couple of responses. It's certainly 22 not hearsay. It's entitled "Proposal of Trump Old Post 23 Office LLC." 24 THE COURT: Statement of a party. 25 MR. HAREN: As to the other matters it relates to a	D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3011 1 proceedings. That may be undisputed that they were in fact 2 submitted, but there is no relevance to these proceedings 3 because these statements have never been challenged. There 4 is not a shred of evidence that has been introduced at trial 5 or before about the 2008 to 2010 statements. 6 MR. HAREN: I don't want to say this necessarily in 7 front of the witness, but there will be other documents that 8 come in in the next few minutes or very early tomorrow 9 morning that describe the actions and responses of certain 10 people in connection with this RFP and they will be relevant 11 at a minimum for that purpose. 12 MR. KISE: But again, actions by others -- well, 13 I'm saying again to Counsel not to you, Your Honor, actions 14 by other people -- let me just see if I get this right. 15 In responses in connection with this RFP, but those 16 would be actions based on 2008 to 2010 financial statements, 17 not 2011 to 2021, which is what the case has always been 18 about, at least I thought so. 19 MR. WALLACE: I'll just interject, and I apologize 20 to Mr. Haren, but the thread here is there is a discussion 21 of some of the GAAP exceptions in the statements of 22 financial condition as part of the GSA process that shows 23 the knowledge of the company and its officers about -- 24 around the GAAP exceptions that people are now claiming they 25 are not familiar with. So that is the thread that pulls us
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3010 1 course of conduct, use of the statements of financial 2 condition and business agreed that the date of the RFP is 3 outside the statute of limitations, but that doesn't mean 4 it's not relevant for the Court to determine what, if any, 5 equitable relief to award. 6 MR. KISE: But which statements of financial 7 condition? This is the 2008 -- by his own statement, this 8 is the 2008 to 2010 statements of financial condition which 9 heretofore have never been mentioned in the course of this 10 proceeding, so I'm not sure are we going to go back there? 11 I know that we're -- there is no calendar or clock 12 associated with any of this, so -- but that's a new -- 2008 13 to 2010 is certainly a new allegation. 14 MR. HAREN: I would add there is an allegation in 15 the complaint that refers generally to the Old Post Office, 16 but the statement in the 202 statement is not our statement. 17 It was a statement from the defendants describing the 18 submission of these statements to the GSA and that is what 19 we did not dispute, so you put it in your 202 statement. 20 MR. KISE: Again , there is a big difference. 21 THE COURT: That's the banned word, but you can say 22 it again. 23 MR. KISE: As I stated before, but just because we 24 said that the 2008 to 2010 statements were submitted to the 25 GSA, okay, they were, but it has no relevance to these	D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3012 1 through and that this is the process that eventually leads 2 to the loan that is in very much indeed apart of this case. 3 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Pattern and 4 practice to repeat myself or again bars claims not in 5 evidence. 6 And five-minute warning. 7 Overruled. 8 MR. HAREN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 1288. 9 THE COURT: And notice which is part of pattern and 10 practice. 11 MR. KISE: Your Honor, just so I'm clear on the 12 ruling. 13 THE COURT: Yes. 14 MR. KISE: Part pattern of practice of what, 2008 15 to 2010? 16 THE COURT: Of the Trump Organization. 17 MR. KISE: But there's not been any allegation that 18 the 2008 to 2010 statements of financial condition have any 19 issues associated with them. 20 THE COURT: Well, would there be? 21 MR. WALLACE: But there is and there is a 22 discussion of the GAAP exceptions that carries through this 23 entire period, including 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, all the way 24 into the future and the GAAP exceptions that are contained 25 within the Statement of Financial Condition are very much a

1 question that is open to debate at this point and goes to 2 the knowledge and intent of the individuals that were 3 executives of the Trump Organization and the fact that we 4 can establish before the statute of limitations period 5 knowledge of certain individuals is certainly relevant 6 evidence. 7 THE COURT: That you can certainly do. 8 MR. KISE: But, again, as to the 2008 to 2010 9 financial statement -- statements of financial condition 10 that's the key distinction here. Whatever took place before 11 2011 wasn't ever part of the case. I mean, are we going -- 12 I'm just -- I don't see the thread that Mr. Wallace -- with 13 all due respect, I'm not exactly sure what he's talking 14 about because those had never been challenged as having any 15 issues. There was no testimony from Mr. Bender, there was 16 no testimony from any witness about those. 17 Does the case now involve the defense of the 2008 18 to 2010 statements of financial condition? 19 THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, last word. 20 MR. WALLACE: I will just say that the complaints 21 or summary judgment papers there has been a through line 22 that there has been a discussion amongst the members of the 23 Trump Organization about the GAAP exceptions in the 24 statements of financial condition. The defendants have 25 claimed very few people were even aware of these statements	1 (Whereupon, the trial proceedings are adjourned to 2 November 1, 2023 at 10:00 a m.) 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

1 within the company. They don't know about the GAAP 2 exceptions, so it's relevant to that. 3 I would also note from a timing perspective, this 4 colloquy that we're having here is exactly what we're 5 worried about when it's objection overruled. Let's talk 6 about it for another ten minutes. 7 I think we've made our case as to why this will 8 connect and we're entitled to put the evidence in and show 9 that connection. 10 THE COURT: I try to strike a balance between not 11 wasting time when I've made a ruling and explaining the 12 ruling and allowing a record to be made and Counsel to say 13 what he has to say. But we're basically done for today, 14 anyway, so what time are we resuming tomorrow? Let me 15 guess, 10 o'clock with this witness? 16 Objection overruled, by the way. 17 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, can we have a sidebar? 18 THE COURT: Sure. We'll have a front bar. 19 And I'll order the witness not to discuss this case 20 or his testimony or anything related to that with anybody 21 until you're finished testifying team. 22 THE WITNESS: Okay, Your Honor. 23 THE COURT: Thank you. 24 (Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness 25 stand.)
